John 9:17 So they spoke to the blind man again, ‘What have you to say about him yourself, now that he has opened your eyes?’ The man answered, ‘He is a prophet.’

John 9:18 However, the Jews would not believe that the man had been blind without first sending for the parents of the man who had gained his sight and

John 9:19 asking them, ‘Is this man really the son of yours who you say was born blind? If so, how is it that he is now able to see?’

John 9:20 His parents answered, ‘We know he is our son and we know he was born blind,

John 9:21 but how he can see, we don’t know, nor who opened his eyes. Ask him. He is old enough: let him speak for himself.’

John 9:22 His parents spoke like this out of fear of the Jews, who had already agreed to ban from the synagogue anyone who should acknowledge Jesus as the Christ.

John 9:23 This was why his parents said, ‘He is old enough; ask him.’

John 9:24 So the Jews sent for the man again and said to him, ‘Give glory to God! We are satisfied that this man is a sinner.’

John 9:25 The man answered, ‘Whether he is a sinner I don’t know; all I know is that I was blind and now I can see.’

John 9:26 They said to him, ‘What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?’

John 9:27 He replied, ‘I have told you once and you wouldn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it all again? Do you want to become his disciples yourselves?’

John 9:28 At this they hurled abuse at him, ‘It is you who are his disciple, we are disciples of Moses:

John 9:29 we know that God spoke to Moses, but as for this man, we don’t know where he comes from.’

John 9:30 The man replied, ‘That is just what is so amazing! You don’t know where he comes from and he has opened my eyes!

John 9:31 We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but God does listen to people who are devout and do his will.

John 9:32 Ever since the world began it is unheard of for anyone to open the eyes of someone born blind;

John 9:33 if this man were not from God, he wouldn’t have been able to do anything.’

John 9:34 They retorted, ‘Are you trying to teach us, and you a sinner through and through ever since you were born!’ And they ejected him.

John 9:35 Jesus heard they had ejected him, and when he found him he said to him, ‘Do you believe in the Son of man?’

John 9:36 ‘Sir,’ the man replied, ‘tell me who he is so that I may believe in him.’

John 9:37 Jesus said, ‘You have seen him; he is speaking to you.’

John 9:38 The man said, ‘Lord, I believe,’ and worshipped him.

John 9:39 Jesus said: It is for judgement that I have come into this world, so that those without sight may see and those with sight may become blind.

John 9:40 Hearing this, some Pharisees who were present said to him, ‘So we are blind, are we?’

John 9:41 Jesus replied: If you were blind, you would not be guilty, but since you say, ‘We can see,’ your guilt remains.

John 10:1 ‘In all truth I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold through the gate, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a bandit.

John 10:2 He who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the flock;

John 10:3 the gatekeeper lets him in, the sheep hear his voice, one by one he calls his own sheep and leads them out.

John 10:4 When he has brought out all those that are his, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow because they know his voice.

John 10:5 They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him because they do not recognise the voice of strangers.’

John 10:6 Jesus told them this parable but they failed to understand what he was saying to them.

John 10:7 So Jesus spoke to them again: In all truth I tell you, I am the gate of the sheepfold.

John 10:8 All who have come before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep took no notice of them.

John 10:9 I am the gate. Anyone who enters through me will be safe: such a one will go in and out and will find pasture.

John 10:10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come so that they may have life and have it to the full.

John 10:11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.

John 10:12 The hired man, since he is not the shepherd and the sheep do not belong to him, abandons the sheep as soon as he sees a wolf coming, and runs away, and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep;

John 10:13 he runs away because he is only a hired man and has no concern for the sheep.

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me,

John 10:15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep.

John 10:16 And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and I must lead these too. They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock, one shepherd.

John 10:17 The Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

John 10:18 No one takes it from me; I lay it down of my own free will, and as I have power to lay it down, so I have power to take it up again; and this is the command I have received from my Father.

John 10:19 These words caused a fresh division among the Jews.

John 10:20 Many said, 'He is possessed, he is raving; why do you listen to him?'

John 10:21 Others said, 'These are not the words of a man possessed by a devil: could a devil open the eyes of the blind?'

John 10:22 It was the time of the feast of Dedication in Jerusalem. It was winter,

John 10:23 and Jesus was in the Temple walking up and down in the Portico of Solomon.

John 10:24 The Jews gathered round him and said, 'How much longer are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us openly.'

John 10:25 Jesus replied: I have told you, but you do not believe. The works I do in my Father's name are my witness;

John 10:26 but you do not believe, because you are no sheep of mine.

John 10:27 The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice; I know them and they follow me.

John 10:28 I give them eternal life; they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from my hand.

John 10:29 The Father, for what he has given me, is greater than anyone, and no one can steal anything from the Father's hand.

John 10:30 The Father and I are one.

John 10:31 The Jews fetched stones to stone him,

John 10:32 so Jesus said to them, 'I have shown you many good works from my Father; for which of these are you stoning me?'

John 10:33 The Jews answered him, 'We are stoning you, not for doing a good work, but for blasphemy; though you are only a man, you claim to be God.'

John 10:34 Jesus answered: Is it not written in your Law: I said, you are gods?

John 10:35 So it uses the word 'gods' of those people to whom the word of God was addressed—and scripture cannot be set aside.

John 10:36 Yet to someone whom the Father has consecrated and sent into the world you say, 'You are blaspheming' because I said, 'I am Son of God.'

John 10:37 If I am not doing my Father's work, there is no need to believe me;

John 10:38 but if I am doing it, then even if you refuse to believe in me, at least believe in the work I do; then you will know for certain that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.

John 10:39 They again wanted to arrest him then, but he eluded their clutches.

John 10:40 He went back again to the far side of the Jordan to the district where John had been baptising at first and he stayed there.

John 10:41 Many people who came to him said, ‘John gave no signs, but all he said about this man was true’;

John 10:42 and many of them believed in him.

John 11:1 There was a man named Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister, Martha, and he was ill.

John 11:3 The sisters sent this message to Jesus, ‘Lord, the man you love is ill.’

John 11:4 On receiving the message, Jesus said, ‘This sickness will not end in death, but it is for God’s glory so that through it the Son of God may be glorified.’

John 11:5 Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus,

John 11:6 yet when he heard that he was ill he stayed where he was for two more days

John 11:7 before saying to the disciples, ‘Let us go back to Judaea.’

John 11:8 The disciples said, ‘Rabbi, it is not long since the Jews were trying to stone you; are you going back there again?’

John 11:9 Jesus replied: Are there not twelve hours in the day? No one who walks in the daytime stumbles, having the light of this world to see by;

John 11:11 He said that and then added, ‘Our friend Lazarus is at rest; I am going to wake him.’

John 11:12 The disciples said to him, ‘Lord, if he is at rest he will be saved.’

John 11:13 Jesus was speaking of the death of Lazarus, but they thought that by ‘rest’ he meant ‘sleep’;

John 11:14 so Jesus put it plainly, ‘Lazarus is dead;

John 11:15 and for your sake I am glad I was not there because now you will believe. But let us go to him.’

John 11:16 Then Thomas—known as the Twin—said to the other disciples, ‘Let us also go to die with him.’

John 11:17 On arriving, Jesus found that Lazarus had been in the tomb for four days already.

John 11:18 Bethany is only about two miles from Jerusalem,

John 11:19 and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother.

John 11:20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming she went to meet him. Mary remained sitting in the house.

John 11:21 Martha said to Jesus, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died,

John 11:22 but even now I know that God will grant whatever you ask of him.'

John 11:23 Jesus said to her, 'Your brother will rise again.'

John 11:24 Martha said, 'I know he will rise again at the resurrection on the last day.'

John 11:25 Jesus said: I am the resurrection. Anyone who believes in me, even though that person dies, will live,

John 11:26 and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?

John 11:27 'Yes, Lord,' she said, 'I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who was to come into this world.'

John 11:28 When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying in a low voice, 'The Master is here and wants to see you.'

John 11:29 Hearing this, Mary got up quickly and went to him.

John 11:30 Jesus had not yet come into the village; he was still at the place where Martha had met him.

John 11:31 When the Jews who were in the house comforting Mary saw her get up so quickly and go out, they followed her, thinking that she was going to the tomb to weep there.

John 11:32 Mary went to Jesus, and as soon as she saw him she threw herself at his feet, saying, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.'

John 11:33 At the sight of her tears, and those of the Jews who had come with her, Jesus was greatly distressed, and with a profound sigh he said,

John 11:34 'Where have you put him?' They said, 'Lord, come and see.'

John 11:35 Jesus wept;

John 11:36 and the Jews said, 'See how much he loved him!'

John 11:37 But there were some who remarked, 'He opened the eyes of the blind man. Could he not have prevented this man's death?'

John 11:38 Sighing again, Jesus reached the tomb: it was a cave with a stone to close the opening.

John 11:39 Jesus said, 'Take the stone away.' Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, 'Lord, by now he will smell; this is the fourth day since he died.'

John 11:40 Jesus replied, 'Have I not told you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?'

John 11:41 So they took the stone away. Then Jesus lifted up his eyes and said: Father, I thank you for hearing my prayer.

John 11:42 I myself knew that you hear me always, but I speak for the sake of all these who are standing around me, so that they may believe it was you who sent me.

John 11:43 When he had said this, he cried in a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!'

John 11:44 The dead man came out, his feet and hands bound with strips of material, and a cloth over his face. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, let him go free.'

John 11:45 Many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary, and had seen what he did, believed in him,

John 11:46 but some of them went to the Pharisees to tell them what Jesus had done.

John 11:47 Then the chief priests and Pharisees called a meeting. 'Here is this man working all these signs,' they said, 'and what action are we taking?

John 11:48 If we let him go on in this way everybody will believe in him, and the Romans will come and suppress the Holy Place and our nation.'

John 11:49 One of them, Caiaphas, the high priest that year, said, 'You do not seem to have grasped the situation at all;

John 11:50 you fail to see that it is to your advantage that one man should die for the people, rather than that the whole nation should perish.'

John 11:51 He did not speak in his own person, but as high priest of that year he was prophesying that Jesus was to die for the nation-

John 11:52 and not for the nation only, but also to gather together into one the scattered children of God.

John 11:53 From that day onwards they were determined to kill him.

John 11:54 So Jesus no longer went about openly among the Jews, but left the district for a town called Ephraim, in the country bordering on the desert, and stayed there with his disciples.

John 11:55 The Jewish Passover was drawing near, and many of the country people who had gone up to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves

John 11:56 were looking out for Jesus, saying to one another as they stood about in the Temple, 'What do you think? Will he come to the festival or not?'

John 11:57 The chief priests and Pharisees had by now given their orders: anyone who knew where he was must inform them so that they could arrest him.

John 12:1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus went to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:2 They gave a dinner for him there; Martha waited on them and Lazarus was among those at table.

John 12:3 Mary brought in a pound of very costly ointment, pure nard, and with it anointed the feet of Jesus, wiping them with her hair; the house was filled with the scent of the ointment.

John 12:4 Then Judas Iscariot—one of his disciples, the man who was to betray him-said,

John 12:5 'Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?'

John 12:6 He said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he was in charge of the common fund and used to help himself to the contents.

John 12:7 So Jesus said, 'Leave her alone; let her keep it for the day of my burial.

John 12:8 You have the poor with you always, you will not always have me.'

John 12:9 Meanwhile a large number of Jews heard that he was there and came not only on account of Jesus but also to see Lazarus whom he had raised from the dead.

John 12:10 Then the chief priests decided to kill Lazarus as well,

John 12:11 since it was on his account that many of the Jews were leaving them and believing in Jesus.

John 12:12 The next day the great crowd of people who had come up for the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem.

John 12:13 They took branches of palm and went out to receive him, shouting: 'Hosanna! Blessed is he who is coming in the name of the Lord, the king of Israel.'

John 12:14 Jesus found a young donkey and mounted it—as scripture says:

John 12:16 At first his disciples did not understand this, but later, after Jesus had been glorified, they remembered that this had been written about him and that this was what had happened to him.

John 12:17 The crowd who had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead kept bearing witness to it;

John 12:18 this was another reason why the crowd came out to receive him: they had heard that he had given this sign.

John 12:19 Then the Pharisees said to one another, 'You see, you are making no progress; look, the whole world has gone after him!'

John 12:20 Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks.

John 12:21 These approached Philip, who came from Bethsaida in Galilee, and put this request to him, 'Sir, we should like to see Jesus.'

John 12:22 Philip went to tell Andrew, and Andrew and Philip together went to tell Jesus.

John 12:23 Jesus replied to them: Now the hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified.

John 12:24 In all truth I tell you, unless a wheat grain falls into the earth and dies, it remains only a single grain; but if it dies it yields a rich harvest.

John 12:25 Anyone who loves his life loses it; anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

John 12:26 Whoever serves me, must follow me, and my servant will be with me wherever I am. If anyone serves me, my Father will honour him.

John 12:27 Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say: Father, save me from this hour? But it is for this very reason that I have come to this hour.

John 12:28 Father, glorify your name! A voice came from heaven, 'I have glorified it, and I will again glorify it.'

John 12:29 The crowd standing by, who heard this, said it was a clap of thunder; others said, 'It was an angel speaking to him.'

John 12:30 Jesus answered, 'It was not for my sake that this voice came, but for yours.

John 12:31 'Now sentence is being passed on this world; now the prince of this world is to be driven out.

John 12:32 And when I am lifted up from the earth, I shall draw all people to myself.'

John 12:33 By these words he indicated the kind of death he would die.

John 12:34 The crowd answered, 'The Law has taught us that the Christ will remain for ever. So how can you say, "The Son of man must be lifted up"? Who is this Son of man?'

John 12:35 Jesus then said: The light will be with you only a little longer now. Go on your way while you have the light, or darkness will overtake you, and nobody who walks in the dark knows where he is going.

John 12:36 While you still have the light, believe in the light so that you may become children of light. Having said this, Jesus left them and was hidden from their sight.

John 12:37 Though they had been present when he gave so many signs, they did not believe in him;

John 12:38 this was to fulfil the words of the prophet Isaiah: Lord, who has given credence to what they have heard from us, and who has seen in it a revelation of the Lord’s arm?

John 12:39 Indeed, they were unable to believe because, as Isaiah says again:

John 12:40 He has blinded their eyes, he has hardened their heart, to prevent them from using their eyes to see, using their heart to understand, changing their ways and being healed by me.

John 12:41 Isaiah said this because he saw his glory, and his words referred to Jesus.

John 12:42 And yet there were many who did believe in him, even among the leading men, but they did not admit it, because of the Pharisees and for fear of being banned from the synagogue:

John 12:44 Jesus declared publicly: Whoever believes in me believes not in me but in the one who sent me,

John 12:45 and whoever sees me, sees the one who sent me.

John 12:46 I have come into the world as light, to prevent anyone who believes in me from staying in the dark any more.

John 12:47 If anyone hears my words and does not keep them faithfully, it is not I who shall judge such a person, since I have come not to judge the world, but to save the world:

John 12:48 anyone who rejects me and refuses my words has his judge already: the word itself that I have spoken will be his judge on the last day.

John 12:49 For I have not spoken of my own accord; but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and what to speak,

John 12:50 and I know that his commands mean eternal life. And therefore what the Father has told me is what I speak.

John 13:1 Before the festival of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that his hour had come to pass from this world to the Father, having loved those who were his in the world, loved them to the end.

John 13:2 They were at supper, and the devil had already put it into the mind of Judas Iscariot son of Simon, to betray him.

John 13:3 Jesus knew that the Father had put everything into his hands, and that he had come from God and was returning to God,

John 13:5 he then poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel he was wearing.

John 13:6 He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, 'Lord, are you going to wash my feet?'

John 13:7 Jesus answered, 'At the moment you do not know what I am doing, but later you will understand.'

John 13:8 'Never!' said Peter. 'You shall never wash my feet.' Jesus replied, 'If I do not wash you, you can have no share with me.' Simon Peter said,

John 13:9 'Well then, Lord, not only my feet, but my hands and my head as well!'

John 13:10 Jesus said, 'No one who has had a bath needs washing, such a person is clean all over. You too are clean, though not all of you are.'

John 13:11 He knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said, 'though not all of you are'.

John 13:12 When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments again he went back to the table. 'Do you understand', he said, 'what I have done to you?

John 13:13 You call me Master and Lord, and rightly; so I am.

John 13:14 If I, then, the Lord and Master, have washed your feet, you must wash each other's feet.

John 13:15 I have given you an example so that you may copy what I have done to you.

John 13:16 'In all truth I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, no messenger is greater than the one who sent him.

John 13:17 'Now that you know this, blessed are you if you behave accordingly.

John 13:18 I am not speaking about all of you: I know the ones I have chosen; but what scripture says must be fulfilled: 'He who shares my table takes advantage of me.

John 13:19 I tell you this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe that I am He.

John 13:20 In all truth I tell you, whoever welcomes the one I send, welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me, welcomes the one who sent me.'

John 13:21 Having said this, Jesus was deeply disturbed and declared, 'In all truth I tell you, one of you is going to betray me.'

John 13:22 The disciples looked at each other, wondering whom he meant.

John 13:23 The disciple Jesus loved was reclining next to Jesus;

John 13:24 Simon Peter signed to him and said, ‘Ask who it is he means,’

John 13:25 so leaning back close to Jesus’ chest he said, ‘Who is it, Lord?’

John 13:26 Jesus answered, ‘It is the one to whom I give the piece of bread that I dip in the dish.’ And when he had dipped the piece of bread he gave it to Judas son of Simon Iscariot.

John 13:27 At that instant, after Judas had taken the bread, Satan entered him. Jesus then said, ‘What you are going to do, do quickly.’

John 13:28 None of the others at table understood why he said this.

John 13:29 Since Judas had charge of the common fund, some of them thought Jesus was telling him, ‘Buy what we need for the festival,’ or telling him to give something to the poor.

John 13:30 As soon as Judas had taken the piece of bread he went out. It was night.

John 13:31 When he had gone, Jesus said: Now has the Son of man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified.

John 13:32 If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon.

John 13:33 Little children, I shall be with you only a little longer. You will look for me, and, as I told the Jews, where I am going, you cannot come.

John 13:34 I give you a new commandment: love one another; you must love one another just as I have loved you.

John 13:35 It is by your love for one another, that everyone will recognise you as my disciples.

John 13:36 Simon Peter said, ‘Lord, where are you going?’ Jesus replied, ‘Now you cannot follow me where I am going, but later you shall follow me.’

John 13:37 Peter said to him, ‘Why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.’

John 13:38 ‘Lay down your life for me?’ answered Jesus. ‘In all truth I tell you, before the cock crows you will have disowned me three times.’

John 14:1 Do not let your hearts be troubled. You trust in God, trust also in me.

John 14:2 In my Father’s house there are many places to live in; otherwise I would have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, John 14:3 and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you to myself, so that you may be with me where I am.

John 14:4 You know the way to the place where I am going.

John 14:5 Thomas said, ‘Lord, we do not know where you are going, so how can we know the way?’

John 14:6 Jesus said: I am the Way; I am Truth and Life. No one can come to the Father except through me.

John 14:7 If you know me, you will know my Father too. From this moment you know him and have seen him.

John 14:8 Philip said, ‘Lord, show us the Father and then we shall be satisfied.’ Jesus said to him,

John 14:9 ‘Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? ‘Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father, so how can you say, “Show us the Father”?

John 14:10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? What I say to you I do not speak of my own accord: it is the Father, living in me, who is doing his works.

John 14:11 You must believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; or at least believe it on the evidence of these works.

John 14:12 In all truth I tell you, whoever believes in me will perform the same works as I do myself, and will perform even greater works, because I am going to the Father.

John 14:13 Whatever you ask in my name I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

John 14:14 If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it.

John 14:15 If you love me you will keep my commandments.

John 14:16 I shall ask the Father, and he will give you another Paraclete to be with you for ever,

John 14:17 the Spirit of truth whom the world can never accept since it neither sees nor knows him; but you know him, because he is with you, he is in you.

John 14:18 I shall not leave you orphans; I shall come to you.

John 14:19 In a short time the world will no longer see me; but you will see that I live and you also will live.

John 14:20 On that day you will know that I am in my Father and you in me and I in you.

John 14:21 Whoever holds to my commandments and keeps them is the one who loves me; and whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I shall love him and reveal myself to him.’

John 14:22 Judas—not Judas Iscariot—said to him, ‘Lord, what has happened, that you intend to show yourself to us and not to the world?’

John 14:23 Jesus replied: Anyone who loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make a home in him.

John 14:24 Anyone who does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not my own: it is the word of the Father who sent me.

John 14:25 I have said these things to you while still with you;

John 14:26 but the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you.

John 14:27 Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace which the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.

John 14:28 You heard me say: I am going away and shall return. If you loved me you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

John 14:29 I have told you this now, before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.

John 14:30 I shall not talk to you much longer, because the prince of this world is on his way. He has no power over me,

John 14:31 but the world must recognise that I love the Father and that I act just as the Father commanded. Come now, let us go.

John 15:1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.

John 15:2 Every branch in me that bears no fruit he cuts away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes to make it bear even more.

John 15:3 You are clean already, by means of the word that I have spoken to you.

John 15:4 Remain in me, as I in you. As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself, unless it remains part of the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me.

John 15:5 I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me, with me in him, bears fruit in plenty; for cut off from me you can do nothing.

John 15:6 Anyone who does not remain in me is thrown away like a branch—and withers; these branches are collected and thrown on the fire and are burnt.

John 15:7 If you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for whatever you please and you will get it.

John 15:8 It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit and be my disciples.

John 15:9 I have loved you just as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love.

John 15:10 If you keep my commandments you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

John 15:11 I have told you this so that my own joy may be in you and your joy be complete.

John 15:12 This is my commandment: love one another, as I have loved you.

John 15:13 No one can have greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

John 15:14 You are my friends, if you do what I command you.

John 15:15 I shall no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know the master's business; I call you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.

John 15:16 You did not choose me, no, I chose you; and I commissioned you to go out and to bear fruit, fruit that will last; so that the Father will give you anything you ask him in my name.

John 15:17 My command to you is to love one another.

John 15:18 If the world hates you, you must realise that it hated me before it hated you.

John 15:19 If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you do not belong to the world, because my choice of you has drawn you out of the world, that is why the world hates you.

John 15:20 Remember the words I said to you: A servant is not greater than his master. If they persecuted me, they will persecute you too; if they kept my word, they will keep yours as well.

John 15:21 But it will be on my account that they will do all this to you, because they do not know the one who sent me.

John 15:22 If I had not come, if I had not spoken to them, they would have been blameless; but as it is they have no excuse for their sin.

John 15:23 Anyone who hates me hates my Father.

John 15:24 If I had not performed such works among them as no one else has ever done, they would be blameless; but as it is, in spite of what they have seen, they hate both me and my Father.

John 15:25 But all this was only to fulfil the words written in their Law: They hated me without reason.

John 15:26 When the Paraclete comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who issues from the Father, he will be my witness.

John 15:27 And you too will be witnesses, because you have been with me from the beginning.

John 16:1 I have told you all this so that you may not fall away.

John 16:2 They will expel you from the synagogues, and indeed the time is coming when anyone who kills you will think he is doing a holy service to God.

John 16:3 They will do these things because they have never known either the Father or me.

John 16:4 But I have told you all this, so that when the time for it comes you may remember that I told you. I did not tell you this from the beginning, because I was with you;

John 16:5 but now I am going to the one who sent me. Not one of you asks, 'Where are you going?'

John 16:6 Yet you are sad at heart because I have told you this.

John 16:7 Still, I am telling you the truth: it is for your own good that I am going, because unless I go, the Paraclete will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.

John 16:8 And when he comes, he will show the world how wrong it was, about sin, and about who was in the right, and about judgement:

John 16:9 about sin: in that they refuse to believe in me;

John 16:10 about who was in the right: in that I am going to the Father and you will see me no more;

John 16:11 about judgement: in that the prince of this world is already condemned.

John 16:12 I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you to bear now.

John 16:13 However, when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking of his own accord, but will say only what he has been told; and he will reveal to you the things to come.

John 16:14 He will glorify me, since all he reveals to you will be taken from what is mine.

John 16:15 Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: all he reveals to you will be taken from what is mine.

John 16:16 In a short time you will no longer see me, and then a short time later you will see me again.

John 16:17 Then some of his disciples said to one another, 'What does he mean, "In a short time you will no longer see me, and then a short time later you will see me again," and, "I am going to the Father"?

John 16:18 What is this "short time"? We don't know what he means.'

John 16:19 Jesus knew that they wanted to question him, so he said, 'You are asking one another what I meant by saying, "In a short time you will no longer see me, and then a short time later you will see me again.”

John 16:20 ‘In all truth I tell you, you will be weeping and wailing while the world will rejoice; you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn to joy.

John 16:21 A woman in childbirth suffers, because her time has come; but when she has given birth to the child she forgets the suffering in her joy that a human being has been born into the world.

John 16:22 So it is with you: you are sad now, but I shall see you again, and your hearts will be full of joy, and that joy no one shall take from you.

John 16:23 When that day comes, you will not ask me any questions. In all truth I tell you, anything you ask from the Father he will grant in my name.

John 16:24 Until now you have not asked anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and so your joy will be complete.

John 16:25 I have been telling you these things in veiled language. The hour is coming when I shall no longer speak to you in veiled language but tell you about the Father in plain words.

John 16:26 When that day comes you will ask in my name; and I do not say that I shall pray to the Father for you,

John 16:27 because the Father himself loves you for loving me, and believing that I came from God.

John 16:28 I came from the Father and have come into the world and now I am leaving the world to go to the Father.’

John 16:29 His disciples said, ‘Now you are speaking plainly and not using veiled language.

John 16:30 Now we see that you know everything and need not wait for questions to be put into words; because of this we believe that you came from God.’

John 16:31 Jesus answered them: Do you believe at last?

John 16:32 Listen; the time will come—indeed it has come already—when you are going to be scattered, each going his own way and leaving me alone. And yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

John 16:33 I have told you all this so that you may find peace in me. In the world you will have hardship, but be courageous: I have conquered the world.

John 17:1 After saying this, Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said: Father, the hour has come: glorify your Son so that your Son may glorify you;

John 17:2 so that, just as you have given him power over all humanity, he may give eternal life to all those you have entrusted to him.

John 17:3 And eternal life is this: to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

John 17:4 I have glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do.

John 17:5 Now, Father, glorify me with that glory I had with you before ever the world existed.

John 17:6 I have revealed your name to those whom you took from the world to give me. They were yours and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word.

John 17:7 Now at last they have recognised that all you have given me comes from you

John 17:8 for I have given them the teaching you gave to me, and they have indeed accepted it and know for certain that I came from you, and have believed that it was you who sent me.

John 17:9 It is for them that I pray. I am not praying for the world but for those you have given me, because they belong to you.

John 17:10 All I have is yours and all you have is mine, and in them I am glorified.

John 17:11 I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep those you have given me true to your name, so that they may be one like us.

John 17:12 While I was with them, I kept those you had given me true to your name. I have watched over them and not one is lost except one who was destined to be lost, and this was to fulfil the scriptures.

John 17:13 But now I am coming to you and I say these things in the world to share my joy with them to the full.

John 17:14 I passed your word on to them, and the world hated them, because they belong to the world no more than I belong to the world.

John 17:15 I am not asking you to remove them from the world, but to protect them from the Evil One.

John 17:16 They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

John 17:18 As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world,

John 17:19 and for their sake I consecrate myself so that they too may be consecrated in truth.

John 17:20 I pray not only for these but also for those who through their teaching will come to believe in me.

John 17:21 May they all be one, just as, Father, you are in me and I am in you, so that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe it was you who sent me.

John 17:22 I have given them the glory you gave to me, that they may be one as we are one.

John 17:23 With me in them and you in me, may they be so perfected in unity that the world will recognise that it was you who sent me and that you have loved them as you have loved me.

John 17:24 Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, so that they may always see my glory which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

John 17:25 Father, Upright One, the world has not known you, but I have known you, and these have known that you have sent me.

John 17:26 I have made your name known to them and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and so that I may be in them.

John 18:1 After he had said all this, Jesus left with his disciples and crossed the Kidron valley where there was a garden into which he went with his disciples.

John 18:2 Judas the traitor knew the place also, since Jesus had often met his disciples there,

John 18:3 so Judas brought the cohort to this place together with guards sent by the chief priests and the Pharisees, all with lanterns and torches and weapons.

John 18:4 Knowing everything that was to happen to him, Jesus came forward and said, 'Who are you looking for?'

John 18:5 They answered, 'Jesus the Nazarene.' He said, 'I am he.' Now Judas the traitor was standing among them.

John 18:6 When Jesus said to them, 'I am he,' they moved back and fell on the ground.

John 18:7 He asked them a second time, 'Who are you looking for?' They said, 'Jesus the Nazarene.'

John 18:8 Jesus replied, 'I have told you that I am he. If I am the one you are looking for, let these others go.'

John 18:9 This was to fulfil the words he had spoken, 'Not one of those you gave me have I lost.'

John 18:10 Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

John 18:11 Jesus said to Peter, 'Put your sword back in its scabbard; am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?'

John 18:12 The cohort and its tribune and the Jewish guards seized Jesus and bound him.

John 18:13 They took him first to Annas, because Annas was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

John 18:14 It was Caiaphas who had counselled the Jews, 'It is better for one man to die for the people.'

John 18:15 Simon Peter, with another disciple, followed Jesus. This disciple, who was known to the high priest, went with Jesus into the high priest's palace,

John 18:16 but Peter stayed outside the door. So the other disciple, the one known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the door-keeper and brought Peter in.

John 18:17 The girl on duty at the door said to Peter, 'Aren't you another of that man's disciples?' He answered, 'I am not.'

John 18:18 Now it was cold, and the servants and guards had lit a charcoal fire and were standing there warming themselves; so Peter stood there too, warming himself with the others.

John 18:19 The high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

John 18:20 Jesus answered, 'I have spoken openly for all the world to hear; I have always taught in the synagogue and in the Temple where all the Jews meet together; I have said nothing in secret.

John 18:21 Why ask me? Ask my hearers what I taught; they know what I said.'

John 18:22 At these words, one of the guards standing by gave Jesus a slap in the face, saying, 'Is that the way you answer the high priest?'

John 18:23 Jesus replied, 'If there is some offence in what I said, point it out; but if not, why do you strike me?'

John 18:24 Then Annas sent him, bound, to Caiaphas the high priest.

John 18:25 As Simon Peter stood there warming himself, someone said to him, 'Aren't you another of his disciples?' He denied it saying, 'I am not.'

John 18:26 One of the high priest's servants, a relation of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, 'Didn't I see you in the garden with him?'

John 18:28 They then led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the Praetorium. It was now morning. They did not go into the Praetorium themselves to avoid becoming defiled and unable to eat the Passover.

John 18:29 So Pilate came outside to them and said, 'What charge do you bring against this man?' They replied,

John 18:30 'If he were not a criminal, we should not have handed him over to you.'

John 18:31 Pilate said, 'Take him yourselves, and try him by your own Law.' The Jews answered, 'We are not allowed to put anyone to death.'

John 18:32 This was to fulfil the words Jesus had spoken indicating the way he was going to die.

John 18:33 So Pilate went back into the Praetorium and called Jesus to him and asked him, 'Are you the king of the Jews?'

John 18:34 Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others said it to you about me?'

John 18:35 Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?'

John 18:36 Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. As it is, my kingdom does not belong here.'

John 18:37 Pilate said, 'So, then you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'It is you who say that I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this, to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

John 18:38 'Truth?' said Pilate. 'What is that?' And so saying he went out again to the Jews and said, 'I find no case against him.

John 18:39 But according to a custom of yours I should release one prisoner at the Passover; would you like me, then, to release for you the king of the Jews?'

John 18:40 At this they shouted, 'Not this man,' they said, 'but Barabbas.' Barabbas was a bandit.

John 19:1 Pilate then had Jesus taken away and scourged;

John 19:2 and after this, the soldiers twisted some thorns into a crown and put it on his head and dressed him in a purple robe.

John 19:3 They kept coming up to him and saying, 'Hail, king of the Jews!' and slapping him in the face.

John 19:4 Pilate came outside again and said to them, 'Look, I am going to bring him out to you to let you see that I find no case against him.'

John 19:5 Jesus then came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said, 'Here is the man.'

John 19:6 When they saw him, the chief priests and the guards shouted, 'Crucify him! Crucify him!' Pilate said, 'Take him yourselves and crucify him: I find no case against him.'

John 19:7 The Jews replied, 'We have a Law, and according to that Law he ought to be put to death, because he has claimed to be Son of God.'

John 19:9 Re-entering the Praetorium, he said to Jesus, 'Where do you come from?' But Jesus made no answer.

John 19:10 Pilate then said to him, 'Are you refusing to speak to me? Surely you know I have power to release you and I have power to crucify you?'

John 19:11 Jesus replied, 'You would have no power over me at all if it had not been given you from above; that is why the man who handed me over to you has the greater guilt.'

John 19:12 From that moment Pilate was anxious to set him free, but the Jews shouted, 'If you set him free you are no friend of Caesar's; anyone who makes himself king is defying Caesar.'

John 19:13 Hearing these words, Pilate had Jesus brought out, and seated him on the chair of judgement at a place called the Pavement, in Hebrew Gabbatha.

John 19:14 It was the Day of Preparation, about the sixth hour. 'Here is your king,' said Pilate to the Jews.

John 19:15 But they shouted, 'Away with him, away with him, crucify him.' Pilate said, 'Shall I crucify your king?' The chief priests answered, 'We have no king except Caesar.'

John 19:16 So at that Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified. They then took charge of Jesus,

John 19:17 and carrying his own cross he went out to the Place of the Skull or, as it is called in Hebrew, Golgotha,

John 19:18 where they crucified him with two others, one on either side, Jesus being in the middle.

John 19:19 Pilate wrote out a notice and had it fixed to the cross; it ran: 'Jesus the Nazarene, King of the Jews'.

John 19:20 This notice was read by many of the Jews, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the writing was in Hebrew, Latin and Greek.

John 19:21 So the Jewish chief priests said to Pilate, 'You should not write "King of the Jews", but that the man said, "I am King of the Jews". '

John 19:22 Pilate answered, 'What I have written, I have written.'

John 19:23 When the soldiers had finished crucifying Jesus they took his clothing and divided it into four shares, one for each soldier. His undergarment was seamless, woven in one piece from neck to hem;

John 19:24 so they said to one another, 'Instead of tearing it, let's throw dice to decide who is to have it.' In this way the words of scripture were fulfilled: They divide my garments among them and cast lots for my clothes. That is what the soldiers did.

John 19:26 Seeing his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing near her, Jesus said to his mother, 'Woman, this is your son.'

John 19:27 Then to the disciple he said, 'This is your mother.' And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

John 19:28 After this, Jesus knew that everything had now been completed and, so that the scripture should be completely fulfilled, he said: I am thirsty.

John 19:29 A jar full of sour wine stood there; so, putting a sponge soaked in the wine on a hyssop stick, they held it up to his mouth.

John 19:30 After Jesus had taken the wine he said, 'It is fulfilled'; and bowing his head he gave up his spirit.

John 19:31 It was the Day of Preparation, and to avoid the bodies' remaining on the cross during the Sabbath—since that Sabbath was a day of special solemnity—the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken away.

John 19:32 Consequently the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man who had been crucified with him and then of the other.

John 19:33 When they came to Jesus, they saw he was already dead, and so instead of breaking his legs

John 19:34 one of the soldiers pierced his side with a lance; and immediately there came out blood and water.

John 19:35 This is the evidence of one who saw it—true evidence, and he knows that what he says is true—and he gives it so that you may believe as well.

John 19:36 Because all this happened to fulfil the words of scripture: Not one bone of his will be broken;

John 19:37 and again, in another place scripture says: They will look to the one whom they have pierced.

John 19:38 After this, Joseph of Arimathaea, who was a disciple of Jesus—though a secret one because he was afraid of the Jews—asked Pilate to let him remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave permission, so they came and took it away.

John 19:39 Nicodemus came as well—the same one who had first come to Jesus at night-time—and he brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds.

John 19:40 They took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, following the Jewish burial custom.

John 19:41 At the place where he had been crucified there was a garden, and in this garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been buried.

John 19:42 Since it was the Jewish Day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

John 20:1 It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb

John 20:2 and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb,' she said, 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

John 20:3 So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb.

John 20:4 They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first;

John 20:5 he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in.

John 20:6 Simon Peter, following him, also came up, went into the tomb, saw the linen cloths lying on the ground

John 20:7 and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself.

John 20:8 Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed.

John 20:9 Till this moment they had still not understood the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

John 20:10 The disciples then went back home.

John 20:11 But Mary was standing outside near the tomb, weeping. Then, as she wept, she stooped to look inside,

John 20:12 and saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head, the other at the feet.

John 20:13 They said, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' 'They have taken my Lord away,' she replied, 'and I don't know where they have put him.'

John 20:14 As she said this she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, though she did not realise that it was Jesus.

John 20:15 Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said, 'Sir, if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and remove him.'

John 20:16 Jesus said, 'Mary!' She turned round then and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbuni!'—which means Master.

John 20:17 Jesus said to her, 'Do not cling to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to the brothers, and tell them: I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'

John 20:18 So Mary of Magdala told the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord,' and that he had said these things to her.

John 20:19 In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,'

John 20:20 and, after saying this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy at seeing the Lord,

John 20:21 and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

John 20:22 After saying this he breathed on them and said: Receive the Holy Spirit.

John 20:23 If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven; if you retain anyone's sins, they are retained.

John 20:24 Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.

John 20:25 So the other disciples said to him, 'We have seen the Lord,' but he answered, 'Unless I can see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.'

John 20:26 Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you,' he said.

John 20:27 Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Do not be unbelieving any more but believe.'

John 20:28 Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!'

John 20:29 Jesus said to him: You believe because you can see me. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet believe.

John 20:30 There were many other signs that Jesus worked in the sight of the disciples, but they are not recorded in this book.

John 20:31 These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

John 21:1 Later on, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this:

John 21:2 Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together.

John 21:3 Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night.

John 21:4 When it was already light, there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus.

John 21:5 Jesus called out, ‘Haven’t you caught anything, friends?’ And when they answered, ‘No,’

John 21:6 he said, ‘Throw the net out to starboard and you’ll find something.’ So they threw the net out and could not haul it in because of the quantity of fish.

John 21:7 The disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, ‘It is the Lord.’ At these words, ‘It is the Lord,’ Simon Peter tied his outer garment round him (for he had nothing on) and jumped into the water.

John 21:8 The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net with the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land.

John 21:9 As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it.

John 21:10 Jesus said, ‘Bring some of the fish you have just caught.’

John 21:11 Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net ashore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken.

John 21:12 Jesus said to them, ‘Come and have breakfast.’ None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, ‘Who are you?’. They knew quite well it was the Lord.

John 21:13 Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish.

John 21:14 This was the third time that Jesus revealed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead.

John 21:15 When they had eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter, ‘Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?’ He answered, ‘Yes, Lord, you know I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my lambs.’

John 21:16 A second time he said to him, ‘Simon son of John, do you love me?’ He replied, ‘Yes, Lord, you know I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Look after my sheep.’

John 21:17 Then he said to him a third time, ‘Simon son of John, do you love me?’ Peter was hurt that he asked him a third time, ‘Do you love me?’ and said, ‘Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my sheep.

John 21:18 In all truth I tell you, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.’

John 21:19 In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, ‘Follow me.’

John 21:20 Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them—the one who had leant back close to his chest at the supper and had said to him, ‘Lord, who is it that will betray you?’

John 21:21 Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus, ‘What about him, Lord?’

John 21:22 Jesus answered, ‘If I want him to stay behind till I come, what does it matter to you? You are to follow me.’

John 21:23 The rumour then went out among the brothers that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus had not said to Peter, ‘He will not die,’ but, ‘If I want him to stay behind till I come.’

John 21:24 This disciple is the one who vouches for these things and has written them down, and we know that his testimony is true.

John 21:25 There was much else that Jesus did; if it were written down in detail, I do not suppose the world itself would hold all the books that would be written.

Acts

1:1 In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning

Acts 1:2 until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven.

Acts 1:3 He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:4 While at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. ‘It is’, he had said, ‘what you have heard me speak about:

Acts 1:5 John baptised with water but, not many days from now, you are going to be baptised with the Holy Spirit.’

Acts 1:6 Now having met together, they asked him, ‘Lord, has the time come for you to restore the kingdom to Israel?’

Acts 1:7 He replied, ‘It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority,

Acts 1:8 but you will receive the power of the Holy Spirit which will come on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to earth’s remotest end.’

Acts 1:9 As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight.

Acts 1:10 They were still staring into the sky as he went, when suddenly two men in white were standing beside them,

Acts 1:11 and they said, ‘Why are you Galileans standing here looking into the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will come back in the same way as you have seen him go to heaven.’

Acts 1:12 So from the Mount of Olives, as it is called, they went back to Jerusalem, a short distance away, no more than a Sabbath walk;

Acts 1:13 and when they reached the city they went to the upper room where they were staying; there were Peter and John, James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Jude son of James.

Acts 1:14 With one heart all these joined constantly in prayer, together with some women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.

Acts 1:15 One day Peter stood up to speak to the brothers—there were about a hundred and twenty people in the congregation,

Acts 1:16 'Brothers,' he said, 'the passage of scripture had to be fulfilled in which the Holy Spirit, speaking through David, foretells the fate of Judas, who acted as guide to the men who arrested Jesus-

Acts 1:17 after being one of our number and sharing our ministry.

Acts 1:18 As you know, he bought a plot of land with the money he was paid for his crime. He fell headlong and burst open, and all his entrails poured out.

Acts 1:19 Everybody in Jerusalem heard about it and the plot came to be called "Bloody Acre", in their language Hakeldama.

Acts 1:20 Now in the Book of Psalms it says: Reduce his encampment to ruin and leave his tent unoccupied. And again: Let someone else take over his office.

Acts 1:21 'Out of the men who have been with us the whole time that the Lord Jesus was living with us,

Acts 1:22 from the time when John was baptising until the day when he was taken up from us, one must be appointed to serve with us as a witness to his resurrection.'

Acts 1:23 Having nominated two candidates, Joseph known as Barsabbas, whose surname was Justus, and Matthias,

Acts 1:24 they prayed, 'Lord, you can read everyone's heart; show us therefore which of these two you have chosen

Acts 1:25 to take over this ministry and apostolate, which Judas abandoned to go to his proper place.'

Acts 1:26 They then drew lots for them, and as the lot fell to Matthias, he was listed as one of the twelve apostles.

Acts 2:1 When Pentecost day came round, they had all met together,

Acts 2:2 when suddenly there came from heaven a sound as of a violent wind which filled the entire house in which they were sitting;

Acts 2:3 and there appeared to them tongues as of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them.

Acts 2:4 They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak different languages as the Spirit gave them power to express themselves.

Acts 2:5 Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven,

Acts 2:6 and at this sound they all assembled, and each one was bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language.

Acts 2:7 They were amazed and astonished. ‘Surely,’ they said, ‘all these men speaking are Galileans?

Acts 2:8 How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language?

Acts 2:9 Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

Acts 2:10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; residents of Rome-

Acts 2:11 Jews and proselytes alike—Cretans and Arabs, we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.’

Acts 2:12 Everyone was amazed and perplexed; they asked one another what it all meant.

Acts 2:13 Some, however, laughed it off. ‘They have been drinking too much new wine,’ they said.

Acts 2:14 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed them in a loud voice: ‘Men of Judaea, and all you who live in Jerusalem, make no mistake about this, but listen carefully to what I say.

Acts 2:15 These men are not drunk, as you imagine; why, it is only the third hour of the day.

Acts 2:17 In the last days—the Lord declares—I shall pour out my Spirit on all humanity. Your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your young people shall see visions, your old people dream dreams.

Acts 2:18 Even on the slaves, men and women, shall I pour out my Spirit.

Acts 2:20 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the day of the Lord comes, that great and terrible Day.

Acts 2:21 And all who call on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Acts 2:22 ‘Men of Israel, listen to what I am going to say: Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God by the miracles and portents and signs that God worked through him when he was among you, as you know.

Acts 2:23 This man, who was put into your power by the deliberate intention and foreknowledge of God, you took and had crucified and killed by men outside the Law.

Acts 2:24 But God raised him to life, freeing him from the pangs of Hades; for it was impossible for him to be held in its power since,

Acts 2:25 as David says of him: I kept the Lord before my sight always, for with him at my right hand nothing can shake me.

Acts 2:26 So my heart rejoiced my tongue delighted; my body, too, will rest secure,

Acts 2:27 for you will not abandon me to Hades or allow your holy one to see corruption.

Acts 2:28 You have taught me the way of life, you will fill me with joy in your presence.

Acts 2:29 'Brothers, no one can deny that the patriarch David himself is dead and buried: his tomb is still with us.

Acts 2:30 But since he was a prophet, and knew that God had sworn him an oath to make one of his descendants succeed him on the throne,

Acts 2:31 he spoke with foreknowledge about the resurrection of the Christ: he is the one who was not abandoned to Hades, and whose body did not see corruption.

Acts 2:32 God raised this man Jesus to life, and of that we are all witnesses.

Acts 2:33 Now raised to the heights by God's right hand, he has received from the Father the Holy Spirit, who was promised, and what you see and hear is the outpouring of that Spirit.

Acts 2:34 For David himself never went up to heaven, but yet he said: The Lord declared to my Lord, take your seat at my right hand, Acts 2:35 till I have made your enemies your footstool.

Acts 2:36 'For this reason the whole House of Israel can be certain that the Lord and Christ whom God has made is this Jesus whom you crucified.'

Acts 2:37 Hearing this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, 'What are we to do, brothers?'

Acts 2:38 'You must repent,' Peter answered, 'and every one of you must be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2:39 The promise that was made is for you and your children, and for all those who are far away, for all those whom the Lord our God is calling to himself.'

Acts 2:40 He spoke to them for a long time using many other arguments, and he urged them, 'Save yourselves from this perverse generation.'

Acts 2:41 They accepted what he said and were baptised. That very day about three thousand were added to their number.

Acts 2:42 These remained faithful to the teaching of the apostles, to the brotherhood, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers.

Acts 2:43 And everyone was filled with awe; the apostles worked many signs and miracles.

Acts 2:44 And all who shared the faith owned everything in common;

Acts 2:45 they sold their goods and possessions and distributed the proceeds among themselves according to what each one needed.

Acts 2:46 Each day, with one heart, they regularly went to the Temple but met in their houses for the breaking of bread; they shared their food gladly and generously;

Acts 2:47 they praised God and were looked up to by everyone. Day by day the Lord added to their community those destined to be saved.

Acts 3:1 Once, when Peter and John were going up to the Temple for the prayers at the ninth hour,

Acts 3:2 it happened that there was a man being carried along. He was a cripple from birth; and they used to put him down every day near the Temple entrance called the Beautiful Gate so that he could beg from the people going in.

Acts 3:3 When this man saw Peter and John on their way into the Temple he begged from them.

Acts 3:4 Peter, and John too, looked straight at him and said, ‘Look at us.’

Acts 3:5 He turned to them expectantly, hoping to get something from them,

Acts 3:6 but Peter said, ‘I have neither silver nor gold, but I will give you what I have: in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, walk!’

Acts 3:7 Then he took him by the right hand and helped him to stand up. Instantly his feet and ankles became firm,

Acts 3:8 he jumped up, stood, and began to walk, and he went with them into the Temple, walking and jumping and praising God.

Acts 3:9 Everyone could see him walking and praising God,

Acts 3:10 and they recognised him as the man who used to sit begging at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple. They were all astonished and perplexed at what had happened to him.

Acts 3:11 Everyone came running towards them in great excitement, to the Portico of Solomon, as it is called, where the man was still clinging to Peter and John.

Acts 3:12 When Peter saw the people he addressed them, ‘Men of Israel, why are you so surprised at this? Why are you staring at us as though we had made this man walk by our own power or holiness?

Acts 3:13 It is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus whom you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate after he had given his verdict to release him.

Acts 3:14 It was you who accused the Holy and Upright One, you who demanded that a murderer should be released to you

Acts 3:15 while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are witnesses;

Acts 3:16 and it is the name of Jesus which, through faith in him, has brought back the strength of this man whom you see here and who is well known to you. It is faith in him that has restored this man to health, as you can all see.

Acts 3:17 'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing;

Acts 3:18 but this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer.

Acts 3:19 Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out,

Acts 3:20 and so that the Lord may send the time of comfort. Then he will send you the Christ he has predestined, that is Jesus,

Acts 3:21 whom heaven must keep till the universal restoration comes which God proclaimed, speaking through his holy prophets.

Acts 3:22 Moses, for example, said, “From among your brothers the Lord God will raise up for you a prophet like me; you will listen to whatever he tells you.

Acts 3:23 Anyone who refuses to listen to that prophet shall be cut off from the people.”

Acts 3:24 In fact, all the prophets that have ever spoken, from Samuel onwards, have predicted these days.

Acts 3:25 'You are the heirs of the prophets, the heirs of the covenant God made with your ancestors when he told Abraham, “All the nations of the earth will be blessed in your descendants”.

Acts 3:26 It was for you in the first place that God raised up his servant and sent him to bless you as every one of you turns from his wicked ways.’

Acts 4:1 While they were still talking to the people the priests came up to them, accompanied by the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees.

Acts 4:2 They were extremely annoyed at their teaching the people the resurrection from the dead by proclaiming the resurrection of Jesus.

Acts 4:3 They arrested them, and, as it was already late, they kept them in prison till the next day.

Acts 4:4 But many of those who had listened to their message became believers; the total number of men had now risen to something like five thousand.

Acts 4:5 It happened that the next day the rulers, elders and scribes held a meeting in Jerusalem

Acts 4:6 with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, Jonathan, Alexander and all the members of the high-priestly families.

Acts 4:7 They made the prisoners stand in the middle and began to interrogate them, 'By what power, and by whose name have you men done this?'

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, addressed them, 'Rulers of the people, and elders!

Acts 4:9 If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple and asking us how he was healed,

Acts 4:10 you must know, all of you, and the whole people of Israel, that it is by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, and God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man stands before you cured.

Acts 4:11 This is the stone which you, the builders, rejected but which has become the cornerstone. Only in him is there salvation;

Acts 4:12 for of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.'

Acts 4:13 They were astonished at the fearlessness shown by Peter and John, considering that they were uneducated laymen; and they recognised them as associates of Jesus;

Acts 4:14 but when they saw the man who had been cured standing by their side, they could find no answer.

Acts 4:15 So they ordered them to stand outside while the Sanhedrin had a private discussion.

Acts 4:16 'What are we going to do with these men?' they asked. 'It is obvious to everybody in Jerusalem that a notable miracle has been worked through them, and we cannot deny it.

Acts 4:17 But to stop the whole thing spreading any further among the people, let us threaten them against ever speaking to anyone in this name again.'

Acts 4:18 So they called them in and gave them a warning on no account to make statements or to teach in the name of Jesus.

Acts 4:19 But Peter and John retorted, 'You must judge whether in God's eyes it is right to listen to you and not to God.

Acts 4:20 We cannot stop proclaiming what we have seen and heard.'

Acts 4:21 The court repeated the threats and then released them; they could not think of any way to punish them, since all the people were giving glory to God for what had happened.

Acts 4:22 The man who had been miraculously cured was over forty years old.

Acts 4:23 As soon as they were released they went to the community and told them everything the chief priests and elders had said to them.

Acts 4:24 When they heard it they lifted up their voice to God with one heart. 'Master,' they prayed, 'it is you who made sky and earth and sea, and everything in them;

Acts 4:25 it is you who said through the Holy Spirit and speaking through our ancestor David, your servant: Why this uproar among the nations, this impotent muttering of the peoples?

Acts 4:26 Kings on earth take up position, princes plot together against the Lord and his Anointed.

Acts 4:27 'This is what has come true: in this very city Herod and Pontius Pilate plotted together with the gentile nations and the peoples of Israel, against your holy servant Jesus whom you anointed,

Acts 4:28 to bring about the very thing that you in your strength and your wisdom had predetermined should happen.

Acts 4:29 And now, Lord, take note of their threats and help your servants to proclaim your message with all fearlessness,

Acts 4:30 by stretching out your hand to heal and to work miracles and marvels through the name of your holy servant Jesus.'

Acts 4:31 As they prayed, the house where they were assembled rocked. From this time they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to proclaim the word of God fearlessly.

Acts 4:32 The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, as everything they owned was held in common.

Acts 4:33 The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all accorded great respect.

Acts 4:34 None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from the sale of them,

Acts 4:35 to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any who might be in need.

Acts 4:36 There was a Levite of Cypriot origin called Joseph whom the apostles surnamed Barnabas (which means 'son of encouragement').

Acts 4:37 He owned a piece of land and he sold it and brought the money and presented it to the apostles.

Acts 5:1 There was also a man called Ananias. He and his wife, Sapphira, agreed to sell a property;

Acts 5:2 but with his wife's connivance he kept back part of the price and brought the rest and presented it to the apostles.

Acts 5:3 Peter said, 'Ananias, how can Satan have so possessed you that you should lie to the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the price of the land?

Acts 5:4 While you still owned the land, wasn’t it yours to keep, and after you had sold it wasn’t the money yours to do with as you liked? What put this scheme into your mind? You have been lying not to men, but to God.’

Acts 5:5 When he heard this Ananias fell down dead. And a great fear came upon everyone present.

Acts 5:6 The younger men got up, wrapped up the body, carried it out and buried it.

Acts 5:7 About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had taken place.

Acts 5:8 Peter challenged her, ‘Tell me, was this the price you sold the land for?’ ‘Yes,’ she said, ‘that was the price.’

Acts 5:9 Peter then said, ‘Why did you and your husband agree to put the Spirit of the Lord to the test? Listen! At the door are the footsteps of those who have buried your husband; they will carry you out, too.’

Acts 5:10 Instantly she dropped dead at his feet. When the young men came in they found she was dead, and they carried her out and buried her by the side of her husband.

Acts 5:11 And a great fear came upon the whole church and on all who heard it.

Acts 5:12 The apostles worked many signs and miracles among the people. One in heart, they all used to meet in the Portico of Solomon.

Acts 5:13 No one else dared to join them, but the people were loud in their praise

Acts 5:14 and the numbers of men and women who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily. Many signs and wonders were worked among the people at the hands of the apostles

Acts 5:15 so that the sick were even taken out into the streets and laid on beds and sleeping-mats in the hope that at least the shadow of Peter might fall across some of them as he went past.

Acts 5:16 People even came crowding in from the towns round about Jerusalem, bringing with them their sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were cured.

Acts 5:17 Then the high priest intervened with all his supporters from the party of the Sadducees. Filled with jealousy,

Acts 5:18 they arrested the apostles and had them put in the public gaol.

Acts 5:19 But at night the angel of the Lord opened the prison gates and said as he led them out,

Acts 5:20 ‘Go and take up position in the Temple, and tell the people all about this new Life.’

Acts 5:21 They did as they were told; they went into the Temple at dawn and began to preach. When the high priest arrived, he and his supporters convened the Sanhedrin—this was the full Senate of Israel—and sent to the gaol for them to be brought.

Acts 5:22 But when the officials arrived at the prison they found they were not inside, so they went back and reported,

Acts 5:23 ‘We found the gaol securely locked and the warders on duty at the gates, but when we unlocked the door we found no one inside.’

Acts 5:24 When the captain of the Temple and the chief priests heard this news they wondered what could be happening.

Acts 5:25 Then a man arrived with fresh news. ‘Look!’ he said, ‘the men you imprisoned are in the Temple. They are standing there preaching to the people.’

Acts 5:26 The captain went with his men and fetched them—though not by force, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

Acts 5:27 When they had brought them in to face the Sanhedrin, the high priest demanded an explanation.

Acts 5:28 ‘We gave you a strong warning’, he said, ‘not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt for this man’s death on us.’

Acts 5:29 In reply Peter and the apostles said, ‘Obedience to God comes before obedience to men;

Acts 5:30 it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, whom you executed by hanging on a tree.

Acts 5:31 By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and Saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel.

Acts 5:32 We are witnesses to this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him.’

Acts 5:33 This so infuriated them that they wanted to put them to death.

Acts 5:34 One member of the Sanhedrin, however, a Pharisee called Gamaliel, who was a teacher of the Law respected by the whole people, stood up and asked to have the men taken outside for a time.

Acts 5:35 Then he addressed the Sanhedrin, ‘Men of Israel, be careful how you deal with these people.

Acts 5:36 Some time ago there arose Theudas. He claimed to be someone important, and collected about four hundred followers; but when he was killed, all his followers scattered and that was the end of them.

Acts 5:37 And then there was Judas the Galilean, at the time of the census, who attracted crowds of supporters; but he was killed too, and all his followers dispersed.

Acts 5:38 What I suggest, therefore, is that you leave these men alone and let them go. If this enterprise, this movement of theirs, is of human origin it will break up of its own accord;

Acts 5:39 but if it does in fact come from God you will be unable to destroy them. Take care not to find yourselves fighting against God.' His advice was accepted;

Acts 5:40 and they had the apostles called in, gave orders for them to be flogged, warned them not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them.

Acts 5:41 And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

Acts 5:42 Every day they went on ceaselessly teaching and proclaiming the good news of Christ Jesus, both in the temple and in private houses.

Acts 6:1 About this time, when the number of disciples was increasing, the Hellenists made a complaint against the Hebrews: in the daily distribution their own widows were being overlooked.

Acts 6:2 So the Twelve called a full meeting of the disciples and addressed them, 'It would not be right for us to neglect the word of God so as to give out food;

Acts 6:3 you, brothers, must select from among yourselves seven men of good reputation, filled with the Spirit and with wisdom, to whom we can hand over this duty.

Acts 6:4 We ourselves will continue to devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the word.'

Acts 6:5 The whole assembly approved of this proposal and elected Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, together with Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus of Antioch, a convert to Judaism.

Acts 6:6 They presented these to the apostles, and after prayer they laid their hands on them.

Acts 6:7 The word of the Lord continued to spread: the number of disciples in Jerusalem was greatly increased, and a large group of priests made their submission to the faith.

Acts 6:8 Stephen was filled with grace and power and began to work miracles and great signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 Then certain people came forward to debate with Stephen, some from Cyrene and Alexandria who were members of the synagogue called the Synagogue of Freedmen, and others from Cilicia and Asia.

Acts 6:10 They found they could not stand up against him because of his wisdom, and the Spirit that prompted what he said.

Acts 6:11 So they procured some men to say, 'We heard him using blasphemous language against Moses and against God.'

Acts 6:12 Having turned the people against him as well as the elders and scribes, they took Stephen by surprise, and arrested him and brought him before the Sanhedrin.

Acts 6:13 There they put up false witnesses to say, 'This man is always making speeches against this Holy Place and the Law.

Acts 6:14 We have heard him say that Jesus, this Nazarene, is going to destroy this Place and alter the traditions that Moses handed down to us.'

Acts 6:15 The members of the Sanhedrin all looked intently at Stephen, and his face appeared to them like the face of an angel.

Acts 7:1 The high priest asked, 'Is this true?'

Acts 7:2 He replied, 'My brothers, my fathers, listen to what I have to say. The God of glory appeared to our ancestor Abraham, while he was in Mesopotamia before settling in Haran,

Acts 7:3 and said to him, "Leave your country, your kindred and your father's house for this country which I shall show you."

Acts 7:4 So he left Chaldaea and settled in Haran; and after his father died God made him leave that place and come to this land where you are living today.

Acts 7:5 God did not give him any property in this land or even a foothold, yet he promised to give it to him and after him to his descendants, childless though he was.

Acts 7:6 The actual words God used when he spoke to him are that his descendants would be exiles in a land not their own, where they would be enslaved and oppressed for four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 "But I will bring judgement on the nation that enslaves them," God said, "and after this they will leave, and worship me in this place."

Acts 7:8 Then he made the covenant of circumcision with him: and so when his son Isaac was born Abraham circumcised him on the eighth day; similarly Isaac circumcised Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs.

Acts 7:9 'The patriarchs were jealous of Joseph and sold him into slavery in Egypt. But God was with him,

Acts 7:10 and rescued him from all his miseries by making him so wise that he won the favour of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him governor of Egypt and put him in charge of his household.

Acts 7:11 Then a famine set in that caused much suffering throughout Egypt and Canaan, and our ancestors could find nothing to eat.

Acts 7:12 When Jacob heard that there were supplies in Egypt, he sent our ancestors there on a first visit;

Acts 7:13 and on the second Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Pharaoh came to know his origin.

Acts 7:14 Joseph then sent for his father Jacob and his whole family, a total of seventy-five people.

Acts 7:15 Jacob went down into Egypt and after he and our ancestors had died there,

Acts 7:16 their bodies were brought back to Shechem and buried in the tomb that Abraham had bought for money from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

Acts 7:17 'As the time drew near for God to fulfil the promise he had solemnly made to Abraham, our nation in Egypt became very powerful and numerous,

Acts 7:18 there came to power in Egypt a new king who had never heard of Joseph.

Acts 7:19 He took precautions and wore down our race, forcing our ancestors to expose their babies rather than letting them live.

Acts 7:20 It was at this time that Moses was born, a fine child before God. He was looked after for three months in his father's house,

Acts 7:21 and after he had been exposed, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up like a son.

Acts 7:22 So Moses was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians and became a man with power both in his speech and in his actions.

Acts 7:23 'At the age of forty he decided to visit his kinsmen, the Israelites.

Acts 7:24 When he saw one of them being ill-treated he went to his defence and rescued the man by killing the Egyptian.

Acts 7:25 He thought his brothers would realise that through him God would liberate them, but they did not.

Acts 7:26 The next day, when he came across some of them fighting, he tried to reconcile them, and said, "Friends, you are brothers; why are you hurting each other?"

Acts 7:27 But the man who was attacking his kinsman pushed him aside, saying, "And who appointed you to be prince over us and judge?

Acts 7:28 Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?"

Acts 7:29 Moses fled when he heard this and he went to dwell in the land of Midian, where he fathered two sons.

Acts 7:30 'When forty years were fulfilled, in the desert near Mount Sinai, an angel appeared to him in a flame blazing from a bush that was on fire.

Acts 7:31 Moses was amazed by what he saw. As he went nearer to look at it, the voice of the Lord was heard, Acts 7:32 "I am the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob." Moses trembled and was afraid to look.

Acts 7:33 The Lord said to him, "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.

Acts 7:34 I have seen the misery of my people in Egypt, I have heard them crying for help, and I have come down to rescue them. So come here; I am sending you into Egypt."

Acts 7:35 'It was the same Moses that they had disowned when they said, "Who appointed you to be our leader and judge?" whom God sent to be both leader and redeemer through the angel who had appeared to him in the bush.

Acts 7:36 It was this man who led them out, after performing miracles and signs in Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the desert for forty years.

Acts 7:37 It was this Moses who told the sons of Israel, "From among your own brothers God will raise up a prophet like me."

Acts 7:38 When they held the assembly in the desert it was he who was with our ancestors and the angel who had spoken to him on Mount Sinai; it was he who was entrusted with words of life to hand on to us.

Acts 7:39 This is the man that our ancestors refused to listen to; they pushed him aside, went back to Egypt in their thoughts,

Acts 7:40 and said to Aaron, "Make us a god to go at our head; for that Moses, the man who brought us here from Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

Acts 7:41 It was then that they made the statue of a calf and offered sacrifice to the idol. They were perfectly happy with something they had made for themselves.

Acts 7:42 God turned away from them and abandoned them to the worship of the army of heaven, as scripture says in the book of the prophets: Did you bring me sacrifices and oblations those forty years in the desert, House of Israel?

Acts 7:43 No, you carried the tent of Moloch on your shoulders and the star of the god Rephan, the idols you made for yourselves to adore, and so now I am about to drive you into captivity beyond Babylon.

Acts 7:44 'While they were in the desert our ancestors possessed the Tent of Testimony that had been constructed according to the instructions God gave Moses, telling him to work to the design he had been shown.

Acts 7:45 It was handed down from one ancestor of ours to another until Joshua brought it into the country that had belonged to the nations which were driven out by God before us. Here it stayed until the time of David.

Acts 7:46 He won God's favour and asked permission to find a dwelling for the House of Jacob,

Acts 7:47 though it was Solomon who actually built a house for God.

Acts 7:48 Even so the Most High does not live in a house that human hands have built: for as the prophet says:

Acts 7:49 With heaven my throne and earth my footstool, what house could you build me, says the Lord, what place for me to rest,

Acts 7:50 when all these things were made by me?

Acts 7:51 'You stubborn people, with uncircumcised hearts and ears. You are always resisting the Holy Spirit, just as your ancestors used to do.

Acts 7:52 Can you name a single prophet your ancestors never persecuted? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Upright One, and now you have become his betrayers, his murderers.

Acts 7:53 In spite of being given the Law through angels, you have not kept it.'

Acts 7:54 They were infuriated when they heard this, and ground their teeth at him.

Acts 7:55 But Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at God's right hand.

Acts 7:56 'Look! I can see heaven thrown open,' he said, 'and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God.'

Acts 7:57 All the members of the council shouted out and stopped their ears with their hands; then they made a concerted rush at him,

Acts 7:58 thrust him out of the city and stoned him. The witnesses put down their clothes at the feet of a young man called Saul.

Acts 7:59 As they were stoning him, Stephen said in invocation, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.'

Acts 7:60 Then he knelt down and said aloud, 'Lord, do not hold this sin against them.' And with these words he fell asleep.

Acts 8:1 Saul approved of the killing. That day a bitter persecution started against the church in Jerusalem, and everyone except the apostles scattered to the country districts of Judaea and Samaria.

Acts 8:2 There were some devout people, however, who buried Stephen and made great mourning for him.

Acts 8:3 Saul then began doing great harm to the church; he went from house to house arresting both men and women and sending them to prison.

Acts 8:4 Once they had scattered, they went from place to place preaching the good news.

Acts 8:5 And Philip went to a Samaritan town and proclaimed the Christ to them.

Acts 8:6 The people unanimously welcomed the message Philip preached, because they had heard of the miracles he worked and because they saw them for themselves.

Acts 8:7 For unclean spirits came shrieking out of many who were possessed, and several paralytics and cripples were cured.

Acts 8:8 As a result there was great rejoicing in that town.

Acts 8:9 Now a man called Simon had for some time been practising magic arts in the town and astounded the Samaritan people. He had given it out that he was someone momentous,

Acts 8:10 and everyone believed in him; eminent citizens and ordinary people alike had declared, ‘He is the divine power that is called Great.’

Acts 8:11 He had this following because for a considerable period they had been astounded by his wizardry.

Acts 8:12 But when they came to accept Philip’s preaching of the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptised, both men and women,

Acts 8:13 and even Simon himself became a believer. After his baptism Simon went round constantly with Philip and was astonished when he saw the wonders and great miracles that took place.

Acts 8:14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them,

Acts 8:15 and they went down there and prayed for them to receive the Holy Spirit,

Acts 8:16 for as yet he had not come down on any of them: they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 8:17 Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:18 When Simon saw that the Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money,

Acts 8:19 with the words, ‘Give me the same power so that anyone I lay my hands on will receive the Holy Spirit.’

Acts 8:20 Peter answered, ‘May your silver be lost for ever, and you with it, for thinking that money could buy what God has given for nothing!

Acts 8:21 You have no share, no part, in this: God can see how your heart is warped.

Acts 8:22 Repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that this scheme of yours may be forgiven;

Acts 8:23 it is plain to me that you are held in the bitterness of gall and the chains of sin.'

Acts 8:24 Simon replied, 'Pray to the Lord for me yourselves so that none of the things you have spoken about may happen to me.'

Acts 8:25 Having given their testimony and proclaimed the word of the Lord, they went back to Jerusalem, preaching the good news to a number of Samaritan villages.

Acts 8:26 The angel of the Lord spoke to Philip saying, 'Set out at noon and go along the road that leads from Jerusalem down to Gaza, the desert road.'

Acts 8:27 So he set off on his journey. Now an Ethiopian had been on pilgrimage to Jerusalem; he was a eunuch and an officer at the court of the kandake, or queen, of Ethiopia; he was her chief treasurer.

Acts 8:28 He was now on his way home; and as he sat in his chariot he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

Acts 8:29 The Spirit said to Philip, 'Go up and join that chariot.'

Acts 8:30 When Philip ran up, he heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, 'Do you understand what you are reading?'

Acts 8:31 He replied, 'How could I, unless I have someone to guide me?' So he urged Philip to get in and sit by his side.

Acts 8:32 Now the passage of scripture he was reading was this: Like a lamb led to the slaughter-house, like a sheep dumb in front of its shearers, he never opens his mouth.

Acts 8:33 In his humiliation fair judgement was denied him. Who will ever talk about his descendants, since his life on earth has been cut short?

Acts 8:34 The eunuch addressed Philip and said, 'Tell me, is the prophet referring to himself or someone else?'

Acts 8:35 Starting, therefore, with this text of scripture Philip proceeded to explain the good news of Jesus to him.

Acts 8:36 Further along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, 'Look,is some water; is there anything to prevent my being baptised?'

Acts 8:37

Acts 8:38 He ordered the chariot to stop, then Philip and the eunuch both went down into the water and he baptised him.

Acts 8:39 But after they had come up out of the water again Philip was taken away by the Spirit of the Lord, and the eunuch never saw him again but went on his way rejoicing.

Acts 9:1 Meanwhile Saul was still breathing threats to slaughter the Lord's disciples. He went to the high priest

Acts 9:2 and asked for letters addressed to the synagogues in Damascus, that would authorise him to arrest and take to Jerusalem any followers of the Way, men or women, that he might find.

Acts 9:3 It happened that while he was travelling to Damascus and approaching the city, suddenly a light from heaven shone all round him.

Acts 9:4 He fell to the ground, and then he heard a voice saying, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

Acts 9:5 'Who are you, Lord?' he asked, and the answer came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.

Acts 9:6 Get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you are to do.'

Acts 9:7 The men travelling with Saul stood there speechless, for though they heard the voice they could see no one.

Acts 9:8 Saul got up from the ground, but when he opened his eyes he could see nothing at all, and they had to lead him into Damascus by the hand.

Acts 9:9 For three days he was without his sight and took neither food nor drink.

Acts 9:10 There was a disciple in Damascus called Ananias, and he had a vision in which the Lord said to him, 'Ananias!' When he replied, 'Here I am, Lord,'

Acts 9:11 the Lord said, 'Get up and go to Straight Street and ask at the house of Judas for someone called Saul, who comes from Tarsus. At this moment he is praying,

Acts 9:12 and has seen a man called Ananias coming in and laying hands on him to give him back his sight.'

Acts 9:13 But in response, Ananias said, 'Lord, I have heard from many people about this man and all the harm he has been doing to your holy people in Jerusalem.

Acts 9:14 He has come here with a warrant from the chief priests to arrest everybody who invokes your name.'

Acts 9:15 The Lord replied, 'Go, for this man is my chosen instrument to bring my name before gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel;

Acts 9:16 I myself will show him how much he must suffer for my name.'

Acts 9:17 Then Ananias went. He entered the house, and laid his hands on Saul and said, 'Brother Saul, I have been sent by the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, so that you may recover your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.'

Acts 9:18 It was as though scales fell away from his eyes and immediately he was able to see again. So he got up and was baptised,

Acts 9:19 and after taking some food he regained his strength. After he had spent only a few days with the disciples in Damascus,

Acts 9:20 he began preaching in the synagogues, 'Jesus is the Son of God.'

Acts 9:21 All his hearers were amazed, and said, 'Surely, this is the man who did such damage in Jerusalem to the people who invoke this name, and who came here for the sole purpose of arresting them to have them tried by the chief priests?'

Acts 9:22 Saul's power increased steadily, and he was able to throw the Jewish colony at Damascus into complete confusion by the way he demonstrated that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 9:23 Some time passed, and the Jews worked out a plot to kill him,

Acts 9:24 but news of it reached Saul. They were keeping watch at the gates day and night in order to kill him,

Acts 9:25 but the disciples took him by night and let him down from the wall, lowering him in a basket.

Acts 9:26 When he got to Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him: they could not believe he was really a disciple.

Acts 9:27 Barnabas, however, took charge of him, introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord had appeared to him and spoken to him on his journey, and how he had preached fearlessly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

Acts 9:28 Saul now started to go round with them in Jerusalem, preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord.

Acts 9:29 But after he had spoken to the Hellenists and argued with them, they became determined to kill him.

Acts 9:30 When the brothers got to know of this, they took him to Caesarea and sent him off from there to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up and living in the fear of the Lord; encouraged by the Holy Spirit, they continued to grow.

Acts 9:32 It happened that Peter visited one place after another and eventually came to God's holy people living down in Lydda.

Acts 9:33 There he found a man called Aeneas, a paralytic who had been bedridden for eight years.

Acts 9:34 Peter said to him, 'Aeneas, Jesus Christ cures you: get up and make your bed.' Aeneas got up immediately;

Acts 9:35 everybody who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they were converted to the Lord.

Acts 9:36 At Jaffa there was a disciple called Tabitha, or in Greek, Dorcas, who never tired of doing good or giving to those in need.

Acts 9:37 But it happened that at this time she became ill and died, and they washed her and laid her out in an upper room.

Acts 9:38 Lydda is not far from Jaffa, so when the disciples heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to urge him, 'Come to us without delay.'

Acts 9:39 Peter went back with them immediately, and on his arrival they took him to the upper room, where all the widows stood round him in tears, showing him tunics and other clothes Dorcas had made when she was with them.

Acts 9:40 Peter sent everyone out of the room and knelt down and prayed. Then he turned to the dead woman and said, 'Tabitha, stand up.' She opened her eyes, looked at Peter and sat up.

Acts 9:41 Peter helped her to her feet, then he called in the members of the congregation and widows and showed them she was alive.

Acts 9:42 The whole of Jaffa heard about it and many believed in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 Peter stayed on some time in Jaffa, lodging with a leather-tanner called Simon.

Acts 10:2 He and the whole of his household were devout and God-fearing, and he gave generously to Jewish causes and prayed constantly to God.

Acts 10:3 One day at about the ninth hour he had a vision in which he distinctly saw the angel of God come into his house and call out to him, 'Cornelius!'

Acts 10:4 He stared at the vision in terror and exclaimed, 'What is it, Lord?' The angel answered, 'Your prayers and charitable gifts have been accepted by God.

Acts 10:5 Now you must send some men to Jaffa and fetch a man called Simon, known as Peter,

Acts 10:6 who is lodging with Simon the tanner whose house is by the sea.'

Acts 10:7 When the angel who said this had gone, Cornelius called two of the slaves and a devout soldier of his staff,

Acts 10:8 told them all that had happened, and sent them off to Jaffa.

Acts 10:9 Next day, while they were still on their journey and had only a short distance to go before reaching the town, Peter went to the housetop at about the sixth hour to say his prayers.

Acts 10:10 He felt hungry and was looking forward to his meal, but before it was ready he fell into a trance

Acts 10:11 and saw heaven thrown open and something like a big sheet being let down to earth by its four corners;

Acts 10:12 it contained every kind of animal, reptile and bird.

Acts 10:13 A voice then said to him, ‘Now, Peter, kill and eat!’

Acts 10:14 But Peter answered, ‘Certainly not, Lord; I have never yet eaten anything profane or unclean.’

Acts 10:15 Again, a second time, the voice spoke to him, ‘What God has made clean, you have no right to call profane.’

Acts 10:16 This was repeated three times, and then suddenly the container was drawn up to heaven again.

Acts 10:17 Peter was still at a loss over the meaning of the vision he had seen, when the men sent by Cornelius arrived. They had asked where Simon’s house was and they were now standing at the door,

Acts 10:18 calling out to know if the Simon known as Peter was lodging there.

Acts 10:19 While Peter’s mind was still on the vision, the Spirit told him, ‘Look! Some men have come to see you.

Acts 10:20 Hurry down, and do not hesitate to return with them; it was I who told them to come.’

Acts 10:21 Peter went down and said to them, ‘I am the man you are looking for; why have you come?’

Acts 10:22 They said, ‘The centurion Cornelius, who is an upright and God-fearing man, highly regarded by the entire Jewish people, was told by God through a holy angel to send for you and bring you to his house and to listen to what you have to say.’

Acts 10:23 So Peter asked them in and gave them lodging. Next day, he was ready to go off with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Jaffa.

Acts 10:24 They reached Caesarea the following day, and Cornelius was waiting for them. He had asked his relations and close friends to be there,

Acts 10:25 and as Peter reached the house Cornelius went out to meet him, fell at his feet and did him reverence.

Acts 10:26 But Peter helped him up. ‘Stand up,’ he said, ‘ after all, I am only a man!’

Acts 10:27 Talking together they went in to meet all the people assembled there,

Acts 10:28 and Peter said to them, ‘You know it is forbidden for Jews to mix with people of another race and visit them; but God has made it clear to me that I must not call anyone profane or unclean.

Acts 10:29 That is why I made no objection to coming when I was sent for; but I should like to know exactly why you sent for me.’

Acts 10:30 Cornelius replied, ‘At this time three days ago I was in my house saying the prayers for the ninth hour, when I suddenly saw a man in front of me in shining robes.

Acts 10:31 He said, “Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your charitable gifts have not been forgotten by God;

Acts 10:32 so now you must send to Jaffa and fetch Simon known as Peter who is lodging in the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.”

Acts 10:33 So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Here we all are, assembled in front of you to hear all the instructions God has given you.’

Acts 10:34 Then Peter addressed them, ‘I now really understand’, he said, ‘that God has no favourites,

Acts 10:35 but that anybody of any nationality who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.

Acts 10:36 ‘God sent his word to the people of Israel, and it was to them that the good news of peace was brought by Jesus Christ—he is the Lord of all.

Acts 10:37 You know what happened all over Judaea, how Jesus of Nazareth began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism.

Acts 10:38 God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.

Acts 10:39 Now we are witnesses to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and they killed him by hanging him on a tree,

Acts 10:40 yet on the third day God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen,

Acts 10:41 not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses that God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses—we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead-

Acts 10:42 and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to bear witness that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead.

Acts 10:43 It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.’

Acts 10:44 While Peter was still speaking the Holy Spirit came down on all the listeners.

Acts 10:45 Jewish believers who had accompanied Peter were all astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit should be poured out on gentiles too,

Acts 10:46 since they could hear them speaking strange languages and proclaiming the greatness of God. Peter himself then said,

Acts 10:47 ‘Could anyone refuse the water of baptism to these people, now they have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?’

Acts 10:48 He then gave orders for them to be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterwards they begged him to stay on for some days.

Acts 11:1 The apostles and the brothers in Judaea heard that gentiles too had accepted the word of God,

Acts 11:2 and when Peter came up to Jerusalem the circumcised believers protested to him

Acts 11:3 and said, ‘So you have been visiting the uncircumcised and eating with them!’

Acts 11:4 Peter in reply gave them the details point by point,

Acts 11:5 ‘One day, when I was in the town of Jaffa,’ he began, ‘I fell into a trance as I was praying and had a vision of something like a big sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners. This sheet came right down beside me.

Acts 11:6 I looked carefully into it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds of heaven.

Acts 11:7 Then I heard a voice that said to me, “Now, Peter, kill and eat!”

Acts 11:8 But I answered, “Certainly not, Lord; nothing profane or unclean has ever crossed my lips.”

Acts 11:9 And a second time the voice spoke from heaven, “What God has made clean, you have no right to call profane.”

Acts 11:10 This was repeated three times, before the whole of it was drawn up to heaven again.

Acts 11:11 ‘Just at that moment, three men stopped outside the house where we were staying; they had been sent from Caesarea to fetch me,

Acts 11:12 and the Spirit told me to have no hesitation about going back with them. The six brothers here came with me as well, and we entered the man’s house.

Acts 11:13 He told us he had seen an angel standing in his house who said, “Send to Jaffa and fetch Simon known as Peter;

Acts 11:14 he has a message for you that will save you and your entire household.”

Acts 11:15 ‘I had scarcely begun to speak when the Holy Spirit came down on them in the same way as it came on us at the beginning, Acts 11:16 and I remembered that the Lord had said, “John baptised with water, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.”

Acts 11:17 I realised then that God was giving them the identical gift he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ; and who was I to stand in God’s way?’

Acts 11:18 This account satisfied them, and they gave glory to God, saying, ‘God has clearly granted to the gentiles too the repentance that leads to life.’

Acts 11:19 Those who had scattered because of the persecution that arose over Stephen travelled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, but they proclaimed the message only to Jews.

Acts 11:20 Some of them, however, who came from Cyprus and Cyrene, went to Antioch where they started preaching also to the Greeks, proclaiming the good news of the Lord Jesus to them.

Acts 11:21 The Lord helped them, and a great number believed and were converted to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 The news of them came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem and they sent Barnabas out to Antioch.

Acts 11:23 There he was glad to see for himself that God had given grace, and he urged them all to remain faithful to the Lord with heartfelt devotion;

Acts 11:24 for he was a good man, filled with the Holy Spirit and with faith. And a large number of people were won over to the Lord.

Acts 11:26 and when he found him he brought him to Antioch. And it happened that they stayed together in that church a whole year, instructing a large number of people. It was at Antioch that the disciples were first called ‘Christians’.

Acts 11:27 While they were there some prophets came down to Antioch from Jerusalem,

Acts 11:28 and one of them whose name was Agabus, seized by the Spirit, stood up and predicted that a severe and universal famine was going to happen. This in fact happened while Claudius was emperor.

Acts 11:29 The disciples decided to send relief, each to contribute what he could afford, to the brothers living in Judaea.

Acts 11:30 They did this and delivered their contributions to the elders through the agency of Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12:1 It was about this time that King Herod started persecuting certain members of the church.

Acts 12:2 He had James the brother of John beheaded,

Acts 12:3 and when he saw that this pleased the Jews he went on to arrest Peter as well.

Acts 12:4 As it was during the days of Unleavened Bread that he had arrested him, he put him in prison, assigning four sections of four soldiers each to guard him, meaning to try him in public after the Passover.

Acts 12:5 All the time Peter was under guard the church prayed to God for him unremittingly.

Acts 12:6 On the night before Herod was to try him, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, fastened with two chains, while guards kept watch at the main entrance to the prison.

Acts 12:7 Then suddenly an angel of the Lord stood there, and the cell was filled with light. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him. 'Get up!' he said, 'Hurry!'—and the chains fell from his hands.

Acts 12:8 The angel then said, 'Put on your belt and sandals.' After he had done this, the angel next said, 'Wrap your cloak round you and follow me.'

Acts 12:9 He followed him out, but had no idea that what the angel did was all happening in reality; he thought he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 They passed through the first guard post and then the second and reached the iron gate leading to the city. This opened of its own accord; they went through it and had walked the whole length of one street when suddenly the angel left him.

Acts 12:11 It was only then that Peter came to himself. And he said, 'Now I know it is all true. The Lord really did send his angel and save me from Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

Acts 12:12 As soon as he realised this he went straight to the house of Mary the mother of John Mark, where a number of people had assembled and were praying.

Acts 12:13 He knocked at the outside door and a servant called Rhoda came to answer it.

Acts 12:14 She recognised Peter's voice and was so overcome with joy that, instead of opening the door, she ran inside with the news that Peter was standing at the main entrance.

Acts 12:15 They said to her, 'You are out of your mind,' but she insisted that it was true. Then they said, 'It must be his angel!'

Acts 12:16 Peter, meanwhile, was still knocking. When they opened the door, they were amazed to see that it really was Peter himself.

Acts 12:17 He raised his hand for silence and described to them how the Lord had led him out of prison. He added, 'Tell James and the brothers.' Then he left and went elsewhere.

Acts 12:18 When daylight came there was a great commotion among the soldiers, who could not imagine what had become of Peter.

Acts 12:19 Herod put out an unsuccessful search for him; he had the guards questioned, and before leaving Judaea to take up residence in Caesarea he gave orders for their execution.

Acts 12:20 Now Herod was on bad terms with the Tyrians and Sidonians. Yet they sent a joint deputation which managed to enlist the support of Blastus, the king's chamberlain, and through him negotiated a treaty, since their country depended for its food supply on the king's territory.

Acts 12:21 A day was fixed, and Herod, wearing his robes of state and seated on a throne, began to make a speech to them.

Acts 12:22 The people acclaimed him with, 'It is a god speaking, not a man!'

Acts 12:23 and at that moment the angel of the Lord struck him down, because he had not given the glory to God. He was eaten away by worms and died.

Acts 12:24 The word of God continued to spread and to gain followers.

Acts 13:1 In the church at Antioch the following were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

Acts 13:2 One day while they were offering worship to the Lord and keeping a fast, the Holy Spirit said, 'I want Barnabas and Saul set apart for the work to which I have called them.'

Acts 13:3 So it was that after fasting and prayer they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:4 So these two, sent on their mission by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and from there set sail for Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 They landed at Salamis and proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews; John acted as their assistant.

Acts 13:6 They travelled the whole length of the island, and at Paphos they came in contact with a Jewish magician and false prophet called Bar-Jesus.

Acts 13:7 He was one of the attendants of the proconsul Sergius Paulus, who was an extremely intelligent man. The proconsul summoned Barnabas and Saul and asked to hear the word of God,

Acts 13:8 but Elymas the magician (this is what his name means in Greek) tried to stop them so as to prevent the proconsul's conversion to the faith.

Acts 13:9 Then Saul, whose other name is Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked at him intently

Acts 13:10 and said, 'You utter fraud, you impostor, you son of the devil, you enemy of all uprightness, will you not stop twisting the straightforward ways of the Lord?

Acts 13:11 Now watch how the hand of the Lord will strike you: you will be blind, and for a time you will not see the sun.’ That instant, everything went misty and dark for him, and he groped about to find someone to lead him by the hand.

Acts 13:12 The proconsul, who had watched everything, became a believer, being much struck by what he had learnt about the Lord.

Acts 13:14 The others carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the Sabbath and took their seats.

Acts 13:15 After the passages from the Law and the Prophets had been read, the presidents of the synagogue sent them a message, ‘Brothers, if you would like to address some words of encouragement to the congregation, please do so.’

Acts 13:16 Paul stood up, raised his hand for silence and began to speak: ‘Men of Israel, and fearers of God, listen!

Acts 13:17 The God of our nation Israel chose our ancestors and made our people great when they were living in Egypt, a land not their own; then by divine power he led them out

Acts 13:18 and for about forty years took care of them in the desert.

Acts 13:19 When he had destroyed seven nations in Canaan, he put them in possession of their land

Acts 13:20 for about four hundred and fifty years. After this he gave them judges, down to the prophet Samuel.

Acts 13:21 Then they demanded a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin. After forty years,

Acts 13:22 he deposed him and raised up David to be king, whom he attested in these words, “I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who will perform my entire will.”

Acts 13:23 To keep his promise, God has raised up for Israel one of David’s descendants, Jesus, as Saviour,

Acts 13:24 whose coming was heralded by John when he proclaimed a baptism of repentance for the whole people of Israel.

Acts 13:25 Before John ended his course he said, “I am not the one you imagine me to be; there is someone coming after me whose sandal I am not fit to undo.”

Acts 13:26 ‘My brothers, sons of Abraham’s race, and all you godfearers, this message of salvation is meant for you.

Acts 13:27 What the people of Jerusalem and their rulers did, though they did not realise it, was in fact to fulfil the prophecies read on every Sabbath.

Acts 13:28 Though they found nothing to justify his execution, they condemned him and asked Pilate to have him put to death.

Acts 13:29 When they had carried out everything that scripture foretells about him they took him down from the tree and buried him in a tomb.

Acts 13:30 But God raised him from the dead,

Acts 13:31 and for many days he appeared to those who had accompanied him from Galilee to Jerusalem: and it is these same companions of his who are now his witnesses before our people.

Acts 13:32 'We have come here to tell you the good news that the promise made to our ancestors has come about.

Acts 13:33 God has fulfilled it to their children by raising Jesus from the dead. As scripture says in the psalms: You are my son: today I have fathered you.

Acts 13:34 The fact that God raised him from the dead, never to return to corruption, is no more than what he had declared: To you I shall give the holy things promised to David which can be relied upon.

Acts 13:35 This is also why it says in another text: You will not allow your Holy One to see corruption.

Acts 13:36 Now when David in his own time had served God's purposes he died; he was buried with his ancestors and has certainly seen corruption.

Acts 13:37 The one whom God has raised up, however, has not seen corruption.

Acts 13:38 'My brothers, I want you to realise that it is through him that forgiveness of sins is being proclaimed to you. Through him justification from all sins from which the Law of Moses was unable to justify Acts 13:39 is being offered to every believer.

Acts 13:40 'So be careful—or what the prophets say will happen to you.

Acts 13:41 Cast your eyes around you, mockers; be amazed, and perish! For I am doing something in your own days that you would never believe if you were told of it.'

Acts 13:43 When the meeting broke up many Jews and devout converts followed Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them.

Acts 13:44 The next Sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God.

Acts 13:45 When they saw the crowds, the Jews, filled with jealousy, used blasphemies to contradict everything Paul said.

Acts 13:46 Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out fearlessly. 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, here and now we turn to the gentiles.

Acts 13:47 For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said: I have made you a light to the nations, so that my salvation may reach the remotest parts of the earth.'

Acts 13:48 It made the gentiles very happy to hear this and they gave thanks to the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers.

Acts 13:50 But the Jews worked on some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city; they stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas and expelled them from their territory.

Acts 13:51 So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them and went off to Iconium; but the converts were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14:1 It happened that at Iconium they went to the Jewish synagogue, in the same way, and they spoke so effectively that a great many Jews and Greeks became believers.

Acts 14:2 (However, the Jews who refused to believe stirred up the gentiles against the brothers and set them in opposition.)

Acts 14:3 Accordingly Paul and Barnabas stayed on for some time, preaching fearlessly in the Lord; and he attested all they said about his gift of grace, allowing signs and wonders to be performed by them.

Acts 14:4 The people in the city were divided; some supported the Jews, others the apostles,

Acts 14:5 but eventually with the connivance of the authorities a move was made by gentiles as well as Jews to make attacks on them and to stone them.

Acts 14:6 When they came to hear of this, they went off for safety to Lycaonia where, in the towns of Lystra and Derbe and in the surrounding country,

Acts 14:8 There was a man sitting there who had never walked in his life, because his feet were crippled from birth;

Acts 14:9 he was listening to Paul preaching, and Paul looked at him intently and saw that he had the faith to be cured.

Acts 14:10 Paul said in a loud voice, ‘Get to your feet-stand up,’ and the cripple jumped up and began to walk.

Acts 14:11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done they shouted in the language of Lycaonia, ‘The gods have come down to us in human form.’

Acts 14:12 They addressed Barnabas as Zeus, and since Paul was the principal speaker they called him Hermes.

Acts 14:13 The priests of Zeus-outside-the-Gate, proposing that all the people should offer sacrifice with them, brought garlanded oxen to the gates.

Acts 14:14 When the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening they tore their clothes, and rushed into the crowd, shouting,

Acts 14:15 ‘Friends, what do you think you are doing? We are only human beings, mortal like yourselves. We have come with good news to make you turn from these empty idols to the living God who made sky and earth and the sea and all that these hold.

Acts 14:16 In the past he allowed all the nations to go their own way;

Acts 14:17 but even then he did not leave you without evidence of himself in the good things he does for you: he sends you rain from heaven and seasons of fruitfulness; he fills you with food and your hearts with merriment.’

Acts 14:18 With this speech they just managed to prevent the crowd from offering them sacrifice.

Acts 14:19 Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and turned the people against them. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside the town, thinking he was dead.

Acts 14:20 The disciples came crowding round him but, as they did so, he stood up and went back to the town. The next day he and Barnabas left for Derbe.

Acts 14:21 Having preached the good news in that town and made a considerable number of disciples, they went back through Lystra, Iconium and Antioch.

Acts 14:22 They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith, saying, ‘We must all experience many hardships before we enter the kingdom of God.’

Acts 14:23 In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

Acts 14:24 They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia

Acts 14:26 and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

Acts 14:27 On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the gentiles.

Acts 14:28 They stayed there with the disciples for some time.

Acts 15:1 Then some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, 'Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved.'

Acts 15:2 This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had had a long argument with these men it was decided that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the question with the apostles and elders.

Acts 15:3 The members of the church saw them off, and as they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria they told how the gentiles had been converted, and this news was received with the greatest satisfaction by all the brothers.

Acts 15:4 When they arrived in Jerusalem they were welcomed by the church and by the apostles and elders, and gave an account of all that God had done through them.

Acts 15:5 But certain members of the Pharisees' party who had become believers objected, insisting that gentiles should be circumcised and instructed to keep the Law of Moses.

Acts 15:6 The apostles and elders met to look into the matter,

Acts 15:7 and after a long discussion, Peter stood up and addressed them. 'My brothers,' he said, 'you know perfectly well that in the early days God made his choice among you: the gentiles were to learn the good news from me and so become believers.

Acts 15:8 And God, who can read everyone's heart, showed his approval of them by giving the Holy Spirit to them just as he had to us.

Acts 15:9 God made no distinction between them and us, since he purified their hearts by faith.

Acts 15:10 Why do you put God to the test now by imposing on the disciples the very burden that neither our ancestors nor we ourselves were strong enough to support?

Acts 15:11 But we believe that we are saved in the same way as they are: through the grace of the Lord Jesus.'

Acts 15:12 The entire assembly fell silent, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul describing all the signs and wonders God had worked through them among the gentiles.

Acts 15:13 When they had finished it was James who spoke. 'My brothers,' he said, 'listen to me.

Acts 15:14 Simeon has described how God first arranged to enlist a people for his name out of the gentiles.

Acts 15:15 This is entirely in harmony with the words of the prophets, since the scriptures say:

Acts 15:16 After that I shall return and rebuild the fallen hut of David; I shall make good the gaps in it and restore it.

Acts 15:17 Then the rest of humanity, and of all the nations once called mine, will look for the Lord, says the Lord who made this Acts 15:18 known so long ago.

Acts 15:19 'My verdict is, then, that instead of making things more difficult for gentiles who turn to God,

Acts 15:20 we should send them a letter telling them merely to abstain from anything polluted by idols, from illicit marriages, from the meat of strangled animals and from blood.

Acts 15:21 For Moses has always had his preachers in every town and is read aloud in the synagogues every Sabbath.'

Acts 15:22 Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, decided to choose delegates from among themselves to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They chose Judas, known as Barsabbas, and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood,

Acts 15:23 and gave them this letter to take with them: 'The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of gentile birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia.

Acts 15:24 We hear that some people coming from here, but acting without any authority from ourselves, have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds;

Acts 15:25 and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with our well-beloved Barnabas and Paul,

Acts 15:26 who have committed their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:27 Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written.

Acts 15:28 It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to impose on you any burden beyond these essentials:

Acts 15:29 you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from illicit marriages. Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.'

Acts 15:30 The party left and went down to Antioch, where they summoned the whole community and delivered the letter.

Acts 15:31 The community read it and were delighted with the encouragement it gave them.

Acts 15:32 Judas and Silas, being themselves prophets, spoke for a long time, encouraging and strengthening the brothers.

Acts 15:33 These two spent some time there, and then the brothers wished them peace andwent back to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34

Acts 15:35 Paul and Barnabas, however, stayed on in Antioch, and there with many others they taught and proclaimed the good news, the word of the Lord.

Acts 15:36 On a later occasion Paul said to Barnabas, 'Let us go back and visit the brothers in all the towns where we preached the word of the Lord, so that we can see how they are doing.'

Acts 15:38 but Paul was not in favour of taking along the man who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had refused to share in their work.

Acts 15:39 There was sharp disagreement so that they parted company, and Barnabas sailed off with Mark to Cyprus.

Acts 15:40 Before Paul left, he chose Silas to accompany him and was commended by the brothers to the grace of God.

Acts 15:41 He travelled through Syria and Cilicia, consolidating the churches.

Acts 16:1 From there he went to Derbe, and then on to Lystra, where there was a disciple called Timothy, whose mother was Jewish and had become a believer; but his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:2 The brothers at Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him,

Acts 16:3 and Paul, who wanted to have him as a travelling companion, had him circumcised. This was on account of the Jews in the locality where everyone knew his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:4 As they visited one town after another, they passed on the decisions reached by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem, with instructions to observe them.

Acts 16:5 So the churches grew strong in the faith, as well as growing daily in numbers.

Acts 16:6 They travelled through Phrygia and the Galatian country, because they had been told by the Holy Spirit not to preach the word in Asia.

Acts 16:7 When they reached the frontier of Mysia they tried to go into Bithynia, but as the Spirit of Jesus would not allow them,

Acts 16:8 they went through Mysia and came down to Troas.

Acts 16:9 One night Paul had a vision: a Macedonian appeared and kept urging him in these words, 'Come across to Macedonia and help us.'

Acts 16:10 Once he had seen this vision we lost no time in arranging a passage to Macedonia, convinced that God had called us to bring them the good news.

Acts 16:11 Sailing from Troas we made a straight run for Samothrace; the next day for Neapolis,

Acts 16:12 and from there for Philippi, a Roman colony and the principal city of that district of Macedonia.

Acts 16:13 After a few days in this city we went outside the gates beside a river as it was the Sabbath and this was a customary place for prayer. We sat down and preached to the women who had come to the meeting.

Acts 16:14 One of these women was called Lydia, a woman from the town of Thyatira who was in the purple-dye trade, and who revered God. She listened to us, and the Lord opened her heart to accept what Paul was saying.

Acts 16:15 After she and her household had been baptised she kept urging us, 'If you judge me a true believer in the Lord,' she said, 'come and stay with us.' And she would take no refusal.

Acts 16:16 It happened one day that as we were going to prayer, we were met by a slave-girl who was a soothsayer and made a lot of money for her masters by foretelling the future.

Acts 16:17 This girl started following Paul and the rest of us and shouting, 'Here are the servants of the Most High God; they have come to tell you how to be saved!'

Acts 16:18 She did this day after day until Paul was exasperated and turned round and said to the spirit, 'I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to leave that woman.' The spirit went out of her then and there.

Acts 16:19 When her masters saw that there was no hope of making any more money out of her, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market place before the authorities.

Acts 16:20 Taking them before the magistrates they said, 'These people are causing a disturbance in our city. They are Jews

Acts 16:21 and are advocating practices which it is unlawful for us asRomans to accept or follow.'

Acts 16:22 The crowd joined in and showed its hostility to them, so the magistrates had them stripped and ordered them to be flogged.

Acts 16:23 They were given many lashes and then thrown into prison, and the gaoler was told to keep a close watch on them.

Acts 16:24 So, following such instructions, he threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Acts 16:25 In the middle of the night Paul and Silas were praying and singing God's praises, while the other prisoners listened.

Acts 16:26 Suddenly there was an earthquake that shook the prison to its foundations. All the doors flew open and the chains fell from all the prisoners.

Acts 16:27 When the gaoler woke and saw the doors wide open he drew his sword and was about to commit suicide, presuming that the prisoners had escaped.

Acts 16:29 He called for lights, then rushed in, threw himself trembling at the feet of Paul and Silas,

Acts 16:30 and escorted them out, saying, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?'

Acts 16:31 They told him, 'Become a believer in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, and your household too.'

Acts 16:32 Then they preached the word of the Lord to him and to all his household.

Acts 16:33 Late as it was, he took them to wash their wounds, and was baptised then and there with all his household.

Acts 16:34 Afterwards he took them into his house and gave them a meal, and the whole household celebrated their conversion to belief in God.

Acts 16:35 When it was daylight the magistrates sent the lictors with the order: 'Release those men.'

Acts 16:36 The gaoler reported the message to Paul, 'The magistrates have sent an order for your release; you can go now and be on your way.'

Acts 16:37 'What!' Paul replied. 'Without trial they gave us a public flogging, though we are Roman citizens, and threw us into prison, and now they want to send us away on the quiet! Oh no! They must come and escort us out themselves.'

Acts 16:38 The lictors reported this to the magistrates, who were terrified when they heard they were Roman citizens.

Acts 16:39 They came and urged them to leave the town.

Acts 16:40 From the prison they went to Lydia's house where they saw all the brothers and gave them some encouragement; then they left.

Acts 17:1 Passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they eventually reached Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.

Acts 17:2 Paul as usual went in and for three consecutive Sabbaths developed the arguments from scripture for them,

Acts 17:3 explaining and proving how it was ordained that the Christ should suffer and rise from the dead. 'And the Christ', he said, 'is this Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you.'

Acts 17:4 Some of them were convinced and joined Paul and Silas, and so did a great many godfearing people and Greeks, as well as a number of the leading women.

Acts 17:5 The Jews, full of resentment, enlisted the help of a gang from the market place, stirred up a crowd, and soon had the whole city in an uproar. They made for Jason's house, hoping to bring them before the People's Assembly;

Acts 17:6 however, they found only Jason and some of the brothers, and these they dragged before the city council, shouting, 'The people who have been turning the whole world upside down have come here now;

Acts 17:7 they have been staying at Jason's. They have broken Caesar's edicts by claiming that there is another king, Jesus.'

Acts 17:8 Hearing this, the citizens and the city councillors were alarmed,

Acts 17:9 and they made Jason and the rest give security before setting them free.

Acts 17:10 When it was dark the brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away to Beroea, where they went to the Jewish synagogue as soon as they arrived.

Acts 17:11 Here the Jews were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, and they welcomed the word very readily; every day they studied the scriptures to check whether it was true.

Acts 17:12 Many of them became believers, and so did many Greek women of high standing and a number of the men.

Acts 17:13 When the Jews of Thessalonica came to learn that the word of God was being preached by Paul in Beroea as well, they went there to make trouble and stir up the people.

Acts 17:14 So the brothers arranged for Paul to go immediately as far as the coast, leaving Silas and Timothy behind.

Acts 17:15 Paul's escort took him as far as Athens, and went back with instructions for Silas and Timothy to rejoin Paul as soon as they could.

Acts 17:16 Paul waited for them in Athens and there his whole soul was revolted at the sight of a city given over to idolatry.

Acts 17:17 In the synagogue he debated with the Jews and the godfearing, and in the market place he debated every day with anyone whom he met.

Acts 17:18 Even a few Epicurean and Stoic philosophers argued with him. Some said, 'What can this parrot mean?' And, because he was preaching about Jesus and Resurrection, others said, 'He seems to be a propagandist for some outlandish gods.'

Acts 17:19 They got him to accompany them to the Areopagus, where they said to him, 'Can we know what this new doctrine is that you are teaching?

Acts 17:20 Some of the things you say seemed startling to us and we would like to find out what they mean.’

Acts 17:21 The one amusement the Athenians and the foreigners living there seem to have is to discuss and listen to the latest ideas.

Acts 17:22 So Paul stood before the whole council of the Areopagus and made this speech: ‘Men of Athens, I have seen for myself how extremely scrupulous you are in all religious matters,

Acts 17:23 because, as I strolled round looking at your sacred monuments, I noticed among other things an altar inscribed: To An Unknown God. In fact, the unknown God you revere is the one I proclaim to you.

Acts 17:24 ‘Since the God who made the world and everything in it is himself Lord of heaven and earth, he does not make his home in shrines made by human hands.

Acts 17:25 Nor is he in need of anything, that he should be served by human hands; on the contrary, it is he who gives everything—including life and breath—to everyone.

Acts 17:26 From one single principle he not only created the whole human race so that they could occupy the entire earth, but he decreed the times and limits of their habitation.

Acts 17:27 And he did this so that they might seek the deity and, by feeling their way towards him, succeed in finding him; and indeed he is not far from any of us,

Acts 17:28 since it is in him that we live, and move, and exist, as indeed some of your own writers have said: We are all his children.

Acts 17:29 ‘Since we are the children of God, we have no excuse for thinking that the deity looks like anything in gold, silver or stone that has been carved and designed by a man.

Acts 17:30 ‘But now, overlooking the times of ignorance, God is telling everyone everywhere that they must repent,

Acts 17:31 because he has fixed a day when the whole world will be judged in uprightness by a man he has appointed. And God has publicly proved this by raising him from the dead.’

Acts 17:32 At this mention of rising from the dead, some of them burst out laughing; others said, ‘We would like to hear you talk about this another time.’

Acts 17:33 After that Paul left them,

Acts 17:34 but there were some who attached themselves to him and became believers, among them Dionysius the Aeropagite and a woman called Damaris, and others besides.

Acts 18:1 After this Paul left Athens and went to Corinth, Acts 18:2 where he met a Jew called Aquila whose family came from Pontus. He and his wife Priscilla had recently left Italy because an edict of Claudius had expelled all the Jews from Rome. Paul went to visit them,

Acts 18:3 and when he found they were tentmakers, of the same trade as himself, he lodged with them, and they worked together.

Acts 18:4 Every Sabbath he used to hold debates in the synagogues, trying to convert Jews as well as Greeks.

Acts 18:5 After Silas and Timothy had arrived from Macedonia, Paul devoted all his time to preaching, declaring to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 18:6 When they turned against him and started to insult him, he took his cloak and shook it out in front of them, saying, 'Your blood be on your own heads; from now on I will go to the gentiles with a clear conscience.'

Acts 18:7 Then he left the synagogue and moved to the house next door that belonged to a worshipper of God called Justus.

Acts 18:8 Crispus, president of the synagogue, and his whole household, all became believers in the Lord. Many Corinthians when they heard this became believers and were baptised.

Acts 18:9 One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision, 'Be fearless; speak out and do not keep silence:

Acts 18:10 I am with you. I have so many people that belong to me in this city that no one will attempt to hurt you.'

Acts 18:11 So Paul stayed there preaching the word of God among them for eighteen months.

Acts 18:12 But while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a concerted attack on Paul and brought him before the tribunal, saying,

Acts 18:13 'We accuse this man of persuading people to worship God in a way that breaks the Law.'

Acts 18:14 Before Paul could open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, 'Listen, you Jews. If this were a misdemeanour or a crime, it would be in order for me to listen to your plea;

Acts 18:15 but if it is only quibbles about words and names, and about your own Law, then you must deal with it yourselves—I have no intention of making legal decisions about these things.'

Acts 18:16 Then he began to hustle them out of the court,

Acts 18:17 and at once they all turned on Sosthenes, the synagogue president, and beat him in front of the tribunal. Gallio refused to take any notice at all.

Acts 18:18 After staying on for some time, Paul took leave of the brothers and sailed for Syria, accompanied by Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he had his hair cut off, because of a vow he had made.

Acts 18:19 When they reached Ephesus, he left them, but first he went alone to the synagogue to debate with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 They asked him to stay longer, but he declined,

Acts 18:21 though when he took his leave he said, 'I will come back another time, God willing.' Then he sailed from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 He landed at Caesarea and went up to greet the church. Then he came down to Antioch

Acts 18:23 where he spent a short time before continuing his journey through the Galatian country and then through Phrygia, encouraging all the followers.

Acts 18:24 An Alexandrian Jew named Apollos now arrived in Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, with a sound knowledge of the scriptures, and yet,

Acts 18:25 though he had been given instruction in the Way of the Lord and preached with great spiritual fervour and was accurate in all the details he taught about Jesus, he had experienced only the baptism of John.

Acts 18:26 He began to teach fearlessly in the synagogue and, when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they attached themselves to him and gave him more detailed instruction about the Way.

Acts 18:27 When Apollos thought of crossing over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote asking the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived there he was able by God's grace to help the believers considerably

Acts 18:28 by the energetic way he refuted the Jews in public, demonstrating from the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 19:1 It happened that while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul made his way overland as far as Ephesus, where he found a number of disciples.

Acts 19:2 When he asked, 'Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?' they answered, 'No, we were never even told there was such a thing as a Holy Spirit.'

Acts 19:3 He asked, 'Then how were you baptised?' They replied, 'With John's baptism.'

Acts 19:4 Paul said, 'John's baptism was a baptism of repentance; but he insisted that the people should believe in the one who was to come after him—namely Jesus.'

Acts 19:5 When they heard this, they were baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus,

Acts 19:6 and the moment Paul had laid hands on them the Holy Spirit came down on them, and they began to speak with tongues and to prophesy.

Acts 19:7 There were about twelve of these men in all.

Acts 19:8 He began by going to the synagogue, where he spoke out fearlessly and argued persuasively about the kingdom of God. He did this for three months,

Acts 19:9 till the attitude of some of the congregation hardened into unbelief. As soon as they began attacking the Way in public, he broke with them and took his disciples apart to hold daily discussions in the lecture room of Tyrannus.

Acts 19:10 This went on for two years, with the result that all the inhabitants of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, were able to hear the word of the Lord.

Acts 19:11 So remarkable were the miracles worked by God at Paul's hands

Acts 19:12 that handkerchiefs or aprons which had touched him were taken to the sick, and they were cured of their illnesses, and the evil spirits came out of them.

Acts 19:13 But some itinerant Jewish exorcists too tried pronouncing the name of the Lord Jesus over people who were possessed by evil spirits; they used to say, 'I adjure you by the Jesus whose spokesman is Paul.'

Acts 19:14 Among those who did this were seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish chief priest.

Acts 19:15 The evil spirit replied, 'Jesus I recognise, and Paul I know, but who are you?'

Acts 19:16 and the man with the evil spirit hurled himself at them and overpowered first one and then another, and handled them so violently that they fled from that house stripped of clothing and badly mauled.

Acts 19:17 Everybody in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, heard about this episode; everyone was filled with awe, and the name of the Lord Jesus came to be held in great honour.

Acts 19:18 Some believers, too, came forward to admit in detail how they had used spells

Acts 19:19 and a number of them who had practised magic collected their books and made a bonfire of them in public. The value of these was calculated to be fifty thousand silver pieces.

Acts 19:20 In this powerful way the word of the Lord spread more and more widely and successfully.

Acts 19:21 When all this was over Paul made up his mind to go back to Jerusalem through Macedonia and Achaia. 'After I have been there,' he said, 'I must go on to see Rome as well.'

Acts 19:22 So he sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, ahead of him to Macedonia, while he remained for a time in Asia.

Acts 19:23 It was during this time that a serious disturbance broke out in connection with the Way.

Acts 19:24 A silversmith called Demetrius, who provided work for a large number of craftsmen making silver shrines of Diana,

Acts 19:25 called a general meeting of them with others in the same trade. ‘As you know,’ he said, ‘it is on this industry that we depend for our prosperity.

Acts 19:26 Now you must have seen and heard how, not just in Ephesus but nearly everywhere in Asia, this man Paul has persuaded and converted a great number of people with his argument that gods made by hand are not gods at all.

Acts 19:27 This threatens not only to discredit our trade, but also to reduce the sanctuary of the great goddess Diana to unimportance. It could end up by taking away the prestige of a goddess venerated all over Asia, and indeed all over the world.’

Acts 19:28 This speech roused them to fury, and they started to shout, ‘Great is Diana of the Ephesians!’

Acts 19:29 The whole town was filled with the uproar and the mob made a concerted rush to the theatre, dragging along two of Paul’s Macedonian travelling companions, Gaius and Aristarchus.

Acts 19:30 Paul wanted to make an appeal to the people, but the disciples refused to let him;

Acts 19:31 in fact, some of the Asiarchs, who were friends of his, sent messages urging him not to take the risk of going into the theatre.

Acts 19:32 By now everybody was shouting different things, till the assembly itself had no idea what was going on; most of them did not even know why they had gathered together.

Acts 19:33 Some of the crowd prevailed upon Alexander, whom the Jews pushed forward; he raised his hand for silence with the intention of explaining things to the people.

Acts 19:34 As soon as they realised he was a Jew, they all started shouting in unison, ‘Great is Diana of the Ephesians!’ and they kept this up for two hours.

Acts 19:35 When the town clerk eventually succeeded in calming the crowd, he said, ‘Citizens of Ephesus! Is there anybody who does not know that the city of theEphesians is the guardian of the temple of great Diana and of her statue that fell from heaven?

Acts 19:36 Nobody can contradict this and there is no need for you to get excited or do anything rash.

Acts 19:37 These men you have brought here are not guilty of any sacrilege or blasphemy against our goddess.

Acts 19:38 If Demetrius and the craftsmen he has with him want to complain about anyone, there are the assizes and the proconsuls; let them take the case to court.

Acts 19:39 And if you want to ask any more questions you must raise them in the regular assembly.

Acts 19:40 We could easily be charged with rioting for today’s happenings: there is no ground for it all, and we can give no justification for this gathering.’ When he had finished this speech he dismissed the assembly.

Acts 20:1 When the disturbance was over, Paul sent for the disciples and, after speaking words of encouragement to them, said good—bye and set out for Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 On his way through those areas he said many words of encouragement to them and then made his way into Greece,

Acts 20:3 where he spent three months. He was leaving by ship for Syria when a plot organised against him by the Jews made him decide to go back by way of Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 He was accompanied by Sopater, son of Pyrrhus, who came from Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus who came from Thessalonica; Gaius from Derbe, and Timothy, as well as Tychicus and Trophimus who were from Asia.

Acts 20:5 They all went on to Troas where they waited for us.

Acts 20:6 We ourselves left Philippi by ship after the days of Unleavened Bread and joined them five days later at Troas, where we stayed for a week.

Acts 20:7 On the first day of the week we met for the breaking of bread. Paul was due to leave the next day, and he preached a sermon that went on till the middle of the night.

Acts 20:8 A number of lamps were lit in the upstairs room where we were assembled,

Acts 20:9 and as Paul went on and on, a young man called Eutychus who was sitting on the window-sill grew drowsy and was overcome by sleep and fell to the ground three floors below. He was picked up dead.

Acts 20:10 Paul went down and stooped to clasp the boy to him, saying, ‘There is no need to worry, there is still life in him.’

Acts 20:11 Then he went back upstairs where he broke the bread and ate and carried on talking till he left at daybreak.

Acts 20:12 They took the boy away alive, and were greatly encouraged.

Acts 20:13 We were now to go on ahead by sea, so we set sail for Assos, where we were to take Paul on board; this was what he had arranged, for he wanted to go overland.

Acts 20:14 When he rejoined us at Assos we took him aboard and went on to Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 The next day we sailed from there and arrived opposite Chios. The second day we touched at Samos and, after stopping at Trogyllium, made Miletus the next day.

Acts 20:16 Paul had decided to pass wide of Ephesus so as to avoid spending time in Asia, since he was anxious to be in Jerusalem, if possible, for the day of Pentecost.

Acts 20:17 From Miletus he sent for the elders of the church of Ephesus.

Acts 20:18 When they arrived he addressed these words to them: 'You know what my way of life has been ever since the first day I set foot among you in Asia,

Acts 20:19 how I have served the Lord in all humility, with all the sorrows and trials that came to me through the plots of the Jews.

Acts 20:20 I have not hesitated to do anything that would be helpful to you; I have preached to you and instructed you both in public and in your homes,

Acts 20:21 urging both Jews and Greeks to turn to God and to believe in our Lord Jesus.

Acts 20:22 'And now you see me on my way to Jerusalem in captivity to the Spirit; I have no idea what will happen to me there,

Acts 20:23 except that the Holy Spirit, in town after town, has made it clear to me that imprisonment and persecution await me.

Acts 20:24 But I do not place any value on my own life, provided that I complete the mission the Lord Jesus gave me—to bear witness to the good news of God's grace.

Acts 20:25 'I now feel sure that none of you among whom I have gone about proclaiming the kingdom will ever see my face again.

Acts 20:26 And so on this very day I swear that my conscience is clear as far as all of you are concerned,

Acts 20:27 for I have without faltering put before you the whole of God's purpose.

Acts 20:28 'Be on your guard for yourselves and for all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you the guardians, to feed the Church of God which he bought with the blood of his own Son.

Acts 20:29 'I know quite well that when I have gone fierce wolves will invade you and will have no mercy on the flock.

Acts 20:30 Even from your own ranks there will be men coming forward with a travesty of the truth on their lips to induce the disciples to follow them.

Acts 20:31 So be on your guard, remembering how night and day for three years I never slackened in counselling each one of you with tears.

Acts 20:32 And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace that has power to build you up and to give you your inheritance among all the sanctified.

Acts 20:33 'I have never asked anyone for money or clothes;

Acts 20:34 you know for yourselves that these hands of mine earned enough to meet my needs and those of my companions.

Acts 20:35 By every means I have shown you that we must exert ourselves in this way to support the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, who himself said, “There is more happiness in giving than in receiving.” ‘

Acts 20:36 When he had finished speaking he knelt down with them all and prayed.

Acts 20:37 By now they were all in tears; they put their arms round Paul’s neck and kissed him;

Acts 20:38 what saddened them most was his saying they would never see his face again. Then they escorted him to the ship.

Acts 21:1 When we had at last torn ourselves away from them and put to sea, we set a straight course and arrived at Cos; the next day we reached Rhodes, and from there went on to Patara.

Acts 21:2 Here we found a ship bound for Phoenicia, so we went on board and sailed in her.

Acts 21:3 After sighting Cyprus and leaving it to port, we sailed to Syria and put in at Tyre, since the ship was to unload her cargo there.

Acts 21:4 We sought out the disciples and stayed there a week. Speaking in the Spirit, they kept telling Paul not to go on to Jerusalem,

Acts 21:5 but when our time was up we set off. Together with the women and children they all escorted us on our way till we were out of the town. When we reached the beach, we knelt down and prayed;

Acts 21:6 then, after saying good—bye to each other, we went aboard and they returned home.

Acts 21:7 The end of our voyage from Tyre came when we landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed one day with them.

Acts 21:8 The next day we left and came to Caesarea. Here we called on Philip the evangelist, one of the Seven, and stayed with him.

Acts 21:9 He had four unmarried daughters who were prophets.

Acts 21:10 When we had been there several days a prophet called Agabus arrived from Judaea.

Acts 21:11 He came up to us, took Paul’s belt and tied up his own feet and hands, and said, 'This is what the Holy Spirit says, “The man to whom this girdle belongs will be tied up like this by the Jews in Jerusalem and handed over to the gentiles." '

Acts 21:12 When we heard this, we and all the local people urged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:13 To this he replied, 'What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For my part, I am ready not only to be bound but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.'

Acts 21:14 And so, as he would not be persuaded, we gave up the attempt, saying, 'The Lord's will be done.'

Acts 21:15 After this we made our preparations and went on up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:16 Some of the disciples from Caesarea accompanied us and took us to the house of a Cypriot with whom we were to lodge; he was called Mnason and had been one of the earliest disciples.

Acts 21:17 On our arrival in Jerusalem the brothers gave us a very warm welcome.

Acts 21:18 The next day Paul went with us to visit James, and all the elders were present.

Acts 21:19 After greeting them he gave a detailed account of all that God had done among the gentiles through his ministry.

Acts 21:20 They gave glory to God when they heard this. Then they said, 'You see, brother, how thousands of Jews have now become believers, all of them staunch upholders of the Law;

Acts 21:21 and what they have heard about you is that you instruct all Jews living among the gentiles to break away from Moses, authorising them not to circumcise their children or to follow the customary practices.

Acts 21:22 What is to be done? A crowd is sure to gather, for they will hear that you have come.

Acts 21:23 So this is what we suggest that you should do; we have four men here who are under a vow;

Acts 21:24 take these men along and be purified with them and pay all the expenses connected with the shaving of their heads. This will let everyone know there is no truth in the reports they have heard about you, and that you too observe the Law by your way of life.

Acts 21:25 About the gentiles who have become believers, we have written giving them our decision that they must abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from illicit marriages.'

Acts 21:26 So the next day Paul took the men along and was purified with them, and he visited the Temple to give notice of the time when the period of purification would be over and the offering would have to be presented on behalf of each of them.

Acts 21:27 The seven days were nearly over when some Jews from Asia caught sight of him in the Temple and stirred up the crowd and seized him,

Acts 21:28 shouting, ‘Men of Israel, help! This is the man who preaches to everyone everywhere against our people, against the Law and against this place. He has even profaned this Holy Place by bringing Greeks into the Temple.’

Acts 21:29 They had, in fact, previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him and thought that Paul had brought him into the Temple.

Acts 21:30 This roused the whole city; people came running from all sides; they seized Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, and the gates were closed behind them.

Acts 21:31 While they were setting about killing him, word reached the tribune of the cohort that there was tumult all over Jerusalem.

Acts 21:32 He immediately called out soldiers and centurions and charged down on the crowd, who stopped beating Paul when they saw the tribune and the soldiers.

Acts 21:33 When the tribune came up he took Paul into custody, had him bound with two chains and enquired who he was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 People in the crowd called out different things, and since the noise made it impossible for him to get any positive information, the tribune ordered Paul to be taken into the fortress.

Acts 21:35 When Paul reached the steps, the crowd became so violent that he had to be carried by the soldiers;

Acts 21:36 and indeed the whole mob was after them, shouting, ‘Do away with him!’

Acts 21:37 Just as Paul was being taken into the fortress, he asked the tribune if he could have a word with him. The tribune said, ‘You speak Greek, then?

Acts 21:38 Aren’t you the Egyptian who started the recent revolt and led those four thousand cut-throats out into the desert?’

Acts 21:39 ‘I?’ said Paul, ‘I am a Jew and a citizen of the well-known city of Tarsus in Cilicia. Please give me permission to speak to the people.’

Acts 21:40 The man gave his consent and Paul, standing at the top of the steps, raised his hand to the people for silence. A profound silence followed, and he started speaking to them in Hebrew.

Acts 22:1 ‘My brothers, my fathers, listen to what I have to say to you in my defence.’

Acts 22:2 When they realised he was speaking in Hebrew, the silence was even greater than before.

Acts 22:3 ‘I am a Jew’, Paul said, ‘and was born at Tarsus in Cilicia. I was brought up here in this city. It was under Gamaliel that I studied and was taught the exact observance of the Law of our ancestors. In fact, I was as full of duty towards God as you all are today.

Acts 22:4 I even persecuted this Way to the death and sent women as well as men to prison in chains

Acts 22:5 as the high priest and the whole council of elders can testify. I even received letters from them to the brothers in Damascus, which I took with me when I set off to bring prisoners back from there to Jerusalem for punishment.

Acts 22:6 ‘It happened that I was on that journey and nearly at Damascus when in the middle of the day a bright light from heaven suddenly shone round me.

Acts 22:7 I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?”

Acts 22:8 I answered, “Who are you, Lord?” and he said to me, “I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.”

Acts 22:9 The people with me saw the light but did not hear the voice which spoke to me.

Acts 22:10 I said, “What am I to do, Lord?” The Lord answered, “Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told what you have been appointed to do.”

Acts 22:11 Since the light had been so dazzling that I was blind, I got to Damascus only because my companions led me by the hand.

Acts 22:12 ‘Someone called Ananias, a devout follower of the Law and highly thought of by all the Jews living there,

Acts 22:13 came to see me; he stood beside me and said, “Brother Saul, receive your sight.” Instantly my sight came back and I was able to see him.

Acts 22:14 Then he said, “The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see the Upright One and hear his own voice speaking,

Acts 22:15 because you are to be his witness before all humanity, testifying to what you have seen and heard.

Acts 22:16 And now why delay? Hurry and be baptised and wash away your sins, calling on his name.”

Acts 22:17 ‘It happened that, when I got back to Jerusalem, and was praying in the Temple, I fell into a trance

Acts 22:18 and then I saw him. “Hurry,” he said, “leave Jerusalem at once; they will not accept the testimony you are giving about me.”

Acts 22:19 “Lord,” I answered, “they know that I used to go from synagogue to synagogue, imprisoning and flogging those who believed in you;

Acts 22:20 and that when the blood of your witness Stephen was being shed, I, too, was standing by, in full agreement with his murderers, and in charge of their clothes.”

Acts 22:21 Then he said to me, “Go! I am sending you out to the gentiles far away.” ‘

Acts 22:22 So far they had listened to him, but at these words they began to shout, ‘Rid the earth of the man! He is not fit to live!’

Acts 22:23 They were yelling, waving their cloaks and throwing dust into the air,

Acts 22:24 and so the tribune had him brought into the fortress and ordered him to be examined under the lash, to find out the reason for the outcry against him.

Acts 22:25 But when they had strapped him down Paul said to the centurion on duty, ‘Is it legal for you to flog a man who is a Roman citizen and has not been brought to trial?’

Acts 22:26 When he heard this the centurion went and told the tribune; ‘Do you realise what you are doing?’ he said. ‘This man is a Roman citizen.’

Acts 22:27 So the tribune came and asked him, ‘Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?’ Paul answered ‘Yes’.

Acts 22:28 To this the tribune replied, ‘It cost me a large sum to acquire this citizenship.’ ‘But I was born to it,’ said Paul.

Acts 22:29 Then those who were about to examine him hurriedly withdrew, and the tribune himself was alarmed when he realised that he had put a Roman citizen in chains.

Acts 22:30 The next day, since he wanted to know for sure what charge the Jews were bringing, he freed Paul and gave orders for a meeting of the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin; then he brought Paul down and set him in front of them.

Acts 23:1 Paul looked steadily at the Sanhedrin and began to speak, ‘My brothers, to this day I have conducted myself before God with a perfectly clear conscience.’

Acts 23:2 At this the high priest Ananias ordered his attendants to strike him on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 Then Paul said to him, ‘God will surely strike you, you whitewashed wall! How can you sit there to judge me according to the Law, and then break the Law by ordering a man to strike me?’

Acts 23:4 The attendants said, ‘Are you insulting the high priest of God?

Acts 23:5 Paul answered, ‘Brothers, I did not realise it was the high priest; certainly scripture says, “You will not curse your people’s leader.”

Acts 23:6 Now Paul was well aware that one party was made up of Sadducees and the other of Pharisees, so he called out in the Sanhedrin, ‘Brothers, I am a Pharisee and the son of Pharisees. It is for our hope in the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial.’

Acts 23:7 As soon as he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was split between the two parties.

Acts 23:8 For the Sadducees say there is neither resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit, while the Pharisees accept all three.

Acts 23:9 The shouting grew louder, and some of the scribes from the Pharisees’ party stood up and protested strongly, ‘We find nothing wrong with this man. Suppose a spirit has spoken to him, or an angel?’

Acts 23:10 Feeling was running high, and the tribune, afraid that they would tear Paul to pieces, ordered his troops to go down and haul him out and bring him into the fortress.

Acts 23:11 Next night, the Lord appeared to him and said, ‘Courage! You have borne witness for me in Jerusalem, now you must do the same in Rome.’

Acts 23:12 When it was day, the Jews held a secret meeting at which they made a vow not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul.

Acts 23:13 More than forty of them entered this pact,

Acts 23:14 and they went to the chief priests and elders and told them, ‘We have made a solemn vow to let nothing pass our lips until we have killed Paul.

Acts 23:15 Now it is up to you and the Sanhedrin together to apply to the tribune to bring him down to you, as though you meant to examine his case more closely; we, on our side, are prepared to dispose of him before he reaches you.’

Acts 23:16 But the son of Paul’s sister heard of the ambush they were laying and made his way into the fortress and told Paul,

Acts 23:17 who called one of the centurions and said, ‘Take this young man to the tribune; he has something to tell him.’

Acts 23:18 So the man took him to the tribune, and reported, ‘The prisoner Paul summoned me and requested me to bring this young man to you; he has something to tell you.’

Acts 23:19 Then the tribune took him by the hand and drew him aside and questioned him in private, ‘What is it you have to tell me?’

Acts 23:20 He replied, ‘The Jews have made a plan to ask you to take Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow, as though they meant to enquire more closely into his case.

Acts 23:21 Do not believe them. There are more than forty of them lying in wait for him, and they have vowed not to eat or drink until they have got rid of him. They are ready now and only waiting for your order to be given.'

Acts 23:22 The tribune let the young man go with this order, 'Tell no one that you have given me this information.'

Acts 23:23 Then he summoned two of the centurions and said, 'Get two hundred soldiers ready to leave for Caesarea by the third hour of the night with seventy cavalry and two hundred auxiliaries;

Acts 23:24 provide horses for Paul, and deliver him unharmed to Felix the governor.'

Acts 23:25 He also wrote a letter in these terms:

Acts 23:27 This man had been seized by the Jews and would have been murdered by them; but I came on the scene with my troops and got him away, having discovered that he was a Roman citizen.

Acts 23:28 Wanting to find out what charge they were making against him, I brought him before their Sanhedrin.

Acts 23:29 I found that the accusation concerned disputed points of their Law, but that there was no charge deserving death or imprisonment.

Acts 23:30 Acting on information that there was a conspiracy against the man, I hasten to send him to you, and have notified his accusers that they must state their case against him in your presence.'

Acts 23:31 The soldiers carried out their orders; they took Paul and escorted him by night to Antipatris.

Acts 23:32 Next day they left the mounted escort to go on with him and returned to the fortress.

Acts 23:33 On arriving at Caesarea the escort delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him.

Acts 23:34 When he had read it, he asked Paul what province he came from. Learning that he was from Cilicia he said,

Acts 23:35 'I will hear your case as soon as your accusers are here too.' Then he ordered him to be held in Herod's praetorium.

Acts 24:1 Five days later the high priest Ananias came down with some of the elders and an advocate named Tertullus, and they laid information against Paul before the governor.

Acts 24:2 Paul was called, and Tertullus opened for the prosecution, 'Your Excellency, Felix, the unbroken peace we enjoy and the reforms this nation owes to your foresight

Acts 24:3 are matters we accept, always and everywhere, with all gratitude.

Acts 24:4 I do not want to take up too much of your time, but I urge you in your graciousness to give us a brief hearing.

Acts 24:5 We have found this man a perfect pest; he stirs up trouble among Jews the world over and is a ringleader of the Nazarene sect.

Acts 24:6 He has even attempted to profane the Temple. We placed him under arrest.

Acts 24:7 'I know that you have administered justice over this nation for many years, and I can therefore speak with confidence in my defence.

Acts 24:8 If you ask him you can find out for yourself the truth of all our accusations against this man.'

Acts 24:9 The Jews supported him, asserting that these were the facts.

Acts 24:10 When the governor motioned him to speak, Paul answered:

Acts 24:11 As you can verify for yourself, it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem on pilgrimage,

Acts 24:12 and it is not true that they ever found me arguing with anyone or stirring up the mob, either in the Temple, in the synagogues, or about the town;

Acts 24:13 neither can they give you any proof of the accusations they are making against me now.

Acts 24:14 'What I do admit to you is this: it is according to the Way, which they describe as a sect, that I worship the God of my ancestors, retaining my belief in all points of the Law and in what is written in the prophets;

Acts 24:15 and I hold the same hope in God as they do that there will be a resurrection of the upright and the wicked alike.

Acts 24:16 In these things, I, as much as they, do my best to keep a clear conscience at all times before God and everyone.

Acts 24:17 'After several years I came to bring relief-money to my nation and to make offerings;

Acts 24:18 it was in connection with these that they found me in the Temple; I had been purified, and there was no crowd involved, and no disturbance.

Acts 24:19 But some Jews from Asia—these are the ones who should have appeared before you and accused me of whatever they had against me.

Acts 24:20 At least let those who are present say what crime they held against me when I stood before the Sanhedrin,

Acts 24:21 unless it were to do with this single claim, when I stood up among them and called out, "It is about the resurrection of the dead that I am on trial before you today." '

Acts 24:22 At this, Felix, who was fairly well informed about the Way, adjourned the case, saying, 'When Lysias the tribune comes down I will give judgement about your case.'

Acts 24:23 He then gave orders to the centurion that Paul should be kept under arrest but free from restriction, and that none of his own people should be prevented from seeing to his needs.

Acts 24:24 Some days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and gave him a hearing on the subject of faith in Christ Jesus.

Acts 24:25 But when Paul began to treat of uprightness, self-control and the coming Judgement, Felix took fright and said, 'You may go for the present; I will send for you when I find it convenient.'

Acts 24:26 At the same time he had hopes of receiving money from Paul, and for this reason he sent for him frequently and had talks with him.

Acts 24:27 When two years came to an end, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus and, being anxious to gain favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in custody.

Acts 25:1 Three days after his arrival in the province, Festus went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.

Acts 25:3 urgently asking him to support them against him, and to have him transferred to Jerusalem. They were preparing an ambush to murder him on the way.

Acts 25:4 But Festus replied that Paul was in custody in Caesarea, and that he would be going back there shortly himself.

Acts 25:5 He said, 'Let your authorities come down with me, and if there is anything wrong about the man, they can bring a charge against him.'

Acts 25:6 After staying with them for eight or ten days at the most, he went down to Caesarea and the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and had Paul brought in.

Acts 25:7 As soon as Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem surrounded him, making many serious accusations which they were unable to substantiate.

Acts 25:8 Paul's defence was this, 'I have committed no offence whatever against either Jewish law, or the Temple, or Caesar.'

Acts 25:9 Festus was anxious to gain favour with the Jews, so he said to Paul, 'Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and be tried on these charges before me there?'

Acts 25:10 But Paul replied, 'I am standing before the tribunal of Caesar and this is where I should be tried. I have done the Jews no wrong, as you very well know.

Acts 25:11 If I am guilty of committing any capital crime, I do not ask to be spared the death penalty. But if there is no substance in the accusations these persons bring against me, no one has a right to surrender me to them. I appeal to Caesar.'

Acts 25:12 Then Festus conferred with his advisers and replied, 'You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you shall go.'

Acts 25:13 Some days later King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea and paid their respects to Festus.

Acts 25:15 and while I was in Jerusalem the chief priests and elders of the Jews laid information against him, demanding his condemnation.

Acts 25:16 But I told them that Romans are not in the habit of surrendering any man, until the accused confronts his accusers and is given an opportunity to defend himself against the charge.

Acts 25:17 So they came here with me, and I wasted no time but took my seat on the tribunal the very next day and had the man brought in.

Acts 25:18 When confronted with him, his accusers did not charge him with any of the crimes I had expected;

Acts 25:19 but they had some argument or other with him about their own religion and about a dead man called Jesus whom Paul alleged to be alive.

Acts 25:20 Not feeling qualified to deal with questions of this sort, I asked him if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there on this issue.

Acts 25:21 But Paul put in an appeal for his case to be reserved for the judgement of the emperor, so I ordered him to be remanded until I could send him to Caesar.'

Acts 25:22 Agrippa said to Festus, 'I should like to hear the man myself.' He answered, 'Tomorrow you shall hear him.'

Acts 25:23 So the next day Agrippa and Bernice arrived in great state and entered the audience chamber attended by the tribunes and the city notables; and Festus ordered Paul to be brought in.

Acts 25:24 Then Festus said, 'King Agrippa, and all here present with us, you see before you the man about whom the whole Jewish community has petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, loudly protesting that he ought not to be allowed to remain alive.

Acts 25:25 For my own part I am satisfied that he has committed no capital crime, but when he himself appealed to the emperor I decided to send him.

Acts 25:26 But I have nothing definite that I can write to his Imperial Majesty about him; that is why I have produced him before you all, and before you in particular, King Agrippa, so that after the examination I may have something to write.

Acts 25:27 It seems to me pointless to send a prisoner without indicating the charges against him.’

Acts 26:1 Then Agrippa said to Paul, ‘You have leave to speak on your own behalf.’ And Paul held up his hand and began his defence:

Acts 26:2 ‘I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, in that it is before you I am to answer today all the charges made against me by the Jews,

Acts 26:3 the more so because you are an expert in matters of custom and controversy among the Jews. So I beg you to listen to me patiently.

Acts 26:4 ‘My manner of life from my youth, a life spent from the beginning among my own people and in Jerusalem, is common knowledge among the Jews.

Acts 26:5 They have known me for a long time and could testify, if they would, that I followed the strictest party in our religion and lived as a Pharisee.

Acts 26:6 And now it is for my hope in the promise made by God to our ancestors that I am on trial,

Acts 26:7 the promise that our twelve tribes, constant in worship night and day, hope to attain. For that hope, Your Majesty, I am actually put on trial by Jews!

Acts 26:8 Why does it seem incredible to you that God should raise the dead?

Acts 26:9 ‘As for me, I once thought it was my duty to use every means to oppose the name of Jesus the Nazarene.

Acts 26:10 This I did in Jerusalem; I myself threw many of God’s holy people into prison, acting on authority from the chief priests, and when they were being sentenced to death I cast my vote against them.

Acts 26:11 I often went round the synagogues inflicting penalties, trying in this way to force them to renounce their faith; my fury against them was so extreme that I even pursued them into foreign cities.

Acts 26:12 ‘On such an expedition I was going to Damascus, armed with full powers and a commission from the chief priests,

Acts 26:13 and in the middle of the day as I was on my way, Your Majesty, I saw a light from heaven shining more brilliantly than the sun round me and my fellow-travellers.

Acts 26:14 We all fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me in Hebrew, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you, kicking against the goad.

Acts 26:15 Then I said, “Who are you, Lord?” And the Lord answered, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.

Acts 26:16 But get up and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this reason: to appoint you as my servant and as witness of this vision in which you have seen me, and of others in which I shall appear to you.

Acts 26:17 I shall rescue you from the people and from the nations to whom I send you

Acts 26:18 to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light, from the dominion of Satan to God, and receive, through faith in me, forgiveness of their sins and a share in the inheritance of the sanctified.”

Acts 26:19 ‘After that, King Agrippa, I could not disobey the heavenly vision.

Acts 26:20 On the contrary I started preaching, first to the people of Damascus, then to those of Jerusalem and all Judaean territory, and also to the gentiles, urging them to repent and turn to God, proving their change of heart by their deeds.

Acts 26:21 This was why the Jews laid hands on me in the Temple and tried to do away with me.

Acts 26:22 But I was blessed with God’s help, and so I have stood firm to this day, testifying to great and small alike, saying nothing more than what the prophets and Moses himself said would happen:

Acts 26:23 that the Christ was to suffer and that, as the first to rise from the dead, he was to proclaim a light for our people and for the gentiles.’

Acts 26:24 He had reached this point in his defence when Festus shouted out, ‘Paul, you are out of your mind; all that learning of yours is driving you mad.’

Acts 26:25 But Paul answered, ‘Festus, your Excellency, I am not mad: I am speaking words of sober truth and good sense.

Acts 26:26 The king understands these matters, and to him I now speak fearlessly. I am confident that nothing of all this comes as a surprise to him; after all, these things were not done in a corner.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe in the prophets? I know you do.’

Acts 26:28 At this Agrippa said to Paul, ‘A little more, and your arguments would make a Christian of me.’

Acts 26:29 Paul replied, ‘Little or much, I wish before God that not only you but all who are listening to me today would come to be as I am—except for these chains.’

Acts 26:30 At this the king rose to his feet, with the governor and Bernice and those who sat there with them.

Acts 26:31 When they had retired they talked together and agreed, ‘This man is doing nothing that deserves death or imprisonment.’

Acts 26:32 And Agrippa remarked to Festus, ‘The man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.’

Acts 27:1 When it had been decided that we should sail to Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion called Julius, of the Augustan cohort.

Acts 27:2 We boarded a vessel from Adramyttium bound for ports on the Asiatic coast and put to sea; we had Aristarchus with us, a Macedonian of Thessalonica.

Acts 27:3 Next day we put in at Sidon, and Julius was considerate enough to allow Paul to go to his friends to be looked after.

Acts 27:4 From there we put to sea again, but as the winds were against us we sailed under the lee of Cyprus,

Acts 27:5 then across the open sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia, taking a fortnight to reach Myra in Lycia.

Acts 27:6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship leaving for Italy and put us aboard.

Acts 27:7 For some days we made little headway, and we had difficulty in making Cnidus. The wind would not allow us to touch there, so we sailed under the lee of Crete off Cape Salmone

Acts 27:8 and struggled along the coast until we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 A great deal of time had been lost, and navigation was already hazardous, since it was now well after the time of the Fast, so Paul gave them this warning,

Acts 27:10 ‘Friends, I can see this voyage will be dangerous and that we will run considerable risk of losing not only the cargo and the ship but also our lives as well.’

Acts 27:11 But the centurion took more notice of the captain and the ship’s owner than of what Paul was saying;

Acts 27:12 and since the harbour was unsuitable for wintering, the majority were for putting out from there in the hope of wintering at Phoenix—a harbour in Crete, facing south-west and north-west.

Acts 27:13 A southerly breeze sprang up and, thinking their objective as good as reached, they weighed anchor and began to sail past Crete, close inshore.

Acts 27:14 But it was not long before a hurricane, the ‘north-easter’ as they call it, burst on them from across the island.

Acts 27:15 The ship was caught and could not keep head to wind, so we had to give way to the wind and let ourselves be driven.

Acts 27:16 We ran under the lee of a small island called Cauda and managed with some difficulty to bring the ship's boat under control.

Acts 27:17 Having hauled it up they used it to undergird the ship; then, afraid of running aground on the Syrtis banks, they floated out the sea-anchor and so let themselves drift.

Acts 27:18 As we were thoroughly storm-bound, the next day they began to jettison the cargo,

Acts 27:19 and the third day they threw the ship's gear overboard with their own hands.

Acts 27:20 For a number of days both the sun and the stars were invisible and the storm raged unabated until at last we gave up all hope of surviving.

Acts 27:21 Then, when they had been without food for a long time, Paul stood up among the men. 'Friends,' he said, 'you should have listened to me and not put out from Crete. You would have spared yourselves all this damage and loss.

Acts 27:22 But now I ask you not to give way to despair. There will be no loss of life at all, only of the ship.

Acts 27:23 Last night there appeared beside me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve,

Acts 27:24 and he said, "Do not be afraid, Paul. You are destined to appear before Caesar, and God grants you the safety of all who are sailing with you."

Acts 27:25 So take courage, friends; I trust in God that things will turn out just as I was told;

Acts 27:26 but we are to be stranded on some island.'

Acts 27:27 On the fourteenth night we were being driven one way and another in the Adriatic, when about midnight the crew sensed that land of some sort was near.

Acts 27:28 They took soundings and found twenty fathoms; after a short interval they sounded again and found fifteen fathoms.

Acts 27:29 Then, afraid that we might run aground somewhere on a reef, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight.

Acts 27:30 When the crew tried to escape from the ship and lowered the ship's boat into the sea as though they meant to lay out anchors from the bows, Paul said to the centurion and his men,

Acts 27:31 'Unless those men stay on board you cannot hope to be saved.'

Acts 27:32 So the soldiers cut the boat's ropes and let it drop away.

Acts 27:33 Just before daybreak Paul urged them all to have something to eat. ‘For fourteen days’, he said, ‘you have been in suspense, going hungry and eating nothing.

Acts 27:34 I urge you to have something to eat; your safety depends on it. Not a hair of any of your heads will be lost.’

Acts 27:35 With these words he took some bread, gave thanks to God in view of them all, broke it and began to eat.

Acts 27:37 In all we were two hundred and seventy-six souls on board that ship.

Acts 27:38 When they had eaten what they wanted they lightened the ship by throwing the corn overboard into the sea.

Acts 27:39 When day came they did not recognise the land, but they could make out a bay with a beach; they planned to run the ship aground on this if they could.

Acts 27:40 They slipped the anchors and let them fall into the sea, and at the same time loosened the lashings of the rudders; then, hoisting the foresail to the wind, they headed for the beach.

Acts 27:41 But the cross-currents carried them into a shoal and the vessel ran aground. The bows were wedged in and stuck fast, while the stern began to break up with the pounding of the waves.

Acts 27:42 The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners for fear that any should swim off and escape.

Acts 27:43 But the centurion was determined to bring Paul safely through and would not let them carry out their plan. He gave orders that those who could swim should jump overboard first and so get ashore,

Acts 27:44 and the rest follow either on planks or on pieces of wreckage. In this way it happened that all came safe and sound to land.

Acts 28:1 Once we had come safely through, we discovered that the island was called Malta.

Acts 28:2 The inhabitants treated us with unusual kindness. They made us all welcome by lighting a huge fire because it had started to rain and the weather was cold.

Acts 28:3 Paul had collected a bundle of sticks and was putting them on the fire when a viper brought out by the heat attached itself to his hand.

Acts 28:4 When the inhabitants saw the creature hanging from his hand they said to one another, ‘That man must be a murderer; he may have escaped the sea, but divine justice would not let him live.’

Acts 28:5 However, he shook the creature off into the fire and came to no harm, Acts 28:6 although they were expecting him at any moment to swell up or drop dead on the spot. After they had waited a long time without seeing anything out of the ordinary happen to him, they changed their minds and began to say he was a god.

Acts 28:7 In that neighbourhood there were estates belonging to the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius. He received us and entertained us hospitably for three days.

Acts 28:8 It happened that Publius' father was in bed, suffering from fever and dysentery. Paul went in to see him, and after a prayer he laid his hands on the man and healed him.

Acts 28:9 When this happened, the other sick people on the island also came and were cured;

Acts 28:10 they honoured us with many marks of respect, and when we sailed they put on board the provisions we needed.

Acts 28:11 At the end of three months we set sail in a ship that had wintered in the island; she came from Alexandria and her figurehead was the Twins.

Acts 28:12 We put in at Syracuse and spent three days there;

Acts 28:13 from there we followed the coast up to Rhegium. After one day there a south wind sprang up and on the second day we made Puteoli,

Acts 28:14 where we found some brothers and had the great encouragement of staying a week with them. And so we came to Rome.

Acts 28:15 When the brothers there heard about us they came to meet us, as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns. When Paul saw them he thanked God and took courage.

Acts 28:16 On our arrival in Rome Paul was allowed to stay in lodgings of his own with the soldier who guarded him.

Acts 28:17 After three days he called together the leading Jews. When they had assembled, he said to them, 'Brothers, although I have done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans.

Acts 28:18 They examined me and would have set me free, since they found me guilty of nothing involving the death penalty;

Acts 28:19 but the Jews lodged an objection, and I was forced to appeal to Caesar, though not because I had any accusation to make against my own nation.

Acts 28:20 That is why I have urged you to see me and have a discussion with me, for it is on account of the hope of Israel that I wear this chain.'

Acts 28:21 They answered, 'We have received no letters from Judaea about you, nor has any of the brothers arrived here with any report or story of anything to your discredit.

Acts 28:22 We think it would be as well to hear your own account of your position; all we know about this sect is that it encounters opposition everywhere.’

Acts 28:23 So they arranged a day with him and a large number of them visited him at his lodgings. He put his case to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them about Jesus, arguing from the Law of Moses and the prophets from early morning until evening;

Acts 28:24 and some were convinced by what he said, while the rest were sceptical.

Acts 28:25 So they disagreed among themselves and, as they went away, Paul had one last thing to say to them, ‘How aptly the Holy Spirit spoke when he told your ancestors through the prophet Isaiah:

Acts 28:26 Go and say to this people: Listen and listen but never understand! Look and look but never perceive!

Acts 28:27 This people’s heart is torpid, their ears dulled, they have shut their eyes tight, to avoid using their eyes to see, their ears to hear, using their heart to understand, changing their ways and being healed by me.

Acts 28:28 ‘You must realise, then, that this salvation of God has been sent to the gentiles;they will listen to it.’

Acts 28:29

Acts 28:30 He spent the whole of the two years in his own rented lodging. He welcomed all who came to visit him,

Acts 28:31 proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the truth about the Lord Jesus Christ with complete fearlessness and without any hindrance from anyone.

Romans

1:1 From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle,

Romans 1:2 set apart for the service of the gospel that God promised long ago through his prophets in the holy scriptures.

Romans 1:3 This is the gospel concerning his Son who, in terms of human nature

Romans 1:4 was born a descendant of David and who, in terms of the Spirit and of holiness, was designated Son of God in power by resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ, our Lord,

Romans 1:5 through whom we have received grace and our apostolic mission of winning the obedience of faith among all the nations for the honour of his name.

Romans 1:6 You are among these, and by his call you belong to Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:7 To you all, God’s beloved in Rome, called to be his holy people. Grace and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:8 First I give thanks to my God through Jesus Christ for all of you because your faith is talked of all over the world.

Romans 1:9 God, whom I serve with my spirit in preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witness that I continually mention you in my prayers,

Romans 1:10 asking always that by some means I may at long last be enabled to visit you, if it is God’s will.

Romans 1:11 For I am longing to see you so that I can convey to you some spiritual gift that will be a lasting strength,

Romans 1:12 or rather that we may be strengthened together through our mutual faith, yours and mine.

Romans 1:13 I want you to be quite certain too, brothers, that I have often planned to visit you—though up to the present I have always been prevented—in the hope that I might work as fruitfully among you as I have among the gentiles elsewhere.

Romans 1:14 I have an obligation to Greeks as well as barbarians, to the educated as well as the ignorant,

Romans 1:15 and hence the eagerness on my part to preach the gospel to you in Rome too.

Romans 1:16 For I see no reason to be ashamed of the gospel; it is God’s power for the salvation of everyone who has faith—Jews first, but Greeks as well-

Romans 1:17 for in it is revealed the saving justice of God: a justice based on faith and addressed to faith. As it says in scripture: Anyone who is upright through faith will live.

Romans 1:18 The retribution of God from heaven is being revealed against the ungodliness and injustice of human beings who in their injustice hold back the truth.

Romans 1:19 For what can be known about God is perfectly plain to them, since God has made it plain to them:

Romans 1:20 ever since the creation of the world, the invisible existence of God and his everlasting power have been clearly seen by the mind’s understanding of created things. And so these people have no excuse:

Romans 1:21 they knew God and yet they did not honour him as God or give thanks to him, but their arguments became futile and their uncomprehending minds were darkened.

Romans 1:22 While they claimed to be wise, in fact they were growing so stupid

Romans 1:23 that they exchanged the glory of the immortal God for an imitation, for the image of a mortal human being, or of birds, or animals, or crawling things.

Romans 1:24 That is why God abandoned them in their inmost cravings to filthy practices of dishonouring their own bodies-

Romans 1:25 because they exchanged God’s truth for a lie and have worshipped and served the creature instead of the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

Romans 1:26 That is why God abandoned them to degrading passions:

Romans 1:27 why their women have exchanged natural intercourse for unnatural practices; and the men, in a similar fashion, too, giving up normal relations with women, are consumed with passion for each other, men doing shameful things with men and receiving in themselves due reward for their perversion.

Romans 1:28 In other words, since they would not consent to acknowledge God, God abandoned them to their unacceptable thoughts and indecent behaviour.

Romans 1:29 And so now they are steeped in all sorts of injustice, rottenness, greed and malice; full of envy, murder, wrangling, treachery and spite,

Romans 1:30 libellers, slanderers, enemies of God, rude, arrogant and boastful, enterprising in evil, rebellious to parents,

Romans 1:31 without brains, honour, love or pity.

Romans 1:32 They are well aware of God’s ordinance: that those who behave like this deserve to die—yet they not only do it, but even applaud others who do the same.

Romans 2:1 So no matter who you are, if you pass judgement you have no excuse. It is yourself that you condemn when you judge others, since you behave in the same way as those you are condemning.

Romans 2:2 We are well aware that people who behave like that are justly condemned by God.

Romans 2:3 But you—when you judge those who behave like this while you are doing the same yourself—do you think you will escape God’s condemnation?

Romans 2:4 Or are you not disregarding his abundant goodness, tolerance and patience, failing to realise that this generosity of God is meant to bring you to repentance?

Romans 2:5 Your stubborn refusal to repent is only storing up retribution for yourself on that Day of retribution when God’s just verdicts will be made known.

Romans 2:6 He will repay everyone as their deeds deserve.

Romans 2:7 For those who aimed for glory and honour and immortality by persevering in doing good, there will be eternal life;

Romans 2:8 but for those who out of jealousy have taken for their guide not truth but injustice, there will be the fury of retribution.

Romans 2:9 Trouble and distress will come to every human being who does evil—Jews first, but Greeks as well;

Romans 2:10 glory and honour and peace will come to everyone who does good—Jews first, but Greeks as well.

Romans 2:11 There is no favouritism with God.

Romans 2:12 All those who have sinned without the Law will perish without the Law; and those under the Law who have sinned will be judged by the Law.

Romans 2:13 For the ones that God will justify are not those who have heard the Law but those who have kept the Law.

Romans 2:14 So, when gentiles, not having the Law, still through their own innate sense behave as the Law commands, then, even though they have no Law, they are a law for themselves.

Romans 2:15 They can demonstrate the effect of the Law engraved on their hearts, to which their own conscience bears witness; since they are aware of various considerations, some of which accuse them, while others provide them with a defence . . . on the day when,

Romans 2:16 according to the gospel that I preach, God, through Jesus Christ, judges all human secrets.

Romans 2:17 If you can call yourself a Jew, and you really trust in the Law, and are proud of your God,

Romans 2:18 and know his will, and tell right from wrong because you have been taught by the Law;

Romans 2:19 if you are confident that you are a guide to the blind and a beacon to those in the dark,

Romans 2:20 that you can teach the ignorant and instruct the unlearned because the Law embodies all knowledge and all truth-

Romans 2:21 so then, in teaching others, do you teach yourself as well? You preach that there is to be no stealing, but do you steal?

Romans 2:22 You say that adultery is forbidden, but do you commit adultery? You detest the worship of objects, but do you desecrate holy things yourself?

Romans 2:23 If, while you are boasting of the Law, you disobey it, then you are bringing God into contempt.

Romans 2:24 As scripture says: It is your fault that the name of God is held in contempt among the nations.

Romans 2:25 Circumcision has its value if you keep the Law; but if you go on breaking the Law, you are no more circumcised than the uncircumcised.

Romans 2:26 And if an uncircumcised man keeps the commands of the Law, will not his uncircumcised state count as circumcision?

Romans 2:27 More, the man who, in his native uncircumcised state, keeps the Law, is a condemnation of you, who, by your concentration on the letter and on circumcision, actually break the Law.

Romans 2:28 Being a Jew is not only having the outward appearance of a Jew, and circumcision is not only a visible physical operation.

Romans 2:29 The real Jew is the one who is inwardly a Jew, and real circumcision is in the heart, a thing not of the letter but of the spirit. He may not be praised by any human being, but he will be praised by God.

Romans 3:1 Is there any benefit, then, in being a Jew? Is there any advantage in being circumcised?

Romans 3:2 A great deal, in every way. First of all, it was to the Jews that the message of God was entrusted.

Romans 3:3 What if some of them were unfaithful? Do you think their lack of faith could cancel God's faithfulness?

Romans 3:4 Out of the question! God will always be true even if no human being can be relied on. As scripture says: That you may show your saving justice when you pass sentence and your victory may appear when you give judgement.

Romans 3:5 But if our injustice serves to bring God's saving justice into view, can we say that God is unjust when—to use human terms—he brings his retribution down on us?

Romans 3:6 Out of the question! It would mean that God could not be the judge of the world.

Romans 3:7 You might as well say that if my untruthfulness makes God demonstrate his truthfulness, to his greater glory, then I should not be judged to be a sinner at all.

Romans 3:8 In this case, the slanderous report some people are spreading would be true, that we teach that one should do evil that good may come of it. In fact such people are justly condemned.

Romans 3:9 Well: are we any better off? Not at all: we have already indicted Jews and Greeks as being all alike under the dominion of sin.

Romans 3:10 As scripture says: Not one of them is upright, not a single one,

Romans 3:11 not a single one is wise, not a single one seeks God.

Romans 3:14 their speech is full of cursing and bitterness.

Romans 3:15 Their feet quick to shed innocent blood,

Romans 3:16 wherever they go there is havoc and ruin.

Romans 3:17 They do not know the way of peace,

Romans 3:18 there is no fear of God before their eyes.

Romans 3:19 Now we are well aware that whatever the Law says is said for those who are subject to the Law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and the whole world brought under the judgement of God.

Romans 3:20 So then, no human being can be found upright at the tribunal of God by keeping the Law; all that the Law does is to tell us what is sinful.

Romans 3:21 God's saving justice was witnessed by the Law and the Prophets, but now it has been revealed altogether apart from law:

Romans 3:22 God's saving justice given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe.

Romans 3:23 No distinction is made: all have sinned and lack God's glory,

Romans 3:24 and all are justified by the free gift of his grace through being set free in Christ Jesus.

Romans 3:25 God appointed him as a sacrifice for reconciliation, through faith, by the shedding of his blood, and so showed his justness; first for the past, when sins went unpunished because he held his hand;

Romans 3:26 and now again for the present age, to show how he is just and justifies everyone who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:27 So what becomes of our boasts? There is no room for them. On what principle- that only actions count? No; that faith is what counts,

Romans 3:28 since, as we see it, a person is justified by faith and not by doing what the Law tells him to do.

Romans 3:29 Do you think God is the God only of the Jews, and not of gentiles too? Most certainly of gentiles too,

Romans 3:30 since there is only one God; he will justify the circumcised by their faith, and he will justify the uncircumcised through their faith.

Romans 3:31 Are we saying that the Law has been made pointless by faith? Out of the question; we are placing the Law on its true footing.

Romans 4:1 Then what do we say about Abraham, the ancestor from whom we are descended physically?

Romans 4:2 If Abraham had been justified because of what he had done, then he would have had something to boast about. But not before God:

Romans 4:3 does not scripture say: Abraham put his faith in God and this was reckoned to him as uprightness?

Romans 4:4 Now, when someone works, the wages for this are not considered as a favour but as due;

Romans 4:5 however, when someone, without working, puts faith in the one who justifies the godless, it is this faith that is reckoned as uprightness.

Romans 4:6 David, too, says the same: he calls someone blessed if God attributes uprightness to that person, apart from any action undertaken:

Romans 4:7 How blessed are those whose offence is forgiven, whose sin is blotted out.

Romans 4:8 How blessed are those to whom the Lord imputes no guilt.

Romans 4:9 Is this blessing only for the circumcised, or is it said of the uncircumcised as well? Well, we said of Abraham that his faith was reckoned to him as uprightness.

Romans 4:10 Now how did this come about? When he was already circumcised, or before he had been circumcised? Not when he had been circumcised, but while he was still uncircumcised;

Romans 4:11 and circumcision was given to him later, as a sign and a guarantee that the faith which he had while still uncircumcised was reckoned to him as uprightness. In this way, Abraham was to be the ancestor of all believers who are uncircumcised, so that they might be reckoned as upright;

Romans 4:12 as well as the ancestor of those of the circumcision who not only have their circumcision but who also follow our ancestor Abraham along the path of faith that he trod before he was circumcised.

Romans 4:13 For the promise to Abraham and his descendants that he should inherit the world was not through the Law, but through the uprightness of faith.

Romans 4:14 For if it is those who live by the Law who will gain the inheritance, faith is worthless and the promise is without force;

Romans 4:15 for the Law produces nothing but God's retribution, and it is only where there is no Law that it is possible to live without breaking the Law.

Romans 4:16 That is why the promise is to faith, so that it comes as a free gift and is secure for all the descendants, not only those who rely on the Law but all those others who rely on the faith of Abraham, the ancestor of us all

Romans 4:17 (as scripture says: I have made you the father of many nations). Abraham is our father in the eyes of God, in whom he put his faith, and who brings the dead to life and calls into existence what does not yet exist.

Romans 4:18 Though there seemed no hope, he hoped and believed that he was to become father of many nations in fulfilment of the promise: Just so will your descendants be.

Romans 4:19 Even the thought that his body was as good as dead—he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was dead too did not shake his faith.

Romans 4:20 Counting on the promise of God, he did not doubt or disbelieve, but drew strength from faith and gave glory to God,

Romans 4:21 fully convinced that whatever God promised he has the power to perform.

Romans 4:22 This is the faith that was reckoned to him as uprightness.

Romans 4:23 And the word 'reckoned' in scripture applies not only to him;

Romans 4:24 it is there for our sake too—our faith, too, will be 'reckoned'

Romans 4:25 because we believe in him who raised from the dead our Lord Jesus who was handed over to death for our sins and raised to life for our justification.

Romans 5:1 So then, now that we have been justified by faith, we are at peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;

Romans 5:2 it is through him, by faith, that we have been admitted into God's favour in which we are living, and look forward exultantly to God's glory.

Romans 5:3 Not only that; let us exult, too, in our hardships, understanding that hardship develops perseverance,

Romans 5:4 and perseverance develops a tested character, something that gives us hope,

Romans 5:5 and a hope which will not let us down, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.

Romans 5:6 When we were still helpless, at the appointed time, Christ died for the godless.

Romans 5:7 You could hardly find anyone ready to die even for someone upright; though it is just possible that, for a really good person, someone might undertake to die.

Romans 5:8 So it is proof of God's own love for us, that Christ died for us while we were still sinners.

Romans 5:9 How much more can we be sure, therefore, that, now that we have been justified by his death, we shall be saved through him from the retribution of God.

Romans 5:10 For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more can we be sure that, being now reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

Romans 5:11 What is more, we are filled with exultant trust in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

Romans 5:12 Well then; it was through one man that sin came into the world, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned.

Romans 5:13 Sin already existed in the world before there was any law, even though sin is not reckoned when there is no law.

Romans 5:14 Nonetheless death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sin was not the breaking of a commandment, as Adam's was. He prefigured the One who was to come . . .

Romans 5:15 There is no comparison between the free gift and the offence. If death came to many through the offence of one man, how much greater an effect the grace of God has had, coming to so many and so plentifully as a free gift through the one man Jesus Christ!

Romans 5:16 Again, there is no comparison between the gift and the offence of one man. One single offence brought condemnation, but now, after many offences, have come the free gift and so acquittal!

Romans 5:17 It was by one man's offence that death came to reign over all, but how much greater the reign in life of those who receive the fullness of grace and the gift of saving justice, through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18 One man's offence brought condemnation on all humanity; and one man's good act has brought justification and life to all humanity.

Romans 5:19 Just as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by one man's obedience are many to be made upright.

Romans 5:20 When law came on the scene, it was to multiply the offences. But however much sin increased, grace was always greater;

Romans 5:21 so that as sin's reign brought death, so grace was to rule through saving justice that leads to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:1 What should we say then? Should we remain in sin so that grace may be given the more fully?

Romans 6:2 Out of the question! We have died to sin; how could we go on living in it?

Romans 6:3 You cannot have forgotten that all of us, when we were baptised into Christ Jesus, were baptised into his death.

Romans 6:4 So by our baptism into his death we were buried with him, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glorious power, we too should begin living a new life.

Romans 6:5 If we have been joined to him by dying a death like his, so we shall be by a resurrection like his;

Romans 6:6 realising that our former self was crucified with him, so that the self which belonged to sin should be destroyed and we should be freed from the slavery of sin.

Romans 6:7 Someone who has died, of course, no longer has to answer for sin.

Romans 6:8 But we believe that, if we died with Christ, then we shall live with him too.

Romans 6:9 We know that Christ has been raised from the dead and will never die again. Death has no power over him any more.

Romans 6:10 For by dying, he is dead to sin once and for all, and now the life that he lives is life with God.

Romans 6:11 In the same way, you must see yourselves as being dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:12 That is why you must not allow sin to reign over your mortal bodies and make you obey their desires;

Romans 6:13 or give any parts of your bodies over to sin to be used as instruments of evil. Instead, give yourselves to God, as people brought to life from the dead, and give every part of your bodies to God to be instruments of uprightness;

Romans 6:14 and then sin will no longer have any power over you—you are living not under law, but under grace.

Romans 6:15 What is the implication? That we are free to sin, now that we are not under law but under grace? Out of the question!

Romans 6:16 You know well that if you undertake to be somebody's slave and obey him, you are the slave of him you obey: you can be the slave either of sin which leads to death, or of obedience which leads to saving justice.

Romans 6:17 Once you were slaves of sin, but thank God you have given whole-hearted obedience to the pattern of teaching to which you were introduced;

Romans 6:18 and so, being freed from serving sin, you took uprightness as your master.

Romans 6:19 I am putting it in human terms because you are still weak human beings: as once you surrendered yourselves as servants to immorality and to a lawlessness which results in more lawlessness, now you have to surrender yourselves to uprightness which is to result in sanctification.

Romans 6:20 When you were the servants of sin, you felt no obligation to uprightness,

Romans 6:21 and what did you gain from living like that? Experiences of which you are now ashamed, for that sort of behaviour ends in death.

Romans 6:22 But, now you are set free from sin and bound to the service of God, your gain will be sanctification and the end will be eternal life.

Romans 6:23 For the wage paid by sin is death; the gift freely given by God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 7:1 As people who are familiar with the Law, brothers, you cannot have forgotten that the law can control a person only during that person's lifetime.

Romans 7:2 A married woman, for instance, is bound to her husband by law, as long as he lives, but when her husband dies all her legal obligation to him as husband is ended.

Romans 7:3 So if she were to have relations with another man while her husband was still alive, she would be termed an adulteress; but if her husband dies, her legal obligation comes to an end and if she then has relations with another man, that does not make her an adulteress.

Romans 7:4 In the same way you, my brothers, through the body of Christ have become dead to the Law and so you are able to belong to someone else, that is, to him who was raised from the dead to make us live fruitfully for God.

Romans 7:5 While we were still living by our natural inclinations, the sinful passions aroused by the Law were working in all parts of our bodies to make us live lives which were fruitful only for death.

Romans 7:6 But now we are released from the Law, having died to what was binding us, and so we are in a new service, that of the spirit, and not in the old service of a written code.

Romans 7:7 What should we say, then? That the Law itself is sin? Out of the question! All the same, if it had not been for the Law, I should not have known what sin was; for instance, I should not have known what it meant to covet if the Law had not said: You are not to covet.

Romans 7:8 But, once it found the opportunity through that commandment, sin produced in me all kinds of covetousness; as long as there is no Law, sin is dead.

Romans 7:9 Once, when there was no Law, I used to be alive; but when the commandment came, sin came to life

Romans 7:10 and I died. The commandment was meant to bring life but I found it brought death,

Romans 7:11 because sin, finding its opportunity by means of the commandment, beguiled me and, by means of it, killed me.

Romans 7:12 So then, the Law is holy, and what it commands is holy and upright and good.

Romans 7:13 Does that mean that something good resulted in my dying? Out of the question! But sin, in order to be identified as sin, caused my death through that good thing, and so it is by means of the commandment that sin shows its unbounded sinful power.

Romans 7:14 We are well aware that the Law is spiritual: but I am a creature of flesh and blood sold as a slave to sin.

Romans 7:15 I do not understand my own behaviour; I do not act as I mean to, but I do things that I hate.

Romans 7:16 While I am acting as I do not want to, I still acknowledge the Law as good,

Romans 7:17 so it is not myself acting, but the sin which lives in me.

Romans 7:18 And really, I know of nothing good living in me—in my natural self, that is—for though the will to do what is good is in me, the power to do it is not:

Romans 7:19 the good thing I want to do, I never do; the evil thing which I do not want—that is what I do.

Romans 7:20 But every time I do what I do not want to, then it is not myself acting, but the sin that lives in me.

Romans 7:21 So I find this rule: that for me, where I want to do nothing but good, evil is close at my side.

Romans 7:22 In my inmost self I dearly love God’s law,

Romans 7:23 but I see that acting on my body there is a different law which battles against the law in my mind. So I am brought to be a prisoner of that law of sin which lives inside my body.

Romans 7:24 What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body doomed to death?

Romans 7:25 God—thanks be to him—through Jesus Christ our Lord. So it is that I myself with my mind obey the law of God, but in my disordered nature I obey the law of sin.

Romans 8:1 Thus, condemnation will never come to those who are in Christ Jesus,

Romans 8:2 because the law of the Spirit which gives life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:3 What the Law could not do because of the weakness of human nature, God did, sending his own Son in the same human nature as any sinner to be a sacrifice for sin, and condemning sin in that human nature.

Romans 8:4 This was so that the Law’s requirements might be fully satisfied in us as we direct our lives not by our natural inclinations but by the Spirit.

Romans 8:5 Those who are living by their natural inclinations have their minds on the things human nature desires; those who live in the Spirit have their minds on spiritual things.

Romans 8:6 And human nature has nothing to look forward to but death, while the Spirit looks forward to life and peace,

Romans 8:7 because the outlook of disordered human nature is opposed to God, since it does not submit to God's Law, and indeed it cannot,

Romans 8:8 and those who live by their natural inclinations can never be pleasing to God.

Romans 8:9 You, however, live not by your natural inclinations, but by the Spirit, since the Spirit of God has made a home in you. Indeed, anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.

Romans 8:10 But when Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin but the spirit is alive because you have been justified;

Romans 8:11 and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead has made his home in you, then he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

Romans 8:12 So then, my brothers, we have no obligation to human nature to be dominated by it.

Romans 8:13 If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the habits originating in the body, you will have life.

Romans 8:14 All who are guided by the Spirit of God are sons of God;

Romans 8:15 for what you received was not the spirit of slavery to bring you back into fear; you received the Spirit of adoption, enabling us to cry out, 'Abba, Father!'

Romans 8:16 The Spirit himself joins with our spirit to bear witness that we are children of God.

Romans 8:17 And if we are children, then we are heirs, heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ, provided that we share his suffering, so as to share his glory.

Romans 8:18 In my estimation, all that we suffer in the present time is nothing in comparison with the glory which is destined to be disclosed for us,

Romans 8:19 for the whole creation is waiting with eagerness for the children of God to be revealed.

Romans 8:20 It was not for its own purposes that creation had frustration imposed on it, but for the purposes of him who imposed it-

Romans 8:21 with the intention that the whole creation itself might be freed from its slavery to corruption and brought into the same glorious freedom as the children of God.

Romans 8:22 We are well aware that the whole creation, until this time, has been groaning in labour pains.

Romans 8:23 And not only that: we too, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we are groaning inside ourselves, waiting with eagerness for our bodies to be set free.

Romans 8:24 In hope, we already have salvation; in hope, not visibly present, or we should not be hoping—nobody goes on hoping for something which is already visible.

Romans 8:25 But having this hope for what we cannot yet see, we are able to wait for it with persevering confidence.

Romans 8:26 And as well as this, the Spirit too comes to help us in our weakness, for, when we do not know how to pray properly, then the Spirit personally makes our petitions for us in groans that cannot be put into words;

Romans 8:27 and he who can see into all hearts knows what the Spirit means because the prayers that the Spirit makes for God's holy people are always in accordance with the mind of God.

Romans 8:28 We are well aware that God works with those who love him, those who have been called in accordance with his purpose, and turns everything to their good.

Romans 8:29 He decided beforehand who were the ones destined to be moulded to the pattern of his Son, so that he should be the eldest of many brothers;

Romans 8:30 it was those so destined that he called; those that he called, he justified, and those that he has justified he has brought into glory.

Romans 8:31 After saying this, what can we add? If God is for us, who can be against us?

Romans 8:32 Since he did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for the sake of all of us, then can we not expect that with him he will freely give us all his gifts?

Romans 8:33 Who can bring any accusation against those that God has chosen? When God grants saving justice

Romans 8:34 who can condemn? Are we not sure that it is Christ Jesus, who died—yes and more, who was raised from the dead and is at God's right hand—and who is adding his plea for us?

Romans 8:35 Can anything cut us off from the love of Christ—can hardships or distress, or persecution, or lack of food and clothing, or threats or violence;

Romans 8:36 as scripture says: For your sake we are being massacred all day long, treated as sheep to be slaughtered?

Romans 8:37 No; we come through all these things triumphantly victorious, by the power of him who loved us.

Romans 8:38 For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nothing already in existence and nothing still to come, nor any power,

Romans 8:39 nor the heights nor the depths, nor any created thing whatever, will be able to come between us and the love of God, known to us in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9:1 This is the truth and I am speaking in Christ, without pretence, as my conscience testifies for me in the Holy Spirit;

Romans 9:2 there is great sorrow and unremitting agony in my heart:

Romans 9:3 I could pray that I myself might be accursed and cut off from Christ, if this could benefit the brothers who are my own flesh and blood.

Romans 9:4 They are Israelites; it was they who were adopted as children, the glory was theirs and the covenants; to them were given the Law and the worship of God and the promises.

Romans 9:5 To them belong the fathers and out of them, so far as physical descent is concerned, came Christ who is above all, God, blessed for ever. Amen.

Romans 9:6 It is not that God’s promise has failed. Not all born Israelites belong to Israel,

Romans 9:7 and not all the descendants of Abraham count as his children, for Isaac is the one through whom your Name will be carried on.

Romans 9:8 That is, it is not by being children through physical descent that people become children of God; it is the children of the promise that are counted as the heirs.

Romans 9:9 The actual words of the promise were: I shall come back to you at this season, and Sarah will have a son.

Romans 9:10 Even more to the point is what was said to Rebecca when she was pregnant by our ancestor, Isaac,

Romans 9:11 before her children were born, so that neither had yet done anything either good or bad, but in order that it should be God’s choice which prevailed

Romans 9:12 -not human merit, but his call—she was told: the elder one will serve the younger.

Romans 9:13 Or as scripture says elsewhere: I loved Jacob but hated Esau.

Romans 9:14 What should we say, then? That God is unjust? Out of the question!

Romans 9:15 For speaking to Moses, he said: I am gracious to those to whom I am gracious and I take pity on those on whom I take pity.

Romans 9:16 So it is not a matter of what any person wants or what any person does, but only of God having mercy.

Romans 9:17 Scripture says to Pharaoh: I raised you up for this reason, to display my power in you and to have my name talked of throughout the world.

Romans 9:18 In other words, if God wants to show mercy on someone, he does so, and if he wants to harden someone's heart, he does so.

Romans 9:19 Then you will ask me, 'How then can he ever blame anyone, since no one can oppose his will?'

Romans 9:20 But you—who do you think you, a human being, are, to answer back to God? Something that was made, can it say to its maker: why did you make me this shape?

Romans 9:21 A potter surely has the right over his clay to make out of the same lump either a pot for special use or one for ordinary use.

Romans 9:22 But suppose that God, although all the time he wanted to reveal his retribution and demonstrate his power, has with great patience gone on putting up with those who are the instruments of his retribution and designed to be destroyed;

Romans 9:23 so that he may make known the glorious riches ready for the people who are the instruments of his faithful love and were long ago prepared for that glory.

Romans 9:24 We are that people, called by him not only out of the Jews but out of the gentiles too.

Romans 9:25 Just as he says in the book of Hosea: I shall tell those who were not my people, 'You are my people,' and I shall take pity on those on whom I had no pity.

Romans 9:26 And in the very place where they were told, 'You are not my people,' they will be told that they are 'children of the living God'.

Romans 9:27 And about Israel, this is what Isaiah cried out: Though the people of Israel are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant will be saved;

Romans 9:28 for without hesitation or delay the Lord will execute his sentence on the earth.

Romans 9:29 As Isaiah foretold: Had the Lord Sabaoth not left us a few survivors, we should be like Sodom, we should be the same as Gomorrah.

Romans 9:30 What should we say, then? That the gentiles, although they were not looking for saving justice, found it, and this was the saving justice that comes of faith;

Romans 9:31 while Israel, looking for saving justice by law-keeping, did not succeed in fulfilling the Law.

Romans 9:32 And why? Because they were trying to find it in actions and not in faith, and so they stumbled over the stumbling-stone-

Romans 9:33 as it says in scripture: Now I am laying in Zion a stumbling-stone, a rock to trip people up; but he who relies on this will not be brought to disgrace.

Romans 10:1 Brothers, my dearest wish and my prayer to God is for them, that they may be saved.

Romans 10:2 I readily testify to their fervour for God, but it is misguided.

Romans 10:3 Not recognising God's saving justice they have tried to establish their own, instead of submitting to the saving justice of God.

Romans 10:4 But the Law has found its fulfilment in Christ so that all who have faith will be justified.

Romans 10:5 Moses writes of the saving justice that comes by the Law and says that whoever complies with it will find life in it.

Romans 10:6 But the saving justice of faith says this: Do not think in your heart, 'Who will go up to heaven?'—

Romans 10:7 that is to bring Christ down; or 'Who will go down to the depths?'—that is to bring Christ back from the dead.

Romans 10:8 What does it say, then? The word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart, that is, the word of faith, the faith which we preach,

Romans 10:9 that if you declare with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and if you believe with your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved.

Romans 10:10 It is by believing with the heart that you are justified, and by making the declaration with your lips that you are saved.

Romans 10:11 When scripture says: No one who relies on this will be brought to disgrace,

Romans 10:12 it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: the same Lord is the Lord of all, and his generosity is offered to all who appeal to him,

Romans 10:13 for all who call on the name of the Lord will be saved.

Romans 10:14 How then are they to call on him if they have not come to believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard of him? And how will they hear of him unless there is a preacher for them?

Romans 10:15 And how will there be preachers if they are not sent? As scripture says: How beautiful are the feet of the messenger of good news.

Romans 10:16 But in fact they have not all responded to the good news. As Isaiah says: Lord, who has given credence to what they have heard from us?

Romans 10:17 But it is in that way faith comes, from hearing, and that means hearing the word of Christ.

Romans 10:18 Well then, I say, is it possible that they have not heard? Indeed they have: in the entire earth their voice stands out, their message reaches the whole world.

Romans 10:19 Well, another question, then: is it possible that Israel did not understand? In the first place Moses said: I shall rouse you to jealousy with a non-people, I shall exasperate you with a stupid nation.

Romans 10:20 And Isaiah is even bold enough to say: I have let myself be found by those who did not seek me; I have let myself be seen by those who did not consult me;

Romans 10:21 and referring to Israel, he says: All day long I have been stretching out my hands to a disobedient and rebellious people.

Romans 11:1 What I am saying is this: is it possible that God abandoned his people? Out of the question! I too am an Israelite, descended from Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

Romans 11:2 God never abandoned his own people to whom, ages ago, he had given recognition. Do you not remember what scripture says about Elijah and how he made a complaint to God against Israel:

Romans 11:3 Lord, they have put your prophets to the sword, torn down your altars. I am the only one left, and now they want to kill me?

Romans 11:4 And what was the prophetic answer given? I have spared for myself seven thousand men that have not bent the knee to Baal.

Romans 11:5 In the same way, then, in our own time, there is a remnant, set aside by grace.

Romans 11:6 And since it is by grace, it cannot now be by good actions, or grace would not be grace at all!

Romans 11:7 What follows? Israel failed to find what it was seeking; only those who were chosen found it and the rest had their minds hardened;

Romans 11:8 just as it says in scripture: God has infused them with a spirit of lethargy; until today they have not eyes to see or ears to hear.

Romans 11:9 David too says: May their own table prove a trap for them, a pitfall and a snare; let that be their retribution.

Romans 11:10 May their eyes grow so dim they cannot see, and their backs be bent for ever.

Romans 11:11 What I am saying is this: Was this stumbling to lead to their final downfall? Out of the question! On the contrary, their failure has brought salvation for the gentiles, in order to stir them to envy.

Romans 11:12 And if their fall has proved a great gain to the world, and their loss has proved a great gain to the gentiles—how much greater a gain will come when all is restored to them!

Romans 11:13 Let me say then to you gentiles that, as far as I am an apostle to the gentiles, I take pride in this work of service;

Romans 11:14 and I want it to be the means of rousing to envy the people who are my own blood-relations and so of saving some of them.

Romans 11:15 Since their rejection meant the reconciliation of the world, do you know what their re-acceptance will mean? Nothing less than life from the dead!

Romans 11:16 When the first-fruits are made holy, so is the whole batch; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

Romans 11:17 Now suppose that some branches were broken off, and you are wild olive, grafted among the rest to share with the others the rich sap of the olive tree;

Romans 11:18 then it is not for you to consider yourself superior to the other branches; and if you start feeling proud, think: it is not you that sustain the root, but the root that sustains you.

Romans 11:19 You will say, 'Branches were broken off on purpose for me to be grafted in.' True;

Romans 11:20 they through their unbelief were broken off, and you are established through your faith. So it is not pride that you should have, but fear:

Romans 11:21 if God did not spare the natural branches, he might not spare you either.

Romans 11:22 Remember God's severity as well as his goodness: his severity to those who fell, and his goodness to you as long as you persevere in it; if not, you too will be cut off.

Romans 11:23 And they, if they do not persevere in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for it is within the power of God to graft them back again.

Romans 11:24 After all, if you, cut off from what was by nature a wild olive, could then be grafted unnaturally on to a cultivated olive, how much easier will it be for them, the branches that naturally belong there, to be grafted on to the olive tree which is their own.

Romans 11:25 I want you to be quite certain, brothers, of this mystery, to save you from congratulating yourselves on your own good sense: part of Israel had its mind hardened, but only until the gentiles have wholly come in;

Romans 11:26 and this is how all Israel will be saved. As scripture says: From Zion will come the Redeemer, he will remove godlessness from Jacob.

Romans 11:27 And this will be my covenant with them, when I take their sins away.

Romans 11:28 As regards the gospel, they are enemies, but for your sake; but as regards those who are God’s choice, they are still well loved for the sake of their ancestors.

Romans 11:29 There is no change of mind on God’s part about the gifts he has made or of his choice.

Romans 11:30 Just as you were in the past disobedient to God but now you have been shown mercy, through their disobedience;

Romans 11:31 so in the same way they are disobedient now, so that through the mercy shown to you they too will receive mercy.

Romans 11:32 God has imprisoned all human beings in their own disobedience only to show mercy to them all.

Romans 11:33 How rich and deep are the wisdom and the knowledge of God! We cannot reach to the root of his decisions or his ways.

Romans 11:34 Who has ever known the mind of the Lord? Who has ever been his adviser?

Romans 11:35 Who has given anything to him, so that his presents come only as a debt returned?

Romans 11:36 Everything there is comes from him and is caused by him and exists for him. To him be glory for ever! Amen.

Romans 12:1 I urge you, then, brothers, remembering the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, dedicated and acceptable to God; that is the kind of worship for you, as sensible people.

Romans 12:2 Do not model your behaviour on the contemporary world, but let the renewing of your minds transform you, so that you may discern for yourselves what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and mature.

Romans 12:3 And through the grace that I have been given, I say this to every one of you: never pride yourself on being better than you really are, but think of yourself dispassionately, recognising that God has given to each one his measure of faith.

Romans 12:4 Just as each of us has various parts in one body, and the parts do not all have the same function:

Romans 12:5 in the same way, all of us, though there are so many of us, make up one body in Christ, and as different parts we are all joined to one another.

Romans 12:6 Then since the gifts that we have differ according to the grace that was given to each of us: if it is a gift of prophecy, we should prophesy as much as our faith tells us;

Romans 12:7 if it is a gift of practical service, let us devote ourselves to serving; if it is teaching, to teaching;

Romans 12:8 if it is encouraging, to encouraging. When you give, you should give generously from the heart; if you are put in charge, you must be conscientious; if you do works of mercy, let it be because you enjoy doing them.

Romans 12:9 Let love be without any pretence. Avoid what is evil; stick to what is good.

Romans 12:10 In brotherly love let your feelings of deep affection for one another come to expression and regard others as more important than yourself.

Romans 12:11 In the service of the Lord, work not halfheartedly but with conscientiousness and an eager spirit.

Romans 12:12 Be joyful in hope, persevere in hardship; keep praying regularly;

Romans 12:13 share with any of God's holy people who are in need; look for opportunities to be hospitable.

Romans 12:14 Bless your persecutors; never curse them, bless them.

Romans 12:15 Rejoice with others when they rejoice, and be sad with those in sorrow.

Romans 12:16 Give the same consideration to all others alike. Pay no regard to social standing, but meet humble people on their own terms. Do not congratulate yourself on your own wisdom.

Romans 12:17 Never pay back evil with evil, but bear in mind the ideals that all regard with respect.

Romans 12:18 As much as possible, and to the utmost of your ability, be at peace with everyone.

Romans 12:19 Never try to get revenge: leave that, my dear friends, to the Retribution. As scripture says: Vengeance is mine—I will pay them back, the Lord promises.

Romans 12:20 And more: If your enemy is hungry, give him something to eat; if thirsty, something to drink. By this, you will be heaping red-hot coals on his head.

Romans 13:1 Everyone is to obey the governing authorities, because there is no authority except from God and so whatever authorities exist have been appointed by God.

Romans 13:2 So anyone who disobeys an authority is rebelling against God's ordinance; and rebels must expect to receive the condemnation they deserve.

Romans 13:3 Magistrates bring fear not to those who do good, but to those who do evil. So if you want to live with no fear of authority, live honestly and you will have its approval;

Romans 13:4 it is there to serve God for you and for your good. But if you do wrong, then you may well be afraid; because it is not for nothing that the symbol of authority is the sword: it is there to serve God, too, as his avenger, to bring retribution to wrongdoers.

Romans 13:5 You must be obedient, therefore, not only because of this retribution, but also for conscience's sake.

Romans 13:6 And this is why you should pay taxes, too, because the authorities are all serving God as his agents, even while they are busily occupied with that particular task.

Romans 13:7 Pay to each one what is due to each: taxes to the one to whom tax is due, tolls to the one to whom tolls are due, respect to the one to whom respect is due, honour to the one to whom honour is due.

Romans 13:8 The only thing you should owe to anyone is love for one another, for to love the other person is to fulfil the law.

Romans 13:9 All these: You shall not commit adultery, You shall not kill, You shall not steal, You shall not covet, and all the other commandments that there are, are summed up in this single phrase: You must love your neighbour as yourself.

Romans 13:10 Love can cause no harm to your neighbour, and so love is the fulfilment of the Law.

Romans 13:11 Besides, you know the time has come; the moment is here for you to stop sleeping and wake up, because by now our salvation is nearer than when we first began to believe.

Romans 13:12 The night is nearly over, daylight is on the way; so let us throw off everything that belongs to the darkness and equip ourselves for the light.

Romans 13:13 Let us live decently, as in the light of day; with no orgies or drunkenness, no promiscuity or licentiousness, and no wrangling or jealousy.

Romans 13:14 Let your armour be the Lord Jesus Christ, and stop worrying about how your disordered natural inclinations may be fulfilled.

Romans 14:1 Give a welcome to anyone whose faith is not strong, but do not get into arguments about doubtful points.

Romans 14:2 One person may have faith enough to eat any kind of food; another, less strong, will eat only vegetables.

Romans 14:3 Those who feel free to eat freely are not to condemn those who are unwilling to eat freely; nor must the person who does not eat freely pass judgement on the one who does—because God has welcomed him.

Romans 14:4 And who are you, to sit in judgement over somebody else’s servant? Whether he deserves to be upheld or to fall is for his own master to decide; and he shall be upheld, for the Lord has power to uphold him.

Romans 14:5 One person thinks that some days are holier than others, and another thinks them all equal. Let each of them be fully convinced in his own mind.

Romans 14:6 The one who makes special observance of a particular day observes it in honour of the Lord. So the one who eats freely, eats in honour of the Lord, making his thanksgiving to God; and the one who does not, abstains from eating in honour of the Lord and makes his thanksgiving to God.

Romans 14:7 For none of us lives for himself and none of us dies for himself;

Romans 14:8 while we are alive, we are living for the Lord, and when we die, we die for the Lord: and so, alive or dead, we belong to the Lord.

Romans 14:9 It was for this purpose that Christ both died and came to life again: so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Romans 14:10 Why, then, does one of you make himself judge over his brother, and why does another among you despise his brother? All of us will have to stand in front of the judgement-seat of God:

Romans 14:11 as scripture says: By my own life says the Lord, every knee shall bow before me, every tongue shall give glory to God.

Romans 14:12 It is to God, then, that each of us will have to give an account of himself.

Romans 14:13 Let us each stop passing judgement, therefore, on one another and decide instead that none of us will place obstacles in any brother’s way, or anything that can bring him down.

Romans 14:14 I am sure, and quite convinced in the Lord Jesus, that no food is unclean in itself; it is only if someone classifies any kind of food as unclean, then for him it is unclean.

Romans 14:15 And indeed, if through any kind of food you are causing offence to a brother, then you are no longer being guided by love. You are not to let the food that you eat cause the ruin of anyone for whom Christ died.

Romans 14:16 A privilege of yours must not be allowed to give rise to harmful talk;

Romans 14:17 for it is not eating and drinking that make the kingdom of God, but the saving justice, the peace and the joy brought by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 14:18 It is the person who serves Christ in these things that will be approved by God and respected by everyone.

Romans 14:19 So then, let us be always seeking the ways which lead to peace and the ways in which we can support one another.

Romans 14:20 Do not wreck God’s work for the sake of food. Certainly all foods are clean; but all the same, any kind can be evil for someone to whom it is an offence to eat it.

Romans 14:21 It is best to abstain from eating any meat, or drinking any wine, or from any other activity which might cause a brother to fall away, or to be scandalised, or to weaken.

Romans 14:22 Within yourself, before God, hold on to what you already believe. Blessed is the person whose principles do not condemn his practice.

Romans 14:23 But anyone who eats with qualms of conscience is condemned, because this eating does not spring from faith—and every action which does not spring from faith is sin.

Romans 15:1 It is for us who are strong to bear with the susceptibilities of the weaker ones, and not please ourselves.

Romans 15:2 Each of us must consider his neighbour’s good, so that we support one another.

Romans 15:3 Christ did not indulge his own feelings, either; indeed, as scripture says: The insults of those who insult you fall on me.

Romans 15:4 And all these things which were written so long ago were written so that we, learning perseverance and the encouragement which the scriptures give, should have hope.

Romans 15:5 Now the God of perseverance and encouragement give you all the same purpose, following the example of Christ Jesus,

Romans 15:6 so that you may together give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ with one heart.

Romans 15:7 Accept one another, then, for the sake of God’s glory, as Christ accepted you.

Romans 15:8 I tell you that Christ’s work was to serve the circumcised, fulfilling the truthfulness of God by carrying out the promises made to the fathers,

Romans 15:9 and his work was also for the gentiles, so that they should give glory to God for his faithful love; as scripture says: For this I shall praise you among the nations and sing praise to your name.

Romans 15:10 And in another place it says: Nations, rejoice, with his people,

Romans 15:11 and in another place again: Praise the Lord, all nations, extol him, all peoples.

Romans 15:12 And in Isaiah, it says: The root of Jesse will appear, he who rises up to rule the nations, and in him the nations will put their hope.

Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in your faith, so that in the power of the Holy Spirit you may be rich in hope.

Romans 15:14 My brothers, I am quite sure that you, in particular, are full of goodness, fully instructed and capable of correcting each other.

Romans 15:15 But I have special confidence in writing on some points to you, to refresh your memories, because of the grace that was given to me by God.

Romans 15:16 I was given grace to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the gentiles, dedicated to offer them the gospel of God, so that gentiles might become an acceptable offering, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:17 So I can be proud, in Christ Jesus, of what I have done for God.

Romans 15:18 Of course I can dare to speak only of the things which Christ has done through me to win the allegiance of the gentiles, using what I have said and done,

Romans 15:19 by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God. In this way, from Jerusalem and all round, even as far as Illyricum, I have fully carried out the preaching of the gospel of Christ;

Romans 15:20 and what is more, it has been my rule to preach the gospel only where the name of Christ has not already been heard, for I do not build on another's foundations;

Romans 15:21 in accordance with scripture: Those who have never been told about him will see him, and those who have never heard about him will understand.

Romans 15:22 That is why I have been so often prevented from coming to see you;

Romans 15:23 now, however, as there is nothing more to keep me in these parts, I hope, after longing for many years past to visit you, to see you when I am on the way to Spain-

Romans 15:24 and after enjoying at least something of your company, to be sent on my way with your support.

Romans 15:25 But now I have undertaken to go to Jerusalem in the service of the holy people of God there,

Romans 15:26 since Macedonia and Achaia have chosen to make a generous contribution to the poor among God's holy people at Jerusalem.

Romans 15:27 Yes, they chose to; not that they did not owe it to them. For if the gentiles have been given a share in their spiritual possessions, then in return to give them help with material possessions is repaying a debt to them.

Romans 15:28 So when I have done this, and given this harvest into their possession, I shall visit you on the way to Spain.

Romans 15:29 I am sure that, when I do come to you, I shall come with the fullest blessing of Christ.

Romans 15:30 Meanwhile I urge you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, that in your prayers to God for me you exert yourselves to help me;

Romans 15:31 praying that I may escape the unbelievers in Judaea, and that the aid I am carrying to Jerusalem will be acceptable to God's holy people.

Romans 15:32 Then I shall come to you, if God wills, for a happy time of relaxation in your company.

Romans 15:33 The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 16:1 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deaconess of the church at Cenchreae;

Romans 16:2 give her, in the Lord, a welcome worthy of God's holy people, and help her with whatever she needs from you—she herself has come to the help of many people, including myself.

Romans 16:3 My greetings to Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus,

Romans 16:4 who risked their own necks to save my life; to them, thanks not only from me, but from all the churches among the gentiles;

Romans 16:5 and my greetings to the church at their house. Greetings to my dear friend Epaenetus, the first of Asia's offerings to Christ.

Romans 16:6 Greetings to Mary, who worked so hard for you.

Romans 16:7 Greetings to those outstanding apostles, Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen and fellow-prisoners, who were in Christ before me.

Romans 16:8 Greetings to Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord.

Romans 16:9 Greetings to Urban, my fellow-worker in Christ, and to my dear friend Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Greetings to Apelles, proved servant of Christ. Greetings to all the household of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Greetings to my kinsman, Herodion, and greetings to those who belong to the Lord in the household of Narcissus.

Romans 16:12 Greetings to Tryphaena and Tryphosa who work hard in the Lord; greetings to my dear friend Persis, also a very hard worker in the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Greetings to Rufus, chosen servant of the Lord, and to his mother—a mother to me too.

Romans 16:14 Greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.

Romans 16:15 Greetings to Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas and all God’s holy people who are with them.

Romans 16:16 Greet each other with the holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send their greetings.

Romans 16:17 I urge you, brothers, be on your guard against the people who are out to stir up disagreements and bring up difficulties against the teaching which you learnt. Avoid them.

Romans 16:18 People of that sort are servants not of our Lord Christ, but of their own greed; and with talk that sounds smooth and reasonable they deceive the minds of the unwary.

Romans 16:19 Your obedience has become known to everyone, and I am very pleased with you for it; but I should want you to be learned only in what is good, and unsophisticated about all that is evil.

Romans 16:20 The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Romans 16:21 Timothy, who is working with me, sends greetings to you, and so do my kinsmen Lucius, Jason and Sosipater.

Romans 16:22 I, Tertius, who am writing this letter, greet you in the Lord.

Romans 16:23 Greetings to you from Gaius, my host here, and host of the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, sends greetings to you, and our brother Quartus.

Romans 16:24

Romans 16:25 And now to him who can make you strong in accordance with the gospel that I preach and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, in accordance with that mystery which for endless ages was kept secret

Romans 16:26 but now (as the prophets wrote) is revealed, as the eternal God commanded, to be made known to all the nations, so that they obey in faith:

Romans 16:27 to him, the only wise God, give glory through Jesus Christ for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, called by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and Sosthenes, our brother,

1 Corinthians 1:2 to the church of God in Corinth, to those who have been consecrated in Christ Jesus and called to be God’s holy people, with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord as well as ours.

1 Corinthians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:4 I am continually thanking God about you, for the grace of God which you have been given in Christ Jesus;

1 Corinthians 1:5 in him you have been richly endowed in every kind of utterance and knowledge;

1 Corinthians 1:6 so firmly has witness to Christ taken root in you.

1 Corinthians 1:7 And so you are not lacking in any gift as you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed;

1 Corinthians 1:8 he will continue to give you strength till the very end, so that you will be irreproachable on the Day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9 You can rely on God, who has called you to be partners with his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:10 Brothers, I urge you, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, not to have factions among yourselves but all to be in agreement in what you profess; so that you are perfectly united in your beliefs and judgements.

1 Corinthians 1:11 From what Chloe's people have been telling me about you, brothers, it is clear that there are serious differences among you.

1 Corinthians 1:12 What I mean is this: every one of you is declaring, 'I belong to Paul,' or 'I belong to Apollos,' or 'I belong to Cephas,' or 'I belong to Christ.'

1 Corinthians 1:13 Has Christ been split up? Was it Paul that was crucified for you, or was it in Paul's name that you were baptised?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I am thankful I did not baptise any of you, except Crispus and Gaius,

1 Corinthians 1:15 so that no one can say that you were baptised in my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 Yes, I did baptise the family of Stephanas, too; but besides these I do not think I baptised anyone.

1 Corinthians 1:17 After all, Christ sent me not to baptise, but to preach the gospel; and not by means of wisdom of language, wise words which would make the cross of Christ pointless.

1 Corinthians 1:18 The message of the cross is folly for those who are on the way to ruin, but for those of us who are on the road to salvation it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 1:19 As scripture says: I am going to destroy the wisdom of the wise and bring to nothing the understanding of any who understand.

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where are the philosophers? Where are the experts? And where are the debaters of this age? Do you not see how God has shown up human wisdom as folly?

1 Corinthians 1:21 Since in the wisdom of God the world was unable to recognise God through wisdom, it was God's own pleasure to save believers through the folly of the gospel.

1 Corinthians 1:22 While the Jews demand miracles and the Greeks look for wisdom,

1 Corinthians 1:23 we are preaching a crucified Christ: to the Jews an obstacle they cannot get over, to the gentiles foolishness,

1 Corinthians 1:24 but to those who have been called, whether they are Jews or Greeks, a Christ who is both the power of God and the wisdom of God.

1 Corinthians 1:25 God's folly is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

1 Corinthians 1:26 Consider, brothers, how you were called; not many of you are wise by human standards, not many influential, not many from noble families.

1 Corinthians 1:27 No, God chose those who by human standards are fools to shame the wise; he chose those who by human standards are weak to shame the strong,

1 Corinthians 1:28 those who by human standards are common and contemptible—indeed those who count for nothing—to reduce to nothing all those that do count for something,

1 Corinthians 1:29 so that no human being might feel boastful before God.

1 Corinthians 1:30 It is by him that you exist in Christ Jesus, who for us was made wisdom from God, and saving justice and holiness and redemption.

1 Corinthians 1:31 As scripture says: If anyone wants to boast, let him boast of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 2:1 Now when I came to you, brothers, I did not come with any brilliance of oratory or wise argument to announce to you the mystery of God.

1 Corinthians 2:2 I was resolved that the only knowledge I would have while I was with you was knowledge of Jesus, and of him as the crucified Christ.

1 Corinthians 2:3 I came among you in weakness, in fear and great trembling

1 Corinthians 2:4 and what I spoke and proclaimed was not meant to convince by philosophical argument, but to demonstrate the convincing power of the Spirit,

1 Corinthians 2:5 so that your faith should depend not on human wisdom but on the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:6 But still, to those who have reached maturity, we do talk of a wisdom, not, it is true, a philosophy of this age or of the rulers of this age, who will not last long now.

1 Corinthians 2:7 It is of the mysterious wisdom of God that we talk, the wisdom that was hidden, which God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began.

1 Corinthians 2:8 None of the rulers of the age recognised it; for if they had recognised it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory;

1 Corinthians 2:9 but it is as scripture says: What no eye has seen and no ear has heard, what the mind of man cannot visualise; all that God has prepared for those who love him;

1 Corinthians 2:10 to us, though, God has given revelation through the Spirit, for the Spirit explores the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 After all, is there anyone who knows the qualities of anyone except his own spirit, within him; and in the same way, nobody knows the qualities of God except the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 2:12 Now, the Spirit we have received is not the spirit of the world but God’s own Spirit, so that we may understand the lavish gifts God has given us.

1 Corinthians 2:13 And these are what we speak of, not in the terms learnt from human philosophy, but in terms learnt from the Spirit, fitting spiritual language to spiritual things.

1 Corinthians 2:14 The natural person has no room for the gifts of God’s Spirit; to him they are folly; he cannot recognise them, because their value can be assessed only in the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:15 The spiritual person, on the other hand, can assess the value of everything, and that person’s value cannot be assessed by anybody else.

1 Corinthians 2:16 For: who has ever known the mind of the Lord? Who has ever been his adviser? But we are those who have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:1 And so, brothers, I was not able to talk to you as spiritual people; I had to talk to you as people still living by your natural inclinations, still infants in Christ;

1 Corinthians 3:2 I fed you with milk and not solid food, for you were not yet able to take it—and even now, you are still not able to,

1 Corinthians 3:3 for you are still living by your natural inclinations. As long as there are jealousy and rivalry among you, that surely means that you are still living by your natural inclinations and by merely human principles.

1 Corinthians 3:4 While there is one that says, ‘I belong to Paul’ and another that says, ‘I belong to Apollos’ are you not being only too human?

1 Corinthians 3:5 For what is Apollos and what is Paul? The servants through whom you came to believe, and each has only what the Lord has given him.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I did the planting, Apollos did the watering, but God gave growth.

1 Corinthians 3:7 In this, neither the planter nor the waterer counts for anything; only God, who gives growth.

1 Corinthians 3:8 It is all one who does the planting and who does the watering, and each will have the proper pay for the work that he has done.

1 Corinthians 3:9 After all, we do share in God's work; you are God's farm, God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 By the grace of God which was given to me, I laid the foundations like a trained master-builder, and someone else is building on them. Now each one must be careful how he does the building.

1 Corinthians 3:11 For nobody can lay down any other foundation than the one which is there already, namely Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:12 On this foundation, different people may build in gold, silver, jewels, wood, hay or straw

1 Corinthians 3:13 but each person's handiwork will be shown for what it is. The Day which dawns in fire will make it clear and the fire itself will test the quality of each person's work.

1 Corinthians 3:14 The one whose work stands up to it will be given his wages;

1 Corinthians 3:15 the one whose work is burnt down will suffer the loss of it, though he himself will be saved; he will be saved as someone might expect to be saved from a fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Do you not realise that you are a temple of God with the Spirit of God living in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 If anybody should destroy the temple of God, God will destroy that person, because God's temple is holy; and you are that temple.

1 Corinthians 3:18 There is no room for self-delusion. Any one of you who thinks he is wise by worldly standards must learn to be a fool in order to be really wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of the world is folly to God. As scripture says: He traps the crafty in the snare of their own cunning

1 Corinthians 3:20 and again: The Lord knows the plans of the wise and how insipid they are.

1 Corinthians 3:21 So there is to be no boasting about human beings: everything belongs to you,

1 Corinthians 3:22 whether it is Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, the world, life or death, the present or the future—all belong to you;

1 Corinthians 3:23 but you belong to Christ and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4:1 People should think of us as Christ's servants, stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God.

1 Corinthians 4:2 In such a matter, what is expected of stewards is that each one should be found trustworthy.

1 Corinthians 4:3 It is of no importance to me how you or any other human court may judge me: I will not even be the judge of my own self.

1 Corinthians 4:4 It is true that my conscience does not reproach me, but that is not enough to justify me: it is the Lord who is my judge.

1 Corinthians 4:5 For that reason, do not judge anything before the due time, until the Lord comes; he will bring to light everything that is hidden in darkness and reveal the designs of all hearts. Then everyone will receive from God the appropriate commendation.

1 Corinthians 4:6 I have applied all this to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that you can learn how the saying, 'Nothing beyond what is written' is true of us: no individual among you must become filled with his own importance and make comparisons, to another's detriment.

1 Corinthians 4:7 Who made you so important? What have you got that was not given to you? And if it was given to you, why are you boasting as though it were your own?

1 Corinthians 4:8 You already have everything—you are rich already—you have come into your kingdom, without any help from us! Well, I wish you were kings and we could be kings with you!

1 Corinthians 4:9 For it seems to me that God has put us apostles on show right at the end, like men condemned to death: we have been exhibited as a spectacle to the whole universe, both angelic and human.

1 Corinthians 4:10 Here we are, fools for Christ's sake, while you are the clever ones in Christ; we are weak, while you are strong; you are honoured, while we are disgraced.

1 Corinthians 4:11 To this day, we go short of food and drink and clothes, we are beaten up and we have no homes;

1 Corinthians 4:12 we earn our living by labouring with our own hands; when we are cursed, we answer with a blessing; when we are hounded, we endure it passively;

1 Corinthians 4:13 when we are insulted, we give a courteous answer. We are treated even now as the dregs of the world, the very lowest scum.

1 Corinthians 4:14 I am writing all this not to make you ashamed but simply to remind you, as my dear children;

1 Corinthians 4:15 for even though you might have ten thousand slaves to look after you in Christ, you still have no more than one father, and it was I who fathered you in Christ Jesus, by the gospel.

1 Corinthians 4:16 That is why I urge you to take me as your pattern

1 Corinthians 4:17 and why I have sent you Timothy, a dear and faithful son to me in the Lord, who will remind you of my principles of conduct in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church.

1 Corinthians 4:18 On the assumption that I was not coming to you, some of you have become filled with your own self-importance;

1 Corinthians 4:19 but I shall be coming to you soon, the Lord willing, and then I shall find out not what these self-important people say, but what power they have.

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God consists not in spoken words but in power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 What do you want then? Am I to come to you with a stick in my hand or in love, and with a spirit of gentleness?

1 Corinthians 5:1 It is widely reported that there is sexual immorality among you, immorality of a kind that is not found even among gentiles: that one of you is living with his stepmother.

1 Corinthians 5:2 And you so filled with your own self-importance! It would have been better if you had been grieving bitterly, so that the man who has done this thing were turned out of the community.

1 Corinthians 5:3 For my part, however distant I am physically, I am present in spirit and have already condemned the man who behaved in this way, just as though I were present in person.

1 Corinthians 5:4 When you have gathered together in the name of our Lord Jesus, with the presence of my spirit, and in the power of our Lord Jesus,

1 Corinthians 5:5 hand such a man over to Satan, to be destroyed as far as natural life is concerned, so that on the Day of the Lord his spirit may be saved.

1 Corinthians 5:6 Your self-satisfaction is ill founded. Do you not realise that only a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough?

1 Corinthians 5:7 Throw out the old yeast so that you can be the fresh dough, unleavened as you are. For our Passover has been sacrificed, that is, Christ;

1 Corinthians 5:8 let us keep the feast, then, with none of the old yeast and no leavening of evil and wickedness, but only the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

1 Corinthians 5:9 In my letter, I wrote to you that you should have nothing to do with people living immoral lives.

1 Corinthians 5:10 I was not including everybody in this present world who is sexually immoral, or everybody who is greedy, or dishonest or worships false gods—that would mean you would have to cut yourselves off completely from the world.

1 Corinthians 5:11 In fact what I meant was that you were not to have anything to do with anyone going by the name of brother who is sexually immoral, or is greedy, or worships false gods, or is a slanderer or a drunkard or dishonest; never even have a meal with anybody of that kind.

1 Corinthians 5:12 It is no concern of mine to judge outsiders. It is for you to judge those who are inside, is it not?

1 Corinthians 5:13 But outsiders are for God to judge. You must banish this evil-doer from among you.

1 Corinthians 6:1 Is one of you with a complaint against another so brazen as to seek judgement from sinners and not from God's holy people?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Do you not realise that the holy people of God are to be the judges of the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent for petty cases?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Do you not realise that we shall be the judges of angels? - then quite certainly over matters of this life.

1 Corinthians 6:4 But when you have matters of this life to be judged, you bring them before those who are of no account in the Church!

1 Corinthians 6:5 I say this to make you ashamed of yourselves. Can it really be that it is impossible to find in the community one sensible person capable of deciding questions between brothers,

1 Corinthians 6:6 and that this is why brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers?

1 Corinthians 6:7 No; it is a fault in you, by itself, that one of you should go to law against another at all: why do you not prefer to suffer injustice, why not prefer to be defrauded?

1 Corinthians 6:8 And here you are, doing the injustice and the defrauding, and to your own brothers.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Do you not realise that people who do evil will never inherit the kingdom of God? Make no mistake—the sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, the self-indulgent, sodomites,

1 Corinthians 6:10 thieves, misers, drunkards, slanderers and swindlers, none of these will inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 Some of you used to be of that kind: but you have been washed clean, you have been sanctified, and you have been justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and through the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 ‘For me everything is permissible’; maybe, but not everything does good. True, for me everything is permissible, but I am determined not to be dominated by anything.

1 Corinthians 6:13 Foods are for the stomach, and the stomach is for foods; and God will destroy them both. But the body is not for sexual immorality;

1 Corinthians 6:14 it is for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. God raised up the Lord and he will raise us up too by his power.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Do you not realise that your bodies are members of Christ’s body; do you think one can take parts of Christ’s body and join them to the body of a prostitute? Out of the question!

1 Corinthians 6:16 Or do you not realise that anyone who attaches himself to a prostitute is one body with her, since the two, as it is said, become one flesh.

1 Corinthians 6:17 But anyone who attaches himself to the Lord is one spirit with him.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Keep away from sexual immorality. All other sins that people may commit are done outside the body; but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Do you not realise that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you and whom you received from God?

1 Corinthians 6:20 You are not your own property, then; you have been bought at a price. So use your body for the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now for the questions about which you wrote. Yes, it is a good thing for a man not to touch a woman;

1 Corinthians 7:2 yet to avoid immorality every man should have his own wife and every woman her own husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 The husband must give to his wife what she has a right to expect, and so too the wife to her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and in the same way, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

1 Corinthians 7:5 You must not deprive each other, except by mutual consent for a limited time, to leave yourselves free for prayer, and to come together again afterwards; otherwise Satan may take advantage of any lack of self-control to put you to the test.

1 Corinthians 7:6 I am telling you this as a concession, not an order.

1 Corinthians 7:7 I should still like everyone to be as I am myself; but everyone has his own gift from God, one this kind and the next something different.

1 Corinthians 7:8 To the unmarried and to widows I say: it is good for them to stay as they are, like me.

1 Corinthians 7:9 But if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry, since it is better to be married than to be burnt up.

1 Corinthians 7:10 To the married I give this ruling, and this is not mine but the Lord's: a wife must not be separated from her husband-

1 Corinthians 7:11 or if she has already left him, she must remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband—and a husband must not divorce his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 For other cases these instructions are my own, not the Lord's. If one of the brothers has a wife who is not a believer, and she is willing to stay with him, he should not divorce her;

1 Corinthians 7:13 and if a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to stay with her, she should not divorce her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:14 You see, the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through the brother. If this were not so, your children would be unclean, whereas in fact they are holy.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the unbeliever chooses to leave, then let the separation take place: in these circumstances, the brother or sister is no longer tied. But God has called you to live in peace:

1 Corinthians 7:16 as a wife, how can you tell whether you are to be the salvation of your husband; as a husband, how can you tell whether you are to be the salvation of your wife?

1 Corinthians 7:17 Anyway let everyone continue in the part which the Lord has allotted to him, as he was when God called him. This is the rule that I give to all the churches.

1 Corinthians 7:18 If a man who is called has already been circumcised, then he must stay circumcised; when an uncircumcised man is called, he may not be circumcised.

1 Corinthians 7:19 To be circumcised is of no importance, and to be uncircumcised is of no importance; what is important is the keeping of God's commandments.

1 Corinthians 7:20 Everyone should stay in whatever state he was in when he was called.

1 Corinthians 7:21 So, if when you were called, you were a slave, do not think it matters—even if you have a chance of freedom, you should prefer to make full use of your condition as a slave.

1 Corinthians 7:22 You see, anyone who was called in the Lord while a slave, is a freeman of the Lord; and in the same way, anyone who was free when called, is a slave of Christ.

1 Corinthians 7:23 You have been bought at a price; do not be slaves now to any human being.

1 Corinthians 7:24 Each one of you, brothers, is to stay before God in the state in which you were called.

1 Corinthians 7:25 About people remaining virgin, I have no directions from the Lord, but I give my own opinion as a person who has been granted the Lord's mercy to be faithful.

1 Corinthians 7:26 Well then, because of the stress which is weighing upon us, the right thing seems to be this: it is good for people to stay as they are.

1 Corinthians 7:27 If you are joined to a wife, do not seek to be released; if you are freed of a wife, do not look for a wife.

1 Corinthians 7:28 However, if you do get married, that is not a sin, and it is not sinful for a virgin to enter upon marriage. But such people will have the hardships consequent on human nature, and I would like you to be without that.

1 Corinthians 7:29 What I mean, brothers, is that the time has become limited, and from now on, those who have spouses should live as though they had none;

1 Corinthians 7:30 and those who mourn as though they were not mourning; those who enjoy life as though they did not enjoy it; those who have been buying property as though they had no possessions;

1 Corinthians 7:31 and those who are involved with the world as though they were people not engrossed in it. Because this world as we know it is passing away.

1 Corinthians 7:32 I should like you to have your minds free from all worry. The unmarried man gives his mind to the Lord's affairs and to how he can please the Lord;

1 Corinthians 7:33 but the man who is married gives his mind to the affairs of this world and to how he can please his wife, and he is divided in mind.

1 Corinthians 7:34 So, too, the unmarried woman, and the virgin, gives her mind to the Lord's affairs and to being holy in body and spirit; but the married woman gives her mind to the affairs of this world and to how she can please her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 I am saying this only to help you, not to put a bridle on you, but so that everything is as it should be, and you are able to give your undivided attention to the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:36 If someone with strong passions thinks that he is behaving badly towards his fiance'e and that things should take their due course, he should follow his desires. There is no sin in it; they should marry.

1 Corinthians 7:37 But if he stands firm in his resolution, without any compulsion but with full control of his own will, and decides to let her remain as his fiance'e, then he is acting well.

1 Corinthians 7:38 In other words, he who marries his fiance'e is doing well, and he who does not, better still.

1 Corinthians 7:39 A wife is tied as long as her husband is alive. But if the husband dies, she is free to marry anybody she likes, only it must be in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:40 She would be happier if she stayed as she is, to my way of thinking—and I believe that I too have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now about food which has been dedicated to false gods. We are well aware that all of us have knowledge; but while knowledge puffs up, love is what builds up.

1 Corinthians 8:2 Someone may think that he has full knowledge of something and yet not know it as well as he should;

1 Corinthians 8:3 but someone who loves God is known by God.

1 Corinthians 8:4 On the subject of eating foods dedicated to false gods, we are well aware that none of the false gods exists in reality and that there is no God other than the One.

1 Corinthians 8:5 Though there are so-called gods, in the heavens or on earth—and there are plenty of gods and plenty of lords-

1 Corinthians 8:6 yet for us there is only one God, the Father from whom all things come and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things come and through whom we exist.

1 Corinthians 8:7 However, not everybody has this knowledge. There are some in whose consciences false gods still play such a part that they take the food as though it had been dedicated to a god; then their conscience, being vulnerable, is defiled,

1 Corinthians 8:8 But of course food cannot make us acceptable to God; we lose nothing by not eating it, we gain nothing by eating it.

1 Corinthians 8:9 Only be careful that this freedom of yours does not in any way turn into an obstacle to trip those who are vulnerable.

1 Corinthians 8:10 Suppose someone sees you, who have the knowledge, sitting eating in the temple of some false god, do you not think that his conscience, vulnerable as it is, may be encouraged to eat foods dedicated to false gods?

1 Corinthians 8:11 And then it would be through your knowledge that this brother for whom Christ died, vulnerable as he is, has been lost.

1 Corinthians 8:12 So, sinning against your brothers and wounding their vulnerable consciences, you would be sinning against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:13 That is why, if food can be the cause of a brother's downfall, I will never eat meat any more, rather than cause my brother's downfall.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 Even if to others I am not an apostle, to you at any rate I am, for you are the seal of my apostolate in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 9:3 To those who want to interrogate me, this is my answer.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Have we not every right to eat and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 And every right to be accompanied by a Christian wife, like the other apostles, like the brothers of the Lord, and like Cephas?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Are Barnabas and I the only ones who have no right to stop working?

1 Corinthians 9:7 What soldier would ever serve in the army at his own expense? And who is there who would plant a vineyard and never eat the fruit from it; or would keep a flock and not feed on the milk from his flock?

1 Corinthians 9:8 Do not think that this is merely worldly wisdom. Does not the Law say exactly the same? It is written in the Law of Moses:

1 Corinthians 9:9 You must not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the corn. Is it about oxen that God is concerned here,

1 Corinthians 9:10 or is it not said entirely for our sake? Clearly it was written for our sake, because it is right that whoever ploughs should plough with the expectation of having his share, and whoever threshes should thresh with the expectation of having his share.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have sown the seed of spiritual things in you, is it too much to ask that we should receive from you a crop of material things?

1 Corinthians 9:12 Others have been given such rights over you and do we not deserve more? In fact, we have never exercised this right; on the contrary, we have put up with anything rather than obstruct the gospel of Christ in any way.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Do you not realise that the ministers in the Temple get their food from the Temple, and those who serve at the altar can claim their share from the altar?

1 Corinthians 9:14 In the same way, the Lord gave the instruction that those who preach the gospel should get their living from the gospel.

1 Corinthians 9:15 However, I have never availed myself of any rights of this kind; and I have not written this to secure such treatment for myself; I would rather die than that . . . No one shall take from me this ground of boasting.

1 Corinthians 9:16 In fact, preaching the gospel gives me nothing to boast of, for I am under compulsion and I should be in trouble if I failed to do it.

1 Corinthians 9:17 If I did it on my own initiative I would deserve a reward; but if I do it under compulsion I am simply accepting a task entrusted to me.

1 Corinthians 9:18 What reward do I have, then? That in my preaching I offer the gospel free of charge to avoid using the rights which the gospel allows me.

1 Corinthians 9:19 So though I was not a slave to any human being, I put myself in slavery to all people, to win as many as I could.

1 Corinthians 9:20 To the Jews I made myself as a Jew, to win the Jews; to those under the Law as one under the Law (though I am not), in order to win those under the Law;

1 Corinthians 9:21 to those outside the Law as one outside the Law, though I am not outside the Law but under Christ's law, to win those outside the Law.

1 Corinthians 9:22 To the weak, I made myself weak, to win the weak. I accommodated myself to people in all kinds of different situations, so that by all possible means I might bring some to salvation.

1 Corinthians 9:23 All this I do for the sake of the gospel, that I may share its benefits with others.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not realise that, though all the runners in the stadium take part in the race, only one of them gets the prize? Run like that—to win.

1 Corinthians 9:25 Every athlete concentrates completely on training, and this is to win a wreath that will wither, whereas ours will never wither.

1 Corinthians 9:26 So that is how I run, not without a clear goal; and how I box, not wasting blows on air.

1 Corinthians 9:27 I punish my body and bring it under control, to avoid any risk that, having acted as herald for others, I myself may be disqualified.

1 Corinthians 10:1 I want you to be quite certain, brothers, that our ancestors all had the cloud over them and all passed through the sea.

1 Corinthians 10:2 In the cloud and in the sea they were all baptised into Moses;

1 Corinthians 10:3 all ate the same spiritual food

1 Corinthians 10:4 and all drank the same spiritual drink, since they drank from the spiritual rock which followed them, and that rock was Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:5 In spite of this, God was not pleased with most of them, and their corpses were scattered over the desert.

1 Corinthians 10:6 Now these happenings were examples, for our benefit, so that we should never set our hearts, as they did, on evil

1 Corinthians 10:7 nor are you to worship false gods, as some of them did, as it says in scripture: The people sat down to eat and drink, and afterwards got up to amuse themselves.

1 Corinthians 10:8 Nor, again, are we to fall into sexual immorality; some of them did this, and twenty-three thousand met their downfall in one day.

1 Corinthians 10:9 And we are not to put the Lord to the test; some of them put him to the test, and they were killed by snakes.

1 Corinthians 10:10 Never complain; some of them complained, and they were killed by the Destroyer.

1 Corinthians 10:11 Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were described in writing to be a lesson for us, to whom it has fallen to live in the last days of the ages.

1 Corinthians 10:12 Everyone, no matter how firmly he thinks he is standing, must be careful he does not fall.

1 Corinthians 10:13 None of the trials which have come upon you is more than a human being can stand. You can trust that God will not let you be put to the test beyond your strength, but with any trial will also provide a way out by enabling you to put up with it.

1 Corinthians 10:14 For that reason, my dear friends, have nothing to do with the worship of false gods.

1 Corinthians 10:15 I am talking to you as sensible people; weigh up for yourselves what I have to say.

1 Corinthians 10:16 The blessing-cup, which we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ; and the loaf of bread which we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:17 And as there is one loaf, so we, although there are many of us, are one single body, for we all share in the one loaf.

1 Corinthians 10:18 Now compare the natural people of Israel: is it not true that those who eat the sacrifices share the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 What does this mean? That the dedication of food to false gods amounts to anything? Or that false gods themselves amount to anything?

1 Corinthians 10:20 No, it does not; simply that when pagans sacrifice, what is sacrificed by them is sacrificed to demons who are not God. I do not want you to share with demons.

1 Corinthians 10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons as well; you cannot have a share at the Lord's table and the demons' table as well.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Do we really want to arouse the Lord's jealousy; are we stronger than he is?

1 Corinthians 10:23 ‘Everything is permissible’; maybe so, but not everything does good. True, everything is permissible, but not everything builds people up.

1 Corinthians 10:24 Nobody should be looking for selfish advantage, but everybody for someone else’s.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Eat anything that is sold in butchers’ shops; there is no need to ask questions for conscience’s sake,

1 Corinthians 10:26 since To the Lord belong the earth and all it contains.

1 Corinthians 10:27 If an unbeliever invites you to a meal, go if you want to, and eat whatever is put before you; you need not ask questions of conscience first.

1 Corinthians 10:28 But if someone says to you, ‘This food has been offered in sacrifice,’ do not eat it, out of consideration for the person that told you, for conscience’s sake-

1 Corinthians 10:29 not your own conscience, I mean, but the other person’s. Why should my freedom be governed by somebody else’s conscience?

1 Corinthians 10:30 Provided that I accept it with gratitude, why should I be blamed for eating food for which I give thanks?

1 Corinthians 10:31 Whatever you eat, then, or drink, and whatever else you do, do it all for the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Never be a cause of offence, either to Jews or to Greeks or to the Church of God,

1 Corinthians 10:33 just as I try to accommodate everybody in everything, not looking for my own advantage, but for the advantage of everybody else, so that they may be saved.

1 Corinthians 11:1 Take me as your pattern, just as I take Christ for mine.

1 Corinthians 11:2 I congratulate you for remembering me so consistently and for maintaining the traditions exactly as I passed them on to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 But I should like you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.

1 Corinthians 11:4 For any man to pray or to prophesy with his head covered shows disrespect for his head.

1 Corinthians 11:5 And for a woman to pray or prophesy with her head uncovered shows disrespect for her head; it is exactly the same as if she had her hair shaved off.

1 Corinthians 11:6 Indeed, if a woman does go without a veil, she should have her hair cut off too; but if it is a shameful thing for a woman to have her hair cut off or shaved off, then she should wear a veil.

1 Corinthians 11:7 But for a man it is not right to have his head covered, since he is the image of God and reflects God’s glory; but woman is the reflection of man’s glory.

1 Corinthians 11:8 For man did not come from woman; no, woman came from man;

1 Corinthians 11:9 nor was man created for the sake of woman, but woman for the sake of man:

1 Corinthians 11:10 and this is why it is right for a woman to wear on her head a sign of the authority over her, because of the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11 However, in the Lord, though woman is nothing without man, man is nothing without woman;

1 Corinthians 11:12 and though woman came from man, so does every man come from a woman, and everything comes from God.

1 Corinthians 11:13 Decide for yourselves: does it seem fitting that a woman should pray to God without a veil?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Does not nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace to him,

1 Corinthians 11:15 but when a woman has long hair, it is her glory? After all, her hair was given to her to be a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 If anyone wants to be contentious, I say that we have no such custom, nor do any of the churches of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 Now that I am on the subject of instructions, I cannot congratulate you on the meetings you hold; they do more harm than good.

1 Corinthians 11:18 In the first place, I hear that when you all come together in your assembly, there are separate factions among you, and to some extent I believe it.

1 Corinthians 11:19 It is no bad thing, either, that there should be differing groups among you so that those who are to be trusted among you can be clearly recognised.

1 Corinthians 11:20 So, when you meet together, it is not the Lord’s Supper that you eat;

1 Corinthians 11:21 for when the eating begins, each one of you has his own supper first, and there is one going hungry while another is getting drunk.

1 Corinthians 11:22 Surely you have homes for doing your eating and drinking in? Or have you such disregard for God’s assembly that you can put to shame those who have nothing? What am I to say to you? Congratulate you? On this I cannot congratulate you.

1 Corinthians 11:23 For the tradition I received from the Lord and also handed on to you is that on the night he was betrayed, the Lord

Jesus took some bread,

1 Corinthians 11:24 and after he had given thanks, he broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me.'

1 Corinthians 11:25 And in the same way, with the cup after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.'

1 Corinthians 11:26 Whenever you eat this bread, then, and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the Lord's death until he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 Therefore anyone who eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily is answerable for the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28 Everyone is to examine himself and only then eat of the bread or drink from the cup;

1 Corinthians 11:29 because a person who eats and drinks without recognising the body is eating and drinking his own condemnation.

1 Corinthians 11:30 That is why many of you are weak and ill and a good number have died.

1 Corinthians 11:31 If we were critical of ourselves we would not be condemned,

1 Corinthians 11:32 but when we are judged by the Lord, we are corrected by the Lord to save us from being condemned along with the world.

1 Corinthians 11:33 So then, my brothers, when you meet for the Meal, wait for each other;

1 Corinthians 11:34 anyone who is hungry should eat at home. Then your meeting will not bring your condemnation. The other matters I shall arrange when I come.

1 Corinthians 12:1 About the gifts of the Spirit, brothers, I want you to be quite certain.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You remember that, when you were pagans, you were irresistibly drawn to inarticulate heathen gods.

1 Corinthians 12:3 Because of that, I want to make it quite clear to you that no one who says 'A curse on Jesus' can be speaking in the Spirit of God, and nobody is able to say, 'Jesus is Lord' except in the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4 There are many different gifts, but it is always the same Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:5 there are many different ways of serving, but it is always the same Lord.

1 Corinthians 12:6 There are many different forms of activity, but in everybody it is the same God who is at work in them all.

1 Corinthians 12:7 The particular manifestation of the Spirit granted to each one is to be used for the general good.

1 Corinthians 12:8 To one is given from the Spirit the gift of utterance expressing wisdom; to another the gift of utterance expressing knowledge, in accordance with the same Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:9 to another, faith, from the same Spirit; and to another, the gifts of healing, through this one Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:10 to another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, the power of distinguishing spirits; to one, the gift of different tongues and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:11 But at work in all these is one and the same Spirit, distributing them at will to each individual.

1 Corinthians 12:12 For as with the human body which is a unity although it has many parts—all the parts of the body, though many, still making up one single body—so it is with Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:13 We were baptised into one body in a single Spirit, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as free men, and we were all given the same Spirit to drink.

1 Corinthians 12:14 And indeed the body consists not of one member but of many.

1 Corinthians 12:15 If the foot were to say, 'I am not a hand and so I do not belong to the body,' it does not belong to the body any the less for that.

1 Corinthians 12:16 Or if the ear were to say, 'I am not an eye, and so I do not belong to the body,' that would not stop its belonging to the body.

1 Corinthians 12:17 If the whole body were just an eye, how would there be any hearing? If the whole body were hearing, how would there be any smelling?

1 Corinthians 12:18 As it is, God has put all the separate parts into the body as he chose.

1 Corinthians 12:19 If they were all the same part, how could it be a body?

1 Corinthians 12:20 As it is, the parts are many but the body is one.

1 Corinthians 12:21 The eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you,' and nor can the head say to the feet, 'I have no need of you.'

1 Corinthians 12:22 What is more, it is precisely the parts of the body that seem to be the weakest which are the indispensable ones.

1 Corinthians 12:23 It is the parts of the body which we consider least dignified that we surround with the greatest dignity; and our less presentable parts are given greater presentability

1 Corinthians 12:24 which our presentable parts do not need. God has composed the body so that greater dignity is given to the parts which were without it,

1 Corinthians 12:25 and so that there may not be disagreements inside the body but each part may be equally concerned for all the others.

1 Corinthians 12:26 If one part is hurt, all the parts share its pain. And if one part is honoured, all the parts share its joy.

1 Corinthians 12:27 Now Christ's body is yourselves, each of you with a part to play in the whole.

1 Corinthians 12:28 And those whom God has appointed in the Church are, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers; after them, miraculous powers, then gifts of healing, helpful acts, guidance, various kinds of tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29 Are all of them apostles? Or all prophets? Or all teachers? Or all miracle-workers?

1 Corinthians 12:30 Do all have the gifts of healing? Do all of them speak in tongues and all interpret them?

1 Corinthians 12:31 Set your mind on the higher gifts. And now I am going to put before you the best way of all.

1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I command languages both human and angelic—if I speak without love, I am no more than a gong booming or a cymbal clashing.

1 Corinthians 13:2 And though I have the power of prophecy, to penetrate all mysteries and knowledge, and though I have all the faith necessary to move mountains—if I am without love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3 Though I should give away to the poor all that I possess, and even give up my body to be burned—if I am without love, it will do me no good whatever.

1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is always patient and kind; love is never jealous; love is not boastful or conceited,

1 Corinthians 13:5 it is never rude and never seeks its own advantage, it does not take offence or store up grievances.

1 Corinthians 13:6 Love does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but finds its joy in the truth.

1 Corinthians 13:7 It is always ready to make allowances, to trust, to hope and to endure whatever comes.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Love never comes to an end. But if there are prophecies, they will be done away with; if tongues, they will fall silent; and if knowledge, it will be done away with.

1 Corinthians 13:9 For we know only imperfectly, and we prophesy imperfectly;

1 Corinthians 13:10 but once perfection comes, all imperfect things will be done away with.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I used to talk like a child, and see things as a child does, and think like a child; but now that I have become an adult, I have finished with all childish ways.

1 Corinthians 13:12 Now we see only reflections in a mirror, mere riddles, but then we shall be seeing face to face. Now I can know only imperfectly; but then I shall know just as fully as I am myself known.

1 Corinthians 13:13 As it is, these remain: faith, hope and love, the three of them; and the greatest of them is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1 Make love your aim; but be eager, too, for spiritual gifts, and especially for prophesying.

1 Corinthians 14:2 Those who speak in a tongue speak to God, but not to other people, because nobody understands them; they are speaking in the Spirit and the meaning is hidden.

1 Corinthians 14:3 On the other hand, someone who prophesies speaks to other people, building them up and giving them encouragement and reassurance.

1 Corinthians 14:4 Those who speak in a tongue may build themselves up, but those who prophesy build up the community.

1 Corinthians 14:5 While I should like you all to speak in tongues, I would much rather you could prophesy; since those who prophesy are of greater importance than those who speak in tongues, unless they can interpret what they say so that the church is built up by it.

1 Corinthians 14:6 Now suppose, brothers, I come to you and speak in tongues, what good shall I do you if my speaking provides no revelation or knowledge or prophecy or instruction?

1 Corinthians 14:7 It is the same with an inanimate musical instrument. If it does not make any distinction between notes, how can one recognise what is being played on flute or lyre?

1 Corinthians 14:8 If the trumpet sounds a call which is unrecognisable, who is going to get ready for the attack?

1 Corinthians 14:9 It is the same with you: if you do not use your tongue to produce speech that can be readily understood, how can anyone know what you are saying? You will be talking to the air.

1 Corinthians 14:10 However many the languages used in the world, all of them use sound;

1 Corinthians 14:11 but if I do not understand the meaning of the sound, I am a barbarian to the person who is speaking, and the speaker is a barbarian to me.

1 Corinthians 14:12 So with you, as you are eager to have spiritual powers, aim to be rich in those which build up the community.

1 Corinthians 14:13 That is why anybody who speaks in a tongue must pray that he may be given the interpretation.

1 Corinthians 14:14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit may be praying but my mind derives no fruit from it.

1 Corinthians 14:15 What then? I shall pray with the spirit, but I shall pray with the mind as well: I shall sing praises with the spirit and I shall sing praises with the mind as well.

1 Corinthians 14:16 Otherwise, if you say your blessing only with the spirit, how is the uninitiated person going to answer 'Amen' to your thanksgiving, without understanding what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 14:17 You may be making your thanksgiving well, but the other person is not built up at all.

1 Corinthians 14:18 I thank God that I speak with tongues more than any of you;

1 Corinthians 14:19 all the same, when I am in the assembly I would rather say five words with my mind, to instruct others as well, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

1 Corinthians 14:20 Brothers, do not remain children in your thinking; infants in wickedness-agreed, but in your thinking grown-ups.

1 Corinthians 14:21 It says in the written Law: In strange tongues and in a foreign language I will talk to this nation, and even so they will refuse to listen, says the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:22 So then, strange languages are significant not for believers, but for unbelievers; whereas on the other hand, prophesying is not for unbelievers, but for believers.

1 Corinthians 14:23 Suppose that, if the whole congregation were meeting and all of them speaking in tongues, and some uninitiated people or unbelievers were to come in, don't you think they would say that you were all raving?

1 Corinthians 14:24 But if you were all prophesying when an unbeliever or someone uninitiated came in, he would find himself put to the test by all and judged by all

1 Corinthians 14:25 and the secrets of his heart revealed; and so he would fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is indeed among you.

1 Corinthians 14:26 Then what should it be like, brothers? When you come together each of you brings a psalm or some instruction or a revelation, or speaks in a tongue or gives an interpretation. Let all these things be done in a way that will build up the community.

1 Corinthians 14:27 If there are to be any people speaking in a tongue, then let there be only two, or at the most three, and those one at a time, and let one of these interpret.

1 Corinthians 14:28 If there is no interpreter, then let each of them be quiet in the assembly, and speak only to himself and God.

1 Corinthians 14:29 Let two prophets, or three, speak while the rest weigh their words;

1 Corinthians 14:30 and if a revelation comes to someone else who is sitting by, the speaker should stop speaking.

1 Corinthians 14:31 You can all prophesy, but one at a time, then all will learn something and all receive encouragement.

1 Corinthians 14:32 The prophetic spirit is to be under the prophets' control,

1 Corinthians 14:33 for God is a God not of disorder but of peace. As in all the churches of God's holy people,

1 Corinthians 14:34 women are to remain quiet in the assemblies, since they have no permission to speak: theirs is a subordinate part, as the Law itself says.

1 Corinthians 14:35 If there is anything they want to know, they should ask their husbands at home: it is shameful for a woman to speak in the assembly.

1 Corinthians 14:36 Do you really think that you are the source of the word of God? Or that you are the only people to whom it has come?

1 Corinthians 14:37 Anyone who claims to be a prophet, or to have any spiritual powers must recognise that what I am writing to you is a commandment from the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:38 If anyone does not recognise this, it is because that person is not recognised himself.

1 Corinthians 14:39 So, my brothers, be eager to prophesy, and do not suppress the gift of speaking in tongues.

1 Corinthians 14:40 But make sure that everything is done in a proper and orderly fashion.

1 Corinthians 15:1 I want to make quite clear to you, brothers, what the message of the gospel that I preached to you is; you accepted it and took your stand on it,

1 Corinthians 15:2 and you are saved by it, if you keep to the message I preached to you; otherwise your coming to believe was in vain.

1 Corinthians 15:3 The tradition I handed on to you in the first place, a tradition which I had myself received, was that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:4 and that he was buried; and that on the third day, he was raised to life, in accordance with the scriptures;

1 Corinthians 15:5 and that he appeared to Cephas; and later to the Twelve;

1 Corinthians 15:6 and next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still with us, though some have fallen asleep;

1 Corinthians 15:7 then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles.

1 Corinthians 15:8 Last of all he appeared to me too, as though I was a child born abnormally.

1 Corinthians 15:9 For I am the least of the apostles and am not really fit to be called an apostle, because I had been persecuting the Church of God;

1 Corinthians 15:10 but what I am now, I am through the grace of God, and the grace which was given to me has not been wasted. Indeed, I have worked harder than all the others—not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

1 Corinthians 15:11 Anyway, whether it was they or I, this is what we preach and what you believed.

1 Corinthians 15:12 Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you be saying that there is no resurrection of the dead?

1 Corinthians 15:13 If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ cannot have been raised either,

1 Corinthians 15:14 and if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is without substance, and so is your faith.

1 Corinthians 15:15 What is more, we have proved to be false witnesses to God, for testifying against God that he raised Christ to life when he did not raise him—if it is true that the dead are not raised.

1 Corinthians 15:16 For, if the dead are not raised, neither is Christ;

1 Corinthians 15:17 and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is pointless and you have not, after all, been released from your sins.

1 Corinthians 15:18 In addition, those who have fallen asleep in Christ are utterly lost.

1 Corinthians 15:19 If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are of all people the most pitiable.

1 Corinthians 15:20 In fact, however, Christ has been raised from the dead, as the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

1 Corinthians 15:21 As it was by one man that death came, so through one man has come the resurrection of the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:22 Just as all die in Adam, so in Christ all will be brought to life;

1 Corinthians 15:23 but all of them in their proper order: Christ the first-fruits, and next, at his coming, those who belong to him.

1 Corinthians 15:24 After that will come the end, when he will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, having abolished every principality, every ruling force and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25 For he is to be king until he has made his enemies his footstool,

1 Corinthians 15:26 and the last of the enemies to be done away with is death, for he has put all things under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:27 But when it is said everything is subjected, this obviously cannot include the One who subjected everything to him.

1 Corinthians 15:28 When everything has been subjected to him, then the Son himself will be subjected to the One who has subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all.

1 Corinthians 15:29 Otherwise, what are people up to who have themselves baptised on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, what is the point of being baptised on their behalf?

1 Corinthians 15:30 And what about us? Why should we endanger ourselves every hour of our lives?

1 Corinthians 15:31 I swear by the pride that I take in you, in Christ Jesus our Lord, that I face death every day.

1 Corinthians 15:32 If I fought wild animals at Ephesus in a purely human perspective, what had I to gain by it?

1 Corinthians 15:33 If the dead are not going to be raised, then Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we shall be dead.

1 Corinthians 15:34 So do not let anyone lead you astray, 'Bad company corrupts good ways.' Wake up from your stupor as you should and leave sin alone; some of you have no understanding of God; I tell you this to instil some shame in you.

1 Corinthians 15:35 Someone may ask: How are dead people raised, and what sort of body do they have when they come?

1 Corinthians 15:36 How foolish! What you sow must die before it is given new life;

1 Corinthians 15:37 and what you sow is not the body that is to be, but only a bare grain, of wheat I dare say, or some other kind;

1 Corinthians 15:38 it is God who gives it the sort of body that he has chosen for it, and for each kind of seed its own kind of body.

1 Corinthians 15:39 Not all flesh is the same flesh: there is human flesh; animals have another kind of flesh, birds another and fish yet another.

1 Corinthians 15:40 Then there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies; the heavenly have a splendour of their own, and the earthly a different splendour.

1 Corinthians 15:41 The sun has its own splendour, the moon another splendour, and the stars yet another splendour; and the stars differ among themselves in splendour.

1 Corinthians 15:42 It is the same too with the resurrection of the dead: what is sown is perishable, but what is raised is imperishable;

1 Corinthians 15:43 what is sown is contemptible but what is raised is glorious; what is sown is weak, but what is raised is powerful;

1 Corinthians 15:44 what is sown is a natural body, and what is raised is a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is a spiritual body too.

1 Corinthians 15:45 So the first man, Adam, as scripture says, became a living soul; and the last Adam has become a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46 But first came the natural body, not the spiritual one; that came only afterwards.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man, being made of earth, is earthly by nature; the second man is from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 The earthly man is the pattern for earthly people, the heavenly man for heavenly ones.

1 Corinthians 15:49 And as we have borne the likeness of the earthly man, so we shall bear the likeness of the heavenly one.

1 Corinthians 15:50 What I am saying, brothers, is that mere human nature cannot inherit the kingdom of God: what is perishable cannot inherit what is imperishable.

1 Corinthians 15:51 Now I am going to tell you a mystery: we are not all going to fall asleep,

1 Corinthians 15:52 but we are all going to be changed, instantly, in the twinkling of an eye, when the last trumpet sounds. The trumpet is going to sound, and then the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed,

1 Corinthians 15:53 because this perishable nature of ours must put on imperishability, this mortal nature must put on immortality.

1 Corinthians 15:54 And after this perishable nature has put on imperishability and this mortal nature has put on immortality, then will the words of scripture come true: Death is swallowed up in victory.

1 Corinthians 15:55 Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?

1 Corinthians 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin comes from the Law.

1 Corinthians 15:57 Thank God, then, for giving us the victory through Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 15:58 So, my dear brothers, keep firm and immovable, always abounding in energy for the Lord’s work, being sure that in the Lord none of your labours is wasted.

1 Corinthians 16:1 Now about the collection for God’s holy people; you are to do the same as I prescribed for the churches in Galatia.

1 Corinthians 16:2 On the first day of the week, each of you should put aside and reserve as much as each can spare; do not delay the collection till I arrive.

1 Corinthians 16:3 When I come, I will send to Jerusalem with letters of introduction those people you approve to deliver your gift;

1 Corinthians 16:4 if it is worth my going too, they can travel with me.

1 Corinthians 16:5 In any case, I shall be coming to you after I have passed through Macedonia, as I have to go through Macedonia;

1 Corinthians 16:6 and I may be staying some time with you, perhaps wintering, so that you can start me on my next journey, wherever I may be going.

1 Corinthians 16:7 I do not want to make only a passing visit to you, and I am hoping to spend quite a time with you, the Lord permitting.

1 Corinthians 16:8 But I shall remain at Ephesus until Pentecost,

1 Corinthians 16:9 for a very promising door is standing wide open to me and there are many against us.

1 Corinthians 16:10 If Timothy comes, make sure that he has nothing to fear from you; he is doing the Lord's work, just as I am,

1 Corinthians 16:11 and nobody is to underrate him. Start him off in peace on his journey to come on to me: the brothers and I are waiting for him.

1 Corinthians 16:12 As for our brother Apollos, I urged him earnestly to come to you with the brothers, but he was quite firm that he did not want to go yet, and he will come when he finds an opportunity.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be vigilant, stay firm in the faith, be brave and strong.

1 Corinthians 16:14 Let everything you do be done in love.

1 Corinthians 16:15 There is something else I must urge you to do, brothers. You know how Stephanas' family have been the first-fruits of Achaia and have devoted themselves to the service of God's holy people;

1 Corinthians 16:16 I ask you in turn to put yourselves at the service of people like this and all that work with them in this arduous task.

1 Corinthians 16:17 I am delighted that Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus have arrived; they have made up for your not being here.

1 Corinthians 16:18 They have set my mind at rest, just as they did yours; you should appreciate people like them.

1 Corinthians 16:19 The churches of Asia send their greetings. Aquila and Prisca send their best wishes in the Lord, together with the church that meets in their house.

1 Corinthians 16:20 All the brothers send their greetings. Greet one another with the holy kiss.

1 Corinthians 16:21 This greeting is in my own hand-PAUL.

1 Corinthians 16:22 If there is anyone who does not love the Lord, a curse on such a one. Maran atha.

1 Corinthians 16:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

1 Corinthians 16:24 My love is with you all in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, by the will of God an apostle of Christ Jesus, and Timothy, our brother, to the church of God in Corinth and to all God's holy people in the whole of Achaia.

2 Corinthians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the merciful Father and the God who gives every possible encouragement;

2 Corinthians 1:4 he supports us in every hardship, so that we are able to come to the support of others, in every hardship of theirs because of the encouragement that we ourselves receive from God.

2 Corinthians 1:5 For just as the sufferings of Christ overflow into our lives; so too does the encouragement we receive through Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:6 So if we have hardships to undergo, this will contribute to your encouragement and your salvation; if we receive encouragement, this is to gain for you the encouragement which enables you to bear with perseverance the same sufferings as we do.

2 Corinthians 1:7 So our hope for you is secure in the knowledge that you share the encouragement we receive, no less than the sufferings we bear.

2 Corinthians 1:8 So in the hardships we underwent in Asia, we want you to be quite certain, brothers, that we were under extraordinary pressure, beyond our powers of endurance, so that we gave up all hope even of surviving.

2 Corinthians 1:9 In fact we were carrying the sentence of death within our own selves, so that we should be forced to trust not in ourselves but in God, who raises the dead.

2 Corinthians 1:10 He did save us from such a death and will save us—we are relying on him to do so.

2 Corinthians 1:11 Your prayer for us will contribute to this, so that, for God's favour shown to us as the result of the prayers of so many, thanks too may be given by many on our behalf.

2 Corinthians 1:12 There is one thing that we are proud of, namely our conscientious conviction that we have always behaved towards everyone, and especially towards you, with that unalloyed holiness that comes from God, relying not on human reasoning but on the grace of God.

2 Corinthians 1:13 In our writing, there is nothing that you cannot read clearly and understand;

2 Corinthians 1:14 and it is my hope that, just as you have already understood us partially, so you will understand fully that you can be as proud of us as we shall be of you when the Day of our Lord Jesus comes.

2 Corinthians 1:15 It was with this assurance that I had been meaning to come to you first, so that you would benefit doubly;

2 Corinthians 1:16 both to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and then to return to you again from Macedonia, so that you could set me on my way to Judaea.

2 Corinthians 1:17 Since that was my purpose, do you think I lightly changed my mind? Or that my plans are based on ordinary human promptings and I have in my mind Yes, yes at the same time as No, no?

2 Corinthians 1:18 As surely as God is trustworthy, what we say to you is not both Yes and No.

2 Corinthians 1:19 The Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was proclaimed to you by us, that is, by me and by Silvanus and Timothy, was never Yes-and-No; his nature is all Yes.

2 Corinthians 1:20 For in him is found the Yes to all God's promises and therefore it is 'through him' that we answer 'Amen' to give praise to God.

2 Corinthians 1:21 It is God who gives us, with you, a sure place in Christ

2 Corinthians 1:22 and has both anointed us and marked us with his seal, giving us as pledge the Spirit in our hearts.

2 Corinthians 1:23 By my life I call on God to be my witness that it was only to spare you that I did not come to Corinth again.

2 Corinthians 1:24 We have no wish to lord it over your faith, but to work with you for your joy; for your stand in the faith is firm.

2 Corinthians 2:1 I made up my mind, then, that my next visit to you would not be a painful one,

2 Corinthians 2:2 for if I cause you distress I am causing distress to my only possible source of joy.

2 Corinthians 2:3 Indeed, I wrote as I did precisely to spare myself distress when I visited you, from the very people who should have given me joy, in the conviction that for all of you my joy was yours too.

2 Corinthians 2:4 I wrote to you in agony of mind, not meaning to cause you distress but to show you how very much love I have for you.

2 Corinthians 2:5 If anyone did cause distress, he caused it not to me, but—not to exaggerate—in some degree to all of you.

2 Corinthians 2:6 The punishment already imposed by the majority was quite enough for such a person;

2 Corinthians 2:7 and now by contrast you should forgive and encourage him all the more, or he may be overwhelmed by the extent of his distress.

2 Corinthians 2:8 That is why I urge you to give your love towards him definite expression.

2 Corinthians 2:9 This was in fact my reason for writing, to test your quality and whether you are completely obedient.

2 Corinthians 2:10 But if you forgive anybody, then I too forgive that person; and whatever I have forgiven, if there is anything I have forgiven, I have done it for your sake in Christ's presence,

2 Corinthians 2:11 to avoid being outwitted by Satan, whose scheming we know only too well.

2 Corinthians 2:12 When I came to Troas for the sake of the gospel of Christ and a door was opened for me there in the Lord,

2 Corinthians 2:13 I had no relief from anxiety, not finding my brother Titus there, and I said goodbye to them and went on to Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But, thanks be to God who always gives us in Christ a part in his triumphal procession, and through us is spreading everywhere the fragrance of the knowledge of himself.

2 Corinthians 2:15 To God we are the fragrance of Christ, both among those who are being saved and among those who are on the way to destruction;

2 Corinthians 2:16 for these last, the smell of death leading to death, but for the first, the smell of life leading to life. Who is equal to such a task?

2 Corinthians 2:17 At least we do not adulterate the word of God, as so many do, but it is in all purity, as envoys of God and in God's presence, that we speak in Christ.

2 Corinthians 3:1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves to you afresh—as though we needed, like some others, to have letters of commendation either to you or from you?

2 Corinthians 3:2 You yourselves are our letter, written in our hearts, that everyone can read and understand;

2 Corinthians 3:3 and it is plain that you are a letter from Christ, entrusted to our care, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God; not on stone tablets but on the tablets of human hearts.

2 Corinthians 3:4 Such is the confidence we have through Christ in facing God;

2 Corinthians 3:5 it is not that we are so competent that we can claim any credit for ourselves; all our competence comes from God.

2 Corinthians 3:6 He has given us the competence to be ministers of a new covenant, a covenant which is not of written letters, but of the Spirit; for the written letters kill, but the Spirit gives life.

2 Corinthians 3:7 Now if the administering of death, engraved in letters on stone, occurred in such glory that the Israelites could not look Moses steadily in the face, because of its glory, transitory though this glory was,

2 Corinthians 3:8 how much more will the ministry of the Spirit occur in glory!

2 Corinthians 3:9 For if it is glorious to administer condemnation, to administer saving justice is far richer in glory.

2 Corinthians 3:10 Indeed, what was once considered glorious has lost all claim to glory, by contrast with the glory which transcends it.

2 Corinthians 3:11 For if what was transitory had any glory, how much greater is the glory of that which lasts for ever.

2 Corinthians 3:12 With a hope like this, we can speak with complete fearlessness;

2 Corinthians 3:13 not like Moses who put a veil over his face so that the Israelites should not watch the end of what was transitory.

2 Corinthians 3:14 But their minds were closed; indeed, until this very day, the same veil remains over the reading of the Old Testament: it is not lifted, for only in Christ is it done away with.

2 Corinthians 3:15 As it is, to this day, whenever Moses is read, their hearts are covered with a veil,

2 Corinthians 3:16 and this veil will not be taken away till they turn to the Lord.

2 Corinthians 3:17 Now this Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

2 Corinthians 3:18 And all of us, with our unveiled faces like mirrors reflecting the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the image that we reflect in brighter and brighter glory; this is the working of the Lord who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:1 Such by God's mercy is our ministry, and therefore we do not waver

2 Corinthians 4:2 but have renounced all shameful secrecy. It is not our way to be devious, or to falsify the word of God; instead, in God's sight we commend ourselves to every human being with a conscience by showing the truth openly.

2 Corinthians 4:3 If our gospel seems to be veiled at all, it is so to those who are on the way to destruction,

2 Corinthians 4:4 the unbelievers whose minds have been blinded by the god of this world, so that they cannot see shining the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

2 Corinthians 4:5 It is not ourselves that we are proclaiming, but Christ Jesus as the Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.

2 Corinthians 4:6 It is God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness,' that has shone into our hearts to enlighten them with the knowledge of God's glory, the glory on the face of Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:7 But we hold this treasure in pots of earthenware, so that the immensity of the power is God's and not our own.

2 Corinthians 4:8 We are subjected to every kind of hardship, but never distressed; we see no way out but we never despair;

2 Corinthians 4:9 we are pursued but never cut off; knocked down, but still have some life in us;

2 Corinthians 4:10 always we carry with us in our body the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus, too, may be visible in our body.

2 Corinthians 4:11 Indeed, while we are still alive, we are continually being handed over to death, for the sake of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus, too, may be visible in our mortal flesh.

2 Corinthians 4:12 In us, then, death is at work; in you, life.

2 Corinthians 4:13 But as we have the same spirit of faith as is described in scripture—I believed and therefore I spoke -we, too, believe and therefore we, too, speak,

2 Corinthians 4:14 realising that he who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise us up with Jesus in our turn, and bring us to himself—and you as well.

2 Corinthians 4:15 You see, everything is for your benefit, so that as grace spreads, so, to the glory of God, thanksgiving may also overflow among more and more people.

2 Corinthians 4:16 That is why we do not waver; indeed, though this outer human nature of ours may be falling into decay, at the same time our inner human nature is renewed day by day.

2 Corinthians 4:17 The temporary, light burden of our hardships is earning us for ever an utterly incomparable, eternal weight of glory,

2 Corinthians 4:18 since what we aim for is not visible but invisible. Visible things are transitory, but invisible things eternal.

2 Corinthians 5:1 For we are well aware that when the tent that houses us on earth is folded up, there is a house for us from God, not made by human hands but everlasting, in the heavens.

2 Corinthians 5:2 And in this earthly state we do indeed groan,

2 Corinthians 5:3 longing to put on our heavenly home over the present one; if indeed we are to be found clothed rather than stripped bare.

2 Corinthians 5:4 Yes, indeed, in this present tent, we groan under the burden, not that we want to be stripped of our covering, but because we want to be covered with a second garment on top, so that what is mortal in us may be swallowed up by life.

2 Corinthians 5:5 It is God who designed us for this very purpose, and he has given us the Spirit as a pledge.

2 Corinthians 5:6 We are always full of confidence, then, realising that as long as we are at home in the body we are exiled from the Lord,

2 Corinthians 5:7 guided by faith and not yet by sight;

2 Corinthians 5:8 we are full of confidence, then, and long instead to be exiled from the body and to be at home with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:9 And so whether at home or exiled, we make it our ambition to please him.

2 Corinthians 5:10 For at the judgement seat of Christ we are all to be seen for what we are, so that each of us may receive what he has deserved in the body, matched to whatever he has done, good or bad.

2 Corinthians 5:11 And so it is with the fear of the Lord always in mind that we try to win people over. But God sees us for what we are, and I hope your consciences do too.

2 Corinthians 5:12 Again we are saying this not to commend ourselves to you, but simply to give you the opportunity to take pride in us, so that you may have an answer for those who take pride in appearances and not inner reality.

2 Corinthians 5:13 If we have been unreasonable, it was for God; if reasonable, for you.

2 Corinthians 5:14 For the love of Christ overwhelms us when we consider that if one man died for all, then all have died;

2 Corinthians 5:15 his purpose in dying for all humanity was that those who live should live not any more for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life.

2 Corinthians 5:16 From now onwards, then, we will not consider anyone by human standards: even if we were once familiar with Christ according to human standards, we do not know him in that way any longer.

2 Corinthians 5:17 So for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation: the old order is gone and a new being is there to see.

2 Corinthians 5:18 It is all God’s work; he reconciled us to himself through Christ and he gave us the ministry of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:19 I mean, God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not holding anyone’s faults against them, but entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:20 So we are ambassadors for Christ; it is as though

God were urging you through us, and in the name of Christ we appeal to you to be reconciled to God.

2 Corinthians 5:21 For our sake he made the sinless one a victim for sin, so that in him we might become the uprightness of God.

2 Corinthians 6:1 As his fellow-workers, we urge you not to let your acceptance of his grace come to nothing.

2 Corinthians 6:2 As he said, ‘At the time of my favour I have answered you; on the day of salvation I have helped you’; well, now is the real time of favour, now the day of salvation is here.

2 Corinthians 6:3 We avoid putting obstacles in anyone’s way, so that no blame may attach to our work of service;

2 Corinthians 6:4 but in everything we prove ourselves authentic servants of God; by resolute perseverance in times of hardships, difficulties and distress;

2 Corinthians 6:5 when we are flogged or sent to prison or mobbed; labouring, sleepless, starving;

2 Corinthians 6:6 in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness; in the Holy Spirit, in a love free of affectation;

2 Corinthians 6:7 in the word of truth and in the power of God; by using the weapons of uprightness for attack and for defence:

2 Corinthians 6:8 in times of honour or disgrace, blame or praise; taken for impostors and yet we are genuine;

2 Corinthians 6:9 unknown and yet we are acknowledged; dying, and yet here we are, alive; scourged but not executed;

2 Corinthians 6:10 in pain yet always full of joy; poor and yet making many people rich; having nothing, and yet owning everything.

2 Corinthians 6:11 People of Corinth, we have spoken frankly and opened our heart to you.

2 Corinthians 6:12 Any distress you feel is not on our side; the distress is in your own selves.

2 Corinthians 6:13 In fair exchange—I speak as though to children of mine—you must open your hearts too.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Do not harness yourselves in an uneven team with unbelievers; how can uprightness and law-breaking be partners, or what can light and darkness have in common?

2 Corinthians 6:15 How can Christ come to an agreement with Beliar and what sharing can there be between a believer and an unbeliever?

2 Corinthians 6:16 The temple of God cannot compromise with false gods, and that is what we are—the temple of the living God. We have God’s word for it: I shall fix my home among them and live among them; I will be their God and they will be my people.

2 Corinthians 6:17 Get away from them, purify yourselves, says the Lord. Do not touch anything unclean, and then I shall welcome you.

2 Corinthians 6:18 I shall be father to you, and you will be sons and daughters to me, says the almighty Lord.

2 Corinthians 7:1 Since these promises have been made to us, my dear friends, we should wash ourselves clean of everything that pollutes either body or spirit, bringing our sanctification to completion in the fear of God.

2 Corinthians 7:2 Keep a place for us in your hearts. We have not injured anyone, or ruined anyone, or taken advantage of anyone.

2 Corinthians 7:3 I am not saying this to condemn anybody; as I have already told you, you are in our hearts—so that together we live and together we die.

2 Corinthians 7:4 I can speak with the greatest frankness to you; and I can speak with the greatest pride about you: in all our hardship, I am filled with encouragement and overflowing with joy.

2 Corinthians 7:5 Even after we had come to Macedonia, there was no rest for this body of ours. Far from it; we were beset by hardship on all sides, there were quarrels all around us and misgivings within us.

2 Corinthians 7:6 But God, who encourages all those who are distressed, encouraged us through the arrival of Titus;

2 Corinthians 7:7 and not simply by his arrival only, but also by means of the encouragement that you had given him, as he told us of your desire to see us, how sorry you were and how concerned for us; so that I was all the more joyful.

2 Corinthians 7:8 So now, though I did distress you with my letter, I do not regret it. Even if I did regret it—and I realise that the letter distressed you, even though not for long-

2 Corinthians 7:9 I am glad now, not because you were made to feel distress, but because the distress that you were caused led to repentance; your distress was the kind that God approves and so you have come to no kind of harm through us.

2 Corinthians 7:10 For to be distressed in a way that God approves leads to repentance and then to salvation with no regrets; it is the world's kind of distress that ends in death.

2 Corinthians 7:11 Just look at this present case: at what the result has been of your being made to feel distress in the way that God approves—what concern, what defence, what indignation and what alarm; what yearning, and what enthusiasm, and what justice done. In every way you have cleared yourselves of blame in this matter.

2 Corinthians 7:12 So although I wrote a letter to you, it was not for the sake of the offender, nor for the one offended, but only so that you yourselves should fully realise in the sight of God what concern you have for us.

2 Corinthians 7:13 That is what I have found encouraging. In addition to all this to encourage us, we were made all the more joyful by Titus' joy, now that his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

2 Corinthians 7:14 And if I boasted about you to him in any way, then I have not been made to look foolish; indeed, our boast to Titus has been proved to be as true as anything we said to you.

2 Corinthians 7:15 His personal affection for you is all the stronger when he remembers how obedient you have all been, and how you welcomed him with fear and trembling.

2 Corinthians 7:16 I am glad that I have every confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 8:1 Next, brothers, we will tell you of the grace of God which has been granted to the churches of Macedonia,

2 Corinthians 8:2 and how, throughout continual ordeals of hardship, their unfailing joy and their intense poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part.

2 Corinthians 8:3 I can testify that it was of their own accord that they made their gift, which was not merely as far as their resources would allow, but well beyond their resources;

2 Corinthians 8:4 and they had kept imploring us most insistently for the privilege of a share in the fellowship of service to God's holy people-

2 Corinthians 8:5 it was not something that we expected of them, but it began by their offering themselves to the Lord and to us at the prompting of the will of God.

2 Corinthians 8:6 In the end we urged Titus, since he had already made a beginning, also to bring this work of generosity to completion among you.

2 Corinthians 8:7 More, as you are rich in everything-faith, eloquence, understanding, concern for everything, and love for us too—then make sure that you excel in this work of generosity too.

2 Corinthians 8:8 I am not saying this as an order, but testing the genuineness of your love against the concern of others.

2 Corinthians 8:9 You are well aware of the generosity which our Lord Jesus Christ had, that, although he was rich, he became poor for your sake, so that you should become rich through his poverty.

2 Corinthians 8:10 I will give you my considered opinion in the matter; this will be the right course for you as you were the first, a year ago, not only to take any action but also even to conceive the project.

2 Corinthians 8:11 Now, then, complete the action as well, so that the fulfilment may—so far as your resources permit—be proportionate to your enthusiasm for the project.

2 Corinthians 8:12 As long as the enthusiasm is there, the basis on which it is acceptable is what someone has, not what someone does not have.

2 Corinthians 8:13 It is not that you ought to relieve other people's needs and leave yourselves in hardship; but there should be a fair balance-

2 Corinthians 8:14 your surplus at present may fill their deficit, and another time their surplus may fill your deficit. So there may be a fair balance;

2 Corinthians 8:15 as scripture says: No one who had collected more had too much, no one who collected less had too little.

2 Corinthians 8:16 Thank God for putting into Titus' heart the same sincere concern for you.

2 Corinthians 8:17 He certainly took our urging to heart; but greater still was his own enthusiasm, and he went off to you of his own accord.

2 Corinthians 8:18 We have sent with him the brother who is praised as an evangelist in all the churches

2 Corinthians 8:19 and who, what is more, was elected by the churches to be our travelling companion in this work of generosity, a work to be administered by us for the glory of the Lord and our complete satisfaction.

2 Corinthians 8:20 We arranged it this way so that no one should be able to make any accusation against us about this large sum we are administering.

2 Corinthians 8:21 And so we have been careful to do right not only in the sight of the Lord but also in the sight of people.

2 Corinthians 8:22 Along with these, we have sent a brother of ours whose eagerness we have tested over and over again in many ways and who is now all the more eager because he has so much faith in you.

2 Corinthians 8:23 If Titus is in question—he is my own partner and fellow-worker in your interests; and if our brothers—they are the emissaries of the churches and the glory of Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:24 So then, in full view of all the churches, give proof that you love them, and that we were right to boast of you to them.

2 Corinthians 9:1 About the help to God's holy people, there is really no need for me to write to you;

2 Corinthians 9:2 for I am well aware of your enthusiasm, and I have been boasting of it to the Macedonians that 'Achaia has been ready for a year'; your enthusiasm has been a spur to many others.

2 Corinthians 9:3 All the same, I have sent the brothers, to make sure that our boast about you may not prove hollow in this respect and that you may be ready, as I said you would be;

2 Corinthians 9:4 so that if by chance some of the Macedonians came with me and found you unprepared we—to say nothing of yourselves—would not be put to shame by our confidence in you.

2 Corinthians 9:5 So I have thought it necessary to encourage the brothers to go to you ahead of us and make sure in advance of the gift that you have already promised, so that it is all at hand as a real gift and not an imposition.

2 Corinthians 9:6 But remember: anyone who sows sparsely will reap sparsely as well—and anyone who sows generously will reap generously as well.

2 Corinthians 9:7 Each one should give as much as he has decided on his own initiative, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 Corinthians 9:8 God is perfectly able to enrich you with every grace, so that you always have enough for every conceivable need, and your resources overflow in all kinds of good work.

2 Corinthians 9:9 As scripture says: To the needy he gave without stint, his uprightness stands firm for ever.

2 Corinthians 9:10 The one who so freely provides seed for the sower and food to eat will provide you with ample store of seed for sowing and make the harvest of your uprightness a bigger one:

2 Corinthians 9:11 you will be rich enough in every way for every kind of generosity that makes people thank God for what we have done.

2 Corinthians 9:12 For the help provided by this contribution not only satisfies the needs of God's holy people, but also overflows into widespread thanksgiving to God;

2 Corinthians 9:13 because when you have proved your quality by this help, they will give glory to God for the obedience which you show in professing the gospel of Christ, as well as for the generosity of your fellowship towards them and towards all.

2 Corinthians 9:14 At the same time, their prayer for you will express the affection they feel for you because of the unbounded grace God has given you.

2 Corinthians 9:15 Thanks be to God for his gift that is beyond all telling!

2 Corinthians 10:1 I urge you by the gentleness and forbearance of Christ—this is Paul now speaking personally-I, the one who is so humble when he is facing you but full of boldness at a distance.

2 Corinthians 10:2 Yes, my appeal to you is that I should not have to be bold when I am actually with you, or show the same self-assurance as I reckon to use when I am challenging those who reckon that we are guided by human motives.

2 Corinthians 10:3 For although we are human, it is not by human methods that we do battle.

2 Corinthians 10:4 The weapons with which we do battle are not those of human nature, but they have the power, in God's cause, to demolish fortresses. It is ideas that we demolish,

2 Corinthians 10:5 every presumptuous notion that is set up against the knowledge of God, and we bring every thought into captivity and obedience to Christ;

2 Corinthians 10:6 once you have given your complete obedience, we are prepared to punish any disobedience.

2 Corinthians 10:7 Look at the evidence of your eyes. Anybody who is convinced that he belongs to Christ should go on to reflect that we belong to Christ no less than he does.

2 Corinthians 10:8 Maybe I have taken rather too much pride in our authority, but the Lord gave us that for building you up, not for knocking you down, and I am not going to be shamed

2 Corinthians 10:9 into letting you think that I can put fear into you only by letter.

2 Corinthians 10:10 Someone said, 'His letters are weighty enough, and full of strength, but when you see him in person, he makes no impression and his powers of speaking are negligible.'

2 Corinthians 10:11 I should like that sort of person to take note that our deeds when we are present will show the same qualities as our letters when we were at a distance.

2 Corinthians 10:12 We are not venturing to rank ourselves, or even to compare ourselves with certain people who provide their own commendations. By measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves to themselves, they only show their folly.

2 Corinthians 10:13 By contrast we do not intend to boast beyond measure, but will measure ourselves by the standard which God laid down for us, namely that of having come all the way to you.

2 Corinthians 10:14 We are not overreaching ourselves as we would be if we had not come all the way to you; in fact we were the first to come as far as you with the good news of Christ.

2 Corinthians 10:15 So we are not boasting beyond measure, about other men's work; in fact, we hope, as your faith increases, to grow greater and greater by this standard of ours,

2 Corinthians 10:16 by preaching the gospel to regions beyond you, rather than boasting about work already done in someone else's province.

2 Corinthians 10:17 Let anyone who wants to boast, boast of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 10:18 For it is not through self-commendation that recognition is won, but through commendation.

2 Corinthians 11:1 I wish you would put up with a little foolishness from me—not that you don't do this already.

2 Corinthians 11:2 The jealousy that I feel for you is, you see, God's own jealousy: I gave you all in marriage to a single husband, a virgin pure for presentation to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:3 But I am afraid that, just as the snake with his cunning seduced Eve, your minds may be led astray from single-minded devotion to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4 Because any chance comer has only to preach a Jesus other than the one we preached, or you have only to receive a spirit different from the one you received, or a gospel different from the one you accepted—and you put up with that only too willingly.

2 Corinthians 11:5 Now, I consider that I am not in the least inferior to the super-apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:6 Even if there is something lacking in my public speaking, this is not the case with my knowledge, as we have openly shown to you at all times and before everyone.

2 Corinthians 11:7 Have I done wrong, then, humbling myself so that you might be raised up, by preaching the gospel of God to you for nothing?

2 Corinthians 11:8 I was robbing other churches, taking wages from them in order to work for you.

2 Corinthians 11:9 When I was with you and needed money, I was no burden to anybody, for the brothers from Macedonia brought me as much as I needed when they came; I have always been careful not to let myself be a burden to you in any way, and I shall continue to be so.

2 Corinthians 11:10 And as Christ's truth is in me, this boast of mine is not going to be silenced in the regions of Achaia.

2 Corinthians 11:11 Why should it be? Because I do not love you? God knows that I do.

2 Corinthians 11:12 I will go on acting as I do at present, to cut the ground from under the feet of those who are looking for a chance to be proved my equals in grounds for boasting.

2 Corinthians 11:13 These people are counterfeit apostles, dishonest workers disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14 There is nothing astonishing in this; even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15 It is nothing extraordinary, then, when his servants disguise themselves as the servants of uprightness. They will come to the end appropriate to what they have done.

2 Corinthians 11:16 To repeat: let no one take me for a fool, but if you do, then treat me as a fool, so that I, too, can do a little boasting.

2 Corinthians 11:17 I shall not be following the Lord's way in what I say now, but will be speaking out of foolishness in the conviction that I have something to boast about.

2 Corinthians 11:18 So many people boast on merely human grounds that I shall too.

2 Corinthians 11:19 I know how happy you are to put up with fools, being so wise yourselves;

2 Corinthians 11:20 and how you will still go on putting up with a man who enslaves you, eats up all you possess, keeps you under his orders and sets himself above you, or even slaps you in the face.

2 Corinthians 11:21 I say it to your shame; perhaps we have been too weak. Whatever bold claims anyone makes—now I am talking as a fool—I can make them too.

2 Corinthians 11:22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.

2 Corinthians 11:23 Are they servants of Christ? I speak in utter folly—I am too, and more than they are: I have done more work, I have been in prison more, I have been flogged more severely, many times exposed to death.

2 Corinthians 11:24 Five times I have been given the thirty-nine lashes by the Jews;

2 Corinthians 11:25 three times I have been beaten with sticks; once I was stoned; three times I have been shipwrecked, and once I have been in the open sea for a night and a day;

2 Corinthians 11:26 continually travelling, I have been in danger from rivers, in danger from brigands, in danger from my own people and in danger from the gentiles, in danger in the towns and in danger in the open country, in danger at sea and in danger from people masquerading as brothers;

2 Corinthians 11:27 I have worked with unsparing energy, for many nights without sleep; I have been hungry and thirsty, and often altogether without food or drink; I have been cold and lacked clothing.

2 Corinthians 11:28 And, besides all the external things, there is, day in day out, the pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches.

2 Corinthians 11:29 If anyone weakens, I am weakened as well; and when anyone is made to fall, I burn in agony myself.

2 Corinthians 11:30 If I have to boast, I will boast of all the ways in which I am weak.

2 Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus—who is for ever to be blessed—knows that I am not lying.

2 Corinthians 11:32 When I was in Damascus, the governor who was under King Aretas put guards round Damascus city to catch me,

2 Corinthians 11:33 and I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall, and that was how I escaped from his hands.

2 Corinthians 12:1 I am boasting because I have to. Not that it does any good, but I will move on to visions and revelations from the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2 I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—still in the body? I do not know; or out of the body? I do not know: God knows—was caught up right into the third heaven.

2 Corinthians 12:3 And I know that this man—still in the body? or outside the body? I do not know, God knows-

2 Corinthians 12:4 was caught up into Paradise and heard words said that cannot and may not be spoken by any human being.

2 Corinthians 12:5 On behalf of someone like that I am willing to boast, but I am not going to boast on my own behalf except of my weaknesses;

2 Corinthians 12:6 and then, if I do choose to boast I shall not be talking like a fool because I shall be speaking the truth. But I will not go on in case anybody should rate me higher than he sees and hears me to be, because of the exceptional greatness of the revelations.

2 Corinthians 12:7 Wherefore, so that I should not get above myself, I was given a thorn in the flesh, a messenger from Satan to batter me and prevent me from getting above myself.

2 Corinthians 12:8 About this, I have three times pleaded with the Lord that it might leave me;

2 Corinthians 12:9 but he has answered me, ‘My grace is enough for you: for power is at full stretch in weakness.’ It is, then, about my weaknesses that I am happiest of all to boast, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me;

2 Corinthians 12:10 and that is why I am glad of weaknesses, insults, constraints, persecutions and distress for Christ’s sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

2 Corinthians 12:11 I have turned into a fool, but you forced me to it. It is you that should have been commending me; those super-apostles had no advantage over me, even if I am nothing at all.

2 Corinthians 12:12 All the marks characteristic of a true apostle have been at work among you: complete perseverance, signs, marvels, demonstrations of power.

2 Corinthians 12:13 Is there any way in which you have been given less than the rest of the churches, except that I did not make myself a burden to you? Forgive me for this unfairness!

2 Corinthians 12:14 Here I am, ready to come to you for the third time and I am not going to be a burden on you: it is not your possessions that I want, but yourselves. Children are not expected to save up for their parents, but parents for their children,

2 Corinthians 12:15 and I am more than glad to spend what I have and to be spent for the sake of your souls. Is it because I love you so much more, that I am loved the less?

2 Corinthians 12:16 All right, then; I did not make myself a burden to you, but, trickster that I am, I caught you by trickery.

2 Corinthians 12:17 Have I taken advantage of you through any of the people I have sent to you?

2 Corinthians 12:18 Titus came at my urging, and I sent his companion with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Can you deny that he and I were following the guidance of the same Spirit and were on the same tracks?

2 Corinthians 12:19 All this time you have been thinking that we have been pleading our own cause before you; no, we have been speaking in Christ and in the presence of God—and all, dear friends, to build you up.

2 Corinthians 12:20 I am afraid that in one way or another, when I come, I may find you different from what I should like you to be, and you may find me what you would not like me to be; so that in one way or the other there will be rivalry, jealousy, bad temper, quarrels, slander, gossip, arrogance and disorders;

2 Corinthians 12:21 and when I come again, my God may humiliate me in front of you and I shall be grieved by all those who sinned in the past and have still not repented of the impurities and sexual immorality and debauchery that they have committed.

2 Corinthians 13:1 This will be the third time I have confronted you. Whatever the misdemeanour, the evidence of two or three witnesses is required to sustain a charge.

2 Corinthians 13:2 I gave you notice once, and now, though I am not with you, I give notice again, just as when I was with you for a second time, to those who sinned before, and to all others; and it is to this effect, that when I do come next time, I shall have no mercy.

2 Corinthians 13:3 Since you are asking for a proof that it is Christ who speaks in me; he is not weak with you but his power is at work among you;

2 Corinthians 13:4 for, though it was out of weakness that he was crucified, he is alive now with the power of God. We, too, are weak in him, but with regard to you we shall live with him by the power of God.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Put yourselves to the test to make sure you are in the faith. Examine yourselves. Do you not recognise yourselves as people in whom Jesus Christ is present? - unless, that is, you fail the test.

2 Corinthians 13:6 But we, as I hope you will come to recognise, do not fail the test.

2 Corinthians 13:7 It is our prayer to God that you may do nothing wrong—not so that we have the credit of passing a test, but because you will be doing what is right, even if we do not pass the test.

2 Corinthians 13:8 We have no power to resist the truth; only to further the truth;

2 Corinthians 13:9 and we are delighted to be weak if only you are strong. What we ask in our prayers is that you should be made perfect.

2 Corinthians 13:10 That is why I am writing this while still far away, so that when I am with you I shall not have to be harsh, with the authority that the Lord has given me, an authority that is for building up and not for breaking down.

2 Corinthians 13:11 To end then, brothers, we wish you joy; try to grow perfect; encourage one another; have a common mind and live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:12 Greet one another with the holy kiss. All God’s holy people send you their greetings.

2 Corinthians 13:13 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Galatians

1:1 From Paul, an apostle appointed not by human beings nor through any human being but by Jesus Christ and God the Father who raised him from the dead,

Galatians 1:2 and all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia.

Galatians 1:3 Grace and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ

Galatians 1:4 who gave himself for our sins to liberate us from this present wicked world, in accordance with the will of our God and Father,

Galatians 1:5 to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Galatians 1:6 I am astonished that you are so promptly turning away from the one who called you in the grace of Christ and are going over to a different gospel-

Galatians 1:7 not that it is another gospel; except that there are trouble-makers among you who are seeking to pervert the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:8 But even if we ourselves or an angel from heaven preaches to you a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let God’s curse be on him.

Galatians 1:9 I repeat again what we declared before: anyone who preaches to you a gospel other than the one you were first given is to be under God’s curse.

Galatians 1:10 Whom am I trying to convince now, human beings or God? Am I trying to please human beings? If I were still doing that I should not be a servant of Christ.

Galatians 1:11 Now I want to make it quite clear to you, brothers, about the gospel that was preached by me, that it was no human message.

Galatians 1:12 It was not from any human being that I received it, and I was not taught it, but it came to me through a revelation of Jesus Christ.

Galatians 1:13 You have surely heard how I lived in the past, within Judaism, and how there was simply no limit to the way I persecuted the Church of God in my attempts to destroy it;

Galatians 1:14 and how, in Judaism, I outstripped most of my Jewish contemporaries in my limitless enthusiasm for the traditions of my ancestors.

Galatians 1:15 But when God, who had set me apart from the time when I was in my mother’s womb, called me through his grace and chose

Galatians 1:16 to reveal his Son in me, so that I should preach him to the gentiles, I was in no hurry to confer with any human being,

Galatians 1:17 or to go up to Jerusalem to see those who were already apostles before me. Instead, I went off to Arabia, and later I came back to Damascus.

Galatians 1:18 Only after three years did I go up to Jerusalem to meet Cephas. I stayed fifteen days with him

Galatians 1:19 but did not set eyes on any of the rest of the apostles, only James, the Lord’s brother.

Galatians 1:20 I swear before God that what I have written is the truth.

Galatians 1:21 After that I went to places in Syria and Cilicia;

Galatians 1:22 and was still unknown by sight to the churches of Judaea which are in Christ,

Galatians 1:23 they simply kept hearing it said, ‘The man once so eager to persecute us is now preaching the faith that he used to try to destroy,’

Galatians 1:24 and they gave glory to God for me.

Galatians 2:1 It was not until fourteen years had gone by that I travelled up to Jerusalem again, with Barnabas, and I took Titus with me too.

Galatians 2:2 My journey was inspired by a revelation and there, in a private session with the recognised leaders, I expounded the whole gospel that I preach to the gentiles, to make quite sure that the efforts I was making and had already made should not be fruitless.

Galatians 2:3 Even then, and although Titus, a Greek, was with me, there was no demand that he should be circumcised;

Galatians 2:4 but because of some false brothers who had secretly insinuated themselves to spy on the freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, intending to reduce us to slavery-

Galatians 2:5 people we did not defer to for one moment, or the truth of the gospel preached to you might have been compromised. . .

Galatians 2:6 but those who were recognised as important people—whether they actually were important or not: There is no favouritism with God -those recognised leaders, I am saying, had nothing to add to my message.

Galatians 2:7 On the contrary, once they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcised had been entrusted to me, just as to Peter the gospel for the circumcised

Galatians 2:8 (for he who empowered Peter's apostolate to the circumcision also empowered mine to the gentiles),

Galatians 2:9 and when they acknowledged the grace that had been given to me, then James and Cephas and John, who were the ones recognised as pillars, offered their right hands to Barnabas and to me as a sign of partnership: we were to go to the gentiles and they to the circumcised.

Galatians 2:10 They asked nothing more than that we should remember to help the poor, as indeed I was anxious to do in any case.

Galatians 2:11 However, when Cephas came to Antioch, then I did oppose him to his face since he was manifestly in the wrong.

Galatians 2:12 Before certain people from James came, he used to eat with gentiles; but as soon as these came, he backed out and kept apart from them, out of fear of the circumcised.

Galatians 2:13 And the rest of the Jews put on the same act as he did, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their insincerity.

Galatians 2:14 When I saw, though, that their behaviour was not true to the gospel, I said to Cephas in front of all of them, 'Since you, though you are a Jew, live like the gentiles and not like the Jews, how can you compel the gentiles to live like the Jews?'

Galatians 2:15 We who were born Jews and not gentile sinners

Galatians 2:16 have nevertheless learnt that someone is reckoned as upright not by practising the Law but by faith in Jesus Christ; and we too came to believe in Christ Jesus so as to be reckoned as upright by faith in Christ and not by practising the Law: since no human being can be found upright by keeping the Law.

Galatians 2:17 Now if we too are found to be sinners on the grounds that we seek our justification in Christ, it would surely follow that Christ was at the service of sin. Out of the question!

Galatians 2:18 If I now rebuild everything I once demolished, I prove that I was wrong before.

Galatians 2:19 In fact, through the Law I am dead to the Law so that I can be alive to God. I have been crucified with Christ

Galatians 2:20 and yet I am alive; yet it is no longer I, but Christ living in me. The life that I am now living, subject to the limitation of human nature, I am living in faith, faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me.

Galatians 2:21 I am not setting aside God's grace as of no value; it is merely that if saving justice comes through the Law, Christ died needlessly.

Galatians 3:1 You stupid people in Galatia! After you have had a clear picture of Jesus Christ crucified, right in front of your eyes, who has put a spell on you?

Galatians 3:2 There is only one thing I should like you to tell me: How was it that you received the Spirit—was it by the practice of the Law, or by believing in the message you heard?

Galatians 3:3 Having begun in the Spirit, can you be so stupid as to end in the flesh?

Galatians 3:4 Can all the favours you have received have had no effect at all—if there really has been no effect?

Galatians 3:5 Would you say, then, that he who so lavishly sends the Spirit to you, and causes the miracles among you, is doing this through your practice of the Law or because you believed the message you heard?

Galatians 3:6 Abraham, you remember, put his faith in God, and this was reckoned to him as uprightness.

Galatians 3:7 Be sure, then, that it is people of faith who are the children of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8 And it was because scripture foresaw that God would give saving justice to the gentiles through faith, that it announced the future gospel to Abraham in the words: All nations will be blessed in you.

Galatians 3:9 So it is people of faith who receive the same blessing as Abraham, the man of faith.

Galatians 3:10 On the other hand, all those who depend on the works of the Law are under a curse, since scripture says: Accursed be he who does not make what is written in the book of the Law effective, by putting it into practice.

Galatians 3:11 Now it is obvious that nobody is reckoned as upright in God's sight by the Law, since the upright will live through faith;

Galatians 3:12 and the Law is based not on faith but on the principle, whoever complies with it will find life in it.

Galatians 3:13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the Law by being cursed for our sake since scripture says: Anyone hanged is accursed,

Galatians 3:14 so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the gentiles in Christ Jesus, and so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.

Galatians 3:15 To put it in human terms, my brothers: even when a will is only a human one, once it has been ratified nobody can cancel it or add more provisions to it.

Galatians 3:16 Now the promises were addressed to Abraham and to his progeny. The words were not and to his progenies in the plural, but in the singular; and to your progeny, which means Christ.

Galatians 3:17 What I am saying is this: once a will had been long ago ratified by God, the Law, coming four hundred and thirty years later, could not abolish it and so nullify its promise.

Galatians 3:18 You see, if the inheritance comes by the Law, it no longer comes through a promise; but it was by a promise that God made his gift to Abraham.

Galatians 3:19 Then what is the purpose of the Law? It was added to deal with crimes until the ‘progeny’ to whom the promise had been made should come; and it was promulgated through angels, by the agency of an intermediary.

Galatians 3:20 Now there can be an intermediary only between two parties, yet God is one.

Galatians 3:21 Is the Law contrary, then, to God’s promises? Out of the question! If the Law that was given had been capable of giving life, then certainly saving justice would have come from the Law.

Galatians 3:22 As it is, scripture makes no exception when it says that sin is master everywhere; so the promise can be given only by faith in Jesus Christ to those who have this faith.

Galatians 3:23 But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the Law, locked up to wait for the faith which would eventually be revealed to us.

Galatians 3:24 So the Law was serving as a slave to look after us, to lead us to Christ, so that we could be justified by faith.

Galatians 3:25 But now that faith has come we are no longer under a slave looking after us;

Galatians 3:26 for all of you are the children of God, through faith, in Christ Jesus,

Galatians 3:27 since every one of you that has been baptised has been clothed in Christ.

Galatians 3:28 There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither slave nor freeman, there can be neither male nor female—for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:29 And simply by being Christ's, you are that progeny of Abraham, the heirs named in the promise.

Galatians 4:1 What I am saying is this: an heir, during the time while he is still under age, is no different from a slave, even though he is the owner of all the property;

Galatians 4:2 he is under the control of guardians and administrators until the time fixed by his father.

Galatians 4:3 So too with us, as long as we were still under age, we were enslaved to the elemental principles of this world;

Galatians 4:4 but when the completion of the time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born a subject of the Law,

Galatians 4:5 to redeem the subjects of the Law, so that we could receive adoption as sons.

Galatians 4:6 As you are sons, God has sent into our hearts the Spirit of his Son crying, 'Abba, Father';

Galatians 4:7 and so you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, then an heir, by God's own act.

Galatians 4:8 But formerly when you did not know God, you were kept in slavery to things which are not really gods at all,

Galatians 4:9 whereas now that you have come to recognise God—or rather, be recognised by God—how can you now turn back again to those powerless and bankrupt elements whose slaves you now want to be all over again?

Galatians 4:10 You are keeping special days, and months, and seasons and years-

Galatians 4:11 I am beginning to be afraid that I may, after all, have wasted my efforts on you.

Galatians 4:12 I urge you, brothers,-be like me, as I have become like you. You have never been unfair to me;

Galatians 4:13 indeed you remember that it was an illness that first gave me the opportunity to preach the gospel to you,

Galatians 4:14 but though my illness was a trial to you, you did not show any distaste or revulsion; instead, you welcomed me as a messenger of God, as if I were Christ Jesus himself.

Galatians 4:15 What has happened to the utter contentment you had then? For I can testify to you that you would have plucked your eyes out, were that possible, and given them to me.

Galatians 4:16 Then have I turned into your enemy simply by being truthful with you?

Galatians 4:17 Their devotion to you has no praiseworthy motive; they simply want to cut you off from me, so that you may centre your devotion on them.

Galatians 4:18 Devotion to a praiseworthy cause is praiseworthy at any time, not only when I am there with you.

Galatians 4:19 My children, I am going through the pain of giving birth to you all over again, until Christ is formed in you;

Galatians 4:20 and how I wish I could be there with you at this moment and find the right way of talking to you: I am quite at a loss with you.

Galatians 4:21 Tell me then, you are so eager to be subject to the Law, have you listened to what the Law says?

Galatians 4:22 Scripture says that Abraham had two sons, one by the slave girl and one by the freewoman.

Galatians 4:23 The son of the slave girl came to be born in the way of human nature; but the son of the freewoman came to be born through a promise.

Galatians 4:24 There is an allegory here: these women stand for the two covenants. The one given on Mount Sinai—that is Hagar, whose children are born into slavery;

Galatians 4:25 now Sinai is a mountain in Arabia and represents Jerusalem in its present state, for she is in slavery together with her children.

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem above is free, and that is the one that is our mother;

Galatians 4:27 as scripture says: Shout for joy, you barren woman who has borne no children! Break into shouts of joy, you who were never in labour. For the sons of the forsaken one are more in number than the sons of the wedded wife.

Galatians 4:29 just as at that time, the child born in the way of human nature persecuted the child born through the Spirit, so now.

Galatians 4:30 But what is it that scripture says? Drive away that slave girl and her son; the slave girl's son is not to share the inheritance with the son of the freewoman.

Galatians 4:31 So, brothers, we are the children not of the slave girl but of the freewoman.

Galatians 5:1 Christ set us free, so that we should remain free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be fastened again to the yoke of slavery.

Galatians 5:2 I, Paul, give you my word that if you accept circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you at all.

Galatians 5:3 I give my assurance once again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law;

Galatians 5:4 once you seek to be reckoned as upright through the Law, then you have separated yourself from Christ, you have fallen away from grace.

Galatians 5:5 We are led by the Spirit to wait in the confident hope of saving justice through faith,

Galatians 5:6 since in Christ Jesus it is not being circumcised or being uncircumcised that can effect anything—only faith working through love.

Galatians 5:7 You began your race well; who came to obstruct you and stop you obeying the truth?

Galatians 5:8 It was certainly not any prompting from him who called you!

Galatians 5:9 A pinch of yeast ferments the whole batch.

Galatians 5:10 But I feel sure that, united in the Lord, you will not be led astray, and that anyone who makes trouble with you will be condemned, no matter who he is.

Galatians 5:11 And I, brothers—if I were still preaching circumcision, why should I still be persecuted? For then the obstacle which is the cross would have no point any more.

Galatians 5:12 I could wish that those who are unsettling you would go further and mutilate themselves.

Galatians 5:13 After all, brothers, you were called to be free; do not use your freedom as an opening for self-indulgence, but be servants to one another in love,

Galatians 5:14 since the whole of the Law is summarised in the one commandment: You must love your neighbour as yourself.

Galatians 5:15 If you go snapping at one another and tearing one another to pieces, take care: you will be eaten up by one another.

Galatians 5:16 Instead, I tell you, be guided by the Spirit, and you will no longer yield to self-indulgence.

Galatians 5:17 The desires of self-indulgence are always in opposition to the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are in opposition to self-indulgence: they are opposites, one against the other; that is how you are prevented from doing the things that you want to.

Galatians 5:18 But when you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.

Galatians 5:19 When self-indulgence is at work the results are obvious: sexual vice, impurity, and sensuality,

Galatians 5:20 the worship of false gods and sorcery; antagonisms and rivalry, jealousy, bad temper and quarrels, disagreements,

Galatians 5:21 factions and malice, drunkenness, orgies and all such things. And about these, I tell you now as I have told you in the past, that people who behave in these ways will not inherit the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22 On the other hand the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness,

Galatians 5:23 gentleness and self-control; no law can touch such things as these.

Galatians 5:24 All who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified self with all its passions and its desires.

Galatians 5:25 Since we are living by the Spirit, let our behaviour be guided by the Spirit

Galatians 5:26 and let us not be conceited or provocative and envious of one another.

Galatians 6:1 Brothers, even if one of you is caught doing something wrong, those of you who are spiritual should set that person right in a spirit of gentleness; and watch yourselves that you are not put to the test in the same way.

Galatians 6:2 Carry each other's burdens; that is how to keep the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:3 Someone who thinks himself important, when he is not, only deceives himself;

Galatians 6:4 but everyone is to examine his own achievements, and then he will confine his boasting to his own achievements, not comparing them with anybody else's.

Galatians 6:5 Each one has his own load to carry.

Galatians 6:6 When someone is under instruction in doctrine, he should give his teacher a share in all his possessions.

Galatians 6:7 Don't delude yourself: God is not to be fooled; whatever someone sows, that is what he will reap.

Galatians 6:8 If his sowing is in the field of self-indulgence, then his harvest from it will be corruption; if his sowing is in the Spirit, then his harvest from the Spirit will be eternal life.

Galatians 6:9 And let us never slacken in doing good; for if we do not give up, we shall have our harvest in due time.

Galatians 6:10 So then, as long as we have the opportunity let all our actions be for the good of everybody, and especially of those who belong to the household of the faith.

Galatians 6:11 Notice what large letters I have used in writing to you with my own hand.

Galatians 6:12 It is those who want to cut a figure by human standards who force circumcision on you, simply so that they will not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13 Even though they are circumcised they still do not keep the Law themselves; they want you to be circumcised only so that they can boast of your outward appearance.

Galatians 6:14 But as for me, it is out of the question that I should boast at all, except of the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Galatians 6:15 It is not being circumcised or uncircumcised that matters; but what matters is a new creation.

Galatians 6:16 Peace and mercy to all who follow this as their rule and to the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17 After this, let no one trouble me; I carry branded on my body the marks of Jesus.

Galatians 6:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

Ephesians

1:1 Paul, by the will of God an apostle of Christ Jesus, to God's holy people, faithful in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 1:2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:3 Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.

Ephesians 1:4 Thus he chose us in Christ before the world was made to be holy and faultless before him in love,

Ephesians 1:5 marking us out for himself beforehand, to be adopted sons, through Jesus Christ. Such was his purpose and good pleasure,

Ephesians 1:6 to the praise of the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved,

Ephesians 1:7 in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace

Ephesians 1:8 which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight.

Ephesians 1:9 He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, according to his good pleasure which he determined beforehand in Christ,

Ephesians 1:10 for him to act upon when the times had run their course: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

Ephesians 1:11 And it is in him that we have received our heritage, marked out beforehand as we were, under the plan of the One who guides all things as he decides by his own will,

Ephesians 1:12 chosen to be, for the praise of his glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came.

Ephesians 1:13 Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the gospel of your salvation, and having put your trust in it you have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise,

Ephesians 1:14 who is the pledge of our inheritance, for the freedom of the people whom God has taken for his own, for the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:15 That is why I, having once heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus, and your love for all God's holy people, Ephesians 1:16 have never failed to thank God for you and to remember you in my prayers.

Ephesians 1:17 May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him.

Ephesians 1:18 May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, how rich is the glory of the heritage he offers among his holy people,

Ephesians 1:19 and how extraordinarily great is the power that he has exercised for us believers; this accords with the strength of his power

Ephesians 1:20 at work in Christ, the power which he exercised in raising him from the dead and enthroning him at his right hand, in heaven,

Ephesians 1:21 far above every principality, ruling force, power or sovereignty, or any other name that can be named, not only in this age but also in the age to come.

Ephesians 1:22 He has put all things under his feet, and made him, as he is above all things, the head of the Church;

Ephesians 1:23 which is his Body, the fullness of him who is filled, all in all.

Ephesians 2:1 And you were dead, through the crimes and the sins

Ephesians 2:2 which used to make up your way of life when you were living by the principles of this world, obeying the ruler who dominates the air, the spirit who is at work in those who rebel.

Ephesians 2:3 We too were all among them once, living only by our natural inclinations, obeying the demands of human self-indulgence and our own whim; our nature made us no less liable to God's retribution than the rest of the world.

Ephesians 2:4 But God, being rich in faithful love, through the great love with which he loved us,

Ephesians 2:5 even when we were dead in our sins, brought us to life with Christ—it is through grace that you have been saved-

Ephesians 2:6 and raised us up with him and gave us a place with him in heaven, in Christ Jesus.

Ephesians 2:7 This was to show for all ages to come, through his goodness towards us in Christ Jesus, how extraordinarily rich he is in grace.

Ephesians 2:8 Because it is by grace that you have been saved, through faith; not by anything of your own, but by a gift from God;

Ephesians 2:9 not by anything that you have done, so that nobody can claim the credit.

Ephesians 2:10 We are God's work of art, created in Christ Jesus for the good works which God has already designated to make up our way of life.

Ephesians 2:11 Do not forget, then, that there was a time when you who were gentiles by physical descent, termed the uncircumcised by those who speak of themselves as the circumcised by reason of a physical operation,

Ephesians 2:12 do not forget, I say, that you were at that time separate from Christ and excluded from membership of Israel, aliens with no part in the covenants of the Promise, limited to this world, without hope and without God.

Ephesians 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far off have been brought close, by the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14 For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one entity and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, by destroying in his own person the hostility,

Ephesians 2:15 that is, the Law of commandments with its decrees. His purpose in this was, by restoring peace, to create a single New Man out of the two of them,

Ephesians 2:16 and through the cross, to reconcile them both to God in one Body; in his own person he killed the hostility.

Ephesians 2:17 He came to bring the good news of peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near.

Ephesians 2:18 Through him, then, we both in the one Spirit have free access to the Father.

Ephesians 2:19 So you are no longer aliens or foreign visitors; you are fellow-citizens with the holy people of God and part of God's household.

Ephesians 2:20 You are built upon the foundations of the apostles and prophets, and Christ Jesus himself is the cornerstone.

Ephesians 2:21 Every structure knit together in him grows into a holy temple in the Lord;

Ephesians 2:22 and you too, in him, are being built up into a dwelling-place of God in the Spirit.

Ephesians 3:1 It is because of this that I, Paul, a prisoner of the Lord Jesus on behalf of you gentiles. . .

Ephesians 3:2 You have surely heard the way in which God entrusted me with the grace he gave me for your sake;

Ephesians 3:3 he made known to me by a revelation the mystery I have just described briefly-

Ephesians 3:4 a reading of it will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ.

Ephesians 3:5 This mystery, as it is now revealed in the Spirit to his holy apostles and prophets, was unknown to humanity in previous generations:

Ephesians 3:6 that the gentiles now have the same inheritance and form the same Body and enjoy the same promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

Ephesians 3:7 I have been made the servant of that gospel by a gift of grace from God who gave it to me by the workings of his power.

Ephesians 3:8 I, who am less than the least of all God's holy people, have been entrusted with this special grace, of proclaiming to the gentiles the unfathomable treasure of Christ

Ephesians 3:9 and of throwing light on the inner workings of the mystery kept hidden through all the ages in God, the Creator of everything.

Ephesians 3:10 The purpose of this was, that now, through the Church, the principalities and ruling forces should learn how many-sided God's wisdom is,

Ephesians 3:11 according to the plan which he had formed from all eternity in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ephesians 3:12 In him we are bold enough to approach God in complete confidence, through our faith in him;

Ephesians 3:13 so, I beg you, do not let the hardships I go through on your account make you waver; they are your glory.

Ephesians 3:14 This, then, is what I pray, kneeling before the Father,

Ephesians 3:15 from whom every fatherhood, in heaven or on earth, takes its name.

Ephesians 3:16 In the abundance of his glory may he, through his Spirit, enable you to grow firm in power with regard to your inner self,

Ephesians 3:17 so that Christ may live in your hearts through faith, and then, planted in love and built on love,

Ephesians 3:18 with all God's holy people you will have the strength to grasp the breadth and the length, the height and the depth;

Ephesians 3:19 so that, knowing the love of Christ, which is beyond knowledge, you may be filled with the utter fullness of God.

Ephesians 3:20 Glory be to him whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine;

Ephesians 3:21 glory be to him from generation to generation in the Church and in Christ Jesus for ever and ever. Amen.

Ephesians 4:1 I, the prisoner in the Lord, urge you therefore to lead a life worthy of the vocation to which you were called.

Ephesians 4:2 With all humility and gentleness, and with patience, support each other in love.

Ephesians 4:3 Take every care to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together.

Ephesians 4:4 There is one Body, one Spirit, just as one hope is the goal of your calling by God.

Ephesians 4:5 There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,

Ephesians 4:6 and one God and Father of all, over all, through all and within all.

Ephesians 4:7 On each one of us God's favour has been bestowed in whatever way Christ allotted it.

Ephesians 4:8 That is why it says: He went up to the heights, took captives, he gave gifts to humanity.

Ephesians 4:9 When it says, 'he went up', it must mean that he had gone down to the deepest levels of the earth.

Ephesians 4:10 The one who went down is none other than the one who went up above all the heavens to fill all things.

Ephesians 4:11 And to some, his 'gift' was that they should be apostles; to some prophets; to some, evangelists; to some, pastors and teachers;

Ephesians 4:12 to knit God's holy people together for the work of service to build up the Body of Christ,

Ephesians 4:13 until we all reach unity in faith and knowledge of the Son of God and form the perfect Man, fully mature with the fullness of Christ himself.

Ephesians 4:14 Then we shall no longer be children, or tossed one way and another, and carried hither and thither by every new gust of teaching, at the mercy of all the tricks people play and their unscrupulousness in deliberate deception.

Ephesians 4:15 If we live by the truth and in love, we shall grow completely into Christ, who is the head

Ephesians 4:16 by whom the whole Body is fitted and joined together, every joint adding its own strength, for each individual part to work according to its function. So the body grows until it has built itself up in love.

Ephesians 4:17 So this I say to you and attest to you in the Lord, do not go on living the empty-headed life that the gentiles live.

Ephesians 4:18 Intellectually they are in the dark, and they are estranged from the life of God, because of the ignorance which is the consequence of closed minds.

Ephesians 4:19 Their sense of right and wrong once dulled, they have abandoned all self-control and pursue to excess every kind of uncleanness.

Ephesians 4:20 Now that is hardly the way you have learnt Christ,

Ephesians 4:21 unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus.

Ephesians 4:22 You were to put aside your old self, which belongs to your old way of life and is corrupted by following illusory desires.

Ephesians 4:23 Your mind was to be renewed in spirit

Ephesians 4:24 so that you could put on the New Man that has been created on God's principles, in the uprightness and holiness of the truth.

Ephesians 4:25 So from now on, there must be no more lies. Speak the truth to one another, since we are all parts of one another.

Ephesians 4:26 Even if you are angry, do not sin: never let the sun set on your anger

Ephesians 4:27 or else you will give the devil a foothold.

Ephesians 4:28 Anyone who was a thief must stop stealing; instead he should exert himself at some honest job with his own hands so that he may have something to share with those in need.

Ephesians 4:29 No foul word should ever cross your lips; let your words be for the improvement of others, as occasion offers, and do good to your listeners;

Ephesians 4:30 do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal, ready for the day when we shall be set free.

Ephesians 4:31 Any bitterness or bad temper or anger or shouting or abuse must be far removed from you—as must every kind of malice.

Ephesians 4:32 Be generous to one another, sympathetic, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ.

Ephesians 5:1 As God's dear children, then, take him as your pattern,

Ephesians 5:2 and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up for us as an offering and a sweet-smelling sacrifice to God.

Ephesians 5:3 Among you there must be not even a mention of sexual vice or impurity in any of its forms, or greed: this would scarcely become the holy people of God!

Ephesians 5:4 There must be no foul or salacious talk or coarse jokes—all this is wrong for you; there should rather be thanksgiving.

Ephesians 5:5 For you can be quite certain that nobody who indulges in sexual immorality or impurity or greed—which is worshipping a false god—can inherit the kingdom of God.

Ephesians 5:6 Do not let anyone deceive you with empty arguments: it is such behaviour that draws down God's retribution on those who rebel against him.

Ephesians 5:7 Make sure that you do not throw in your lot with them.

Ephesians 5:8 You were darkness once, but now you are light in the Lord; behave as children of light,

Ephesians 5:9 for the effects of the light are seen in complete goodness and uprightness and truth.

Ephesians 5:10 Try to discover what the Lord wants of you,

Ephesians 5:11 take no part in the futile works of darkness but, on the contrary, show them up for what they are.

Ephesians 5:12 The things which are done in secret are shameful even to speak of;

Ephesians 5:13 but anything shown up by the light will be illuminated

Ephesians 5:14 and anything illuminated is itself a light. That is why it is said: Wake up, sleeper, rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you.

Ephesians 5:15 So be very careful about the sort of lives you lead, like intelligent and not like senseless people.

Ephesians 5:16 Make the best of the present time, for it is a wicked age.

Ephesians 5:17 This is why you must not be thoughtless but must recognise what is the will of the Lord.

Ephesians 5:19 Sing psalms and hymns and inspired songs among yourselves, singing and chanting to the Lord in your hearts,

Ephesians 5:20 always and everywhere giving thanks to God who is our Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 5:21 Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Ephesians 5:22 Wives should be subject to their husbands as to the Lord,

Ephesians 5:23 since, as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife;

Ephesians 5:24 and as the Church is subject to Christ, so should wives be to their husbands, in everything.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands should love their wives, just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her

Ephesians 5:26 to make her holy by washing her in cleansing water with a form of words,

Ephesians 5:27 so that when he took the Church to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless.

Ephesians 5:28 In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself.

Ephesians 5:29 A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church,

Ephesians 5:30 because we are parts of his Body.

Ephesians 5:31 This is why a man leaves his father and mother and becomes attached to his wife, and the two become one flesh.

Ephesians 5:32 This mystery has great significance, but I am applying it to Christ and the Church.

Ephesians 5:33 To sum up: you also, each one of you, must love his wife as he loves himself; and let every wife respect her husband.

Ephesians 6:1 Children, be obedient to your parents in the Lord—that is what uprightness demands.

Ephesians 6:2 The first commandment that has a promise attached to it is: Honour your father and your mother,

Ephesians 6:3 and the promise is: so that you may have long life and prosper in the land.

Ephesians 6:4 And parents, never drive your children to resentment but bring them up with correction and advice inspired by the Lord.

Ephesians 6:5 Slaves, be obedient to those who are, according to human reckoning, your masters, with deep respect and sincere loyalty, as you are obedient to Christ:

Ephesians 6:6 not only when you are under their eye, as if you had only to please human beings, but as slaves of Christ who wholeheartedly do the will of God.

Ephesians 6:7 Work willingly for the sake of the Lord and not for the sake of human beings.

Ephesians 6:8 Never forget that everyone, whether a slave or a free man, will be rewarded by the Lord for whatever work he has done well.

Ephesians 6:9 And those of you who are employers, treat your slaves in the same spirit; do without threats, and never forget that they and you have the same Master in heaven and there is no favouritism with him.

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, grow strong in the Lord, with the strength of his power.

Ephesians 6:11 Put on the full armour of God so as to be able to resist the devil's tactics.

Ephesians 6:12 For it is not against human enemies that we have to struggle, but against the principalities and the ruling forces who are masters of the darkness in this world, the spirits of evil in the heavens.

Ephesians 6:13 That is why you must take up all God's armour, or you will not be able to put up any resistance on the evil day, or stand your ground even though you exert yourselves to the full.

Ephesians 6:14 So stand your ground, with truth a belt round your waist, and uprightness a breastplate,

Ephesians 6:15 wearing for shoes on your feet the eagerness to spread the gospel of peace

Ephesians 6:16 and always carrying the shield of faith so that you can use it to quench the burning arrows of the Evil One.

Ephesians 6:17 And then you must take salvation as your helmet and the sword of the Spirit, that is, the word of God.

Ephesians 6:18 In all your prayer and entreaty keep praying in the Spirit on every possible occasion. Never get tired of staying awake to pray for all God's holy people,

Ephesians 6:19 and pray for me to be given an opportunity to open my mouth and fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel

Ephesians 6:20 of which I am an ambassador in chains; pray that in proclaiming it I may speak as fearlessly as I ought to.

Ephesians 6:21 So that you know, as well, what is happening to me and what I am doing, my dear friend Tychicus, my trustworthy helper in the Lord, will tell you everything.

Ephesians 6:22 I am sending him to you precisely for this purpose, to give you news about us and encourage you thoroughly.

Ephesians 6:23 May God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ grant peace, love and faith to all the brothers.

Ephesians 6:24 May grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ, in life imperishable.

Philippians

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all God's holy people in Christ Jesus at Philippi, together with their presiding elders and the deacons.

Philippians 1:2 Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3 I thank my God whenever I think of you,

Philippians 1:4 and every time I pray for you all, I always pray with joy

Philippians 1:5 for your partnership in the gospel from the very first day up to the present.

Philippians 1:6 I am quite confident that the One who began a good work in you will go on completing it until the Day of Jesus Christ comes.

Philippians 1:7 It is only right that I should feel like this towards you all, because you have a place in my heart, since you have all shared together in the grace that has been mine, both my chains and my work defending and establishing the gospel.

Philippians 1:8 For God will testify for me how much I long for you all with the warm longing of Christ Jesus;

Philippians 1:9 it is my prayer that your love for one another may grow more and more with the knowledge and complete understanding

Philippians 1:10 that will help you to come to true discernment, so that you will be innocent and free of any trace of guilt when the Day of Christ comes,

Philippians 1:11 entirely filled with the fruits of uprightness through Jesus Christ, for the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:12 Now I want you to realise, brothers, that the circumstances of my present life are helping rather than hindering the advance of the gospel.

Philippians 1:13 My chains in Christ have become well known not only to all the Praetorium, but to everybody else,

Philippians 1:14 and so most of the brothers in the Lord have gained confidence from my chains and are getting more and more daring in announcing the Message without any fear.

Philippians 1:15 It is true that some of them are preaching Christ out of malice and rivalry; but there are many as well whose intentions are good;

Philippians 1:16 some are doing it out of love, knowing that I remain firm in my defence of the gospel.

Philippians 1:17 There are others who are proclaiming Christ out of jealousy, not in sincerity but meaning to add to the weight of my chains.

Philippians 1:18 But what does it matter? Only that in both ways, whether with false motives or true, Christ is proclaimed, and for that I am happy;

Philippians 1:19 and I shall go on being happy, too, because I know that this is what will save me, with your prayers and with the support of the Spirit of Jesus Christ;

Philippians 1:20 all in accordance with my most confident hope and trust that I shall never have to admit defeat, but with complete fearlessness I shall go on, so that now, as always, Christ will be glorified in my body, whether by my life or my death.

Philippians 1:21 Life to me, of course, is Christ, but then death would be a positive gain.

Philippians 1:22 On the other hand again, if to be alive in the body gives me an opportunity for fruitful work, I do not know which I should choose.

Philippians 1:23 I am caught in this dilemma: I want to be gone and to be with Christ, and this is by far the stronger desire-

Philippians 1:24 and yet for your sake to stay alive in this body is a more urgent need.

Philippians 1:25 This much I know for certain, that I shall stay and stand by you all, to encourage your advance and your joy in the faith,

Philippians 1:26 so that my return to be among you may increase to overflowing your pride in Jesus Christ on my account.

Philippians 1:27 But you must always behave in a way that is worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come to you and see for myself or whether I only hear all about you from a distance, I shall find that you are standing firm and united in spirit, battling, as a team with a single aim, for the faith of the gospel,

Philippians 1:28 undismayed by any of your opponents. This will be a clear sign, for them that they are to be lost, and for you that you are to be saved.

Philippians 1:29 This comes from God, for you have been granted the privilege for Christ's sake not only of believing in him but of suffering for him as well;

Philippians 1:30 you are fighting the same battle which you saw me fighting for him and which you hear I am fighting still.

Philippians 2:1 So if in Christ there is anything that will move you, any incentive in love, any fellowship in the Spirit, any warmth or sympathy—I appeal to you,

Philippians 2:2 make my joy complete by being of a single mind, one in love, one in heart and one in mind.

Philippians 2:3 Nothing is to be done out of jealousy or vanity; instead, out of humility of mind everyone should give preference to others,

Philippians 2:4 everyone pursuing not selfish interests but those of others.

Philippians 2:5 Make your own the mind of Christ Jesus:

Philippians 2:6 Who, being in the form of God, did not count equality with God something to be grasped.

Philippians 2:7 But he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, becoming as human beings are; and being in every way like a human being, Philippians 2:8 he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.

Philippians 2:9 And for this God raised him high, and gave him the name which is above all other names;

Philippians 2:10 so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus

Philippians 2:11 and that every tongue should acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:12 So, my dear friends, you have always been obedient; your obedience must not be limited to times when I am present. Now that I am absent it must be more in evidence, so work out your salvation in fear and trembling.

Philippians 2:13 It is God who, for his own generous purpose, gives you the intention and the powers to act.

Philippians 2:14 Let your behaviour be free of murmuring and complaining

Philippians 2:15 so that you remain faultless and pure, unspoilt children of God surrounded by a deceitful and underhand brood, shining out among them like bright stars in the world,

Philippians 2:16 proffering to it the Word of life. Then I shall have reason to be proud on the Day of Christ, for it will not be for nothing that I have run the race and toiled so hard.

Philippians 2:17 Indeed, even if my blood has to be poured as a libation over your sacrifice and the offering of your faith, then I shall be glad and join in your rejoicing-

Philippians 2:18 and in the same way, you must be glad and join in my rejoicing.

Philippians 2:19 I hope, in the Lord Jesus, to send Timothy to you soon, so that my mind may be set at rest when I hear how you are.

Philippians 2:20 There is nobody else that I can send who is like him and cares as sincerely for your well-being;

Philippians 2:21 they all want to work for themselves, not for Jesus Christ.

Philippians 2:22 But you know what sort of person he has proved himself, working with me for the sake of the gospel like a son with his father.

Philippians 2:23 That is the man, then, that I am hoping to send to you immediately I can make out what is going to happen to me;

Philippians 2:24 but I am confident in the Lord that I shall come myself, too, before long.

Philippians 2:25 Nevertheless I thought it essential to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow-worker and companion-in-arms since he came as your representative to look after my needs;

Philippians 2:26 because he was missing you all and was worrying because you had heard that he was ill.

Philippians 2:27 Indeed he was seriously ill and nearly died; but God took pity on him—and not only on him but also on me, to spare me one grief on top of another.

Philippians 2:28 So I am sending him back as promptly as I can so that you will have the joy of seeing him again, and that will be some comfort to me in my distress.

Philippians 2:29 Welcome him in the Lord, then, with all joy; hold people like him in honour,

Philippians 2:30 because it was for Christ’s work that he came so near to dying, risking his life to do the duty to me which you could not do yourselves.

Philippians 3:1 Finally, brothers, I wish you joy in the Lord. To write to you what I have already written before is no trouble to me and to you will be a protection.

Philippians 3:2 Beware of dogs! Beware of evil workmen! Beware of self-mutilators!

Philippians 3:3 We are the true people of the circumcision since we worship by the Spirit of God and make Christ Jesus our only boast, not relying on physical qualifications, Philippians 3:4 although, I myself could rely on these too. If anyone does claim to rely on them, my claim is better.

Philippians 3:5 Circumcised on the eighth day of my life, I was born of the race of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrew parents. In the matter of the Law, I was a Pharisee;

Philippians 3:6 as for religious fervour, I was a persecutor of the Church; as for the uprightness embodied in the Law, I was faultless.

Philippians 3:7 But what were once my assets I now through Christ Jesus count as losses.

Philippians 3:8 Yes, I will go further: because of the supreme advantage of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, I count everything else as loss. For him I have accepted the loss of all other things, and look on them all as filth if only I can gain Christ

Philippians 3:9 and be given a place in him, with the uprightness I have gained not from the Law, but through faith in Christ, an uprightness from God, based on faith,

Philippians 3:10 that I may come to know him and the power of his resurrection, and partake of his sufferings by being moulded to the pattern of his death,

Philippians 3:12 Not that I have secured it already, nor yet reached my goal, but I am still pursuing it in the attempt to take hold of the prize for which Christ Jesus took hold of me.

Philippians 3:13 Brothers, I do not reckon myself as having taken hold of it; I can only say that forgetting all that lies behind me, and straining forward to what lies in front, Philippians 3:14 I am racing towards the finishing-point to win the prize of God's heavenly call in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15 So this is the way in which all of us who are mature should be thinking, and if you are still thinking differently in any way, then God has yet to make this matter clear to you.

Philippians 3:16 Meanwhile, let us go forward from the point we have each attained.

Philippians 3:17 Brothers, be united in imitating me. Keep your eyes fixed on those who act according to the example you have from me.

Philippians 3:18 For there are so many people of whom I have often warned you, and now I warn you again with tears in my eyes, who behave like the enemies of Christ's cross.

Philippians 3:19 They are destined to be lost; their god is the stomach; they glory in what they should think shameful, since their minds are set on earthly things.

Philippians 3:20 But our homeland is in heaven and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ,

Philippians 3:21 who will transfigure the wretched body of ours into the mould of his glorious body, through the working of the power which he has, even to bring all things under his mastery.

Philippians 4:1 So then, my brothers and dear friends whom I miss so much, my joy and my crown, hold firm in the Lord, dear friends.

Philippians 4:2 I urge Euodia, and I urge Syntyche to come to agreement with each other in the Lord;

Philippians 4:3 and I ask you, Syzygus, really to be a 'partner' and help them. These women have struggled hard for the gospel with me, along with Clement and all my other fellow-workers, whose names are written in the book of life.

Philippians 4:4 Always be joyful, then, in the Lord; I repeat, be joyful.

Philippians 4:5 Let your good sense be obvious to everybody. The Lord is near.

Philippians 4:6 Never worry about anything; but tell God all your desires of every kind in prayer and petition shot through with gratitude, Philippians 4:7 and the peace of God which is beyond our understanding will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers, let your minds be filled with everything that is true, everything that is honourable, everything that is upright and pure, everything that we love and admire—with whatever is good and praiseworthy.

Philippians 4:9 Keep doing everything you learnt from me and were told by me and have heard or seen me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:10 As for me, I am full of joy in the Lord, now that at last your consideration for me has blossomed again; though I recognise that you really did have consideration before, but had no opportunity to show it.

Philippians 4:11 I do not say this because I have lacked anything; I have learnt to manage with whatever I have.

Philippians 4:12 I know how to live modestly, and I know how to live luxuriously too: in every way now I have mastered the secret of all conditions: full stomach and empty stomach, plenty and poverty.

Philippians 4:13 There is nothing I cannot do in the One who strengthens me.

Philippians 4:14 All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships.

Philippians 4:15 In the early days of the gospel, as you of Philippi well know, when I left Macedonia, no church other than yourselves made common account with me in the matter of expenditure and receipts. You were the only ones;

Philippians 4:16 and what is more, you have twice sent me what I needed in Thessalonica.

Philippians 4:17 It is not the gift that I value most; what I value is the interest that is mounting up in your account.

Philippians 4:18 I have all that I need and more: I am fully provided, now that I have received from Epaphroditus the offering that you sent, a pleasing smell, the sacrifice which is acceptable and pleasing to God.

Philippians 4:19 And my God will fulfil all your needs out of the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20 And so glory be to God our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

Philippians 4:21 My greetings to every one of God's holy people in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their greetings.

Philippians 4:22 All God's holy people send you their greetings, especially those of Caesar's household.

Philippians 4:23 May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Colossians

1:1 From Paul, by the will of God an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy

Colossians 1:2 to God's holy people in Colossae, our faithful brothers in Christ. Grace and peace to you from God our Father.

Colossians 1:3 We give thanks for you to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, continually in our prayers,

Colossians 1:4 ever since we heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and the love that you show towards all God's holy people

Colossians 1:5 because of the hope which is stored up for you in heaven. News of this hope reached you not long ago through the word of truth, the gospel

Colossians 1:6 that came to you in the same way as it is bearing fruit and growing throughout the world. It has had the same effect among you, ever since you heard about the grace of God and recognised it for what it truly is.

Colossians 1:7 This you learnt from Epaphras, our very dear fellow-worker and a trustworthy deputy for us as Christ's servant,

Colossians 1:8 and it was he who also told us all about your love in the Spirit.

Colossians 1:9 That is why, ever since the day he told us, we have never failed to remember you in our prayers and ask that through perfect wisdom and spiritual understanding you should reach the fullest knowledge of his will

Colossians 1:10 and so be able to lead a life worthy of the Lord, a life acceptable to him in all its aspects, bearing fruit in every kind of good work and growing in knowledge of God,

Colossians 1:11 fortified, in accordance with his glorious strength, with all power always to persevere and endure,

Colossians 1:12 giving thanks with joy to the Father who has made you able to share the lot of God's holy people and with them to inherit the light.

Colossians 1:13 Because that is what he has done. It is he who has rescued us from the ruling force of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of the Son that he loves,

Colossians 1:14 and in him we enjoy our freedom, the forgiveness of sin.

Colossians 1:15 He is the image of the unseen God, the first-born of all creation,

Colossians 1:16 for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, thrones, ruling forces, sovereignties, powers—all things were created through him and for him.

Colossians 1:17 He exists before all things and in him all things hold together,

Colossians 1:18 and he is the Head of the Body, that is, the Church. He is the Beginning, the first-born from the dead, so that he should be supreme in every way;

Colossians 1:19 because God wanted all fullness to be found in him

Colossians 1:20 and through him to reconcile all things to him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, by making peace through his death on the cross.

Colossians 1:21 You were once estranged and of hostile intent through your evil behaviour;

Colossians 1:22 now he has reconciled you, by his death and in that mortal body, to bring you before himself holy, faultless and irreproachable-

Colossians 1:23 as long as you persevere and stand firm on the solid base of the faith, never letting yourselves drift away from the hope promised by the gospel, which you have heard, which has been preached to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become the servant.

Colossians 1:24 It makes me happy to be suffering for you now, and in my own body to make up all the hardships that still have to be undergone by Christ for the sake of his body, the Church,

Colossians 1:25 of which I was made a servant with the responsibility towards you that God gave to me, that of completing God’s message,

Colossians 1:26 the message which was a mystery hidden for generations and centuries and has now been revealed to his holy people.

Colossians 1:27 It was God’s purpose to reveal to them how rich is the glory of this mystery among the gentiles; it is Christ among you, your hope of glory:

Colossians 1:28 this is the Christ we are proclaiming, admonishing and instructing everyone in all wisdom, to make everyone perfect in Christ.

Colossians 1:29 And it is for this reason that I labour, striving with his energy which works in me mightily.

Colossians 2:1 I want you to know, then, what a struggle I am having on your behalf and on behalf of those in Laodicea, and on behalf of so many others who have never seen me face to face.

Colossians 2:2 It is all to bind them together in love and to encourage their resolution until they are rich in the assurance of their complete understanding and have knowledge of the mystery of God

Colossians 2:3 in which all the jewels of wisdom and knowledge are hidden.

Colossians 2:4 I say this to make sure that no one deceives you with specious arguments.

Colossians 2:5 I may be absent in body, but in spirit I am there among you, delighted to find how well-ordered you are and to see how firm your faith in Christ is.

Colossians 2:6 So then, as you received Jesus as Lord and Christ, now live your lives in him,

Colossians 2:7 be rooted in him and built up on him, held firm by the faith you have been taught, and overflowing with thanksgiving.

Colossians 2:8 Make sure that no one captivates you with the empty lure of a 'philosophy' of the kind that human beings hand on, based on the principles of this world and not on Christ.

Colossians 2:9 In him, in bodily form, lives divinity in all its fullness,

Colossians 2:10 and in him you too find your own fulfilment, in the one who is the head of every sovereignty and ruling force.

Colossians 2:11 In him you have been circumcised, with a circumcision performed, not by human hand, but by the complete stripping of your natural self. This is circumcision according to Christ.

Colossians 2:12 You have been buried with him by your baptism; by which, too, you have been raised up with him through your belief in the power of God who raised him from the dead.

Colossians 2:13 You were dead, because you were sinners and uncircumcised in body: he has brought you to life with him, he has forgiven us every one of our sins.

Colossians 2:14 He has wiped out the record of our debt to the Law, which stood against us; he has destroyed it by nailing it to the cross;

Colossians 2:15 and he has stripped the sovereignties and the ruling forces, and paraded them in public, behind him in his triumphal procession.

Colossians 2:16 Then never let anyone criticise you for what you eat or drink, or about observance of annual festivals, New Moons or Sabbaths.

Colossians 2:17 These are only a shadow of what was coming: the reality is the body of Christ.

Colossians 2:18 Do not be cheated of your prize by anyone who chooses to grovel to angels and worship them, pinning every hope on visions received, vainly puffed up by a human way of thinking;

Colossians 2:19 such a person has no connection to the Head, by which the whole body, given all that it needs and held together by its joints and sinews, grows with the growth given by God.

Colossians 2:20 If you have really died with Christ to the principles of this world, why do you still let rules dictate to you, as though you were still living in the world?

Colossians 2:21 -'Do not pick up this, do not eat that, do not touch the other,'

Colossians 2:22 and all about things which perish even while they are being used—according to merely human commandments and doctrines!

Colossians 2:23 In these rules you can indeed find what seems to be good sense—the cultivation of the will, and a humility which takes no account of the body; but in fact they have no value against self-indulgence.

Colossians 3:1 Since you have been raised up to be with Christ, you must look for the things that are above, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand.

Colossians 3:2 Let your thoughts be on things above, not on the things that are on the earth,

Colossians 3:3 because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:4 But when Christ is revealed—and he is your life-you, too, will be revealed with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5 That is why you must kill everything in you that is earthly: sexual vice, impurity, uncontrolled passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god;

Colossians 3:6 it is precisely these things which draw God's retribution upon those who resist.

Colossians 3:7 And these things made up your way of life when you were living among such people,

Colossians 3:8 but now you also must give up all these things: human anger, hot temper, malice, abusive language and dirty talk;

Colossians 3:9 and do not lie to each other. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self,

Colossians 3:10 and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its Creator;

Colossians 3:11 and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised and uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

Colossians 3:12 As the chosen of God, then, the holy people whom he loves, you are to be clothed in heartfelt compassion, in generosity and humility, gentleness and patience.

Colossians 3:13 Bear with one another; forgive each other if one of you has a complaint against another. The Lord has forgiven you; now you must do the same.

Colossians 3:14 Over all these clothes, put on love, the perfect bond.

Colossians 3:15 And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts, because it is for this that you were called together in one body. Always be thankful.

Colossians 3:16 Let the Word of Christ, in all its richness, find a home with you. Teach each other, and advise each other, in all wisdom. With gratitude in your hearts sing psalms and hymns and inspired songs to God;

Colossians 3:17 and whatever you say or do, let it be in the name of the Lord Jesus, in thanksgiving to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:18 Wives, be subject to your husbands, as you should in the Lord.

Colossians 3:19 Husbands, love your wives and do not be sharp with them.

Colossians 3:20 Children, be obedient to your parents always, because that is what will please the Lord.

Colossians 3:21 Parents, do not irritate your children or they will lose heart.

Colossians 3:22 Slaves, be obedient in every way to the people who, according to human reckoning, are your masters; not only when you are under their eye, as if you had only to please human beings, but wholeheartedly, out of respect for the Master.

Colossians 3:23 Whatever your work is, put your heart into it as done for the Lord and not for human beings,

Colossians 3:24 knowing that the Lord will repay you by making you his heirs. It is Christ the Lord that you are serving.

Colossians 3:25 Anyone who does wrong will be repaid in kind. For there is no favouritism.

Colossians 4:1 Masters, make sure that your slaves are given what is upright and fair, knowing that you too have a Master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2 Be persevering in your prayers and be thankful as you stay awake to pray.

Colossians 4:3 Pray for us especially, asking God to throw open a door for us to announce the message and proclaim the mystery of Christ, for the sake of which I am in chains;

Colossians 4:4 pray that I may proclaim it as clearly as I ought.

Colossians 4:5 Act wisely with outsiders, making the best of the present time.

Colossians 4:6 Always talk pleasantly and with a flavour of wit but be sensitive to the kind of answer each one requires.

Colossians 4:7 Tychicus will tell you all the news about me. He is a very dear brother, and a trustworthy helper and companion in the service of the Lord.

Colossians 4:8 I am sending him to you precisely for this purpose: to give you news about us and to encourage you thoroughly.

Colossians 4:9 With him I am sending Onesimus, that dear and trustworthy brother who is a fellow-citizen of yours. They will tell you everything that is happening here.

Colossians 4:10 Aristarchus, who is here in prison with me, sends his greetings, and so does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas—you were sent some instructions about him; if he comes to you, give him a warm welcome-

Colossians 4:11 and Jesus Justus adds his greetings. Of all those who have come over from the circumcision, these are the only ones actually working with me for the kingdom of God. They have been a great comfort to me.

Colossians 4:12 Epaphras, your fellow-citizen, sends his greetings; this servant of Christ Jesus never stops battling for you, praying that you will never lapse but always hold perfectly and securely to the will of God.

Colossians 4:13 I can testify for him that he works hard for you, as well as for those at Laodicea and Hierapolis.

Colossians 4:14 Greetings from my dear friend Luke, the doctor, and also from Demas.

Colossians 4:15 Please give my greetings to the brothers at Laodicea and to Nympha and the church which meets in her house.

Colossians 4:16 After this letter has been read among you, send it on to be read in the church of the Laodiceans; and get the letter from Laodicea for you to read yourselves.

Colossians 4:17 Give Archippus this message, ‘Remember the service that the Lord assigned to you, and try to carry it out.’

Colossians 4:18 This greeting is in my own hand-PAUL. Remember the chains I wear. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonica which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace to you and peace.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We always thank God for you all, mentioning you in our prayers continually.

1 Thessalonians 1:3 We remember before our God and Father how active is the faith, how unsparing the love, how persevering the hope which you have from our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 1:4 We know, brothers loved by God, that you have been chosen,

1 Thessalonians 1:5 because our gospel came to you not only in words, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with great effect. And you observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your sake.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 You took us and the Lord as your model, welcoming the word with the joy of the Holy Spirit in spite of great hardship.

1 Thessalonians 1:7 And so you became an example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia

1 Thessalonians 1:8 since it was from you that the word of the Lord rang out—and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it:

1 Thessalonians 1:9 other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with the worship of false gods when you were converted to God and became servants of the living and true God;

1 Thessalonians 1:10 and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven. It is he who saves us from the Retribution which is coming.

1 Thessalonians 2:1 You know yourselves, my brothers, that our visit to you has not been pointless.

1 Thessalonians 2:2 Although, as you know, we had received rough treatment and insults at Philippi, God gave us the courage to speak his gospel to you fearlessly, in spite of great opposition.

1 Thessalonians 2:3 Our encouragement to you does not come from any delusion or impure motives or trickery.

1 Thessalonians 2:4 No, God has approved us to be entrusted with the gospel, and this is how we preach, seeking to please not human beings but God who tests our hearts.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 Indeed, we have never acted with the thought of flattering anyone, as you know, nor as an excuse for greed, God is our witness;

1 Thessalonians 2:6 nor have we ever looked for honour from human beings, either from you or anybody else,

1 Thessalonians 2:7 when we could have imposed ourselves on you with full weight, as apostles of Christ. Instead, we lived unassumingly among you. Like a mother feeding and looking after her children,

1 Thessalonians 2:8 we felt so devoted to you, that we would have been happy to share with you not only the gospel of God, but also our own lives, so dear had you become.

1 Thessalonians 2:9 You remember, brothers, with what unsparing energy we used to work, slaving night and day so as not to be a burden on any one of you while we were proclaiming the gospel of God to you.

1 Thessalonians 2:10 You are witnesses, and so is God, that our treatment of you, since you believed, has been impeccably fair and upright.

1 Thessalonians 2:11 As you know, we treated every one of you as a father treats his children,

1 Thessalonians 2:12 urging you, encouraging you and appealing to you to live a life worthy of God, who calls you into his kingdom and his glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 Another reason why we continually thank God for you is that as soon as you heard the word that we brought you as God's message, you welcomed it for what it really is, not the word of any human being, but God's word, a power that is working among you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:14 For you, my brothers, have modelled yourselves on the churches of God in Christ Jesus which are in Judaea, in that you have suffered the same treatment from your own countrymen as they have had from the Jews,

1 Thessalonians 2:15 who put the Lord Jesus to death, and the prophets too, and persecuted us also. Their conduct does not please God, and makes them the enemies of the whole human race,

1 Thessalonians 2:16 because they are hindering us from preaching to gentiles to save them. Thus all the time they are reaching the full extent of their iniquity, but retribution has finally overtaken them.

1 Thessalonians 2:17 Although we had been deprived of you for only a short time in body but never in affection, brothers, we had an especially strong desire and longing to see you face to face again,

1 Thessalonians 2:18 and we tried hard to come and visit you; I, Paul, tried more than once, but Satan prevented us.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 What do you think is our hope and our joy, and what our crown of honour in the presence of our Lord Jesus when he comes?

1 Thessalonians 2:20 You are, for you are our pride and joy.

1 Thessalonians 3:1 When we could not bear it any longer, we decided it would be best to be left without a companion at Athens,

1 Thessalonians 3:2 and sent our brother Timothy, who is God's helper in spreading the gospel of Christ, to keep you firm and encourage you about your faith

1 Thessalonians 3:3 and prevent any of you from being unsettled by the present hardships. As you know, these are bound to come our way:

1 Thessalonians 3:4 indeed, when we were with you, we warned you that we are certain to have hardships to bear, and that is what has happened now, as you have found out.

1 Thessalonians 3:5 That is why, when I could not bear it any longer, I sent to assure myself of your faith: I was afraid the Tester might have put you to the test, and all our work might have been pointless.

1 Thessalonians 3:6 However, Timothy has returned from you and has given us good news of your faith and your love, telling us that you always remember us with pleasure and want to see us quite as much as we want to see you.

1 Thessalonians 3:7 And so, brothers, your faith has been a great encouragement to us in the middle of our own distress and hardship;

1 Thessalonians 3:8 now we can breathe again, as you are holding firm in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 3:9 How can we thank God enough for you, for all the joy we feel before our God on your account?

1 Thessalonians 3:10 We are earnestly praying night and day to be able to see you face to face again and make up any shortcomings in your faith.

1 Thessalonians 3:11 May God our Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, ease our path to you.

1 Thessalonians 3:12 May the Lord increase and enrich your love for each other and for all, so that it matches ours for you.

1 Thessalonians 3:13 And may he so confirm your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless in the sight of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy ones.

1 Thessalonians 4:1 Finally, brothers, we urge you and appeal to you in the Lord Jesus; we instructed you how to live in the way that pleases God, and you are so living; but make more progress still.

1 Thessalonians 4:2 You are well aware of the instructions we gave you on the authority of the Lord Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:3 God wills you all to be holy. He wants you to keep away from sexual immorality,

1 Thessalonians 4:4 and each one of you to know how to control his body in a way that is holy and honourable,

1 Thessalonians 4:5 not giving way to selfish lust like the nations who do not acknowledge God.

1 Thessalonians 4:6 He wants nobody at all ever to sin by taking advantage of a brother in these matters; the Lord always pays back sins of that sort, as we told you before emphatically.

1 Thessalonians 4:7 God called us to be holy, not to be immoral;

1 Thessalonians 4:8 in other words, anyone who rejects this is rejecting not human authority, but God, who gives you his Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 4:9 As for brotherly love, there is no need to write to you about that, since you have yourselves learnt from God to love one another,

1 Thessalonians 4:10 and in fact this is how you treat all the brothers throughout the whole of Macedonia. However, we do urge you, brothers, to go on making even greater progress

1 Thessalonians 4:11 and to make a point of living quietly, attending to your own business and earning your living, just as we told you to,

1 Thessalonians 4:12 so that you may earn the respect of outsiders and not be dependent on anyone.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have fallen asleep, to make sure that you do not grieve for them, as others do who have no hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:14 We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that in the same way God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:15 We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that we who are still alive for the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have fallen asleep.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 At the signal given by the voice of the Archangel and the trumpet of God, the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise,

1 Thessalonians 4:17 and only after that shall we who remain alive be taken up in the clouds, together with them, to meet the Lord in the air. This is the way we shall be with the Lord for ever.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 With such thoughts as these, then, you should encourage one another.

1 Thessalonians 5:1 About times and dates, brothers, there is no need to write to you

1 Thessalonians 5:2 for you are well aware in any case that the Day of the Lord is going to come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 It is when people are saying, 'How quiet and peaceful it is' that sudden destruction falls on them, as suddenly as labour pains come on a pregnant woman; and there is no escape.

1 Thessalonians 5:4 But you, brothers, do not live in the dark, that the Day should take you unawares like a thief.

1 Thessalonians 5:5 No, you are all children of light and children of the day: we do not belong to the night or to darkness,

1 Thessalonians 5:6 so we should not go on sleeping, as everyone else does, but stay wide awake and sober.

1 Thessalonians 5:7 Night is the time for sleepers to sleep and night the time for drunkards to be drunk,

1 Thessalonians 5:8 but we belong to the day and we should be sober; let us put on faith and love for a breastplate, and the hope of salvation for a helmet.

1 Thessalonians 5:9 God destined us not for his retribution, but to win salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Thessalonians 5:10 who died for us so that, awake or asleep, we should still live united to him.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 So give encouragement to each other, and keep strengthening one another, as you do already.

1 Thessalonians 5:12 We appeal to you, my brothers, to be considerate to those who work so hard among you as your leaders in the Lord and those who admonish you.

1 Thessalonians 5:13 Have the greatest respect and affection for them because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 We urge you, brothers, to admonish those who are undisciplined, encourage the apprehensive, support the weak and be patient with everyone.

1 Thessalonians 5:15 Make sure that people do not try to repay evil for evil; always aim at what is best for each other and for everyone.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Always be joyful;

1 Thessalonians 5:17 pray constantly;

1 Thessalonians 5:18 and for all things give thanks; this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 Do not stifle the Spirit

1 Thessalonians 5:20 or despise the gift of prophecy with contempt;

1 Thessalonians 5:21 test everything and hold on to what is good

1 Thessalonians 5:22 and shun every form of evil.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may your spirit, life and body be kept blameless for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:24 He who has called you is trustworthy and will carry it out.

1 Thessalonians 5:25 Pray for us, my brothers.

1 Thessalonians 5:26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

1 Thessalonians 5:27 My orders, in the Lord’s name, are that this letter is to be read to all the brothers.

1 Thessalonians 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonica which is in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ

2 Thessalonians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 We must always thank God for you, brothers; quite rightly, because your faith is growing so wonderfully and the mutual love that each one of you has for all never stops increasing.

2 Thessalonians 1:4 Among the churches of God we take special pride in you for your perseverance and faith under all the persecutions and hardships you have to bear.

2 Thessalonians 1:5 It all shows that God’s judgement is just, so that you may be found worthy of the kingdom of God; it is for the sake of this that you are suffering now.

2 Thessalonians 1:6 For God’s justice will surely mean hardship being inflicted on those who are now inflicting hardship on you,

2 Thessalonians 1:7 and for you who are now suffering hardship, relief with us, when the Lord Jesus appears from heaven with the angels of his power.

2 Thessalonians 1:8 He will come amid flaming fire; he will impose a penalty on those who do not acknowledge God and refuse to accept the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

2 Thessalonians 1:9 Their punishment is to be lost eternally, excluded from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his strength

2 Thessalonians 1:10 on that day when he comes to be glorified among his holy ones and marvelled at by all who believe in him; and you are among those who believed our witness.

2 Thessalonians 1:11 In view of this we also pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness, and complete all that you have been doing through faith;

2 Thessalonians 1:12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:1 About the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, brothers, and our being gathered to him:

2 Thessalonians 2:2 please do not be too easily thrown into confusion or alarmed by any manifestation of the Spirit or any statement or any letter claiming to come from us, suggesting that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Never let anyone deceive you in any way. It cannot happen until the Great Revolt has taken place and there has appeared the wicked One, the lost One,

2 Thessalonians 2:4 the Enemy, who raises himself above every so-called God or object of worship to enthrone himself in God’s sanctuary and flaunts the claim that he is God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5 Surely you remember my telling you about this when I was with you?

2 Thessalonians 2:6 And you know, too, what is still holding him back from appearing before his appointed time.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 The mystery of wickedness is already at work, but let him who is restraining it once be removed,

2 Thessalonians 2:8 and the wicked One will appear openly. The Lord will destroy him with the breath of his mouth and will annihilate him with his glorious appearance at his coming.

2 Thessalonians 2:9 But the coming of the wicked One will be marked by Satan being at work in all kinds of counterfeit miracles and signs and wonders,

2 Thessalonians 2:10 and every wicked deception aimed at those who are on the way to destruction because they would not accept the love of the truth and so be saved.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 And therefore God sends on them a power that deludes people so that they believe what is false,

2 Thessalonians 2:12 and so that those who do not believe the truth and take their pleasure in wickedness may all be condemned.

2 Thessalonians 2:13 But we must always thank God for you, brothers whom the Lord loves, because God chose you from the beginning to be saved by the Spirit who makes us holy and by faith in the truth.

2 Thessalonians 2:14 Through our gospel he called you to this so that you should claim as your own the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:15 Stand firm, then, brothers, and keep the traditions that we taught you, whether by word of mouth or by letter.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 May our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who has given us his love and, through his grace, such ceaseless encouragement and such sure hope,

2 Thessalonians 2:17 encourage you and strengthen you in every good word and deed.

2 Thessalonians 3:1 Finally, brothers, pray for us that the Lord’s message may spread quickly, and be received with honour as it was among you;

2 Thessalonians 3:2 and pray that we may be preserved from bigoted and evil people, for not everyone has faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3 You can rely on the Lord, who will give you strength and guard you from the evil One,

2 Thessalonians 3:4 and we, in the Lord, have every confidence in you, that you are doing and will go on doing all that we tell you.

2 Thessalonians 3:5 May the Lord turn your hearts towards the love of God and the perseverance of Christ.

2 Thessalonians 3:6 In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we urge you, brothers, to keep away from any of the brothers who lives an undisciplined life, not in accordance with the tradition you received from us.

2 Thessalonians 3:7 You know how you should take us as your model: we were not undisciplined when we were with you,

2 Thessalonians 3:8 nor did we ever accept food from anyone without paying for it; no, we worked with unsparing energy, night and day, so as not to be a burden on any of you.

2 Thessalonians 3:9 This was not because we had no right to be, but in order to make ourselves a model for you to imitate.

2 Thessalonians 3:10 We urged you when we were with you not to let anyone eat who refused to work.

2 Thessalonians 3:11 Now we hear that there are some of you who are living lives without any discipline, doing no work themselves but interfering with other people’s.

2 Thessalonians 3:12 In the Lord Jesus Christ, we urge and call on people of this kind to go on quietly working and earning the food that they eat.

2 Thessalonians 3:13 My brothers, never slacken in doing what is right.

2 Thessalonians 3:14 If anyone refuses to obey what I have written in this letter, take note of him and have nothing to do with him, so that he will be ashamed of himself,

2 Thessalonians 3:15 though you are not to treat him as an enemy, but to correct him as a brother.

2 Thessalonians 3:16 May the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all.

2 Thessalonians 3:17 This greeting is in my own hand-PAUL. It is the mark of genuineness in every letter; this is my own writing.

2 Thessalonians 3:18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1:1 Paul, apostle of Christ Jesus appointed by the command of God our Saviour and of Christ Jesus our hope,

1 Timothy 1:2 to Timothy, true child of mine in the faith. Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Timothy 1:3 When I was setting out for Macedonia I urged you to stay on in Ephesus to instruct certain people not to spread wrong teaching

1 Timothy 1:4 or to give attention to myths and unending genealogies; these things only foster doubts instead of furthering God's plan which is founded on faith.

1 Timothy 1:5 The final goal at which this instruction aims is love, issuing from a pure heart, a clear conscience and a sincere faith.

1 Timothy 1:6 Some people have missed the way to these things and turned to empty speculation,

1 Timothy 1:7 trying to be teachers of the Law; but they understand neither the words they use nor the matters about which they make such strong assertions.

1 Timothy 1:8 We are well aware that the Law is good, but only provided it is used legitimately,

1 Timothy 1:9 on the understanding that laws are not framed for people who are upright. On the contrary, they are for criminals and the insubordinate, for the irreligious and the wicked, for the sacrilegious and the godless; they are for people who kill their fathers or mothers and for murderers,

1 Timothy 1:10 for the promiscuous, homosexuals, kidnappers, for liars and for perjurers—and for everything else that is contrary to the sound teaching

1 Timothy 1:11 that accords with the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, the gospel that was entrusted to me.

1 Timothy 1:12 I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength. By calling me into his service he has judged me trustworthy,

1 Timothy 1:13 even though I used to be a blasphemer and a persecutor and contemptuous. Mercy, however, was shown me, because while I lacked faith I acted in ignorance;

1 Timothy 1:14 but the grace of our Lord filled me with faith and with the love that is in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 1:15 Here is a saying that you can rely on and nobody should doubt: that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I myself am the greatest of them;

1 Timothy 1:16 and if mercy has been shown to me, it is because Jesus Christ meant to make me the leading example of his inexhaustible patience for all the other people who were later to trust in him for eternal life.

1 Timothy 1:17 To the eternal King, the undying, invisible and only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Timothy 1:18 Timothy, my son, these are the instructions that I am giving you, in accordance with the words once spoken over you by the prophets, so that in their light you may fight like a good soldier

1 Timothy 1:19 with faith and a good conscience for your weapons. Some people have put conscience aside and wrecked their faith in consequence.

1 Timothy 1:20 I mean men like Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan so that they may learn not to be blasphemous.

1 Timothy 2:1 I urge then, first of all that petitions, prayers, intercessions and thanksgiving should be offered for everyone,

1 Timothy 2:2 for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live peaceful and quiet lives with all devotion and propriety.

1 Timothy 2:3 To do this is right, and acceptable to God our Saviour:

1 Timothy 2:4 he wants everyone to be saved and reach full knowledge of the truth.

1 Timothy 2:5 For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and humanity, himself a human being, Christ Jesus,

1 Timothy 2:6 who offered himself as a ransom for all. This was the witness given at the appointed time,

1 Timothy 2:7 of which I was appointed herald and apostle and—I am telling the truth and no lie—a teacher of the gentiles in faith and truth.

1 Timothy 2:8 In every place, then, I want the men to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

1 Timothy 2:9 Similarly, women are to wear suitable clothes and to be dressed quietly and modestly, without braided hair or gold and jewellery or expensive clothes;

1 Timothy 2:10 their adornment is to do the good works that are proper for women who claim to be religious.

1 Timothy 2:11 During instruction, a woman should be quiet and respectful.

1 Timothy 2:12 I give no permission for a woman to teach or to have authority over a man. A woman ought to be quiet,

1 Timothy 2:13 because Adam was formed first and Eve afterwards,

1 Timothy 2:14 and it was not Adam who was led astray but the woman who was led astray and fell into sin.

1 Timothy 2:15 Nevertheless, she will be saved by child-bearing, provided she lives a sensible life and is constant in faith and love and holiness.

1 Timothy 3:1 Here is a saying that you can rely on: to want to be a

1 Timothy 3:2 That is why the presiding elder must have an impeccable character. Husband of one wife, he must be temperate, discreet and courteous, hospitable and a good teacher;

1 Timothy 3:3 not a heavy drinker, nor hot-tempered, but gentle and peaceable, not avaricious,

1 Timothy 3:4 a man who manages his own household well and brings his children up to obey him and be well-behaved:

1 Timothy 3:5 how can any man who does not understand how to manage his own household take care of the Church of God?

1 Timothy 3:6 He should not be a new convert, in case pride should turn his head and he incur the same condemnation as the devil.

1 Timothy 3:7 It is also necessary that he be held in good repute by outsiders, so that he never falls into disrepute and into the devil's trap.

1 Timothy 3:8 Similarly, deacons must be respectable, not double-tongued, moderate in the amount of wine they drink and with no squalid greed for money.

1 Timothy 3:9 They must hold to the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience.

1 Timothy 3:10 They are first to be examined, and admitted to serve as deacons only if there is nothing against them.

1 Timothy 3:11 Similarly, women must be respectable, not gossips, but sober and wholly reliable.

1 Timothy 3:12 Deacons must be husbands of one wife and must be people who manage their children and households well.

1 Timothy 3:13 Those of them who carry out their duties well as deacons will earn a high standing for themselves and an authoritative voice in matters concerning faith in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 3:14 I write this to you in the hope that I may be able to come to you soon;

1 Timothy 3:15 but in case I should be delayed, I want you to know how people ought to behave in God's household—that is, in the Church of the living God, pillar and support of the truth.

1 Timothy 3:16 Without any doubt, the mystery of our religion is very deep indeed: He was made visible in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, proclaimed to the gentiles, believed in throughout the world, taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4:1 The Spirit has explicitly said that during the last times some will desert the faith and pay attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines that come from devils,

1 Timothy 4:2 seduced by the hypocrisy of liars whose consciences are branded as though with a red-hot iron:

1 Timothy 4:3 they forbid marriage and prohibit foods which God created to be accepted with thanksgiving by all who believe and who know the truth.

1 Timothy 4:4 Everything God has created is good, and no food is to be rejected, provided it is received with thanksgiving:

1 Timothy 4:5 the word of God and prayer make it holy.

1 Timothy 4:6 If you put all this to the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus and show that you have really digested the teaching of the faith and the good doctrine which you have always followed.

1 Timothy 4:7 Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales. Train yourself for religion.

1 Timothy 4:8 Physical exercise is useful enough, but the usefulness of religion is unlimited, since it holds out promise both for life here and now and for the life to come;

1 Timothy 4:9 that is a saying that you can rely on and nobody should doubt it.

1 Timothy 4:10 I mean that the point of all our toiling and battling is that we have put our trust in the living God and he is the Saviour of the whole human race but particularly of all believers.

1 Timothy 4:11 This is what you are to instruct and teach.

1 Timothy 4:12 Let no one disregard you because you are young, but be an example to all the believers in the way you speak and behave, and in your love, your faith and your purity.

1 Timothy 4:13 Until I arrive, devote yourself to reading to the people, encouraging and teaching.

1 Timothy 4:14 You have in you a spiritual gift which was given to you when the prophets spoke and the body of elders laid their hands on you; do not neglect it.

1 Timothy 4:15 Let this be your care and your occupation, and everyone will be able to see your progress.

1 Timothy 4:16 Be conscientious about what you do and what you teach; persevere in this, and in this way you will save both yourself and those who listen to you.

1 Timothy 5:1 Never speak sharply to a man older than yourself, but appeal to him as you would to your own father; treat younger men as brothers,

1 Timothy 5:2 older women as mothers and young women as sisters with all propriety.

1 Timothy 5:3 Be considerate to widows—if they really are widowed.

1 Timothy 5:4 If a widow has children or grandchildren, they are to learn first of all to do their duty to their own families and repay their debt to their parents, because this is what pleases God.

1 Timothy 5:5 But a woman who is really widowed and left on her own has set her hope on God and perseveres night and day in petitions and prayer.

1 Timothy 5:6 The one who thinks only of pleasure is already dead while she is still alive:

1 Timothy 5:7 instruct them in this, too, so that their lives may be blameless.

1 Timothy 5:8 Anyone who does not look after his own relations, especially if they are living with him, has rejected the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

1 Timothy 5:9 Enrolment as a widow is permissible only for a woman at least sixty years old who has had only one husband.

1 Timothy 5:10 She must be a woman known for her good works—whether she has brought up her children, been hospitable to strangers and washed the feet of God's holy people, helped people in hardship or been active in all kinds of good work.

1 Timothy 5:11 Do not accept young widows because if their natural desires distract them from Christ, they want to marry again,

1 Timothy 5:12 and then people condemn them for being unfaithful to their original promise.

1 Timothy 5:13 Besides, they learn how to be idle and go round from house to house; and then, not merely idle, they learn to be gossips and meddlers in other people's affairs and to say what should remain unsaid.

1 Timothy 5:14 I think it is best for young widows to marry again and have children and a household to look after, and not give the enemy any chance to raise a scandal about them;

1 Timothy 5:15 there are already some who have turned aside to follow Satan.

1 Timothy 5:16 If a woman believer has widowed relatives, she should support them and not make the Church bear the expense but enable it to support those who are really widowed.

1 Timothy 5:17 Elders who do their work well while they are in charge earn double reward, especially those who work hard at preaching and teaching.

1 Timothy 5:18 As scripture says: You must not muzzle an ox when it is treading out the corn; and again: The worker deserves his wages.

1 Timothy 5:19 Never accept any accusation brought against an elder unless it is supported by two or three witnesses.

1 Timothy 5:20 If anyone is at fault, reprimand him publicly, as a warning to the rest.

1 Timothy 5:21 Before God, and before Jesus Christ and the angels

he has chosen, I charge you to keep these rules impartially and never to be influenced by favouritism.

1 Timothy 5:22 Do not be too quick to lay hands on anyone, and never make yourself an accomplice in anybody else's sin; keep yourself pure.

1 Timothy 5:23 You should give up drinking only water and have a little wine for the sake of your digestion and the frequent bouts of illness that you have.

1 Timothy 5:24 The faults of some people are obvious long before they come to the reckoning, while others have faults that are not discovered until later.

1 Timothy 5:25 Similarly, the good that people do can be obvious; but even when it is not, it cannot remain hidden.

1 Timothy 6:1 All those under the yoke of slavery must have unqualified respect for their masters, so that the name of God and our teaching are not brought into disrepute.

1 Timothy 6:2 Those whose masters are believers are not to respect them less because they are brothers; on the contrary, they should serve them all the better, since those who have the benefit of their services are believers and dear to God. This is what you are to teach and urge.

1 Timothy 6:3 Anyone who teaches anything different and does not keep to the sound teaching which is that of our Lord Jesus Christ, the doctrine which is in accordance with true religion,

1 Timothy 6:4 is proud and has no understanding, but rather a weakness for questioning everything and arguing about words. All that can come of this is jealousy, contention, abuse and evil mistrust;

1 Timothy 6:5 and unending disputes by people who are depraved in mind and deprived of truth, and imagine that religion is a way of making a profit.

1 Timothy 6:6 Religion, of course, does bring large profits, but only to those who are content with what they have.

1 Timothy 6:7 We brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it;

1 Timothy 6:8 but as long as we have food and clothing, we shall be content with that.

1 Timothy 6:9 People who long to be rich are a prey to trial; they get trapped into all sorts of foolish and harmful ambitions which plunge people into ruin and destruction.

1 Timothy 6:10 'The love of money is the root of all evils' and there are some who, pursuing it, have wandered away from the faith and so given their souls any number of fatal wounds.

1 Timothy 6:11 But, as someone dedicated to God, avoid all that.

You must aim to be upright and religious, filled with faith and love, perseverance and gentleness.

1 Timothy 6:12 Fight the good fight of faith and win the eternal life to which you were called and for which you made your noble profession of faith before many witnesses.

1 Timothy 6:13 Now, before God, the source of all life, and before Jesus Christ, who witnessed to his noble profession of faith before Pontius Pilate, I charge you

1 Timothy 6:14 to do all that you have been told, with no faults or failures, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Timothy 6:15 who at the due time will be revealed by God, the blessed and only Ruler of all, the King of kings and the Lord of lords,

1 Timothy 6:16 who alone is immortal, whose home is in inaccessible light, whom no human being has seen or is able to see: to him be honour and everlasting power. Amen.

1 Timothy 6:17 Instruct those who are rich in this world's goods that they should not be proud and should set their hopes not on money, which is untrustworthy, but on God who gives us richly all that we need for our happiness.

1 Timothy 6:18 They are to do good and be rich in good works, generous in giving and always ready to share-

1 Timothy 6:19 this is the way they can amass a good capital sum for the future if they want to possess the only life that is real.

1 Timothy 6:20 My dear Timothy, take great care of all that has been entrusted to you. Turn away from godless philosophical discussions and the contradictions of the 'knowledge' which is not knowledge at all;

1 Timothy 6:21 by adopting this, some have missed the goal of faith. Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1:1 From Paul, apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God in accordance with his promise of life in Christ Jesus,

2 Timothy 1:2 to Timothy, dear son of mine. Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:3 Night and day I thank God whom I serve with a pure conscience as my ancestors did. I remember you in my prayers constantly night and day;

2 Timothy 1:4 I remember your tears and long to see you again to complete my joy.

2 Timothy 1:5 I also remember your sincere faith, a faith which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and I am sure dwells also in you.

2 Timothy 1:6 That is why I am reminding you now to fan into a flame the gift of God that you possess through the laying on of my hands.

2 Timothy 1:7 God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power and love and self-control.

2 Timothy 1:8 So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to our Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but share in my hardships for the sake of the gospel, relying on the power of God

2 Timothy 1:9 who has saved us and called us to be holy—not because of anything we ourselves had done but for his own purpose and by his own grace. This grace had already been granted to us, in Christ Jesus, before the beginning of time,

2 Timothy 1:10 but it has been revealed only by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus. He has abolished death, and he has brought to light immortality and life through the gospel,

2 Timothy 1:11 in whose service I have been made herald, apostle and teacher.

2 Timothy 1:12 That is why I am experiencing my present sufferings; but I am not ashamed, because I know in whom I have put my trust, and I have no doubt at all that he is able to safeguard until that Day what I have entrusted to him.

2 Timothy 1:13 Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 1:14 With the help of the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, look after that precious thing given in trust.

2 Timothy 1:15 As you know, Phygelus and Hermogenes and all the others in Asia have deserted me.

2 Timothy 1:16 I hope the Lord will be kind to all the family of Onesiphorus, because he has often been a comfort to me and has never been ashamed of my chains.

2 Timothy 1:17 On the contrary, as soon as he reached Rome, he searched hard for me and found me.

2 Timothy 1:18 May the Lord grant him to find the Lord's mercy on that Day. You know better than anyone else how much he helped me at Ephesus.

2 Timothy 2:1 As for you, my dear son, take strength from the grace which is in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:2 Pass on to reliable people what you have heard from me through many witnesses so that they in turn will be able to teach others.

2 Timothy 2:3 Bear with your share of difficulties, like a good soldier of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:4 No one on active service involves himself in the affairs of civilian life, because he must win the approval of the man who enlisted him;

2 Timothy 2:5 or again someone who enters an athletic contest wins only by competing in the sports—a prize can be won only by competing according to the rules;

2 Timothy 2:6 and again, it is the farmer who works hard that has the first claim on any crop that is harvested.

2 Timothy 2:7 Think over what I have said, and the Lord will give you full understanding.

2 Timothy 2:8 Remember the gospel that I carry, 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David';

2 Timothy 2:9 it is on account of this that I have to put up with suffering, even to being chained like a criminal. But God's message cannot be chained up.

2 Timothy 2:10 So I persevere for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they, too, may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:11 Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him.

2 Timothy 2:12 If we persevere, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us.

2 Timothy 2:13 If we are faithless, he is faithful still, for he cannot disown his own self.

2 Timothy 2:14 Remind them of this; and tell them in the name of God that there must be no wrangling about words: all that this ever achieves is the destruction of those who are listening.

2 Timothy 2:15 Make every effort to present yourself before God as a proven worker who has no need to be ashamed, but who keeps the message of truth on a straight path.

2 Timothy 2:16 Have nothing to do with godless philosophical discussions—they only lead further and further away from true religion.

2 Timothy 2:17 Talk of this kind spreads corruption like gangrene, as in the case of Hymenaeus and Philetus,

2 Timothy 2:18 the men who have gone astray from the truth, claiming that the resurrection has already taken place. They are upsetting some people's faith.

2 Timothy 2:19 However, God's solid foundation-stone stands firm, and this is the seal on it: 'The Lord knows those who are his own' and 'All who call on the name of the Lord must avoid evil.'

2 Timothy 2:20 Not all the dishes in a large house are made of gold and silver; some are made of wood or earthenware: the former are held in honour, the latter held cheap.

2 Timothy 2:21 If someone holds himself aloof from these faults I speak of, he will be a vessel held in honour, dedicated and fit for the Master, ready for any good work.

2 Timothy 2:22 Turn away from the passions of youth, concentrate on uprightness, faith, love and peace, in union with all those who call on the Lord with a pure heart.

2 Timothy 2:23 Avoid these foolish and undisciplined speculations, understanding that they only give rise to quarrels;

2 Timothy 2:24 and a servant of the Lord must not engage in quarrels, but must be kind to everyone, a good teacher, and patient.

2 Timothy 2:25 He must be gentle when he corrects people who oppose him, in the hope that God may give them a change of mind so that they recognise the truth

2 Timothy 2:26 and come to their senses, escaping the trap of the devil who made them his captives and subjected them to his will.

2 Timothy 3:1 You may be quite sure that in the last days there will be some difficult times.

2 Timothy 3:2 People will be self-centred and avaricious, boastful, arrogant and rude; disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, irreligious;

2 Timothy 3:3 heartless and intractable; they will be slanderers, profligates, savages and enemies of everything that is good;

2 Timothy 3:4 they will be treacherous and reckless and demented by pride, preferring their own pleasure to God.

2 Timothy 3:5 They will keep up the outward appearance of religion but will have rejected the inner power of it. Keep away from people like that.

2 Timothy 3:6 Of the same kind, too, are those men who insinuate themselves into families in order to get influence over silly women who are obsessed with their sins and follow one craze after another,

2 Timothy 3:7 always seeking learning, but unable ever to come to knowledge of the truth.

2 Timothy 3:8 Just as Jannes and Jambres defied Moses, so these men defy the truth, their minds corrupt and their faith spurious.

2 Timothy 3:9 But they will not be able to go on much longer: their folly, like that of the other two, must become obvious to everybody.

2 Timothy 3:10 You, though, have followed my teaching, my way of life, my aims, my faith, my patience and my love, my perseverance

2 Timothy 3:11 and the persecutions and sufferings that came to me in places like Antioch, Iconium and Lystra—all the persecutions I have endured; and the Lord has rescued me from every one of them.

2 Timothy 3:12 But anybody who tries to live in devotion to Christ is certain to be persecuted;

2 Timothy 3:13 while these wicked impostors will go from bad to worse, deceiving others, and themselves deceived.

2 Timothy 3:14 You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were,

2 Timothy 3:15 and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures -from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:16 All scripture is inspired by God and useful for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be upright.

2 Timothy 3:17 This is how someone who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work.

2 Timothy 4:1 Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I charge you, in the name of his appearing and of his kingdom:

2 Timothy 4:2 proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, give encouragement—but do all with patience and with care to instruct.

2 Timothy 4:3 The time is sure to come when people will not accept sound teaching, but their ears will be itching for anything new and they will collect themselves a whole series of teachers according to their own tastes;

2 Timothy 4:4 and then they will shut their ears to the truth and will turn to myths.

2 Timothy 4:5 But you must keep steady all the time; put up with suffering; do the work of preaching the gospel; fulfil the service asked of you.

2 Timothy 4:6 As for me, my life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to depart.

2 Timothy 4:7 I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith;

2 Timothy 4:8 all there is to come for me now is the crown of uprightness which the Lord, the upright judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his appearing.

2 Timothy 4:9 Make every effort to come and see me as soon as you can.

2 Timothy 4:10 As it is, Demas has deserted me for love of this life and gone to Thessalonica, Crescens has gone to Galatia andTitus to Dalmatia;

2 Timothy 4:11 onlyLuke is with me. Bring Mark with you; I find him a useful helper in my work.

2 Timothy 4:12 I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

2 Timothy 4:13 When you come, bring the cloak I left with Carpus in Troas, and the scrolls, especially the parchment ones.

2 Timothy 4:14 Alexander the coppersmith has done me a lot of harm; the Lord will repay him as his deeds deserve.

2 Timothy 4:15 Be on your guard against him yourself, because he has been bitterly contesting everything that we say.

2 Timothy 4:16 The first time I had to present my defence, no one came into court to support me. Every one of them deserted me—may they not be held accountable for it.

2 Timothy 4:17 But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed for all the gentiles to hear; and so I was saved from the lion's mouth.

2 Timothy 4:18 The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

2 Timothy 4:19 Greetings to Prisca and Aquila, and the family of Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 4:21 Make every effort to come before the winter. Greetings to you from Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia and all the brothers.

2 Timothy 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1:1 From Paul, servant of God, an apostle of Jesus Christ to bring those whom God has chosen to faith and to the knowledge of the truth that leads to true religion,

Titus 1:2 and to give them the hope of the eternal life that was promised so long ago by God. He does not lie

Titus 1:3 and so, in due time, he made known his message by a proclamation which was entrusted to me by the command of God our Saviour.

Titus 1:4 To Titus, true child of mine in the faith that we share. Grace and peace from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Saviour.

Titus 1:5 The reason I left you behind in Crete was for you to organise everything that still had to be done and appoint elders in every town, in the way that I told you,

Titus 1:6 that is, each of them must be a man of irreproachable character, husband of one wife, and his children must be believers and not liable to be charged with disorderly conduct or insubordination.

Titus 1:7 The presiding elder has to be irreproachable since he is

God’s representative: never arrogant or hot-tempered, nor a heavy drinker or violent, nor avaricious;

Titus 1:8 but hospitable and a lover of goodness; sensible, upright, devout and self-controlled;

Titus 1:9 and he must have a firm grasp of the unchanging message of the tradition, so that he can be counted on both for giving encouragement in sound doctrine and for refuting those who argue against it.

Titus 1:10 And in fact there are many people who are insubordinate, who talk nonsense and try to make others believe it, particularly among those of the circumcision.

Titus 1:11 They must be silenced: people of this kind upset whole families, by teaching things that they ought not to, and doing it for the sake of sordid gain.

Titus 1:12 It was one of themselves, one of their own prophets, who said, ‘Cretans were never anything but liars, dangerous animals, all greed and laziness’;

Titus 1:13 and that is a true statement. So be severe in correcting them, and make them sound in the faith

Titus 1:14 so that they stop taking notice of Jewish myths and the orders of people who turn away from the truth.

Titus 1:15 To those who are pure themselves, everything is pure; but to those who have been corrupted and lack faith, nothing can be pure—the corruption is both in their minds and in their consciences.

Titus 1:16 They claim to know God but by their works they deny him; they are outrageously rebellious and quite untrustworthy for any good work.

Titus 2:1 It is for you, then, to preach the behaviour which goes with healthy doctrine.

Titus 2:2 Older men should be reserved, dignified, moderate, sound in faith and love and perseverance.

Titus 2:3 Similarly, older women should behave as befits religious people, with no scandal-mongering and no addiction to wine—they must be the teachers of right behaviour

Titus 2:4 and show younger women how they should love their husbands and love their children,

Titus 2:5 how they must be sensible and chaste, and how to work in their homes, and be gentle, and obey their husbands, so that the message of God is not disgraced.

Titus 2:6 Similarly, urge younger men to be moderate in everything that they do,

Titus 2:7 and you yourself set an example of good works, by sincerity and earnestness, when you are teaching, and by a message sound and irreproachable

Titus 2:8 so that any opponent will be at a loss, with no accusation to make against us.

Titus 2:9 Slaves must be obedient to their masters in everything, and do what is wanted without argument;

Titus 2:10 and there must be no pilfering—they must show complete honesty at all times, so that they are in every way a credit to the teaching of God our Saviour.

Titus 2:11 You see, God’s grace has been revealed to save the whole human race;

Titus 2:12 it has taught us that we should give up everything contrary to true religion and all our worldly passions; we must be self-restrained and live upright and religious lives in this present world,

Titus 2:13 waiting in hope for the blessing which will come with the appearing of the glory of our great God and Saviour Christ Jesus.

Titus 2:14 He offered himself for us in order to ransom us from all our faults and to purify a people to be his very own and eager to do good.

Titus 2:15 This is what you must say, encouraging or arguing with full authority; no one should despise you.

Titus 3:1 Remind them to be obedient to the officials in authority; to be ready to do good at every opportunity;

Titus 3:2 not to go slandering other people but to be peaceable and gentle, and always polite to people of all kinds.

Titus 3:3 There was a time when we too were ignorant, disobedient and misled and enslaved by different passions and dissipations; we lived then in wickedness and malice, hating each other and hateful ourselves.

Titus 3:4 But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour for humanity were revealed,

Titus 3:5 it was not because of any upright actions we had done ourselves; it was for no reason except his own faithful love that he saved us, by means of the cleansing water of rebirth and renewal in the Holy Spirit

Titus 3:6 which he has so generously poured over us through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

Titus 3:7 so that, justified by his grace, we should become heirs in hope of eternal life.

Titus 3:8 This is doctrine that you can rely on. I want you to be quite uncompromising in teaching all this, so that those who now believe in God may keep their minds constantly occupied in doing good works. All this is good, and useful for everybody.

Titus 3:9 But avoid foolish speculations, and those genealogies, and the quibbles and disputes about the Law—they are useless and futile.

Titus 3:10 If someone disputes what you teach, then after a first and a second warning, have no more to do with him:

Titus 3:11 you will know that anyone of that sort is warped and is self-condemned as a sinner.

Titus 3:12 As soon as I have sent Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to join me at Nicopolis, where I have decided to spend the winter.

Titus 3:13 Help eagerly on their way Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, and make sure they have everything they need.

Titus 3:14 All our people must also learn to occupy themselves in doing good works for their practical needs, and not to be unproductive.

Titus 3:15 All those who are with me send their greetings. Greetings to those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

1:1 From Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus and from our brother Timothy; to our dear fellow worker Philemon,

Philemon 1:2 our sister Apphia, our fellow soldier Archippus and the church that meets in your house.

Philemon 1:3 Grace and the peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon 1:4 I always thank my God, mentioning you in my prayers,

Philemon 1:5 because I hear of the love and the faith which you have for the Lord Jesus and for all God’s holy people.

Philemon 1:6 I pray that your fellowship in faith may come to expression in full knowledge of all the good we can do for Christ.

Philemon 1:7 I have received much joy and encouragement by your love; you have set the hearts of God’s holy people at rest.

Philemon 1:8 Therefore, although in Christ I have no hesitations about telling you what your duty is,

Philemon 1:9 I am rather appealing to your love, being what I am, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

Philemon 1:10 I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus.

Philemon 1:11 He was of no use to you before, but now he is useful both to you and to me.

Philemon 1:12 I am sending him back to you—that is to say, sending you my own heart.

Philemon 1:13 I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the gospel has brought me.

Philemon 1:14 However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous.

Philemon 1:15 I suppose you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, merely so that you could have him back for ever,

Philemon 1:16 no longer as a slave, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, both on the natural plane and in the Lord.

Philemon 1:17 So if you grant me any fellowship with yourself, welcome him as you would me;

Philemon 1:18 if he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, put it down to my account.

Philemon 1:19 I am writing this in my own hand: I, Paul, shall pay it back—I make no mention of a further debt, that you owe your very self to me!

Philemon 1:20 Well then, brother, I am counting on you, in the Lord; set my heart at rest, in Christ.

Philemon 1:21 I am writing with complete confidence in your compliance, sure that you will do even more than I ask.

Philemon 1:22 There is another thing: will you get a place ready for me to stay in? I am hoping through your prayers to be restored to you.

Philemon 1:23 Epaphras, a prisoner with me in Christ Jesus, sends his greetings;

Philemon 1:24 so do my fellow-workers Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke.

Philemon 1:25 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Hebrews

1:1 At many moments in the past and by many means, God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; but

Hebrews 1:2 in our time, the final days, he has spoken to us in the person of his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things and through whom he made the ages.

Hebrews 1:3 He is the reflection of God’s glory and bears the impress of God’s own being, sustaining all things by his powerful command; and now that he has purged sins away, he has taken his seat at the right hand of the divine Majesty on high.

Hebrews 1:4 So he is now as far above the angels as the title which he has inherited is higher than their own name.

Hebrews 1:5 To which of the angels, then, has God ever said: You are my Son, today I have fathered you, or: I shall be a father to him and he a son to me?

Hebrews 1:6 Again, when he brings the First-born into the world, he says: Let all the angels of God pay him homage.

Hebrews 1:7 To the angels, he says: appointing the winds his messengers and flames of fire his servants,

Hebrews 1:8 but to the Son he says: Your throne, God, is for ever and ever; and: the sceptre of his kingdom is a sceptre of justice;

Hebrews 1:9 you love uprightness and detest evil. This is why God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness, as none of your rivals.

Hebrews 1:10 And again: Long ago, Lord, you laid earth's foundations, the heavens are the work of your hands.

Hebrews 1:11 They pass away but you remain, they all wear out like a garment.

Hebrews 1:12 Like a cloak you will roll them up, like a garment, and they will be changed. But you never alter and your years are unending.

Hebrews 1:13 To which of the angels has God ever said: Take your seat at my right hand till I have made your enemies your footstool?

Hebrews 1:14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

Hebrews 2:1 We ought, then, to turn our minds more attentively than before to what we have been taught, so that we do not drift away.

Hebrews 2:2 If a message that was spoken through angels proved to be so reliable that every infringement and disobedience brought its own proper punishment,

Hebrews 2:3 then we shall certainly not go unpunished if we neglect such a great salvation. It was first announced by the Lord himself, and is guaranteed to us by those who heard him;

Hebrews 2:4 God himself confirmed their witness with signs and marvels and miracles of all kinds, and by distributing the gifts of the Holy Spirit in the various ways he wills.

Hebrews 2:5 It was not under angels that he put the world to come, about which we are speaking.

Hebrews 2:6 Someone witnesses to this somewhere with the words: What are human beings that you spare a thought for them, a child of Adam that you care for him?

Hebrews 2:7 For a short while you have made him less than the angels; you have crowned him with glory and honour,

Hebrews 2:8 put all things under his feet. For in putting all things under him he made no exceptions. At present, it is true, we are not able to see that all things are under him, Hebrews 2:9 but we do see Jesus, who was for a short while made less than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because he submitted to death; so that by God’s grace his experience of death should benefit all humanity.

Hebrews 2:10 It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should, in bringing many sons to glory, make perfect through suffering the leader of their salvation.

Hebrews 2:11 For consecrator and consecrated are all of the same stock; that is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers

Hebrews 2:12 in the text: I shall proclaim your name to my brothers, praise you in full assembly; or in the text:

Hebrews 2:13 I shall put my hope in him; followed by Look, I and the children whom God has given me.

Hebrews 2:14 Since all the children share the same human nature, he too shared equally in it, so that by his death he could set aside him who held the power of death, namely the devil,

Hebrews 2:15 and set free all those who had been held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death.

Hebrews 2:16 For it was not the angels that he took to himself; he took to himself the line of Abraham.

Hebrews 2:17 It was essential that he should in this way be made completely like his brothers so that he could become a compassionate and trustworthy high priest for their relationship to God, able to expiate the sins of the people.

Hebrews 2:18 For the suffering he himself passed through while being put to the test enables him to help others when they are being put to the test.

Hebrews 3:1 That is why all you who are holy brothers and share the same heavenly call should turn your minds to Jesus, the apostle and the high priest of our profession of faith.

Hebrews 3:2 He was trustworthy to the one who appointed him, just like Moses, who remained trustworthy in all his household;

Hebrews 3:3 but he deserves a greater glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house is more honoured than the house itself.

Hebrews 3:4 Every house is built by someone, of course; but God built everything that exists.

Hebrews 3:5 It is true that Moses was trustworthy in the household of God, as a servant is, acting as witness to the things which were yet to be revealed,

Hebrews 3:6 but Christ is trustworthy as a son is, over his household. And we are his household, as long as we fearlessly maintain the hope in which we glory.

Hebrews 3:7 That is why, as the Holy Spirit says: If only you would listen to him today!

Hebrews 3:8 Do not harden your hearts, as at the rebellion, as at the time of testing in the desert,

Hebrews 3:9 when your ancestors challenged me, and put me to the test, and saw what I could do

Hebrews 3:10 for forty years. That was why that generation sickened me and I said, ‘Always fickle hearts, that cannot grasp my ways!’

Hebrews 3:11 And then in my anger I swore that they would never enter my place of rest.

Hebrews 3:12 Take care, brothers, that none of you ever has a wicked heart, so unbelieving as to turn away from the living God.

Hebrews 3:13 Every day, as long as this today lasts, keep encouraging one another so that none of you is hardened by the lure of sin,

Hebrews 3:14 because we have been granted a share with Christ only if we keep the grasp of our first confidence firm to the end.

Hebrews 3:15 In this saying: If only you would listen to him today; do not harden your hearts, as at the Rebellion, Hebrews 3:16 who was it who listened and then rebelled? Surely all those whom Moses led out of Egypt.

Hebrews 3:17 And with whom was he angry for forty years? Surely with those who sinned and whose dead bodies fell in the desert.

Hebrews 3:18 To whom did he swear they would never enter his place of rest? Surely those who would not believe.

Hebrews 3:19 So we see that it was their refusal to believe which prevented them from entering.

Hebrews 4:1 Let us beware, then: since the promise never lapses, none of you must think that he has come too late for the promise of entering his place of rest.

Hebrews 4:2 We received the gospel exactly as they did; but hearing the message did them no good because they did not share the faith of those who did listen.

Hebrews 4:3 We, however, who have faith, are entering a place of rest, as in the text: And then in my anger I swore that they would never enter my place of rest. Now God’s work was all finished at the beginning of the world;

Hebrews 4:4 as one text says, referring to the seventh day: And God rested on the seventh day after all the work he had been doing.

Hebrews 4:5 And, again, the passage above says: They will never reach my place of rest.

Hebrews 4:6 It remains the case, then, that there would be some people who would reach it, and since those who first heard the good news were prevented from entering by their refusal to believe,

Hebrews 4:7 God fixed another day, a Today, when he said through David in the text already quoted: If only you would listen to him today; do not harden your hearts.

Hebrews 4:8 If Joshua had led them into this place of rest, God would not later have spoken of another day.

Hebrews 4:9 There must still be, therefore, a seventh-day rest reserved for God's people,

Hebrews 4:10 since to enter the place of rest is to rest after your work, as God did after his.

Hebrews 4:11 Let us, then, press forward to enter this place of rest, or some of you might copy this example of refusal to believe and be lost.

Hebrews 4:12 The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts more incisively than any two-edged sword: it can seek out the place where soul is divided from spirit, or joints from marrow; it can pass judgement on secret emotions and thoughts.

Hebrews 4:13 No created thing is hidden from him; everything is uncovered and stretched fully open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

Hebrews 4:14 Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must hold firm to our profession of faith.

Hebrews 4:15 For the high priest we have is not incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us, but has been put to the test in exactly the same way as ourselves, apart from sin.

Hebrews 4:16 Let us, then, have no fear in approaching the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace when we are in need of help.

Hebrews 5:1 Every high priest is taken from among human beings and is appointed to act on their behalf in relationships with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins;

Hebrews 5:2 he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or who have gone astray, because he too is subject to the limitations of weakness.

Hebrews 5:3 That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people.

Hebrews 5:4 No one takes this honour on himself; it needs a call from God, as in Aaron's case.

Hebrews 5:5 And so it was not Christ who gave himself the glory of becoming high priest, but the one who said to him: You are my Son, today I have fathered you,

Hebrews 5:6 and in another text: You are a priest for ever, of the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:7 During his life on earth, he offered up prayer and entreaty, with loud cries and with tears, to the one who had the power to save him from death, and, winning a hearing by his reverence,

Hebrews 5:8 he learnt obedience, Son though he was, through his sufferings;

Hebrews 5:9 when he had been perfected, he became for all who obey him the source of eternal salvation

Hebrews 5:10 and was acclaimed by God with the title of high priest of the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:11 On this subject we have many things to say, and they are difficult to explain because you have grown so slow at understanding.

Hebrews 5:12 Indeed, when you should by this time have become masters, you need someone to teach you all over again the elements of the principles of God’s sayings; you have gone back to needing milk, and not solid food.

Hebrews 5:13 Truly, no one who is still living on milk can digest the doctrine of saving justice, being still a baby.

Hebrews 5:14 Solid food is for adults with minds trained by practice to distinguish between good and bad.

Hebrews 6:1 Let us leave behind us then all the elementary teaching about Christ and go on to its completion, without going over the fundamental doctrines again: the turning away from dead actions, faith in God,

Hebrews 6:2 the teaching about baptisms and the laying—on of hands, about the resurrection of the dead and eternal judgement.

Hebrews 6:3 This, God willing, is what we propose to do.

Hebrews 6:4 As for those people who were once brought into the light, and tasted the gift from heaven, and received a share of the Holy Spirit,

Hebrews 6:5 and tasted the goodness of God’s message and the powers of the world to come

Hebrews 6:6 and yet in spite of this have fallen away—it is impossible for them to be brought to the freshness of repentance a second time, since they are crucifying the Son of God again for themselves, and making a public exhibition of him.

Hebrews 6:7 A field that drinks up the rain that has fallen frequently on it, and yields the crops that are wanted by the owners who grew them, receives God’s blessing;

Hebrews 6:8 but one that grows brambles and thistles is worthless, and near to being cursed. It will end by being burnt.

Hebrews 6:9 But you, my dear friends—in spite of what we have just said, we are sure you are in a better state and on the way to salvation.

Hebrews 6:10 God would not be so unjust as to forget all you have done, the love that you have for his name or the services you have done, and are still doing, for the holy people of God.

Hebrews 6:11 Our desire is that every one of you should go on showing the same enthusiasm till the ultimate fulfilment of your hope,

Hebrews 6:12 never growing careless, but taking as your model those who by their faith and perseverance are heirs of the promises.

Hebrews 6:13 When God made the promise to Abraham, he swore by his own self, since there was no one greater he could swear by:

Hebrews 6:14 I will shower blessings on you and give you many descendants.

Hebrews 6:15 Because of that, Abraham persevered and received fulfilment of the promise.

Hebrews 6:16 Human beings, of course, swear an oath by something greater than themselves, and between them, confirmation by an oath puts an end to all dispute.

Hebrews 6:17 In the same way, when God wanted to show the heirs of the promise even more clearly how unalterable his plan was, he conveyed it by an oath

Hebrews 6:18 so that through two unalterable factors in which God could not be lying, we who have fled to him might have a vigorous encouragement to grasp the hope held out to us.

Hebrews 6:19 This is the anchor our souls have, reaching right through inside the curtain

Hebrews 6:20 where Jesus has entered as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest for ever, of the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:1 Melchizedek, king of Salem, a priest of God Most High, came to meet Abraham when he returned from defeating the kings, and blessed him;

Hebrews 7:2 and Abraham gave him a tenth of everything. By the interpretation of his name, he is, first, ‘king of saving justice’ and also king of Salem, that is, ‘king of peace’;

Hebrews 7:3 he has no father, mother or ancestry, and his life has no beginning or ending; he is like the Son of God. He remains a priest for ever.

Hebrews 7:4 Now think how great this man must have been, if the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth of the finest plunder.

Hebrews 7:5 We know that any of the descendants of Levi who are admitted to the priesthood are obliged by the Law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their own brothers although they too are descended from Abraham.

Hebrews 7:6 But this man, who was not of the same descent, took his tithe from Abraham, and he gave his blessing to the holder of the promises.

Hebrews 7:7 Now it is indisputable that a blessing is given by a superior to an inferior.

Hebrews 7:8 Further, in the normal case it is ordinary mortal men who receive the tithes, whereas in that case it was one who is attested as being alive.

Hebrews 7:9 It could be said that Levi himself, who receives tithes, actually paid tithes, in the person of Abraham, Hebrews 7:10 because he was still in the loins of his ancestor when Melchizedek came to meet him.

Hebrews 7:11 Now if perfection had been reached through the levitical priesthood—and this was the basis of the Law given to the people—why was it necessary for a different kind of priest to arise, spoken of as being of the order of Melchizedek rather than of the order of Aaron?

Hebrews 7:12 Any change in the priesthood must mean a change in the Law as well.

Hebrews 7:13 So our Lord, of whom these things were said, belonged to a different tribe, the members of which have never done service at the altar;

Hebrews 7:14 everyone knows he came from Judah, a tribe which Moses did not mention at all when dealing with priests.

Hebrews 7:15 This becomes even more clearly evident if another priest, of the type of Melchizedek, arises who is a priest

Hebrews 7:16 not in virtue of a law of physical descent, but in virtue of the power of an indestructible life.

Hebrews 7:17 For he is attested by the prophecy: You are a priest for ever of the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:18 The earlier commandment is thus abolished, because of its weakness and ineffectiveness

Hebrews 7:19 since the Law could not make anything perfect; but now this commandment is replaced by something better-the hope that brings us close to God.

Hebrews 7:20 Now the former priests became priests without any oath being sworn,

Hebrews 7:21 but this one with the swearing of an oath by him who said to him, The Lord has sworn an oath he will never retract: you are a priest for ever;

Hebrews 7:22 the very fact that it occurred with the swearing of an oath makes the covenant of which Jesus is the guarantee all the greater.

Hebrews 7:23 Further, the former priests were many in number, because death put an end to each one of them;

Hebrews 7:24 but this one, because he remains for ever, has a perpetual priesthood.

Hebrews 7:25 It follows, then, that his power to save those who come to God through him is absolute, since he lives for ever to intercede for them.

Hebrews 7:26 Such is the high priest that met our need, holy, innocent and uncontaminated, set apart from sinners, and raised up above the heavens;

Hebrews 7:27 he has no need to offer sacrifices every day, as the high priests do, first for their own sins and only then for those of the people; this he did once and for all by offering himself.

Hebrews 7:28 The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath, which came after the Law, appointed the Son who is made perfect for ever.

Hebrews 8:1 The principal point of all that we have said is that we have a high priest of exactly this kind. He has taken his seat at the right of the throne of divine Majesty in the heavens,

Hebrews 8:2 and he is the minister of the sanctuary and of the true Tent which the Lord, and not any man, set up.

Hebrews 8:3 Every high priest is constituted to offer gifts and sacrifices, and so this one too must have something to offer.

Hebrews 8:4 In fact, if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are others who make the offerings laid down by the Law,

Hebrews 8:5 though these maintain the service only of a model or a reflection of the heavenly realities; just as Moses, when he had the Tent to build, was warned by God who said: See that you work to the design that was shown you on the mountain.

Hebrews 8:6 As it is, he has been given a ministry as far superior as is the covenant of which he is the mediator, which is founded on better promises.

Hebrews 8:7 If that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no room for a second one to replace it.

Hebrews 8:8 And in fact God does find fault with them; he says: Look, the days are coming, the Lord declares, when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel and the House of Judah,

Hebrews 8:9 but not a covenant like the one I made with their ancestors, the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt, which covenant of mine they broke, and I too abandoned them, the Lord declares.

Hebrews 8:10 No, this is the covenant I will make with the House of Israel, when those days have come, the Lord declares: In their minds I shall plant my laws writing them on their hearts. Then I shall be their God, and they shall be my people.

Hebrews 8:11 There will be no further need for each to teach his neighbour, and each his brother, saying ‘Learn to know the Lord!’ No, they will all know me, from the least to the greatest,

Hebrews 8:12 since I shall forgive their guilt and never more call their sins to mind.

Hebrews 8:13 By speaking of a new covenant, he implies that the first one is old. And anything old and ageing is ready to disappear.

Hebrews 9:1 The first covenant also had its laws governing worship and its sanctuary, a sanctuary on this earth.

Hebrews 9:2 There was a tent which comprised two compartments: the first, in which the lamp-stand, the table and the loaves of permanent offering were kept, was called the Holy Place;

Hebrews 9:3 then beyond the second veil, a second compartment which was called the Holy of Holies

Hebrews 9:4 to which belonged the gold altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant, plated all over with gold. In this were kept the gold jar containing the manna, Aaron’s branch that grew the buds, and the tables of the covenant.

Hebrews 9:5 On top of it were the glorious winged creatures, overshadowing the throne of mercy. This is not the time to go into detail about this.

Hebrews 9:6 Under these provisions, priests go regularly into the outer tent to carry out their acts of worship,

Hebrews 9:7 but the second tent is entered only once a year, and then only by the high priest who takes in the blood to make an offering for his own and the people’s faults of inadvertence.

Hebrews 9:8 By this, the Holy Spirit means us to see that as long as the old tent stands, the way into the holy place is not opened up;

Hebrews 9:9 it is a symbol for this present time. None of the gifts and sacrifices offered under these regulations can possibly bring any worshipper to perfection in his conscience;

Hebrews 9:10 they are rules about outward life, connected with food and drink and washing at various times, which are in force only until the time comes to set things right.

Hebrews 9:11 But now Christ has come, as the high priest of all the blessings which were to come. He has passed through the greater, the more perfect tent, not made by human hands, that is, not of this created order;

Hebrews 9:12 and he has entered the sanctuary once and for all, taking with him not the blood of goats and bull calves, but his own blood, having won an eternal redemption.

Hebrews 9:13 The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkled on those who have incurred defilement, may restore their bodily purity.

Hebrews 9:14 How much more will the blood of Christ, who offered himself, blameless as he was, to God through the eternal Spirit, purify our conscience from dead actions so that we can worship the living God.

Hebrews 9:15 This makes him the mediator of a new covenant, so that, now that a death has occurred to redeem the sins committed under an earlier covenant, those who have been called to an eternal inheritance may receive the promise.

Hebrews 9:16 Now wherever a will is in question, the death of the testator must be established;

Hebrews 9:17 a testament comes into effect only after a death, since it has no force while the testator is still alive.

Hebrews 9:18 That is why even the earlier covenant was inaugurated with blood,

Hebrews 9:19 and why, after Moses had promulgated all the commandments of the Law to the people, he took the calves' blood, the goats' blood and some water, and with these he sprinkled the book itself and all the people, using scarlet wool and hyssop;

Hebrews 9:20 saying as he did so: This is the blood of the covenant that God has made with you.

Hebrews 9:21 And he sprinkled both the tent and all the liturgical vessels with blood in the same way.

Hebrews 9:22 In fact, according to the Law, practically every purification takes place by means of blood; and if there is no shedding of blood, there is no remission.

Hebrews 9:23 Only the copies of heavenly things are purified in this way; the heavenly things themselves have to be purified by a higher sort of sacrifice than this.

Hebrews 9:24 It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was merely a model of the real one; he entered heaven itself, so that he now appears in the presence of God on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:25 And he does not have to offer himself again and again, as the high priest goes into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own,

Hebrews 9:26 or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. As it is, he has made his appearance once and for all, at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself.

Hebrews 9:27 Since human beings die only once, after which comes judgement,

Hebrews 9:28 so Christ too, having offered himself only once to bear the sin of many, will manifest himself a second time, sin being no more, to those who are waiting for him, to bring them salvation.

Hebrews 10:1 So, since the Law contains no more than a reflection of the good things which were still to come, and no true image of them, it is quite incapable of bringing the worshippers to perfection, by means of the same sacrifices repeatedly offered year after year.

Hebrews 10:2 Otherwise, surely the offering of them would have stopped, because the worshippers, when they had been purified once, would have no awareness of sins.

Hebrews 10:3 But in fact the sins are recalled year after year in the sacrifices.

Hebrews 10:4 Bulls' blood and goats' blood are incapable of taking away sins,

Hebrews 10:5 and that is why he said, on coming into the world: You wanted no sacrifice or cereal offering, but you gave me a body.

Hebrews 10:6 You took no pleasure in burnt offering or sacrifice for sin;

Hebrews 10:7 then I said, 'Here I am, I am coming,' in the scroll of the book it is written of me, to do your will, God.

Hebrews 10:8 He says first You did not want what the Law lays down as the things to be offered, that is: the sacrifices, the cereal offerings, the burnt offerings and the sacrifices for sin, and you took no pleasure in them;

Hebrews 10:9 and then he says: Here I am! I am coming to do your will. He is abolishing the first sort to establish the second.

Hebrews 10:10 And this will was for us to be made holy by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ made once and for all.

Hebrews 10:11 Every priest stands at his duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking away sins.

Hebrews 10:12 He, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his seat for ever, at the right hand of God,

Hebrews 10:13 where he is now waiting till his enemies are made his footstool.

Hebrews 10:14 By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all who are sanctified.

Hebrews 10:15 The Holy Spirit attests this to us, for after saying:

Hebrews 10:16 No, this is the covenant I will make with them, when those days have come. the Lord says: In their minds I will plant my Laws writing them on their hearts,

Hebrews 10:17 and I shall never more call their sins to mind, or their offences.

Hebrews 10:18 When these have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

Hebrews 10:19 We have then, brothers, complete confidence through the blood of Jesus in entering the sanctuary,

Hebrews 10:20 by a new way which he has opened for us, a living opening through the curtain, that is to say, his flesh.

Hebrews 10:21 And we have the high priest over all the sanctuary of God.

Hebrews 10:22 So as we go in, let us be sincere in heart and filled with faith, our hearts sprinkled and free from any trace of bad conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

Hebrews 10:23 Let us keep firm in the hope we profess, because the one who made the promise is trustworthy.

Hebrews 10:24 Let us be concerned for each other, to stir a response in love and good works.

Hebrews 10:25 Do not absent yourself from your own assemblies, as some do, but encourage each other; the more so as you see the Day drawing near.

Hebrews 10:26 If, after we have been given knowledge of the truth, we should deliberately commit any sins, then there is no longer any sacrifice for them.

Hebrews 10:27 There is left only the dreadful prospect of judgement and of the fiery wrath that is to devour your enemies.

Hebrews 10:28 Anyone who disregards the Law of Moses is ruthlessly put to death on the word of two witnesses or three;

Hebrews 10:29 and you may be sure that anyone who tramples on the Son of God, and who treats the blood of the covenant which sanctified him as if it were not holy, and who insults the Spirit of grace, will be condemned to a far severer punishment.

Hebrews 10:30 We are all aware who it was that said: Vengeance is mine; I will pay them back. And again: The Lord will vindicate his people.

Hebrews 10:31 It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Hebrews 10:32 Remember the great challenge of the sufferings that you had to meet after you received the light, in earlier days;

Hebrews 10:33 sometimes by being yourselves publicly exposed to humiliations and violence, and sometimes as associates of others who were treated in the same way.

Hebrews 10:34 For you not only shared in the sufferings of those who were in prison, but you accepted with joy being stripped of your belongings, knowing that you owned something that was better and lasting.

Hebrews 10:35 Do not lose your fearlessness now, then, since the reward is so great.

Hebrews 10:36 You will need perseverance if you are to do God's will and gain what he has promised.

Hebrews 10:37 Only a little while now, a very little while, for come he certainly will before too long.

Hebrews 10:38 My upright person will live through faith but if he draws back, my soul will take no pleasure in him.

Hebrews 10:39 We are not the sort of people who draw back, and are lost by it; we are the sort who keep faith until our souls are saved.

Hebrews 11:1 Only faith can guarantee the blessings that we hope for, or prove the existence of realities that are unseen.

Hebrews 11:2 It is for their faith that our ancestors are acknowledged.

Hebrews 11:3 It is by faith that we understand that the ages were created by a word from God, so that from the invisible the visible world came to be.

Hebrews 11:4 It was because of his faith that Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain, and for that he was acknowledged as upright when God himself made acknowledgement of his offerings. Though he is dead, he still speaks by faith.

Hebrews 11:5 It was because of his faith that Enoch was taken up and did not experience death: he was no more, because God took him; because before his assumption he was acknowledged to have pleased God.

Hebrews 11:6 Now it is impossible to please God without faith, since anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7 It was through his faith that Noah, when he had been warned by God of something that had never been seen before, took care to build an ark to save his family. His faith was a judgement on the world, and he was able to claim the uprightness which comes from faith.

Hebrews 11:8 It was by faith that Abraham obeyed the call to set out for a country that was the inheritance given to him and his descendants, and that he set out without knowing where he was going.

Hebrews 11:9 By faith he sojourned in the Promised Land as though it were not his, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

Hebrews 11:10 He looked forward to the well-founded city, designed and built by God.

Hebrews 11:11 It was equally by faith that Sarah, in spite of being past the age, was made able to conceive, because she believed that he who had made the promise was faithful to it.

Hebrews 11:12 Because of this, there came from one man, and one who already had the mark of death on him, descendants as numerous as the stars of heaven and the grains of sand on the seashore which cannot be counted.

Hebrews 11:13 All these died in faith, before receiving any of the things that had been promised, but they saw them in the far distance and welcomed them, recognising that they were only strangers and nomads on earth.

Hebrews 11:14 People who use such terms about themselves make it quite plain that they are in search of a homeland.

Hebrews 11:15 If they had meant the country they came from, they would have had the opportunity to return to it;

Hebrews 11:16 but in fact they were longing for a better homeland, their heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, since he has founded the city for them.

Hebrews 11:17 It was by faith that Abraham, when put to the test, offered up Isaac. He offered to sacrifice his only son even though he had yet to receive what had been promised,

Hebrews 11:18 and he had been told: Isaac is the one through whom your name will be carried on.

Hebrews 11:19 He was confident that God had the power even to raise the dead; and so, figuratively speaking, he was given back Isaac from the dead.

Hebrews 11:20 It was by faith that this same Isaac gave his blessing to Jacob and Esau for the still distant future.

Hebrews 11:21 By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons, bowed in reverence, as he leant on his staff.

Hebrews 11:22 It was by faith that, when he was about to die, Joseph mentioned the Exodus of the Israelites and gave instructions about his own remains.

Hebrews 11:23 It was by faith that Moses, when he was born, was kept hidden by his parents for three months; because they saw that he was a fine child; they were not afraid of the royal edict.

Hebrews 11:24 It was by faith that, when he was grown up, Moses refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter

Hebrews 11:25 and chose to be ill-treated in company with God's people rather than to enjoy the transitory pleasures of sin.

Hebrews 11:26 He considered that the humiliations offered to the Anointed were something more precious than all the treasures of Egypt, because he had his eyes fixed on the reward.

Hebrews 11:27 It was by faith that he left Egypt without fear of the king's anger; he held to his purpose like someone who could see the Invisible.

Hebrews 11:28 It was by faith that he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood to prevent the Destroyer from touching any of their first-born sons.

Hebrews 11:29 It was by faith they crossed the Red Sea as easily as dry land, while the Egyptians, trying to do the same, were drowned.

Hebrews 11:30 It was through faith that the walls of Jericho fell down when the people had marched round them for seven days.

Hebrews 11:31 It was by faith that Rahab the prostitute welcomed the spies and so was not killed with the unbelievers.

Hebrews 11:32 What more shall I say? There is not time for me to give an account of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, or of David, Samuel and the prophets.

Hebrews 11:33 These were men who through faith conquered kingdoms, did what was upright and earned the promises. They could keep a lion's mouth shut,

Hebrews 11:34 put out blazing fires and emerge unscathed from battle. They were weak people who were given strength to be brave in war and drive back foreign invaders.

Hebrews 11:35 Some returned to their wives from the dead by resurrection; and others submitted to torture, refusing release so that they would rise again to a better life.

Hebrews 11:36 Some had to bear being pilloried and flogged, or even chained up in prison.

Hebrews 11:37 They were stoned, or sawn in half, or killed by the sword; they were homeless, and wore only the skins of sheep and goats; they were in want and hardship, and maltreated.

Hebrews 11:38 They were too good for the world and they wandered in deserts and mountains and in caves and ravines.

Hebrews 11:39 These all won acknowledgement through their faith, but they did not receive what was promised,

Hebrews 11:40 since God had made provision for us to have something better, and they were not to reach perfection except with us.

Hebrews 12:1 With so many witnesses in a great cloud all around us, we too, then, should throw off everything that weighs us down and the sin that clings so closely, and with perseverance keep running in the race which lies ahead of us.

Hebrews 12:2 Let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which lay ahead of him, he endured the cross, disregarding the shame of it, and has taken his seat at the right of God's throne.

Hebrews 12:3 Think of the way he persevered against such opposition from sinners and then you will not lose heart and come to grief.

Hebrews 12:4 In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of bloodshed.

Hebrews 12:5 Have you forgotten that encouraging text in which you are addressed as sons? My son, do not scorn correction from the Lord, do not resent his training, Hebrews 12:6 for the Lord trains those he loves, and chastises every son he accepts.

Hebrews 12:7 Perseverance is part of your training; God is treating you as his sons. Has there ever been any son whose father did not train him?

Hebrews 12:8 If you were not getting this training, as all of you are, then you would be not sons but bastards.

Hebrews 12:9 Besides, we have all had our human fathers who punished us, and we respected them for it; all the more readily ought we to submit to the Father of spirits, and so earn life.

Hebrews 12:10 Our human fathers were training us for a short life and according to their own lights; but he does it all for our own good, so that we may share his own holiness.

Hebrews 12:11 Of course, any discipline is at the time a matter for grief, not joy; but later, in those who have undergone it, it bears fruit in peace and uprightness.

Hebrews 12:12 So steady all weary hands and trembling knees

Hebrews 12:13 and make your crooked paths straight; then the injured limb will not be maimed, it will get better instead.

Hebrews 12:14 Seek peace with all people, and the holiness without which no one can ever see the Lord.

Hebrews 12:15 Be careful that no one is deprived of the grace of God and that no root of bitterness should begin to grow and make trouble; this can poison a large number.

Hebrews 12:16 And be careful that there is no immoral person, or anyone worldly minded like Esau, who sold his birthright for one single meal.

Hebrews 12:17 As you know, when he wanted to obtain the blessing afterwards, he was rejected and, though he pleaded for it with tears, he could find no way of reversing the decision.

Hebrews 12:18 What you have come to is nothing known to the senses: not a blazing fire, or gloom or total darkness, or a storm;

Hebrews 12:19 or trumpet-blast or the sound of a voice speaking which made everyone that heard it beg that no more should be said to them.

Hebrews 12:20 They could not bear the order that was given: If even a beast touches the mountain, it must be stoned.

Hebrews 12:21 The whole scene was so terrible that Moses said, 'I am afraid and trembling.'

Hebrews 12:22 But what you have come to is Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem where the millions of angels have gathered for the festival,

Hebrews 12:23 with the whole Church of first-born sons, enrolled as citizens of heaven. You have come to God himself, the supreme Judge, and to the spirits of the upright who have been made perfect;

Hebrews 12:24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to purifying blood which pleads more insistently than Abel's.

Hebrews 12:25 Make sure that you never refuse to listen when he speaks. If the people who on earth refused to listen to a warning could not escape their punishment, how shall we possibly escape if we turn away from a voice that warns us from heaven?

Hebrews 12:26 That time his voice made the earth shake, but now he has given us this promise: I am going to shake the earth once more and not only the earth but heaven as well.

Hebrews 12:27 The words once more indicate the removal of what is shaken, since these are created things, so that what is not shaken remains.

Hebrews 12:28 We have been given possession of an unshakeable kingdom. Let us therefore be grateful and use our gratitude to worship God in the way that pleases him, in reverence and fear.

Hebrews 12:29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Hebrews 13:1 Continue to love each other like brothers,

Hebrews 13:2 and remember always to welcome strangers, for by doing this, some people have entertained angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:3 Keep in mind those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; and those who are being badly treated, since you too are in the body.

Hebrews 13:4 Marriage must be honoured by all, and marriages must be kept undefiled, because the sexually immoral and adulterers will come under God's judgement.

Hebrews 13:5 Put avarice out of your lives and be content with whatever you have; God himself has said: I shall not fail you or desert you,

Hebrews 13:6 and so we can say with confidence: With the Lord on my side, I fear nothing: what can human beings do to me?

Hebrews 13:7 Remember your leaders, who preached the word of God to you, and as you reflect on the outcome of their lives, take their faith as your model.

Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same today as he was yesterday and as he will be for ever.

Hebrews 13:9 Do not be led astray by all sorts of strange doctrines: it is better to rely on grace for inner strength than on food, which has done no good to those who concentrate on it.

Hebrews 13:10 We have our own altar from which those who serve the Tent have no right to eat.

Hebrews 13:11 The bodies of the animals whose blood is taken into the sanctuary by the high priest for the rite of expiation are burnt outside the camp,

Hebrews 13:12 and so Jesus too suffered outside the gate to sanctify the people with his own blood.

Hebrews 13:13 Let us go to him, then, outside the camp, and bear his humiliation.

Hebrews 13:14 There is no permanent city for us here; we are looking for the one which is yet to be.

Hebrews 13:15 Through him, let us offer God an unending sacrifice of praise, the fruit of the lips of those who acknowledge his name.

Hebrews 13:16 Keep doing good works and sharing your resources, for these are the kinds of sacrifice that please God.

Hebrews 13:17 Obey your leaders and give way to them; they watch over your souls because they must give an account of them; make this a joy for them to do, and not a grief—you yourselves would be the losers.

Hebrews 13:18 Pray for us; we are sure that our own conscience is clear and we are certainly determined to behave honourably in everything we do.

Hebrews 13:19 I ask you very particularly to pray that I may come back to you all the sooner.

Hebrews 13:20 I pray that the God of peace, who brought back from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep, by the blood that sealed an eternal covenant,

Hebrews 13:21 may prepare you to do his will in every kind of good action; effecting in us all whatever is acceptable to himself through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Hebrews 13:22 I urge you, brothers, to take these words of encouragement kindly; that is why I have written to you briefly.

Hebrews 13:23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been set free. If he arrives in time, he will be with me when I see you.

Hebrews 13:24 Greetings to all your leaders and to all God’s holy people. God’s holy people in Italy send you greetings.

Hebrews 13:25 Grace be with you all.

James

1:1 From James, servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. Greetings to the twelve tribes of the Dispersion.

James 1:2 My brothers, consider it a great joy when trials of many kinds come upon you,

James 1:3 for you well know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance, and

James 1:4 perseverance must complete its work so that you will become fully developed, complete, not deficient in any way.

James 1:5 Any of you who lacks wisdom must ask God, who gives to all generously and without scolding; it will be given.

James 1:6 But the prayer must be made with faith, and no trace of doubt, because a person who has doubts is like the waves thrown up in the sea by the buffeting of the wind.

James 1:7 That sort of person, in two minds,

James 1:8 inconsistent in every activity, must not expect to receive anything from the Lord.

James 1:9 It is right that the brother in humble circumstances should glory in being lifted up,

James 1:10 and the rich in being brought low. For the rich will last no longer than the wild flower;

James 1:11 the scorching sun comes up, and the grass withers, its flower falls, its beauty is lost. It is the same with the rich: in the middle of a busy life, the rich will wither.

James 1:12 Blessed is anyone who perseveres when trials come. Such a person is of proven worth and will win the prize of life, the crown that the Lord has promised to those who love him.

James 1:13 Never, when you are being put to the test, say, ‘God is tempting me’; God cannot be tempted by evil, and he does not put anybody to the test .

James 1:14 Everyone is put to the test by being attracted and seduced by that person’s own wrong desire.

James 1:15 Then the desire conceives and gives birth to sin, and when sin reaches full growth, it gives birth to death.

James 1:16 Make no mistake about this, my dear brothers:

James 1:17 all that is good, all that is perfect, is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of all light; with him there is no such thing as alteration, no shadow caused by change.

James 1:18 By his own choice he gave birth to us by the message of the truth so that we should be a sort of first-fruits of all his creation.

James 1:19 Remember this, my dear brothers: everyone should be quick to listen but slow to speak and slow to human anger;

James 1:20 God's saving justice is never served by human anger;

James 1:21 so do away with all impurities and remnants of evil. Humbly welcome the Word which has been planted in you and can save your souls.

James 1:22 But you must do what the Word tells you and not just listen to it and deceive yourselves.

James 1:23 Anyone who listens to the Word and takes no action is like someone who looks at his own features in a mirror and,

James 1:24 once he has seen what he looks like, goes off and immediately forgets it.

James 1:25 But anyone who looks steadily at the perfect law of freedom and keeps to it—not listening and forgetting, but putting it into practice—will be blessed in every undertaking.

James 1:26 Nobody who fails to keep a tight rein on the tongue can claim to be religious; this is mere self-deception; that person's religion is worthless.

James 1:27 Pure, unspoilt religion, in the eyes of God our Father, is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows in their hardships, and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world.

James 2:1 My brothers, do not let class distinction enter into your faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord.

James 2:2 Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, well-dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes,

James 2:3 and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest.'

James 2:4 In making this distinction among yourselves have you not used a corrupt standard?

James 2:5 Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who were poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

James 2:6 You, on the other hand, have dishonoured the poor. Is it not the rich who lord it over you?

James 2:7 Are not they the ones who drag you into court, who insult the honourable name which has been pronounced over you?

James 2:8 Well, the right thing to do is to keep the supreme Law of scripture: you will love your neighbour as yourself;

James 2:9 but as soon as you make class distinctions, you are committing sin and under condemnation for breaking the Law.

James 2:10 You see, anyone who keeps the whole of the Law but trips up on a single point, is still guilty of breaking it all.

James 2:11 He who said, 'You must not commit adultery' said also, 'You must not kill.' Now if you commit murder, you need not commit adultery as well to become a breaker of the Law.

James 2:12 Talk and behave like people who are going to be judged by the law of freedom.

James 2:13 Whoever acts without mercy will be judged without mercy but mercy can afford to laugh at judgement.

James 2:14 How does it help, my brothers, when someone who has never done a single good act claims to have faith? Will that faith bring salvation?

James 2:15 If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on,

James 2:16 and one of you says to them, 'I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty,' without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that?

James 2:17 In the same way faith, if good deeds do not go with it, is quite dead.

James 2:18 But someone may say: So you have faith and I have good deeds? Show me this faith of yours without deeds, then! It is by my deeds that I will show you my faith.

James 2:19 You believe in the one God—that is creditable enough, but even the demons have the same belief, and they tremble with fear.

James 2:20 Fool! Would you not like to know that faith without deeds is useless?

James 2:21 Was not Abraham our father justified by his deed, because he offered his son Isaac on the altar?

James 2:22 So you can see that his faith was working together with his deeds; his faith became perfect by what he did.

James 2:23 In this way the scripture was fulfilled: Abraham put his faith in God, and this was considered as making him upright; and he received the name 'friend of God'.

James 2:24 You see now that it is by deeds, and not only by believing, that someone is justified.

James 2:25 There is another example of the same kind: Rahab the prostitute, was she not justified by her deeds because she welcomed the messengers and showed them a different way to leave?

James 2:26 As a body without a spirit is dead, so is faith without deeds.

James 3:1 Only a few of you, my brothers, should be teachers, bearing in mind that we shall receive a stricter judgement.

James 3:2 For we all trip up in many ways. Someone who does not trip up in speech has reached perfection and is able to keep the whole body on a tight rein.

James 3:3 Once we put a bit in the horse's mouth, to make it do what we want, we have the whole animal under our control.

James 3:4 Or think of ships: no matter how big they are, even if a gale is driving them, they are directed by a tiny rudder wherever the whim of the helmsman decides.

James 3:5 So the tongue is only a tiny part of the body, but its boasts are great. Think how small a flame can set fire to a huge forest;

James 3:6 The tongue is a flame too. Among all the parts of the body, the tongue is a whole wicked world: it infects the whole body; catching fire itself from hell, it sets fire to the whole wheel of creation.

James 3:7 Wild animals and birds, reptiles and fish of every kind can all be tamed, and have been tamed, by humans;

James 3:8 but nobody can tame the tongue—it is a pest that will not keep still, full of deadly poison.

James 3:9 We use it to bless the Lord and Father, but we also use it to curse people who are made in God's image:

James 3:10 the blessing and curse come out of the same mouth. My brothers, this must be wrong-

James 3:11 does any water supply give a flow of fresh water and salt water out of the same pipe?

James 3:12 Can a fig tree yield olives, my brothers, or a vine yield figs? No more can sea water yield fresh water.

James 3:13 Anyone who is wise or understanding among you should from a good life give evidence of deeds done in the gentleness of wisdom.

James 3:14 But if at heart you have the bitterness of jealousy, or selfish ambition, do not be boastful or hide the truth with lies;

James 3:15 this is not the wisdom that comes from above, but earthly, human and devilish.

James 3:16 Wherever there are jealousy and ambition, there are also disharmony and wickedness of every kind;

James 3:17 whereas the wisdom that comes down from above is essentially something pure; it is also peaceable, kindly and considerate; it is full of mercy and shows itself by doing good; nor is there any trace of partiality or hypocrisy in it.

James 4:1 Where do these wars and battles between yourselves first start? Is it not precisely in the desires fighting inside your own selves?

James 4:2 You want something and you lack it; so you kill. You have an ambition that you cannot satisfy; so you fight to get your way by force. It is because you do not pray that you do not receive;

James 4:3 when you do pray and do not receive, it is because you prayed wrongly, wanting to indulge your passions.

James 4:4 Adulterers! Do you not realise that love for the world is hatred for God? Anyone who chooses the world for a friend is constituted an enemy of God.

James 4:5 Can you not see the point of the saying in scripture, 'The longing of the spirit he sent to dwell in us is a jealous longing.'?

James 4:6 But he has given us an even greater grace, as scripture says: God opposes the proud but he accords his favour to the humble.

James 4:7 Give in to God, then; resist the devil, and he will run away from you.

James 4:8 The nearer you go to God, the nearer God will come to you. Clean your hands, you sinners, and clear your minds, you waverers.

James 4:9 Appreciate your wretchedness, and weep for it in misery. Your laughter must be turned to grief, your happiness to gloom.

James 4:10 Humble yourselves before the Lord and he will lift you up.

James 4:11 Brothers, do not slander one another. Anyone who slanders a brother, or condemns one, is speaking against the Law and condemning the Law. But if you condemn the Law, you have ceased to be subject to it and become a judge over it.

James 4:12 There is only one lawgiver and he is the only judge and has the power to save or to destroy. Who are you to give a verdict on your neighbour?

James 4:13 Well now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow, we are off to this or that town; we are going to spend a year there, trading, and make some money.'

James 4:14 You never know what will happen tomorrow: you are no more than a mist that appears for a little while and then disappears.

James 4:15 Instead of this, you should say, 'If it is the Lord's will, we shall still be alive to do this or that.'

James 4:16 But as it is, how boastful and loud—mouthed you are! Boasting of this kind is always wrong.

James 4:17 Everyone who knows what is the right thing to do and does not do it commits a sin.

James 5:1 Well now, you rich! Lament, weep for the miseries that are coming to you.

James 5:3 All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be a witness against you and eat into your body. It is like a fire which you have stored up for the final days.

James 5:4 Can you hear crying out against you the wages which you kept back from the labourers mowing your fields? The cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord Sabaoth.

James 5:5 On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content.

James 5:6 It was you who condemned the upright and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

James 5:7 Now be patient, brothers, until the Lord's coming. Think of a farmer: how patiently he waits for the precious fruit of the ground until it has had the autumn rains and the spring rains!

James 5:8 You too must be patient; do not lose heart, because the Lord's coming will be soon.

James 5:9 Do not make complaints against one another, brothers, so as not to be brought to judgement yourselves; the Judge is already to be seen waiting at the gates.

James 5:10 For your example, brothers, in patiently putting up with persecution, take the prophets who spoke in the Lord's name;

James 5:11 remember it is those who had perseverance that we say are the blessed ones. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and understood the Lord's purpose, realising that the Lord is kind and compassionate.

James 5:12 Above all, my brothers, do not swear by heaven or by the earth or use any oaths at all. If you mean 'yes', you must say 'yes'; if you mean 'no', say 'no'. Otherwise you make yourselves liable to judgement.

James 5:13 Any one of you who is in trouble should pray; anyone in good spirits should sing a psalm.

James 5:14 Any one of you who is ill should send for the elders of the church, and they must anoint the sick person with oil in the name of the Lord and pray over him.

James 5:15 The prayer of faith will save the sick person and the Lord will raise him up again; and if he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven.

James 5:16 So confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another to be cured; the heartfelt prayer of someone upright works very powerfully.

James 5:17 Elijah was a human being as frail as ourselves—he prayed earnestly for it not to rain, and no rain fell for three and a half years;

James 5:18 then he prayed again and the sky gave rain and the earth gave crops.

James 5:19 My brothers, if one of you strays away from the truth, and another brings him back to it,

James 5:20 he may be sure that anyone who can bring back a sinner from his erring ways will be saving his soul from death and covering over many a sin.

1 Peter

1:1 Peter, apostle of Jesus Christ, to all those living as aliens in the Dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, who have been chosen,

1 Peter 1:2 in the foresight of God the Father, to be made holy by the Spirit, obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with his blood: Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead

1 Peter 1:4 and into a heritage that can never be spoilt or soiled and never fade away. It is reserved in heaven for you

1 Peter 1:5 who are being kept safe by God’s power through faith until the salvation which has been prepared is revealed at the final point of time.

1 Peter 1:6 This is a great joy to you, even though for a short time yet you must bear all sorts of trials;

1 Peter 1:7 so that the worth of your faith, more valuable than gold, which is perishable even if it has been tested by fire, may be proved—to your praise and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed.

1 Peter 1:8 You have not seen him, yet you love him; and still without seeing him you believe in him and so are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described;

1 Peter 1:9 and you are sure of the goal of your faith, that is, the salvation of your souls.

1 Peter 1:10 This salvation was the subject of the search and investigation of the prophets who spoke of the grace you were to receive,

1 Peter 1:11 searching out the time and circumstances for which the Spirit of Christ, bearing witness in them, was revealing the sufferings of Christ and the glories to follow them.

1 Peter 1:12 It was revealed to them that it was for your sake and not their own that they were acting as servants delivering the message which has now been announced to you by those who preached to you the gospel through the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even the angels long to catch a glimpse of these things.

1 Peter 1:13 Your minds, then, must be sober and ready for action; put all your hope in the grace brought to you by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 1:14 Do not allow yourselves to be shaped by the passions of your old ignorance,

1 Peter 1:15 but as obedient children, be yourselves holy in all your activity, after the model of the Holy One who calls us,

1 Peter 1:16 since scripture says, 'Be holy, for I am holy.'

1 Peter 1:17 And if you address as Father him who judges without favouritism according to each individual's deeds, live out the time of your exile here in reverent awe.

1 Peter 1:18 For you know that the price of your ransom from the futile way of life handed down from your ancestors was paid, not in anything perishable like silver or gold,

1 Peter 1:19 but in precious blood as of a blameless and spotless lamb, Christ.

1 Peter 1:20 He was marked out before the world was made, and was revealed at the final point of time for your sake.

1 Peter 1:21 Through him you now have faith in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory for this very purpose—that your faith and hope should be in God.

1 Peter 1:22 Since by your obedience to the truth you have purified yourselves so that you can experience the genuine love of brothers, love each other intensely from the heart;

1 Peter 1:23 for your new birth was not from any perishable seed but from imperishable seed, the living and enduring Word of God.

1 Peter 1:24 For all humanity is grass, and all its beauty like the wild flower's. As grass withers, the flower fades,

1 Peter 1:25 but the Word of the Lord remains for ever. And this Word is the Good News that has been brought to you.

1 Peter 2:1 Rid yourselves, then, of all spite, deceit, hypocrisy, envy and carping criticism.

1 Peter 2:2 Like new-born babies all your longing should be for milk—the unadulterated spiritual milk—which will help you to grow up to salvation,

1 Peter 2:3 at any rate if you have tasted that the Lord is good .

1 Peter 2:4 He is the living stone, rejected by human beings but chosen by God and precious to him; set yourselves close to him

1 Peter 2:5 so that you, too, may be living stones making a spiritual house as a holy priesthood to offer the spiritual sacrifices made acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:6 As scripture says: Now I am laying a stone in Zion, a chosen, precious cornerstone and no one who relies on this will be brought to disgrace.

1 Peter 2:7 To you believers it brings honour. But for unbelievers, it is rather a stone which the builders rejected that became a cornerstone,

1 Peter 2:8 a stumbling stone, a rock to trip people up. They stumble over it because they do not believe in the Word; it was the fate in store for them.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a kingdom of priests, a holy nation, a people to be a personal possession to sing the praises of God who called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

1 Peter 2:10 Once you were a non-people and now you are the People of God; once you were outside his pity; now you have received pity.

1 Peter 2:11 I urge you, my dear friends, as strangers and nomads, to keep yourselves free from the disordered natural inclinations that attack the soul.

1 Peter 2:12 Always behave honourably among gentiles so that they can see for themselves what moral lives you lead, and when the day of reckoning comes, give thanks to God for the things which now make them denounce you as criminals.

1 Peter 2:13 For the sake of the Lord, accept the authority of every human institution: the emperor, as the supreme authority,

1 Peter 2:14 and the governors as commissioned by him to punish criminals and praise those who do good.

1 Peter 2:15 It is God’s will that by your good deeds you should silence the ignorant talk of fools.

1 Peter 2:16 You are slaves of no one except God, so behave like free people, and never use your freedom as a cover for wickedness.

1 Peter 2:17 Have respect for everyone and love for your fellow-believers; fear God and honour the emperor.

1 Peter 2:18 Slaves, you should obey your masters respectfully, not only those who are kind and reasonable but also those who are difficult to please.

1 Peter 2:19 You see, there is merit if, in awareness of God, you put up with the pains of undeserved punishment;

1 Peter 2:20 but what glory is there in putting up with a beating after you have done something wrong? The merit in the sight of God is in putting up with it patiently when you are punished for doing your duty.

1 Peter 2:21 This, in fact, is what you were called to do, because Christ suffered for you and left an example for you to follow in his steps.

1 Peter 2:22 He had done nothing wrong, and had spoken no deceit.

1 Peter 2:23 He was insulted and did not retaliate with insults; when he was suffering he made no threats but put his trust in the upright judge.

1 Peter 2:24 He was bearing our sins in his own body on the cross, so that we might die to our sins and live for uprightness; through his bruises you have been healed.

1 Peter 2:25 You had gone astray like sheep but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

1 Peter 3:1 In the same way, you wives should be obedient to your husbands. Then if there are some husbands who do not believe the Word, they may find themselves won over, without a word spoken, by the way their wives behave,

1 Peter 3:2 when they see the reverence and purity of your way of life.

1 Peter 3:3 Your adornment should be not an exterior one, consisting of braided hair or gold jewellery or fine clothing,

1 Peter 3:4 but the interior disposition of the heart, consisting in the imperishable quality of a gentle and peaceful spirit, so precious in the sight of God.

1 Peter 3:5 That was how the holy women of the past dressed themselves attractively—they hoped in God and were submissive to their husbands;

1 Peter 3:6 like Sarah, who was obedient to Abraham, and called him her lord. You are now her children, as long as you live good lives free from fear and worry.

1 Peter 3:7 In the same way, husbands must always treat their wives with consideration in their life together, respecting a woman as one who, though she may be the weaker partner, is equally an heir to the generous gift of life. This will prevent anything from coming in the way of your prayers.

1 Peter 3:8 Finally: you should all agree among yourselves and be sympathetic; love the brothers, have compassion and be self-effacing.

1 Peter 3:9 Never repay one wrong with another, or one abusive word with another; instead, repay with a blessing. That is what you are called to do, so that you inherit a blessing.

1 Peter 3:10 For Who among you delights in life, longs for time to enjoy prosperity? Guard your tongue from evil, your lips from any breath of deceit.

1 Peter 3:11 Turn away from evil and do good, seek peace and pursue it.

1 Peter 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the upright, his ear turned to their cry. But the Lord’s face is set against those who do evil.

1 Peter 3:13 No one can hurt you if you are determined to do only what is right;

1 Peter 3:14 and blessed are you if you have to suffer for being upright. Have no dread of them; have no fear.

1 Peter 3:15 Simply proclaim the Lord Christ holy in your hearts, and always have your answer ready for people who ask you the reason for the hope that you have.

1 Peter 3:16 But give it with courtesy and respect and with a clear conscience, so that those who slander your good behaviour in Christ may be ashamed of their accusations.

1 Peter 3:17 And if it is the will of God that you should suffer, it is better to suffer for doing right than for doing wrong.

1 Peter 3:18 Christ himself died once and for all for sins, the upright for the sake of the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life,

1 Peter 3:19 and, in the spirit, he went to preach to the spirits in prison.

1 Peter 3:20 They refused to believe long ago, while God patiently waited to receive them, in Noah's time when the ark was being built. In it only a few, that is eight souls, were saved through water.

1 Peter 3:21 It is the baptism corresponding to this water which saves you now—not the washing off of physical dirt but the pledge of a good conscience given to God through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

1 Peter 3:22 who has entered heaven and is at God's right hand, with angels, ruling forces and powers subject to him.

1 Peter 4:1 As Christ has undergone bodily suffering, you too should arm yourselves with the same conviction, that anyone who has undergone bodily suffering has broken with sin,

1 Peter 4:2 because for the rest of life on earth that person is ruled not by human passions but only by the will of God.

1 Peter 4:3 You spent quite long enough in the past living the sort of life that gentiles choose to live, behaving in a debauched way, giving way to your passions, drinking to excess, having wild parties and drunken orgies and sacrilegiously worshipping false gods.

1 Peter 4:4 So people are taken aback that you no longer hurry off with them to join this flood which is rushing down to ruin, and then abuse you for it.

1 Peter 4:5 They will have to answer for it before the judge who is to judge the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4:6 And this was why the gospel was brought to the dead as well, so that, though in their bodies they had undergone the judgement that faces all humanity, in their spirit they might enjoy the life of God.

1 Peter 4:7 The end of all things is near, so keep your minds calm and sober for prayer.

1 Peter 4:8 Above all preserve an intense love for each other, since love covers over many a sin.

1 Peter 4:9 Welcome each other into your houses without grumbling.

1 Peter 4:10 Each one of you has received a special grace, so, like good stewards responsible for all these varied graces of God, put it at the service of others.

1 Peter 4:11 If anyone is a speaker, let it be as the words of God, if anyone serves, let it be as in strength granted by God; so that in everything God may receive the glory, through Jesus Christ, since to him alone belong all glory and power for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 4:12 My dear friends, do not be taken aback at the testing by fire which is taking place among you, as though something strange were happening to you;

1 Peter 4:13 but in so far as you share in the sufferings of Christ, be glad, so that you may enjoy a much greater gladness when his glory is revealed.

1 Peter 4:14 If you are insulted for bearing Christ's name, blessed are you, for on you rests the Spirit of God, the Spirit of glory.

1 Peter 4:15 None of you should ever deserve to suffer for being a murderer, a thief, a criminal or an informer;

1 Peter 4:16 but if any one of you should suffer for being a Christian, then there must be no shame but thanksgiving to God for bearing this name.

1 Peter 4:17 The time has come for the judgement to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the end for those who refuse to believe God's gospel?

1 Peter 4:18 If it is hard for the upright to be saved, what will happen to the wicked and to sinners?

1 Peter 4:19 So even those whom God allows to suffer should commit themselves to a Creator who is trustworthy, and go on doing good.

1 Peter 5:1 I urge the elders among you, as a fellow-elder myself and a witness to the sufferings of Christ, and as one who is to have a share in the glory that is to be revealed:

1 Peter 5:2 give a shepherd's care to the flock of God that is entrusted to you: watch over it, not simply as a duty but gladly, as God wants; not for sordid money, but because you are eager to do it.

1 Peter 5:3 Do not lord it over the group which is in your charge, but be an example for the flock.

1 Peter 5:4 When the chief shepherd appears, you will be given the unfading crown of glory.

1 Peter 5:5 In the same way, younger people, be subject to the elders. Humility towards one another must be the garment you all wear constantly, because God opposes the proud but accords his favour to the humble.

1 Peter 5:6 Bow down, then, before the power of God now, so that he may raise you up in due time;

1 Peter 5:7 unload all your burden on to him, since he is concerned about you.

1 Peter 5:8 Keep sober and alert, because your enemy the devil is on the prowl like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour.

1 Peter 5:9 Stand up to him, strong in faith and in the knowledge that it is the same kind of suffering that the community of your brothers throughout the world is undergoing.

1 Peter 5:10 You will have to suffer only for a little while: the God of all grace who called you to eternal glory in Christ will restore you, he will confirm, strengthen and support you.

1 Peter 5:11 His power lasts for ever and ever. Amen.

1 Peter 5:12 I write these few words to you through Silvanus, who is a trustworthy brother, to encourage you and attest that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it!

1 Peter 5:13 Your sister in Babylon, who is with you among the chosen, sends you greetings; so does my son, Mark.

1 Peter 5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to you all who are in Christ.

2 Peter

1:1 Simon Peter, servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received a faith as precious as our own, given through the saving justice of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:2 Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of our Lord.

2 Peter 1:3 By his divine power, he has lavished on us all the things we need for life and for true devotion, through the knowledge of him who has called us by his own glory and goodness.

2 Peter 1:4 Through these, the greatest and priceless promises have been lavished on us, that through them you should share the divine nature and escape the corruption rife in the world through disordered passion.

2 Peter 1:5 With this in view, do your utmost to support your faith with goodness, goodness with understanding,

2 Peter 1:6 understanding with self-control, self-control with perseverance, perseverance with devotion,

2 Peter 1:7 devotion with kindness to the brothers, and kindness to the brothers with love.

2 Peter 1:8 The possession and growth of these qualities will prevent your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ from being ineffectual or unproductive.

2 Peter 1:9 But without them, a person is blind or short-sighted, forgetting how the sins of the past were washed away.

2 Peter 1:10 Instead of this, brothers, never allow your choice or calling to waver; then there will be no danger of your stumbling,

2 Peter 1:11 for in this way you will be given the generous gift of entry to the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:12 That is why I will always go on recalling the same truths to you, even though you already know them and are firmly fixed in these truths.

2 Peter 1:13 I am sure it is my duty, as long as I am in this tent, to keep stirring you up with reminders,

2 Peter 1:14 since I know the time for me to lay aside this tent is coming soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.

2 Peter 1:15 And I shall take great care that after my own departure you will still have a means to recall these things to mind.

2 Peter 1:16 When we told you about the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, we were not slavishly repeating cleverly invented myths; no, we had seen his majesty with our own eyes.

2 Peter 1:17 He was honoured and glorified by God the Father, when a voice came to him from the transcendent Glory, This is my Son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favour.

2 Peter 1:18 We ourselves heard this voice from heaven, when we were with him on the holy mountain.

2 Peter 1:19 So we have confirmation of the words of the prophets; and you will be right to pay attention to it as to a lamp for lighting a way through the dark, until the dawn comes and the morning star rises in your minds.

2 Peter 1:20 At the same time, we must recognise that the interpretation of scriptural prophecy is never a matter for the individual.

2 Peter 1:21 For no prophecy ever came from human initiative. When people spoke for God it was the Holy Spirit that moved them.

2 Peter 2:1 As there were false prophets in the past history of our people, so you too will have your false teachers, who will insinuate their own disruptive views and, by disowning the Lord who bought them freedom, will bring upon themselves speedy destruction.

2 Peter 2:2 Many will copy their debauched behaviour, and the Way of Truth will be brought into disrepute on their account.

2 Peter 2:3 In their greed they will try to make a profit out of you with untrue tales. But the judgement made upon them long ago is not idle, and the destruction awaiting them is for ever on the watch.

2 Peter 2:4 When angels sinned, God did not spare them: he sent them down into the underworld and consigned them to the dark abyss to be held there until the Judgement.

2 Peter 2:5 He did not spare the world in ancient times: he saved only Noah, the preacher of uprightness, along with seven others, when he sent the Flood over a world of sinners.

2 Peter 2:6 He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by reducing them to ashes as a warning to future sinners;

2 Peter 2:7 but rescued Lot, an upright man who had been sickened by the debauched way in which these vile people behaved-

2 Peter 2:8 for that upright man, living among them, was outraged in his upright soul by the crimes that he saw and heard every day.

2 Peter 2:9 All this shows that the Lord is well able to rescue the good from their trials, and hold the wicked for their punishment until the Day of Judgement,

2 Peter 2:10 especially those who follow the desires of their corrupt human nature and have no respect for the Lord's authority. Such self-willed people with no reverence are not afraid of offending against the glorious ones,

2 Peter 2:11 but the angels in their greater strength and power make no complaint or accusation against them in the Lord's presence.

2 Peter 2:12 But these people speak evil of what they do not understand; they are like brute beasts, born only to be caught and killed, and like beasts they will be destroyed, being injured in return for the injuries they have inflicted.

2 Peter 2:13 Debauchery even by day they make their pleasure; they are unsightly blots, and amuse themselves by their trickery even when they are sharing your table;

2 Peter 2:14 with their eyes always looking for adultery, people with an insatiable capacity for sinning, they will seduce any but the most stable soul. Where greed is concerned they are at their peak of fitness. They are under a curse.

2 Peter 2:15 They have left the right path and wandered off to follow the path of Balaam son of Bosor, who set his heart on a dishonest reward, but soon had his fault pointed out to him:

2 Peter 2:16 a dumb beast of burden, speaking with a human voice, put a stop to the madness of the prophet.

2 Peter 2:17 People like this are dried-up springs, fogs swirling in the wind, and the gloom of darkness is stored up for them.

2 Peter 2:18 With their high-sounding but empty talk they tempt back people who have scarcely escaped from those who live in error, by playing on the disordered desires of their human nature and by debaucheries.

2 Peter 2:19 They may promise freedom but are themselves slaves to corruption; because if anyone lets himself be dominated by anything, then he is a slave to it;

2 Peter 2:20 and anyone who has escaped the pollution of the world by coming to know our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, and who then allows himself to be entangled and mastered by it a second time, ends up by being worse than he was before.

2 Peter 2:21 It would have been better for them never to have learnt the way of uprightness, than to learn it and then desert the holy commandment that was entrusted to them.

2 Peter 2:22 What they have done is exactly as the proverb rightly says: The dog goes back to its vomit and: As soon as the sow has been washed, it wallows in the mud.

2 Peter 3:1 My dear friends, this is the second letter I have written to you, trying to awaken in you by my reminders an unclouded understanding.

2 Peter 3:2 Remember what was said in the past by the holy prophets and the command of the Lord and Saviour given by your apostles.

2 Peter 3:3 First of all, do not forget that in the final days there will come sarcastic scoffers whose life is ruled by their passions.

2 Peter 3:4 'What has happened to the promise of his coming?' they will say, 'Since our Fathers died everything has gone on just as it has since the beginning of creation!'

2 Peter 3:5 They deliberately ignore the fact that long ago there were the heavens and the earth, formed out of water and through water by the Word of God,

2 Peter 3:6 and that it was through these same factors that the world of those days was destroyed by the floodwaters.

2 Peter 3:7 It is the same Word which is reserving the present heavens and earth for fire, keeping them till the Day of Judgement and of the destruction of sinners.

2 Peter 3:8 But there is one thing, my dear friends, that you must never forget: that with the Lord, a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not being slow in carrying out his promises, as some people think he is; rather is he being patient with you, wanting nobody to be lost and everybody to be brought to repentance.

2 Peter 3:10 The Day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then with a roar the sky will vanish, the elements will catch fire and melt away, the earth and all that it contains will be burned up.

2 Peter 3:11 Since everything is coming to an end like this, what holy and saintly lives you should be living

2 Peter 3:12 while you wait for the Day of God to come, and try to hasten its coming: on that Day the sky will dissolve in flames and the elements melt in the heat.

2 Peter 3:13 What we are waiting for, relying on his promises, is the new heavens and new earth, where uprightness will be at home.

2 Peter 3:14 So then, my dear friends, while you are waiting, do your best to live blameless and unsullied lives so that he will find you at peace.

2 Peter 3:15 Think of our Lord's patience as your opportunity to be saved; our brother Paul, who is so dear to us, told you this when he wrote to you with the wisdom that he was given.

2 Peter 3:16 He makes this point too in his letters as a whole wherever he touches on these things. In all his letters there are of course some passages which are hard to understand, and these are the ones that uneducated and unbalanced people distort, in the same way as they distort the rest of scripture -to their own destruction.

2 Peter 3:17 Since you have been forewarned about this, my dear friends, be careful that you do not come to the point of losing the firm ground that you are standing on, carried away by the errors of unprincipled people.

2 Peter 3:18 Instead, continue to grow in the grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory, in time and eternity. Amen.

1 John

1:1 Something which has existed since the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our own eyes, which we have watched and touched with our own hands, the Word of life—this is our theme.

1 John 1:2 That life was made visible; we saw it and are giving our testimony, declaring to you the eternal life, which was present to the Father and has been revealed to us.

1 John 1:3 We are declaring to you what we have seen and heard, so that you too may share our life. Our life is shared with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.

1 John 1:4 We are writing this to you so that our joy may be complete.

1 John 1:5 This is what we have heard from him and are declaring to you: God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all.

1 John 1:6 If we say that we share in God's life while we are living in darkness, we are lying, because we are not living the truth.

1 John 1:7 But if we live in light, as he is in light, we have a share in another's life, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.

1 John 1:8 If we say, 'We have no sin,' we are deceiving ourselves, and truth has no place in us;

1 John 1:9 if we acknowledge our sins, he is trustworthy and upright, so that he will forgive our sins and will cleanse us from all evil.

1 John 1:10 If we say, 'We have never sinned,' we make him a liar, and his word has no place in us.

1 John 2:1 My children, I am writing this to prevent you from sinning; but if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the upright.

1 John 2:2 He is the sacrifice to expiate our sins, and not only ours, but also those of the whole world.

1 John 2:3 In this way we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments.

1 John 2:4 Whoever says, 'I know him' without keeping his commandments, is a liar, and truth has no place in him.

1 John 2:5 But anyone who does keep his word, in such a one God's love truly reaches its perfection. This is the proof that we are in God.

1 John 2:6 Whoever claims to remain in him must act as he acted.

1 John 2:7 My dear friends, this is not a new commandment I am writing for you, but an old commandment that you have had from the beginning; the old commandment is the message you have heard.

1 John 2:8 Yet in another way, I am writing a new commandment for you—and this is true for you, just as much as for him—for darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.

1 John 2:9 Whoever claims to be in light but hates his brother is still in darkness.

1 John 2:10 Anyone who loves his brother remains in light and there is in him nothing to make him fall away.

1 John 2:11 But whoever hates his brother is in darkness and is walking about in darkness not knowing where he is going, because darkness has blinded him.

1 John 2:12 I am writing to you, children, because your sins have been forgiven through his name.

1 John 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you have come to know the One who has existed since the beginning. I am writing to you, young people, because you have overcome the Evil One.

1 John 2:14 I have written to you, children, because you have come to know the Father. I have written to you, parents, because you have come to know the One who has existed since the beginning. I have written to you, young people, because you are strong, and God’s word remains in you, and you have overcome the Evil One.

1 John 2:15 Do not love the world or what is in the world. If anyone does love the world, the love of the Father finds no place in him,

1 John 2:16 because everything there is in the world—disordered bodily desires, disordered desires of the eyes, pride in possession—is not from the Father but is from the world.

1 John 2:17 And the world, with all its disordered desires, is passing away. But whoever does the will of God remains for ever.

1 John 2:18 Children, this is the final hour; you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, and now many Antichrists have already come; from this we know that it is the final hour.

1 John 2:19 They have gone from among us, but they never really belonged to us; if they had belonged to us, they would have stayed with us. But this was to prove that not one of them belonged to us.

1 John 2:20 But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and have all received knowledge.

1 John 2:21 I have written to you not because you are ignorant of the truth, but because you are well aware of it, and because no lie can come from the truth.

1 John 2:22 Who is the liar, if not one who claims that Jesus is not the Christ? This is the Antichrist, who denies both the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:23 Whoever denies the Son cannot have the Father either; whoever acknowledges the Son has the Father too.

1 John 2:24 Let what you heard in the beginning remain in you; as long as what you heard in the beginning remains in you, you will remain in the Son and in the Father.

1 John 2:25 And the promise he made you himself is eternal life.

1 John 2:26 So much have I written to you about those who are trying to lead you astray.

1 John 2:27 But as for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you; since the anointing he gave you teaches you everything, and since it is true, not false, remain in him just as he has taught you.

1 John 2:28 Therefore remain in him now, children, so that when he appears we may be fearless, and not shrink from him in shame at his coming.

1 John 2:29 If you know that he is upright you must recognise that everyone whose life is upright is a child of his.

1 John 3:1 You must see what great love the Father has lavished on us by letting us be called God’s children—which is what we are! The reason why the world does not acknowledge us is that it did not acknowledge him.

1 John 3:2 My dear friends, we are already God’s children, but what we shall be in the future has not yet been revealed. We are well aware that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he really is.

1 John 3:3 Whoever treasures this hope of him purifies himself, to be as pure as he is.

1 John 3:4 Whoever sins, acts wickedly, because all sin is wickedness.

1 John 3:5 Now you are well aware that he has appeared in order to take sins away, and that in him there is no sin.

1 John 3:6 No one who remains in him sins, and whoever sins has neither seen him nor recognised him.

1 John 3:7 Children, do not let anyone lead you astray. Whoever acts uprightly is upright, just as he is upright.

1 John 3:8 Whoever lives sinfully belongs to the devil, since the devil has been a sinner from the beginning. This was the purpose of the appearing of the Son of God, to undo the work of the devil.

1 John 3:9 No one who is a child of God sins because God’s seed remains in him. Nor can he sin, because he is a child of God.

1 John 3:10 This is what distinguishes the children of God from the children of the devil: whoever does not live uprightly and does not love his brother is not from God.

1 John 3:11 This is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we must love one another,

1 John 3:12 not to be like Cain, who was from the Evil One and murdered his brother. And why did he murder his brother? Because his own actions were evil and his brother’s upright.

1 John 3:13 Do not be surprised, brothers, if the world hates you.

1 John 3:14 We are well aware that we have passed over from death to life because we love our brothers. Whoever does not love, remains in death.

1 John 3:15 Anyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you are well aware that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

1 John 3:16 This is the proof of love, that he laid down his life for us, and we too ought to lay down our lives for our brothers.

1 John 3:17 If anyone is well-off in worldly possessions and sees his brother in need but closes his heart to him, how can the love of God be remaining in him?

1 John 3:18 Children, our love must be not just words or mere talk, but something active and genuine.

1 John 3:19 This will be the proof that we belong to the truth, and it will convince us in his presence,

1 John 3:20 even if our own feelings condemn us, that God is greater than our feelings and knows all things.

1 John 3:21 My dear friends, if our own feelings do not condemn us, we can be fearless before God,

1 John 3:22 and whatever we ask we shall receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what is acceptable to him.

1 John 3:23 His commandment is this, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and that we should love one another as he commanded us.

1 John 3:24 Whoever keeps his commandments remains in God, and God in him. And this is the proof that he remains in us: the Spirit that he has given us.

1 John 4:1 My dear friends, not every spirit is to be trusted, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets are at large in the world.

1 John 4:2 This is the proof of the spirit of God: any spirit which acknowledges Jesus Christ, come in human nature, is from God,

1 John 4:3 and no spirit which fails to acknowledge Jesus is from God; it is the spirit of Antichrist, whose coming you have heard of; he is already at large in the world.

1 John 4:4 Children, you are from God and have overcome them, because he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.

1 John 4:5 They are from the world, and therefore the world inspires what they say, and listens to them.

1 John 4:6 We are from God; whoever recognises God listens to us; anyone who is not from God refuses to listen to us. This is how we can distinguish the spirit of truth from the spirit of falsehood.

1 John 4:7 My dear friends, let us love one another, since love is from God and everyone who loves is a child of God and knows God.

1 John 4:8 Whoever fails to love does not know God, because God is love.

1 John 4:9 This is the revelation of God’s love for us, that God sent his only Son into the world that we might have life through him.

1 John 4:10 Love consists in this: it is not we who loved God, but God loved us and sent his Son to expiate our sins.

1 John 4:11 My dear friends, if God loved us so much, we too should love one another.

1 John 4:12 No one has ever seen God, but as long as we love one another God remains in us and his love comes to its perfection in us.

1 John 4:13 This is the proof that we remain in him and he in us, that he has given us a share in his Spirit.

1 John 4:14 We ourselves have seen and testify that the Father sent his Son as Saviour of the world.

1 John 4:15 Anyone who acknowledges that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him and he in God.

1 John 4:16 We have recognised for ourselves, and put our faith in, the love God has for us. God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him.

1 John 4:17 Love comes to its perfection in us when we can face the Day of Judgement fearlessly, because even in this world we have become as he is.

1 John 4:18 In love there is no room for fear, but perfect love drives out fear, because fear implies punishment and no one who is afraid has come to perfection in love.

1 John 4:19 Let us love, then, because he first loved us.

1 John 4:20 Anyone who says 'I love God' and hates his brother, is a liar, since whoever does not love the brother whom he can see cannot love God whom he has not seen.

1 John 4:21 Indeed this is the commandment we have received from him, that whoever loves God, must also love his brother.

1 John 5:1 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God, and whoever loves the father loves the son.

1 John 5:2 In this way we know that we love God's children, when we love God and keep his commandments.

1 John 5:3 This is what the love of God is: keeping his commandments. Nor are his commandments burdensome,

1 John 5:4 because every child of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

1 John 5:5 Who can overcome the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

1 John 5:6 He it is who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with water alone but with water and blood, and it is the Spirit that bears witness, for the Spirit is Truth.

1 John 5:7 So there are three witnesses,

1 John 5:8 the Spirit, water and blood; and the three of them coincide.

1 John 5:9 If we accept the testimony of human witnesses, God's testimony is greater, for this is God's testimony which he gave about his Son.

1 John 5:10 Whoever believes in the Son of God has this testimony within him, and whoever does not believe is making God a liar, because he has not believed the testimony God has given about his Son.

1 John 5:11 This is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

1 John 5:12 Whoever has the Son has life, and whoever has not the Son of God has not life.

1 John 5:13 I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God so that you may know that you have eternal life.

1 John 5:14 Our fearlessness towards him consists in this, that if we ask anything in accordance with his will he hears us.

1 John 5:15 And if we know that he listens to whatever we ask him, we know that we already possess whatever we have asked of him.

1 John 5:16 If anyone sees his brother commit a sin that is not a deadly sin, he has only to pray, and God will give life to this brother—provided that it is not a deadly sin. There is sin that leads to death and I am not saying you must pray about that.

1 John 5:17 Every kind of wickedness is sin, but not all sin leads to death.

1 John 5:18 We are well aware that no one who is a child of God sins, because he who was born from God protects him, and the Evil One has no hold over him.

1 John 5:19 We are well aware that we are from God, and the whole world is in the power of the Evil One.

1 John 5:20 We are well aware also that the Son of God has come, and has given us understanding so that we may know the One who is true. We are in the One who is true as we are in his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the true God and this is eternal life. Children, be on your guard against false gods.

2 John

1:1 From the Elder: my greetings to the Lady, the chosen one, and to her children, whom I love in truth—and I am not the only one, for so do all who have come to know the Truth—and I am not the only one, for so so do all who have come to know the Truth-

2 John 1:2 because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us for ever.

2 John 1:3 In our life of truth and love, we shall have grace, faithful love and peace from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father.

2 John 1:4 It has given me great joy to find that children of yours have been living the life of truth as we were commanded by the Father.

2 John 1:5 And now I am asking you—dear lady, not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but only the one which we have had from the beginning—that we should love one another.

2 John 1:6 To love is to live according to his commandments: this is the commandment which you have heard since the beginning, to live a life of love.

2 John 1:7 There are many deceivers at large in the world, refusing to acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in human nature. They are the Deceiver; they are the Antichrist.

2 John 1:8 Watch yourselves, or all our work will be lost and you will forfeit your full reward.

2 John 1:9 If anybody does not remain in the teaching of Christ but goes beyond it, he does not have God with him: only those who remain in what he taught can have the Father and the Son with them.

2 John 1:10 If anyone comes to you bringing a different doctrine, you must not receive him into your house or even give him a greeting.

2 John 1:11 Whoever greets him has a share in his wicked activities.

2 John 1:12 There are several things I have to tell you, but I have thought it best not to trust them to paper and ink. I hope instead to visit you and talk to you in person, so that our joy may be complete.

2 John 1:13 Greetings to you from the children of your sister, the chosen one.

3 John

1:1 From the Elder: greetings to my dear friend Gaius, whom I love in truth.

3 John 1:2 My dear friend, I hope everything is going happily with you and that you are as well physically as you are spiritually.

3 John 1:3 It was a great joy to me when some brothers came and told of your faithfulness to the truth, and of your life in the truth.

3 John 1:4 It is always my greatest joy to hear that my children are living according to the truth.

3 John 1:5 My dear friend, you have done loyal work in helping these brothers, even though they were strangers to you.

3 John 1:6 They are a proof to the whole Church of your love and it would be a kindness if you could help them on their journey as God would approve.

3 John 1:7 It was entirely for the sake of the name that they set out, without depending on the non-believers for anything:

3 John 1:8 it is our duty to welcome people of this sort and contribute our share to their work for the truth.

3 John 1:9 I have written a note for the members of the church, but Diotrephes, who enjoys being in charge of it, refuses to accept us.

3 John 1:10 So if I come, I shall tell everyone how he has behaved, and about the wicked accusations he has been circulating against us. As if that were not enough, he not only refuses to welcome our brothers, but prevents from doing so other people who would have liked to, and expels them from the church.

3 John 1:11 My dear friend, never follow a bad example, but keep following the good one; whoever does what is right is from God, but no one who does what is wrong has ever seen God.

3 John 1:12 Demetrius has been approved by everyone, and indeed by Truth itself. We too will vouch for him and you know that our testimony is true.

3 John 1:13 There were several things I had to tell you but I would rather not trust them to pen and ink.

3 John 1:14 However, I hope to see you soon and talk to you in person.

3 John 1:15 Peace be with you; greetings from your friends; greet each of our friends by name.

Juda

1:1 From Jude, servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James; to those who are called, to those who are dear to God the Father and kept safe for Jesus Christ,

Juda 1:2 mercy, peace and love be yours in abundance.

Juda 1:3 My dear friends, at a time when I was eagerly looking forward to writing to you about the salvation that we all share, I felt that I must write to you encouraging you to fight hard for the faith which has been once and for all entrusted to God’s holy people.

Juda 1:4 Certain people have infiltrated among you, who were long ago marked down for condemnation on this account; without any reverence they pervert the grace of our God to debauchery and deny all religion, rejecting our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:5 I should like to remind you—though you have already learnt it once and for all—that the Lord rescued the nation from Egypt, but afterwards he still destroyed the people who refused to believe him;

Juda 1:6 and the angels who did not keep to the authority they had, but left their appointed sphere, he has kept in darkness in eternal bonds until the judgement of the great Day.

Juda 1:7 Sodom and Gomorrah, too, and the neighbouring towns, who with the same sexual immorality pursued unnatural lusts, are put before us as an example since they are paying the penalty of eternal fire.

Juda 1:8 Nevertheless, these people are doing the same: in their delusions they not only defile their bodies and disregard Authority, but abuse the Glories as well.

Juda 1:9 Not even the archangel Michael, when he was engaged in argument with the devil about the corpse of Moses, dared to denounce him in the language of abuse; all he said was, ‘May the Lord rebuke you.’

Juda 1:10 But these people abuse anything they do not understand; and the only things they do understand—merely by nature like unreasoning animals—will turn out to be fatal to them.

Juda 1:11 Alas for them, because they have followed Cain; they have thrown themselves into the same delusion as Balaam for a reward; they have been ruined by the same rebellion as Korah -and share the same fate.

Juda 1:12 They are a dangerous hazard at your community meals, coming for the food and quite shamelessly only looking after themselves. They are like the clouds blown about by the winds and bringing no rain, or like autumn trees, barren and uprooted and so twice dead;

Juda 1:13 like wild sea waves with their own shame for foam; or like wandering stars for whom the gloom of darkness is stored up for ever.

Juda 1:14 It was with them in mind that Enoch, the seventh patriarch from Adam, made his prophecy when he said, ‘I tell you, the Lord will come with his holy ones in their tens of thousands,

Juda 1:15 to pronounce judgement on all humanity and to sentence the godless for all the godless things they have done, and for all the defiant things said against him by godless sinners.’

Juda 1:16 They are mischief-makers, grumblers governed only by their own desires, with mouths full of boastful talk, ready to flatter others for gain.

Juda 1:17 But remember, my dear friends, what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ foretold.

Juda 1:18 ‘At the final point of time’, they told you, ‘there will be mockers who follow nothing but their own godless desires.’

Juda 1:19 It is they who cause division, who live according to nature and do not possess the Spirit.

Juda 1:20 But you, my dear friends, must build yourselves up on the foundation of your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit;

Juda 1:21 keep yourselves within the love of God and wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to give you eternal life.

Juda 1:22 To some you must be compassionate because they are wavering;

Juda 1:23 others you must save by snatching them from the fire; to others again you must be compassionate but wary, hating even the tunic stained by their bodies.

Juda 1:24 To him who can keep you from falling and bring you safe to his glorious presence, innocent and joyful, Juda 1:25 to the only God, our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, authority and power, before all ages, now and for ever. Amen.

Revelation

1:1 A revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him so that he could tell his servants what is now to take place very soon; he sent his angel to make it known to his servant John,

Revelation 1:2 and John has borne witness to the Word of God and to the witness of Jesus Christ, everything that he saw.

Revelation 1:3 Blessed is anyone who reads the words of this prophecy, and blessed those who hear them, if they treasure the content, because the Time is near.

Revelation 1:4 John, to the seven churches of Asia: grace and peace to you from him who is, who was, and who is to come, from the seven spirits who are before his throne,

Revelation 1:5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the highest of earthly kings. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, Revelation 1:6 and made us a Kingdom of Priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 1:7 Look, he is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. Indeed this shall be so. Amen.

Revelation 1:8 'I am the Alpha and the Omega,' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

Revelation 1:9 I, John, your brother and partner in hardships, in the kingdom and in perseverance in Jesus, was on the island of Patmos on account of the Word of God and of witness to Jesus;

Revelation 1:10 it was the Lord's Day and I was in ecstasy, and I heard a loud voice behind me, like the sound of a trumpet, saying,

Revelation 1:11 'Write down in a book all that you see, and send it to the seven churches of Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea.'

Revelation 1:12 I turned round to see who was speaking to me, and when I turned I saw seven golden lamp-stands

Revelation 1:13 and, in the middle of them, one like a Son of man, dressed in a long robe tied at the waist with a belt of gold.

Revelation 1:14 His head and his hair were white with the whiteness of wool, like snow, his eyes like a burning flame,

Revelation 1:15 his feet like burnished bronze when it has been refined in a furnace, and his voice like the sound of the ocean.

Revelation 1:16 In his right hand he was holding seven stars, out of his mouth came a sharp sword, double-edged, and his face was like the sun shining with all its force.

Revelation 1:17 When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead, but he laid his right hand on me and said, 'Do not be afraid; it is I, the First and the Last; I am the Living One,

Revelation 1:18 I was dead and look—I am alive for ever and ever, and I hold the keys of death and of Hades.

Revelation 1:19 Now write down all that you see of present happenings and what is still to come.

Revelation 1:20 The secret of the seven stars you have seen in my right hand, and of the seven golden lamp-stands, is this: the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lamp-stands are the seven churches themselves.'

Revelation 2:1 'Write to the angel of the church in Ephesus and say, "Here is the message of the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and who lives among the seven golden lamp-stands:

Revelation 2:2 I know your activities, your hard work and your perseverance. I know you cannot stand wicked people, and how you put to the test those who were self-styled apostles, and found them false.

Revelation 2:3 I know too that you have perseverance, and have suffered for my name without growing tired.

Revelation 2:4 Nevertheless, I have this complaint to make: you have less love now than formerly.

Revelation 2:5 Think where you were before you fell; repent, and behave as you did at first, or else, if you will not repent, I shall come to you and take your lamp-stand from its place.

Revelation 2:6 It is in your favour, nevertheless, that you loathe as I do the way the Nicolaitans are behaving.

Revelation 2:7 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches: those who prove victorious I will feed from the tree of life set in God's paradise."

Revelation 2:8 'Write to the angel of the church in Smyrna and say, "Here is the message of the First and the Last, who was dead and has come to life again:

Revelation 2:9 I know your hardships and your poverty, and—though you are rich—the slander of the people who falsely claim to be Jews but are really members of the synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 2:10 Do not be afraid of the sufferings that are coming to you. Look, the devil will send some of you to prison to put you to the test, and you must face hardship for ten days. Even if you have to die, keep faithful, and I will give you the crown of life for your prize.

Revelation 2:11 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches: for those who prove victorious will come to no harm from the second death.”

Revelation 2:12 ‘Write to the angel of the church in Pergamum and say, “Here is the message of the one who has the sharp sword, double-edged:

Revelation 2:13 I know where you live, in the place where Satan is enthroned, and that you still hold firmly to my name, and did not disown your faith in me even when my faithful witness, Antipas, was killed among you, where Satan lives.

Revelation 2:14 “Nevertheless, I have one or two charges against you: some of you are followers of Balaam, who taught Balak to set a trap for the Israelites so that they committed adultery by eating food that had been sacrificed to idols;

Revelation 2:15 and among you too there are some also who follow the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

Revelation 2:16 So repent, or I shall soon come to you and attack these people with the sword out of my mouth.

Revelation 2:17 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches: to those who prove victorious I will give some hidden manna and a white stone, with a new name written on it, known only to the person who receives it.”

Revelation 2:18 ‘Write to the angel of the church in Thyatira and say, “Here is the message of the Son of God who has eyes like a burning flame and feet like burnished bronze:

Revelation 2:19 I know your activities, your love, your faith, your service and your perseverance, and I know how you are still making progress.

Revelation 2:20 Nevertheless, I have a complaint to make: you tolerate the woman Jezebel who claims to be a prophetess, and by her teaching she is luring my servants away to commit the adultery of eating food which has been sacrificed to idols.

Revelation 2:21 I have given her time to repent but she is not willing to repent of her adulterous life.

Revelation 2:22 Look, I am consigning her to a bed of pain, and all her partners in adultery to great hardship, unless they repent of their practices;

Revelation 2:23 and I will see that her children die, so that all the churches realise that it is I who test motives and thoughts and repay you as your deeds deserve.

Revelation 2:24 But on the rest of you in Thyatira, all of you who have not accepted this teaching or learnt the deep secrets of Satan, as they are called, I am not laying any other burden;

Revelation 2:25 but hold on firmly to what you already have until I come.

Revelation 2:26 To anyone who proves victorious, and keeps working for me until the end, I will give the authority over the nations

Revelation 2:27 which I myself have been given by my Father, to rule them with an iron sceptre and shatter them like so many pots.

Revelation 2:28 And I will give such a person the Morning Star.

Revelation 2:29 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Revelation 3:1 'Write to the angel of the church in Sardis and say, "Here is the message of the one who holds the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: I know about your behaviour: how you are reputed to be alive and yet are dead.

Revelation 3:2 Wake up; put some resolve into what little vigour you have left: it is dying fast. So far I have failed to notice anything in your behaviour that my God could possibly call perfect;

Revelation 3:3 remember how you first heard the message. Hold on to that. Repent! If you do not wake up, I shall come to you like a thief, and you will have no idea at what hour I shall come upon you.

Revelation 3:4 There are a few in Sardis, it is true, who have kept their robes unstained, and they are fit to come with me, dressed in white.

Revelation 3:5 Anyone who proves victorious will be dressed, like these, in white robes; I shall not blot that name out of the book of life, but acknowledge it in the presence of my Father and his angels.

Revelation 3:6 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Revelation 3:7 'Write to the angel of the church in Philadelphia and say, "Here is the message of the holy and true one who has the key of David, so that when he opens, no one will close, and when he closes, no one will open:

Revelation 3:8 I know about your activities. Look, I have opened in front of you a door that no one will be able to close—and I know that though you are not very strong, you have kept my commandments and not disowned my name.

Revelation 3:9 Look, I am going to make the synagogue of Satan—those who falsely claim to be Jews, but are liars, because they are no such thing—I will make them come and fall at your feet and recognize that I have loved you.

Revelation 3:10 Because you have kept my commandment to persevere, I will keep you safe in the time of trial which is coming for the whole world, to put the people of the world to the test.

Revelation 3:11 I am coming soon: hold firmly to what you already have, and let no one take your victor's crown away from you.

Revelation 3:12 Anyone who proves victorious I will make into a pillar in the sanctuary of my God, and it will stay there for ever; I will inscribe on it the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem which is coming down from my God in heaven, and my own new name as well.

Revelation 3:13 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Revelation 3:14 'Write to the angel of the church in Laodicea and say, "Here is the message of the Amen, the trustworthy, the true witness, the Principle of God's creation:

Revelation 3:15 I know about your activities: how you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were one or the other,

Revelation 3:16 but since you are neither hot nor cold, but only lukewarm, I will spit you out of my mouth.

Revelation 3:17 You say to yourself: I am rich, I have made a fortune and have everything I want, never realising that you are wretchedly and pitiably poor, and blind and naked too.

Revelation 3:18 I warn you, buy from me the gold that has been tested in the fire to make you truly rich, and white robes to clothe you and hide your shameful nakedness, and ointment to put on your eyes to enable you to see.

Revelation 3:19 I reprove and train those whom I love: so repent in real earnest.

Revelation 3:20 Look, I am standing at the door, knocking. If one of you hears me calling and opens the door, I will come in to share a meal at that person's side.

Revelation 3:21 Anyone who proves victorious I will allow to share my throne, just as I have myself overcome and have taken my seat with my Father on his throne.

Revelation 3:22 Let anyone who can hear, listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches." '

Revelation 4:1 Then, in my vision, I saw a door open in heaven and heard the same voice speaking to me, the voice like a trumpet, saying, 'Come up here: I will show you what is to take place in the future.'

Revelation 4:2 With that, I fell into ecstasy and I saw a throne standing in heaven, and the One who was sitting on the throne,

Revelation 4:3 and the One sitting there looked like a diamond and a ruby. There was a rainbow encircling the throne, and this looked like an emerald.

Revelation 4:4 Round the throne in a circle were twenty-four thrones, and on them twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white robes with golden crowns on their heads.

Revelation 4:5 Flashes of lightning were coming from the throne, and the sound of peals of thunder, and in front of the throne there were seven flaming lamps burning, the seven Spirits of God.

Revelation 4:6 In front of the throne was a sea as transparent as crystal. In the middle of the throne and around it, were four living creatures all studded with eyes, in front and behind.

Revelation 4:7 The first living creature was like a lion, the second like a bull, the third living creature had a human face, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.

Revelation 4:8 Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was studded with eyes all the way round as well as inside; and day and night they never stopped singing: Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God, the Almighty; who was, and is and is to come.'

Revelation 4:9 Every time the living creatures glorified and honoured and gave thanks to the One sitting on the throne, who lives for ever and ever,

Revelation 4:10 the twenty-four elders prostrated themselves before him to worship the One who lives for ever and ever, and threw down their crowns in front of the throne, saying:

Revelation 4:11 You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for you made the whole universe; by your will, when it did not exist, it was created.

Revelation 5:1 I saw that in the right hand of the One sitting on the throne there was a scroll that was written on back and front and was sealed with seven seals.

Revelation 5:2 Then I saw a powerful angel who called with a loud voice, 'Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?'

Revelation 5:3 But there was no one, in heaven or on the earth or under the earth, who was able to open the scroll and read it.

Revelation 5:4 I wept bitterly because nobody could be found to open the scroll and read it,

Revelation 5:5 but one of the elders said to me, 'Do not weep. Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed, and so he will open the scroll and its seven seals.'

Revelation 5:6 Then I saw, in the middle of the throne with its four living creatures and the circle of the elders, a Lamb standing that seemed to have been sacrificed; it had seven horns, and it had seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits that God has sent out over the whole world.

Revelation 5:7 The Lamb came forward to take the scroll from the right hand of the One sitting on the throne,

Revelation 5:8 and when he took it, the four living creatures prostrated themselves before him and with them the twenty-four elders; each one of them was holding a harp and had a golden bowl full of incense which are the prayers of the saints.

Revelation 5:9 They sang a new hymn: You are worthy to take the scroll and to break its seals, because you were sacrificed, and with your blood you bought people for God of every race, language, people and nation

Revelation 5:10 and made them a line of kings and priests for God, to rule the world.

Revelation 5:11 In my vision, I heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the living creatures and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands,

Revelation 5:12 loudly chanting: Worthy is the Lamb that was sacrificed to receive power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.

Revelation 5:13 Then I heard all the living things in creation—everything that lives in heaven, and on earth, and under the earth, and in the sea, crying: To the One seated on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.

Revelation 5:14 And the four living creatures said, ‘Amen’; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

Revelation 6:1 Then, in my vision, I saw the Lamb break one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures shout in a voice like thunder, ‘Come!’

Revelation 6:2 Immediately I saw a white horse appear, and its rider was holding a bow; he was given a victor’s crown and he went away, to go from victory to victory.

Revelation 6:3 When he broke the second seal, I heard the second living creature shout, ‘Come!’

Revelation 6:4 And out came another horse, bright red, and its rider was given this duty: to take away peace from the earth and set people killing each other. He was given a huge sword.

Revelation 6:5 When he broke the third seal, I heard the third living creature shout, ‘Come!’ Immediately I saw a black horse appear, and its rider was holding a pair of scales;

Revelation 6:6 and I seemed to hear a voice shout from among the four living creatures and say, ‘A day’s wages for a quart of corn, and a day’s wages for three quarts of barley, but do not tamper with the oil or the wine.’

Revelation 6:7 When he broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature shout, ‘Come!’

Revelation 6:8 Immediately I saw another horse appear, deathly pale, and its rider was called Death, and Hades followed at its heels. They were given authority over a quarter of the earth, to kill by the sword, by famine, by plague and through wild beasts.

Revelation 6:9 When he broke the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of all the people who had been killed on account of the Word of God, for witnessing to it.

Revelation 6:10 They shouted in a loud voice, ‘Holy, true Master, how much longer will you wait before you pass sentence and take vengeance for our death on the inhabitants of the earth?’

Revelation 6:11 Each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to be patient a little longer, until the roll was completed of their fellow-servants and brothers who were still to be killed as they had been.

Revelation 6:12 In my vision, when he broke the sixth seal, there was a violent earthquake and the sun went as black as coarse sackcloth; the moon turned red as blood all over,

Revelation 6:13 and the stars of the sky fell onto the earth like figs dropping from a fig tree when a high wind shakes it;

Revelation 6:14 the sky disappeared like a scroll rolling up and all the mountains and islands were shaken from their places.

Revelation 6:15 Then all the kings of the earth, the governors and the commanders, the rich people and the men of influence, the whole population, slaves and citizens, hid in caverns and among the rocks of the mountains.

Revelation 6:16 They said to the mountains and the rocks, ‘Fall on us and hide us away from the One who sits on the throne and from the retribution of the Lamb.

Revelation 6:17 For the Great Day of his retribution has come, and who can face it?’

Revelation 7:1 Next I saw four angels, standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the world to keep them from blowing over the land or the sea or any tree.

Revelation 7:2 Then I saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea,

Revelation 7:3 ‘Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.’

Revelation 7:4 And I heard how many had been sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

Revelation 7:5 From the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand had been sealed; from the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand;

Revelation 7:6 from the tribe of Asher, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Naphtali, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Manasseh, twelve thousand;

Revelation 7:7 from the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand; from the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand;

Revelation 7:8 from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand; and from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand had been sealed.

Revelation 7:9 After that I saw that there was a huge number, impossible for anyone to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted in a loud voice,

Revelation 7:10 ‘Salvation to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!’

Revelation 7:11 And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four living creatures, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God

Revelation 7:12 with these words: Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom, thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 7:13 One of the elders then spoke and asked me, ‘Who are these people, dressed in white robes, and where have they come from?’

Revelation 7:14 I answered him, ‘You can tell me, sir.’ Then he said, ‘These are the people who have been through the great trial; they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:15 That is why they are standing in front of God’s throne and serving him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

Revelation 7:16 They will never hunger or thirst again; sun and scorching wind will never plague them,

Revelation 7:17 because the Lamb who is at the heart of the throne will be their shepherd and will guide them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.’

Revelation 8:1 The Lamb then broke the seventh seal, and there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

Revelation 8:2 Next I saw seven trumpets being given to the seven angels who stand in the presence of God.

Revelation 8:3 Another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. A large quantity of incense was given to him to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that stood in front of the throne;

Revelation 8:4 and so from the angel’s hand the smoke of the incense went up in the presence of God and with it the prayers of the saints.

Revelation 8:5 Then the angel took the censer and filled it from the fire of the altar, which he then hurled down onto the earth; immediately there came peals of thunder and flashes of lightning, and the earth shook.

Revelation 8:6 The seven angels that had the seven trumpets now made ready to sound them.

Revelation 8:7 The first blew his trumpet and, with that, hail and fire, mixed with blood, were hurled on the earth: a third of the earth was burnt up, and a third of all trees, and every blade of grass was burnt.

Revelation 8:8 The second angel blew his trumpet, and it was as though a great mountain blazing with fire was hurled into the sea: a third of the sea turned into blood, Revelation 8:9 a third of all the living things in the sea were killed, and a third of all ships were destroyed.

Revelation 8:10 The third angel blew his trumpet, and a huge star fell from the sky, burning like a ball of fire, and it fell on a third of all rivers and on the springs of water;

Revelation 8:11 this was the star called Wormwood, and a third of all water turned to wormwood, so that many people died; the water had become so bitter.

Revelation 8:12 The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were blasted, so that the light went out of a third of them and the day lost a third of its illumination, and likewise the night.

Revelation 8:13 In my vision, I heard an eagle, calling aloud as it flew high overhead, ‘Disaster, disaster, disaster, on all the people on earth at the sound of the other three trumpets which the three angels have yet to blow!’

Revelation 9:1 Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven onto the earth, and the angel was given the key to the shaft leading down to the Abyss.

Revelation 9:2 When he unlocked the shaft of the Abyss, smoke rose out of the Abyss like the smoke from a huge furnace so that the sun and the sky were darkened by the smoke from the Abyss,

Revelation 9:3 and out of the smoke dropped locusts onto the earth: they were given the powers that scorpions have on the earth:

Revelation 9:4 they were forbidden to harm any fields or crops or trees and told to attack only those people who were without God’s seal on their foreheads.

Revelation 9:5 They were not to kill them, but to give them anguish for five months, and the anguish was to be the anguish of a scorpion’s sting.

Revelation 9:6 When this happens, people will long for death and not find it anywhere; they will want to die and death will evade them.

Revelation 9:7 These locusts looked like horses armoured for battle; they had what looked like gold crowns on their heads, and their faces looked human,

Revelation 9:8 and their hair was like women’s hair, and teeth like lion’s teeth.

Revelation 9:9 They had body-armour like iron breastplates, and the noise of their wings sounded like the racket of chariots with many horses charging.

Revelation 9:10 Their tails were like scorpions’ tails, with stings, and with their tails they were able to torture people for five months.

Revelation 9:11 As their leader they had their emperor, the angel of the Abyss, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek Apollyon.

Revelation 9:12 That was the first of the disasters; there are still two more to come.

Revelation 9:13 The sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a single voice issuing from the four horns of the golden altar in God’s presence.

Revelation 9:14 It spoke to the sixth angel with the trumpet, and said, ‘Release the four angels that are chained up at the great river Euphrates.’

Revelation 9:15 These four angels had been ready for this hour of this day of this month of this year, and ready to destroy a third of the human race.

Revelation 9:16 I learnt how many there were in their army: twice ten thousand times ten thousand mounted men.

Revelation 9:17 In my vision I saw the horses, and the riders with their breastplates of flame colour, hyacinth-blue and sulphur-yellow; the horses had lions’ heads, and fire, smoke and sulphur were coming from their mouths.

Revelation 9:18 It was by these three plagues, the fire, the smoke and the sulphur coming from their mouths, that the one third of the human race was killed.

Revelation 9:19 All the horses’ power was in their mouths and their tails: their tails were like snakes, and had heads which inflicted wounds.

Revelation 9:20 But the rest of the human race, who escaped death by these plagues, refused either to abandon their own handiwork or to stop worshipping devils, the idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood that can neither see nor hear nor move.

Revelation 9:21 Nor did they give up their murdering, or witchcraft, or fornication or stealing.

Revelation 10:1 Then I saw another powerful angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in cloud, with a rainbow over his head; his face was like the sun, and his legs were pillars of fire.

Revelation 10:2 In his hand he had a small scroll, unrolled; he put his right foot in the sea and his left foot on the land

Revelation 10:3 and he shouted so loud, it was like a lion roaring. At this, the seven claps of thunder made themselves heard

Revelation 10:4 and when the seven thunderclaps had sounded, I was preparing to write, when I heard a voice from heaven say to me, ‘Keep the words of the seven thunderclaps secret and do not write them down.’

Revelation 10:5 Then the angel that I had seen, standing on the sea and the land, raised his right hand to heaven,

Revelation 10:6 and swore by him who lives for ever and ever, and made heaven and all that it contains, and earth and all it contains, and the sea and all it contains, ‘The time of waiting is over;

Revelation 10:7 at the time when the seventh angel is heard sounding his trumpet, the mystery of God will be fulfilled, just as he announced in the gospel to his servants the prophets.’

Revelation 10:8 Then I heard the voice I had heard from heaven speaking to me again. ‘Go’, it said, ‘and take that open scroll from the hand of the angel standing on sea and land.’

Revelation 10:9 I went to the angel and asked him to give me the small scroll, and he said, ‘Take it and eat it; it will turn your stomach sour, but it will taste as sweet as honey.’

Revelation 10:10 So I took it out of the angel’s hand, and I ate it and it tasted sweet as honey, but when I had eaten it my stomach turned sour.

Revelation 10:11 Then I was told, ‘You are to prophesy again, this time against many different nations and countries and languages and kings.’

Revelation 11:1 Then I was given a long cane like a measuring rod, and I was told, ‘Get up and measure God’s sanctuary, and the altar, and the people who worship there;

Revelation 11:2 but exclude the outer court and do not measure it, because it has been handed over to gentiles—they will trample on the holy city for forty-two months.

Revelation 11:3 But I shall send my two witnesses to prophesy for twelve hundred and sixty days, wearing sackcloth.

Revelation 11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lamps in attendance on the Lord of the world.

Revelation 11:5 Fire comes from their mouths and consumes their enemies if anyone tries to harm them; and anyone who tries to harm them will certainly be killed in this way.

Revelation 11:6 They have the power to lock up the sky so that it does not rain as long as they are prophesying; they have the power to turn water into blood and strike the whole world with any plague as often as they like.

Revelation 11:7 When they have completed their witnessing, the beast that comes out of the Abyss is going to make war on them and overcome them and kill them.

Revelation 11:8 Their corpses lie in the main street of the great city known by the symbolic names Sodom and Egypt, in which their Lord was crucified.

Revelation 11:9 People of every race, tribe, language and nation stare at their corpses, for three-and-a-half days, not letting them be buried,

Revelation 11:10 and the people of the world are glad about it and celebrate the event by giving presents to each other, because these two prophets have been a plague to the people of the world.’

Revelation 11:11 After the three-and-a-half days, God breathed life into them and they stood up on their feet, and everybody who saw it happen was terrified;

Revelation 11:12 then I heard a loud voice from heaven say to them, ‘Come up here,’ and while their enemies were watching, they went up to heaven in a cloud.

Revelation 11:13 Immediately, there was a violent earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed; seven thousand persons were killed in the earthquake, and the survivors, overcome with fear, could only praise the God of heaven.

Revelation 11:14 That was the second of the disasters; the third is to come quickly after it.

Revelation 11:15 Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and voices could be heard shouting in heaven, calling, ‘The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and his Christ, and he will reign for ever and ever.’

Revelation 11:16 The twenty-four elders, enthroned in the presence of God, prostrated themselves and touched the ground with their foreheads worshipping God

Revelation 11:17 with these words, ‘We give thanks to you, Almighty Lord God, He who is, He who was, for assuming your great power and beginning your reign.

Revelation 11:18 The nations were in uproar and now the time has come for your retribution, and for the dead to be judged, and for your servants the prophets, for the saints and for those who fear your name, small and great alike, to be rewarded. The time has come to destroy those who are destroying the earth.'

Revelation 11:19 Then the sanctuary of God in heaven opened, and the ark of the covenant could be seen inside it. Then came flashes of lightning, peals of thunder and an earthquake and violent hail.

Revelation 12:1 Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman, robed with the sun, standing on the moon, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

Revelation 12:2 She was pregnant, and in labour, crying aloud in the pangs of childbirth.

Revelation 12:3 Then a second sign appeared in the sky: there was a huge red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and each of the seven heads crowned with a coronet.

Revelation 12:4 Its tail swept a third of the stars from the sky and hurled them to the ground, and the dragon stopped in front of the woman as she was at the point of giving birth, so that it could eat the child as soon as it was born.

Revelation 12:5 The woman was delivered of a boy, the son who was to rule all the nations with an iron sceptre, and the child was taken straight up to God and to his throne,

Revelation 12:6 while the woman escaped into the desert, where God had prepared a place for her to be looked after for twelve hundred and sixty days.

Revelation 12:7 And now war broke out in heaven, when Michael with his angels attacked the dragon. The dragon fought back with his angels, Revelation 12:8 but they were defeated and driven out of heaven.

Revelation 12:9 The great dragon, the primeval serpent, known as the devil or Satan, who had led all the world astray, was hurled down to the earth and his angels were hurled down with him.

Revelation 12:10 Then I heard a voice shout from heaven, 'Salvation and power and empire for ever have been won by our God, and all authority for his Christ, now that the accuser, who accused our brothers day and night before our God, has been brought down.

Revelation 12:11 They have triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word to which they bore witness, because even in the face of death they did not cling to life.

Revelation 12:12 So let the heavens rejoice and all who live there; but for you, earth and sea, disaster is coming—because the devil has gone down to you in a rage, knowing that he has little time left.'

Revelation 12:13 As soon as the dragon found himself hurled down to the earth, he sprang in pursuit of the woman, the mother of the male child,

Revelation 12:14 but she was given a pair of the great eagle's wings to fly away from the serpent into the desert, to the place where she was to be looked after for a time, two times and half a time.

Revelation 12:15 So the serpent vomited water from his mouth, like a river, after the woman, to sweep her away in the current,

Revelation 12:16 but the earth came to her rescue; it opened its mouth and swallowed the river spewed from the dragon's mouth.

Revelation 12:17 Then the dragon was enraged with the woman and went away to make war on the rest of her children, who obey God's commandments and have in themselves the witness of Jesus.

Revelation 12:18 And I took my stand on the seashore.

Revelation 13:1 Then I saw a beast emerge from the sea: it had seven heads and ten horns, with a coronet on each of its ten horns, and its heads were marked with blasphemous titles.

Revelation 13:2 I saw that the beast was like a leopard, with paws like a bear and a mouth like a lion; the dragon had handed over to it his own power and his throne and his immense authority.

Revelation 13:3 I saw that one of its heads seemed to have had a fatal wound but that this deadly injury had healed and the whole world had marvelled and followed the beast.

Revelation 13:4 They prostrated themselves in front of the dragon because he had given the beast his authority; and they prostrated themselves in front of the beast, saying, 'Who can compare with the beast? Who can fight against it?'

Revelation 13:5 The beast was allowed to mouth its boasts and blasphemies and to be active for forty-two months;

Revelation 13:6 and it mouthed its blasphemies against God, against his name, his heavenly Tent and all those who are sheltered there.

Revelation 13:7 It was allowed to make war against the saints and conquer them, and given power over every race, people, language and nation;

Revelation 13:8 and all people of the world will worship it, that is, everybody whose name has not been written down since the foundation of the world in the sacrificial Lamb's book of life.

Revelation 13:9 Let anyone who can hear, listen:

Revelation 13:10 Those for captivity to captivity; those for death by the sword to death by the sword. This is why the saints must have perseverance and faith.

Revelation 13:11 Then I saw a second beast, emerging from the ground; it had two horns like a lamb, but made a noise like a dragon.

Revelation 13:12 This second beast exercised all the power of the first beast, on its behalf making the world and all its people worship the first beast, whose deadly injury had healed.

Revelation 13:13 And it worked great miracles, even to calling down fire from heaven onto the earth while people watched.

Revelation 13:14 Through the miracles which it was allowed to do on behalf of the first beast, it was able to lead astray the people of the world and persuade them to put up a statue in honour of the beast that had been wounded by the sword and still lived.

Revelation 13:15 It was allowed to breathe life into this statue, so that the statue of the beast was able to speak, and to have anyone who refused to worship the statue of the beast put to death.

Revelation 13:16 It compelled everyone—small and great alike, rich and poor, slave and citizen—to be branded on the right hand or on the forehead,

Revelation 13:17 and made it illegal for anyone to buy or sell anything unless he had been branded with the name of the beast or with the number of its name.

Revelation 13:18 There is need for shrewdness here: anyone clever may interpret the number of the beast: it is the number of a human being, the number 666.

Revelation 14:1 Next in my vision I saw Mount Zion, and standing on it the Lamb who had with him a hundred and forty-four thousand people, all with his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads.

Revelation 14:2 I heard a sound coming out of heaven like the sound of the ocean or the roar of thunder; it was like the sound of harpists playing their harps.

Revelation 14:3 There before the throne they were singing a new hymn in the presence of the four living creatures and the elders, a hymn that could be learnt only by the hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the world.

Revelation 14:4 These are the sons who have kept their virginity and not been defiled with women; they follow the Lamb wherever he goes; they, out of all people, have been redeemed to be the first-fruits for God and for the Lamb.

Revelation 14:6 Then I saw another angel, flying high overhead, sent to announce the gospel of eternity to all who live on the earth, every nation, race, language and tribe.

Revelation 14:7 He was calling, 'Fear God and glorify him, because the time has come for him to sit in judgement; worship the maker of heaven and earth and sea and the springs of water.’

Revelation 14:8 A second angel followed him, calling, ‘Babylon has fallen, Babylon the Great has fallen, Babylon which gave the whole world the wine of retribution to drink.’

Revelation 14:9 A third angel followed, shouting aloud, ‘All those who worship the beast and his statue, or have had themselves branded on the hand or forehead,

Revelation 14:10 will be made to drink the wine of God’s fury which is ready, undiluted, in his cup of retribution; in fire and brimstone they will be tortured in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb

Revelation 14:11 and the smoke of their torture will rise for ever and ever. There will be no respite, night or day, for those who worship the beast or its statue or accept branding with its name.’

Revelation 14:12 This is why there must be perseverance in the saints who keep the commandments of God and faith in Jesus.

Revelation 14:13 Then I heard a voice from heaven say to me, ‘Write down: Blessed are those who die in the Lord! Blessed indeed, the Spirit says; now they can rest for ever after their work, since their good deeds go with them.’

Revelation 14:14 Now in my vision I saw a white cloud and, sitting on it, one like a son of man with a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

Revelation 14:15 Then another angel came out of the sanctuary and shouted at the top of his voice to the one sitting on the cloud, ‘Ply your sickle and reap: harvest time has come and the harvest of the earth is ripe.’

Revelation 14:16 Then the one sitting on the cloud set his sickle to work on the earth, and the harvest of earth was reaped.

Revelation 14:17 Another angel, who also carried a sharp sickle, came out of the temple in heaven,

Revelation 14:18 and the angel in charge of the fire left the altar and shouted at the top of his voice to the one with the sharp sickle, ‘Put your sickle in, and harvest the bunches from the vine of the earth; all its grapes are ripe.’

Revelation 14:19 So the angel set his sickle to work on the earth and harvested the whole vintage of the earth and put it into a huge winepress, the winepress of God’s anger,

Revelation 14:20 outside the city, where it was trodden until the blood that came out of the winepress was up to the horses’ bridles as far away as sixteen hundred furlongs.

Revelation 15:1 And I saw in heaven another sign, great and wonderful: seven angels were bringing the seven plagues that are the last of all, because they exhaust the anger of God.

Revelation 15:2 I seemed to be looking at a sea of crystal suffused with fire, and standing by the lake of glass, those who had fought against the beast and won, and against his statue and the number which is his name. They all had harps from God,

Revelation 15:3 and they were singing the hymn of Moses, the servant of God, and the hymn of the Lamb: How great and wonderful are all your works, Lord God Almighty; upright and true are all your ways, King of nations.

Revelation 15:4 Who does not revere and glorify your name, O Lord? For you alone are holy, and all nations will come and adore you for the many acts of saving justice you have shown.

Revelation 15:5 After this, in my vision, the sanctuary, the tent of the Testimony, opened in heaven,

Revelation 15:6 and out came the seven angels with the seven plagues, wearing pure white linen, fastened round their waists with belts of gold.

Revelation 15:7 One of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the anger of God who lives for ever and ever.

Revelation 15:8 The smoke from the glory and the power of God filled the temple so that no one could go into it until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

Revelation 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the sanctuary calling to the seven angels, ‘Go, and empty the seven bowls of God’s anger over the earth.’

Revelation 16:2 The first angel went and emptied his bowl over the earth; at once, on all the people who had been branded with the mark of the beast and had worshipped its statue, there came disgusting and virulent sores.

Revelation 16:3 The second angel emptied his bowl over the sea, and it turned to blood, like the blood of a corpse, and every living creature in the sea died.

Revelation 16:4 The third angel emptied his bowl into the rivers and springs of water and they turned into blood.

Revelation 16:5 Then I heard the angel of water say, ‘You are the Upright One, He who is, He who was, the Holy One, for giving this verdict:

Revelation 16:6 they spilt the blood of the saints and the prophets, and blood is what you have given them to drink; it is what they deserve.’

Revelation 16:7 And I heard the altar itself say, ‘Truly, Lord God Almighty, the punishments you give are true and just.’

Revelation 16:8 The fourth angel emptied his bowl over the sun and it was made to scorch people with its flames;

Revelation 16:9 but though people were scorched by the fierce heat of it, they cursed the name of God who had the power to cause such plagues, and they would not repent and glorify him.

Revelation 16:10 The fifth angel emptied his bowl over the throne of the beast and its whole empire was plunged into darkness. People were biting their tongues for pain,

Revelation 16:11 but instead of repenting for what they had done, they cursed the God of heaven because of their pains and sores.

Revelation 16:12 The sixth angel emptied his bowl over the great river Euphrates; all the water dried up so that a way was made for the kings of the East to come in.

Revelation 16:13 Then from the jaws of dragon and beast and false prophet I saw three foul spirits come; they looked like frogs

Revelation 16:14 and in fact were demon spirits, able to work miracles, going out to all the kings of the world to call them together for the war of the Great Day of God the Almighty.-

Revelation 16:15 Look, I shall come like a thief. Blessed is anyone who has kept watch, and has kept his clothes on, so that he does not go out naked and expose his shame.-

Revelation 16:16 They called the kings together at the place called, in Hebrew, Armageddon.

Revelation 16:17 The seventh angel emptied his bowl into the air, and a great voice boomed out from the sanctuary, 'The end has come.'

Revelation 16:18 Then there were flashes of lightning and peals of thunder and a violent earthquake, unparalleled since humanity first came into existence.

Revelation 16:19 The Great City was split into three parts and the cities of the world collapsed; Babylon the Great was not forgotten: God made her drink the full winecup of his retribution.

Revelation 16:20 Every island vanished and the mountains disappeared;

Revelation 16:21 and hail, with great hailstones weighing a talent each, fell from the sky on the people. They cursed God for sending a plague of hail; it was the most terrible plague.

Revelation 17:1 One of the seven angels that had the seven bowls came to speak to me, and said, 'Come here and I will show you the punishment of the great prostitute who is enthroned beside abundant waters,

Revelation 17:2 with whom all the kings of the earth have prostituted themselves, and who has made all the population of the world drunk with the wine of her adultery.'

Revelation 17:3 He took me in spirit to a desert, and there I saw a woman riding a scarlet beast which had seven heads and ten horns and had blasphemous titles written all over it.

Revelation 17:4 The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet and glittered with gold and jewels and pearls, and she was holding a gold winecup filled with the disgusting filth of her prostitution;

Revelation 17:5 on her forehead was written a name, a cryptic name: 'Babylon the Great, the mother of all the prostitutes and all the filthy practices on the earth.'

Revelation 17:6 I saw that she was drunk, drunk with the blood of the saints, and the blood of the martyrs of Jesus; and when I saw her, I was completely mystified.

Revelation 17:7 The angel said to me, 'Do you not understand? I will tell you the meaning of this woman, and of the beast she is riding, with the seven heads and the ten horns.

Revelation 17:8 'The beast you have seen was once alive and is alive no longer; it is yet to come up from the Abyss, but only to go to its destruction. And the people of the world, whose names have not been written since the beginning of the world in the book of life, will be astonished when they see how the beast was once alive and is alive no longer, and is still to come.

Revelation 17:9 'This calls for shrewdness. The seven heads are the seven hills, on which the woman is sitting.

Revelation 17:10 The seven heads are also seven emperors. Five of them have already gone, one is here now, and one is yet to come; once here, he must stay for a short while.

Revelation 17:11 The beast, who was alive and is alive no longer, is at the same time the eighth and one of the seven, and he is going to his destruction.

Revelation 17:12 'The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet been given their royal power but will have royal authority only for a single hour and in association with the beast.

Revelation 17:13 They are all of one mind in putting their strength and their powers at the beast's disposal,

Revelation 17:14 and they will go to war against the Lamb; but because the Lamb is Lord of lords and King of kings, he will defeat them, he and his followers, the called, the chosen, the trustworthy.'

Revelation 17:15 The angel continued, 'The waters you saw, beside which the prostitute was sitting, are all the peoples, the populations, the nations and the languages.

Revelation 17:16 But the ten horns and the beast will turn against the prostitute, and tear off her clothes and leave her stark naked; then they will eat her flesh and burn the remains in the fire.

Revelation 17:17 In fact, God has influenced their minds to do what he intends, to agree together to put their royal powers at the beast's disposal until the time when God's words shall be fulfilled.

Revelation 17:18 The woman you saw is the great city which has authority over all the rulers on earth.'

Revelation 18:1 After this, I saw another angel come down from heaven, with great authority given to him; the earth shone with his glory.

Revelation 18:2 At the top of his voice he shouted, 'Babylon has fallen, Babylon the Great has fallen, and has become the haunt of devils and a lodging for every foul spirit and dirty, loathsome bird.

Revelation 18:3 All the nations have drunk deep of the wine of her prostitution; every king on the earth has prostituted himself with her, and every merchant grown rich through her debauchery.'

Revelation 18:4 Another voice spoke from heaven; I heard it say, 'Come out, my people, away from her, so that you do not share in her crimes and have the same plagues to bear.

Revelation 18:5 Her sins have reached up to the sky, and God has her crimes in mind: treat her as she has treated others.

Revelation 18:6 She must be paid double the amount she exacted. She is to have a doubly strong cup of her own mixture.

Revelation 18:7 Every one of her pomps and orgies is to be matched by a torture or an agony. I am enthroned as queen, she thinks; I am no widow and will never know bereavement.

Revelation 18:8 For that, in one day, the plagues will fall on her: disease and mourning and famine. She will be burned to the ground. The Lord God who has condemned her is mighty.'

Revelation 18:9 'There will be mourning and weeping for her by the kings of the earth who have prostituted themselves with her and held orgies with her. They see the smoke as she burns,

Revelation 18:10 while they keep at a safe distance through fear of her anguish. They will say: Mourn, mourn for this great city, Babylon, so powerful a city, in one short hour your doom has come upon you.

Revelation 18:11 'There will be weeping and distress over her among all the traders of the earth when no one is left to buy their cargoes of goods;

Revelation 18:12 their stocks of gold and silver, jewels and pearls, linen and purple and silks and scarlet; all the sandalwood, every piece in ivory or fine wood, in bronze or iron or marble;

Revelation 18:13 the cinnamon and spices, the myrrh and ointment and incense; wine, oil, flour and corn; their stocks of cattle, sheep, horses and chariots, their slaves and their human cargo.

Revelation 18:14 'All the fruits you had set your hearts on have failed you; gone for ever, never to return again, is your life of magnificence and ease.

Revelation 18:15 'The traders who had made a fortune out of her will be standing at a safe distance through fear of her anguish, mourning and weeping.

Revelation 18:16 They will be saying: Mourn, mourn for this great city; for all the linen and purple and scarlet that you wore, for all your finery of gold and jewels and pearls;

Revelation 18:17 your huge riches are all destroyed within a single hour.' All the captains and seafaring men, sailors and all those who make a living from the sea kept a safe distance,

Revelation 18:18 watching the smoke as she burned, and crying out, 'Has there ever been a city as great as this!'

Revelation 18:19 They threw dust on their heads and said, with tears and groans: 'Mourn, mourn for this great city whose lavish living has made a fortune for every owner of a sea-going ship, ruined within a single hour.

Revelation 18:20 'Now heaven, celebrate her downfall, and all you saints, apostles and prophets: God has given judgement for you against her.'

Revelation 18:21 Then a powerful angel picked up a boulder like a great millstone, and as he hurled it into the sea, he said, 'That is how the great city of Babylon is going to be hurled down, never to be seen again.

Revelation 18:22 Never again in you will be heard the song of harpists and minstrels, the music of flute and trumpet; never again will craftsmen of every skill be found in you or the sound of the handmill be heard;

Revelation 18:23 never again will shine the light of the lamp in you, never again will be heard in you the voices of bridegroom and bride. Your traders were the princes of the earth, all the nations were led astray by your sorcery.

Revelation 18:24 In her was found the blood of prophets and saints, and all the blood that was ever shed on earth.'

Revelation 19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the great sound of a huge crowd in heaven, singing, 'Alleluia! Salvation and glory and power to our God!

Revelation 19:2 He judges fairly, he punishes justly, and he has condemned the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her prostitution; he has avenged the blood of his servants which she shed.'

Revelation 19:3 And again they sang, 'Alleluia! The smoke of her will rise for ever and ever.'

Revelation 19:4 Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures threw themselves down and worshipped God seated on his throne, and they cried, 'Amen, Alleluia.'

Revelation 19:5 Then a voice came from the throne; it said, 'Praise our God, you servants of his and those who fear him, small and great alike.'

Revelation 19:6 And I heard what seemed to be the voices of a huge crowd, like the sound of the ocean or the great roar of thunder, answering, 'Alleluia! The reign of the Lord our God Almighty has begun;

Revelation 19:7 let us be glad and joyful and give glory to God, because this is the time for the marriage of the Lamb.

Revelation 19:8 His bride is ready, and she has been able to dress herself in dazzling white linen, because her linen is made of the good deeds of the saints.'

Revelation 19:9 The angel said, 'Write this, "Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb," ' and he added, 'These words of God are true.'

Revelation 19:10 Then I knelt at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, 'Never do that: I am your fellow-servant and the fellow-servant of all your brothers who have in themselves the witness of Jesus. God alone you must worship.' The witness of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

Revelation 19:11 And now I saw heaven open, and a white horse appear; its rider was called Trustworthy and True; in uprightness he judges and makes war.

Revelation 19:12 His eyes were flames of fire, and he was crowned with many coronets; the name written on him was known only to himself, Revelation 19:13 his cloak was soaked in blood. He is known by the name, The Word of God.

Revelation 19:14 Behind him, dressed in linen of dazzling white, rode the armies of heaven on white horses.

Revelation 19:15 From his mouth came a sharp sword with which to strike the unbelievers; he is the one who will rule them with an iron sceptre, and tread out the wine of Almighty God's fierce retribution.

Revelation 19:16 On his cloak and on his thigh a name was written: King of kings and Lord of lords.

Revelation 19:17 I saw an angel standing in the sun, and he shouted aloud to all the birds that were flying high overhead in the sky, 'Come here. Gather together at God's great feast.

Revelation 19:18 You will eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of great generals and heroes, the flesh of horses and their riders and of all kinds of people, citizens and slaves, small and great alike.'

Revelation 19:19 Then I saw the beast, with all the kings of the earth and their armies, gathered together to fight the Rider and his army.

Revelation 19:20 But the beast was taken prisoner, together with the false prophet who had worked miracles on the beast's behalf and by them had deceived those who had accepted branding with the mark of the beast and those who had worshipped his statue. These two were hurled alive into the fiery lake of burning sulphur.

Revelation 19:21 All the rest were killed by the sword of the Rider, which came out of his mouth, and all the birds glutted themselves with their flesh.

Revelation 20:1 Then I saw an angel come down from heaven with the key of the Abyss in his hand and an enormous chain.

Revelation 20:2 He overpowered the dragon, that primeval serpent which is the devil and Satan, and chained him up for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:3 He hurled him into the Abyss and shut the entrance and sealed it over him, to make sure he would not lead the nations astray again until the thousand years had passed. At the end of that time he must be released, but only for a short while.

Revelation 20:4 Then I saw thrones, where they took their seats, and on them was conferred the power to give judgement. I saw the souls of all who had been beheaded for having witnessed for Jesus and for having preached God's word, and those who refused to worship the beast or his statue and would not accept the brand-mark on their foreheads or hands; they came to life, and reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were over; this is the first resurrection.

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection; the second death has no power over them but they will be priests of God and of Christ and reign with him for a thousand years.

Revelation 20:7 When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison

Revelation 20:8 and will come out to lead astray all the nations in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, and mobilise them for war, his armies being as many as the sands of the sea.

Revelation 20:9 They came swarming over the entire country and besieged the camp of the saints, which is the beloved City. But fire rained down on them from heaven and consumed them.

Revelation 20:10 Then the devil, who led them astray, was hurled into the lake of fire and sulphur, where the beast and the false prophet are, and their torture will not come to an end, day or night, for ever and ever.

Revelation 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and the One who was sitting on it. In his presence, earth and sky vanished, leaving no trace.

Revelation 20:12 I saw the dead, great and small alike, standing in front of his throne while the books lay open. And another book was opened, which is the book of life, and the dead were judged from what was written in the books, as their deeds deserved.

Revelation 20:13 The sea gave up all the dead who were in it;

Revelation 20:14 Death and Hades were emptied of the dead that were in them; and every one was judged as his deeds deserved. Then Death and Hades were hurled into the burning lake. This burning lake is the second death;

Revelation 20:15 and anybody whose name could not be found written in the book of life was hurled into the burning lake.

Revelation 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea.

Revelation 21:2 I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride dressed for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'Look, here God lives among human beings. He will make his home among them; they will be his people, and he will be their God, God-with-them.

Revelation 21:4 He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness or pain. The world of the past has gone.'

Revelation 21:5 Then the One sitting on the throne spoke. 'Look, I am making the whole of creation new. Write this, "What I am saying is trustworthy and will come true."

Revelation 21:6 Then he said to me, 'It has already happened. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give water from the well of life free to anybody who is thirsty;

Revelation 21:7 anyone who proves victorious will inherit these things; and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Revelation 21:8 But the legacy for cowards, for those who break their word, or worship obscenities, for murderers and the sexually immoral, and for sorcerers, worshippers of false gods or any other sort of liars, is the second death in the burning lake of sulphur.'

Revelation 21:9 One of the seven angels that had the seven bowls full of the seven final plagues came to speak to me and said, 'Come here and I will show you the bride that the Lamb has married.'

Revelation 21:10 In the spirit, he carried me to the top of a very high mountain, and showed me Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down out of heaven from God.

Revelation 21:11 It had all the glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel of crystal-clear diamond.

Revelation 21:12 Its wall was of a great height and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel;

Revelation 21:13 on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

Revelation 21:14 The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Revelation 21:15 The angel that was speaking to me was carrying a gold measuring rod to measure the city and its gates and wall.

Revelation 21:16 The plan of the city is perfectly square, its length the same as its breadth. He measured the city with his rod and it was twelve thousand furlongs, equal in length and in breadth, and equal in height.

Revelation 21:17 He measured its wall, and this was a hundred and forty-four cubits high—by human measurements.

Revelation 21:18 The wall was built of diamond, and the city of pure gold, like clear glass.

Revelation 21:19 The foundations of the city wall were faced with all kinds of precious stone: the first with diamond, the second lapis lazuli, the third turquoise, the fourth crystal,

Revelation 21:20 the fifth agate, the sixth ruby, the seventh gold quartz, the eighth malachite, the ninth topaz, the tenth emerald, the eleventh sapphire and the twelfth amethyst.

Revelation 21:21 The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each gate being made of a single pearl, and the main street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

Revelation 21:22 I could not see any temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple,

Revelation 21:23 and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God, and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

Revelation 21:24 The nations will come to its light and the kings of the earth will bring it their treasures.

Revelation 21:25 Its gates will never be closed by day—and there will be no night there-

Revelation 21:26 and the nations will come, bringing their treasure and their wealth.

Revelation 21:27 Nothing unclean may come into it: no one who does what is loathsome or false, but only those who are listed in the Lamb's book of life.

Revelation 22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of life, rising from the throne of God and of the Lamb and flowing crystal-clear.

Revelation 22:2 Down the middle of the city street, on either bank of the river were the trees of life, which bear twelve crops of fruit in a year, one in each month, and the leaves of which are the cure for the nations.

Revelation 22:3 The curse of destruction will be abolished. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city; his servants will worship him, Revelation 22:4 they will see him face to face, and his name will be written on their foreheads.

Revelation 22:5 And night will be abolished; they will not need lamplight or sunlight, because the Lord God will be shining on them. They will reign for ever and ever.

Revelation 22:6 The angel said to me, ‘All that you have written is sure and will come true: the Lord God who inspires the prophets has sent his angel to reveal to his servants what is soon to take place.

Revelation 22:7 I am coming soon!’ Blessed are those who keep the prophetic message of this book.

Revelation 22:8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I had heard and seen them all, I knelt at the feet of the angel who had shown them to me, to worship him;

Revelation 22:9 but he said, ‘Do no such thing: I am your fellow-servant and the fellow-servant of your brothers the prophets and those who keep the message of this book. God alone you must worship.’

Revelation 22:10 This, too, he said to me, ‘Do not keep the prophecies in this book a secret, because the Time is close.

Revelation 22:11 Meanwhile let the sinner continue sinning, and the unclean continue to be unclean; let the upright continue in his uprightness, and those who are holy continue to be holy.

Revelation 22:12 Look, I am coming soon, and my reward is with me, to repay everyone as their deeds deserve.

Revelation 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

Revelation 22:14 Blessed are those who will have washed their robes clean, so that they will have the right to feed on the tree of life and can come through the gates into the city.

Revelation 22:15 Others must stay outside: dogs, fortune-tellers, and the sexually immoral, murderers, idolaters, and everyone of false speech and false life.’

Revelation 22:16 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to attest these things to you for the sake of the churches. I am the sprig from the root of David and the bright star of the morning.

Revelation 22:17 The Spirit and the Bride say, ‘Come!’ Let everyone who listens answer, ‘Come!’ Then let all who are thirsty come: all who want it may have the water of life, and have it free.

Revelation 22:18 This is my solemn attestation to all who hear the prophecies in this book: if anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him every plague mentioned in the book;

Revelation 22:19 if anyone cuts anything out of the prophecies in this book, God will cut off his share of the tree of life and of the holy city, which are described in the book.

Revelation 22:20 The one who attests these things says: I am indeed coming soon. Amen; come, Lord Jesus.

Revelation 22:21 May the grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all. Amen.

Genesis

1:1 In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth,

Genesis 1:2 the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters.

Genesis 1:3 Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.

Genesis 1:4 And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Genesis 1:6 And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.”

Genesis 1:7 So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so.

Genesis 1:8 God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

Genesis 1:9 And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:10 God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:11 Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:12 The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind, and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:13 And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

Genesis 1:14 And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, Genesis 1:15 and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:16 God made the two great lights— the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night— and the stars.

Genesis 1:17 God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth,

Genesis 1:18 to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:19 And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

Genesis 1:20 And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.”

Genesis 1:21 So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:22 God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 1:23 And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

Genesis 1:24 And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:25 God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind, and the cattle of every kind, and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, “Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.”

Genesis 1:27 So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:28 God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”

Genesis 1:29 God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food.

Genesis 1:30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:31 God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Genesis 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude.

Genesis 2:2 And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done.

Genesis 2:3 So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

Genesis 2:4 These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created. In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

Genesis 2:5 when no plant of the field was yet in the earth and no herb of the field had yet sprung up— for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was no one to till the ground;

Genesis 2:6 but a stream would rise from the earth, and water the whole face of the ground—

Genesis 2:7 then the LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and the man became a living being.

Genesis 2:8 And the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

Genesis 2:9 Out of the ground the LORD God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:10 A river flows out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it divides and becomes four branches.

Genesis 2:11 The name of the first is Pishon; it is the one that flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

Genesis 2:12 and the gold of that land is good; bdellium and onyx stone are there.

Genesis 2:13 The name of the second river is Gihon; it is the one that flows around the whole land of Cush.

Genesis 2:14 The name of the third river is Tigris, which flows east of Assyria. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

Genesis 2:15 The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it.

Genesis 2:16 And the LORD God commanded the man, “You may freely eat of every tree of the garden;

Genesis 2:17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.”

Genesis 2:18 Then the LORD God said, “It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.”

Genesis 2:19 So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.

Genesis 2:20 The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner.

Genesis 2:21 So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.

Genesis 2:22 And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man.

Genesis 2:23 Then the man said, “This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken.”

Genesis 2:24 Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Genesis 2:25 And the man and his wife were both naked, and were not ashamed.

Genesis 3:1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God say, ‘You shall not eat from any tree in the garden’?”

Genesis 3:2 The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden;

Genesis 3:3 but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.’“

Genesis 3:4 But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not die;

Genesis 3:5 for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:6 So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate.

Genesis 3:7 Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

Genesis 3:8 They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:9 But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, “Where are you?”

Genesis 3:10 He said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.”

Genesis 3:11 He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?”

Genesis 3:12 The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.”

Genesis 3:13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent tricked me, and I ate.”

Genesis 3:14 The LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life.

Genesis 3:15 I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.”

Genesis 3:16 To the woman he said, “I will greatly increase your pangs in childbearing; in pain you shall bring forth children, yet your desire shall be for your husband, and he shall rule over you.”

Genesis 3:17 And to the man he said, “Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten of the tree about which I commanded you, ‘You shall not eat of it,’ cursed is the ground because of you; in toil you shall eat of it all the days of your life;

Genesis 3:18 thorns and thistles it shall bring forth for you; and you shall eat the plants of the field.

Genesis 3:19 By the sweat of your face you shall eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken; you are dust, and to dust you shall return.”

Genesis 3:20 The man named his wife Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

Genesis 3:21 And the LORD God made garments of skins for the man and for his wife, and clothed them.

Genesis 3:22 Then the LORD God said, “See, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil; and now, he might reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever”—

Genesis 3:23 therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken.

Genesis 3:24 He drove out the man; and at the east of the garden of Eden he placed the cherubim, and a sword flaming and turning to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4:1 Now the man knew his wife Eve, and she conceived and bore Cain, saying, “I have produced a man with the help of the LORD.”

Genesis 4:2 Next she bore his brother Abel. Now Abel was a keeper of sheep, and Cain a tiller of the ground.

Genesis 4:3 In the course of time Cain brought to the LORD an offering of the fruit of the ground,

Genesis 4:4 and Abel for his part brought of the firstlings of his flock, their fat portions. And the LORD had regard for Abel and his offering, Genesis 4:5 but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his countenance fell.

Genesis 4:6 The LORD said to Cain, “Why are you angry, and why has your countenance fallen?

Genesis 4:7 If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is lurking at the door; its desire is for you, but you must master it.”

Genesis 4:8 Cain said to his brother Abel, “Let us go out to the field.” And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel, and killed him.

Genesis 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?” He said, “I do not know; am I my brother’s keeper?”

Genesis 4:10 And the LORD said, “What have you done? Listen; your brother’s blood is crying out to me from the ground!

Genesis 4:11 And now you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.

Genesis 4:12 When you till the ground, it will no longer yield to you its strength; you will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.”

Genesis 4:13 Cain said to the LORD, “My punishment is greater than I can bear!

Genesis 4:14 Today you have driven me away from the soil, and I shall be hidden from your face; I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and anyone who meets me may kill me.”

Genesis 4:15 Then the LORD said to him, “Not so! Whoever kills Cain will suffer a sevenfold vengeance.” And the LORD put a mark on Cain, so that no one who came upon him would kill him.

Genesis 4:16 Then Cain went away from the presence of the LORD, and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Genesis 4:17 Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch; and he built a city, and named it Enoch after his son Enoch.

Genesis 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad; and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael the father of Methushael, and Methushael the father of Lamech.

Genesis 4:19 Lamech took two wives; the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

Genesis 4:20 Adah bore Jabal; he was the ancestor of those who live in tents and have livestock.

Genesis 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal; he was the ancestor of all those who play the lyre and pipe.

Genesis 4:22 Zillah bore Tubal-cain, who made all kinds of bronze and iron tools. The sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

Genesis 4:23 Lamech said to his wives: "Adah and Zillah, hear my voice; you wives of Lamech, listen to what I say: I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for striking me.

Genesis 4:25 Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and named him Seth, for she said, "God has appointed for me another child instead of Abel, because Cain killed him."

Genesis 4:26 To Seth also a son was born, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to invoke the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5:1 This is the list of the descendants of Adam. When God created humankind, he made them in the likeness of God.

Genesis 5:2 Male and female he created them, and he blessed them and named them "Humankind" when they were created.

Genesis 5:3 When Adam had lived one hundred thirty years, he became the father of a son in his likeness, according to his image, and named him Seth.

Genesis 5:4 The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years; and he had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:5 Thus all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred thirty years; and he died.

Genesis 5:6 When Seth had lived one hundred five years, he became the father of Enosh.

Genesis 5:7 Seth lived after the birth of Enosh eight hundred seven years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:8 Thus all the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years; and he died.

Genesis 5:9 When Enosh had lived ninety years, he became the father of Kenan.

Genesis 5:10 Enosh lived after the birth of Kenan eight hundred fifteen years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:11 Thus all the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years; and he died.

Genesis 5:12 When Kenan had lived seventy years, he became the father of Mahalalel.

Genesis 5:13 Kenan lived after the birth of Mahalalel eight hundred and forty years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:14 Thus all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years; and he died.

Genesis 5:15 When Mahalalel had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Jared.

Genesis 5:16 Mahalalel lived after the birth of Jared eight hundred thirty years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:17 Thus all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years; and he died.

Genesis 5:18 When Jared had lived one hundred sixty-two years he became the father of Enoch.

Genesis 5:19 Jared lived after the birth of Enoch eight hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:20 Thus all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years; and he died.

Genesis 5:21 When Enoch had lived sixty-five years, he became the father of Methuselah.

Genesis 5:22 Enoch walked with God after the birth of Methuselah three hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:23 Thus all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years.

Genesis 5:24 Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him.

Genesis 5:25 When Methuselah had lived one hundred eighty-seven years, he became the father of Lamech.

Genesis 5:26 Methuselah lived after the birth of Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:27 Thus all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years; and he died.

Genesis 5:28 When Lamech had lived one hundred eighty-two years, he became the father of a son;

Genesis 5:29 he named him Noah, saying, “Out of the ground that the LORD has cursed this one shall bring us relief from our work and from the toil of our hands.”

Genesis 5:30 Lamech lived after the birth of Noah five hundred ninety-five years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:31 Thus all the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years; and he died.

Genesis 5:32 After Noah was five hundred years old, Noah became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:1 When people began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born to them,

Genesis 6:2 the sons of God saw that they were fair; and they took wives for themselves of all that they chose.

Genesis 6:3 Then the LORD said, “My spirit shall not abide in mortals forever, for they are flesh; their days shall be one hundred twenty years.”

Genesis 6:4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days— and also afterward— when the sons of God went in to the daughters of humans, who bore children to them. These were the heroes that were of old, warriors of renown.

Genesis 6:5 The LORD saw that the wickedness of humankind was great in the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually.

Genesis 6:6 And the LORD was sorry that he had made humankind on the earth, and it grieved him to his heart.

Genesis 6:7 So the LORD said, “I will blot out from the earth the human beings I have created— people together with animals and creeping things and birds of the air, for I am sorry that I have made them.”

Genesis 6:8 But Noah found favor in the sight of the LORD.

Genesis 6:9 These are the descendants of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless in his generation; Noah walked with God.

Genesis 6:10 And Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Genesis 6:11 Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight, and the earth was filled with violence.

Genesis 6:12 And God saw that the earth was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its ways upon the earth.

Genesis 6:13 And God said to Noah, “I have determined to make an end of all flesh, for the earth is filled with violence because of them; now I am going to destroy them along with the earth.

Genesis 6:14 Make yourself an ark of cypress wood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch.

Genesis 6:15 This is how you are to make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits.

Genesis 6:16 Make a roof for the ark, and finish it to a cubit above; and put the door of the ark in its side; make it with lower, second, and third decks.

Genesis 6:17 For my part, I am going to bring a flood of waters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die.

Genesis 6:18 But I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 6:19 And of every living thing, of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

Genesis 6:20 Of the birds according to their kinds, and of the animals according to their kinds, of every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind shall come in to you, to keep them alive.

Genesis 6:21 Also take with you every kind of food that is eaten, and store it up; and it shall serve as food for you and for them.”

Genesis 6:22 Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.

Genesis 7:1 Then the LORD said to Noah, “Go into the ark, you and all your household, for I have seen that you alone are righteous before me in this generation.

Genesis 7:2 Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and its mate; and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and its mate;

Genesis 7:3 and seven pairs of the birds of the air also, male and female, to keep their kind alive on the face of all the earth.

Genesis 7:4 For in seven days I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made I will blot out from the face of the ground.”

Genesis 7:5 And Noah did all that the LORD had commanded him.

Genesis 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters came on the earth.

Genesis 7:7 And Noah with his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives went into the ark to escape the waters of the flood.

Genesis 7:8 Of clean animals, and of animals that are not clean, and of birds, and of everything that creeps on the ground,

Genesis 7:9 two and two, male and female, went into the ark with Noah, as God had commanded Noah.

Genesis 7:10 And after seven days the waters of the flood came on the earth.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep burst forth, and the windows of the heavens were opened.

Genesis 7:12 The rain fell on the earth forty days and forty nights.

Genesis 7:13 On the very same day Noah with his sons, Shem and Ham and Japheth, and Noah’s wife and the three wives of his sons entered the ark,

Genesis 7:14 they and every wild animal of every kind, and all domestic animals of every kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every bird of every kind— every bird, every winged creature.

Genesis 7:15 They went into the ark with Noah, two and two of all flesh in which there was the breath of life.

Genesis 7:16 And those that entered, male and female of all flesh, went in as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

Genesis 7:17 The flood continued forty days on the earth; and the waters increased, and bore up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

Genesis 7:18 The waters swelled and increased greatly on the earth; and the ark floated on the face of the waters.

Genesis 7:19 The waters swelled so mightily on the earth that all the high mountains under the whole heaven were covered;

Genesis 7:21 And all flesh died that moved on the earth, birds, domestic animals, wild animals, all swarming creatures that swarm on the earth, and all human beings;

Genesis 7:22 everything on dry land in whose nostrils was the breath of life died.

Genesis 7:23 He blotted out every living thing that was on the face of the ground, human beings and animals and creeping things and birds of the air; they were blotted out from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those that were with him in the ark.

Genesis 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and all the domestic animals that were with him in the ark. And God made a wind blow over the earth, and the waters subsided;

Genesis 8:2 the fountains of the deep and the windows of the heavens were closed, the rain from the heavens was restrained,

Genesis 8:3 and the waters gradually receded from the earth. At the end of one hundred fifty days the waters had abated;

Genesis 8:4 and in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.

Genesis 8:5 The waters continued to abate until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.

Genesis 8:6 At the end of forty days Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made

Genesis 8:7 and sent out the raven; and it went to and fro until the waters were dried up from the earth.

Genesis 8:8 Then he sent out the dove from him, to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground;

Genesis 8:9 but the dove found no place to set its foot, and it returned to him to the ark, for the waters were still on the face of the whole earth. So he put out his hand and took it and brought it into the ark with him.

Genesis 8:10 He waited another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark;

Genesis 8:11 and the dove came back to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf; so Noah knew that the waters had subsided from the earth.

Genesis 8:12 Then he waited another seven days, and sent out the dove; and it did not return to him any more.

Genesis 8:13 In the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and saw that the face of the ground was drying.

Genesis 8:14 In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

Genesis 8:15 Then God said to Noah,

Genesis 8:16 “Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 8:17 Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh— birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth— so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

Genesis 8:18 So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives.

Genesis 8:19 And every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the ark by families.

Genesis 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

Genesis 8:21 And when the LORD smelled the pleasing odor, the LORD said in his heart, “I will never again curse the ground because of humankind, for the inclination of the human heart is evil from youth; nor will I ever again destroy every living creature as I have done.

Genesis 8:22 As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night, shall not cease.”

Genesis 9:1 God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.

Genesis 9:2 The fear and dread of you shall rest on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the air, on everything that creeps on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea; into your hand they are delivered.

Genesis 9:3 Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; and just as I gave you the green plants, I give you everything.

Genesis 9:4 Only, you shall not eat flesh with its life, that is, its blood.

Genesis 9:5 For your own lifeblood I will surely require a reckoning: from every animal I will require it and from human beings, each one for the blood of another, I will require a reckoning for human life.

Genesis 9:6 Whoever sheds the blood of a human, by a human shall that person’s blood be shed; for in his own image God made humankind.

Genesis 9:7 And you, be fruitful and multiply, abound on the earth and multiply in it.”

Genesis 9:8 Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him,

Genesis 9:9 “As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you,

Genesis 9:10 and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark.

Genesis 9:11 I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

Genesis 9:12 God said, “This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations:

Genesis 9:13 I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Genesis 9:14 When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds,

Genesis 9:15 I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh.

Genesis 9:16 When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

Genesis 9:17 God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

Genesis 9:18 The sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan.

Genesis 9:19 These three were the sons of Noah; and from these the whole earth was peopled.

Genesis 9:20 Noah, a man of the soil, was the first to plant a vineyard.

Genesis 9:21 He drank some of the wine and became drunk, and he lay uncovered in his tent.

Genesis 9:22 And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

Genesis 9:23 Then Shem and Japheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and walked backward and covered the nakedness of their father; their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father’s nakedness.

Genesis 9:24 When Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his youngest son had done to him,

Genesis 9:25 he said, “Cursed be Canaan; lowest of slaves shall he be to his brothers.”

Genesis 9:26 He also said, “Blessed by the LORD my God be Shem; and let Canaan be his slave.

Genesis 9:27 May God make space for Japheth, and let him live in the tents of Shem; and let Canaan be his slave.”

Genesis 9:29 All the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years; and he died.

Genesis 10:1 These are the descendants of Noah’s sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth; children were born to them after the flood.

Genesis 10:2 The descendants of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras.

Genesis 10:3 The descendants of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

Genesis 10:4 The descendants of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.

Genesis 10:5 From these the coastland peoples spread. These are the descendants of Japheth in their lands, with their own language, by their families, in their nations.

Genesis 10:6 The descendants of Ham: Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan.

Genesis 10:7 The descendants of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The descendants of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.

Genesis 10:8 Cush became the father of Nimrod; he was the first on earth to become a mighty warrior.

Genesis 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore it is said, “Like Nimrod a mighty hunter before the LORD.”

Genesis 10:10 The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, Erech, and Accad, all of them in the land of Shinar.

Genesis 10:11 From that land he went into Assyria, and built Nineveh, Rehoboth-ir, Calah, and Genesis 10:12 Resen between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

Genesis 10:13 Egypt became the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, Genesis 10:14 Pathrusim, Casluhim, and Caphtorim, from which the Philistines come.

Genesis 10:15 Canaan became the father of Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

Genesis 10:16 and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,

Genesis 10:17 the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,

Genesis 10:18 the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites. Afterward the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

Genesis 10:19 And the territory of the Canaanites extended from Sidon, in the direction of Gerar, as far as Gaza, and in the direction of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

Genesis 10:20 These are the descendants of Ham, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

Genesis 10:21 To Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the elder brother of Japheth, children were born.

Genesis 10:22 The descendants of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram.

Genesis 10:23 The descendants of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash.

Genesis 10:24 Arpachshad became the father of Shelah; and Shelah became the father of Eber.

Genesis 10:25 To Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother’s name was Joktan.

Genesis 10:26 Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Genesis 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Genesis 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Genesis 10:29 Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab; all these were the descendants of Joktan.

Genesis 10:30 The territory in which they lived extended from Mesha in the direction of Sephar, the hill country of the east.

Genesis 10:31 These are the descendants of Shem, by their families, their languages, their lands, and their nations.

Genesis 10:32 These are the families of Noah’s sons, according to their genealogies, in their nations; and from these the nations spread abroad on the earth after the flood.

Genesis 11:1 Now the whole earth had one language and the same words.

Genesis 11:2 And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.

Genesis 11:3 And they said to one another, “Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly.” And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar.

Genesis 11:4 Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.”

Genesis 11:5 The LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built.

Genesis 11:6 And the LORD said, “Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them.

Genesis 11:7 Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another’s speech.”

Genesis 11:8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city.

Genesis 11:9 Therefore it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Genesis 11:10 These are the descendants of Shem. When Shem was one hundred years old, he became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood;

Genesis 11:11 and Shem lived after the birth of Arpachshad five hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:12 When Arpachshad had lived thirty-five years, he became the father of Shelah;

Genesis 11:13 and Arpachshad lived after the birth of Shelah four hundred three years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:14 When Shelah had lived thirty years, he became the father of Eber;

Genesis 11:15 and Shelah lived after the birth of Eber four hundred three years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:16 When Eber had lived thirty-four years, he became the father of Peleg;

Genesis 11:17 and Eber lived after the birth of Peleg four hundred thirty years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:18 When Peleg had lived thirty years, he became the father of Reu;

Genesis 11:19 and Peleg lived after the birth of Reu two hundred nine years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:20 When Reu had lived thirty-two years, he became the father of Serug;

Genesis 11:21 and Reu lived after the birth of Serug two hundred seven years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:22 When Serug had lived thirty years, he became the father of Nahor;

Genesis 11:23 and Serug lived after the birth of Nahor two hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:24 When Nahor had lived twenty-nine years, he became the father of Terah;

Genesis 11:25 and Nahor lived after the birth of Terah one hundred nineteen years, and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:26 When Terah had lived seventy years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Genesis 11:27 Now these are the descendants of Terah. Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran was the father of Lot.

Genesis 11:28 Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans.

Genesis 11:29 Abram and Nahor took wives; the name of Abram’s wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor’s wife was Milcah. She was the daughter of Haran the father of Milcah and Iscah.

Genesis 11:30 Now Sarai was barren; she had no child.

Genesis 11:31 Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram’s wife, and they went out together from Ur of the Chaldeans to go into the land of Canaan; but when they came to Haran, they settled there.

Genesis 11:32 The days of Terah were two hundred five years; and Terah died in Haran.

Genesis 12:1 Now the LORD said to Abram, “Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you.

Genesis 12:2 I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

Genesis 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.”

Genesis 12:4 So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran.

Genesis 12:5 Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother’s son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, Genesis 12:6 Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

Genesis 12:7 Then the LORD appeared to Abram, and said, “To your offspring I will give this land.” So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Genesis 12:8 From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD.

Genesis 12:9 And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

Genesis 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to reside there as an alien, for the famine was severe in the land.

Genesis 12:11 When he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “I know well that you are a woman beautiful in appearance;

Genesis 12:12 and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; then they will kill me, but they will let you live.

Genesis 12:13 Say you are my sister, so that it may go well with me because of you, and that my life may be spared on your account.”

Genesis 12:14 When Abram entered Egypt the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful.

Genesis 12:15 When the officials of Pharaoh saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh. And the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house.

Genesis 12:16 And for her sake he dealt well with Abram; and he had sheep, oxen, male donkeys, male and female slaves, female donkeys, and camels.

Genesis 12:17 But the LORD afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

Genesis 12:18 So Pharaoh called Abram, and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife?

Genesis 12:19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her for my wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her, and be gone."

Genesis 12:20 And Pharaoh gave his men orders concerning him; and they set him on the way, with his wife and all that he had.

Genesis 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the Negeb.

Genesis 13:2 Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.

Genesis 13:3 He journeyed on by stages from the Negeb as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai,

Genesis 13:4 to the place where he had made an altar at the first; and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 13:5 Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents,

Genesis 13:6 so that the land could not support both of them living together; for their possessions were so great that they could not live together,

Genesis 13:7 and there was strife between the herders of Abram's livestock and the herders of Lot's livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites lived in the land.

Genesis 13:8 Then Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herders and my herders; for we are kindred.

Genesis 13:9 Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left."

Genesis 13:10 Lot looked about him, and saw that the plain of the Jordan was well watered everywhere like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar; this was before the LORD had destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

Genesis 13:11 So Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Jordan, and Lot journeyed eastward; thus they separated from each other.

Genesis 13:12 Abram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled among the cities of the Plain and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

Genesis 13:13 Now the people of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the LORD.

Genesis 13:14 The LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, “Raise your eyes now, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward;

Genesis 13:15 for all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever.

Genesis 13:16 I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth; so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your offspring also can be counted.

Genesis 13:17 Rise up, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you.”

Genesis 13:18 So Abram moved his tent, and came and settled by the oaks of Mamre, which are at Hebron; and there he built an altar to the LORD.

Genesis 14:1 In the days of King Amraphel of Shinar, King Arioch of Ellasar, King Chedorlaomer of Elam, and King Tidal of Goiim, Genesis 14:2 these kings made war with King Bera of Sodom, King Birsha of Gomorrah, King Shinab of Admah, King Shemeber of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Genesis 14:3 All these joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Dead Sea).

Genesis 14:4 Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Genesis 14:5 In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and subdued the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, the Emim in Shaveh-kiriathaim,

Genesis 14:6 and the Horites in the hill country of Seir as far as El-paran on the edge of the wilderness;

Genesis 14:7 then they turned back and came to En-mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and subdued all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites who lived in Hazazon-tamar.

Genesis 14:8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out, and they joined battle in the Valley of Siddim

Genesis 14:9 with King Chedorlaomer of Elam, King Tidal of Goiim, King Amraphel of Shinar, and King Arioch of Ellasar, four kings against five.

Genesis 14:10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of bitumen pits; and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into them, and the rest fled to the hill country.

Genesis 14:11 So the enemy took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way;

Genesis 14:12 they also took Lot, the son of Abram’s brother, who lived in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

Genesis 14:13 Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and of Aner; these were allies of Abram.

Genesis 14:14 When Abram heard that his nephew had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred eighteen of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

Genesis 14:15 He divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and routed them and pursued them to Hobah, north of Damascus.

Genesis 14:16 Then he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his nephew Lot with his goods, and the women and the people.

Genesis 14:17 After his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King’s Valley).

Genesis 14:18 And King Melchizedek of Salem brought out bread and wine; he was priest of God Most High.

Genesis 14:19 He blessed him and said, “Blessed be Abram by God Most High, maker of heaven and earth; Genesis 14:20 and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!” And Abram gave him one tenth of everything.

Genesis 14:21 Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself.”

Genesis 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have sworn to the LORD, God Most High, maker of heaven and earth,

Genesis 14:23 that I would not take a thread or a sandal-thong or anything that is yours, so that you might not say, ‘I have made Abram rich.’

Genesis 14:24 I will take nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me— Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their share.”

Genesis 15:1 After these things the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, “Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.”

Genesis 15:2 But Abram said, “O Lord GOD, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?”

Genesis 15:3 And Abram said, “You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.”

Genesis 15:4 But the word of the LORD came to him, “This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.”

Genesis 15:5 He brought him outside and said, “Look toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your descendants be.”

Genesis 15:6 And he believed the LORD; and the LORD reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Genesis 15:7 Then he said to him, “I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to possess.”

Genesis 15:8 But he said, “O Lord GOD, how am I to know that I shall possess it?”

Genesis 15:9 He said to him, “Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

Genesis 15:10 He brought him all these and cut them in two, laying each half over against the other; but he did not cut the birds in two.

Genesis 15:11 And when birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

Genesis 15:12 As the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a deep and terrifying darkness descended upon him.

Genesis 15:13 Then the LORD said to Abram, “Know this for certain, that your offspring shall be aliens in a land that is not theirs, and shall be slaves there, and they shall be oppressed for four hundred years;

Genesis 15:14 but I will bring judgment on the nation that they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions.

Genesis 15:15 As for yourself, you shall go to your ancestors in peace; you shall be buried in a good old age.

Genesis 15:16 And they shall come back here in the fourth generation; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.”

Genesis 15:17 When the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch passed between these pieces.

Genesis 15:18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, “To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates,

Genesis 15:19 the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites,

Genesis 15:20 the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim,

Genesis 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, bore him no children. She had an Egyptian slave-girl whose name was Hagar, Genesis 16:2 and Sarai said to Abram, “You see that the LORD has prevented me from bearing children; go in to my slave-girl; it may be that I shall obtain children by her.” And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai.

Genesis 16:3 So, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram’s wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her slave-girl, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife.

Genesis 16:4 He went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress.

Genesis 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, “May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my slave-girl to your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked on me with contempt. May the LORD judge between you and me!”

Genesis 16:6 But Abram said to Sarai, “Your slave-girl is in your power; do to her as you please.” Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she ran away from her.

Genesis 16:7 The angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 And he said, “Hagar, slave-girl of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?” She said, “I am running away from my mistress Sarai.”

Genesis 16:9 The angel of the LORD said to her, “Return to your mistress, and submit to her.”

Genesis 16:10 The angel of the LORD also said to her, “I will so greatly multiply your offspring that they cannot be counted for multitude.”

Genesis 16:11 And the angel of the LORD said to her, “Now you have conceived and shall bear a son; you shall call him Ishmael, for the LORD has given heed to your affliction.

Genesis 16:12 He shall be a wild ass of a man, with his hand against everyone, and everyone’s hand against him; and he shall live at odds with all his kin.”

Genesis 16:13 So she named the LORD who spoke to her, “You are El-roi”; for she said, “Have I really seen God and remained alive after seeing him?”

Genesis 16:14 Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 16:15 Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

Genesis 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

Genesis 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, “I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless.

Genesis 17:2 And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous.”

Genesis 17:3 Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him,

Genesis 17:4 “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations.

Genesis 17:5 No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations.

Genesis 17:6 I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you.

Genesis 17:7 I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you.

Genesis 17:8 And I will give to you, and to your offspring after you, the land where you are now an alien, all the land of Canaan, for a perpetual holding; and I will be their God.”

Genesis 17:9 God said to Abraham, “As for you, you shall keep my covenant, you and your offspring after you throughout their generations.

Genesis 17:10 This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your offspring after you: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

Genesis 17:11 You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and you.

Genesis 17:12 Throughout your generations every male among you shall be circumcised when he is eight days old, including the slave born in your house and the one bought with your money from any foreigner who is not of your offspring.

Genesis 17:13 Both the slave born in your house and the one bought with your money must be circumcised. So shall my covenant be in your flesh an everlasting covenant.

Genesis 17:14 Any uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin shall be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant.”

Genesis 17:15 God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

Genesis 17:16 I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.”

Genesis 17:17 Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said to himself, “Can a child be born to a man who is a hundred years old? Can Sarah, who is ninety years old, bear a child?”

Genesis 17:18 And Abraham said to God, “O that Ishmael might live in your sight!”

Genesis 17:19 God said, “No, but your wife Sarah shall bear you a son, and you shall name him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his offspring after him.

Genesis 17:20 As for Ishmael, I have heard you; I will bless him and make him fruitful and exceedingly numerous; he shall be the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation.

Genesis 17:21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this season next year.”

Genesis 17:22 And when he had finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham.

Genesis 17:23 Then Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the slaves born in his house or bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s house, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very day, as God had said to him.

Genesis 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Genesis 17:25 And his son Ishmael was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

Genesis 17:26 That very day Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised;

Genesis 17:27 and all the men of his house, slaves born in the house and those bought with money from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Genesis 18:1 The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day.

Genesis 18:2 He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground.

Genesis 18:3 He said, “My lord, if I find favor with you, do not pass by your servant.

Genesis 18:4 Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

Genesis 18:5 Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on— since you have come to your servant.” So they said, “Do as you have said.”

Genesis 18:6 And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, “Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.”

Genesis 18:7 Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it.

Genesis 18:8 Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

Genesis 18:9 They said to him, “Where is your wife Sarah?” And he said, “There, in the tent.”

Genesis 18:10 Then one said, “I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.” And Sarah was listening at the tent entrance behind him.

Genesis 18:11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in age; it had ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

Genesis 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, “After I have grown old, and my husband is old, shall I have pleasure?”

Genesis 18:13 The LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh, and say, ‘Shall I indeed bear a child, now that I am old?’

Genesis 18:14 Is anything too wonderful for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, in due season, and Sarah shall have a son.”

Genesis 18:15 But Sarah denied, saying, “I did not laugh”; for she was afraid. He said, “Oh yes, you did laugh.”

Genesis 18:16 Then the men set out from there, and they looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to set them on their way.

Genesis 18:17 The LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do,

Genesis 18:18 seeing that Abraham shall become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

Genesis 18:19 No, for I have chosen him, that he may charge his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice; so that the LORD may bring about for Abraham what he has promised him.”

Genesis 18:20 Then the LORD said, “How great is the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah and how very grave their sin!

Genesis 18:21 I must go down and see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to me; and if not, I will know.”

Genesis 18:22 So the men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD.

Genesis 18:23 Then Abraham came near and said, “Will you indeed sweep away the righteous with the wicked?

Genesis 18:24 Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city; will you then sweep away the place and not forgive it for the fifty righteous who are in it?

Genesis 18:25 Far be it from you to do such a thing, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous fare as the wicked! Far be that from you! Shall not the Judge of all the earth do what is just?”

Genesis 18:26 And the LORD said, “If I find at Sodom fifty righteous in the city, I will forgive the whole place for their sake.”

Genesis 18:27 Abraham answered, “Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord, I who am but dust and ashes.

Genesis 18:28 Suppose five of the fifty righteous are lacking? Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?” And he said, “I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there.”

Genesis 18:29 Again he spoke to him, “Suppose forty are found there.” He answered, “For the sake of forty I will not do it.”

Genesis 18:30 Then he said, “Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak. Suppose thirty are found there.” He answered, “I will not do it, if I find thirty there.”

Genesis 18:31 He said, “Let me take it upon myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there.” He answered, “For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it.”

Genesis 18:32 Then he said, “Oh do not let the Lord be angry if I speak just once more. Suppose ten are found there.” He answered, “For the sake of ten I will not destroy it.”

Genesis 18:33 And the LORD went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

Genesis 19:1 The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and bowed down with his face to the ground.

Genesis 19:2 He said, “Please, my lords, turn aside to your servant’s house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you can rise early and go on your way.” They said, “No; we will spend the night in the square.”

Genesis 19:3 But he urged them strongly; so they turned aside to him and entered his house; and he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

Genesis 19:4 But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house;

Genesis 19:5 and they called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, so that we may know them.”

Genesis 19:6 Lot went out of the door to the men, shut the door after him, Genesis 19:7 and said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.

Genesis 19:8 Look, I have two daughters who have not known a man; let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please; only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.”

Genesis 19:9 But they replied, “Stand back!” And they said, “This fellow came here as an alien, and he would play the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them.” Then they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near the door to break it down.

Genesis 19:10 But the men inside reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

Genesis 19:11 And they struck with blindness the men who were at the door of the house, both small and great, so that they were unable to find the door.

Genesis 19:12 Then the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city— bring them out of the place.

Genesis 19:13 For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

Genesis 19:14 So Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, “Up, get out of this place; for the LORD is about to destroy the city.” But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be jesting.

Genesis 19:15 When morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or else you will be consumed in the punishment of the city.”

Genesis 19:16 But he lingered; so the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, the LORD being merciful to him, and they brought him out and left him outside the city.

Genesis 19:17 When they had brought them outside, they said, “Flee for your life; do not look back or stop anywhere in the Plain; flee to the hills, or else you will be consumed.”

Genesis 19:18 And Lot said to them, “Oh, no, my lords;

Genesis 19:19 your servant has found favor with you, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life; but I cannot flee to the hills, for fear the disaster will overtake me and I die.

Genesis 19:20 Look, that city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me escape there— is it not a little one?— and my life will be saved!”

Genesis 19:21 He said to him, “Very well, I grant you this favor too, and will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken.

Genesis 19:22 Hurry, escape there, for I can do nothing until you arrive there.” Therefore the city was called Zoar.

Genesis 19:23 The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar.

Genesis 19:24 Then the LORD rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

Genesis 19:25 and he overthrew those cities, and all the Plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.

Genesis 19:26 But Lot’s wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Genesis 19:27 Abraham went early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD;

Genesis 19:28 and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah and toward all the land of the Plain and saw the smoke of the land going up like the smoke of a furnace.

Genesis 19:29 So it was that, when God destroyed the cities of the Plain, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot had settled.

Genesis 19:30 Now Lot went up out of Zoar and settled in the hills with his two daughters, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar; so he lived in a cave with his two daughters.

Genesis 19:31 And the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is not a man on earth to come in to us after the manner of all the world.

Genesis 19:32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, so that we may preserve offspring through our father.”

Genesis 19:33 So they made their father drink wine that night; and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father; he did not know when she lay down or when she rose.

Genesis 19:34 On the next day, the firstborn said to the younger, “Look, I lay last night with my father; let us make him drink wine tonight also; then you go in and lie with him, so that we may preserve offspring through our father.”

Genesis 19:35 So they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger rose, and lay with him; and he did not know when she lay down or when she rose.

Genesis 19:36 Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

Genesis 19:37 The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab; he is the ancestor of the Moabites to this day.

Genesis 19:38 The younger also bore a son and named him Ben-ammi; he is the ancestor of the Ammonites to this day.

Genesis 20:1 From there Abraham journeyed toward the region of the Negeb, and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While residing in Gerar as an alien, Genesis 20:2 Abraham said of his wife Sarah, “She is my sister.” And King Abimelech of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

Genesis 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, “You are about to die because of the woman whom you have taken; for she is a married woman.”

Genesis 20:4 Now Abimelech had not approached her; so he said, “Lord, will you destroy an innocent people?

Genesis 20:5 Did he not himself say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ I did this in the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands.”

Genesis 20:6 Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart; furthermore it was I who kept you from sinning against me. Therefore I did not let you touch her.

Genesis 20:7 Now then, return the man’s wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all that are yours.”

Genesis 20:8 So Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants and told them all these things; and the men were very much afraid.

Genesis 20:9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, “What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought such great guilt on me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that ought not to be done.”

Genesis 20:10 And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What were you thinking of, that you did this thing?”

Genesis 20:11 Abraham said, “I did it because I thought, There is no fear of God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.

Genesis 20:12 Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

Genesis 20:13 And when God caused me to wander from my father’s house, I said to her, ‘This is the kindness you must do me: at every place to which we come, say of me, He is my brother.’“

Genesis 20:14 Then Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and male and female slaves, and gave them to Abraham, and restored his wife Sarah to him.

Genesis 20:15 Abimelech said, “My land is before you; settle where it pleases you.”

Genesis 20:16 To Sarah he said, “Look, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver; it is your exoneration before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated.”

Genesis 20:17 Then Abraham prayed to God; and God healed Abimelech, and also healed his wife and female slaves so that they bore children.

Genesis 20:18 For the LORD had closed fast all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah, Abraham’s wife.

Genesis 21:1 The LORD dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as he had promised.

Genesis 21:2 Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him.

Genesis 21:3 Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him.

Genesis 21:4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.

Genesis 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Genesis 21:6 Now Sarah said, “God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me.”

Genesis 21:7 And she said, “Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.”

Genesis 21:8 The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned.

Genesis 21:9 But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac.

Genesis 21:10 So she said to Abraham, “Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.”

Genesis 21:11 The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son.

Genesis 21:12 But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named for you.

Genesis 21:13 As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.”

Genesis 21:14 So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

Genesis 21:15 When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes.

Genesis 21:16 Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, “Do not let me look on the death of the child.” And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept.

Genesis 21:17 And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.

Genesis 21:18 Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.”

Genesis 21:19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

Genesis 21:20 God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow.

Genesis 21:21 He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Genesis 21:22 At that time Abimelech, with Phicol the commander of his army, said to Abraham, “God is with you in all that you do;

Genesis 21:23 now therefore swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me or with my offspring or with my posterity, but as I have dealt loyally with you, you will deal with me and with the land where you have resided as an alien.”

Genesis 21:24 And Abraham said, “I swear it.”

Genesis 21:25 When Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech’s servants had seized,

Genesis 21:26 Abimelech said, “I do not know who has done this; you did not tell me, and I have not heard of it until today.”

Genesis 21:27 So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a covenant.

Genesis 21:29 And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set apart?”

Genesis 21:30 He said, “These seven ewe lambs you shall accept from my hand, in order that you may be a witness for me that I dug this well.”

Genesis 21:31 Therefore that place was called Beer-sheba; because there both of them swore an oath.

Genesis 21:32 When they had made a covenant at Beer-sheba, Abimelech, with Phicol the commander of his army, left and returned to the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God.

Genesis 21:34 And Abraham resided as an alien many days in the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 22:1 After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 22:2 He said, “Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you.”

Genesis 22:3 So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering, and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him.

Genesis 22:4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away.

Genesis 22:5 Then Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you.”

Genesis 22:6 Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together.

Genesis 22:7 Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Father!” And he said, “Here I am, my son.” He said, “The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”

Genesis 22:8 Abraham said, “God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son.” So the two of them walked on together.

Genesis 22:9 When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Genesis 22:10 Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.

Genesis 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven, and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 22:12 He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him; for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”

Genesis 22:13 And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son.

Genesis 22:14 So Abraham called that place “The LORD will provide”; as it is said to this day, “On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided.”

Genesis 22:15 The angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time from heaven,

Genesis 22:16 and said, “By myself I have sworn, says the LORD: Because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son,

Genesis 22:17 I will indeed bless you, and I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of their enemies,

Genesis 22:18 and by your offspring shall all the nations of the earth gain blessing for themselves, because you have obeyed my voice.”

Genesis 22:19 So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham lived at Beer-sheba.

Genesis 22:20 Now after these things it was told Abraham, “Milcah also has borne children, to your brother Nahor:

Genesis 22:21 Uz the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram,

Genesis 22:22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.”

Genesis 22:23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham’s brother.

Genesis 23:1 Sarah lived one hundred twenty-seven years; this was the length of Sarah’s life.

Genesis 23:2 And Sarah died at Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan; and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

Genesis 23:3 Abraham rose up from beside his dead, and said to the Hittites,

Genesis 23:4 “I am a stranger and an alien residing among you; give me property among you for a burying place, so that I may bury my dead out of my sight.”

Genesis 23:5 The Hittites answered Abraham,

Genesis 23:6 “Hear us, my lord; you are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places; none of us will withhold from you any burial ground for burying your dead.”

Genesis 23:7 Abraham rose and bowed to the Hittites, the people of the land.

Genesis 23:8 He said to them, “If you are willing that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me Ephron son of Zohar, Genesis 23:9 so that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns; it is at the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me in your presence as a possession for a burying place.”

Genesis 23:10 Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of the Hittites, of all who went in at the gate of his city,

Genesis 23:11 “No, my lord, hear me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it; in the presence of my people I give it to you; bury your dead.”

Genesis 23:12 Then Abraham bowed down before the people of the land.

Genesis 23:13 He said to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, “If you only will listen to me! I will give the price of the field; accept it from me, so that I may bury my dead there.”

Genesis 23:14 Ephron answered Abraham,

Genesis 23:15 “My lord, listen to me; a piece of land worth four hundred shekels of silver— what is that between you and me? Bury your dead.”

Genesis 23:16 Abraham agreed with Ephron; and Abraham weighed out for Ephron the silver that he had named in the hearing of the Hittites, four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weights current among the merchants.

Genesis 23:17 So the field of Ephron in Machpelah, which was to the east of Mamre, the field with the cave that was in it and all the trees that were in the field, throughout its whole area, passed

Genesis 23:18 to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the Hittites, in the presence of all who went in at the gate of his city.

Genesis 23:19 After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah facing Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 23:20 The field and the cave that is in it passed from the Hittites into Abraham’s possession as a burying place.

Genesis 24:1 Now Abraham was old, well advanced in years; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things.

Genesis 24:2 Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his house, who had charge of all that he had, “Put your hand under my thigh

Genesis 24:3 and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live,

Genesis 24:4 but will go to my country and to my kindred and get a wife for my son Isaac.”

Genesis 24:5 The servant said to him, “Perhaps the woman may not be willing to follow me to this land; must I then take your son back to the land from which you came?”

Genesis 24:6 Abraham said to him, “See to it that you do not take my son back there.

Genesis 24:7 The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my birth, and who spoke to me and swore to me, ‘To your offspring I will give this land,’ he will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

Genesis 24:8 But if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from this oath of mine; only you must not take my son back there.”

Genesis 24:9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

Genesis 24:10 Then the servant took ten of his master’s camels and departed, taking all kinds of choice gifts from his master; and he set out and went to Aram-naharaim, to the city of Nahor.

Genesis 24:11 He made the camels kneel down outside the city by the well of water; it was toward evening, the time when women go out to draw water.

Genesis 24:12 And he said, “O LORD, God of my master Abraham, please grant me success today and show steadfast love to my master Abraham.

Genesis 24:13 I am standing here by the spring of water, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.

Genesis 24:14 Let the girl to whom I shall say, ‘Please offer your jar that I may drink,’ and who shall say, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels’— let her be the one whom you have appointed for your servant Isaac. By this I shall know that you have shown steadfast love to my master.”

Genesis 24:15 Before he had finished speaking, there was Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham’s brother, coming out with her water jar on her shoulder.

Genesis 24:16 The girl was very fair to look upon, a virgin, whom no man had known. She went down to the spring, filled her jar, and came up.

Genesis 24:17 Then the servant ran to meet her and said, “Please let me sip a little water from your jar.”

Genesis 24:18 “Drink, my lord,” she said, and quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink.

Genesis 24:19 When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I will draw for your camels also, until they have finished drinking.”

Genesis 24:20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough and ran again to the well to draw, and she drew for all his camels.

Genesis 24:21 The man gazed at her in silence to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.

Genesis 24:22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold nose-ring weighing a half shekel, and two bracelets for her arms weighing ten gold shekels,

Genesis 24:23 and said, “Tell me whose daughter you are. Is there room in your father’s house for us to spend the night?”

Genesis 24:24 She said to him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.”

Genesis 24:25 She added, “We have plenty of straw and fodder and a place to spend the night.”

Genesis 24:26 The man bowed his head and worshiped the LORD

Genesis 24:27 and said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his steadfast love and his faithfulness toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the way to the house of my master’s kin.”

Genesis 24:28 Then the girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things.

Genesis 24:29 Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban; and Laban ran out to the man, to the spring.

Genesis 24:30 As soon as he had seen the nose-ring, and the bracelets on his sister’s arms, and when he heard the words of his sister Rebekah, “Thus the man spoke to me,” he went to the man; and there he was, standing by the camels at the spring.

Genesis 24:31 He said, “Come in, O blessed of the LORD. Why do you stand outside when I have prepared the house and a place for the camels?”

Genesis 24:32 So the man came into the house; and Laban unloaded the camels, and gave him straw and fodder for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him.

Genesis 24:33 Then food was set before him to eat; but he said, “I will not eat until I have told my errand.” He said, “Speak on.”

Genesis 24:34 So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.

Genesis 24:35 The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy; he has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male and female slaves, camels and donkeys.

Genesis 24:36 And Sarah my master’s wife bore a son to my master when she was old; and he has given him all that he has.

Genesis 24:37 My master made me swear, saying, 'You shall not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live;

Genesis 24:38 but you shall go to my father's house, to my kindred, and get a wife for my son.'

Genesis 24:39 I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me.'

Genesis 24:40 But he said to me, 'The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you and make your way successful. You shall get a wife for my son from my kindred, from my father's house.

Genesis 24:41 Then you will be free from my oath, when you come to my kindred; even if they will not give her to you, you will be free from my oath.'

Genesis 24:42 "I came today to the spring, and said, 'O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now you will only make successful the way I am going!

Genesis 24:43 I am standing here by the spring of water; let the young woman who comes out to draw, to whom I shall say, "Please give me a little water from your jar to drink,"

Genesis 24:44 and who will say to me, "Drink, and I will draw for your camels also"— let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

Genesis 24:45 "Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her water jar on her shoulder; and she went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'

Genesis 24:46 She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will also water your camels.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels.

Genesis 24:47 Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' So I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her arms.

Genesis 24:48 Then I bowed my head and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me by the right way to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son.

Genesis 24:49 Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so that I may turn either to the right hand or to the left."

Genesis 24:50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, "The thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you anything bad or good.

Genesis 24:51 Look, Rebekah is before you, take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has spoken."

Genesis 24:52 When Abraham’s servant heard their words, he bowed himself to the ground before the LORD.

Genesis 24:53 And the servant brought out jewelry of silver and of gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave to her brother and to her mother costly ornaments.

Genesis 24:54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank, and they spent the night there. When they rose in the morning, he said, “Send me back to my master.”

Genesis 24:55 Her brother and her mother said, “Let the girl remain with us a while, at least ten days; after that she may go.”

Genesis 24:56 But he said to them, “Do not delay me, since the LORD has made my journey successful; let me go that I may go to my master.”

Genesis 24:57 They said, “We will call the girl, and ask her.”

Genesis 24:58 And they called Rebekah, and said to her, “Will you go with this man?” She said, “I will.”

Genesis 24:59 So they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse along with Abraham’s servant and his men.

Genesis 24:60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, “May you, our sister, become thousands of myriads; may your offspring gain possession of the gates of their foes.”

Genesis 24:61 Then Rebekah and her maids rose up, mounted the camels, and followed the man; thus the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

Genesis 24:62 Now Isaac had come from Beer-lahai-roi, and was settled in the Negeb.

Genesis 24:63 Isaac went out in the evening to walk in the field; and looking up, he saw camels coming.

Genesis 24:64 And Rebekah looked up, and when she saw Isaac, she slipped quickly from the camel,

Genesis 24:65 and said to the servant, “Who is the man over there, walking in the field to meet us?” The servant said, “It is my master.” So she took her veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent. He took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

Genesis 25:1 Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.

Genesis 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

Genesis 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The sons of Dedan were Asshurim, Letushim, and Leummim.

Genesis 25:4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

Genesis 25:5 Abraham gave all he had to Isaac.

Genesis 25:6 But to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts, while he was still living, and he sent them away from his son Isaac, eastward to the east country.

Genesis 25:8 Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, an old man and full of years, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, east of Mamre, Genesis 25:10 the field that Abraham purchased from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried, with his wife Sarah.

Genesis 25:11 After the death of Abraham God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac settled at Beer-lahai-roi.

Genesis 25:12 These are the descendants of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's slave-girl, bore to Abraham.

Genesis 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, named in the order of their birth: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael; and Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Genesis 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Genesis 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah.

Genesis 25:16 These are the sons of Ishmael and these are their names, by their villages and by their encampments, twelve princes according to their tribes.

Genesis 25:17 (This is the length of the life of Ishmael, one hundred thirty-seven years; he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.)

Genesis 25:18 They settled from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt in the direction of Assyria; he settled down alongside of all his people.

Genesis 25:19 These are the descendants of Isaac, Abraham's son: Abraham was the father of Isaac, Genesis 25:20 and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, daughter of Bethuel the Aramean of Paddan-aram, sister of Laban the Aramean.

Genesis 25:21 Isaac prayed to the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD granted his prayer, and his wife Rebekah conceived.

Genesis 25:22 The children struggled together within her; and she said, “If it is to be this way, why do I live?” So she went to inquire of the LORD.

Genesis 25:23 And the LORD said to her, “Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples born of you shall be divided; the one shall be stronger than the other, the elder shall serve the younger.”

Genesis 25:24 When her time to give birth was at hand, there were twins in her womb.

Genesis 25:25 The first came out red, all his body like a hairy mantle; so they named him Esau.

Genesis 25:26 Afterward his brother came out, with his hand gripping Esau’s heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

Genesis 25:27 When the boys grew up, Esau was a skillful hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a quiet man, living in tents.

Genesis 25:28 Isaac loved Esau, because he was fond of game; but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Genesis 25:29 Once when Jacob was cooking a stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was famished.

Genesis 25:30 Esau said to Jacob, “Let me eat some of that red stuff, for I am famished!” (Therefore he was called Edom.)

Genesis 25:31 Jacob said, “First sell me your birthright.”

Genesis 25:32 Esau said, “I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?”

Genesis 25:33 Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob.

Genesis 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 26:1 Now there was a famine in the land, besides the former famine that had occurred in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Gerar, to King Abimelech of the Philistines.

Genesis 26:2 The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; settle in the land that I shall show you.

Genesis 26:3 Reside in this land as an alien, and I will be with you, and will bless you; for to you and to your descendants I will give all these lands, and I will fulfill the oath that I swore to your father Abraham.

Genesis 26:4 I will make your offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven, and will give to your offspring all these lands; and all the nations of the earth shall gain blessing for themselves through your offspring,

Genesis 26:5 because Abraham obeyed my voice and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.”

Genesis 26:6 So Isaac settled in Gerar.

Genesis 26:7 When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he said, “She is my sister”; for he was afraid to say, “My wife,” thinking, “or else the men of the place might kill me for the sake of Rebekah, because she is attractive in appearance.”

Genesis 26:8 When Isaac had been there a long time, King Abimelech of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw him fondling his wife Rebekah.

Genesis 26:9 So Abimelech called for Isaac, and said, “So she is your wife! Why then did you say, ‘She is my sister’?” Isaac said to him, “Because I thought I might die because of her.”

Genesis 26:10 Abimelech said, “What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us.”

Genesis 26:11 So Abimelech warned all the people, saying, “Whoever touches this man or his wife shall be put to death.”

Genesis 26:12 Isaac sowed seed in that land, and in the same year reaped a hundredfold. The LORD blessed him,

Genesis 26:13 and the man became rich; he prospered more and more until he became very wealthy.

Genesis 26:14 He had possessions of flocks and herds, and a great household, so that the Philistines envied him.

Genesis 26:15 (Now the Philistines had stopped up and filled with earth all the wells that his father’s servants had dug in the days of his father Abraham.)

Genesis 26:16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, “Go away from us; you have become too powerful for us.”

Genesis 26:17 So Isaac departed from there and camped in the valley of Gerar and settled there.

Genesis 26:18 Isaac dug again the wells of water that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham; for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham; and he gave them the names that his father had given them.

Genesis 26:19 But when Isaac’s servants dug in the valley and found there a well of spring water, Genesis 26:20 the herders of Gerar quarreled with Isaac’s herders, saying, “The water is ours.” So he called the well Esek, because they contended with him.

Genesis 26:21 Then they dug another well, and they quarreled over that one also; so he called it Sitnah.

Genesis 26:22 He moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it; so he called it Rehoboth, saying, “Now the LORD has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.”

Genesis 26:23 From there he went up to Beer-sheba.

Genesis 26:24 And that very night the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham; do not be afraid, for I am with you and will bless you and make your offspring numerous for my servant Abraham’s sake.”

Genesis 26:25 So he built an altar there, called on the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there. And there Isaac’s servants dug a well.

Genesis 26:26 Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his adviser and Phicol the commander of his army.

Genesis 26:27 Isaac said to them, “Why have you come to me, seeing that you hate me and have sent me away from you?”

Genesis 26:28 They said, “We see plainly that the LORD has been with you; so we say, let there be an oath between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you Genesis 26:29 so that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you and have done to you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD.”

Genesis 26:30 So he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 In the morning they rose early and exchanged oaths; and Isaac set them on their way, and they departed from him in peace.

Genesis 26:32 That same day Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well that they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water!”

Genesis 26:33 He called it Shibah; therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba to this day.

Genesis 26:34 When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite;

Genesis 26:35 and they made life bitter for Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis 27:1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, he called his elder son Esau and said to him, “My son”; and he answered, “Here I am.”

Genesis 27:2 He said, “See, I am old; I do not know the day of my death.

Genesis 27:3 Now then, take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and hunt game for me.

Genesis 27:4 Then prepare for me savory food, such as I like, and bring it to me to eat, so that I may bless you before I die.”

Genesis 27:5 Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to his son Esau. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for game and bring it, Genesis 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “I heard your father say to your brother Esau,

Genesis 27:7 ‘Bring me game, and prepare for me savory food to eat, that I may bless you before the LORD before I die.’

Genesis 27:8 Now therefore, my son, obey my word as I command you.

Genesis 27:9 Go to the flock, and get me two choice kids, so that I may prepare from them savory food for your father, such as he likes;

Genesis 27:10 and you shall take it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before he dies.”

Genesis 27:11 But Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, “Look, my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am a man of smooth skin.

Genesis 27:12 Perhaps my father will feel me, and I shall seem to be mocking him, and bring a curse on myself and not a blessing.”

Genesis 27:13 His mother said to him, “Let your curse be on me, my son; only obey my word, and go, get them for me.”

Genesis 27:14 So he went and got them and brought them to his mother; and his mother prepared savory food, such as his father loved.

Genesis 27:15 Then Rebekah took the best garments of her elder son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob;

Genesis 27:17 Then she handed the savory food, and the bread that she had prepared, to her son Jacob.

Genesis 27:18 So he went in to his father, and said, “My father”; and he said, “Here I am; who are you, my son?”

Genesis 27:19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me; now sit up and eat of my game, so that you may bless me.”

Genesis 27:20 But Isaac said to his son, “How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?” He answered, “Because the LORD your God granted me success.”

Genesis 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not.”

Genesis 27:22 So Jacob went up to his father Isaac, who felt him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

Genesis 27:23 He did not recognize him, because his hands were hairy like his brother Esau’s hands; so he blessed him.

Genesis 27:24 He said, “Are you really my son Esau?” He answered, “I am.”

Genesis 27:25 Then he said, “Bring it to me, that I may eat of my son’s game and bless you.” So he brought it to him, and he ate; and he brought him wine, and he drank.

Genesis 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come near and kiss me, my son.”

Genesis 27:27 So he came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his garments, and blessed him, and said, “Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

Genesis 27:28 May God give you of the dew of heaven, and of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.

Genesis 27:29 Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you!”

Genesis 27:30 As soon as Isaac had finished blessing Jacob, when Jacob had scarcely gone out from the presence of his father Isaac, his brother Esau came in from his hunting.

Genesis 27:31 He also prepared savory food, and brought it to his father. And he said to his father, “Let my father sit up and eat of his son’s game, so that you may bless me.”

Genesis 27:32 His father Isaac said to him, “Who are you?” He answered, “I am your firstborn son, Esau.”

Genesis 27:33 Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, “Who was it then that hunted game and brought it to me, and I ate it all before you came, and I have blessed him?— yes, and blessed he shall be!”

Genesis 27:34 When Esau heard his father’s words, he cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, “Bless me, me also, father!”

Genesis 27:35 But he said, “Your brother came deceitfully, and he has taken away your blessing.”

Genesis 27:36 Esau said, “Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright; and look, now he has taken away my blessing.” Then he said, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?”

Genesis 27:37 Isaac answered Esau, “I have already made him your lord, and I have given him all his brothers as servants, and with grain and wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?”

Genesis 27:38 Esau said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, father? Bless me, me also, father!” And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

Genesis 27:39 Then his father Isaac answered him: “See, away from the fatness of the earth shall your home be, and away from the dew of heaven on high.

Genesis 27:40 By your sword you shall live, and you shall serve your brother; but when you break loose, you shall break his yoke from your neck."

Genesis 27:41 Now Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are approaching; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Genesis 27:42 But the words of her elder son Esau were told to Rebekah; so she sent and called her younger son Jacob and said to him, "Your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you.

Genesis 27:43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran,

Genesis 27:44 and stay with him a while, until your brother's fury turns away—

Genesis 27:45 until your brother's anger against you turns away, and he forgets what you have done to him; then I will send, and bring you back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

Genesis 27:46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the Hittite women. If Jacob marries one of the Hittite women such as these, one of the women of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

Genesis 28:1 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him, and charged him, "You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women.

Genesis 28:2 Go at once to Paddan-aram to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father; and take as wife from there one of the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother.

Genesis 28:3 May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and numerous, that you may become a company of peoples.

Genesis 28:4 May he give to you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your offspring with you, so that you may take possession of the land where you now live as an alien— land that God gave to Abraham."

Genesis 28:5 Thus Isaac sent Jacob away; and he went to Paddan-aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

Genesis 28:6 Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan-aram to take a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he charged him, "You shall not marry one of the Canaanite women,"

Genesis 28:7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother and gone to Paddan-aram.

Genesis 28:8 So when Esau saw that the Canaanite women did not please his father Isaac, Genesis 28:9 Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath daughter of Abraham’s son Ishmael, and sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife in addition to the wives he had.

Genesis 28:11 He came to a certain place and stayed there for the night, because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones of the place, he put it under his head and lay down in that place.

Genesis 28:12 And he dreamed that there was a ladder set up on the earth, the top of it reaching to heaven; and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

Genesis 28:13 And the LORD stood beside him and said, “I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and to your offspring;

Genesis 28:14 and your offspring shall be like the dust of the earth, and you shall spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south; and all the families of the earth shall be blessed in you and in your offspring.

Genesis 28:15 Know that I am with you and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land; for I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

Genesis 28:16 Then Jacob woke from his sleep and said, “Surely the LORD is in this place— and I did not know it!”

Genesis 28:17 And he was afraid, and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.”

Genesis 28:18 So Jacob rose early in the morning, and he took the stone that he had put under his head and set it up for a pillar and poured oil on the top of it.

Genesis 28:19 He called that place Bethel; but the name of the city was Luz at the first.

Genesis 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to wear,

Genesis 28:21 so that I come again to my father’s house in peace, then the LORD shall be my God,

Genesis 28:22 and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God’s house; and of all that you give me I will surely give one tenth to you.”

Genesis 29:1 Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east.

Genesis 29:2 As he looked, he saw a well in the field and three flocks of sheep lying there beside it; for out of that well the flocks were watered. The stone on the well's mouth was large,

Genesis 29:3 and when all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the mouth of the well.

Genesis 29:4 Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where do you come from?" They said, "We are from Haran."

Genesis 29:5 He said to them, "Do you know Laban son of Nahor?" They said, "We do."

Genesis 29:6 He said to them, "Is it well with him?" "Yes," they replied, "and here is his daughter Rachel, coming with the sheep."

Genesis 29:7 He said, "Look, it is still broad daylight; it is not time for the animals to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go, pasture them."

Genesis 29:8 But they said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and the stone is rolled from the mouth of the well; then we water the sheep."

Genesis 29:9 While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep; for she kept them.

Genesis 29:10 Now when Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of his mother's brother Laban, and the sheep of his mother's brother Laban, Jacob went up and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of his mother's brother Laban.

Genesis 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel, and wept aloud.

Genesis 29:12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's kinsman, and that he was Rebekah's son; and she ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 When Laban heard the news about his sister's son Jacob, he ran to meet him; he embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things, Genesis 29:14 and Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh!" And he stayed with him a month.

Genesis 29:15 Then Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my kinsman, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?"

Genesis 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Genesis 29:17 Leah's eyes were lovely, and Rachel was graceful and beautiful.

Genesis 29:18 Jacob loved Rachel; so he said, "I will serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."

Genesis 29:19 Laban said, “It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to any other man; stay with me.”

Genesis 29:20 So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

Genesis 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife that I may go in to her, for my time is completed.”

Genesis 29:22 So Laban gathered together all the people of the place, and made a feast.

Genesis 29:23 But in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob; and he went in to her.

Genesis 29:24 (Laban gave his maid Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her maid.)

Genesis 29:25 When morning came, it was Leah! And Jacob said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?”

Genesis 29:26 Laban said, “This is not done in our country— giving the younger before the firstborn.

Genesis 29:27 Complete the week of this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years.”

Genesis 29:28 Jacob did so, and completed her week; then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife.

Genesis 29:29 (Laban gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel to be her maid.)

Genesis 29:30 So Jacob went in to Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. He served Laban for another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.

Genesis 29:32 Leah conceived and bore a son, and she named him Reuben; for she said, “Because the LORD has looked on my affliction; surely now my husband will love me.”

Genesis 29:33 She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has given me this son also”; and she named him Simeon.

Genesis 29:34 Again she conceived and bore a son, and said, “Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons”; therefore he was named Levi.

Genesis 29:35 She conceived again and bore a son, and said, “This time I will praise the LORD”; therefore she named him Judah; then she ceased bearing.

Genesis 30:1 When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, she envied her sister; and she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or I shall die!”

Genesis 30:2 Jacob became very angry with Rachel and said, “Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?”

Genesis 30:3 Then she said, “Here is my maid Bilhah; go in to her, that she may bear upon my knees and that I too may have children through her.”

Genesis 30:4 So she gave him her maid Bilhah as a wife; and Jacob went in to her.

Genesis 30:5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:6 Then Rachel said, “God has judged me, and has also heard my voice and given me a son”; therefore she named him Dan.

Genesis 30:7 Rachel’s maid Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:8 Then Rachel said, “With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed”; so she named him Naphtali.

Genesis 30:9 When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing children, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

Genesis 30:10 Then Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:11 And Leah said, “Good fortune!” so she named him Gad.

Genesis 30:12 Leah’s maid Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:13 And Leah said, “Happy am I! For the women will call me happy”; so she named him Asher.

Genesis 30:14 In the days of wheat harvest Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:15 But she said to her, “Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son’s mandrakes also?” Rachel said, “Then he may lie with you tonight for your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:16 When Jacob came from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him, and said, “You must come in to me; for I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So he lay with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 And God heeded Leah, and she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Genesis 30:18 Leah said, “God has given me my hire because I gave my maid to my husband”; so she named him Issachar.

Genesis 30:19 And Leah conceived again, and she bore Jacob a sixth son.

Genesis 30:20 Then Leah said, “God has endowed me with a good dowry; now my husband will honor me, because I have borne him six sons”; so she named him Zebulun.

Genesis 30:21 Afterwards she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

Genesis 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel, and God heeded her and opened her womb.

Genesis 30:23 She conceived and bore a son, and said, “God has taken away my reproach”;

Genesis 30:24 and she named him Joseph, saying, “May the LORD add to me another son!”

Genesis 30:25 When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me away, that I may go to my own home and country.

Genesis 30:26 Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know very well the service I have given you.”

Genesis 30:27 But Laban said to him, “If you will allow me to say so, I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you;

Genesis 30:28 name your wages, and I will give it.”

Genesis 30:29 Jacob said to him, “You yourself know how I have served you, and how your cattle have fared with me.

Genesis 30:30 For you had little before I came, and it has increased abundantly; and the LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. But now when shall I provide for my own household also?”

Genesis 30:31 He said, “What shall I give you?” Jacob said, “You shall not give me anything; if you will do this for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it:

Genesis 30:32 let me pass through all your flock today, removing from it every speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and such shall be my wages.

Genesis 30:33 So my honesty will answer for me later, when you come to look into my wages with you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and black among the lambs, if found with me, shall be counted stolen.”

Genesis 30:34 Laban said, “Good! Let it be as you have said.”

Genesis 30:35 But that day Laban removed the male goats that were striped and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white on it, and every lamb that was black, and put them in charge of his sons;

Genesis 30:36 and he set a distance of three days’ journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob was pasturing the rest of Laban’s flock.

Genesis 30:37 Then Jacob took fresh rods of poplar and almond and plane, and peeled white streaks in them, exposing the white of the rods.

Genesis 30:38 He set the rods that he had peeled in front of the flocks in the troughs, that is, the watering places, where the flocks came to drink. And since they bred when they came to drink,

Genesis 30:39 the flocks bred in front of the rods, and so the flocks produced young that were striped, speckled, and spotted.

Genesis 30:40 Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the striped and the completely black animals in the flock of Laban; and he put his own droves apart, and did not put them with Laban's flock.

Genesis 30:41 Whenever the stronger of the flock were breeding, Jacob laid the rods in the troughs before the eyes of the flock, that they might breed among the rods,

Genesis 30:42 but for the feebler of the flock he did not lay them there; so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

Genesis 30:43 Thus the man grew exceedingly rich, and had large flocks, and male and female slaves, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31:1 Now Jacob heard that the sons of Laban were saying, "Jacob has taken all that was our father's; he has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father."

Genesis 31:2 And Jacob saw that Laban did not regard him as favorably as he did before.

Genesis 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your ancestors and to your kindred, and I will be with you."

Genesis 31:4 So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah into the field where his flock was,

Genesis 31:5 and said to them, "I see that your father does not regard me as favorably as he did before. But the God of my father has been with me.

Genesis 31:6 You know that I have served your father with all my strength;

Genesis 31:7 yet your father has cheated me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not permit him to harm me.

Genesis 31:8 If he said, 'The speckled shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled; and if he said, 'The striped shall be your wages,' then all the flock bore striped.

Genesis 31:9 Thus God has taken away the livestock of your father, and given them to me.

Genesis 31:10 During the mating of the flock I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats that leaped upon the flock were striped, speckled, and mottled.

Genesis 31:11 Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am!'

Genesis 31:12 And he said, ‘Look up and see that all the goats that leap on the flock are striped, speckled, and mottled; for I have seen all that Laban is doing to you.

Genesis 31:13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and return to the land of your birth.’“ Genesis 31:14 Then Rachel and Leah answered him, “Is there any portion or inheritance left to us in our father’s house?

Genesis 31:15 Are we not regarded by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and he has been using up the money given for us.

Genesis 31:16 All the property that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children; now then, do whatever God has said to you.”

Genesis 31:17 So Jacob arose, and set his children and his wives on camels;

Genesis 31:18 and he drove away all his livestock, all the property that he had gained, the livestock in his possession that he had acquired in Paddan-aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 31:19 Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole her father’s household gods.

Genesis 31:20 And Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean, in that he did not tell him that he intended to flee.

Genesis 31:21 So he fled with all that he had; starting out he crossed the Euphrates, and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:22 On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

Genesis 31:23 So he took his kinsfolk with him and pursued him for seven days until he caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:24 But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream by night, and said to him, “Take heed that you say not a word to Jacob, either good or bad.”

Genesis 31:25 Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, and Laban with his kinsfolk camped in the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:26 Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done? You have deceived me, and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword.

Genesis 31:27 Why did you flee secretly and deceive me and not tell me? I would have sent you away with mirth and songs, with tambourine and lyre.

Genesis 31:28 And why did you not permit me to kiss my sons and my daughters farewell? What you have done is foolish.

Genesis 31:29 It is in my power to do you harm; but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad.'

Genesis 31:30 Even though you had to go because you longed greatly for your father's house, why did you steal my gods?"

Genesis 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force.

Genesis 31:32 But anyone with whom you find your gods shall not live. In the presence of our kinsfolk, point out what I have that is yours, and take it." Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

Genesis 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two maids, but he did not find them. And he went out of Leah's tent, and entered Rachel's.

Genesis 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt all about in the tent, but did not find them.

Genesis 31:35 And she said to her father, "Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for the way of women is upon me." So he searched, but did not find the household gods.

Genesis 31:36 Then Jacob became angry, and upbraided Laban. Jacob said to Laban, "What is my offense? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me?

Genesis 31:37 Although you have felt about through all my goods, what have you found of all your household goods? Set it here before my kinsfolk and your kinsfolk, so that they may decide between us two.

Genesis 31:38 These twenty years I have been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten the rams of your flocks.

Genesis 31:39 That which was torn by wild beasts I did not bring to you; I bore the loss of it myself; of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

Genesis 31:40 It was like this with me: by day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.

Genesis 31:41 These twenty years I have been in your house; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

Genesis 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been on my side, surely now you would have sent me away empty-handed. God saw my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

Genesis 31:43 Then Laban answered and said to Jacob, "The daughters are my daughters, the children are my children, the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about their children whom they have borne?

Genesis 31:44 Come now, let us make a covenant, you and I; and let it be a witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:45 So Jacob took a stone, and set it up as a pillar.

Genesis 31:46 And Jacob said to his kinsfolk, “Gather stones,” and they took stones, and made a heap; and they ate there by the heap.

Genesis 31:47 Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha: but Jacob called it Galeed.

Genesis 31:48 Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me today.” Therefore he called it Galeed, Genesis 31:49 and the pillar Mizpah, for he said, “The LORD watch between you and me, when we are absent one from the other.

Genesis 31:50 If you ill-treat my daughters, or if you take wives in addition to my daughters, though no one else is with us, remember that God is witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:51 Then Laban said to Jacob, “See this heap and see the pillar, which I have set between you and me.

Genesis 31:52 This heap is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I will not pass beyond this heap to you, and you will not pass beyond this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

Genesis 31:53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor”— the God of their father— “judge between us.” So Jacob swore by the Fear of his father Isaac, Genesis 31:54 and Jacob offered a sacrifice on the height and called his kinsfolk to eat bread; and they ate bread and tarried all night in the hill country.

Genesis 31:55 Early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them; then he departed and returned home.

Genesis 32:1 Jacob went on his way and the angels of God met him;

Genesis 32:2 and when Jacob saw them he said, “This is God’s camp!” So he called that place Mahanaim.

Genesis 32:3 Jacob sent messengers before him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom,

Genesis 32:4 instructing them, “Thus you shall say to my lord Esau: Thus says your servant Jacob, ‘I have lived with Laban as an alien, and stayed until now;

Genesis 32:5 and I have oxen, donkeys, flocks, male and female slaves; and I have sent to tell my lord, in order that I may find favor in your sight.’“

Genesis 32:6 The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, “We came to your brother Esau, and he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”

Genesis 32:7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two companies,

Genesis 32:8 thinking, “If Esau comes to the one company and destroys it, then the company that is left will escape.”

Genesis 32:9 And Jacob said, “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O LORD who said to me, ‘Return to your country and to your kindred, and I will do you good,’

Genesis 32:10 I am not worthy of the least of all the steadfast love and all the faithfulness that you have shown to your servant, for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan; and now I have become two companies.

Genesis 32:11 Deliver me, please, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau, for I am afraid of him; he may come and kill us all, the mothers with the children.

Genesis 32:12 Yet you have said, ‘I will surely do you good, and make your offspring as the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted because of their number.’“

Genesis 32:13 So he spent that night there, and from what he had with him he took a present for his brother Esau,

Genesis 32:14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Genesis 32:15 thirty milch camels and their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

Genesis 32:16 These he delivered into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, “Pass on ahead of me, and put a space between drove and drove.”

Genesis 32:17 He instructed the foremost, “When Esau my brother meets you, and asks you, ‘To whom do you belong? Where are you going? And whose are these ahead of you?’

Genesis 32:18 then you shall say, ‘They belong to your servant Jacob; they are a present sent to my lord Esau; and moreover he is behind us.’“

Genesis 32:19 He likewise instructed the second and the third and all who followed the droves, “You shall say the same thing to Esau when you meet him,

Genesis 32:20 and you shall say, ‘Moreover your servant Jacob is behind us.’“ For he thought, “I may appease him with the present that goes ahead of me, and afterwards I shall see his face; perhaps he will accept me.”

Genesis 32:21 So the present passed on ahead of him; and he himself spent that night in the camp.

Genesis 32:22 The same night he got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

Genesis 32:23 He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had.

Genesis 32:24 Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

Genesis 32:25 When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him.

Genesis 32:26 Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me."

Genesis 32:27 So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob."

Genesis 32:28 Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed."

Genesis 32:29 Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him.

Genesis 32:30 So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved."

Genesis 32:31 The sun rose upon him as he passed Penuel, limping because of his hip.

Genesis 32:32 Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the thigh muscle that is on the hip socket, because he struck Jacob on the hip socket at the thigh muscle.

Genesis 33:1 Now Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming, and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah and Rachel and the two maids.

Genesis 33:3 He himself went on ahead of them, bowing himself to the ground seven times, until he came near his brother.

Genesis 33:4 But Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

Genesis 33:5 When Esau looked up and saw the women and children, he said, "Who are these with you?" Jacob said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."

Genesis 33:6 Then the maids drew near, they and their children, and bowed down;

Genesis 33:7 Leah likewise and her children drew near and bowed down; and finally Joseph and Rachel drew near, and they bowed down.

Genesis 33:8 Esau said, “What do you mean by all this company that I met?” Jacob answered, “To find favor with my lord.”

Genesis 33:9 But Esau said, “I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.”

Genesis 33:10 Jacob said, “No, please; if I find favor with you, then accept my present from my hand; for truly to see your face is like seeing the face of God— since you have received me with such favor.

Genesis 33:11 Please accept my gift that is brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have everything I want.” So he urged him, and he took it.

Genesis 33:12 Then Esau said, “Let us journey on our way, and I will go alongside you.”

Genesis 33:13 But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are frail and that the flocks and herds, which are nursing, are a care to me; and if they are overdriven for one day, all the flocks will die.

Genesis 33:14 Let my lord pass on ahead of his servant, and I will lead on slowly, according to the pace of the cattle that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir.”

Genesis 33:15 So Esau said, “Let me leave with you some of the people who are with me.” But he said, “Why should my lord be so kind to me?”

Genesis 33:16 So Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.

Genesis 33:17 But Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built himself a house, and made booths for his cattle; therefore the place is called Succoth.

Genesis 33:18 Jacob came safely to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, on his way from Paddan-aram; and he camped before the city.

Genesis 33:19 And from the sons of Hamor, Shechem’s father, he bought for one hundred pieces of money the plot of land on which he had pitched his tent.

Genesis 33:20 There he erected an altar and called it El-Elohe-Israel.

Genesis 34:1 Now Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the region.

Genesis 34:3 And his soul was drawn to Dinah daughter of Jacob; he loved the girl, and spoke tenderly to her.

Genesis 34:4 So Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, “Get me this girl to be my wife.”

Genesis 34:5 Now Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled his daughter Dinah; but his sons were with his cattle in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came.

Genesis 34:6 And Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to speak with him,

Genesis 34:7 just as the sons of Jacob came in from the field. When they heard of it, the men were indignant and very angry, because he had committed an outrage in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, for such a thing ought not to be done.

Genesis 34:8 But Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The heart of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; please give her to him in marriage.

Genesis 34:9 Make marriages with us; give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves.

Genesis 34:10 You shall live with us; and the land shall be open to you; live and trade in it, and get property in it."

Genesis 34:11 Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor with you, and whatever you say to me I will give.

Genesis 34:12 Put the marriage present and gift as high as you like, and I will give whatever you ask me; only give me the girl to be my wife."

Genesis 34:13 The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had defiled their sister Dinah.

Genesis 34:14 They said to them, "We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a disgrace to us.

Genesis 34:15 Only on this condition will we consent to you: that you will become as we are and every male among you be circumcised.

Genesis 34:16 Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will live among you and become one people.

Genesis 34:17 But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and be gone."

Genesis 34:18 Their words pleased Hamor and Hamor's son Shechem.

Genesis 34:19 And the young man did not delay to do the thing, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter. Now he was the most honored of all his family.

Genesis 34:20 So Hamor and his son Shechem came to the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying,

Genesis 34:21 "These people are friendly with us; let them live in the land and trade in it, for the land is large enough for them; let us take their daughters in marriage, and let us give them our daughters.

Genesis 34:22 Only on this condition will they agree to live among us, to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised.

Genesis 34:23 Will not their livestock, their property, and all their animals be ours? Only let us agree with them, and they will live among us."

Genesis 34:24 And all who went out of the city gate heeded Hamor and his son Shechem; and every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

Genesis 34:25 On the third day, when they were still in pain, two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and came against the city unawares, and killed all the males.

Genesis 34:26 They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away.

Genesis 34:27 And the other sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because their sister had been defiled.

Genesis 34:28 They took their flocks and their herds, their donkeys, and whatever was in the city and in the field.

Genesis 34:29 All their wealth, all their little ones and their wives, all that was in the houses, they captured and made their prey.

Genesis 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me odious to the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites and the Perizzites; my numbers are few, and if they gather themselves against me and attack me, I shall be destroyed, both I and my household."

Genesis 34:31 But they said, "Should our sister be treated like a whore?"

Genesis 35:1 God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and settle there. Make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

Genesis 35:2 So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, and purify yourselves, and change your clothes;

Genesis 35:3 then come, let us go up to Bethel, that I may make an altar there to the God who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone."

Genesis 35:4 So they gave to Jacob all the foreign gods that they had, and the rings that were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak that was near Shechem.

Genesis 35:5 As they journeyed, a terror from God fell upon the cities all around them, so that no one pursued them.

Genesis 35:6 Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him,

Genesis 35:7 and there he built an altar and called the place El-bethel, because it was there that God had revealed himself to him when he fled from his brother.

Genesis 35:8 And Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried under an oak below Bethel. So it was called Allon-bacuth.

Genesis 35:9 God appeared to Jacob again when he came from Paddan-aram, and he blessed him.

Genesis 35:10 God said to him, "Your name is Jacob; no longer shall you be called Jacob, but Israel shall be your name." So he was called Israel.

Genesis 35:11 God said to him, "I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall come from you, and kings shall spring from you.

Genesis 35:12 The land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac I will give to you, and I will give the land to your offspring after you."

Genesis 35:13 Then God went up from him at the place where he had spoken with him.

Genesis 35:14 Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone; and he poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it.

Genesis 35:15 So Jacob called the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.

Genesis 35:16 Then they journeyed from Bethel; and when they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel was in childbirth, and she had hard labor.

Genesis 35:17 When she was in her hard labor, the midwife said to her, "Do not be afraid; for now you will have another son."

Genesis 35:18 As her soul was departing (for she died), she named him Ben-oni; but his father called him Benjamin.

Genesis 35:19 So Rachel died, and she was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem),

Genesis 35:20 and Jacob set up a pillar at her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's tomb, which is there to this day.

Genesis 35:21 Israel journeyed on, and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

Genesis 35:22 While Israel lived in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine; and Israel heard of it. Now the sons of Jacob were twelve.

Genesis 35:23 The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

Genesis 35:24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 35:26 The sons of Zilpah, Leah’s maid: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

Genesis 35:27 Jacob came to his father Isaac at Mamre, or Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had resided as aliens.

Genesis 35:28 Now the days of Isaac were one hundred eighty years.

Genesis 35:29 And Isaac breathed his last; he died and was gathered to his people, old and full of days; and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36:1 These are the descendants of Esau (that is, Edom).

Genesis 36:2 Esau took his wives from the Canaanites: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah daughter of Anah son of Zibeon the Hivite,

Genesis 36:4 Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau; Basemath bore Reuel;

Genesis 36:5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. These are the sons of Esau who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 36:6 Then Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, and all the members of his household, his cattle, all his livestock, and all the property he had acquired in the land of Canaan; and he moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob.

Genesis 36:7 For their possessions were too great for them to live together; the land where they were staying could not support them because of their livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So Esau settled in the hill country of Seir; Esau is Edom.

Genesis 36:9 These are the descendants of Esau, ancestor of the Edomites, in the hill country of Seir.

Genesis 36:10 These are the names of Esau’s sons: Eliphaz son of Adah the wife of Esau; Reuel, the son of Esau’s wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

Genesis 36:12 (Timna was a concubine of Eliphaz, Esau’s son; she bore Amalek to Eliphaz.) These were the sons of Adah, Esau’s wife.

Genesis 36:13 These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Esau’s wife, Basemath.

Genesis 36:14 These were the sons of Esau’s wife Oholibamah, daughter of Anah son of Zibeon: she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

Genesis 36:15 These are the clans of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: the clans Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Genesis 36:16 Korah, Gatam, and Amalek; these are the clans of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; they are the sons of Adah.

Genesis 36:17 These are the sons of Esau's son Reuel: the clans Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah; these are the clans of Reuel in the land of Edom; they are the sons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:18 These are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: the clans Jeush, Jalam, and Korah; these are the clans born of Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:19 These are the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these are their clans.

Genesis 36:20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Genesis 36:21 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan; these are the clans of the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom.

Genesis 36:22 The sons of Lotan were Hori and Heman; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

Genesis 36:23 These are the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 These are the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah; he is the Anah who found the springs in the wilderness, as he pastured the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Genesis 36:29 These are the clans of the Horites: the clans Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Genesis 36:30 Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan; these are the clans of the Horites, clan by clan in the land of Seir.

Genesis 36:31 These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before any king reigned over the Israelites.

Genesis 36:32 Bela son of Beor reigned in Edom, the name of his city being Dinhabah.

Genesis 36:33 Bela died, and Jobab son of Zerah of Bozrah succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:34 Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:35 Husham died, and Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, succeeded him as king, the name of his city being Avith.

Genesis 36:36 Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:37 Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth on the Euphrates succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:38 Shaul died, and Baal-hanan son of Achbor succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:39 Baal-hanan son of Achbor died, and Hadar succeeded him as king, the name of his city being Pau; his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, daughter of Me-zahab.

Genesis 36:40 These are the names of the clans of Esau, according to their families and their localities by their names: the clans Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Genesis 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Genesis 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Genesis 36:43 Magdiel, and Iram; these are the clans of Edom (that is, Esau, the father of Edom), according to their settlements in the land that they held.

Genesis 37:1 Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan.

Genesis 37:2 This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father.

Genesis 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves.

Genesis 37:4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him.

Genesis 37:5 Once Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more.

Genesis 37:6 He said to them, "Listen to this dream that I dreamed.

Genesis 37:7 There we were, binding sheaves in the field. Suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright; then your sheaves gathered around it, and bowed down to my sheaf."

Genesis 37:8 His brothers said to him, "Are you indeed to reign over us? Are you indeed to have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more because of his dreams and his words.

Genesis 37:9 He had another dream, and told it to his brothers, saying, “Look, I have had another dream: the sun, the moon, and eleven stars were bowing down to me.”

Genesis 37:10 But when he told it to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him, and said to him, “What kind of dream is this that you have had? Shall we indeed come, I and your mother and your brothers, and bow to the ground before you?”

Genesis 37:11 So his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Genesis 37:12 Now his brothers went to pasture their father’s flock near Shechem.

Genesis 37:13 And Israel said to Joseph, “Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them.” He answered, “Here I am.”

Genesis 37:14 So he said to him, “Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me.” So he sent him from the valley of Hebron. He came to Shechem,

Genesis 37:15 and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, “What are you seeking?”

Genesis 37:16 “I am seeking my brothers,” he said; “tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock.”

Genesis 37:17 The man said, “They have gone away, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go to Dothan.’“ So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan.

Genesis 37:18 They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him.

Genesis 37:19 They said to one another, “Here comes this dreamer.

Genesis 37:20 Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams.”

Genesis 37:21 But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, “Let us not take his life.”

Genesis 37:22 Reuben said to them, “Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him”— that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore;

Genesis 37:24 and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it.

Genesis 37:25 Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 Then Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?

Genesis 37:27 Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh.” And his brothers agreed.

Genesis 37:28 When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he tore his clothes.

Genesis 37:30 He returned to his brothers, and said, “The boy is gone; and I, where can I turn?”

Genesis 37:31 Then they took Joseph’s robe, slaughtered a goat, and dipped the robe in the blood.

Genesis 37:32 They had the long robe with sleeves taken to their father, and they said, “This we have found; see now whether it is your son’s robe or not.”

Genesis 37:33 He recognized it, and said, “It is my son’s robe! A wild animal has devoured him; Joseph is without doubt torn to pieces.”

Genesis 37:34 Then Jacob tore his garments, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

Genesis 37:35 All his sons and all his daughters sought to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted, and said, “No, I shall go down to Sheol to my son, mourning.” Thus his father bewailed him.

Genesis 37:36 Meanwhile the Midianites had sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh’s officials, the captain of the guard.

Genesis 38:1 It happened at that time that Judah went down from his brothers and settled near a certain Adullamite whose name was Hirah.

Genesis 38:2 There Judah saw the daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua; he married her and went in to her.

Genesis 38:3 She conceived and bore a son; and he named him Er.

Genesis 38:4 Again she conceived and bore a son whom she named Onan.

Genesis 38:5 Yet again she bore a son, and she named him Shelah. She was in Chezib when she bore him.

Genesis 38:7 But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD put him to death.

Genesis 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, “Go in to your brother’s wife and perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her; raise up offspring for your brother.”

Genesis 38:9 But since Onan knew that the offspring would not be his, he spilled his semen on the ground whenever he went in to his brother’s wife, so that he would not give offspring to his brother.

Genesis 38:10 What he did was displeasing in the sight of the LORD, and he put him to death also.

Genesis 38:11 Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Remain a widow in your father’s house until my son Shelah grows up”—for he feared that he too would die, like his brothers. So Tamar went to live in her father’s house.

Genesis 38:12 In course of time the wife of Judah, Shua’s daughter, died; when Judah’s time of mourning was over, he went up to Timnah to his sheepshearers, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

Genesis 38:13 When Tamar was told, “Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep,”

Genesis 38:14 she put off her widow’s garments, put on a veil, wrapped herself up, and sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. She saw that Shelah was grown up, yet she had not been given to him in marriage.

Genesis 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be a prostitute, for she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 He went over to her at the road side, and said, “Come, let me come in to you,” for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. She said, “What will you give me, that you may come in to me?”

Genesis 38:17 He answered, “I will send you a kid from the flock.” And she said, “Only if you give me a pledge, until you send it.”

Genesis 38:18 He said, “What pledge shall I give you?” She replied, “Your signet and your cord, and the staff that is in your hand.” So he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

Genesis 38:19 Then she got up and went away, and taking off her veil she put on the garments of her widowhood.

Genesis 38:20 When Judah sent the kid by his friend the Adullamite, to recover the pledge from the woman, he could not find her.

Genesis 38:21 He asked the townspeople, “Where is the temple prostitute who was at Enaim by the wayside?” But they said, “No prostitute has been here.”

Genesis 38:22 So he returned to Judah, and said, “I have not found her; moreover the townspeople said, ‘No prostitute has been here.’“

Genesis 38:23 Judah replied, “Let her keep the things as her own, otherwise we will be laughed at; you see, I sent this kid, and you could not find her.”

Genesis 38:24 About three months later Judah was told, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar has played the whore; moreover she is pregnant as a result of whoredom.” And Judah said, “Bring her out, and let her be burned.”

Genesis 38:25 As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, “It was the owner of these who made me pregnant.” And she said, “Take note, please, whose these are, the signet and the cord and the staff.”

Genesis 38:26 Then Judah acknowledged them and said, “She is more in the right than I, since I did not give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not lie with her again.

Genesis 38:27 When the time of her delivery came, there were twins in her womb.

Genesis 38:28 While she was in labor, one put out a hand; and the midwife took and bound on his hand a crimson thread, saying, “This one came out first.”

Genesis 38:29 But just then he drew back his hand, and out came his brother; and she said, “What a breach you have made for yourself!” Therefore he was named Perez.

Genesis 38:30 Afterward his brother came out with the crimson thread on his hand; and he was named Zerah.

Genesis 39:1 Now Joseph was taken down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there.

Genesis 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man; he was in the house of his Egyptian master.

Genesis 39:3 His master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD caused all that he did to prosper in his hands.

Genesis 39:4 So Joseph found favor in his sight and attended him; he made him overseer of his house and put him in charge of all that he had.

Genesis 39:5 From the time that he made him overseer in his house and over all that he had, the LORD blessed the Egyptian’s house for Joseph’s sake; the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had, in house and field.

Genesis 39:6 So he left all that he had in Joseph’s charge; and, with him there, he had no concern for anything but the food that he ate. Now Joseph was handsome and good-looking.

Genesis 39:7 And after a time his master’s wife cast her eyes on Joseph and said, “Lie with me.”

Genesis 39:8 But he refused and said to his master’s wife, “Look, with me here, my master has no concern about anything in the house, and he has put everything that he has in my hand.

Genesis 39:9 He is not greater in this house than I am, nor has he kept back anything from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How then could I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?”

Genesis 39:10 And although she spoke to Joseph day after day, he would not consent to lie beside her or to be with her.

Genesis 39:11 One day, however, when he went into the house to do his work, and while no one else was in the house,

Genesis 39:12 she caught hold of his garment, saying, “Lie with me!” But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and ran outside.

Genesis 39:13 When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside,

Genesis 39:14 she called out to the members of her household and said to them, “See, my husband has brought among us a Hebrew to insult us! He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice;

Genesis 39:15 and when he heard me raise my voice and cry out, he left his garment beside me, and fled outside.”

Genesis 39:16 Then she kept his garment by her until his master came home,

Genesis 39:17 and she told him the same story, saying, “The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought among us, came in to me to insult me;

Genesis 39:18 but as soon as I raised my voice and cried out, he left his garment beside me, and fled outside.”

Genesis 39:19 When his master heard the words that his wife spoke to him, saying, “This is the way your servant treated me,” he became enraged.

Genesis 39:20 And Joseph’s master took him and put him into the prison, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined; he remained there in prison.

Genesis 39:21 But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him steadfast love; he gave him favor in the sight of the chief jailer.

Genesis 39:22 The chief jailer committed to Joseph’s care all the prisoners who were in the prison, and whatever was done there, he was the one who did it.

Genesis 39:23 The chief jailer paid no heed to anything that was in Joseph’s care, because the LORD was with him; and whatever he did, the LORD made it prosper.

Genesis 40:3 and he put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison where Joseph was confined.

Genesis 40:4 The captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he waited on them; and they continued for some time in custody.

Genesis 40:5 One night they both dreamed— the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison— each his own dream, and each dream with its own meaning.

Genesis 40:6 When Joseph came to them in the morning, he saw that they were troubled.

Genesis 40:7 So he asked Pharaoh’s officers, who were with him in custody in his master’s house, “Why are your faces downcast today?”

Genesis 40:8 They said to him, “We have had dreams, and there is no one to interpret them.” And Joseph said to them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell them to me.”

Genesis 40:9 So the chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “In my dream there was a vine before me,

Genesis 40:10 and on the vine there were three branches. As soon as it budded, its blossoms came out and the clusters ripened into grapes.

Genesis 40:11 Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh’s hand.”

Genesis 40:12 Then Joseph said to him, “This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days;

Genesis 40:13 within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your office; and you shall place Pharaoh’s cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.

Genesis 40:14 But remember me when it is well with you; please do me the kindness to make mention of me to Pharaoh, and so get me out of this place.

Genesis 40:15 For in fact I was stolen out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also I have done nothing that they should have put me into the dungeon.”

Genesis 40:16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was favorable, he said to Joseph, “I also had a dream: there were three cake baskets on my head, Genesis 40:17 and in the uppermost basket there were all sorts of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating it out of the basket on my head.”

Genesis 40:18 And Joseph answered, “This is its interpretation: the three baskets are three days;

Genesis 40:19 within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head—from you!— and hang you on a pole; and the birds will eat the flesh from you."

Genesis 40:20 On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, he made a feast for all his servants, and lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants.

Genesis 40:21 He restored the chief cupbearer to his cupbearing, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand;

Genesis 40:22 but the chief baker he hanged, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.

Genesis 40:23 Yet the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph, but forgot him.

Genesis 41:1 After two whole years, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing by the Nile,

Genesis 41:2 and there came up out of the Nile seven sleek and fat cows, and they grazed in the reed grass.

Genesis 41:3 Then seven other cows, ugly and thin, came up out of the Nile after them, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the Nile.

Genesis 41:4 The ugly and thin cows ate up the seven sleek and fat cows. And Pharaoh awoke.

Genesis 41:5 Then he fell asleep and dreamed a second time; seven ears of grain, plump and good, were growing on one stalk.

Genesis 41:6 Then seven ears, thin and blighted by the east wind, sprouted after them.

Genesis 41:7 The thin ears swallowed up the seven plump and full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and it was a dream.

Genesis 41:8 In the morning his spirit was troubled; so he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, "I remember my faults today.

Genesis 41:10 Once Pharaoh was angry with his servants, and put me and the chief baker in custody in the house of the captain of the guard.

Genesis 41:11 We dreamed on the same night, he and I, each having a dream with its own meaning.

Genesis 41:12 A young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. When we told him, he interpreted our dreams to us, giving an interpretation to each according to his dream.

Genesis 41:13 As he interpreted to us, so it turned out; I was restored to my office, and the baker was hanged."

Genesis 41:14 Then Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was hurriedly brought out of the dungeon. When he had shaved himself and changed his clothes, he came in before Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

Genesis 41:16 Joseph answered Pharaoh, “It is not I; God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer.”

Genesis 41:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream I was standing on the banks of the Nile;

Genesis 41:18 and seven cows, fat and sleek, came up out of the Nile and fed in the reed grass.

Genesis 41:19 Then seven other cows came up after them, poor, very ugly, and thin. Never had I seen such ugly ones in all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:20 The thin and ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows,

Genesis 41:21 but when they had eaten them no one would have known that they had done so, for they were still as ugly as before. Then I awoke.

Genesis 41:22 I fell asleep a second time and I saw in my dream seven ears of grain, full and good, growing on one stalk,

Genesis 41:23 and seven ears, withered, thin, and blighted by the east wind, sprouting after them;

Genesis 41:24 and the thin ears swallowed up the seven good ears. But when I told it to the magicians, there was no one who could explain it to me.”

Genesis 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “Pharaoh’s dreams are one and the same; God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Genesis 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years; the dreams are one.

Genesis 41:27 The seven lean and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, as are the seven empty ears blighted by the east wind. They are seven years of famine.

Genesis 41:28 It is as I told Pharaoh; God has shown to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Genesis 41:29 There will come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:30 After them there will arise seven years of famine, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt; the famine will consume the land.

Genesis 41:31 The plenty will no longer be known in the land because of the famine that will follow, for it will be very grievous.

Genesis 41:32 And the doubling of Pharaoh's dream means that the thing is fixed by God, and God will shortly bring it about.

Genesis 41:33 Now therefore let Pharaoh select a man who is discerning and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 Let Pharaoh proceed to appoint overseers over the land, and take one-fifth of the produce of the land of Egypt during the seven plenteous years.

Genesis 41:35 Let them gather all the food of these good years that are coming, and lay up grain under the authority of Pharaoh for food in the cities, and let them keep it.

Genesis 41:36 That food shall be a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine that are to befall the land of Egypt, so that the land may not perish through the famine."

Genesis 41:37 The proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his servants.

Genesis 41:38 Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find anyone else like this— one in whom is the spirit of God?"

Genesis 41:39 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown you all this, there is no one so discerning and wise as you.

Genesis 41:40 You shall be over my house, and all my people shall order themselves as you command; only with regard to the throne will I be greater than you."

Genesis 41:41 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt."

Genesis 41:42 Removing his signet ring from his hand, Pharaoh put it on Joseph's hand; he arrayed him in garments of fine linen, and put a gold chain around his neck.

Genesis 41:43 He had him ride in the chariot of his second-in-command; and they cried out in front of him, "Bow the knee!" Thus he set him over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 Moreover Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no one shall lift up hand or foot in all the land of Egypt."

Genesis 41:45 Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-paneah; and he gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, as his wife. Thus Joseph gained authority over the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went through all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:48 He gathered up all the food of the seven years when there was plenty in the land of Egypt, and stored up food in the cities; he stored up in every city the food from the fields around it.

Genesis 41:49 So Joseph stored up grain in such abundance— like the sand of the sea— that he stopped measuring it; it was beyond measure.

Genesis 41:50 Before the years of famine came, Joseph had two sons, whom Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 41:51 Joseph named the firstborn Manasseh, "For," he said, "God has made me forget all my hardship and all my father's house."

Genesis 41:52 The second he named Ephraim, "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my misfortunes."

Genesis 41:53 The seven years of plenty that prevailed in the land of Egypt came to an end;

Genesis 41:54 and the seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in every country, but throughout the land of Egypt there was bread.

Genesis 41:55 When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread. Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph; what he says to you, do."

Genesis 41:56 And since the famine had spread over all the land, Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 Moreover, all the world came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain, because the famine became severe throughout the world.

Genesis 42:1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why do you keep looking at one another?

Genesis 42:2 I have heard," he said, "that there is grain in Egypt; go down and buy grain for us there, that we may live and not die."

Genesis 42:3 So ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt.

Genesis 42:4 But Jacob did not send Joseph's brother Benjamin with his brothers, for he feared that harm might come to him.

Genesis 42:5 Thus the sons of Israel were among the other people who came to buy grain, for the famine had reached the land of Canaan.

Genesis 42:6 Now Joseph was governor over the land; it was he who sold to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves before him with their faces to the ground.

Genesis 42:7 When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he treated them like strangers and spoke harshly to them. "Where do you come from?" he said. They said, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food."

Genesis 42:8 Although Joseph had recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him.

Genesis 42:9 Joseph also remembered the dreams that he had dreamed about them. He said to them, “You are spies; you have come to see the nakedness of the land!”

Genesis 42:10 They said to him, “No, my lord; your servants have come to buy food.

Genesis 42:11 We are all sons of one man; we are honest men; your servants have never been spies.”

Genesis 42:12 But he said to them, “No, you have come to see the nakedness of the land!”

Genesis 42:13 They said, “We, your servants, are twelve brothers, the sons of a certain man in the land of Canaan; the youngest, however, is now with our father, and one is no more.”

Genesis 42:14 But Joseph said to them, “It is just as I have said to you; you are spies!

Genesis 42:15 Here is how you shall be tested: as Pharaoh lives, you shall not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here!

Genesis 42:16 Let one of you go and bring your brother, while the rest of you remain in prison, in order that your words may be tested, whether there is truth in you; or else, as Pharaoh lives, surely you are spies.”

Genesis 42:17 And he put them all together in prison for three days.

Genesis 42:18 On the third day Joseph said to them, “Do this and you will live, for I fear God:

Genesis 42:19 if you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here where you are imprisoned. The rest of you shall go and carry grain for the famine of your households, Genesis 42:20 and bring your youngest brother to me. Thus your words will be verified, and you shall not die.” And they agreed to do so.

Genesis 42:21 They said to one another, “Alas, we are paying the penalty for what we did to our brother; we saw his anguish when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen. That is why this anguish has come upon us.”

Genesis 42:22 Then Reuben answered them, “Did I not tell you not to wrong the boy? But you would not listen. So now there comes a reckoning for his blood.”

Genesis 42:23 They did not know that Joseph understood them, since he spoke with them through an interpreter.

Genesis 42:24 He turned away from them and wept; then he returned and spoke to them. And he picked out Simeon and had him bound before their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Joseph then gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to return every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for their journey. This was done for them.

Genesis 42:27 When one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his money at the top of the sack.

Genesis 42:28 He said to his brothers, "My money has been put back; here it is in my sack!" At this they lost heart and turned trembling to one another, saying, "What is this that God has done to us?"

Genesis 42:29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying,

Genesis 42:30 "The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us, and charged us with spying on the land.

Genesis 42:31 But we said to him, 'We are honest men, we are not spies.

Genesis 42:32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our father; one is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Canaan.'

Genesis 42:33 Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, 'By this I shall know that you are honest men: leave one of your brothers with me, take grain for the famine of your households, and go your way.

Genesis 42:34 Bring your youngest brother to me, and I shall know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will release your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.'"

Genesis 42:35 As they were emptying their sacks, there in each one's sack was his bag of money. When they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were dismayed.

Genesis 42:36 And their father Jacob said to them, "I am the one you have bereaved of children: Joseph is no more, and Simeon is no more, and now you would take Benjamin. All this has happened to me!"

Genesis 42:37 Then Reuben said to his father, "You may kill my two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you."

Genesis 42:38 But he said, "My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should come to him on the journey that you are to make, you would bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol."

Genesis 43:1 Now the famine was severe in the land.

Genesis 43:2 And when they had eaten up the grain that they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go again, buy us a little more food."

Genesis 43:3 But Judah said to him, “The man solemnly warned us, saying, ‘You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.’

Genesis 43:4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food;

Genesis 43:5 but if you will not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, ‘You shall not see my face, unless your brother is with you.’“

Genesis 43:6 Israel said, “Why did you treat me so badly as to tell the man that you had another brother?”

Genesis 43:7 They replied, “The man questioned us carefully about ourselves and our kindred, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ What we told him was in answer to these questions. Could we in any way know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down’?”

Genesis 43:8 Then Judah said to his father Israel, “Send the boy with me, and let us be on our way, so that we may live and not die— you and we and also our little ones.

Genesis 43:9 I myself will be surety for him; you can hold me accountable for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.

Genesis 43:10 If we had not delayed, we would now have returned twice.”

Genesis 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: take some of the choice fruits of the land in your bags, and carry them down as a present to the man— a little balm and a little honey, gum, resin, pistachio nuts, and almonds.

Genesis 43:12 Take double the money with you. Carry back with you the money that was returned in the top of your sacks; perhaps it was an oversight.

Genesis 43:13 Take your brother also, and be on your way again to the man;

Genesis 43:14 may God Almighty grant you mercy before the man, so that he may send back your other brother and Benjamin. As for me, if I am bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.”

Genesis 43:15 So the men took the present, and they took double the money with them, as well as Benjamin. Then they went on their way down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

Genesis 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Bring the men into the house, and slaughter an animal and make ready, for the men are to dine with me at noon.”

Genesis 43:17 The man did as Joseph said, and brought the men to Joseph’s house.

Genesis 43:18 Now the men were afraid because they were brought to Joseph’s house, and they said, “It is because of the money, replaced in our sacks the first time, that we have been brought in, so that he may have an opportunity to fall upon us, to make slaves of us and take our donkeys.”

Genesis 43:19 So they went up to the steward of Joseph’s house and spoke with him at the entrance to the house.

Genesis 43:20 They said, “Oh, my lord, we came down the first time to buy food;

Genesis 43:21 and when we came to the lodging place we opened our sacks, and there was each one’s money in the top of his sack, our money in full weight. So we have brought it back with us.

Genesis 43:22 Moreover we have brought down with us additional money to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks.”

Genesis 43:23 He replied, “Rest assured, do not be afraid; your God and the God of your father must have put treasure in your sacks for you; I received your money.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Genesis 43:24 When the steward had brought the men into Joseph’s house, and given them water, and they had washed their feet, and when he had given their donkeys fodder,

Genesis 43:25 they made the present ready for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they had heard that they would dine there.

Genesis 43:26 When Joseph came home, they brought him the present that they had carried into the house, and bowed to the ground before him.

Genesis 43:27 He inquired about their welfare, and said, “Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?”

Genesis 43:28 They said, “Your servant our father is well; he is still alive.” And they bowed their heads and did obeisance.

Genesis 43:29 Then he looked up and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me? God be gracious to you, my son!”

Genesis 43:30 With that, Joseph hurried out, because he was overcome with affection for his brother, and he was about to weep. So he went into a private room and wept there.

Genesis 43:31 Then he washed his face and came out; and controlling himself he said, “Serve the meal.”

Genesis 43:32 They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians.

Genesis 43:33 When they were seated before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, the men looked at one another in amazement.

Genesis 43:34 Portions were taken to them from Joseph’s table, but Benjamin’s portion was five times as much as any of theirs. So they drank and were merry with him.

Genesis 44:1 Then he commanded the steward of his house, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man’s money in the top of his sack.

Genesis 44:2 Put my cup, the silver cup, in the top of the sack of the youngest, with his money for the grain.” And he did as Joseph told him.

Genesis 44:3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away with their donkeys.

Genesis 44:4 When they had gone only a short distance from the city, Joseph said to his steward, “Go, follow after the men; and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you returned evil for good? Why have you stolen my silver cup?

Genesis 44:5 Is it not from this that my lord drinks? Does he not indeed use it for divination? You have done wrong in doing this.’“

Genesis 44:6 When he overtook them, he repeated these words to them.

Genesis 44:7 They said to him, “Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing!

Genesis 44:8 Look, the money that we found at the top of our sacks, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan; why then would we steal silver or gold from your lord’s house?

Genesis 44:9 Should it be found with any one of your servants, let him die; moreover the rest of us will become my lord’s slaves.”

Genesis 44:10 He said, “Even so; in accordance with your words, let it be: he with whom it is found shall become my slave, but the rest of you shall go free.”

Genesis 44:11 Then each one quickly lowered his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack.

Genesis 44:12 He searched, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest; and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack.

Genesis 44:13 At this they tore their clothes. Then each one loaded his donkey, and they returned to the city.

Genesis 44:14 Judah and his brothers came to Joseph’s house while he was still there; and they fell to the ground before him.

Genesis 44:15 Joseph said to them, “What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that one such as I can practice divination?”

Genesis 44:16 And Judah said, “What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? How can we clear ourselves? God has found out the guilt of your servants; here we are then, my lord’s slaves, both we and also the one in whose possession the cup has been found.”

Genesis 44:17 But he said, “Far be it from me that I should do so! Only the one in whose possession the cup was found shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father.”

Genesis 44:18 Then Judah stepped up to him and said, “O my lord, let your servant please speak a word in my lord’s ears, and do not be angry with your servant; for you are like Pharaoh himself.

Genesis 44:19 My lord asked his servants, saying, ‘Have you a father or a brother?’

Genesis 44:20 And we said to my lord, ‘We have a father, an old man, and a young brother, the child of his old age. His brother is dead; he alone is left of his mother’s children, and his father loves him.’

Genesis 44:21 Then you said to your servants, ‘Bring him down to me, so that I may set my eyes on him.’

Genesis 44:22 We said to my lord, ‘The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.’

Genesis 44:23 Then you said to your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.’

Genesis 44:24 When we went back to your servant my father we told him the words of my lord.

Genesis 44:25 And when our father said, ‘Go again, buy us a little food,’

Genesis 44:26 we said, ‘We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother goes with us, will we go down; for we cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

Genesis 44:27 Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons;

Genesis 44:28 one left me, and I said, Surely he has been torn to pieces; and I have never seen him since.

Genesis 44:29 If you take this one also from me, and harm comes to him, you will bring down my gray hairs in sorrow to Sheol.’

Genesis 44:30 Now therefore, when I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us, then, as his life is bound up in the boy’s life,

Genesis 44:31 when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die; and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant our father with sorrow to Sheol.

Genesis 44:32 For your servant became surety for the boy to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then I will bear the blame in the sight of my father all my life.’

Genesis 44:33 Now therefore, please let your servant remain as a slave to my lord in place of the boy; and let the boy go back with his brothers.

Genesis 44:34 For how can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? I fear to see the suffering that would come upon my father."

Genesis 45:1 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, "Send everyone away from me." So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.

Genesis 45:2 And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it.

Genesis 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence.

Genesis 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come closer to me." And they came closer. He said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt.

Genesis 45:5 And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life.

Genesis 45:6 For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest.

Genesis 45:7 God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors.

Genesis 45:8 So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay.

Genesis 45:10 You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have.

Genesis 45:11 I will provide for you there— since there are five more years of famine to come— so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty.'

Genesis 45:12 And now your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my own mouth that speaks to you.

Genesis 45:13 You must tell my father how greatly I am honored in Egypt, and all that you have seen. Hurry and bring my father down here."

Genesis 45:14 Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, while Benjamin wept upon his neck.

Genesis 45:15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Genesis 45:16 When the report was heard in Pharaoh’s house, “Joseph’s brothers have come,” Pharaoh and his servants were pleased.

Genesis 45:17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: load your animals and go back to the land of Canaan.

Genesis 45:18 Take your father and your households and come to me, so that I may give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you may enjoy the fat of the land.’

Genesis 45:19 You are further charged to say, ‘Do this: take wagons from the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

Genesis 45:20 Give no thought to your possessions, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.’“

Genesis 45:21 The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons according to the instruction of Pharaoh, and he gave them provisions for the journey.

Genesis 45:22 To each one of them he gave a set of garments; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five sets of garments.

Genesis 45:23 To his father he sent the following: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread, and provision for his father on the journey.

Genesis 45:24 Then he sent his brothers on their way, and as they were leaving he said to them, “Do not quarrel along the way.”

Genesis 45:25 So they went up out of Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 45:26 And they told him, “Joseph is still alive! He is even ruler over all the land of Egypt.” He was stunned; he could not believe them.

Genesis 45:27 But when they told him all the words of Joseph that he had said to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

Genesis 45:28 Israel said, “Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I must go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46:1 When Israel set out on his journey with all that he had and came to Beer-sheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Genesis 46:2 God spoke to Israel in visions of the night, and said, “Jacob, Jacob.” And he said, “Here I am.”

Genesis 46:3 Then he said, “I am God, the God of your father; do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation there.

Genesis 46:4 I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you up again; and Joseph’s own hand shall close your eyes.”

Genesis 46:5 Then Jacob set out from Beer-sheba; and the sons of Israel carried their father Jacob, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons that Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

Genesis 46:6 They also took their livestock and the goods that they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him,

Genesis 46:7 his sons, and his sons’ sons with him, his daughters, and his sons’ daughters; all his offspring he brought with him into Egypt.

Genesis 46:8 Now these are the names of the Israelites, Jacob and his offspring, who came to Egypt. Reuben, Jacob’s firstborn, Genesis 46:9 and the children of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

Genesis 46:10 The children of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman.

Genesis 46:12 The children of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan); and the children of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:14 The children of Zebulun: Sered, Elon, and Jahleel

Genesis 46:15 (these are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-aram, together with his daughter Dinah; in all his sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three).

Genesis 46:16 The children of Gad: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

Genesis 46:18 (these are the children of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah; and these she bore to Jacob— sixteen persons).

Genesis 46:20 To Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, bore to him.

Genesis 46:21 The children of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard

Genesis 46:22 (these are the children of Rachel, who were born to Jacob— fourteen persons in all).

Genesis 46:24 The children of Naphtali: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer, and Shillem

Genesis 46:25 (these are the children of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to his daughter Rachel, and these she bore to Jacob— seven persons in all).

Genesis 46:26 All the persons belonging to Jacob who came into Egypt, who were his own offspring, not including the wives of his sons, were sixty-six persons in all.

Genesis 46:27 The children of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two; all the persons of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were seventy.

Genesis 46:28 Israel sent Judah ahead to Joseph to lead the way before him into Goshen. When they came to the land of Goshen, Genesis 46:29 Joseph made ready his chariot and went up to meet his father Israel in Goshen. He presented himself to him, fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.

Genesis 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, “I can die now, having seen for myself that you are still alive.”

Genesis 46:31 Joseph said to his brothers and to his father’s household, “I will go up and tell Pharaoh, and will say to him, ‘My brothers and my father’s household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

Genesis 46:32 The men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.’

Genesis 46:33 When Pharaoh calls you, and says, ‘What is your occupation?’

Genesis 46:34 you shall say, ‘Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our ancestors’— in order that you may settle in the land of Goshen, because all shepherds are abhorrent to the Egyptians.”

Genesis 47:1 So Joseph went and told Pharaoh, “My father and my brothers, with their flocks and herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Canaan; they are now in the land of Goshen.”

Genesis 47:2 From among his brothers he took five men and presented them to Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:3 Pharaoh said to his brothers, “What is your occupation?” And they said to Pharaoh, “Your servants are shepherds, as our ancestors were.”

Genesis 47:4 They said to Pharaoh, “We have come to reside as aliens in the land; for there is no pasture for your servants’ flocks because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now, we ask you, let your servants settle in the land of Goshen.”

Genesis 47:5 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Your father and your brothers have come to you.

Genesis 47:6 The land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land; let them live in the land of Goshen; and if you know that there are capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock.”

Genesis 47:7 Then Joseph brought in his father Jacob, and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh said to Jacob, “How many are the years of your life?”

Genesis 47:9 Jacob said to Pharaoh, “The years of my earthly sojourn are one hundred thirty; few and hard have been the years of my life. They do not compare with the years of the life of my ancestors during their long sojourn.”

Genesis 47:10 Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:11 Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and granted them a holding in the land of Egypt, in the best part of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had instructed.

Genesis 47:12 And Joseph provided his father, his brothers, and all his father’s household with food, according to the number of their dependents.

Genesis 47:13 Now there was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe. The land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

Genesis 47:14 Joseph collected all the money to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, in exchange for the grain that they bought; and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh’s house.

Genesis 47:15 When the money from the land of Egypt and from the land of Canaan was spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, “Give us food! Why should we die before your eyes? For our money is gone.”

Genesis 47:16 And Joseph answered, “Give me your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock, if your money is gone.”

Genesis 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph; and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the herds, and the donkeys. That year he supplied them with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Genesis 47:18 When that year was ended, they came to him the following year, and said to him, “We can not hide from my lord that our money is all spent; and the herds of cattle are my lord’s. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands.

Genesis 47:19 Shall we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food. We with our land will become slaves to Pharaoh; just give us seed, so that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate.”

Genesis 47:20 So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh. All the Egyptians sold their fields, because the famine was severe upon them; and the land became Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:21 As for the people, he made slaves of them from one end of Egypt to the other.

Genesis 47:22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had a fixed allowance from Pharaoh, and lived on the allowance that Pharaoh gave them; therefore they did not sell their land.

Genesis 47:23 Then Joseph said to the people, “Now that I have this day bought you and your land for Pharaoh, here is seed for you; sow the land.

Genesis 47:24 And at the harvests you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own, as seed for the field and as food for yourselves and your households, and as food for your little ones.”

Genesis 47:25 They said, “You have saved our lives; may it please my lord, we will be slaves to Pharaoh.”

Genesis 47:26 So Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt, and it stands to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. The land of the priests alone did not become Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:27 Thus Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the region of Goshen; and they gained possessions in it, and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.

Genesis 47:28 Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; so the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years.

Genesis 47:29 When the time of Israel’s death drew near, he called his son Joseph and said to him, “If I have found favor with you, put your hand under my thigh and promise to deal loyally and truly with me. Do not bury me in Egypt.

Genesis 47:30 When I lie down with my ancestors, carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place.” He answered, “I will do as you have said.”

Genesis 47:31 And he said, “Swear to me”; and he swore to him. Then Israel bowed himself on the head of his bed.

Genesis 48:1 After this Joseph was told, “Your father is ill.” So he took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.

Genesis 48:2 When Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to you,” he summoned his strength and sat up in bed.

Genesis 48:3 And Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and he blessed me,

Genesis 48:4 and said to me, ‘I am going to make you fruitful and increase your numbers; I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your offspring after you for a perpetual holding.’

Genesis 48:5 Therefore your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are now mine; Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are.

Genesis 48:6 As for the offspring born to you after them, they shall be yours. They shall be recorded under the names of their brothers with regard to their inheritance.

Genesis 48:7 For when I came from Paddan, Rachel, alas, died in the land of Canaan on the way, while there was still some distance to go to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath” (that is, Bethlehem).

Genesis 48:8 When Israel saw Joseph’s sons, he said, “Who are these?”

Genesis 48:9 Joseph said to his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.” And he said, “Bring them to me, please, that I may bless them.”

Genesis 48:10 Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, and he could not see well. So Joseph brought them near him; and he kissed them and embraced them.

Genesis 48:11 Israel said to Joseph, “I did not expect to see your face; and here God has let me see your children also.”

Genesis 48:12 Then Joseph removed them from his father’s knees, and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

Genesis 48:14 But Israel stretched out his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, who was the younger, and his left hand on the head of Manasseh, crossing his hands, for Manasseh was the firstborn.

Genesis 48:15 He blessed Joseph, and said, “The God before whom my ancestors Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day, Genesis 48:16 the angel who has redeemed me from all harm, bless the boys; and in them let my name be perpetuated, and the name of my ancestors Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude on the earth."

Genesis 48:17 When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him; so he took his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head.

Genesis 48:18 Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father! Since this one is the firstborn, put your right hand on his head."

Genesis 48:19 But his father refused, and said, "I know, my son, I know; he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great. Nevertheless his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his offspring shall become a multitude of nations."

Genesis 48:20 So he blessed them that day, saying, "By you Israel will invoke blessings, saying, 'God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.'" So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

Genesis 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you and will bring you again to the land of your ancestors.

Genesis 48:22 I now give to you one portion more than to your brothers, the portion that I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and with my bow."

Genesis 49:1 Then Jacob called his sons, and said: "Gather around, that I may tell you what will happen to you in days to come.

Genesis 49:2 Assemble and hear, O sons of Jacob; listen to Israel your father.

Genesis 49:3 Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might and the first fruits of my vigor, excelling in rank and excelling in power.

Genesis 49:4 Unstable as water, you shall no longer excel because you went up onto your father's bed; then you defiled it— you went up onto my couch!

Genesis 49:5 Simeon and Levi are brothers; weapons of violence are their swords.

Genesis 49:6 May I never come into their council; may I not be joined to their company— for in their anger they killed men, and at their whim they hamstrung oxen.

Genesis 49:7 Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce, and their wrath, for it is cruel! I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

Genesis 49:8 Judah, your brothers shall praise you; your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; your father's sons shall bow down before you.

Genesis 49:9 Judah is a lion's whelp; from the prey, my son, you have gone up. He crouches down, he stretches out like a lion, like a lioness— who dares rouse him up?

Genesis 49:10 The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet, until tribute comes to him; and the obedience of the peoples is his.

Genesis 49:11 Binding his foal to the vine and his donkey’s colt to the choice vine, he washes his garments in wine and his robe in the blood of grapes;

Genesis 49:12 his eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

Genesis 49:13 Zebulun shall settle at the shore of the sea; he shall be a haven for ships, and his border shall be at Sidon.

Genesis 49:14 Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the sheepfolds;

Genesis 49:15 he saw that a resting place was good, and that the land was pleasant; so he bowed his shoulder to the burden, and became a slave at forced labor.

Genesis 49:17 Dan shall be a snake by the roadside, a viper along the path, that bites the horse’s heels so that its rider falls backward.

Genesis 49:18 I wait for your salvation, O LORD.

Genesis 49:19 Gad shall be raided by raiders, but he shall raid at their heels.

Genesis 49:20 Asher’s food shall be rich, and he shall provide royal delicacies.

Genesis 49:21 Naphtali is a doe let loose that bears lovely fawns.

Genesis 49:23 The archers fiercely attacked him; they shot at him and pressed him hard.

Genesis 49:24 Yet his bow remained taut, and his arms were made agile by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, by the name of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

Genesis 49:25 by the God of your father, who will help you, by the Almighty who will bless you with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies beneath, blessings of the breasts and of the womb.

Genesis 49:26 The blessings of your father are stronger than the blessings of the eternal mountains, the bounties of the everlasting hills; may they be on the head of Joseph, on the brow of him who was set apart from his brothers.

Genesis 49:27 Benjamin is a ravenous wolf, in the morning devouring the prey, and at evening dividing the spoil.”

Genesis 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them, blessing each one of them with a suitable blessing.

Genesis 49:29 Then he charged them, saying to them, “I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my ancestors— in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, Genesis 49:30 in the cave in the field at Machpelah, near Mamre, in the land of Canaan, in the field that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite as a burial site.

Genesis 49:31 There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried; there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried; and there I buried Leah—

Genesis 49:32 the field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the Hittites.”

Genesis 49:33 When Jacob ended his charge to his sons, he drew up his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50:1 Then Joseph threw himself on his father’s face and wept over him and kissed him.

Genesis 50:2 Joseph commanded the physicians in his service to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel;

Genesis 50:3 they spent forty days in doing this, for that is the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians wept for him seventy days.

Genesis 50:4 When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph addressed the household of Pharaoh, “If now I have found favor with you, please speak to Pharaoh as follows:

Genesis 50:5 My father made me swear an oath; he said, ‘I am about to die. In the tomb that I hewed out for myself in the land of Canaan, there you shall bury me.’ Now therefore let me go up, so that I may bury my father; then I will return.”

Genesis 50:6 Pharaoh answered, “Go up, and bury your father, as he made you swear to do.”

Genesis 50:7 So Joseph went up to bury his father. With him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his household, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,

Genesis 50:8 as well as all the household of Joseph, his brothers, and his father’s household. Only their children, their flocks, and their herds were left in the land of Goshen.

Genesis 50:9 Both chariots and charioteers went up with him. It was a very great company.

Genesis 50:10 When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they held there a very great and sorrowful lamentation; and he observed a time of mourning for his father seven days.

Genesis 50:11 When the Canaanite inhabitants of the land saw the mourning on the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “This is a grievous mourning on the part of the Egyptians.” Therefore the place was named Abel-mizraim; it is beyond the Jordan.

Genesis 50:12 Thus his sons did for him as he had instructed them.

Genesis 50:13 They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field at Machpelah, the field near Mamre, which Abraham bought as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite.

Genesis 50:14 After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father.

Genesis 50:15 Realizing that their father was dead, Joseph’s brothers said, “What if Joseph still bears a grudge against us and pays us back in full for all the wrong that we did to him?”

Genesis 50:16 So they approached Joseph, saying, “Your father gave this instruction before he died, Genesis 50:17 ‘Say to Joseph: I beg you, forgive the crime of your brothers and the wrong they did in harming you.’ Now therefore please forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

Genesis 50:18 Then his brothers also wept, fell down before him, and said, “We are here as your slaves.”

Genesis 50:19 But Joseph said to them, “Do not be afraid! Am I in the place of God?

Genesis 50:20 Even though you intended to do harm to me, God intended it for good, in order to preserve a numerous people, as he is doing today.

Genesis 50:21 So have no fear; I myself will provide for you and your little ones.” In this way he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

Genesis 50:22 So Joseph remained in Egypt, he and his father’s household; and Joseph lived one hundred ten years.

Genesis 50:23 Joseph saw Ephraim’s children of the third generation; the children of Machir son of Manasseh were also born on Joseph’s knees.

Genesis 50:24 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “I am about to die; but God will surely come to you, and bring you up out of this land to the land that he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”

Genesis 50:25 So Joseph made the Israelites swear, saying, “When God comes to you, you shall carry up my bones from here.”

Genesis 50:26 And Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old; he was embalmed and placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who came to Egypt with Jacob, each with his household:

Exodus 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

Exodus 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

Exodus 1:4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 The total number of people born to Jacob was seventy. Joseph was already in Egypt.

Exodus 1:6 Then Joseph died, and all his brothers, and that whole generation.

Exodus 1:7 But the Israelites were fruitful and prolific; they multiplied and grew exceedingly strong, so that the land was filled with them.

Exodus 1:8 Now a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.

Exodus 1:9 He said to his people, “Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we.

Exodus 1:10 Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.”

Exodus 1:11 Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labor. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh.

Exodus 1:12 But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites.

Exodus 1:13 The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites,

Exodus 1:14 and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and brick and in every kind of field labor. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them.

Exodus 1:15 The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah,

Exodus 1:16 “When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, she shall live.”

Exodus 1:17 But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live.

Exodus 1:18 So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?”

Exodus 1:19 The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.”

Exodus 1:20 So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong.

Exodus 1:21 And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families.

Exodus 1:22 Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, “Every boy that is born to theHebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live.”

Exodus 2:1 Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman.

Exodus 2:2 The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months.

Exodus 2:3 When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river.

Exodus 2:4 His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

Exodus 2:5 The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it.

Exodus 2:6 When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him, “This must be one of the Hebrews’ children,” she said.

Exodus 2:7 Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?”

Exodus 2:8 Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Yes.” So the girl went and called the child’s mother.

Exodus 2:9 Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed it.

Exodus 2:10 When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, “because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

Exodus 2:11 One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his people and saw their forced labor. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his kinsfolk.

Exodus 2:12 He looked this way and that, and seeing no one he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 When he went out the next day, he saw two Hebrews fighting; and he said to the one who was in the wrong, “Why do you strike your fellow Hebrew?”

Exodus 2:14 He answered, “Who made you a ruler and judge over us? Do you mean to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and thought, “Surely the thing is known.”

Exodus 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh. He settled in the land of Midian, and sat down by a well.

Exodus 2:16 The priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came to draw water, and filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.

Exodus 2:17 But some shepherds came and drove them away. Moses got up and came to their defense and watered their flock.

Exodus 2:18 When they returned to their father Reuel, he said, “How is it that you have come back so soon today?”

Exodus 2:19 They said, “An Egyptian helped us against the shepherds; he even drew water for us and watered the flock.”

Exodus 2:20 He said to his daughters, “Where is he? Why did you leave the man? Invite him to break bread.”

Exodus 2:21 Moses agreed to stay with the man, and he gave Moses his daughter Zipporah in marriage.

Exodus 2:22 She bore a son, and he named him Gershom; for he said, “I have been an alien residing in a foreign land.”

Exodus 2:23 After a long time the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned under their slavery, and cried out. Out of the slavery their cry for help rose up to God.

Exodus 2:24 God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Exodus 2:25 God looked upon the Israelites, and God took notice of them.

Exodus 3:1 Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exodus 3:2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed.

Exodus 3:3 Then Moses said, “I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.”

Exodus 3:4 When the LORD saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.”

Exodus 3:5 Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.”

Exodus 3:6 He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Exodus 3:7 Then the LORD said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings,

Exodus 3:8 and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exodus 3:9 The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them.

Exodus 3:10 So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?”

Exodus 3:12 He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.”

Exodus 3:13 But Moses said to God, “If I come to the Israelites and say to them, ‘The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,’ and they ask me, ‘What is his name?’ what shall I say to them?”

Exodus 3:14 God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM.” He said further, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’“

Exodus 3:15 God also said to Moses, “Thus you shall say to the Israelites, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you’: This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations.

Exodus 3:16 Go and assemble the elders of Israel, and say to them, ‘The LORD, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying: I have given heed to you and to what has been done to you in Egypt.

Exodus 3:17 I declare that I will bring you up out of the misery of Egypt, to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.’

Exodus 3:18 They will listen to your voice; and you and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us; let us now go a three days’ journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.’

Exodus 3:19 I know, however, that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless compelled by a mighty hand.

Exodus 3:20 So I will stretch out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders that I will perform in it; after that he will let you go.

Exodus 3:21 I will bring this people into such favor with the Egyptians that, when you go, you will not go empty-handed;

Exodus 3:22 each woman shall ask her neighbor and any woman living in the neighbor's house for jewelry of silver and of gold, and clothing, and you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters; and so you shall plunder the Egyptians."

Exodus 4:1 Then Moses answered, "But suppose they do not believe me or listen to me, but say, 'The LORD did not appear to you.'"

Exodus 4:2 The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" He said, "A staff."

Exodus 4:3 And he said, "Throw it on the ground." So he threw the staff on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses drew back from it.

Exodus 4:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Reach out your hand, and seize it by the tail"— so he reached out his hand and grasped it, and it became a staff in his hand—

Exodus 4:5 "so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

Exodus 4:6 Again, the LORD said to him, "Put your hand inside your cloak." He put his hand into his cloak; and when he took it out, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.

Exodus 4:7 Then God said, "Put your hand back into your cloak"— so he put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored like the rest of his body—

Exodus 4:8 "If they will not believe you or heed the first sign, they may believe the second sign.

Exodus 4:9 If they will not believe even these two signs or heed you, you shall take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground; and the water that you shall take from the Nile will become blood on the dry ground."

Exodus 4:10 But Moses said to the LORD, "O my Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor even now that you have spoken to your servant; but I am slow of speech and slow of tongue."

Exodus 4:11 Then the LORD said to him, "Who gives speech to mortals? Who makes them mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

Exodus 4:12 Now go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you are to speak.”

Exodus 4:13 But he said, “O my Lord, please send someone else.”

Exodus 4:14 Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses and he said, “What of your brother Aaron, the Levite? I know that he can speak fluently; even now he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you his heart will be glad.

Exodus 4:15 You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth; and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do.

Exodus 4:16 He indeed shall speak for you to the people; he shall serve as a mouth for you, and you shall serve as God for him.

Exodus 4:17 Take in your hand this staff, with which you shall perform the signs.”

Exodus 4:18 Moses went back to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, “Please let me go back to my kindred in Egypt and see whether they are still living.” And Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

Exodus 4:19 The LORD said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt; for all those who were seeking your life are dead.”

Exodus 4:20 So Moses took his wife and his sons, put them on a donkey and went back to the land of Egypt; and Moses carried the staff of God in his hand.

Exodus 4:21 And the LORD said to Moses, “When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders that I have put in your power; but I will harden his heart, so that he will not let the people go.

Exodus 4:22 Then you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD: Israel is my firstborn son.

Exodus 4:23 I said to you, “Let my son go that he may worship me.” But you refused to let him go; now I will kill your firstborn son.’“

Exodus 4:24 On the way, at a place where they spent the night, the LORD met him and tried to kill him.

Exodus 4:25 But Zipporah took a flint and cut off her son’s foreskin, and touched Moses’ feet with it, and said, “Truly you are a bridegroom of blood to me!”

Exodus 4:26 So he let him alone. It was then she said, “A bridegroom of blood by circumcision.”

Exodus 4:27 The LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the wilderness to meet Moses.” So he went; and he met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had charged him.

Exodus 4:29 Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of the Israelites.

Exodus 4:30 Aaron spoke all the words that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and performed the signs in the sight of the people.

Exodus 4:31 The people believed; and when they heard that the LORD had given heed to the Israelites and that he had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshiped.

Exodus 5:1 Afterward Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Let my people go, so that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness.’“

Exodus 5:2 But Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should heed him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, and I will not let Israel go.”

Exodus 5:3 Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has revealed himself to us; let us go a three days’ journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to the LORD our God, or he will fall upon us with pestilence or sword.”

Exodus 5:4 But the king of Egypt said to them, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their work? Get to your labors!”

Exodus 5:5 Pharaoh continued, “Now they are more numerous than the people of the land and yet you want them to stop working!”

Exodus 5:6 That same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, as well as their supervisors, Exodus 5:7 “You shall no longer give the people straw to make bricks, as before; let them go and gather straw for themselves.

Exodus 5:8 But you shall require of them the same quantity of bricks as they have made previously; do not diminish it, for they are lazy; that is why they cry, ‘Let us go and offer sacrifice to our God.’

Exodus 5:9 Let heavier work be laid on them; then they will labor at it and pay no attention to deceptive words.”

Exodus 5:10 So the taskmasters and the supervisors of the people went out and said to the people, “Thus says Pharaoh, ‘I will not give you straw.

Exodus 5:11 Go and get straw yourselves, wherever you can find it; but your work will not be lessened in the least.’“

Exodus 5:12 So the people scattered throughout the land of Egypt, to gather stubble for straw.

Exodus 5:13 The taskmasters were urgent, saying, “Complete your work, the same daily assignment as when you were given straw.”

Exodus 5:14 And the supervisors of the Israelites, whom Pharaoh’s taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and were asked, “Why did you not finish the required quantity of bricks yesterday and today, as you did before?”

Exodus 5:15 Then the Israelite supervisors came to Pharaoh and cried, “Why do you treat your servants like this?

Exodus 5:16 No straw is given to your servants, yet they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ Look how your servants are beaten! You are unjust to your own people.”

Exodus 5:17 He said, “You are lazy, lazy; that is why you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’

Exodus 5:18 Go now, and work; for no straw shall be given you, but you shall still deliver the same number of bricks.”

Exodus 5:19 The Israelite supervisors saw that they were in trouble when they were told, “You shall not lessen your daily number of bricks.”

Exodus 5:20 As they left Pharaoh, they came upon Moses and Aaron who were waiting to meet them.

Exodus 5:21 They said to them, “The LORD look upon you and judge! You have brought us into bad odor with Pharaoh and his officials, and have put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

Exodus 5:22 Then Moses turned again to the LORD and said, “O LORD, why have you mistreated this people? Why did you ever send me?

Exodus 5:23 Since I first came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has mistreated this people, and you have done nothing at all to deliver your people.”

Exodus 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh: Indeed, by a mighty hand he will let them go; by a mighty hand he will drive them out of his land.”

Exodus 6:2 God also spoke to Moses and said to him: “I am the LORD.

Exodus 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name ‘The LORD’ I did not make myself known to them.

Exodus 6:4 I also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land in which they resided as aliens.

Exodus 6:5 I have also heard the groaning of the Israelites whom the Egyptians are holding as slaves, and I have remembered my covenant.

Exodus 6:6 Say therefore to the Israelites, ‘I am the LORD, and I will free you from the burdens of the Egyptians and deliver you from slavery to them. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.

Exodus 6:7 I will take you as my people, and I will be your God. You shall know that I am the LORD your God, who has freed you from the burdens of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:8 I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; I will give it to you for a possession. I am the LORD.’“

Exodus 6:9 Moses told this to the Israelites; but they would not listen to Moses, because of their broken spirit and their cruel slavery.

Exodus 6:10 Then the LORD spoke to Moses,

Exodus 6:11 “Go and tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his land.”

Exodus 6:12 But Moses spoke to the LORD, “The Israelites have not listened to me; how then shall Pharaoh listen to me, poor speaker that I am?”

Exodus 6:13 Thus the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, and gave them orders regarding the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, charging them to free the Israelites from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 The following are the heads of their ancestral houses: the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben.

Exodus 6:15 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar, and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon.

Exodus 6:16 The following are the names of the sons of Levi according to their genealogies: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari, and the length of Levi’s life was one hundred thirty-seven years.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, by their families.

Exodus 6:18 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, and the length of Kohath’s life was one hundred thirty-three years.

Exodus 6:19 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their genealogies.

Exodus 6:20 Amram married Jochebed his father’s sister and she bore him Aaron and Moses, and the length of Amram’s life was one hundred thirty-seven years.

Exodus 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Exodus 6:24 The sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph; these are the families of the Korahites.

Exodus 6:25 Aaron’s son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the ancestral houses of the Levites by their families.

Exodus 6:26 It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, “Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, company by company.”

Exodus 6:27 It was they who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring the Israelites out of Egypt, the same Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 6:28 On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt,

Exodus 6:29 he said to him, “I am the LORD; tell Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I am speaking to you.”

Exodus 6:30 But Moses said in the LORD’s presence, “Since I am a poor speaker, why would Pharaoh listen to me?”

Exodus 7:1 The LORD said to Moses, “See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 You shall speak all that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his land.

Exodus 7:3 But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and I will multiply my signs and wonders in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:4 When Pharaoh does not listen to you, I will lay my hand upon Egypt and bring my people the Israelites, company by company, out of the land of Egypt by great acts of judgment.

Exodus 7:5 The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them.”

Exodus 7:6 Moses and Aaron did so; they did just as the LORD commanded them.

Exodus 7:7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Exodus 7:9 “When Pharaoh says to you, ‘Perform a wonder,’ then you shall say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh, and it will become a snake.’“

Exodus 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did as the LORD had commanded; Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake.

Exodus 7:11 Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers; and they also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same by their secret arts.

Exodus 7:12 Each one threw down his staff, and they became snakes; but Aaron’s staff swallowed up theirs.

Exodus 7:13 Still Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is hardened; he refuses to let the people go.

Exodus 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning, as he is going out to the water; stand by at the river bank to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was turned into a snake.

Exodus 7:16 Say to him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, sent me to you to say, “Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the wilderness.” But until now you have not listened.’

Exodus 7:17 Thus says the LORD, “By this you shall know that I am the LORD.” See, with the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water that is in the Nile, and it shall be turned to blood.

Exodus 7:18 The fish in the river shall die, the river itself shall stink, and the Egyptians shall be unable to drink water from the Nile.’“

Exodus 7:19 The LORD said to Moses, “Say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt— over its rivers, its canals, and its ponds, and all its pools of water— so that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout the whole land of Egypt, even in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.’“

Exodus 7:20 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded. In the sight of Pharaoh and of his officials he lifted up the staff and struck the water in the river, and all the water in the river was turned into blood,

Exodus 7:21 and the fish in the river died. The river stank so that the Egyptians could not drink its water, and there was blood throughout the whole land of Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 But the magicians of Egypt did the same by their secret arts; so Pharaoh’s heart remained hardened, and he would not listen to them; as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:23 Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not take even this to heart.

Exodus 7:24 And all the Egyptians had to dig along the Nile for water to drink, for they could not drink the water of the river.

Exodus 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD had struck the Nile.

Exodus 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 8:2 If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs.

Exodus 8:3 The river shall swarm with frogs; they shall come up into your palace, into your bedchamber and your bed, and into the houses of your officials and of your people, and into your ovens and your kneading bowls.

Exodus 8:4 The frogs shall come up on you and on your people and on all your officials.'"

Exodus 8:5 And the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, the canals, and the pools, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.'"

Exodus 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:7 But the magicians did the same by their secret arts, and brought frogs up on the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:8 Then Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, "Pray to the LORD to take away the frogs from me and my people, and I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

Exodus 8:9 Moses said to Pharaoh, "Kindly tell me when I am to pray for you and for your officials and for your people, that the frogs may be removed from you and your houses and be left only in the Nile."

Exodus 8:10 And he said, "Tomorrow." Moses said, "As you say! So that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God, Exodus 8:11 the frogs shall leave you and your houses and your officials and your people; they shall be left only in the Nile."

Exodus 8:12 Then Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs that he had brought upon Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:13 And the LORD did as Moses requested: the frogs died in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields.

Exodus 8:14 And they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

Exodus 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, so that it may become gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt.'"

Exodus 8:17 And they did so; Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, and gnats came on humans and animals alike; all the dust of the earth turned into gnats throughout the whole land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:18 The magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, but they could not. There were gnats on both humans and animals.

Exodus 8:19 And the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God!" But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:20 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, as he goes out to the water, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 8:21 For if you will not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you, your officials, and your people, and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be filled with swarms of flies; so also the land where they live.

Exodus 8:22 But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where my people live, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, that you may know that I the LORD am in this land.

Exodus 8:23 Thus I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This sign shall appear tomorrow.’“

Exodus 8:24 The LORD did so, and great swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh and into his officials’ houses; in all of Egypt the land was ruined because of the flies.

Exodus 8:25 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron, and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God within the land.”

Exodus 8:26 But Moses said, “It would not be right to do so; for the sacrifices that we offer to the LORD our God are offensive to the Egyptians. If we offer in the sight of the Egyptians sacrifices that are offensive to them, will they not stone us?

Exodus 8:27 We must go a three days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD our God as he commands us.”

Exodus 8:28 So Pharaoh said, “I will let you go to sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, provided you do not go very far away. Pray for me.”

Exodus 8:29 Then Moses said, “As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart tomorrow from Pharaoh, from his officials, and from his people; only do not let Pharaoh again deal falsely by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:30 So Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exodus 8:31 And the LORD did as Moses asked: he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his officials, and from his people; not one remained.

Exodus 8:32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and would not let the people go.

Exodus 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 9:2 For if you refuse to let them go and still hold them, Exodus 9:3 the hand of the LORD will strike with a deadly pestilence your livestock in the field: the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds, and the flocks.

Exodus 9:4 But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, so that nothing shall die of all that belongs to the Israelites.’“

Exodus 9:5 The LORD set a time, saying, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this thing in the land.”

Exodus 9:6 And on the next day the LORD did so; all the livestock of the Egyptians died, but of the livestock of the Israelites not one died.

Exodus 9:7 Pharaoh inquired and found that not one of the livestock of the Israelites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the people go.

Exodus 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from the kiln, and let Moses throw it in the air in the sight of Pharaoh.

Exodus 9:9 It shall become fine dust all over the land of Egypt, and shall cause festering boils on humans and animals throughout the whole land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:10 So they took soot from the kiln, and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses threw it in the air, and it caused festering boils on humans and animals.

Exodus 9:11 The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils afflicted the magicians as well as all the Egyptians.

Exodus 9:12 But the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

Exodus 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Rise up early in the morning and present yourself before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 9:14 For this time I will send all my plagues upon you yourself, and upon your officials, and upon your people, so that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth.

Exodus 9:15 For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth.

Exodus 9:16 But this is why I have let you live: to show you my power, and to make my name resound through all the earth.

Exodus 9:17 You are still exalting yourself against my people, and will not let them go.

Exodus 9:18 Tomorrow at this time I will cause the heaviest hail to fall that has ever fallen in Egypt from the day it was founded until now.

Exodus 9:19 Send, therefore, and have your livestock and everything that you have in the open field brought to a secure place; every human or animal that is in the open field and is not brought under shelter will die when the hail comes down upon them.’“

Exodus 9:20 Those officials of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD hurried their slaves and livestock off to a secure place.

Exodus 9:22 The LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven so that hail may fall on the whole land of Egypt, on humans and animals and all the plants of the field in the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:23 Then Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire came down on the earth. And the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt;

Exodus 9:24 there was hail with fire flashing continually in the midst of it, such heavy hail as had never fallen in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

Exodus 9:25 The hail struck down everything that was in the open field throughout all the land of Egypt, both human and animal; the hail also struck down all the plants of the field, and shattered every tree in the field.

Exodus 9:26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were, there was no hail.

Exodus 9:27 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron, and said to them, “This time I have sinned; the LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong.

Exodus 9:28 Pray to the LORD! Enough of God’s thunder and hail! I will let you go; you need stay no longer.”

Exodus 9:29 Moses said to him, “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will stretch out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD’s.

Exodus 9:30 But as for you and your officials, I know that you do not yet fear the LORD God.”

Exodus 9:31 (Now the flax and the barley were ruined, for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud.

Exodus 9:32 But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined, for they are late in coming up.)

Exodus 9:33 So Moses left Pharaoh, went out of the city, and stretched out his hands to the LORD; then the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain no longer poured down on the earth.

Exodus 9:34 But when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunder had ceased, he sinned once more and hardened his heart, he and his officials.

Exodus 9:35 So the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

Exodus 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his officials, in order that I may show these signs of mine among them, Exodus 10:2 and that you may tell your children and grandchildren how I have made fools of the Egyptians and what signs I have done among them— so that you may know that I am the LORD.”

Exodus 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 10:4 For if you refuse to let my people go, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country.

Exodus 10:5 They shall cover the surface of the land, so that no one will be able to see the land. They shall devour the last remnant left you after the hail, and they shall devour every tree of yours that grows in the field.

Exodus 10:6 They shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your officials and of all the Egyptians— something that neither your parents nor your grandparents have seen, from the day they came on earth to this day.’“ Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

Exodus 10:7 Pharaoh’s officials said to him, “How long shall this fellow be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship the LORD their God; do you not yet understand that Egypt is ruined?”

Exodus 10:8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, “Go, worship the LORD your God! But which ones are to go?”

Exodus 10:9 Moses said, “We will go with our young and our old; we will go with our sons and daughters and with our flocks and herds, because we have the LORD’s festival to celebrate.”

Exodus 10:10 He said to them, “The LORD indeed will be with you, if ever I let your little ones go with you! Plainly, you have some evil purpose in mind.

Exodus 10:11 No, never! Your men may go and worship the LORD, for that is what you are asking.” And they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

Exodus 10:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt, so that the locusts may come upon it and eat every plant in the land, all that the hail has left.”

Exodus 10:13 So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night; when morning came, the east wind had brought the locusts.

Exodus 10:14 The locusts came upon all the land of Egypt and settled on the whole country of Egypt, such a dense swarm of locusts as had never been before, nor ever shall be again.

Exodus 10:15 They covered the surface of the whole land, so that the land was black; and they ate all the plants in the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left; nothing green was left, no tree, no plant in the field, in all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 10:16 Pharaoh hurriedly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

Exodus 10:17 Do forgive my sin just this once, and pray to the LORD your God that at the least he remove this deadly thing from me."

Exodus 10:18 So he went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exodus 10:19 The LORD changed the wind into a very strong west wind, which lifted the locusts and drove them into the Red Sea; not a single locust was left in all the country of Egypt.

Exodus 10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

Exodus 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness that can be felt."

Exodus 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was dense darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.

Exodus 10:23 People could not see one another, and for three days they could not move from where they were; but all the Israelites had light where they lived.

Exodus 10:24 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses, and said, "Go, worship the LORD. Only your flocks and your herds shall remain behind. Even your children may go with you."

Exodus 10:25 But Moses said, "You must also let us have sacrifices and burnt offerings to sacrifice to the LORD our God.

Exodus 10:26 Our livestock also must go with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, for we must choose some of them for the worship of the LORD our God, and we will not know what to use to worship the LORD until we arrive there."

Exodus 10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he was unwilling to let them go.

Exodus 10:28 Then Pharaoh said to him, “Get away from me! Take care that you do not see my face again, for on the day you see my face you shall die.”

Exodus 10:29 Moses said, “Just as you say! I will never see your face again.”

Exodus 11:1 The LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go from here; indeed, when he lets you go, he will drive you away.

Exodus 11:2 Tell the people that every man is to ask his neighbor and every woman is to ask her neighbor for objects of silver and gold.”

Exodus 11:3 The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, Moses himself was a man of great importance in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh’s officials and in the sight of the people.

Exodus 11:4 Moses said, “Thus says the LORD: About midnight I will go out through Egypt.

Exodus 11:5 Every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne to the firstborn of the female slave who is behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the livestock.

Exodus 11:6 Then there will be a loud cry throughout the whole land of Egypt, such as has never been or will ever be again.

Exodus 11:7 But not a dog shall growl at any of the Israelites— not at people, not at animals— so that you may know that the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Exodus 11:8 Then all these officials of yours shall come down to me, and bow low to me, saying, ‘Leave us, you and all the people who follow you.’ After that I will leave.” And in hot anger he left Pharaoh.

Exodus 11:9 The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”

Exodus 11:10 Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh; but the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the people of Israel go out of his land.

Exodus 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt:

Exodus 12:2 This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you.

Exodus 12:3 Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household.

Exodus 12:4 If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it.

Exodus 12:5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats.

Exodus 12:6 You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight.

Exodus 12:7 They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.

Exodus 12:8 They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Exodus 12:9 Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs.

Exodus 12:10 You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.

Exodus 12:11 This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the LORD.

Exodus 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD.

Exodus 12:13 The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Exodus 12:15 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; on the first day you shall remove leaven from your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day shall be cut off from Israel.

Exodus 12:16 On the first day you shall hold a solemn assembly, and on the seventh day a solemn assembly; no work shall be done on those days; only what everyone must eat, that alone may be prepared by you.

Exodus 12:17 You shall observe the festival of unleavened bread, for on this very day I brought your companies out of the land of Egypt: you shall observe this day throughout your generations as a perpetual ordinance.

Exodus 12:18 In the first month, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day, you shall eat unleavened bread.

Exodus 12:19 For seven days no leaven shall be found in your houses; for whoever eats what is leavened shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether an alien or a native of the land.

Exodus 12:20 You shall eat nothing leavened; in all your settlements you shall eat unleavened bread.

Exodus 12:21 Then Moses called all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Go, select lambs for your families, and slaughter the passover lamb.

Exodus 12:22 Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and touch the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood in the basin. None of you shall go outside the door of your house until morning.

Exodus 12:23 For the LORD will pass through to strike down the Egyptians; when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the LORD will pass over that door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you down.

Exodus 12:24 You shall observe this rite as a perpetual ordinance for you and your children.

Exodus 12:25 When you come to the land that the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this observance.

Exodus 12:26 And when your children ask you, ‘What do you mean by this observance?’

Exodus 12:27 you shall say, ‘It is the passover sacrifice to the LORD, for he passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt, when he struck down the Egyptians but spared our houses.’“ And the people bowed down and worshiped.

Exodus 12:28 The Israelites went and did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:29 At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the prisoner who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn of the livestock.

Exodus 12:30 Pharaoh arose in the night, he and all his officials and all the Egyptians; and there was a loud cry in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead.

Exodus 12:31 Then he summoned Moses and Aaron in the night, and said, “Rise up, go away from my people, both you and the Israelites! Go, worship the LORD, as you said.

Exodus 12:32 Take your flocks and your herds, as you said, and be gone. And bring a blessing on me too!”

Exodus 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people to hasten their departure from the land, for they said, “We shall all be dead.”

Exodus 12:34 So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading bowls wrapped up in their cloaks on their shoulders.

Exodus 12:35 The Israelites had done as Moses told them; they had asked the Egyptians for jewelry of silver and gold, and for clothing,

Exodus 12:36 and the LORD had given the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they let them have what they asked. And so they plundered the Egyptians.

Exodus 12:37 The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children.

Exodus 12:38 A mixed crowd also went up with them, and livestock in great numbers, both flocks and herds.

Exodus 12:39 They baked unleavened cakes of the dough that they had brought out of Egypt; it was not leavened, because they were driven out of Egypt and could not wait, nor had they prepared any provisions for themselves.

Exodus 12:40 The time that the Israelites had lived in Egypt was four hundred thirty years.

Exodus 12:41 At the end of four hundred thirty years, on that very day, all the companies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 12:42 That was for the LORD a night of vigil, to bring them out of the land of Egypt. That same night is a vigil to be kept for the LORD by all the Israelites throughout their generations.

Exodus 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: This is the ordinance for the passover: no foreigner shall eat of it,

Exodus 12:44 but any slave who has been purchased may eat of it after he has been circumcised;

Exodus 12:45 no bound or hired servant may eat of it.

Exodus 12:46 It shall be eaten in one house; you shall not take any of the animal outside the house, and you shall not break any of its bones.

Exodus 12:47 The whole congregation of Israel shall celebrate it.

Exodus 12:48 If an alien who resides with you wants to celebrate the passover to the LORD, all his males shall be circumcised; then he may draw near to celebrate it; he shall be regarded as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it;

Exodus 12:49 there shall be one law for the native and for the alien who resides among you.

Exodus 12:50 All the Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:51 That very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, company by company.

Exodus 13:1 The LORD said to Moses:

Exodus 13:2 Consecrate to me all the firstborn; whatever is the first to open the womb among the Israelites, of human beings and animals, is mine.

Exodus 13:3 Moses said to the people, “Remember this day on which you came out of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, because the LORD brought you out from there by strength of hand; no leavened bread shall be eaten.

Exodus 13:4 Today, in the month of Abib, you are going out.

Exodus 13:5 When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he swore to your ancestors to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall keep this observance in this month.

Exodus 13:6 Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a festival to the LORD.

Exodus 13:7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten for seven days; no leavened bread shall be seen in your possession, and no leaven shall be seen among you in all your territory.

Exodus 13:8 You shall tell your child on that day, ‘It is because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.’

Exodus 13:9 It shall serve for you as a sign on your hand and as a reminder on your forehead, so that the teaching of the LORD may be on your lips; for with a strong hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt.

Exodus 13:10 You shall keep this ordinance at its proper time from year to year.

Exodus 13:11 “When the LORD has brought you into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore to you and your ancestors, and has given it to you,

Exodus 13:12 you shall set apart to the LORD all that first opens the womb. All the firstborn of your livestock that are males shall be the LORD’s.

Exodus 13:13 But every firstborn donkey you shall redeem with a sheep; if you do not redeem it, you must break its neck. Every firstborn male among your children you shall redeem.

Exodus 13:14 When in the future your child asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ you shall answer, ‘By strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.

Exodus 13:15 When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from human firstborn to the firstborn of animals. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD every male that first opens the womb, but every firstborn of my sons I redeem.’

Exodus 13:16 It shall serve as a sign on your hand and as an emblem on your forehead that by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt.”

Exodus 13:17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them by way of the land of the Philistines, although that was nearer; for God thought, “If the people face war, they may change their minds and return to Egypt.”

Exodus 13:18 So God led the people by the roundabout way of the wilderness toward the Red Sea. The Israelites went up out of the land of Egypt prepared for battle.

Exodus 13:19 And Moses took with him the bones of Joseph who had required a solemn oath of the Israelites, saying, “God will surely take notice of you, and then you must carry my bones with you from here.”

Exodus 13:20 They set out from Succoth, and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness.

Exodus 13:21 The LORD went in front of them in a pillar of cloud by day, to lead them along the way, and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light, so that they might travel by day and by night.

Exodus 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Exodus 14:2 Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp in front of Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baal-zephon; you shall camp opposite it, by the sea.

Exodus 14:3 Pharaoh will say of the Israelites, “They are wandering aimlessly in the land; the wilderness has closed in on them.”

Exodus 14:4 I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will pursue them, so that I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army; and the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

Exodus 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, the minds of Pharaoh and his officials were changed toward the people, and they said, “What have we done, letting Israel leave our service?”

Exodus 14:6 So he had his chariot made ready, and took his army with him;

Exodus 14:7 he took six hundred picked chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt with officers over all of them.

Exodus 14:8 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt and he pursued the Israelites, who were going out boldly.

Exodus 14:9 The Egyptians pursued them, all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots, his chariot drivers and his army; they overtook them camped by the sea, by Pi-hahiroth, in front of Baal-zephon.

Exodus 14:10 As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked back, and there were the Egyptians advancing on them. In great fear the Israelites cried out to the LORD.

Exodus 14:11 They said to Moses, “Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? What have you done to us, bringing us out of Egypt?

Exodus 14:12 Is this not the very thing we told you in Egypt, ‘Let us alone and let us serve the Egyptians’? For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness.”

Exodus 14:13 But Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid, stand firm, and see the deliverance that the LORD will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today you shall never see again.

Exodus 14:14 The LORD will fight for you, and you have only to keep still.”

Exodus 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward.

Exodus 14:16 But you lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the Israelites may go into the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 14:17 Then I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them; and so I will gain glory for myself over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots, and his chariot drivers.

Exodus 14:18 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gained glory for myself over Pharaoh, his chariots, and his chariot drivers.”

Exodus 14:19 The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them.

Exodus 14:20 It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Exodus 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided.

Exodus 14:23 The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh’s horses, chariots, and chariot drivers.

Exodus 14:24 At the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic.

Exodus 14:25 He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, “Let us flee from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.”

Exodus 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers.”

Exodus 14:27 So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the LORD tossed the Egyptians into the sea.

Exodus 14:28 The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained.

Exodus 14:30 Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore.

Exodus 14:31 Israel saw the great work that the LORD did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the LORD and believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: “I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.

Exodus 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my might, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

Exodus 15:3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.

Exodus 15:4 “Pharaoh’s chariots and his army he cast into the sea; his picked officers were sunk in the Red Sea.

Exodus 15:5 The floods covered them; they went down into the depths like a stone.

Exodus 15:7 In the greatness of your majesty you overthrew your adversaries; you sent out your fury, it consumed them like stubble.

Exodus 15:8 At the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up, the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exodus 15:9 The enemy said, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil, my desire shall have its fill of them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.’

Exodus 15:10 You blew with your wind, the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Exodus 15:11 “Who is like you, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in splendor, doing wonders?

Exodus 15:12 You stretched out your right hand, the earth swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 “In your steadfast love you led the people whom you redeemed; you guided them by your strength to your holy abode.

Exodus 15:15 Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed; trembling seized the leaders of Moab; all the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.

Exodus 15:16 Terror and dread fell upon them; by the might of your arm, they became still as a stone until your people, O LORD, passed by, until the people whom you acquired passed by.

Exodus 15:17 You brought them in and planted them on the mountain of your own possession, the place, O LORD, that you made your abode, the sanctuary, O LORD, that your hands have established.

Exodus 15:18 The LORD will reign forever and ever.”

Exodus 15:19 When the horses of Pharaoh with his chariots and his chariot drivers went into the sea, the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them; but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 15:20 Then the prophet Miriam, Aaron’s sister, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing.

Exodus 15:21 And Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider he has thrown into the sea.”

Exodus 15:22 Then Moses ordered Israel to set out from the Red Sea, and they went into the wilderness of Shur. They went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

Exodus 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink the water of Marah because it was bitter. That is why it was called Marah.

Exodus 15:24 And the people complained against Moses, saying, “What shall we drink?”

Exodus 15:25 He cried out to the LORD; and the LORD showed him a piece of wood; he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made for them a statute and an ordinance and there he put them to the test.

Exodus 15:26 He said, “If you will listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in his sight, and give heed to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will not bring upon you any of the diseases that I brought upon the Egyptians; for I am the LORD who heals you.”

Exodus 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees; and they camped there by the water.

Exodus 16:1 The whole congregation of the Israelites set out from Elim; and Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

Exodus 16:3 The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

Exodus 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.

Exodus 16:5 On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather on other days.”

Exodus 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, Exodus 16:7 and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your complaining against the LORD. For what are we, that you complain against us?”

Exodus 16:8 And Moses said, “When the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and your fill of bread in the morning, because the LORD has heard the complaining that you utter against him— what are we? Your complaining is not against us but against the LORD.”

Exodus 16:9 Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, ‘Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.’“

Exodus 16:10 And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

Exodus 16:11 The LORD spoke to Moses and said,

Exodus 16:12 “I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’“

Exodus 16:13 In the evening quails came up and covered the camp; and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

Exodus 16:14 When the layer of dew lifted, there on the surface of the wilderness was a fine flaky substance, as fine as frost on the ground.

Exodus 16:15 When the Israelites saw it, they said to one another, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

Exodus 16:16 This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Gather as much of it as each of you needs, an omer to a person according to the number of persons, all providing for those in their own tents.'"

Exodus 16:17 The Israelites did so, some gathering more, some less.

Exodus 16:18 But when they measured it with an omer, those who gathered much had nothing over, and those who gathered little had no shortage; they gathered as much as each of them needed.

Exodus 16:19 And Moses said to them, "Let no one leave any of it over until morning."

Exodus 16:20 But they did not listen to Moses; some left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and became foul. And Moses was angry with them.

Exodus 16:21 Morning by morning they gathered it, as much as each needed; but when the sun grew hot, it melted.

Exodus 16:22 On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, two omers apiece. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses,

Exodus 16:23 he said to them, "This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Tomorrow is a day of solemn rest, a holy sabbath to the LORD; bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil, and all that is left over put aside to be kept until morning.'"

Exodus 16:24 So they put it aside until morning, as Moses commanded them; and it did not become foul, and there were no worms in it.

Exodus 16:25 Moses said, "Eat it today, for today is a sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it in the field.

Exodus 16:26 Six days you shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is a sabbath, there will be none."

Exodus 16:27 On the seventh day some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.

Exodus 16:28 The LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and instructions?

Exodus 16:29 See! The LORD has given you the sabbath, therefore on the sixth day he gives you food for two days; each of you stay where you are; do not leave your place on the seventh day."

Exodus 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Exodus 16:31 The house of Israel called it manna; it was like coriander seed, white, and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

Exodus 16:32 Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded: 'Let an omer of it be kept throughout your generations, in order that they may see the food with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 16:33 And Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar, and put an omer of manna in it, and place it before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations.”

Exodus 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the covenant, for safekeeping.

Exodus 16:35 The Israelites ate manna forty years, until they came to a habitable land; they ate manna, until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

Exodus 17:1 From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Exodus 17:2 The people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.” Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?”

Exodus 17:3 But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?”

Exodus 17:4 So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.”

Exodus 17:5 The LORD said to Moses, “Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Exodus 17:6 I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.” Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 17:7 He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Exodus 17:8 Then Amalek came and fought with Israel at Rephidim.

Exodus 17:9 Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some men for us and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.”

Exodus 17:10 So Joshua did as Moses told him, and fought with Amalek, while Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 Whenever Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed; and whenever he lowered his hand, Amalek prevailed.

Exodus 17:12 But Moses’ hands grew weary; so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side; so his hands were steady until the sun set.

Exodus 17:13 And Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the sword.

Exodus 17:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this as a reminder in a book and recite it in the hearing of Joshua: I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.”

Exodus 17:15 And Moses built an altar and called it, The LORD is my banner.

Exodus 17:16 He said, “A hand upon the banner of the LORD The LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18:1 Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses’ father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exodus 18:2 After Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah, his father-in-law Jethro took her back,

Exodus 18:3 along with her two sons. The name of the one was Gershom (for he said, “I have been an alien in a foreign land”),

Exodus 18:4 and the name of the other, Eliezer (for he said, “The God of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh”).

Exodus 18:5 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, came into the wilderness where Moses was encamped at the mountain of God, bringing Moses’ sons and wife to him.

Exodus 18:6 He sent word to Moses, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, with your wife and her two sons.”

Exodus 18:7 Moses went out to meet his father-in-law; he bowed down and kissed him; each asked after the other’s welfare, and they went into the tent.

Exodus 18:8 Then Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel’s sake, all the hardship that had beset them on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

Exodus 18:9 Jethro rejoiced for all the good that the LORD had done to Israel, in delivering them from the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:10 Jethro said, “Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you from the Egyptians and from Pharaoh.

Exodus 18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, because he delivered the people from the Egyptians, when they dealt arrogantly with them.”

Exodus 18:12 And Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices to God; and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses’ father-in-law in the presence of God.

Exodus 18:13 The next day Moses sat as judge for the people, while the people stood around him from morning until evening.

Exodus 18:14 When Moses’ father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, “What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone, while all the people stand around you from morning until evening?”

Exodus 18:15 Moses said to his father-in-law, “Because the people come to me to inquire of God.

Exodus 18:16 When they have a dispute, they come to me and I decide between one person and another, and I make known to them the statutes and instructions of God.”

Exodus 18:17 Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “What you are doing is not good.

Exodus 18:18 You will surely wear yourself out, both you and these people with you. For the task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone.

Exodus 18:19 Now listen to me. I will give you counsel, and God be with you! You should represent the people before God, and you should bring their cases before God;

Exodus 18:20 teach them the statutes and instructions and make known to them the way they are to go and the things they are to do.

Exodus 18:21 You should also look for able men among all the people, men who fear God, are trustworthy, and hate dishonest gain; set such men over them as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exodus 18:22 Let them sit as judges for the people at all times; let them bring every important case to you, but decide every minor case themselves. So it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you.

Exodus 18:23 If you do this, and God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people will go to their home in peace.”

Exodus 18:24 So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did all that he had said.

Exodus 18:25 Moses chose able men from all Israel and appointed them as heads over the people, as officers over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens.

Exodus 18:26 And they judged the people at all times; hard cases they brought to Moses, but any minor case they decided themselves.

Exodus 18:27 Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went off to his own country.

Exodus 19:1 On the third new moon after the Israelites had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that very day, they came into the wilderness of Sinai.

Exodus 19:2 They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain.

Exodus 19:3 Then Moses went up to God; the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites:

Exodus 19:4 You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself.

Exodus 19:5 Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine,

Exodus 19:6 but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.”

Exodus 19:7 So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the LORD had commanded him.

Exodus 19:8 The people all answered as one: “Everything that the LORD has spoken we will do.” Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD.

Exodus 19:9 Then the LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, in order that the people may hear when I speak with you and so trust you ever after.” When Moses had told the words of the people to the LORD,

Exodus 19:10 the LORD said to Moses: “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their clothes

Exodus 19:11 and prepare for the third day, because on the third day the LORD will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Exodus 19:12 You shall set limits for the people all around, saying, ‘Be careful not to go up the mountain or to touch the edge of it. Any who touch the mountain shall be put to death.

Exodus 19:13 No hand shall touch them, but they shall be stoned or shot with arrows; whether animal or human being, they shall not live.’ When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they may go up on the mountain.”

Exodus 19:14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people. He consecrated the people, and they washed their clothes.

Exodus 19:15 And he said to the people, “Prepare for the third day; do not go near a woman.”

Exodus 19:16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, as well as a thick cloud on the mountain, and a blast of a trumpet so loud that all the people who were in the camp trembled.

Exodus 19:17 Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God. They took their stand at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 Now Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, because the LORD had descended upon it in fire; the smoke went up like the smoke of a kiln, while the whole mountain shook violently.

Exodus 19:19 As the blast of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses would speak and God would answer him in thunder.

Exodus 19:20 When the LORD descended upon Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain, the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Exodus 19:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go down and warn the people not to break through to the LORD to look; otherwise many of them will perish.

Exodus 19:22 Even the priests who approach the LORD must consecrate themselves or the LORD will break out against them.”

Exodus 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, “The people are not permitted to come up to Mount Sinai; for you yourself warned us, saying, ‘Set limits around the mountain and keep it holy.’“

Exodus 19:24 The LORD said to him, “Go down, and come up bringing Aaron with you; but do not let either the priests or the people break through to come up to the LORD; otherwise he will break out against them.”

Exodus 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20:1 Then God spoke all these words:

Exodus 20:2 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery;

Exodus 20:3 you shall have no other gods before me.

Exodus 20:4 You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Exodus 20:5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me,

Exodus 20:6 but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Exodus 20:7 You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Exodus 20:8 Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy.

Exodus 20:9 Six days you shall labor and do all your work.

Exodus 20:10 But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work— you, your son or your daughter, your male or female slave, your livestock, or the alien resident in your towns.

Exodus 20:11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day and consecrated it.

Exodus 20:12 Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Exodus 20:13 You shall not murder.

Exodus 20:14 You shall not commit adultery.

Exodus 20:15 You shall not steal.

Exodus 20:17 You shall not covet your neighbor’s house; you shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Exodus 20:18 When all the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking, they were afraid and trembled and stood at a distance,

Exodus 20:19 and said to Moses, “You speak to us, and we will listen; but do not let God speak to us, or we will die.”

Exodus 20:20 Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid; for God has come only to test you and to put the fear of him upon you so that you do not sin.”

Exodus 20:21 Then the people stood at a distance, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

Exodus 20:22 The LORD said to Moses: Thus you shall say to the Israelites: “You have seen for yourselves that I spoke with you from heaven.

Exodus 20:23 You shall not make gods of silver alongside me, nor shall you make for yourselves gods of gold.

Exodus 20:24 You need make for me only an altar of earth and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your offerings of well-being, your sheep and your oxen; in every place where I cause my name to be remembered I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 20:25 But if you make for me an altar of stone, do not build it of hewn stones; for if you use a chisel upon it you profane it.

Exodus 20:26 You shall not go up by steps to my altar, so that your nakedness may not be exposed on it.”

Exodus 21:1 These are the ordinances that you shall set before them:

Exodus 21:2 When you buy a male Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years, but in the seventh he shall go out a free person, without debt.

Exodus 21:3 If he comes in single, he shall go out single; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him.

Exodus 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master’s and he shall go out alone.

Exodus 21:5 But if the slave declares, “I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out a free person,”

Exodus 21:6 then his master shall bring him before God. He shall be brought to the door or the doorpost; and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl; and he shall serve him for life.

Exodus 21:7 When a man sells his daughter as a slave, she shall not go out as the male slaves do.

Exodus 21:8 If she does not please her master, who designated her for himself, then he shall let her be redeemed; he shall have no right to sell her to a foreign people, since he has dealt unfairly with her.

Exodus 21:9 If he designates her for his son, he shall deal with her as with a daughter.

Exodus 21:10 If he takes another wife to himself, he shall not diminish the food, clothing, or marital rights of the first wife.

Exodus 21:11 And if he does not do these three things for her, she shall go out without debt, without payment of money.

Exodus 21:12 Whoever strikes a person mortally shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:13 If it was not premeditated, but came about by an act of God, then I will appoint for you a place to which the killer may flee.

Exodus 21:14 But if someone willfully attacks and kills another by treachery, you shall take the killer from my altar for execution.

Exodus 21:15 Whoever strikes father or mother shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:16 Whoever kidnaps a person, whether that person has been sold or is still held in possession, shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:17 Whoever curses father or mother shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:18 When individuals quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone or fist so that the injured party, though not dead, is confined to bed, Exodus 21:19 but recovers and walks around outside with the help of a staff, then the assailant shall be free of liability, except to pay for the loss of time, and to arrange for full recovery.

Exodus 21:20 When a slaveowner strikes a male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies immediately, the owner shall be punished.

Exodus 21:21 But if the slave survives a day or two, there is no punishment; for the slave is the owner's property.

Exodus 21:22 When people who are fighting injure a pregnant woman so that there is a miscarriage, and yet no further harm follows, the one responsible shall be fined what the woman's husband demands, paying as much as the judges determine.

Exodus 21:23 If any harm follows, then you shall give life for life,

Exodus 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exodus 21:26 When a slaveowner strikes the eye of a male or female slave, destroying it, the owner shall let the slave go, a free person, to compensate for the eye.

Exodus 21:27 If the owner knocks out a tooth of a male or female slave, the slave shall be let go, a free person, to compensate for the tooth.

Exodus 21:28 When an ox gores a man or a woman to death, the ox shall be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall not be liable.

Exodus 21:29 If the ox has been accustomed to gore in the past, and its owner has been warned but has not restrained it, and it kills a man or a woman, the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to death.

Exodus 21:30 If a ransom is imposed on the owner, then the owner shall pay whatever is imposed for the redemption of the victim's life.

Exodus 21:31 If it gores a boy or a girl, the owner shall be dealt with according to this same rule.

Exodus 21:32 If the ox gores a male or female slave, the owner shall pay to the slaveowner thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

Exodus 21:33 If someone leaves a pit open, or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

Exodus 21:34 the owner of the pit shall make restitution, giving money to its owner, but keeping the dead animal.

Exodus 21:35 If someone's ox hurts the ox of another, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the price of it; and the dead animal they shall also divide.

Exodus 21:36 But if it was known that the ox was accustomed to gore in the past, and its owner has not restrained it, the owner shall restore ox for ox, but keep the dead animal.

Exodus 22:1 When someone steals an ox or a sheep, and slaughters it or sells it, the thief shall pay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep. The thief shall make restitution, but if unable to do so, shall be sold for the theft.

Exodus 22:2 If a thief is found breaking in, and is beaten to death, no bloodguilt is incurred;

Exodus 22:3 but if it happens after sunrise, bloodguilt is incurred.

Exodus 22:4 When the animal, whether ox or donkey or sheep, is found alive in the thief's possession, the thief shall pay double.

Exodus 22:5 When someone causes a field or vineyard to be grazed over, or lets livestock loose to graze in someone else's field, restitution shall be made from the best in the owner's field or vineyard.

Exodus 22:6 When fire breaks out and catches in thorns so that the stacked grain or the standing grain or the field is consumed, the one who started the fire shall make full restitution.

Exodus 22:7 When someone delivers to a neighbor money or goods for safekeeping, and they are stolen from the neighbor's house, then the thief, if caught, shall pay double.

Exodus 22:8 If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house shall be brought before God, to determine whether or not the owner had laid hands on the neighbor's goods.

Exodus 22:9 In any case of disputed ownership involving ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or any other loss, of which one party says, "This is mine," the case of both parties shall come before God; the one whom God condemns shall pay double to the other.

Exodus 22:10 When someone delivers to another a donkey, ox, sheep, or any other animal for safekeeping, and it dies or is injured or is carried off, without anyone seeing it,

Exodus 22:11 an oath before the LORD shall decide between the two of them that the one has not laid hands on the property of the other; the owner shall accept the oath, and no restitution shall be made.

Exodus 22:12 But if it was stolen, restitution shall be made to its owner.

Exodus 22:13 If it was mangled by beasts, let it be brought as evidence; restitution shall not be made for the mangled remains.

Exodus 22:14 When someone borrows an animal from another and it is injured or dies, the owner not being present, full restitution shall be made.

Exodus 22:15 If the owner was present, there shall be no restitution; if it was hired, only the hiring fee is due.

Exodus 22:16 When a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged to be married, and lies with her, he shall give the bride-price for her and make her his wife.

Exodus 22:17 But if her father refuses to give her to him, he shall pay an amount equal to the bride-price for virgins.

Exodus 22:18 You shall not permit a female sorcerer to live.

Exodus 22:19 Whoever lies with an animal shall be put to death.

Exodus 22:20 Whoever sacrifices to any god, other than the LORD alone, shall be devoted to destruction.

Exodus 22:21 You shall not wrong or oppress a resident alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 22:22 You shall not abuse any widow or orphan.

Exodus 22:23 If you do abuse them, when they cry out to me, I will surely heed their cry;

Exodus 22:24 my wrath will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives shall become widows and your children orphans.

Exodus 22:25 If you lend money to my people, to the poor among you, you shall not deal with them as a creditor; you shall not exact interest from them.

Exodus 22:26 If you take your neighbor's cloak in pawn, you shall restore it before the sun goes down;

Exodus 22:27 for it may be your neighbor's only clothing to use as cover; in what else shall that person sleep? And if your neighbor cries out to me, I will listen, for I am compassionate.

Exodus 22:28 You shall not revile God, or curse a leader of your people.

Exodus 22:29 You shall not delay to make offerings from the fullness of your harvest and from the outflow of your presses. The firstborn of your sons you shall give to me.

Exodus 22:30 You shall do the same with your oxen and with your sheep: seven days it shall remain with its mother; on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

Exodus 22:31 You shall be people consecrated to me; therefore you shall not eat any meat that is mangled by beasts in the field; you shall throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23:1 You shall not spread a false report. You shall not join hands with the wicked to act as a malicious witness.

Exodus 23:2 You shall not follow a majority in wrongdoing; when you bear witness in a lawsuit, you shall not side with the majority so as to pervert justice;

Exodus 23:3 nor shall you be partial to the poor in a lawsuit.

Exodus 23:4 When you come upon your enemy’s ox or donkey going astray, you shall bring it back.

Exodus 23:5 When you see the donkey of one who hates you lying under its burden and you would hold back from setting it free, you must help to set it free.

Exodus 23:6 You shall not pervert the justice due to your poor in their lawsuits.

Exodus 23:7 Keep far from a false charge, and do not kill the innocent and those in the right, for I will not acquit the guilty.

Exodus 23:8 You shall take no bribe, for a bribe blinds the officials, and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.

Exodus 23:9 You shall not oppress a resident alien; you know the heart of an alien, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 For six years you shall sow your land and gather in its yield;

Exodus 23:11 but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the wild animals may eat. You shall do the same with your vineyard, and with your olive orchard.

Exodus 23:12 Six days you shall do your work, but on the seventh day you shall rest, so that your ox and your donkey may have relief, and your homeborn slave and the resident alien may be refreshed.

Exodus 23:13 Be attentive to all that I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods; do not let them be heard on your lips.

Exodus 23:14 Three times in the year you shall hold a festival for me.

Exodus 23:15 You shall observe the festival of unleavened bread; as I commanded you, you shall eat unleavened bread for seven days at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in it you came out of Egypt. No one shall appear before me empty-handed.

Exodus 23:16 You shall observe the festival of harvest, of the first fruits of your labor, of what you sow in the field. You shall observe the festival of ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in from the field the fruit of your labor.

Exodus 23:17 Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

Exodus 23:18 You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with anything leavened, or let the fat of my festival remain until the morning.

Exodus 23:19 The choicest of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother’s milk.

Exodus 23:20 I am going to send an angel in front of you, to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 Be attentive to him and listen to his voice; do not rebel against him, for he will not pardon your transgression; for my name is in him.

Exodus 23:22 But if you listen attentively to his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foes.

Exodus 23:23 When my angel goes in front of you, and brings you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I blot them out,

Exodus 23:24 you shall not bow down to their gods, or worship them, or follow their practices, but you shall utterly demolish them and break their pillars in pieces.

Exodus 23:25 You shall worship the LORD your God, and I will bless your bread and your water; and I will take sickness away from among you.

Exodus 23:26 No one shall miscarry or be barren in your land; I will fulfill the number of your days.

Exodus 23:27 I will send my terror in front of you, and will throw into confusion all the people against whom you shall come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

Exodus 23:28 And I will send the pestilence in front of you, which shall drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites, and the Hittites from before you.

Exodus 23:29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year, or the land would become desolate and the wild animals would multiply against you.

Exodus 23:30 Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and possess the land.

Exodus 23:31 I will set your borders from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates; for I will hand over to you the inhabitants of the land, and you shall drive them out before you.

Exodus 23:33 They shall not live in your land, or they will make you sin against me; for if you worship their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.

Exodus 24:1 Then he said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and worship at a distance.

Exodus 24:2 Moses alone shall come near the LORD; but the others shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him.”

Exodus 24:3 Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, “All the words that the LORD has spoken we will do.”

Exodus 24:4 And Moses wrote down all the words of the LORD. He rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exodus 24:5 He sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed oxen as offerings of well-being to the LORD.

Exodus 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he dashed against the altar.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient.”

Exodus 24:8 Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, “See the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

Exodus 24:9 Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up,

Exodus 24:10 and they saw the God of Israel. Under his feet there was something like a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness.

Exodus 24:11 God did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; also they beheld God, and they ate and drank.

Exodus 24:12 The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.”

Exodus 24:13 So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 To the elders he had said, “Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them.”

Exodus 24:15 Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain.

Exodus 24:16 The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel.

Exodus 24:18 Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25:1 The LORD said to Moses:

Exodus 25:2 Tell the Israelites to take for me an offering; from all whose hearts prompt them to give you shall receive the offering for me.

Exodus 25:3 This is the offering that you shall receive from them: gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 25:4 blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine linen, goats' hair,

Exodus 25:5 tanned rams' skins, fine leather, acacia wood,

Exodus 25:6 oil for the lamps, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,

Exodus 25:7 onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Exodus 25:8 And have them make me a sanctuary, so that I may dwell among them.

Exodus 25:9 In accordance with all that I show you concerning the pattern of the tabernacle and of all its furniture, so you shall make it.

Exodus 25:10 They shall make an ark of acacia wood; it shall be two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 25:11 You shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and outside you shall overlay it, and you shall make a molding of gold upon it all around.

Exodus 25:12 You shall cast four rings of gold for it and put them on its four feet, two rings on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side.

Exodus 25:13 You shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 25:14 And you shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, by which to carry the ark.

Exodus 25:15 The poles shall remain in the rings of the ark; they shall not be taken from it.

Exodus 25:16 You shall put into the ark the covenant that I shall give you.

Exodus 25:17 Then you shall make a mercy seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its width.

Exodus 25:18 You shall make two cherubim of gold; you shall make them of hammered work, at the two ends of the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:19 Make one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other; of one piece with the mercy seat you shall make the cherubim at its two ends.

Exodus 25:20 The cherubim shall spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings. They shall face one to another; the faces of the cherubim shall be turned toward the mercy seat.

Exodus 25:21 You shall put the mercy seat on the top of the ark; and in the ark you shall put the covenant that I shall give you.

Exodus 25:22 There I will meet with you, and from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim that are on the ark of the covenant, I will deliver to you all my commands for the Israelites.

Exodus 25:23 You shall make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 25:24 You shall overlay it with pure gold, and make a molding of gold around it.

Exodus 25:25 You shall make around it a rim a handbreadth wide, and a molding of gold around the rim.

Exodus 25:26 You shall make for it four rings of gold, and fasten the rings to the four corners at its four legs.

Exodus 25:27 The rings that hold the poles used for carrying the table shall be close to the rim.

Exodus 25:28 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, and the table shall be carried with these.

Exodus 25:29 You shall make its plates and dishes for incense, and its flagons and bowls with which to pour drink offerings; you shall make them of pure gold.

Exodus 25:30 And you shall set the bread of the Presence on the table before me always.

Exodus 25:31 You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand shall be made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes, and its petals shall be of one piece with it;

Exodus 25:32 and there shall be six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;

Exodus 25:33 three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on the other branch— so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

Exodus 25:34 On the lampstand itself there shall be four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyxes and petals.

Exodus 25:35 There shall be a calyx of one piece with it under the first pair of branches, a calyx of one piece with it under the next pair of branches, and a calyx of one piece with it under the last pair of branches— so for the six branches that go out of the lampstand.

Exodus 25:36 Their calyxes and their branches shall be of one piece with it, the whole of it one hammered piece of pure gold.

Exodus 25:37 You shall make the seven lamps for it; and the lamps shall be set up so as to give light on the space in front of it.

Exodus 25:38 Its snuffers and trays shall be of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 It, and all these utensils, shall be made from a talent of pure gold.

Exodus 25:40 And see that you make them according to the pattern for them, which is being shown you on the mountain.

Exodus 26:1 Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen, and blue, purple, and crimson yarns; you shall make them with cherubim skillfully worked into them.

Exodus 26:2 The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains shall be of the same size.

Exodus 26:3 Five curtains shall be joined to one another; and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another.

Exodus 26:4 You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set; and likewise you shall make loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set.

Exodus 26:5 You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set; the loops shall be opposite one another.

Exodus 26:6 You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and join the curtains to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle may be one whole.

Exodus 26:7 You shall also make curtains of goats' hair for a tent over the tabernacle; you shall make eleven curtains.

Exodus 26:8 The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains shall be of the same size.

Exodus 26:9 You shall join five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and the sixth curtain you shall double over at the front of the tent.

Exodus 26:10 You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set.

Exodus 26:11 You shall make fifty clasps of bronze, and put the clasps into the loops, and join the tent together, so that it may be one whole.

Exodus 26:12 The part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:13 The cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of what remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side and that side, to cover it.

Exodus 26:14 You shall make for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

Exodus 26:15 You shall make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the width of each frame.

Exodus 26:17 There shall be two pegs in each frame to fit the frames together; you shall make these for all the frames of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:18 You shall make the frames for the tabernacle: twenty frames for the south side;

Exodus 26:19 and you shall make forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under the first frame for its two pegs, and two bases under the next frame for its two pegs;

Exodus 26:20 and for the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side twenty frames,

Exodus 26:21 and their forty bases of silver, two bases under the first frame, and two bases under the next frame;

Exodus 26:22 and for the rear of the tabernacle westward you shall make six frames.

Exodus 26:23 You shall make two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear;

Exodus 26:24 they shall be separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring; it shall be the same with both of them; they shall form the two corners.

Exodus 26:25 And so there shall be eight frames, with their bases of silver, sixteen bases; two bases under the first frame, and two bases under the next frame.

Exodus 26:26 You shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 26:27 and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the side of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

Exodus 26:28 The middle bar, halfway up the frames, shall pass through from end to end.

Exodus 26:29 You shall overlay the frames with gold, and shall make their rings of gold to hold the bars; and you shall overlay the bars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 Then you shall erect the tabernacle according to the plan for it that you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 You shall make a curtain of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen; it shall be made with cherubim skillfully worked into it.

Exodus 26:32 You shall hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, which have hooks of gold and rest on four bases of silver.

Exodus 26:33 You shall hang the curtain under the clasps, and bring the ark of the covenant in there, within the curtain; and the curtain shall separate for you the holy place from the most holy.

Exodus 26:34 You shall put the mercy seat on the ark of the covenant in the most holy place.

Exodus 26:35 You shall set the table outside the curtain, and the lampstand on the south side of the tabernacle opposite the table; and you shall put the table on the north side.

Exodus 26:36 You shall make a screen for the entrance of the tent, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework.

Exodus 26:37 You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold, and you shall cast five bases of bronze for them.

Exodus 27:1 You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide; the altar shall be square, and it shall be three cubits high.

Exodus 27:2 You shall make horns for it on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall overlay it with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 You shall make pots for it to receive its ashes, and shovels and basins and forks and firepans; you shall make all its utensils of bronze.

Exodus 27:4 You shall also make for it a grating, a network of bronze; and on the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners.

Exodus 27:5 You shall set it under the ledge of the altar so that the net shall extend halfway down the altar.

Exodus 27:6 You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze;

Exodus 27:7 the poles shall be put through the rings, so that the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when it is carried.

Exodus 27:8 You shall make it hollow, with boards. They shall be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 27:9 You shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side the court shall have hangings of fine twisted linen one hundred cubits long for that side;

Exodus 27:10 its twenty pillars and their twenty bases shall be of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.

Exodus 27:11 Likewise for its length on the north side there shall be hangings one hundred cubits long, their pillars twenty and their bases twenty, of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.

Exodus 27:12 For the width of the court on the west side there shall be fifty cubits of hangings, with ten pillars and ten bases.

Exodus 27:13 The width of the court on the front to the east shall be fifty cubits.

Exodus 27:14 There shall be fifteen cubits of hangings on the one side, with three pillars and three bases.

Exodus 27:15 There shall be fifteen cubits of hangings on the other side, with three pillars and three bases.

Exodus 27:16 For the gate of the court there shall be a screen twenty cubits long, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework; it shall have four pillars and with them four bases.

Exodus 27:17 All the pillars around the court shall be banded with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their bases of bronze.

Exodus 27:18 The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, the width fifty, and the height five cubits, with hangings of fine twisted linen and bases of bronze.

Exodus 27:19 All the utensils of the tabernacle for every use, and all its pegs and all the pegs of the court, shall be of bronze.

Exodus 27:20 You shall further command the Israelites to bring you pure oil of beaten olives for the light, so that a lamp may be set up to burn regularly.

Exodus 27:21 In the tent of meeting, outside the curtain that is before the covenant, Aaron and his sons shall tend it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a perpetual ordinance to be observed throughout their generations by the Israelites.

Exodus 28:1 Then bring near to you your brother Aaron, and his sons with him, from among the Israelites, to serve me as priests— Aaron and Aaron’s sons, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exodus 28:2 You shall make sacred vestments for the glorious adornment of your brother Aaron.

Exodus 28:3 And you shall speak to all who have ability, whom I have endowed with skill, that they make Aaron’s vestments to consecrate him for my priesthood.

Exodus 28:4 These are the vestments that they shall make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a checkered tunic, a turban, and a sash. When they make these sacred vestments for your brother Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests,

Exodus 28:5 they shall use gold, blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine linen.

Exodus 28:6 They shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen, skillfully worked.

Exodus 28:7 It shall have two shoulder-pieces attached to its two edges, so that it may be joined together.

Exodus 28:8 The decorated band on it shall be of the same workmanship and materials, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen.

Exodus 28:9 You shall take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel,

Exodus 28:10 six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order of their birth.

Exodus 28:11 As a gem-cutter engraves signets, so you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel; you shall mount them in settings of gold filigree.

Exodus 28:12 You shall set the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, as stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel; and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders for remembrance.

Exodus 28:13 You shall make settings of gold filigree,

Exodus 28:14 and two chains of pure gold, twisted like cords; and you shall attach the corded chains to the settings.

Exodus 28:15 You shall make a breastpiece of judgment, in skilled work; you shall make it in the style of the ephod; of gold, of blue and purple and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen you shall make it.

Exodus 28:16 It shall be square and doubled, a span in length and a span in width.

Exodus 28:17 You shall set in it four rows of stones. A row of carnelian, chrysolite, and emerald shall be the first row;

Exodus 28:18 and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and a moonstone;

Exodus 28:19 and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exodus 28:20 and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they shall be set in gold filigree.

Exodus 28:21 There shall be twelve stones with names corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they shall be like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes.

Exodus 28:22 You shall make for the breastpiece chains of pure gold, twisted like cords;

Exodus 28:23 and you shall make for the breastpiece two rings of gold, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece.

Exodus 28:24 You shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece;

Exodus 28:25 the two ends of the two cords you shall attach to the two settings, and so attach it in front to the shoulder-pieces of the ephod.

Exodus 28:26 You shall make two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.

Exodus 28:27 You shall make two rings of gold, and attach them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the decorated band of the ephod.

Exodus 28:28 The breastpiece shall be bound by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it may lie on the decorated band of the ephod, and so that the breastpiece shall not come loose from the ephod.

Exodus 28:29 So Aaron shall bear the names of the sons of Israel in the breastpiece of judgment on his heart when he goes into the holy place, for a continual remembrance before the LORD.

Exodus 28:30 In the breastpiece of judgment you shall put the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be on Aaron’s heart when he goes in before the LORD; thus Aaron shall bear the judgment of the Israelites on his heart before the LORD continually.

Exodus 28:31 You shall make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

Exodus 28:32 It shall have an opening for the head in the middle of it, with a woven binding around the opening, like the opening in a coat of mail, so that it may not be torn.

Exodus 28:33 On its lower hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, all around the lower hem, with bells of gold between them all around—

Exodus 28:34 a golden bell and a pomegranate alternating all around the lower hem of the robe.

Exodus 28:35 Aaron shall wear it when he ministers, and its sound shall be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, so that he may not die.

Exodus 28:36 You shall make a rosette of pure gold, and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet, “Holy to the LORD.”

Exodus 28:37 You shall fasten it on the turban with a blue cord; it shall be on the front of the turban.

Exodus 28:38 It shall be on Aaron’s forehead, and Aaron shall take on himself any guilt incurred in the holy offering that the Israelites consecrate as their sacred donations; it shall always be on his forehead, in order that they may find favor before the LORD.

Exodus 28:39 You shall make the checkered tunic of fine linen, and you shall make a turban of fine linen, and you shall make a sash embroidered with needlework.

Exodus 28:40 For Aaron’s sons you shall make tunics and sashes and headdresses; you shall make them for their glorious adornment.

Exodus 28:41 You shall put them on your brother Aaron, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them and ordain them and consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:42 You shall make for them linen undergarments to cover their naked flesh; they shall reach from the hips to the thighs;

Exodus 28:43 Aaron and his sons shall wear them when they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister in the holy place; or they will bring guilt on themselves and die. This shall be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants after him.

Exodus 29:1 Now this is what you shall do to them to consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish,

Exodus 29:2 and unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil. You shall make them of choice wheat flour.

Exodus 29:3 You shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, and bring the bull and the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them with water.

Exodus 29:5 Then you shall take the vestments, and put on Aaron the tunic and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastpiece, and gird him with the decorated band of the ephod;

Exodus 29:6 and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy diadem on the turban.

Exodus 29:7 You shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head and anoint him.

Exodus 29:8 Then you shall bring his sons, and put tunics on them, Exodus 29:9 and you shall gird them with sashes and tie headdresses on them; and the priesthood shall be theirs by a perpetual ordinance. You shall then ordain Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:10 You shall bring the bull in front of the tent of meeting. Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull,

Exodus 29:11 and you shall slaughter the bull before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Exodus 29:12 and shall take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and all the rest of the blood you shall pour out at the base of the altar.

Exodus 29:13 You shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and turn them into smoke on the altar.

Exodus 29:14 But the flesh of the bull, and its skin, and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

Exodus 29:15 Then you shall take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,

Exodus 29:16 and you shall slaughter the ram, and shall take its blood and dash it against all sides of the altar.

Exodus 29:17 Then you shall cut the ram into its parts, and wash its entrails and its legs, and put them with its parts and its head,

Exodus 29:18 and turn the whole ram into smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering to the LORD; it is a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:19 You shall take the other ram; and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,

Exodus 29:20 and you shall slaughter the ram, and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear and on the lobes of the right ears of his sons, and on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet, and dash the rest of the blood against all sides of the altar.

Exodus 29:21 Then you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his vestments and on his sons and his sons’ vestments with him; then he and his vestments shall be holy, as well as his sons and his sons’ vestments.

Exodus 29:22 You shall also take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the appendage of the liver, the two kidneys with the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of ordination),

Exodus 29:23 and one loaf of bread, one cake of bread made with oil, and one wafer, out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD;

Exodus 29:24 and you shall place all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons, and raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD.

Exodus 29:25 Then you shall take them from their hands, and turn them into smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering of pleasing odor before the LORD; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:26 You shall take the breast of the ram of Aaron's ordination and raise it as an elevation offering before the LORD; and it shall be your portion.

Exodus 29:27 You shall consecrate the breast that was raised as an elevation offering and the thigh that was raised as an elevation offering from the ram of ordination, from that which belonged to Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:28 These things shall be a perpetual ordinance for Aaron and his sons from the Israelites, for this is an offering; and it shall be an offering by the Israelites from their sacrifice of offerings of well-being, their offering to the LORD.

Exodus 29:29 The sacred vestments of Aaron shall be passed on to his sons after him; they shall be anointed in them and ordained in them.

Exodus 29:30 The son who is priest in his place shall wear them seven days, when he comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.

Exodus 29:31 You shall take the ram of ordination, and boil its flesh in a holy place;

Exodus 29:32 and Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the bread that is in the basket, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 29:33 They themselves shall eat the food by which atonement is made, to ordain and consecrate them, but no one else shall eat of them, because they are holy.

Exodus 29:34 If any of the flesh for the ordination, or of the bread, remains until the morning, then you shall burn the remainder with fire; it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

Exodus 29:35 Thus you shall do to Aaron and to his sons, just as I have commanded you; through seven days you shall ordain them.

Exodus 29:36 Also every day you shall offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement. Also you shall offer a sin offering for the altar, when you make atonement for it, and shall anoint it, to consecrate it.

Exodus 29:37 Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and consecrate it, and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall become holy.

Exodus 29:38 Now this is what you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old regularly each day.

Exodus 29:39 One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer in the evening;

Exodus 29:40 and with the first lamb one-tenth of a measure of choice flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine for a drink offering.

Exodus 29:41 And the other lamb you shall offer in the evening, and shall offer with it a grain offering and its drink offering, as in the morning, for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Exodus 29:42 It shall be a regular burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there.

Exodus 29:43 I will meet with the Israelites there, and it shall be sanctified by my glory;

Exodus 29:44 I will consecrate the tent of meeting and the altar; Aaron also and his sons I will consecrate, to serve me as priests.

Exodus 29:45 I will dwell among the Israelites, and I will be their God.

Exodus 29:46 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of the land of Egypt that I might dwell among them; I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30:1 You shall make an altar on which to offer incense; you shall make it of acacia wood.

Exodus 30:2 It shall be one cubit long, and one cubit wide; it shall be square, and shall be two cubits high; its horns shall be of one piece with it.

Exodus 30:3 You shall overlay it with pure gold, its top, and its sides all around and its horns; and you shall make for it a molding of gold all around.

Exodus 30:4 And you shall make two golden rings for it; under its molding on two opposite sides of it you shall make them, and they shall hold the poles with which to carry it.

Exodus 30:5 You shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 You shall place it in front of the curtain that is above the ark of the covenant, in front of the mercy seat that is over the covenant, where I will meet with you.

Exodus 30:7 Aaron shall offer fragrant incense on it; every morning when he dresses the lamps he shall offer it,

Exodus 30:8 and when Aaron sets up the lamps in the evening, he shall offer it, a regular incense offering before the LORD throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:9 You shall not offer unholy incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering; and you shall not pour a drink offering on it.

Exodus 30:10 Once a year Aaron shall perform the rite of atonement on its horns. Throughout your generations he shall perform the atonement for it once a year with the blood of the atoning sin offering. It is most holy to the LORD.

Exodus 30:11 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Exodus 30:12 When you take a census of the Israelites to register them, at registration all of them shall give a ransom for their lives to the LORD, so that no plague may come upon them for being registered.

Exodus 30:13 This is what each one who is registered shall give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary (the shekel is twenty gerahs), half a shekel as an offering to the LORD.

Exodus 30:14 Each one who is registered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the LORD’s offering.

Exodus 30:15 The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when you bring this offering to the LORD to make atonement for your lives.

Exodus 30:16 You shall take the atonement money from the Israelites and shall designate it for the service of the tent of meeting; before the LORD it will be a reminder to the Israelites of the ransom given for your lives.

Exodus 30:17 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Exodus 30:18 You shall make a bronze basin with a bronze stand for washing. You shall put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it;

Exodus 30:20 When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister, to make an offering by fire to the LORD, they shall wash with water, so that they may not die.

Exodus 30:21 They shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they may not die: it shall be a perpetual ordinance for them, for him and for his descendants throughout their generations.

Exodus 30:22 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Exodus 30:23 Take the finest spices: of liquid myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet-smelling cinnamon half as much, that is, two hundred fifty, and two hundred fifty of aromatic cane,

Exodus 30:24 and five hundred of cassia— measured by the sanctuary shekel— and a hin of olive oil;

Exodus 30:25 and you shall make of these a sacred anointing oil blended as by the perfumer; it shall be a holy anointing oil.

Exodus 30:26 With it you shall anoint the tent of meeting and the ark of the covenant,

Exodus 30:27 and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,

Exodus 30:28 and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand;

Exodus 30:29 you shall consecrate them, so that they may be most holy; whatever touches them will become holy.

Exodus 30:30 You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, in order that they may serve me as priests.

Exodus 30:31 You shall say to the Israelites, “This shall be my holy anointing oil throughout your generations.

Exodus 30:32 It shall not be used in any ordinary anointing of the body, and you shall make no other like it in composition; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you.

Exodus 30:33 Whoever compounds any like it or whoever puts any of it on an unqualified person shall be cut off from the people.”

Exodus 30:34 The LORD said to Moses: Take sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum, sweet spices with pure frankincense (an equal part of each),

Exodus 30:35 and make an incense blended as by the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy;

Exodus 30:36 and you shall beat some of it into powder, and put part of it before the covenant in the tent of meeting where I shall meet with you; it shall be for you most holy.

Exodus 30:37 When you make incense according to this composition, you shall not make it for yourselves; it shall be regarded by you as holy to the LORD.

Exodus 30:38 Whoever makes any like it to use as perfume shall be cut off from the people.

Exodus 31:1 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Exodus 31:2 See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

Exodus 31:3 and I have filled him with divine spirit, with ability, intelligence, and knowledge in every kind of craft,

Exodus 31:4 to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 31:5 in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, in every kind of craft.

Exodus 31:6 Moreover, I have appointed with him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and I have given skill to all the skillful, so that they may make all that I have commanded you:

Exodus 31:7 the tent of meeting, and the ark of the covenant, and the mercy seat that is on it, and all the furnishings of the tent,

Exodus 31:8 the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,

Exodus 31:9 and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its stand,

Exodus 31:10 and the finely worked vestments, the holy vestments for the priest Aaron and the vestments of his sons, for their service as priests,

Exodus 31:11 and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the holy place. They shall do just as I have commanded you.

Exodus 31:12 The LORD said to Moses:

Exodus 31:13 You yourself are to speak to the Israelites: “You shall keep my sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, given in order that you may know that I, the LORD, sanctify you.

Exodus 31:14 You shall keep the sabbath, because it is holy for you; everyone who profanes it shall be put to death; whoever does any work on it shall be cut off from among the people.

Exodus 31:15 Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD; whoever does any work on the sabbath day shall be put to death.

Exodus 31:16 Therefore the Israelites shall keep the sabbath, observing the sabbath throughout their generations, as a perpetual covenant.

Exodus 31:17 It is a sign forever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.”

Exodus 31:18 When God finished speaking with Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the covenant, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

Exodus 32:1 When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, “Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.”

Exodus 32:2 Aaron said to them, “Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.”

Exodus 32:3 So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron.

Exodus 32:4 He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!”

Exodus 32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, “Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD.”

Exodus 32:6 They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

Exodus 32:7 The LORD said to Moses, “Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely;

Exodus 32:8 they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!’“

Exodus 32:9 The LORD said to Moses, “I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are.

Exodus 32:10 Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.”

Exodus 32:11 But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, “O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?

Exodus 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say, ‘It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth’? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people.

Exodus 32:13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, ‘I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.’“

Exodus 32:14 And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Exodus 32:15 Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain, carrying the two tablets of the covenant in his hands, tablets that were written on both sides, written on the front and on the back.

Exodus 32:16 The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved upon the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, “There is a noise of war in the camp.”

Exodus 32:18 But he said, “It is not the sound made by victors, or the sound made by losers; it is the sound of revelers that I hear.”

Exodus 32:19 As soon as he came near the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses’ anger burned hot, and he threw the tablets from his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 He took the calf that they had made, burned it with fire, ground it to powder, scattered it on the water, and made the Israelites drink it.

Exodus 32:21 Moses said to Aaron, “What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?”

Exodus 32:22 And Aaron said, “Do not let the anger of my lord burn hot; you know the people, that they are bent on evil.

Exodus 32:23 They said to me, ‘Make us gods, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.’

Exodus 32:24 So I said to them, ‘Whoever has gold, take it off’; so they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!”

Exodus 32:25 When Moses saw that the people were running wild (for Aaron had let them run wild, to the derision of their enemies),

Exodus 32:26 then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, “Who is on the LORD’s side? Come to me!” And all the sons of Levi gathered around him.

Exodus 32:27 He said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Put your sword on your side, each of you! Go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and each of you kill your brother, your friend, and your neighbor.’“

Exodus 32:28 The sons of Levi did as Moses commanded, and about three thousand of the people fell on that day.

Exodus 32:29 Moses said, “Today you have ordained yourselves for the service of the LORD, each one at the cost of a son or a brother, and so have brought a blessing on yourselves this day.”

Exodus 32:30 On the next day Moses said to the people, “You have sinned a great sin. But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

Exodus 32:31 So Moses returned to the LORD and said, “Alas, this people has sinned a great sin; they have made for themselves gods of gold.

Exodus 32:32 But now, if you will only forgive their sin— but if not, blot me out of the book that you have written.”

Exodus 32:33 But the LORD said to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out of my book.

Exodus 32:34 But now go, lead the people to the place about which I have spoken to you; see, my angel shall go in front of you. Nevertheless, when the day comes for punishment, I will punish them for their sin."

Exodus 32:35 Then the LORD sent a plague on the people, because they made the calf— the one that Aaron made.

Exodus 33:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Go, leave this place, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, and go to the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'To your descendants I will give it.'

Exodus 33:2 I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exodus 33:3 Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey; but I will not go up among you, or I would consume you on the way, for you are a stiff-necked people."

Exodus 33:4 When the people heard these harsh words, they mourned, and no one put on ornaments.

Exodus 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the Israelites, 'You are a stiff-necked people; if for a single moment I should go up among you, I would consume you. So now take off your ornaments, and I will decide what to do to you.'"

Exodus 33:7 Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp.

Exodus 33:8 Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand, each of them, at the entrance of their tents and watch Moses until he had gone into the tent.

Exodus 33:9 When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent, and the LORD would speak with Moses.

Exodus 33:10 When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise and bow down, all of them, at the entrance of their tent.

Exodus 33:11 Thus the LORD used to speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend. Then he would return to the camp; but his young assistant, Joshua son of Nun, would not leave the tent.

Exodus 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, "See, you have said to me, 'Bring up this people'; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.'

Exodus 33:13 Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people."

Exodus 33:14 He said, "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

Exodus 33:15 And he said to him, "If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here.

Exodus 33:16 For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth."

Exodus 33:17 The LORD said to Moses, "I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."

Exodus 33:18 Moses said, "Show me your glory, I pray."

Exodus 33:19 And he said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, 'The LORD'; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

Exodus 33:20 But," he said, "you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live."

Exodus 33:21 And the LORD continued, "See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock;

Exodus 33:22 and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by;

Exodus 33:23 then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

Exodus 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, "Cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke.

Exodus 34:2 Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai and present yourself there to me, on the top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 No one shall come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; and do not let flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain."

Exodus 34:4 So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the former ones; and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

Exodus 34:5 The LORD descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, "The LORD."

Exodus 34:6 The LORD passed before him, and proclaimed, “The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness,

Exodus 34:7 keeping steadfast love for the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, yet by no means clearing the guilty, but visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children and the children’s children, to the third and the fourth generation.”

Exodus 34:8 And Moses quickly bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped.

Exodus 34:9 He said, “If now I have found favor in your sight, O Lord, I pray, let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance.”

Exodus 34:10 He said: I hereby make a covenant. Before all your people I will perform marvels, such as have not been performed in all the earth or in any nation; and all the people among whom you live shall see the work of the LORD; for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.

Exodus 34:11 Observe what I command you today. See, I will drive out before you the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Exodus 34:12 Take care not to make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which you are going, or it will become a snare among you.

Exodus 34:13 You shall tear down their altars, break their pillars, and cut down their sacred poles

Exodus 34:14 (for you shall worship no other god, because the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God).

Exodus 34:15 You shall not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to their gods, someone among them will invite you, and you will eat of the sacrifice.

Exodus 34:16 And you will take wives from among their daughters for your sons, and their daughters who prostitute themselves to their gods will make your sons also prostitute themselves to their gods.

Exodus 34:17 You shall not make cast idols.

Exodus 34:18 You shall keep the festival of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib; for in the month of Abib you came out from Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 All that first opens the womb is mine, all your male livestock, the firstborn of cow and sheep.

Exodus 34:20 The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb, or if you will not redeem it you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. No one shall appear before me empty-handed.

Exodus 34:21 Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even in plowing time and in harvest time you shall rest.

Exodus 34:22 You shall observe the festival of weeks, the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the festival of ingathering at the turn of the year.

Exodus 34:23 Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the LORD God, the God of Israel.

Exodus 34:24 For I will cast out nations before you, and enlarge your borders; no one shall covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

Exodus 34:25 You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven, and the sacrifice of the festival of the passover shall not be left until the morning.

Exodus 34:26 The best of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring to the house of the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother’s milk.

Exodus 34:27 The LORD said to Moses: Write these words; in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.

Exodus 34:28 He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread nor drank water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

Exodus 34:29 Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God.

Exodus 34:30 When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him.

Exodus 34:31 But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them.

Exodus 34:32 Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face;

Exodus 34:34 but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded,

Exodus 34:35 the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Exodus 35:1 Moses assembled all the congregation of the Israelites and said to them: These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do:

Exodus 35:2 Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD; whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

Exodus 35:3 You shall kindle no fire in all your dwellings on the sabbath day.

Exodus 35:4 Moses said to all the congregation of the Israelites: This is the thing that the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:5 Take from among you an offering to the LORD; let whoever is of a generous heart bring the LORD’s offering: gold, silver, and bronze;

Exodus 35:6 blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine linen; goats’ hair,

Exodus 35:7 tanned rams’ skins, and fine leather; acacia wood,

Exodus 35:8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,

Exodus 35:9 and onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and the breastpiece.

Exodus 35:10 All who are skillful among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: the tabernacle,

Exodus 35:11 its tent and its covering, its clasps and its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;

Exodus 35:12 the ark with its poles, the mercy seat, and the curtain for the screen;

Exodus 35:13 the table with its poles and all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

Exodus 35:14 the lampstand also for the light, with its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light;

Exodus 35:15 and the altar of incense, with its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance, the entrance of the tabernacle;

Exodus 35:16 the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin with its stand;

Exodus 35:17 the hangings of the court, its pillars and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court;

Exodus 35:18 the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court, and their cords;

Exodus 35:19 the finely worked vestments for ministering in the holy place, the holy vestments for the priest Aaron, and the vestments of his sons, for their service as priests.

Exodus 35:20 Then all the congregation of the Israelites withdrew from the presence of Moses.

Exodus 35:21 And they came, everyone whose heart was stirred, and everyone whose spirit was willing, and brought the LORD's offering to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the sacred vestments.

Exodus 35:22 So they came, both men and women; all who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and pendants, all sorts of gold objects, everyone bringing an offering of gold to the LORD.

Exodus 35:23 And everyone who possessed blue or purple or crimson yarn or fine linen or goats' hair or tanned rams' skins or fine leather, brought them.

Exodus 35:24 Everyone who could make an offering of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's offering; and everyone who possessed acacia wood of any use in the work, brought it.

Exodus 35:25 All the skillful women spun with their hands, and brought what they had spun in blue and purple and crimson yarns and fine linen;

Exodus 35:26 all the women whose hearts moved them to use their skill spun the goats' hair.

Exodus 35:27 And the leaders brought onyx stones and gems to be set in the ephod and the breastpiece,

Exodus 35:28 and spices and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

Exodus 35:29 All the Israelite men and women whose hearts made them willing to bring anything for the work that the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done, brought it as a freewill offering to the LORD.

Exodus 35:30 Then Moses said to the Israelites: See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

Exodus 35:31 he has filled him with divine spirit, with skill, intelligence, and knowledge in every kind of craft,

Exodus 35:32 to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze,

Exodus 35:33 in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, in every kind of craft.

Exodus 35:34 And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

Exodus 35:35 He has filled them with skill to do every kind of work done by an artisan or by a designer or by an embroiderer in blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and in fine linen, or by a weaver— by any sort of artisan or skilled designer.

Exodus 36:1 Bezalel and Oholiab and every skillful one to whom the LORD has given skill and understanding to know how to do any work in the construction of the sanctuary shall work in accordance with all that the LORD has commanded.

Exodus 36:2 Moses then called Bezalel and Oholiab and every skillful one to whom the LORD had given skill, everyone whose heart was stirred to come to do the work;

Exodus 36:3 and they received from Moses all the freewill offerings that the Israelites had brought for doing the work on the sanctuary. They still kept bringing him freewill offerings every morning,

Exodus 36:4 so that all the artisans who were doing every sort of task on the sanctuary came, each from the task being performed,

Exodus 36:5 and said to Moses, “The people are bringing much more than enough for doing the work that the LORD has commanded us to do.”

Exodus 36:6 So Moses gave command, and word was proclaimed throughout the camp: “No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary.” So the people were restrained from bringing;

Exodus 36:7 for what they had already brought was more than enough to do all the work.

Exodus 36:8 All those with skill among the workers made the tabernacle with ten curtains; they were made of fine twisted linen, and blue, purple, and crimson yarns, with cherubim skillfully worked into them.

Exodus 36:9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; all the curtains were of the same size.

Exodus 36:10 He joined five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he joined to one another.

Exodus 36:11 He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain of the first set; likewise he made them on the edge of the outermost curtain of the second set;

Exodus 36:12 he made fifty loops on the one curtain, and he made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that was in the second set; the loops were opposite one another.

Exodus 36:13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and joined the curtains one to the other with clasps; so the tabernacle was one whole.

Exodus 36:14 He also made curtains of goats’ hair for a tent over the tabernacle; he made eleven curtains.

Exodus 36:15 The length of each curtain was thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits; the eleven curtains were of the same size.

Exodus 36:16 He joined five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

Exodus 36:17 He made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain of the one set, and fifty loops on the edge of the other connecting curtain.

Exodus 36:18 He made fifty clasps of bronze to join the tent together so that it might be one whole.

Exodus 36:19 And he made for the tent a covering of tanned rams' skins and an outer covering of fine leather.

Exodus 36:20 Then he made the upright frames for the tabernacle of acacia wood.

Exodus 36:21 Ten cubits was the length of a frame, and a cubit and a half the width of each frame.

Exodus 36:22 Each frame had two pegs for fitting together; he did this for all the frames of the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:23 The frames for the tabernacle he made in this way: twenty frames for the south side;

Exodus 36:24 and he made forty bases of silver under the twenty frames, two bases under the first frame for its two pegs, and two bases under the next frame for its two pegs.

Exodus 36:25 For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty frames

Exodus 36:26 and their forty bases of silver, two bases under the first frame and two bases under the next frame.

Exodus 36:27 For the rear of the tabernacle westward he made six frames.

Exodus 36:28 He made two frames for corners of the tabernacle in the rear.

Exodus 36:29 They were separate beneath, but joined at the top, at the first ring; he made two of them in this way, for the two corners.

Exodus 36:30 There were eight frames with their bases of silver: sixteen bases, under every frame two bases.

Exodus 36:31 He made bars of acacia wood, five for the frames of the one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 36:32 and five bars for the frames of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the frames of the tabernacle at the rear westward.

Exodus 36:33 He made the middle bar to pass through from end to end halfway up the frames.

Exodus 36:34 And he overlaid the frames with gold, and made rings of gold for them to hold the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

Exodus 36:35 He made the curtain of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine twisted linen, with cherubim skillfully worked into it.

Exodus 36:36 For it he made four pillars of acacia, and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four bases of silver.

Exodus 36:37 He also made a screen for the entrance to the tent, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and fine twisted linen, embroidered with needlework;

Exodus 36:38 and its five pillars with their hooks. He overlaid their capitals and their bases with gold, but their five bases were of bronze.

Exodus 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood; it was two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 37:2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold around it.

Exodus 37:3 He cast for it four rings of gold for its four feet, two rings on its one side and two rings on its other side.

Exodus 37:4 He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold,

Exodus 37:5 and put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark.

Exodus 37:6 He made a mercy seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half was its length, and a cubit and a half its width.

Exodus 37:7 He made two cherubim of hammered gold; at the two ends of the mercy seat he made them,

Exodus 37:8 one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end; of one piece with the mercy seat he made the cherubim at its two ends.

Exodus 37:9 The cherubim spread out their wings above, overshadowing the mercy seat with their wings. They faced one another; the faces of the cherubim were turned toward the mercy seat.

Exodus 37:10 He also made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 37:11 He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a molding of gold around it.

Exodus 37:12 He made around it a rim a handbreadth wide, and made a molding of gold around the rim.

Exodus 37:13 He cast for it four rings of gold, and fastened the rings to the four corners at its four legs.

Exodus 37:14 The rings that held the poles used for carrying the table were close to the rim.

Exodus 37:15 He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table, and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:16 And he made the vessels of pure gold that were to be on the table, its plates and dishes for incense, and its bowls and flagons with which to pour drink offerings.

Exodus 37:17 He also made the lampstand of pure gold. The base and the shaft of the lampstand were made of hammered work; its cups, its calyxes, and its petals were of one piece with it.

Exodus 37:18 There were six branches going out of its sides, three branches of the lampstand out of one side of it and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side of it;

Exodus 37:19 three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on one branch, and three cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with calyx and petals, on the other branch— so for the six branches going out of the lampstand.

Exodus 37:20 On the lampstand itself there were four cups shaped like almond blossoms, each with its calyxes and petals.

Exodus 37:21 There was a calyx of one piece with it under the first pair of branches, a calyx of one piece with it under the next pair of branches, and a calyx of one piece with it under the last pair of branches.

Exodus 37:22 Their calyxes and their branches were of one piece with it, the whole of it one hammered piece of pure gold.

Exodus 37:23 He made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its trays of pure gold.

Exodus 37:24 He made it and all its utensils of a talent of pure gold.

Exodus 37:25 He made the altar of incense of acacia wood, one cubit long, and one cubit wide; it was square, and was two cubits high; its horns were of one piece with it.

Exodus 37:26 He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, and its sides all around, and its horns; and he made for it a molding of gold all around,

Exodus 37:27 and made two golden rings for it under its molding, on two opposite sides of it, to hold the poles with which to carry it.

Exodus 37:28 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:29 He made the holy anointing oil also, and the pure fragrant incense, blended as by the perfumer.

Exodus 38:1 He made the altar of burnt offering also of acacia wood; it was five cubits long, and five cubits wide; it was square, and three cubits high.

Exodus 38:2 He made horns for it on its four corners; its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze.

Exodus 38:3 He made all the utensils of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the firepans: all its utensils he made of bronze.

Exodus 38:4 He made for the altar a grating, a network of bronze, under its ledge, extending halfway down.

Exodus 38:5 He cast four rings on the four corners of the bronze grating to hold the poles;

Exodus 38:6 he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze.

Exodus 38:7 And he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it with them; he made it hollow, with boards.

Exodus 38:8 He made the basin of bronze with its stand of bronze, from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

Exodus 38:9 He made the court; for the south side the hangings of the court were of fine twisted linen, one hundred cubits long;

Exodus 38:10 its twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.

Exodus 38:11 For the north side there were hangings one hundred cubits long; its twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.

Exodus 38:12 For the west side there were hangings fifty cubits long, with ten pillars and ten bases; the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.

Exodus 38:13 And for the front to the east, fifty cubits.

Exodus 38:14 The hangings for one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases.

Exodus 38:15 And so for the other side; on each side of the gate of the court were hangings of fifteen cubits, with three pillars and three bases.

Exodus 38:16 All the hangings around the court were of fine twisted linen.

Exodus 38:17 The bases for the pillars were of bronze, but the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver; the overlaying of their capitals was also of silver, and all the pillars of the court were banded with silver.

Exodus 38:18 The screen for the entrance to the court was embroidered with needlework in blue, purple, and crimson yarns and fine twisted linen. It was twenty cubits long and, along the width of it, five cubits high, corresponding to the hangings of the court.

Exodus 38:19 There were four pillars; their four bases were of bronze, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their bands of silver.

Exodus 38:20 All the pegs for the tabernacle and for the court all around were of bronze.

Exodus 38:21 These are the records of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the covenant, which were drawn up at the commandment of Moses, the work of the Levites being under the direction of Ithamar son of the priest Aaron.

Exodus 38:22 Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses;

Exodus 38:23 and with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, engraver, designer, and embroiderer in blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and in fine linen.

Exodus 38:24 All the gold that was used for the work, in all the construction of the sanctuary, the gold from the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, measured by the sanctuary shekel.

Exodus 38:25 The silver from those of the congregation who were counted was one hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, measured by the sanctuary shekel;

Exodus 38:26 a beka a head (that is, half a shekel, measured by the sanctuary shekel), for everyone who was counted in the census, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand, five hundred fifty men.

Exodus 38:27 The hundred talents of silver were for casting the bases of the sanctuary, and the bases of the curtain; one hundred bases for the hundred talents, a talent for a base.

Exodus 38:28 Of the thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals and made bands for them.

Exodus 38:29 The bronze that was contributed was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels;

Exodus 38:30 with it he made the bases for the entrance of the tent of meeting, the bronze altar and the bronze grating for it and all the utensils of the altar,

Exodus 38:31 the bases all around the court, and the bases of the gate of the court, all the pegs of the tabernacle, and all the pegs around the court.

Exodus 39:1 Of the blue, purple, and crimson yarns they made finely worked vestments, for ministering in the holy place; they made the sacred vestments for Aaron; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:2 He made the ephod of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen.

Exodus 39:3 Gold leaf was hammered out and cut into threads to work into the blue, purple, and crimson yarns and into the fine twisted linen, in skilled design.

Exodus 39:4 They made for the ephod shoulder-pieces, joined to it at its two edges.

Exodus 39:5 The decorated band on it was of the same materials and workmanship, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:6 The onyx stones were prepared, enclosed in settings of gold filigree and engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the sons of Israel.

Exodus 39:7 He set them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, to be stones of remembrance for the sons of Israel; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:8 He made the breastpiece, in skilled work, like the work of the ephod, of gold, of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen.

Exodus 39:9 It was square; the breastpiece was made double, a span in length and a span in width when doubled.

Exodus 39:10 They set in it four rows of stones. A row of carnelian, chrysolite, and emerald was the first row;

Exodus 39:12 and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

Exodus 39:13 and the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper; they were enclosed in settings of gold filigree.

Exodus 39:14 There were twelve stones with names corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel; they were like signets, each engraved with its name, for the twelve tribes.

Exodus 39:15 They made on the breastpiece chains of pure gold, twisted like cords;

Exodus 39:16 and they made two settings of gold filigree and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two edges of the breastpiece;

Exodus 39:17 and they put the two cords of gold in the two rings at the edges of the breastpiece.

Exodus 39:18 Two ends of the two cords they had attached to the two settings of filigree; in this way they attached it in front to the shoulder-pieces of the ephod.

Exodus 39:19 Then they made two rings of gold, and put them at the two ends of the breastpiece, on its inside edge next to the ephod.

Exodus 39:20 They made two rings of gold, and attached them in front to the lower part of the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod, at its joining above the decorated band of the ephod.

Exodus 39:21 They bound the breastpiece by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it should lie on the decorated band of the ephod, and that the breastpiece should not come loose from the ephod; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:22 He also made the robe of the ephod woven all of blue yarn;

Exodus 39:23 and the opening of the robe in the middle of it was like the opening in a coat of mail, with a binding around the opening, so that it might not be torn.

Exodus 39:24 On the lower hem of the robe they made pomegranates of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, and of fine twisted linen.

Exodus 39:25 They also made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates on the lower hem of the robe all around, between the pomegranates;

Exodus 39:26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate all around on the lower hem of the robe for ministering; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:27 They also made the tunics, woven of fine linen, for Aaron and his sons,

Exodus 39:28 and the turban of fine linen, and the headdresses of fine linen, and the linen undergarments of fine twisted linen,

Exodus 39:29 and the sash of fine twisted linen, and of blue, purple, and crimson yarns, embroidered with needlework; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:30 They made the rosette of the holy diadem of pure gold, and wrote on it an inscription, like the engraving of a signet, “Holy to the LORD.”

Exodus 39:31 They tied to it a blue cord, to fasten it on the turban above; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:32 In this way all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished; the Israelites had done everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its utensils, its hooks, its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;

Exodus 39:34 the covering of tanned rams' skins and the covering of fine leather, and the curtain for the screen;

Exodus 39:35 the ark of the covenant with its poles and the mercy seat;

Exodus 39:36 the table with all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

Exodus 39:37 the pure lampstand with its lamps set on it and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;

Exodus 39:38 the golden altar, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the entrance of the tent;

Exodus 39:39 the bronze altar, and its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils; the basin with its stand;

Exodus 39:40 the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs; and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting;

Exodus 39:41 the finely worked vestments for ministering in the holy place, the sacred vestments for the priest Aaron, and the vestments of his sons to serve as priests.

Exodus 39:42 The Israelites had done all of the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:43 When Moses saw that they had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded, he blessed them.

Exodus 40:1 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Exodus 40:2 On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting.

Exodus 40:3 You shall put in it the ark of the covenant, and you shall screen the ark with the curtain.

Exodus 40:4 You shall bring in the table, and arrange its setting; and you shall bring in the lampstand, and set up its lamps.

Exodus 40:5 You shall put the golden altar for incense before the ark of the covenant, and set up the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:6 You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting,

Exodus 40:7 and place the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exodus 40:8 You shall set up the court all around, and hang up the screen for the gate of the court.

Exodus 40:9 Then you shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it, and consecrate it and all its furniture, so that it shall become holy.

Exodus 40:10 You shall also anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar, so that the altar shall be most holy.

Exodus 40:11 You shall also anoint the basin with its stand, and consecrate it.

Exodus 40:12 Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and shall wash them with water,

Exodus 40:13 and put on Aaron the sacred vestments, and you shall anoint him and consecrate him, so that he may serve me as priest.

Exodus 40:14 You shall bring his sons also and put tunics on them,

Exodus 40:15 and anoint them, as you anointed their father, that they may serve me as priests: and their anointing shall admit them to a perpetual priesthood throughout all generations to come.

Exodus 40:16 Moses did everything just as the LORD had commanded him.

Exodus 40:17 In the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up.

Exodus 40:18 Moses set up the tabernacle; he laid its bases, and set up its frames, and put in its poles, and raised up its pillars;

Exodus 40:19 and he spread the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent over it; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:20 He took the covenant and put it into the ark, and put the poles on the ark, and set the mercy seat above the ark;

Exodus 40:21 and he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the curtain for screening, and screened the ark of the covenant; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:22 He put the table in the tent of meeting, on the north side of the tabernacle, outside the curtain,

Exodus 40:23 and set the bread in order on it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:24 He put the lampstand in the tent of meeting, opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 40:25 and set up the lamps before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:26 He put the golden altar in the tent of meeting before the curtain,

Exodus 40:27 and offered fragrant incense on it; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:28 He also put in place the screen for the entrance of the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:29 He set the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:30 He set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it for washing,

Exodus 40:31 with which Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet.

Exodus 40:32 When they went into the tent of meeting, and when they approached the altar, they washed; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:33 He set up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and put up the screen at the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

Exodus 40:34 Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:35 Moses was not able to enter the tent of meeting because the cloud settled upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:36 Whenever the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, the Israelites would set out on each stage of their journey;

Exodus 40:37 but if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not set out until the day that it was taken up.

Exodus 40:38 For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel at each stage of their journey.

Leviticus

1:1 The LORD summoned Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying:

Leviticus 1:2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When any of you bring an offering of livestock to the LORD, you shall bring your offering from the herd or from the flock.

Leviticus 1:3 If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, you shall offer a male without blemish; you shall bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, for acceptance in your behalf before the LORD.

Leviticus 1:4 You shall lay your hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be acceptable in your behalf as atonement for you.

Leviticus 1:5 The bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD; and Aaron’s sons the priests shall offer the blood, dashing the blood against all sides of the altar that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 1:6 The burnt offering shall be flayed and cut up into its parts.

Leviticus 1:7 The sons of the priest Aaron shall put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Leviticus 1:8 Aaron's sons the priests shall arrange the parts, with the head and the suet, on the wood that is on the fire on the altar;

Leviticus 1:9 but its entrails and its legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall turn the whole into smoke on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:10 If your gift for a burnt offering is from the flock, from the sheep or goats, your offering shall be a male without blemish.

Leviticus 1:11 It shall be slaughtered on the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 1:12 It shall be cut up into its parts, with its head and its suet, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood that is on the fire on the altar;

Leviticus 1:13 but the entrails and the legs shall be washed with water. Then the priest shall offer the whole and turn it into smoke on the altar; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:14 If your offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, you shall choose your offering from turtledoves or pigeons.

Leviticus 1:15 The priest shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head, and turn it into smoke on the altar; and its blood shall be drained out against the side of the altar.

Leviticus 1:16 He shall remove its crop with its contents and throw it at the east side of the altar, in the place for ashes.

Leviticus 1:17 He shall tear it open by its wings without severing it. Then the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire; it is a burnt offering, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:1 When anyone presents a grain offering to the LORD, the offering shall be of choice flour; the worshiper shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it,

Leviticus 2:2 and bring it to Aaron's sons the priests. After taking from it a handful of the choice flour and oil, with all its frankincense, the priest shall turn this token portion into smoke on the altar, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:3 And what is left of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons, a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:4 When you present a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be of choice flour: unleavened cakes mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers spread with oil.

Leviticus 2:5 If your offering is grain prepared on a griddle, it shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, unleavened;

Leviticus 2:6 break it in pieces, and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:7 If your offering is grain prepared in a pan, it shall be made of choice flour in oil.

Leviticus 2:8 You shall bring to the LORD the grain offering that is prepared in any of these ways; and when it is presented to the priest, he shall take it to the altar.

Leviticus 2:9 The priest shall remove from the grain offering its token portion and turn this into smoke on the altar, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:10 And what is left of the grain offering shall be for Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:11 No grain offering that you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you must not turn any leaven or honey into smoke as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:12 You may bring them to the LORD as an offering of choice products, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing odor.

Leviticus 2:13 You shall not omit from your grain offerings the salt of the covenant with your God; with all your offerings you shall offer salt.

Leviticus 2:14 If you bring a grain offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall bring as the grain offering of your first fruits coarse new grain from fresh ears, parched with fire.

Leviticus 2:15 You shall add oil to it and lay frankincense on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:16 And the priest shall turn a token portion of it into smoke— some of the coarse grain and oil with all its frankincense; it is an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:1 If the offering is a sacrifice of well-being, if you offer an animal of the herd, whether male or female, you shall offer one without blemish before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:2 You shall lay your hand on the head of the offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons the priests shall dash the blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 3:3 You shall offer from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails;

Leviticus 3:4 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:5 Then Aaron’s sons shall turn these into smoke on the altar, with the burnt offering that is on the wood on the fire, as an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:6 If your offering for a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD is from the flock, male or female, you shall offer one without blemish.

Leviticus 3:7 If you present a sheep as your offering, you shall bring it before the LORD

Leviticus 3:8 and lay your hand on the head of the offering. It shall be slaughtered before the tent of meeting, and Aaron’s sons shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 3:9 You shall present its fat from the sacrifice of well-being, as an offering by fire to the LORD: the whole broad tail, which shall be removed close to the backbone, the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is around the entrails;

Leviticus 3:10 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:11 Then the priest shall turn these into smoke on the altar as a food offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:12 If your offering is a goat, you shall bring it before the LORD

Leviticus 3:13 and lay your hand on its head; it shall be slaughtered before the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall dash its blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 3:14 You shall present as your offering from it, as an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is around the entrails;

Leviticus 3:15 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which you shall remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:16 Then the priest shall turn these into smoke on the altar as a food offering by fire for a pleasing odor. All fat is the LORD’s.

Leviticus 3:17 It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, in all your settlements: you must not eat any fat or any blood.

Leviticus 4:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Leviticus 4:2 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: When anyone sins unintentionally in any of the LORD’s commandments about things not to be done, and does any one of them:

Leviticus 4:3 If it is the anointed priest who sins, thus bringing guilt on the people, he shall offer for the sin that he has committed a bull of the herd without blemish as a sin offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 4:4 He shall bring the bull to the entrance of the tent of meeting before the LORD and lay his hand on the head of the bull; the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:5 The anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull and bring it into the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:6 The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the curtain of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 4:7 The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is in the tent of meeting before the LORD; and the rest of the blood of the bull he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:8 He shall remove all the fat from the bull of sin offering: the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is around the entrails;

Leviticus 4:9 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins; and the appendage of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys,

Leviticus 4:10 just as these are removed from the ox of the sacrifice of well-being. The priest shall turn them into smoke upon the altar of burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:11 But the skin of the bull and all its flesh, as well as its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung—

Leviticus 4:12 all the rest of the bull— he shall carry out to a clean place outside the camp, to the ash heap, and shall burn it on a wood fire; at the ash heap it shall be burned.

Leviticus 4:13 If the whole congregation of Israel errs unintentionally and the matter escapes the notice of the assembly, and they do any one of the things that by the LORD’s commandments ought not to be done and incur guilt;

Leviticus 4:14 when the sin that they have committed becomes known, the assembly shall offer a bull of the herd for a sin offering and bring it before the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:15 The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:16 The anointed priest shall bring some of the blood of the bull into the tent of meeting,

Leviticus 4:17 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain.

Leviticus 4:18 He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the tent of meeting; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering that is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 4:19 He shall remove all its fat and turn it into smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 4:20 He shall do with the bull just as is done with the bull of sin offering; he shall do the same with this. The priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:21 He shall carry the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull; it is the sin offering for the assembly.

Leviticus 4:22 When a ruler sins, doing unintentionally any one of all the things that by commandments of the LORD his God ought not to be done and incurs guilt,

Leviticus 4:23 once the sin that he has committed is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a male goat without blemish.

Leviticus 4:24 He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat; it shall be slaughtered at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 4:25 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:26 All its fat he shall turn into smoke on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of well-being. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin, and he shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:27 If anyone of the ordinary people among you sins unintentionally in doing any one of the things that by the LORD’s commandments ought not to be done and incurs guilt,

Leviticus 4:28 when the sin that you have committed is made known to you, you shall bring a female goat without blemish as your offering, for the sin that you have committed.

Leviticus 4:29 You shall lay your hand on the head of the sin offering; and the sin offering shall be slaughtered at the place of the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:30 The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and he shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:31 He shall remove all its fat, as the fat is removed from the offering of well-being, and the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar for a pleasing odor to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf, and you shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:32 If the offering you bring as a sin offering is a sheep, you shall bring a female without blemish.

Leviticus 4:33 You shall lay your hand on the head of the sin offering; and it shall be slaughtered as a sin offering at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered.

Leviticus 4:34 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:35 You shall remove all its fat, as the fat of the sheep is removed from the sacrifice of well-being, and the priest shall turn it into smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the sin that you have committed, and you shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:1 When any of you sin in that you have heard a public adjuration to testify and— though able to testify as one who has seen or learned of the matter— does not speak up, you are subject to punishment.

Leviticus 5:2 Or when any of you touch any unclean thing— whether the carcass of an unclean beast or the carcass of unclean livestock or the carcass of an unclean swarming thing— and are unaware of it, you have become unclean, and are guilty.

Leviticus 5:3 Or when you touch human uncleanness— any uncleanness by which one can become unclean— and are unaware of it, when you come to know it, you shall be guilty.

Leviticus 5:4 Or when any of you utter aloud a rash oath for a bad or a good purpose, whatever people utter in an oath, and are unaware of it, when you come to know it, you shall in any of these be guilty.

Leviticus 5:5 When you realize your guilt in any of these, you shall confess the sin that you have committed.

Leviticus 5:6 And you shall bring to the LORD, as your penalty for the sin that you have committed, a female from the flock, a sheep or a goat, as a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for your sin.

Leviticus 5:7 But if you cannot afford a sheep, you shall bring to the LORD, as your penalty for the sin that you have committed, two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 5:8 You shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering, wringing its head at the nape without severing it.

Leviticus 5:9 He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:10 And the second he shall offer for a burnt offering according to the regulation. Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the sin that you have committed, and you shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:11 But if you cannot afford two turtledoves or two pigeons, you shall bring as your offering for the sin that you have committed one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour for a sin offering; you shall not put oil on it or lay frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:12 You shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall scoop up a handful of it as its memorial portion, and turn this into smoke on the altar, with the offerings by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:13 Thus the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for whichever of these sins you have committed, and you shall be forgiven. Like the grain offering, the rest shall be for the priest.

Leviticus 5:14 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 5:15 When any of you commit a trespass and sin unintentionally in any of the holy things of the LORD, you shall bring, as your guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, convertible into silver by the sanctuary shekel; it is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 5:16 And you shall make restitution for the holy thing in which you were remiss, and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the priest. The priest shall make atonement on your behalf with the ram of the guilt offering, and you shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:17 If any of you sin without knowing it, doing any of the things that by the LORD’s commandments ought not to be done, you have incurred guilt, and are subject to punishment.

Leviticus 5:18 You shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock, or the equivalent, as a guilt offering; and the priest shall make atonement on your behalf for the error that you committed unintentionally, and you shall be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:19 It is a guilt offering; you have incurred guilt before the LORD.

Leviticus 6:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 6:2 When any of you sin and commit a trespass against the LORD by deceiving a neighbor in a matter of a deposit or a pledge, or by robbery, or if you have defrauded a neighbor,

Leviticus 6:3 or have found something lost and lied about it— if you swear falsely regarding any of the various things that one may do and sin thereby—

Leviticus 6:4 when you have sinned and realize your guilt, and would restore what you took by robbery or by fraud or the deposit that was committed to you, or the lost thing that you found, Leviticus 6:5 or anything else about which you have sworn falsely, you shall repay the principal amount and shall add one-fifth to it. You shall pay it to its owner when you realize your guilt.

Leviticus 6:6 And you shall bring to the priest, as your guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, or its equivalent, for a guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:7 The priest shall make atonement on your behalf before the LORD, and you shall be forgiven for any of the things that one may do and incur guilt thereby.

Leviticus 6:8 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 6:9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the ritual of the burnt offering. The burnt offering itself shall remain on the hearth upon the altar all night until the morning, while the fire on the altar shall be kept burning.

Leviticus 6:10 The priest shall put on his linen vestments after putting on his linen undergarments next to his body; and he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has reduced the burnt offering on the altar, and place them beside the altar.

Leviticus 6:11 Then he shall take off his vestments and put on other garments, and carry the ashes out to a clean place outside the camp.

Leviticus 6:12 The fire on the altar shall be kept burning; it shall not go out. Every morning the priest shall add wood to it, lay out the burnt offering on it, and turn into smoke the fat pieces of the offerings of well-being.

Leviticus 6:13 A perpetual fire shall be kept burning on the altar; it shall not go out.

Leviticus 6:14 This is the ritual of the grain offering: The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

Leviticus 6:15 They shall take from it a handful of the choice flour and oil of the grain offering, with all the frankincense that is on the offering, and they shall turn its memorial portion into smoke on the altar as a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:16 Aaron and his sons shall eat what is left of it; it shall be eaten as unleavened cakes in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting they shall eat it.

Leviticus 6:17 It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings by fire; it is most holy, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:18 Every male among the descendants of Aaron shall eat of it, as their perpetual due throughout your generations, from the LORD's offerings by fire; anything that touches them shall become holy.

Leviticus 6:19 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 6:20 This is the offering that Aaron and his sons shall offer to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour as a regular offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

Leviticus 6:21 It shall be made with oil on a griddle; you shall bring it well soaked, as a grain offering of baked pieces, and you shall present it as a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:22 And so the priest, anointed from among Aaron's descendants as a successor, shall prepare it; it is the LORD's— a perpetual due— to be turned entirely into smoke.

Leviticus 6:23 Every grain offering of a priest shall be wholly burned; it shall not be eaten.

Leviticus 6:24 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 6:25 Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the ritual of the sin offering. The sin offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:26 The priest who offers it as a sin offering shall eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 6:27 Whatever touches its flesh shall become holy; and when any of its blood is spattered on a garment, you shall wash the bespattered part in a holy place.

Leviticus 6:28 An earthen vessel in which it was boiled shall be broken; but if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be scoured and rinsed in water.

Leviticus 6:29 Every male among the priests shall eat of it; it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:30 But no sin offering shall be eaten from which any blood is brought into the tent of meeting for atonement in the holy place; it shall be burned with fire.

Leviticus 7:1 This is the ritual of the guilt offering. It is most holy;

Leviticus 7:2 at the spot where the burnt offering is slaughtered, they shall slaughter the guilt offering, and its blood shall be dashed against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 7:3 All its fat shall be offered: the broad tail, the fat that covers the entrails,

Leviticus 7:4 the two kidneys with the fat that is on them at the loins, and the appendage of the liver, which shall be removed with the kidneys.

Leviticus 7:5 The priest shall turn them into smoke on the altar as an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 7:6 Every male among the priests shall eat of it; it shall be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

Leviticus 7:7 The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is the same ritual for them; the priest who makes atonement with it shall have it.

Leviticus 7:8 So, too, the priest who offers anyone's burnt offering shall keep the skin of the burnt offering that he has offered.

Leviticus 7:9 And every grain offering baked in the oven, and all that is prepared in a pan or on a griddle, shall belong to the priest who offers it.

Leviticus 7:10 But every other grain offering, mixed with oil or dry, shall belong to all the sons of Aaron equally.

Leviticus 7:11 This is the ritual of the sacrifice of the offering of well-being that one may offer to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:12 If you offer it for thanksgiving, you shall offer with the thank offering unleavened cakes mixed with oil, unleavened wafers spread with oil, and cakes of choice flour well soaked in oil.

Leviticus 7:13 With your thanksgiving sacrifice of well-being you shall bring your offering with cakes of leavened bread.

Leviticus 7:14 From this you shall offer one cake from each offering, as a gift to the LORD; it shall belong to the priest who dashes the blood of the offering of well-being.

Leviticus 7:15 And the flesh of your thanksgiving sacrifice of well-being shall be eaten on the day it is offered; you shall not leave any of it until morning.

Leviticus 7:16 But if the sacrifice you offer is a votive offering or a freewill offering, it shall be eaten on the day that you offer your sacrifice, and what is left of it shall be eaten the next day;

Leviticus 7:18 If any of the flesh of your sacrifice of well-being is eaten on the third day, it shall not be acceptable, nor shall it be credited to the one who offers it; it shall be an abomination, and the one who eats of it shall incur guilt.

Leviticus 7:19 Flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned up. As for other flesh, all who are clean may eat such flesh.

Leviticus 7:20 But those who eat flesh from the LORD's sacrifice of well-being while in a state of uncleanness shall be cut off from their kin.

Leviticus 7:21 When any one of you touches any unclean thing—human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean creature—and then eats flesh from the LORD's sacrifice of well-being, you shall be cut off from your kin.

Leviticus 7:22 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 7:23 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: You shall eat no fat of ox or sheep or goat.

Leviticus 7:24 The fat of an animal that died or was torn by wild animals may be put to any use, but you must not eat it.

Leviticus 7:25 If any one of you eats the fat from an animal of which an offering by fire may be made to the LORD, you who eat it shall be cut off from your kin.

Leviticus 7:26 You must not eat any blood whatever, either of bird or of animal, in any of your settlements.

Leviticus 7:27 Any one of you who eats any blood shall be cut off from your kin.

Leviticus 7:28 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 7:29 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: Any one of you who would offer to the LORD your sacrifice of well-being must yourself bring to the LORD your offering from your sacrifice of well-being.

Leviticus 7:30 Your own hands shall bring the LORD's offering by fire; you shall bring the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be raised as an elevation offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 7:31 The priest shall turn the fat into smoke on the altar, but the breast shall belong to Aaron and his sons.

Leviticus 7:32 And the right thigh from your sacrifices of well-being you shall give to the priest as an offering;

Leviticus 7:33 the one among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood and fat of the offering of well-being shall have the right thigh for a portion.

Leviticus 7:34 For I have taken the breast of the elevation offering, and the thigh that is offered, from the people of Israel, from their sacrifices of well-being, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel.

Leviticus 7:35 This is the portion allotted to Aaron and to his sons from the offerings made by fire to the LORD, once they have been brought forward to serve the LORD as priests;

Leviticus 7:36 these the LORD commanded to be given them, when he anointed them, as a perpetual due from the people of Israel throughout their generations.

Leviticus 7:37 This is the ritual of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the offering of ordination, and the sacrifice of well-being,

Leviticus 7:38 which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, when he commanded the people of Israel to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

Leviticus 8:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 8:2 Take Aaron and his sons with him, the vestments, the anointing oil, the bull of sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread;

Leviticus 8:3 and assemble the whole congregation at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 8:4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Leviticus 8:5 Moses said to the congregation, “This is what the LORD has commanded to be done.”

Leviticus 8:6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward, and washed them with water.

Leviticus 8:7 He put the tunic on him, fastened the sash around him, clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod on him. He then put the decorated band of the ephod around him, tying the ephod to him with it.

Leviticus 8:8 He placed the breastpiece on him, and in the breastpiece he put the Urim and the Thummim.

Leviticus 8:9 And he set the turban on his head, and on the turban, in front, he set the golden ornament, the holy crown, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:10 Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and consecrated them.

Leviticus 8:11 He sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its base, to consecrate them.

Leviticus 8:12 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him, to consecrate him.

Leviticus 8:13 And Moses brought forward Aaron’s sons, and clothed them with tunics, and fastened sashes around them, and tied headdresses on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:14 He led forward the bull of sin offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull of sin offering,

Leviticus 8:15 and it was slaughtered. Moses took the blood and with his finger put some on each of the horns of the altar, purifying the altar; then he poured out the blood at the base of the altar. Thus he consecrated it, to make atonement for it.

Leviticus 8:16 Moses took all the fat that was around the entrails, and the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and turned them into smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 8:17 But the bull itself, its skin and flesh and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:18 Then he brought forward the ram of burnt offering. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, Leviticus 8:19 and it was slaughtered. Moses dashed the blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 8:20 The ram was cut into its parts, and Moses turned into smoke the head and the parts and the suet.

Leviticus 8:21 And after the entrails and the legs were washed with water, Moses turned into smoke the whole ram on the altar; it was a burnt offering for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:22 Then he brought forward the second ram, the ram of ordination. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram, Leviticus 8:23 and it was slaughtered. Moses took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 8:24 After Aaron’s sons were brought forward, Moses put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears and on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet; and Moses dashed the rest of the blood against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 8:25 He took the fat— the broad tail, all the fat that was around the entrails, the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat— and the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:26 From the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD, he took one cake of unleavened bread, one cake of bread with oil, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:27 He placed all these on the palms of Aaron and on the palms of his sons, and raised them as an elevation offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands and turned them into smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. This was an ordination offering for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 8:29 Moses took the breast and raised it as an elevation offering before the LORD; it was Moses’ portion of the ram of ordination, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his vestments, and also on his sons and their vestments. Thus he consecrated Aaron and his vestments, and also his sons and their vestments.

Leviticus 8:31 And Moses said to Aaron and his sons, “Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of ordination offerings, as I was commanded, ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it’;

Leviticus 8:32 and what remains of the flesh and the bread you shall burn with fire.

Leviticus 8:33 You shall not go outside the entrance of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the day when your period of ordination is completed. For it will take seven days to ordain you;

Leviticus 8:34 as has been done today, the LORD has commanded to be done to make atonement for you.

Leviticus 8:35 You shall remain at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night for seven days, keeping the LORD's charge so that you do not die; for so I am commanded."

Leviticus 8:36 Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD commanded through Moses.

Leviticus 9:1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.

Leviticus 9:2 He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:3 And say to the people of Israel, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering; a calf and a lamb, yearlings without blemish, for a burnt offering;

Leviticus 9:4 and an ox and a ram for an offering of well-being to sacrifice before the LORD; and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.'"

Leviticus 9:5 They brought what Moses commanded to the front of the tent of meeting; and the whole congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:6 And Moses said, "This is the thing that the LORD commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."

Leviticus 9:7 Then Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people; and sacrifice the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD has commanded."

Leviticus 9:8 Aaron drew near to the altar, and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

Leviticus 9:9 The sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; and the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 9:10 But the fat, the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering he turned into smoke on the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses;

Leviticus 9:11 and the flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.

Leviticus 9:12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. Aaron’s sons brought him the blood, and he dashed it against all sides of the altar.

Leviticus 9:13 And they brought him the burnt offering piece by piece, and the head, which he turned into smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 9:14 He washed the entrails and the legs and, with the burnt offering, turned them into smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 9:15 Next he presented the people’s offering. He took the goat of the sin offering that was for the people, and slaughtered it, and presented it as a sin offering like the first one.

Leviticus 9:16 He presented the burnt offering, and sacrificed it according to regulation.

Leviticus 9:17 He presented the grain offering, and, taking a handful of it, he turned it into smoke on the altar, in addition to the burnt offering of the morning.

Leviticus 9:18 He slaughtered the ox and the ram as a sacrifice of well-being for the people. Aaron’s sons brought him the blood, which he dashed against all sides of the altar,

Leviticus 9:19 and the fat of the ox and of the ram— the broad tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the two kidneys and the fat on them, and the appendage of the liver.

Leviticus 9:20 They first laid the fat on the breasts, and the fat was turned into smoke on the altar;

Leviticus 9:21 and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron raised as an elevation offering before the LORD, as Moses had commanded.

Leviticus 9:22 Aaron lifted his hands toward the people and blessed them; and he came down after sacrificing the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the offering of well-being.

Leviticus 9:23 Moses and Aaron entered the tent of meeting, and then came out and blessed the people; and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

Leviticus 9:24 Fire came out from the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar; and when all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Leviticus 10:1 Now Aaron’s sons, Nadab and Abihu, each took his censer, put fire in it, and laid incense on it; and they offered unholy fire before the LORD, such as he had not commanded them.

Leviticus 10:2 And fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:3 Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is what the LORD meant when he said, ‘Through those who are near me I will show myself holy, and before all the people I will be glorified.’“ And Aaron was silent.

Leviticus 10:4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, “Come forward, and carry your kinsmen away from the front of the sanctuary to a place outside the camp.”

Leviticus 10:5 They came forward and carried them by their tunics out of the camp, as Moses had ordered.

Leviticus 10:6 And Moses said to Aaron and to his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Do not dishevel your hair, and do not tear your vestments, or you will die and wrath will strike all the congregation; but your kindred, the whole house of Israel, may mourn the burning that the LORD has sent.

Leviticus 10:7 You shall not go outside the entrance of the tent of meeting, or you will die; for the anointing oil of the LORD is on you.” And they did as Moses had ordered.

Leviticus 10:8 And the LORD spoke to Aaron:

Leviticus 10:9 Drink no wine or strong drink, neither you nor your sons, when you enter the tent of meeting, that you may not die; it is a statute forever throughout your generations.

Leviticus 10:10 You are to distinguish between the holy and the common, and between the unclean and the clean;

Leviticus 10:11 and you are to teach the people of Israel all the statutes that the LORD has spoken to them through Moses.

Leviticus 10:12 Moses spoke to Aaron and to his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar: Take the grain offering that is left from the LORD’s offerings by fire, and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy;

Leviticus 10:13 you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons’ due, from the offerings by fire to the LORD; for so I am commanded.

Leviticus 10:14 But the breast that is elevated and the thigh that is raised, you and your sons and daughters as well may eat in any clean place; for they have been assigned to you and your children from the sacrifices of the offerings of well-being of the people of Israel.

Leviticus 10:15 The thigh that is raised and the breast that is elevated they shall bring, together with the offerings by fire of the fat, to raise for an elevation offering before the LORD; they are to be your due and that of your children forever, as the LORD has commanded.

Leviticus 10:16 Then Moses made inquiry about the goat of the sin offering, and— it had already been burned! He was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons, and said, Leviticus 10:17 “Why did you not eat the sin offering in the sacred area? For it is most holy, and God has given it to you that you may remove the guilt of the congregation, to make atonement on their behalf before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:18 Its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You should certainly have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded."

Leviticus 10:19 And Aaron spoke to Moses, "See, today they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and yet such things as these have befallen me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been agreeable to the LORD?"

Leviticus 10:20 And when Moses heard that, he agreed.

Leviticus 11:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them:

Leviticus 11:2 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: From among all the land animals, these are the creatures that you may eat.

Leviticus 11:3 Any animal that has divided hoofs and is cleft-footed and chews the cud— such you may eat.

Leviticus 11:4 But among those that chew the cud or have divided hoofs, you shall not eat the following: the camel, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:5 The rock badger, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:6 The hare, for even though it chews the cud, it does not have divided hoofs; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:7 The pig, for even though it has divided hoofs and is cleft-footed, it does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:8 Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:9 These you may eat, of all that are in the waters. Everything in the waters that has fins and scales, whether in the seas or in the streams— such you may eat.

Leviticus 11:10 But anything in the seas or the streams that does not have fins and scales, of the swarming creatures in the waters and among all the other living creatures that are in the waters— they are detestable to you

Leviticus 11:11 and detestable they shall remain. Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall regard as detestable.

Leviticus 11:12 Everything in the waters that does not have fins and scales is detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:13 These you shall regard as detestable among the birds. They shall not be eaten; they are an abomination: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,

Leviticus 11:14 the buzzard, the kite of any kind;

Leviticus 11:15 every raven of any kind;

Leviticus 11:16 the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk of any kind;

Leviticus 11:17 the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl,

Leviticus 11:18 the water hen, the desert owl, the carrion vulture,

Leviticus 11:19 the stork, the heron of any kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

Leviticus 11:20 All winged insects that walk upon all fours are detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:21 But among the winged insects that walk on all fours you may eat those that have jointed legs above their feet, with which to leap on the ground.

Leviticus 11:22 Of them you may eat: the locust according to its kind, the bald locust according to its kind, the cricket according to its kind, and the grasshopper according to its kind.

Leviticus 11:23 But all other winged insects that have four feet are detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:24 By these you shall become unclean; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until the evening,

Leviticus 11:25 and whoever carries any part of the carcass of any of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 11:26 Every animal that has divided hoofs but is not cleft-footed or does not chew the cud is unclean for you; everyone who touches one of them shall be unclean.

Leviticus 11:27 All that walk on their paws, among the animals that walk on all fours, are unclean for you; whoever touches the carcass of any of them shall be unclean until the evening,

Leviticus 11:28 and the one who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening; they are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:29 These are unclean for you among the creatures that swarm upon the earth: the weasel, the mouse, the great lizard according to its kind,

Leviticus 11:30 the gecko, the land crocodile, the lizard, the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

Leviticus 11:31 These are unclean for you among all that swarm; whoever touches one of them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 11:32 And anything upon which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether an article of wood or cloth or skin or sacking, any article that is used for any purpose; it shall be dipped into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening, and then it shall be clean.

Leviticus 11:33 And if any of them falls into any earthen vessel, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break the vessel.

Leviticus 11:34 Any food that could be eaten shall be unclean if water from any such vessel comes upon it; and any liquid that could be drunk shall be unclean if it was in any such vessel.

Leviticus 11:35 Everything on which any part of the carcass falls shall be unclean; whether an oven or stove, it shall be broken in pieces; they are unclean, and shall remain unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:36 But a spring or a cistern holding water shall be clean, while whatever touches the carcass in it shall be unclean.

Leviticus 11:37 If any part of their carcass falls upon any seed set aside for sowing, it is clean;

Leviticus 11:38 but if water is put on the seed and any part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:39 If an animal of which you may eat dies, anyone who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 11:40 Those who eat of its carcass shall wash their clothes and be unclean until the evening; and those who carry the carcass shall wash their clothes and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 11:41 All creatures that swarm upon the earth are detestable; they shall not be eaten.

Leviticus 11:42 Whatever moves on its belly, and whatever moves on all fours, or whatever has many feet, all the creatures that swarm upon the earth, you shall not eat; for they are detestable.

Leviticus 11:43 You shall not make yourselves detestable with any creature that swarms; you shall not defile yourselves with them, and so become unclean.

Leviticus 11:44 For I am the LORD your God; sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am holy. You shall not defile yourselves with any swarming creature that moves on the earth.

Leviticus 11:45 For I am the LORD who brought you up from the land of Egypt, to be your God; you shall be holy, for I am holy.

Leviticus 11:46 This is the law pertaining to land animal and bird and every living creature that moves through the waters and every creature that swarms upon the earth,

Leviticus 11:47 to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living creature that may be eaten and the living creature that may not be eaten.

Leviticus 12:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 12:2 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: If a woman conceives and bears a male child, she shall be ceremonially unclean seven days; as at the time of her menstruation, she shall be unclean.

Leviticus 12:3 On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

Leviticus 12:4 Her time of blood purification shall be thirty-three days; she shall not touch any holy thing, or come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purification are completed.

Leviticus 12:5 If she bears a female child, she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation; her time of blood purification shall be sixty-six days.

Leviticus 12:6 When the days of her purification are completed, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting a lamb in its first year for a burnt offering, and a pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering.

Leviticus 12:7 He shall offer it before the LORD, and make atonement on her behalf; then she shall be clean from her flow of blood. This is the law for her who bears a child, male or female.

Leviticus 12:8 If she cannot afford a sheep, she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement on her behalf, and she shall be clean.

Leviticus 13:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 13:2 When a person has on the skin of his body a swelling or an eruption or a spot, and it turns into a leprous disease on the skin of his body, he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests.

Leviticus 13:3 The priest shall examine the disease on the skin of his body, and if the hair in the diseased area has turned white and the disease appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous disease; after the priest has examined him he shall pronounce him ceremonially unclean.

Leviticus 13:4 But if the spot is white in the skin of his body, and appears no deeper than the skin, and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall confine the diseased person for seven days.

Leviticus 13:5 The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if he sees that the disease is checked and the disease has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall confine him seven days more.

Leviticus 13:6 The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the disease has abated and the disease has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption; and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

Leviticus 13:7 But if the eruption spreads in the skin after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall appear again before the priest.

Leviticus 13:8 The priest shall make an examination, and if the eruption has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous disease.

Leviticus 13:9 When a person contracts a leprous disease, he shall be brought to the priest.

Leviticus 13:10 The priest shall make an examination, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white, and there is quick raw flesh in the swelling,

Leviticus 13:11 it is a chronic leprous disease in the skin of his body. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not confine him, for he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:12 But if the disease breaks out in the skin, so that it covers all the skin of the diseased person from head to foot, so far as the priest can see,

Leviticus 13:13 then the priest shall make an examination, and if the disease has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean of the disease; since it has all turned white, he is clean.

Leviticus 13:14 But if raw flesh ever appears on him, he shall be unclean;

Leviticus 13:15 the priest shall examine the raw flesh and pronounce him unclean. Raw flesh is unclean, for it is a leprous disease.

Leviticus 13:16 But if the raw flesh again turns white, he shall come to the priest;

Leviticus 13:17 the priest shall examine him, and if the disease has turned white, the priest shall pronounce the diseased person clean. He is clean.

Leviticus 13:18 When there is on the skin of one’s body a boil that has healed,

Leviticus 13:19 and in the place of the boil there appears a white swelling or a reddish-white spot, it shall be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:20 The priest shall make an examination, and if it appears deeper than the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; this is a leprous disease, broken out in the boil.

Leviticus 13:21 But if the priest examines it and the hair on it is not white, nor is it deeper than the skin but has abated, the priest shall confine him seven days.

Leviticus 13:22 If it spreads in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is diseased.

Leviticus 13:23 But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread, it is the scar of the boil; the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:24 Or, when the body has a burn on the skin and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a spot, reddish-white or white,

Leviticus 13:25 the priest shall examine it. If the hair in the spot has turned white and it appears deeper than the skin, it is a leprous disease; it has broken out in the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. This is a leprous disease.

Leviticus 13:26 But if the priest examines it and the hair in the spot is not white, and it is no deeper than the skin but has abated, the priest shall confine him seven days.

Leviticus 13:27 The priest shall examine him the seventh day; if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. This is a leprous disease.

Leviticus 13:28 But if the spot remains in one place and does not spread in the skin but has abated, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of the burn.

Leviticus 13:29 When a man or woman has a disease on the head or in the beard,

Leviticus 13:30 the priest shall examine the disease. If it appears deeper than the skin and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an itch, a leprous disease of the head or the beard.

Leviticus 13:31 If the priest examines the itching disease, and it appears no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair in it, the priest shall confine the person with the itching disease for seven days.

Leviticus 13:32 On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch; if the itch has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the itch appears to be no deeper than the skin,

Leviticus 13:33 he shall shave, but the itch he shall not shave. The priest shall confine the person with the itch for seven days more.

Leviticus 13:34 On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itch; if the itch has not spread in the skin and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean.

Leviticus 13:35 But if the itch spreads in the skin after he was pronounced clean,

Leviticus 13:36 the priest shall examine him. If the itch has spread in the skin, the priest need not seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean.

Leviticus 13:37 But if in his eyes the itch is checked, and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed, he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:38 When a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots, Leviticus 13:39 the priest shall make an examination, and if the spots on the skin of the body are of a dull white, it is a rash that has broken out on the skin; he is clean.

Leviticus 13:40 If anyone loses the hair from his head, he is bald but he is clean.

Leviticus 13:41 If he loses the hair from his forehead and temples, he has baldness of the forehead but he is clean.

Leviticus 13:42 But if there is on the bald head or the bald forehead a reddish-white diseased spot, it is a leprous disease breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.

Leviticus 13:43 The priest shall examine him; if the diseased swelling is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, which resembles a leprous disease in the skin of the body,

Leviticus 13:44 he is leprous, he is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; the disease is on his head.

Leviticus 13:45 The person who has the leprous disease shall wear torn clothes and let the hair of his head be disheveled; and he shall cover his upper lip and cry out, “Unclean, unclean.”

Leviticus 13:46 He shall remain unclean as long as he has the disease; he is unclean. He shall live alone; his dwelling shall be outside the camp.

Leviticus 13:47 Concerning clothing: when a leprous disease appears in it, in woolen or linen cloth,

Leviticus 13:48 in warp or woof of linen or wool, or in a skin or in anything made of skin,

Leviticus 13:49 if the disease shows greenish or reddish in the garment, whether in warp or woof or in skin or in anything made of skin, it is a leprous disease and shall be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:50 The priest shall examine the disease, and put the diseased article aside for seven days.

Leviticus 13:51 He shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the cloth, in warp or woof, or in the skin, whatever be the use of the skin, this is a spreading leprous disease; it is unclean.

Leviticus 13:52 He shall burn the clothing, whether diseased in warp or woof, woolen or linen, or anything of skin, for it is a spreading leprous disease; it shall be burned in fire.

Leviticus 13:53 If the priest makes an examination, and the disease has not spread in the clothing, in warp or woof or in anything of skin,

Leviticus 13:54 the priest shall command them to wash the article in which the disease appears, and he shall put it aside seven days more.

Leviticus 13:55 The priest shall examine the diseased article after it has been washed. If the diseased spot has not changed color, though the disease has not spread, it is unclean; you shall burn it in fire, whether the leprous spot is on the inside or on the outside.

Leviticus 13:56 If the priest makes an examination, and the disease has abated after it is washed, he shall tear the spot out of the cloth, in warp or woof, or out of skin.

Leviticus 13:57 If it appears again in the garment, in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading; you shall burn with fire that in which the disease appears.

Leviticus 13:58 But the cloth, warp or woof, or anything of skin from which the disease disappears when you have washed it, shall then be washed a second time, and it shall be clean.

Leviticus 13:59 This is the ritual for a leprous disease in a cloth of wool or linen, either in warp or woof, or in anything of skin, to decide whether it is clean or unclean.

Leviticus 14:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 14:2 This shall be the ritual for the leprous person at the time of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the priest;

Leviticus 14:3 the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall make an examination. If the disease is healed in the leprous person,

Leviticus 14:4 the priest shall command that two living clean birds and cedarwood and crimson yarn and hyssop be brought for the one who is to be cleansed.

Leviticus 14:5 The priest shall command that one of the birds be slaughtered over fresh water in an earthen vessel.

Leviticus 14:6 He shall take the living bird with the cedarwood and the crimson yarn and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was slaughtered over the fresh water.

Leviticus 14:7 He shall sprinkle it seven times upon the one who is to be cleansed of the leprous disease; then he shall pronounce him clean, and he shall let the living bird go into the open field.

Leviticus 14:8 The one who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water, and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, but shall live outside his tent seven days.

Leviticus 14:9 On the seventh day he shall shave all his hair: of head, beard, eyebrows; he shall shave all his hair. Then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and he shall be clean.

Leviticus 14:10 On the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish, and one ewe lamb in its first year without blemish, and a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil, and one log of oil.

Leviticus 14:11 The priest who cleanses shall set the person to be cleansed, along with these things, before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 14:12 The priest shall take one of the lambs, and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil, and raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:13 He shall slaughter the lamb in the place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered in the holy place; for the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the priest: it is most holy.

Leviticus 14:14 The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot.

Leviticus 14:16 and dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and sprinkle some oil with his finger seven times before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:17 Some of the oil that remains in his hand the priest shall put on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:18 The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed. Then the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD:

Leviticus 14:19 the priest shall offer the sin offering, to make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall slaughter the burnt offering;

Leviticus 14:20 and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf and he shall be clean.

Leviticus 14:21 But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be elevated, to make atonement on his behalf, and one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering and a log of oil;

Leviticus 14:22 also two turtledoves or two pigeons, such as he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:23 On the eighth day he shall bring them for his cleansing to the priest, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, before the LORD;

Leviticus 14:24 and the priest shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil, and the priest shall raise them as an elevation offering before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:25 The priest shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering and shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot.

Leviticus 14:28 The priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and the big toe of the right foot, where the blood of the guilt offering was placed.

Leviticus 14:29 The rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement on his behalf before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:30 And he shall offer, of the turtledoves or pigeons such as he can afford,

Leviticus 14:31 one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, along with a grain offering; and the priest shall make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one being cleansed.

Leviticus 14:32 This is the ritual for the one who has a leprous disease, who cannot afford the offerings for his cleansing.

Leviticus 14:33 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 14:34 When you come into the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put a leprous disease in a house in the land of your possession,

Leviticus 14:35 the owner of the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, "There seems to me to be some sort of disease in my house."

Leviticus 14:36 The priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes to examine the disease, or all that is in the house will become unclean; and afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house.

Leviticus 14:37 He shall examine the disease; if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, and if it appears to be deeper than the surface,

Leviticus 14:38 the priest shall go outside to the door of the house and shut up the house seven days.

Leviticus 14:39 The priest shall come again on the seventh day and make an inspection; if the disease has spread in the walls of the house, Leviticus 14:40 the priest shall command that the stones in which the disease appears be taken out and thrown into an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:41 He shall have the inside of the house scraped thoroughly, and the plaster that is scraped off shall be dumped in an unclean place outside the city.

Leviticus 14:42 They shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and take other plaster and plaster the house.

Leviticus 14:43 If the disease breaks out again in the house, after he has taken out the stones and scraped the house and plastered it,

Leviticus 14:44 the priest shall go and make inspection; if the disease has spread in the house, it is a spreading leprous disease in the house; it is unclean.

Leviticus 14:45 He shall have the house torn down, its stones and timber and all the plaster of the house, and taken outside the city to an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:46 All who enter the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening;

Leviticus 14:47 and all who sleep in the house shall wash their clothes; and all who eat in the house shall wash their clothes.

Leviticus 14:48 If the priest comes and makes an inspection, and the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, the priest shall pronounce the house clean; the disease is healed.

Leviticus 14:49 For the cleansing of the house he shall take two birds, with cedarwood and crimson yarn and hyssop,

Leviticus 14:50 and shall slaughter one of the birds over fresh water in an earthen vessel,

Leviticus 14:51 and shall take the cedarwood and the hyssop and the crimson yarn, along with the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slaughtered bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Leviticus 14:52 Thus he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the fresh water, and with the living bird, and with the cedarwood and hyssop and crimson yarn;

Leviticus 14:53 and he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field; so he shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

Leviticus 14:54 This is the ritual for any leprous disease: for an itch,

Leviticus 14:55 for leprous diseases in clothing and houses,

Leviticus 14:56 and for a swelling or an eruption or a spot,

Leviticus 14:57 to determine when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the ritual for leprous diseases.

Leviticus 15:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Leviticus 15:2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When any man has a discharge from his member, his discharge makes him ceremonially unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 The uncleanness of his discharge is this: whether his member flows with his discharge, or his member is stopped from discharging, it is uncleanness for him.

Leviticus 15:4 Every bed on which the one with the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything on which he sits shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 Anyone who touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:6 All who sit on anything on which the one with the discharge has sat shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:7 All who touch the body of the one with the discharge shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:8 If the one with the discharge spits on persons who are clean, then they shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:9 Any saddle on which the one with the discharge rides shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:10 All who touch anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening, and all who carry such a thing shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:11 All those whom the one with the discharge touches without his having rinsed his hands in water shall wash their clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:12 Any earthen vessel that the one with the discharge touches shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

Leviticus 15:13 When the one with a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, he shall count seven days for his cleansing; he shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in fresh water, and he shall be clean.

Leviticus 15:14 On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest.

Leviticus 15:15 The priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement on his behalf before the LORD for his discharge.

Leviticus 15:16 If a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:17 Everything made of cloth or of skin on which the semen falls shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:18 If a man lies with a woman and has an emission of semen, both of them shall bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:19 When a woman has a discharge of blood that is her regular discharge from her body, she shall be in her impurity for seven days, and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:20 Everything upon which she lies during her impurity shall be unclean; everything also upon which she sits shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:22 Whoever touches anything upon which she sits shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening;

Leviticus 15:23 whether it is the bed or anything upon which she sits, when he touches it he shall be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:24 If any man lies with her, and her impurity falls on him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall continue in uncleanness; as in the days of her impurity, she shall be unclean.

Leviticus 15:26 Every bed on which she lies during all the days of her discharge shall be treated as the bed of her impurity; and everything on which she sits shall be unclean, as in the uncleanness of her impurity.

Leviticus 15:27 Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the evening.

Leviticus 15:28 If she is cleansed of her discharge, she shall count seven days, and after that she shall be clean.

Leviticus 15:29 On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and bring them to the priest to the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Leviticus 15:30 The priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement on her behalf before the LORD for her unclean discharge.

Leviticus 15:31 Thus you shall keep the people of Israel separate from their uncleanness, so that they do not die in their uncleanness by defiling my tabernacle that is in their midst.

Leviticus 15:32 This is the ritual for those who have a discharge: for him who has an emission of semen, becoming unclean thereby,

Leviticus 15:33 for her who is in the infirmity of her period, for anyone, male or female, who has a discharge, and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

Leviticus 16:1 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD and died.

Leviticus 16:2 The LORD said to Moses: Tell your brother Aaron not to come just at any time into the sanctuary inside the curtain before the mercy seat that is upon the ark, or he will die; for I appear in the cloud upon the mercy seat.

Leviticus 16:3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:4 He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and shall have the linen undergarments next to his body, fasten the linen sash, and wear the linen turban; these are the holy vestments. He shall bathe his body in water, and then put them on.

Leviticus 16:5 He shall take from the congregation of the people of Israel two male goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:6 Aaron shall offer the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house.

Leviticus 16:7 He shall take the two goats and set them before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting;

Leviticus 16:8 and Aaron shall cast lots on the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for Azazel.

Leviticus 16:9 Aaron shall present the goat on which the lot fell for the LORD, and offer it as a sin offering;

Leviticus 16:10 but the goat on which the lot fell for Azazel shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement over it, that it may be sent away into the wilderness to Azazel.

Leviticus 16:11 Aaron shall present the bull as a sin offering for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house; he shall slaughter the bull as a sin offering for himself.

Leviticus 16:12 He shall take a censer full of coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, and two handfuls of crushed sweet incense, and he shall bring it inside the curtain

Leviticus 16:13 and put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is upon the covenant, or he will die.

Leviticus 16:14 He shall take some of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the front of the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger seven times.

Leviticus 16:15 He shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering that is for the people and bring its blood inside the curtain, and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bull, sprinkling it upon the mercy seat and before the mercy seat.

Leviticus 16:16 Thus he shall make atonement for the sanctuary, because of the uncleannesses of the people of Israel, and because of their transgressions, all their sins; and so he shall do for the tent of meeting, which remains with them in the midst of their uncleannesses.

Leviticus 16:17 No one shall be in the tent of meeting from the time he enters to make atonement in the sanctuary until he comes out and has made atonement for himself and for his house and for all the assembly of Israel.

Leviticus 16:18 Then he shall go out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement on its behalf, and shall take some of the blood of the bull and of the blood of the goat, and put it on each of the horns of the altar.

Leviticus 16:19 He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it and hallow it from the uncleannesses of the people of Israel.

Leviticus 16:20 When he has finished atoning for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar, he shall present the live goat.

Leviticus 16:21 Then Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the people of Israel, and all their transgressions, all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and sending it away into the wilderness by means of someone designated for the task.

Leviticus 16:22 The goat shall bear on itself all their iniquities to a barren region; and the goat shall be set free in the wilderness.

Leviticus 16:23 Then Aaron shall enter the tent of meeting, and shall take off the linen vestments that he put on when he went into the holy place, and shall leave them there.

Leviticus 16:24 He shall bathe his body in water in a holy place, and put on his vestments; then he shall come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, making atonement for himself and for the people.

Leviticus 16:25 The fat of the sin offering he shall turn into smoke on the altar.

Leviticus 16:26 The one who sets the goat free for Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward may come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:27 The bull of the sin offering and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be taken outside the camp; their skin and their flesh and their dung shall be consumed in fire.

Leviticus 16:28 The one who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterward may come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:29 This shall be a statute to you forever: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall deny yourselves, and shall do no work, neither the citizen nor the alien who resides among you.

Leviticus 16:30 For on this day atonement shall be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the LORD.

Leviticus 16:31 It is a sabbath of complete rest to you, and you shall deny yourselves; it is a statute forever.

Leviticus 16:32 The priest who is anointed and consecrated as priest in his father's place shall make atonement, wearing the linen vestments, the holy vestments.

Leviticus 16:33 He shall make atonement for the sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

Leviticus 16:34 This shall be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for the people of Israel once in the year for all their sins. And Moses did as the LORD had commanded him.

Leviticus 17:1 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Leviticus 17:2 Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the people of Israel and say to them: This is what the LORD has commanded.

Leviticus 17:3 If anyone of the house of Israel slaughters an ox or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or slaughters it outside the camp,

Leviticus 17:4 and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to present it as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, he shall be held guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood, and he shall be cut off from the people.

Leviticus 17:5 This is in order that the people of Israel may bring their sacrifices that they offer in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and offer them as sacrifices of well-being to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:6 The priest shall dash the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and turn the fat into smoke as a pleasing odor to the LORD,

Leviticus 17:7 so that they may no longer offer their sacrifices for goat-demons, to whom they prostitute themselves. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.

Leviticus 17:8 And say to them further: Anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens who reside among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice,

Leviticus 17:9 and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it to the LORD, shall be cut off from the people.

Leviticus 17:10 If anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens who reside among them eats any blood, I will set my face against that person who eats blood, and will cut that person off from the people.

Leviticus 17:11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you for making atonement for your lives on the altar; for, as life, it is the blood that makes atonement.

Leviticus 17:12 Therefore I have said to the people of Israel: No person among you shall eat blood, nor shall any alien who resides among you eat blood.

Leviticus 17:13 And anyone of the people of Israel, or of the aliens who reside among them, who hunts down an animal or bird that may be eaten shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth.

Leviticus 17:14 For the life of every creature— its blood is its life; therefore I have said to the people of Israel: You shall not eat the blood of any creature, for the life of every creature is its blood; whoever eats it shall be cut off.

Leviticus 17:15 All persons, citizens or aliens, who eat what dies of itself or what has been torn by wild animals, shall wash their clothes, and bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening; then they shall be clean.

Leviticus 17:16 But if they do not wash themselves or bathe their body, they shall bear their guilt.

Leviticus 18:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 18:2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:3 You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not follow their statutes.

Leviticus 18:4 My ordinances you shall observe and my statutes you shall keep, following them: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:5 You shall keep my statutes and my ordinances; by doing so one shall live: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:6 None of you shall approach anyone near of kin to uncover nakedness: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:7 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, which is the nakedness of your mother; she is your mother, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:8 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife; it is the nakedness of your father.

Leviticus 18:9 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter, whether born at home or born abroad.

Leviticus 18:10 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your son’s daughter or of your daughter’s daughter, for their nakedness is your own nakedness.

Leviticus 18:11 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife’s daughter, begotten by your father, since she is your sister.

Leviticus 18:12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s sister; she is your father’s flesh.

Leviticus 18:13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, for she is your mother’s flesh.

Leviticus 18:14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father’s brother, that is, you shall not approach his wife; she is your aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son’s wife; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

Leviticus 18:16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother’s wife; it is your brother’s nakedness.

Leviticus 18:17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, and you shall not take her son’s daughter or her daughter’s daughter to uncover her nakedness; they are your flesh; it is depravity.

Leviticus 18:18 And you shall not take a woman as a rival to her sister, uncovering her nakedness while her sister is still alive.

Leviticus 18:19 You shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness while she is in her menstrual uncleanness.

Leviticus 18:20 You shall not have sexual relations with your kinsman’s wife, and defile yourself with her.

Leviticus 18:21 You shall not give any of your offspring to sacrifice them to Molech, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:22 You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.

Leviticus 18:23 You shall not have sexual relations with any animal and defile yourself with it, nor shall any woman give herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it: it is perversion.

Leviticus 18:24 Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for by all these practices the nations I am casting out before you have defiled themselves.

Leviticus 18:25 Thus the land became defiled; and I punished it for its iniquity, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

Leviticus 18:26 But you shall keep my statutes and my ordinances and commit none of these abominations, either the citizen or the alien who resides among you

Leviticus 18:27 (for the inhabitants of the land, who were before you, committed all of these abominations, and the land became defiled);

Leviticus 18:28 otherwise the land will vomit you out for defiling it, as it vomited out the nation that was before you.

Leviticus 18:29 For whoever commits any of these abominations shall be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 18:30 So keep my charge not to commit any of these abominations that were done before you, and not to defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 19:2 Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

Leviticus 19:3 You shall each revere your mother and father, and you shall keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:4 Do not turn to idols or make cast images for yourselves: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:5 When you offer a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, offer it in such a way that it is acceptable on your behalf.

Leviticus 19:6 It shall be eaten on the same day you offer it, or on the next day; and anything left over until the third day shall be consumed in fire.

Leviticus 19:7 If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination; it will not be acceptable.

Leviticus 19:8 All who eat it shall be subject to punishment, because they have profaned what is holy to the LORD; and any such person shall be cut off from the people.

Leviticus 19:9 When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest.

Leviticus 19:10 You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:11 You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another.

Leviticus 19:12 And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:13 You shall not defraud your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning.

Leviticus 19:14 You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:15 You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor.

Leviticus 19:16 You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:17 You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself.

Leviticus 19:18 You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:19 You shall keep my statutes. You shall not let your animals breed with a different kind; you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed; nor shall you put on a garment made of two different materials.

Leviticus 19:20 If a man has sexual relations with a woman who is a slave, designated for another man but not ransomed or given her freedom, an inquiry shall be held. They shall not be put to death, since she has not been freed;

Leviticus 19:21 but he shall bring a guilt offering for himself to the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, a ram as guilt offering.

Leviticus 19:22 And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of guilt offering before the LORD for his sin that he committed; and the sin he committed shall be forgiven him.

Leviticus 19:23 When you come into the land and plant all kinds of trees for food, then you shall regard their fruit as forbidden; three years it shall be forbidden to you, it must not be eaten.

Leviticus 19:24 In the fourth year all their fruit shall be set apart for rejoicing in the LORD.

Leviticus 19:25 But in the fifth year you may eat of their fruit, that their yield may be increased for you: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:26 You shall not eat anything with its blood. You shall not practice augury or witchcraft.

Leviticus 19:27 You shall not round off the hair on your temples or mar the edges of your beard.

Leviticus 19:28 You shall not make any gashes in your flesh for the dead or tattoo any marks upon you: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:29 Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, that the land not become prostituted and full of depravity.

Leviticus 19:30 You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:31 Do not turn to mediums or wizards; do not seek them out, to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:32 You shall rise before the aged, and defer to the old; and you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:33 When an alien resides with you in your land, you shall not oppress the alien.

Leviticus 19:34 The alien who resides with you shall be to you as the citizen among you; you shall love the alien as yourself, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:35 You shall not cheat in measuring length, weight, or quantity.

Leviticus 19:36 You shall have honest balances, honest weights, an honest ephah, and an honest hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Leviticus 19:37 You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and observe them: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 20:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 20:2 Say further to the people of Israel: Any of the people of Israel, or of the aliens who reside in Israel, who give any of their offspring to Molech shall be put to death; the people of the land shall stone them to death.

Leviticus 20:3 I myself will set my face against them, and will cut them off from the people, because they have given of their offspring to Molech, defiling my sanctuary and profaning my holy name.

Leviticus 20:4 And if the people of the land should ever close their eyes to them, when they give of their offspring to Molech, and do not put them to death,

Leviticus 20:5 I myself will set my face against them and against their family, and will cut them off from among their people, them and all who follow them in prostituting themselves to Molech.

Leviticus 20:6 If any turn to mediums and wizards, prostituting themselves to them, I will set my face against them, and will cut them off from the people.

Leviticus 20:7 Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 20:8 Keep my statutes, and observe them; I am the LORD; I sanctify you.

Leviticus 20:9 All who curse father or mother shall be put to death; having cursed father or mother, their blood is upon them.

Leviticus 20:10 If a man commits adultery with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death.

Leviticus 20:11 The man who lies with his father's wife has uncovered his father's nakedness; both of them shall be put to death; their blood is upon them.

Leviticus 20:12 If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall be put to death; they have committed perversion, their blood is upon them.

Leviticus 20:13 If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death; their blood is upon them.

Leviticus 20:14 If a man takes a wife and her mother also, it is depravity; they shall be burned to death, both he and they, that there may be no depravity among you.

Leviticus 20:15 If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he shall be put to death; and you shall kill the animal.

Leviticus 20:16 If a woman approaches any animal and has sexual relations with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal; they shall be put to death, their blood is upon them.

Leviticus 20:17 If a man takes his sister, a daughter of his father or a daughter of his mother, and sees her nakedness, and she sees his nakedness, it is a disgrace, and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people; he has uncovered his sister's nakedness, he shall be subject to punishment.

Leviticus 20:18 If a man lies with a woman having her sickness and uncovers her nakedness, he has laid bare her flow and she has laid bare her flow of blood; both of them shall be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 20:19 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that is to lay bare one's own flesh; they shall be subject to punishment.

Leviticus 20:20 If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall be subject to punishment; they shall die childless.

Leviticus 20:21 If a man takes his brother's wife, it is impurity; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

Leviticus 20:22 You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and observe them, so that the land to which I bring you to settle in may not vomit you out.

Leviticus 20:23 You shall not follow the practices of the nation that I am driving out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred them.

Leviticus 20:24 But I have said to you: You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God; I have separated you from the peoples.

Leviticus 20:25 You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean; you shall not bring abomination on yourselves by animal or by bird or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have set apart for you to hold unclean.

Leviticus 20:26 You shall be holy to me; for I the LORD am holy, and I have separated you from the other peoples to be mine.

Leviticus 20:27 A man or a woman who is a medium or a wizard shall be put to death; they shall be stoned to death, their blood is upon them.

Leviticus 21:1 The LORD said to Moses: Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: No one shall defile himself for a dead person among his relatives,

Leviticus 21:3 likewise, for a virgin sister, close to him because she has had no husband, he may defile himself for her.

Leviticus 21:4 But he shall not defile himself as a husband among his people and so profane himself.

Leviticus 21:5 They shall not make bald spots upon their heads, or shave off the edges of their beards, or make any gashes in their flesh.

Leviticus 21:6 They shall be holy to their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the LORD’s offerings by fire, the food of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

Leviticus 21:7 They shall not marry a prostitute or a woman who has been defiled; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband. For they are holy to their God,

Leviticus 21:8 and you shall treat them as holy, since they offer the food of your God; they shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, I who sanctify you, am holy.

Leviticus 21:9 When the daughter of a priest profanes herself through prostitution, she profanes her father; she shall be burned to death.

Leviticus 21:10 The priest who is exalted above his fellows, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated to wear the vestments, shall not dishevel his hair, nor tear his vestments.

Leviticus 21:11 He shall not go where there is a dead body; he shall not defile himself even for his father or mother.

Leviticus 21:12 He shall not go outside the sanctuary and thus profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 21:13 He shall marry only a woman who is a virgin.

Leviticus 21:14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or a woman who has been defiled, a prostitute, these he shall not marry. He shall marry a virgin of his own kin,

Leviticus 21:15 that he may not profane his offspring among his kin; for I am the LORD; I sanctify him.

Leviticus 21:16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 21:17 Speak to Aaron and say: No one of your offspring throughout their generations who has a blemish may approach to offer the food of his God.

Leviticus 21:18 For no one who has a blemish shall draw near, one who is blind or lame, or one who has a mutilated face or a limb too long,

Leviticus 21:19 or one who has a broken foot or a broken hand,

Leviticus 21:20 or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or a man with a blemish in his eyes or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles.

Leviticus 21:21 No descendant of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD’s offerings by fire; since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the food of his God.

Leviticus 21:22 He may eat the food of his God, of the most holy as well as of the holy.

Leviticus 21:23 But he shall not come near the curtain or approach the altar, because he has a blemish, that he may not profane my sanctuaries; for I am the LORD; I sanctify them.

Leviticus 21:24 Thus Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the people of Israel.

Leviticus 22:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 22:2 Direct Aaron and his sons to deal carefully with the sacred donations of the people of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they may not profane my holy name; I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:3 Say to them: If anyone among all your offspring throughout your generations comes near the sacred donations, which the people of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he is in a state of uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:4 No one of Aaron’s offspring who has a leprous disease or suffers a discharge may eat of the sacred donations until he is clean. Whoever touches anything made unclean by a corpse or a man who has had an emission of semen, Leviticus 22:5 and whoever touches any swarming thing by which he may be made unclean or any human being by whom he may be made unclean— whatever his uncleanness may be—

Leviticus 22:6 the person who touches any such shall be unclean until evening and shall not eat of the sacred donations unless he has washed his body in water.

Leviticus 22:7 When the sun sets he shall be clean; and afterward he may eat of the sacred donations, for they are his food.

Leviticus 22:8 That which died or was torn by wild animals he shall not eat, becoming unclean by it: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:9 They shall keep my charge, so that they may not incur guilt and die in the sanctuary for having profaned it: I am the LORD; I sanctify them.

Leviticus 22:10 No lay person shall eat of the sacred donations. No bound or hired servant of the priest shall eat of the sacred donations;

Leviticus 22:11 but if a priest acquires anyone by purchase, the person may eat of them; and those that are born in his house may eat of his food.

Leviticus 22:12 If a priest's daughter marries a layman, she shall not eat of the offering of the sacred donations;

Leviticus 22:13 but if a priest's daughter is widowed or divorced, without offspring, and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food. No lay person shall eat of it.

Leviticus 22:14 If a man eats of the sacred donation unintentionally, he shall add one-fifth of its value to it, and give the sacred donation to the priest.

Leviticus 22:15 No one shall profane the sacred donations of the people of Israel, which they offer to the LORD,

Leviticus 22:16 causing them to bear guilt requiring a guilt offering, by eating their sacred donations: for I am the LORD; I sanctify them.

Leviticus 22:17 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 22:18 Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the people of Israel and say to them: When anyone of the house of Israel or of the aliens residing in Israel presents an offering, whether in payment of a vow or as a freewill offering that is offered to the LORD as a burnt offering,

Leviticus 22:19 to be acceptable in your behalf it shall be a male without blemish, of the cattle or the sheep or the goats.

Leviticus 22:20 You shall not offer anything that has a blemish, for it will not be acceptable in your behalf.

Leviticus 22:21 When anyone offers a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, in fulfillment of a vow or as a freewill offering, from the herd or from the flock, to be acceptable it must be perfect; there shall be no blemish in it.

Leviticus 22:22 Anything blind, or injured, or maimed, or having a discharge or an itch or scabs— these you shall not offer to the LORD or put any of them on the altar as offerings by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 22:23 An ox or a lamb that has a limb too long or too short you may present for a freewill offering; but it will not be accepted for a vow.

Leviticus 22:24 Any animal that has its testicles bruised or crushed or torn or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD; such you shall not do within your land,

Leviticus 22:25 nor shall you accept any such animals from a foreigner to offer as food to your God; since they are mutilated, with a blemish in them, they shall not be accepted in your behalf.

Leviticus 22:26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 22:27 When an ox or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as the LORD’s offering by fire.

Leviticus 22:28 But you shall not slaughter, from the herd or the flock, an animal with its young on the same day.

Leviticus 22:29 When you sacrifice a thanksgiving offering to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that it may be acceptable in your behalf.

Leviticus 22:30 It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall not leave any of it until morning: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:31 Thus you shall keep my commandments and observe them: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:32 You shall not profane my holy name, that I may be sanctified among the people of Israel: I am the LORD; I sanctify you,

Leviticus 22:33 I who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 23:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 23:2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: These are the appointed festivals of the LORD that you shall proclaim as holy convocations, my appointed festivals.

Leviticus 23:3 Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is a sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no work: it is a sabbath to the LORD throughout your settlements.

Leviticus 23:4 These are the appointed festivals of the LORD, the holy convocations, which you shall celebrate at the time appointed for them.

Leviticus 23:5 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, there shall be a passover offering to the LORD, Leviticus 23:6 and on the fifteenth day of the same month is the festival of unleavened bread to the LORD; seven days you shall eat unleavened bread.

Leviticus 23:7 On the first day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

Leviticus 23:8 For seven days you shall present the LORD’s offerings by fire; on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation: you shall not work at your occupations.

Leviticus 23:9 The LORD spoke to Moses:

Leviticus 23:10 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you and you reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest.

Leviticus 23:11 He shall raise the sheaf before the LORD, that you may find acceptance; on the day after the sabbath the priest shall raise it.

Leviticus 23:12 On the day when you raise the sheaf, you shall offer a lamb a year old, without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:13 And the grain offering with it shall be two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with oil, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, one-fourth of a hin.

Leviticus 23:14 You shall eat no bread or parched grain or fresh ears until that very day, until you have brought the offering of your God: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your settlements.

Leviticus 23:15 And from the day after the sabbath, from the day on which you bring the sheaf of the elevation offering, you shall count off seven weeks; they shall be complete.

Leviticus 23:16 You shall count until the day after the seventh sabbath, fifty days; then you shall present an offering of new grain to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:17 You shall bring from your settlements two loaves of bread as an elevation offering, each made of two-tenths of an ephah; they shall be of choice flour, baked with leaven, as first fruits to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:18 You shall present with the bread seven lambs a year old without blemish, one young bull, and two rams; they shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, along with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering by fire of pleasing odor to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:19 You shall also offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old as a sacrifice of well-being.

Leviticus 23:20 The priest shall raise them with the bread of the first fruits as an elevation offering before the LORD, together with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

Leviticus 23:21 On that same day you shall make proclamation; you shall hold a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. This is a statute forever in all your settlements throughout your generations.

Leviticus 23:22 When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest; you shall leave them for the poor and for the alien: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:23 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 23:24 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of complete rest, a holy convocation commemorated with trumpet blasts.

Leviticus 23:25 You shall not work at your occupations; and you shall present the LORD's offering by fire.

Leviticus 23:26 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 23:27 Now, the tenth day of this seventh month is the day of atonement; it shall be a holy convocation for you: you shall deny yourselves and present the LORD's offering by fire;

Leviticus 23:28 and you shall do no work during that entire day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement on your behalf before the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:29 For anyone who does not practice self-denial during that entire day shall be cut off from the people.

Leviticus 23:30 And anyone who does any work during that entire day, such a one I will destroy from the midst of the people.

Leviticus 23:31 You shall do no work: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your settlements.

Leviticus 23:32 It shall be to you a sabbath of complete rest, and you shall deny yourselves; on the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening you shall keep your sabbath.

Leviticus 23:33 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 23:34 Speak to the people of Israel, saying: On the fifteenth day of this seventh month, and lasting seven days, there shall be the festival of booths to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:35 The first day shall be a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

Leviticus 23:36 Seven days you shall present the LORD's offerings by fire; on the eighth day you shall observe a holy convocation and present the LORD's offerings by fire; it is a solemn assembly; you shall not work at your occupations.

Leviticus 23:37 These are the appointed festivals of the LORD, which you shall celebrate as times of holy convocation, for presenting to the

Leviticus 23:38 apart from the sabbaths of the LORD, and apart from your gifts, and apart from all your votive offerings, and apart from all your freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:39 Now, the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep the festival of the LORD, lasting seven days; a complete rest on the first day, and a complete rest on the eighth day.

Leviticus 23:40 On the first day you shall take the fruit of majestic trees, branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

Leviticus 23:41 You shall keep it as a festival to the LORD seven days in the year; you shall keep it in the seventh month as a statute forever throughout your generations.

Leviticus 23:42 You shall live in booths for seven days; all that are citizens in Israel shall live in booths,

Leviticus 23:43 so that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:44 Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed festivals of the LORD.

Leviticus 24:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 24:2 Command the people of Israel to bring you pure oil of beaten olives for the lamp, that a light may be kept burning regularly.

Leviticus 24:3 Aaron shall set it up in the tent of meeting, outside the curtain of the covenant, to burn from evening to morning before the LORD regularly; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations.

Leviticus 24:4 He shall set up the lamps on the lampstand of pure gold before the LORD regularly.

Leviticus 24:5 You shall take choice flour, and bake twelve loaves of it; two-tenths of an ephah shall be in each loaf.

Leviticus 24:6 You shall place them in two rows, six in a row, on the table of pure gold.

Leviticus 24:7 You shall put pure frankincense with each row, to be a token offering for the bread, as an offering by fire to the LORD.

Leviticus 24:8 Every sabbath day Aaron shall set them in order before the LORD regularly as a commitment of the people of Israel, as a covenant forever.

Leviticus 24:9 They shall be for Aaron and his descendants, who shall eat them in a holy place, for they are most holy portions for him from the offerings by fire to the LORD, a perpetual due.

Leviticus 24:10 A man whose mother was an Israelite and whose father was an Egyptian came out among the people of Israel; and the Israelite woman's son and a certain Israelite began fighting in the camp.

Leviticus 24:11 The Israelite woman's son blasphemed the Name in a curse. And they brought him to Moses— now his mother's name was Shelomith, daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan—

Leviticus 24:12 and they put him in custody, until the decision of the LORD should be made clear to them.

Leviticus 24:13 The LORD said to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 24:14 Take the blasphemer outside the camp; and let all who were within hearing lay their hands on his head, and let the whole congregation stone him.

Leviticus 24:15 And speak to the people of Israel, saying: Anyone who curses God shall bear the sin.

Leviticus 24:16 One who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall be put to death; the whole congregation shall stone the blasphemer. Aliens as well as citizens, when they blaspheme the Name, shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:17 Anyone who kills a human being shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:18 Anyone who kills an animal shall make restitution for it, life for life.

Leviticus 24:19 Anyone who maims another shall suffer the same injury in return:

Leviticus 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; the injury inflicted is the injury to be suffered.

Leviticus 24:21 One who kills an animal shall make restitution for it; but one who kills a human being shall be put to death.

Leviticus 24:22 You shall have one law for the alien and for the citizen: for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 24:23 Moses spoke thus to the people of Israel; and they took the blasphemer outside the camp, and stoned him to death. The people of Israel did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25:1 The LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying:

Leviticus 25:2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you, the land shall observe a sabbath for the LORD.

Leviticus 25:3 Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in their yield;

Leviticus 25:4 but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of complete rest for the land, a sabbath for the LORD: you shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard.

Leviticus 25:5 You shall not reap the aftergrowth of your harvest or gather the grapes of your unpruned vine: it shall be a year of complete rest for the land.

Leviticus 25:6 You may eat what the land yields during its sabbath— you, your male and female slaves, your hired and your bound laborers who live with you;

Leviticus 25:7 for your livestock also, and for the wild animals in your land all its yield shall be for food.

Leviticus 25:8 You shall count off seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, so that the period of seven weeks of years gives forty-nine years.

Leviticus 25:9 Then you shall have the trumpet sounded loud; on the tenth day of the seventh month— on the day of atonement— you shall have the trumpet sounded throughout all your land.

Leviticus 25:10 And you shall hallow the fiftieth year and you shall proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you: you shall return, every one of you, to your property and every one of you to your family.

Leviticus 25:11 That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you: you shall not sow, or reap the aftergrowth, or harvest the unpruned vines.

Leviticus 25:12 For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you: you shall eat only what the field itself produces.

Leviticus 25:13 In this year of jubilee you shall return, every one of you, to your property.

Leviticus 25:14 When you make a sale to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor, you shall not cheat one another.

Leviticus 25:15 When you buy from your neighbor, you shall pay only for the number of years since the jubilee; the seller shall charge you only for the remaining crop years.

Leviticus 25:16 If the years are more, you shall increase the price, and if the years are fewer, you shall diminish the price; for it is a certain number of harvests that are being sold to you.

Leviticus 25:17 You shall not cheat one another, but you shall fear your God; for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 25:18 You shall observe my statutes and faithfully keep my ordinances, so that you may live on the land securely.

Leviticus 25:19 The land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live on it securely.

Leviticus 25:20 Should you ask, What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we may not sow or gather in our crop?

Leviticus 25:21 I will order my blessing for you in the sixth year, so that it will yield a crop for three years.

Leviticus 25:22 When you sow in the eighth year, you will be eating from the old crop; until the ninth year, when its produce comes in, you shall eat the old.

Leviticus 25:23 The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine; with me you are but aliens and tenants.

Leviticus 25:24 Throughout the land that you hold, you shall provide for the redemption of the land.

Leviticus 25:25 If anyone of your kin falls into difficulty and sells a piece of property, then the next of kin shall come and redeem what the relative has sold.

Leviticus 25:26 If the person has no one to redeem it, but then prospers and finds sufficient means to do so,

Leviticus 25:27 the years since its sale shall be computed and the difference shall be refunded to the person to whom it was sold, and the property shall be returned.

Leviticus 25:28 But if there is not sufficient means to recover it, what was sold shall remain with the purchaser until the year of jubilee; in the jubilee it shall be released, and the property shall be returned.

Leviticus 25:29 If anyone sells a dwelling house in a walled city, it may be redeemed until a year has elapsed since its sale; the right of redemption shall be one year.

Leviticus 25:30 If it is not redeemed before a full year has elapsed, a house that is in a walled city shall pass in perpetuity to the purchaser, throughout the generations; it shall not be released in the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:31 But houses in villages that have no walls around them shall be classed as open country; they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:32 As for the cities of the Levites, the Levites shall forever have the right of redemption of the houses in the cities belonging to them.

Leviticus 25:33 Such property as may be redeemed from the Levites— houses sold in a city belonging to them— shall be released in the jubilee; because the houses in the cities of the Levites are their possession among the people of Israel.

Leviticus 25:34 But the open land around their cities may not be sold; for that is their possession for all time.

Leviticus 25:35 If any of your kin fall into difficulty and become dependent on you, you shall support them; they shall live with you as though resident aliens.

Leviticus 25:36 Do not take interest in advance or otherwise make a profit from them, but fear your God; let them live with you.

Leviticus 25:37 You shall not lend them your money at interest taken in advance, or provide them food at a profit.

Leviticus 25:38 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.

Leviticus 25:39 If any who are dependent on you become so impoverished that they sell themselves to you, you shall not make them serve as slaves.

Leviticus 25:40 They shall remain with you as hired or bound laborers. They shall serve with you until the year of the jubilee.

Leviticus 25:41 Then they and their children with them shall be free from your authority; they shall go back to their own family and return to their ancestral property.

Leviticus 25:42 For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt; they shall not be sold as slaves are sold.

Leviticus 25:43 You shall not rule over them with harshness, but shall fear your God.

Leviticus 25:44 As for the male and female slaves whom you may have, it is from the nations around you that you may acquire male and female slaves.

Leviticus 25:45 You may also acquire them from among the aliens residing with you, and from their families that are with you, who have been born in your land; and they may be your property.

Leviticus 25:46 You may keep them as a possession for your children after you, for them to inherit as property. These you may treat as slaves, but as for your fellow Israelites, no one shall rule over the other with harshness.

Leviticus 25:47 If resident aliens among you prosper, and if any of your kin fall into difficulty with one of them and sell themselves to an alien, or to a branch of the alien’s family,

Leviticus 25:48 after they have sold themselves they shall have the right of redemption; one of their brothers may redeem them,

Leviticus 25:49 or their uncle or their uncle’s son may redeem them, or anyone of their family who is of their own flesh may redeem them; or if they prosper they may redeem themselves.

Leviticus 25:50 They shall compute with the purchaser the total from the year when they sold themselves to the alien until the jubilee year; the price of the sale shall be applied to the number of years: the time they were with the owner shall be rated as the time of a hired laborer.

Leviticus 25:51 If many years remain, they shall pay for their redemption in proportion to the purchase price;

Leviticus 25:52 and if few years remain until the jubilee year, they shall compute thus: according to the years involved they shall make payment for their redemption.

Leviticus 25:53 As a laborer hired by the year they shall be under the alien’s authority, who shall not, however, rule with harshness over them in your sight.

Leviticus 25:54 And if they have not been redeemed in any of these ways, they and their children with them shall go free in the jubilee year.

Leviticus 25:55 For to me the people of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought out from the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:1 You shall make for yourselves no idols and erect no carved images or pillars, and you shall not place figured stones in your land, to worship at them; for I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:2 You shall keep my sabbaths and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 26:3 If you follow my statutes and keep my commandments and observe them faithfully,

Leviticus 26:4 I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:5 Your threshing shall overtake the vintage, and the vintage shall overtake the sowing; you shall eat your bread to the full, and live securely in your land.

Leviticus 26:6 And I will grant peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one shall make you afraid; I will remove dangerous animals from the land, and no sword shall go through your land.

Leviticus 26:7 You shall give chase to your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

Leviticus 26:8 Five of you shall give chase to a hundred, and a hundred of you shall give chase to ten thousand; your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

Leviticus 26:9 I will look with favor upon you and make you fruitful and multiply you; and I will maintain my covenant with you.

Leviticus 26:10 You shall eat old grain long stored, and you shall have to clear out the old to make way for the new.

Leviticus 26:11 I will place my dwelling in your midst, and I shall not abhor you.

Leviticus 26:12 And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you shall be my people.

Leviticus 26:13 I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be their slaves no more; I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.

Leviticus 26:14 But if you will not obey me, and do not observe all these commandments,

Leviticus 26:15 if you spurn my statutes, and abhor my ordinances, so that you will not observe all my commandments, and you break my covenant,

Leviticus 26:16 I in turn will do this to you: I will bring terror on you; consumption and fever that waste the eyes and cause life to pine away. You shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

Leviticus 26:17 I will set my face against you, and you shall be struck down by your enemies; your foes shall rule over you, and you shall flee though no one pursues you.

Leviticus 26:18 And if in spite of this you will not obey me, I will continue to punish you sevenfold for your sins.

Leviticus 26:19 I will break your proud glory, and I will make your sky like iron and your earth like copper.

Leviticus 26:20 Your strength shall be spent to no purpose: your land shall not yield its produce, and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:21 If you continue hostile to me, and will not obey me, I will continue to plague you sevenfold for your sins.

Leviticus 26:22 I will let loose wild animals against you, and they shall bereave you of your children and destroy your livestock; they shall make you few in number, and your roads shall be deserted.

Leviticus 26:23 If in spite of these punishments you have not turned back to me, but continue hostile to me,

Leviticus 26:24 then I too will continue hostile to you: I myself will strike you sevenfold for your sins.

Leviticus 26:25 I will bring the sword against you, executing vengeance for the covenant; and if you withdraw within your cities, I will send pestilence among you, and you shall be delivered into enemy hands.

Leviticus 26:26 When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in a single oven, and they shall dole out your bread by weight; and though you eat, you shall not be satisfied.

Leviticus 26:27 But if, despite this, you disobey me, and continue hostile to me, Leviticus 26:28 I will continue hostile to you in fury; I in turn will punish you myself sevenfold for your sins.

Leviticus 26:29 You shall eat the flesh of your sons, and you shall eat the flesh of your daughters.

Leviticus 26:30 I will destroy your high places and cut down your incense altars; I will heap your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols. I will abhor you.

Leviticus 26:31 I will lay your cities waste, will make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell your pleasing odors.

Leviticus 26:32 I will devastate the land, so that your enemies who come to settle in it shall be appalled at it.

Leviticus 26:33 And you I will scatter among the nations, and I will unsheathe the sword against you; your land shall be a desolation, and your cities a waste.

Leviticus 26:34 Then the land shall enjoy its sabbath years as long as it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies; then the land shall rest, and enjoy its sabbath years.

Leviticus 26:35 As long as it lies desolate, it shall have the rest it did not have on your sabbaths when you were living on it.

Leviticus 26:36 And as for those of you who survive, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a driven leaf shall put them to flight, and they shall flee as one flees from the sword, and they shall fall though no one pursues.

Leviticus 26:37 They shall stumble over one another, as if to escape a sword, though no one pursues; and you shall have no power to stand against your enemies.

Leviticus 26:38 You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall devour you.

Leviticus 26:39 And those of you who survive shall languish in the land of your enemies because of their iniquities; also they shall languish because of the iniquities of their ancestors.

Leviticus 26:40 But if they confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their ancestors, in that they committed treachery against me and, moreover, that they continued hostile to me—

Leviticus 26:41 so that I, in turn, continued hostile to them and brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled and they make amends for their iniquity,

Leviticus 26:42 then will I remember my covenant with Jacob; I will remember also my covenant with Isaac and also my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

Leviticus 26:43 For the land shall be deserted by them, and enjoy its sabbath years by lying desolate without them, while they shall make amends for their iniquity, because they dared to spurn my ordinances, and they abhorred my statutes.

Leviticus 26:44 Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not spurn them, or abhor them so as to destroy them utterly and break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God;

Leviticus 26:45 but I will remember in their favor the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, to be their God: I am the LORD.

Leviticus 26:46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws that the LORD established between himself and the people of Israel on Mount Sinai through Moses.

Leviticus 27:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Leviticus 27:2 Speak to the people of Israel and say to them: When a person makes an explicit vow to the LORD concerning the equivalent for a human being,

Leviticus 27:3 the equivalent for a male shall be: from twenty to sixty years of age the equivalent shall be fifty shekels of silver by the sanctuary shekel.

Leviticus 27:4 If the person is a female, the equivalent is thirty shekels.

Leviticus 27:5 If the age is from five to twenty years of age, the equivalent is twenty shekels for a male and ten shekels for a female.

Leviticus 27:6 If the age is from one month to five years, the equivalent for a male is five shekels of silver, and for a female the equivalent is three shekels of silver.

Leviticus 27:7 And if the person is sixty years old or over, then the equivalent for a male is fifteen shekels, and for a female ten shekels.

Leviticus 27:8 If any cannot afford the equivalent, they shall be brought before the priest and the priest shall assess them; the priest shall assess them according to what each one making a vow can afford.

Leviticus 27:9 If it concerns an animal that may be brought as an offering to the LORD, any such that may be given to the LORD shall be holy.

Leviticus 27:10 Another shall not be exchanged or substituted for it, either good for bad or bad for good; and if one animal is substituted for another, both that one and its substitute shall be holy.

Leviticus 27:11 If it concerns any unclean animal that may not be brought as an offering to the LORD, the animal shall be presented before the priest.

Leviticus 27:12 The priest shall assess it: whether good or bad, according to the assessment of the priest, so it shall be.

Leviticus 27:13 But if it is to be redeemed, one-fifth must be added to the assessment.

Leviticus 27:14 If a person consecrates a house to the LORD, the priest shall assess it: whether good or bad, as the priest assesses it, so it shall stand.

Leviticus 27:15 And if the one who consecrates the house wishes to redeem it, one-fifth shall be added to its assessed value, and it shall revert to the original owner.

Leviticus 27:16 If a person consecrates to the LORD any inherited landholding, its assessment shall be in accordance with its seed requirements: fifty shekels of silver to a homer of barley seed.

Leviticus 27:17 If the person consecrates the field as of the year of jubilee, that assessment shall stand;

Leviticus 27:18 but if the field is consecrated after the jubilee, the priest shall compute the price for it according to the years that remain until the year of jubilee, and the assessment shall be reduced.

Leviticus 27:19 And if the one who consecrates the field wishes to redeem it, then one-fifth shall be added to its assessed value, and it shall revert to the original owner;

Leviticus 27:20 but if the field is not redeemed, or if it has been sold to someone else, it shall no longer be redeemable.

Leviticus 27:21 But when the field is released in the jubilee, it shall be holy to the LORD as a devoted field; it becomes the priest's holding.

Leviticus 27:22 If someone consecrates to the LORD a field that has been purchased, which is not a part of the inherited landholding,

Leviticus 27:23 the priest shall compute for it the proportionate assessment up to the year of jubilee, and the assessment shall be paid as of that day, a sacred donation to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:24 In the year of jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom it was bought, whose holding the land is.

Leviticus 27:25 All assessments shall be by the sanctuary shekel: twenty gerahs shall make a shekel.

Leviticus 27:26 A firstling of animals, however, which as a firstling belongs to the LORD, cannot be consecrated by anyone; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's.

Leviticus 27:27 If it is an unclean animal, it shall be ransomed at its assessment, with one-fifth added; if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at its assessment.

Leviticus 27:28 Nothing that a person owns that has been devoted to destruction for the LORD, be it human or animal, or inherited landholding, may be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:29 No human beings who have been devoted to destruction can be ransomed; they shall be put to death.

Leviticus 27:30 All tithes from the land, whether the seed from the ground or the fruit from the tree, are the LORD's; they are holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:31 If persons wish to redeem any of their tithes, they must add one-fifth to them.

Leviticus 27:32 All tithes of herd and flock, every tenth one that passes under the shepherd's staff, shall be holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:33 Let no one inquire whether it is good or bad, or make substitution for it; if one makes substitution for it, then both it and the substitute shall be holy and cannot be redeemed.

Leviticus 27:34 These are the commandments that the LORD gave to Moses for the people of Israel on Mount Sinai.

Numbers

1:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tent of meeting, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

Numbers 1:2 Take a census of the whole congregation of Israelites, in their clans, by ancestral houses, according to the number of names, every male individually;

Numbers 1:3 from twenty years old and upward, everyone in Israel able to go to war. You and Aaron shall enroll them, company by company.

Numbers 1:4 A man from each tribe shall be with you, each man the head of his ancestral house.

Numbers 1:5 These are the names of the men who shall assist you: From Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur.

Numbers 1:9 From Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon.

Numbers 1:10 From the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 1:13 From Asher, Pagiel son of Ochran.

Numbers 1:15 From Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan.

Numbers 1:16 These were the ones chosen from the congregation, the leaders of their ancestral tribes, the heads of the divisions of Israel.

Numbers 1:17 Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name,

Numbers 1:18 and on the first day of the second month they assembled the whole congregation together. They registered themselves in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names from twenty years old and upward, individually, Numbers 1:19 as the LORD commanded Moses. So he enrolled them in the wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 1:20 The descendants of Reuben, Israel's firstborn, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, individually, every male from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:21 those enrolled of the tribe of Reuben were forty-six thousand five hundred.

Numbers 1:22 The descendants of Simeon, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, those of them that were numbered, according to the number of names, individually, every male from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:23 those enrolled of the tribe of Simeon were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Numbers 1:24 The descendants of Gad, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:25 those enrolled of the tribe of Gad were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

Numbers 1:26 The descendants of Judah, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:27 those enrolled of the tribe of Judah were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Numbers 1:28 The descendants of Issachar, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:29 those enrolled of the tribe of Issachar were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:30 The descendants of Zebulun, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:31 those enrolled of the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:32 The descendants of Joseph, namely, the descendants of Ephraim, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:33 those enrolled of the tribe of Ephraim were forty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 1:34 The descendants of Manasseh, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:35 those enrolled of the tribe of Manasseh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Numbers 1:36 The descendants of Benjamin, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:37 those enrolled of the tribe of Benjamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:38 The descendants of Dan, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:39 those enrolled of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Numbers 1:40 The descendants of Asher, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:41 those enrolled of the tribe of Asher were forty-one thousand five hundred.

Numbers 1:42 The descendants of Naphtali, their lineage, in their clans, by their ancestral houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war:

Numbers 1:43 those enrolled of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Numbers 1:44 These are those who were enrolled, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled with the help of the leaders of Israel, twelve men, each representing his ancestral house.

Numbers 1:45 So the whole number of the Israelites, by their ancestral houses, from twenty years old and upward, everyone able to go to war in Israel—

Numbers 1:46 their whole number was six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

Numbers 1:47 The Levites, however, were not numbered by their ancestral tribe along with them.

Numbers 1:48 The LORD had said to Moses:

Numbers 1:49 Only the tribe of Levi you shall not enroll, and you shall not take a census of them with the other Israelites.

Numbers 1:50 Rather you shall appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the covenant, and over all its equipment, and over all that belongs to it; they are to carry the tabernacle and all its equipment, and they shall tend it, and shall camp around the tabernacle.

Numbers 1:51 When the tabernacle is to set out, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up. And any outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

Numbers 1:52 The other Israelites shall camp in their respective regimental camps, by companies;

Numbers 1:53 but the Levites shall camp around the tabernacle of the covenant, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the Israelites; and the Levites shall perform the guard duty of the tabernacle of the covenant.

Numbers 1:54 The Israelites did so; they did just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 2:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 2:2 The Israelites shall camp each in their respective regiments, under ensigns by their ancestral houses; they shall camp facing the tent of meeting on every side.

Numbers 2:3 Those to camp on the east side toward the sunrise shall be of the regimental encampment of Judah by companies. The leader of the people of Judah shall be Nahshon son of Amminadab, Numbers 2:4 with a company as enrolled of seventy-four thousand six hundred.

Numbers 2:5 Those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar. The leader of the Issacharites shall be Nethanel son of Zuar, Numbers 2:6 with a company as enrolled of fifty-four thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: The leader of the Zebulunites shall be Eliab son of Helon, Numbers 2:8 with a company as enrolled of fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:9 The total enrollment of the camp of Judah, by companies, is one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred. They shall set out first on the march.

Numbers 2:10 On the south side shall be the regimental encampment of Reuben by companies. The leader of the Reubenites shall be Elizur son of Shedeur, Numbers 2:11 with a company as enrolled of forty-six thousand five hundred.

Numbers 2:12 And those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon. The leader of the Simeonites shall be Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, Numbers 2:13 with a company as enrolled of fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

Numbers 2:14 Then the tribe of Gad: The leader of the Gadites shall be Eliasaph son of Reuel, Numbers 2:15 with a company as enrolled of forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

Numbers 2:16 The total enrollment of the camp of Reuben, by companies, is one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty. They shall set out second.

Numbers 2:17 The tent of meeting, with the camp of the Levites, shall set out in the center of the camps; they shall set out just as they camp, each in position, by their regiments.

Numbers 2:18 On the west side shall be the regimental encampment of Ephraim by companies. The leader of the people of Ephraim shall be Elishama son of Ammihud, Numbers 2:19 with a company as enrolled of forty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 2:20 Next to him shall be the tribe of Manasseh. The leader of the people of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, Numbers 2:21 with a company as enrolled of thirty-two thousand two hundred.

Numbers 2:22 Then the tribe of Benjamin: The leader of the Benjaminites shall be Abidan son of Gideoni, Numbers 2:23 with a company as enrolled of thirty-five thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:24 The total enrollment of the camp of Ephraim, by companies, is one hundred eight thousand one hundred. They shall set out third on the march.

Numbers 2:25 On the north side shall be the regimental encampment of Dan by companies. The leader of the Danites shall be Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, Numbers 2:26 with a company as enrolled of sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

Numbers 2:27 Those to camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher. The leader of the Asherites shall be Pagiel son of Ochran, Numbers 2:28 with a company as enrolled of forty-one thousand five hundred.

Numbers 2:29 Then the tribe of Naphtali: The leader of the Naphtalites shall be Ahira son of Enan, Numbers 2:30 with a company as enrolled of fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Numbers 2:31 The total enrollment of the camp of Dan is one hundred fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set out last, by companies.

Numbers 2:32 This was the enrollment of the Israelites by their ancestral houses; the total enrollment in the camps by their companies was six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

Numbers 2:33 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, the Levites were not enrolled among the other Israelites.

Numbers 2:34 The Israelites did just as the LORD had commanded Moses: They camped by regiments, and they set out the same way, everyone by clans, according to ancestral houses.

Numbers 3:1 This is the lineage of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai.

Numbers 3:2 These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;

Numbers 3:3 these are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, whom he ordained to minister as priests.

Numbers 3:4 Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they offered illicit fire before the LORD in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests in the lifetime of their father Aaron.

Numbers 3:5 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 3:6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and set them before Aaron the priest, so that they may assist him.

Numbers 3:7 They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation in front of the tent of meeting, doing service at the tabernacle;

Numbers 3:8 they shall be in charge of all the furnishings of the tent of meeting, and attend to the duties for the Israelites as they do service at the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:9 You shall give the Levites to Aaron and his descendants; they are unreservedly given to him from among the Israelites.

Numbers 3:10 But you shall make a register of Aaron and his descendants; it is they who shall attend to the priesthood, and any outsider who comes near shall be put to death.

Numbers 3:11 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 3:12 I hereby accept the Levites from among the Israelites as substitutes for all the firstborn that open the womb among the Israelites. The Levites shall be mine, Numbers 3:13 for all the firstborn are mine; when I killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated for my own all the firstborn in Israel, both human and animal; they shall be mine. I am the LORD.

Numbers 3:14 Then the LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying:

Numbers 3:15 Enroll the Levites by ancestral houses and by clans. You shall enroll every male from a month old and upward.

Numbers 3:16 So Moses enrolled them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

Numbers 3:20 The sons of Merari by their clans: Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Levites, by their ancestral houses.

Numbers 3:21 To Gershon belonged the clan of the Libnites and the clan of the Shimeites; these were the clans of the Gershonites.

Numbers 3:22 Their enrollment, counting all the males from a month old and upward, was seven thousand five hundred.

Numbers 3:23 The clans of the Gershonites were to camp behind the tabernacle on the west,

Numbers 3:24 with Eliasaph son of Lael as head of the ancestral house of the Gershonites.

Numbers 3:25 The responsibility of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting was to be the tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 3:26 the hangings of the court, the screen for the entrance of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords—all the service pertaining to these.

Numbers 3:27 To Kohath belonged the clan of the Amramites, the clan of the Izharites, the clan of the Hebronites, and the clan of the Uzzielites; these are the clans of the Kohathites.

Numbers 3:28 Counting all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, attending to the duties of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:29 The clans of the Kohathites were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle, Numbers 3:30 with Elizaphan son of Uzziel as head of the ancestral house of the clans of the Kohathites.

Numbers 3:31 Their responsibility was to be the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which the priests minister, and the screen— all the service pertaining to these.

Numbers 3:32 Eleazar son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites, and to have oversight of those who had charge of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:33 To Merari belonged the clan of the Mahlites and the clan of the Mushites: these are the clans of Merari.

Numbers 3:34 Their enrollment, counting all the males from a month old and upward, was six thousand two hundred.

Numbers 3:35 The head of the ancestral house of the clans of Merari was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:36 The responsibility assigned to the sons of Merari was to be the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the bases, and all their accessories— all the service pertaining to these;

Numbers 3:37 also the pillars of the court all around, with their bases and pegs and cords.

Numbers 3:38 Those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle on the east— in front of the tent of meeting toward the east— were Moses and Aaron and Aaron's sons, having charge of the rites within the sanctuary, whatever had to be done for the Israelites; and any outsider who came near was to be put to death.

Numbers 3:39 The total enrollment of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron enrolled at the commandment of the LORD, by their clans, all the males from a month old and upward, was twenty-two thousand.

Numbers 3:40 Then the LORD said to Moses: Enroll all the firstborn males of the Israelites, from a month old and upward, and count their names.

Numbers 3:41 But you shall accept the Levites for me— I am the LORD— as substitutes for all the firstborn among the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for all the firstborn among the livestock of the Israelites.

Numbers 3:42 So Moses enrolled all the firstborn among the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him.

Numbers 3:43 The total enrollment, all the firstborn males from a month old and upward, counting the number of names, was twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

Numbers 3:44 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 3:45 Accept the Levites as substitutes for all the firstborn among the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for their livestock; and the Levites shall be mine. I am the LORD.

Numbers 3:46 As the price of redemption of the two hundred seventy-three of the firstborn of the Israelites, over and above the number of the Levites,

Numbers 3:47 you shall accept five shekels apiece, reckoning by the shekel of the sanctuary, a shekel of twenty gerahs.

Numbers 3:48 Give to Aaron and his sons the money by which the excess number of them is redeemed.

Numbers 3:49 So Moses took the redemption money from those who were over and above those redeemed by the Levites;

Numbers 3:50 from the firstborn of the Israelites he took the money, one thousand three hundred sixty-five shekels, reckoned by the shekel of the sanctuary;

Numbers 3:51 and Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 4:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 4:2 Take a census of the Kohathites separate from the other Levites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,

Numbers 4:3 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, all who qualify to do work relating to the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:4 The service of the Kohathites relating to the tent of meeting concerns the most holy things.

Numbers 4:5 When the camp is to set out, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the screening curtain, and cover the ark of the covenant with it;

Numbers 4:6 then they shall put on it a covering of fine leather, and spread over that a cloth all of blue, and shall put its poles in place.

Numbers 4:7 Over the table of the bread of the Presence they shall spread a blue cloth, and put on it the plates, the dishes for incense, the bowls, and the flagons for the drink offering; the regular bread also shall be on it;

Numbers 4:8 then they shall spread over them a crimson cloth, and cover it with a covering of fine leather, and shall put its poles in place.

Numbers 4:9 They shall take a blue cloth, and cover the lampstand for the light, with its lamps, its snuffers, its trays, and all the vessels for oil with which it is supplied;

Numbers 4:10 and they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of fine leather, and put it on the carrying frame.

Numbers 4:11 Over the golden altar they shall spread a blue cloth, and cover it with a covering of fine leather, and shall put its poles in place;

Numbers 4:12 and they shall take all the utensils of the service that are used in the sanctuary, and put them in a blue cloth, and cover them with a covering of fine leather, and put them on the carrying frame.

Numbers 4:13 They shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth over it;

Numbers 4:14 and they shall put on it all the utensils of the altar, which are used for the service there, the firepans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of fine leather, and shall put its poles in place.

Numbers 4:15 When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary and all the furnishings of the sanctuary, as the camp sets out, after that the Kohathites shall come to carry these, but they must not touch the holy things, or they will die. These are the things of the tent of meeting that the Kohathites are to carry.

Numbers 4:16 Eleazar son of Aaron the priest shall have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil, the oversight of all the tabernacle and all that is in it, in the sanctuary and in its utensils.

Numbers 4:17 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 4:18 You must not let the tribe of the clans of the Kohathites be destroyed from among the Levites.

Numbers 4:19 This is how you must deal with them in order that they may live and not die when they come near to the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign each to a particular task or burden.

Numbers 4:20 But the Kohathites must not go in to look on the holy things even for a moment; otherwise they will die.

Numbers 4:21 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 4:22 Take a census of the Gershonites also, by their ancestral houses and by their clans;

Numbers 4:23 from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall enroll them, all who qualify to do work in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:24 This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites, in serving and bearing burdens:

Numbers 4:25 They shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tent of meeting with its covering, and the outer covering of fine leather that is on top of it, and the screen for the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:26 and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the entrance of the gate of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and their cords, and all the equipment for their service; and they shall do all that needs to be done with regard to them.

Numbers 4:27 All the service of the Gershonites shall be at the command of Aaron and his sons, in all that they are to carry, and in all that they have to do; and you shall assign to their charge all that they are to carry.

Numbers 4:28 This is the service of the clans of the Gershonites relating to the tent of meeting, and their responsibilities are to be under the oversight of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 4:29 As for the Merarites, you shall enroll them by their clans and their ancestral houses;

Numbers 4:30 from thirty years old up to fifty years old you shall enroll them, everyone who qualifies to do the work of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 4:31 This is what they are charged to carry, as the whole of their service in the tent of meeting: the frames of the tabernacle, with its bars, pillars, and bases,

Numbers 4:32 and the pillars of the court all around with their bases, pegs, and cords, with all their equipment and all their related service; and you shall assign by name the objects that they are required to carry.

Numbers 4:33 This is the service of the clans of the Merarites, the whole of their service relating to the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 4:34 So Moses and Aaron and the leaders of the congregation enrolled the Kohathites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,

Numbers 4:35 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting;

Numbers 4:36 and their enrollment by clans was two thousand seven hundred fifty.

Numbers 4:37 This was the enrollment of the clans of the Kohathites, all who served at the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

Numbers 4:38 The enrollment of the Gershonites, by their clans and their ancestral houses,

Numbers 4:39 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting—

Numbers 4:40 their enrollment by their clans and their ancestral houses was two thousand six hundred thirty.

Numbers 4:41 This was the enrollment of the clans of the Gershonites, all who served at the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD.

Numbers 4:42 The enrollment of the clans of the Merarites, by their clans and their ancestral houses, Numbers 4:43 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified for work relating to the tent of meeting—

Numbers 4:44 their enrollment by their clans was three thousand two hundred.

Numbers 4:45 This is the enrollment of the clans of the Merarites, whom Moses and Aaron enrolled according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

Numbers 4:46 All those who were enrolled of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the leaders of Israel enrolled, by their clans and their ancestral houses,

Numbers 4:47 from thirty years old up to fifty years old, everyone who qualified to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens relating to the tent of meeting,

Numbers 4:48 their enrollment was eight thousand five hundred eighty.

Numbers 4:49 According to the commandment of the LORD through Moses they were appointed to their several tasks of serving or carrying; thus they were enrolled by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 5:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 5:2 Command the Israelites to put out of the camp everyone who is leprous, or has a discharge, and everyone who is unclean through contact with a corpse;

Numbers 5:3 you shall put out both male and female, putting them outside the camp; they must not defile their camp, where I dwell among them.

Numbers 5:4 The Israelites did so, putting them outside the camp; as the LORD had spoken to Moses, so the Israelites did.

Numbers 5:5 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 5:6 Speak to the Israelites: When a man or a woman wrongs another, breaking faith with the LORD, that person incurs guilt

Numbers 5:7 and shall confess the sin that has been committed. The person shall make full restitution for the wrong, adding one fifth to it, and giving it to the one who was wronged.

Numbers 5:8 If the injured party has no next of kin to whom restitution may be made for the wrong, the restitution for wrong shall go to the LORD for the priest, in addition to the ram of atonement with which atonement is made for the guilty party.

Numbers 5:9 Among all the sacred donations of the Israelites, every gift that they bring to the priest shall be his.

Numbers 5:10 The sacred donations of all are their own; whatever anyone gives to the priest shall be his.

Numbers 5:11 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 5:12 Speak to the Israelites and say to them: If any man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him,

Numbers 5:13 if a man has had intercourse with her but it is hidden from her husband, so that she is undetected though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her since she was not caught in the act;

Numbers 5:14 if a spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself; or if a spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself;

Numbers 5:15 then the man shall bring his wife to the priest. And he shall bring the offering required for her, one-tenth of an ephah of barley flour. He shall pour no oil on it and put no frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

Numbers 5:16 Then the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD;

Numbers 5:17 the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water.

Numbers 5:18 The priest shall set the woman before the LORD, dishevel the woman's hair, and place in her hands the grain offering of remembrance, which is the grain offering of jealousy. In his own hand the priest shall have the water of bitterness that brings the curse.

Numbers 5:19 Then the priest shall make her take an oath, saying, "If no man has lain with you, if you have not turned aside to uncleanness while under your husband's authority, be immune to this water of bitterness that brings the curse.

Numbers 5:20 But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority, if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has had intercourse with you,"

Numbers 5:21 —let the priest make the woman take the oath of the curse and say to the woman— "the LORD make you an execration and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your uterus drop, your womb discharge; Numbers 5:22 now may this water that brings the curse enter your bowels and make your womb discharge, your uterus drop!" And the woman shall say, "Amen. Amen."

Numbers 5:23 Then the priest shall put these curses in writing, and wash them off into the water of bitterness.

Numbers 5:24 He shall make the woman drink the water of bitterness that brings the curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her and cause bitter pain.

Numbers 5:25 The priest shall take the grain offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand, and shall elevate the grain offering before the LORD and bring it to the altar;

Numbers 5:26 and the priest shall take a handful of the grain offering, as its memorial portion, and turn it into smoke on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water.

Numbers 5:27 When he has made her drink the water, then, if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings the curse shall enter into her and cause bitter pain, and her womb shall discharge, her uterus drop, and the woman shall become an execration among her people.

Numbers 5:28 But if the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, then she shall be immune and be able to conceive children.

Numbers 5:29 This is the law in cases of jealousy, when a wife, while under her husband's authority, goes astray and defiles herself,

Numbers 5:30 or when a spirit of jealousy comes on a man and he is jealous of his wife; then he shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall apply this entire law to her.

Numbers 5:31 The man shall be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity.

Numbers 6:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 6:2 Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When either men or women make a special vow, the vow of a nazirite, to separate themselves to the LORD,

Numbers 6:3 they shall separate themselves from wine and strong drink; they shall drink no wine vinegar or other vinegar, and shall not drink any grape juice or eat grapes, fresh or dried.

Numbers 6:4 All their days as nazirites they shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins.

Numbers 6:5 All the days of their nazirite vow no razor shall come upon the head; until the time is completed for which they separate themselves to the LORD, they shall be holy; they shall let the locks of the head grow long.

Numbers 6:6 All the days that they separate themselves to the LORD they shall not go near a corpse.

Numbers 6:7 Even if their father or mother, brother or sister, should die, they may not defile themselves; because their consecration to God is upon the head.

Numbers 6:8 All their days as nazirites they are holy to the LORD.

Numbers 6:9 If someone dies very suddenly nearby, defiling the consecrated head, then they shall shave the head on the day of their cleansing; on the seventh day they shall shave it.

Numbers 6:10 On the eighth day they shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 6:11 and the priest shall offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and make atonement for them, because they incurred guilt by reason of the corpse. They shall sanctify the head that same day,

Numbers 6:12 and separate themselves to the LORD for their days as nazirites, and bring a male lamb a year old as a guilt offering. The former time shall be void, because the consecrated head was defiled.

Numbers 6:13 This is the law for the nazirites when the time of their consecration has been completed: they shall be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 6:14 and they shall offer their gift to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish as a burnt offering, one ewe lamb a year old without blemish as a sin offering, one ram without blemish as an offering of well-being,

Numbers 6:15 and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of choice flour mixed with oil and unleavened wafers spread with oil, with their grain offering and their drink offerings.

Numbers 6:16 The priest shall present them before the LORD and offer their sin offering and burnt offering,

Numbers 6:17 and shall offer the ram as a sacrifice of well-being to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest also shall make the accompanying grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 6:18 Then the nazirites shall shave the consecrated head at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and shall take the hair from the consecrated head and put it on the fire under the sacrifice of well-being.

Numbers 6:19 The priest shall take the shoulder of the ram, when it is boiled, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them in the palms of the nazirites, after they have shaved the consecrated head.

Numbers 6:20 Then the priest shall elevate them as an elevation offering before the LORD; they are a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast that is elevated and the thigh that is offered. After that the nazirites may drink wine.

Numbers 6:21 This is the law for the nazirites who take a vow. Their offering to the LORD must be in accordance with the nazirite vow, apart from what else they can afford. In accordance with whatever vow they take, so they shall do, following the law for their consecration.

Numbers 6:22 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 6:23 Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, Thus you shall bless the Israelites: You shall say to them,

Numbers 6:24 The LORD bless you and keep you;

Numbers 6:25 the LORD make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you;

Numbers 6:26 the LORD lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

Numbers 6:27 So they shall put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.

Numbers 7:1 On the day when Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed and consecrated it with all its furnishings, and had anointed and consecrated the altar with all its utensils,

Numbers 7:2 the leaders of Israel, heads of their ancestral houses, the leaders of the tribes, who were over those who were enrolled, made offerings.

Numbers 7:3 They brought their offerings before the LORD, six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one an ox; they presented them before the tabernacle.

Numbers 7:4 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Numbers 7:5 Accept these from them, that they may be used in doing the service of the tent of meeting, and give them to the Levites, to each according to his service.

Numbers 7:6 So Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them to the Levites.

Numbers 7:7 Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the Gershonites, according to their service;

Numbers 7:8 and four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the Merarites, according to their service, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the priest.

Numbers 7:9 But to the Kohathites he gave none, because they were charged with the care of the holy things that had to be carried on the shoulders.

Numbers 7:10 The leaders also presented offerings for the dedication of the altar at the time when it was anointed; the leaders presented their offering before the altar.

Numbers 7:11 The LORD said to Moses: They shall present their offerings, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.

Numbers 7:12 The one who presented his offering the first day was Nahshon son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah;

Numbers 7:13 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:14 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:15 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:16 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:17 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Numbers 7:18 On the second day Nethanel son of Zuar, the leader of Issachar, presented an offering;

Numbers 7:19 he presented for his offering one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:20 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:21 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:22 one male goat as a sin offering;

Numbers 7:23 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethanel son of Zuar.

Numbers 7:24 On the third day Eliab son of Helon, the leader of the Zebulunites:

Numbers 7:25 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:26 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:27 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:28 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:29 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

Numbers 7:30 On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur, the leader of the Reubenites:

Numbers 7:31 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:32 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:33 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:34 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:35 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

Numbers 7:36 On the fifth day Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, the leader of the Simeonites:

Numbers 7:37 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:38 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:39 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:40 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:41 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 7:42 On the sixth day Eliasaph son of Deuel, the leader of the Gadites:

Numbers 7:43 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:44 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:45 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:46 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:47 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

Numbers 7:48 On the seventh day Elishama son of Ammihud, the leader of the Ephraimites:

Numbers 7:49 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:50 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:51 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:52 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:53 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

Numbers 7:54 On the eighth day Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, the leader of the Manassites:

Numbers 7:55 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:56 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:57 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:58 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:59 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 7:60 On the ninth day Abidan son of Gideoni, the leader of the Benjaminites:

Numbers 7:61 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:62 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:63 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:64 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:65 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

Numbers 7:66 On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, the leader of the Danites:

Numbers 7:67 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:68 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:69 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:70 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:71 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 7:72 On the eleventh day Pagiel son of Ochran, the leader of the Asherites:

Numbers 7:73 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:74 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:75 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:76 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:77 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ochran.

Numbers 7:78 On the twelfth day Ahira son of Enan, the leader of the Naphtalites:

Numbers 7:79 his offering was one silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels, one silver basin weighing seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of choice flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;

Numbers 7:80 one golden dish weighing ten shekels, full of incense;

Numbers 7:81 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:82 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:83 and for the sacrifice of well-being, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

Numbers 7:84 This was the dedication offering for the altar, at the time when it was anointed, from the leaders of Israel: twelve silver plates, twelve silver basins, twelve golden dishes,

Numbers 7:85 each silver plate weighing one hundred thirty shekels and each basin seventy, all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels according to the shekel of the sanctuary,

Numbers 7:86 the twelve golden dishes, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece according to the shekel of the sanctuary, all the gold of the dishes being one hundred twenty shekels;

Numbers 7:87 all the livestock for the burnt offering twelve bulls, twelve rams, twelve male lambs a year old, with their grain offering; and twelve male goats for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:88 and all the livestock for the sacrifice of well-being twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication offering for the altar, after it was anointed.

Numbers 7:89 When Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with the LORD, he would hear the voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the covenant from between the two cherubim; thus it spoke to him.

Numbers 8:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 8:2 Speak to Aaron and say to him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light in front of the lampstand.

Numbers 8:3 Aaron did so; he set up its lamps to give light in front of the lampstand, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:4 Now this was how the lampstand was made, out of hammered work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was hammered work; according to the pattern that the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Numbers 8:5 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 8:6 Take the Levites from among the Israelites and cleanse them.

Numbers 8:7 Thus you shall do to them, to cleanse them: sprinkle the water of purification on them, have them shave their whole body with a razor and wash their clothes, and so cleanse themselves.

Numbers 8:8 Then let them take a young bull and its grain offering of choice flour mixed with oil, and you shall take another young bull for a sin offering.

Numbers 8:9 You shall bring the Levites before the tent of meeting, and assemble the whole congregation of the Israelites.

Numbers 8:10 When you bring the Levites before the LORD, the Israelites shall lay their hands on the Levites, Numbers 8:11 and Aaron shall present the Levites before the LORD as an elevation offering from the Israelites, that they may do the service of the LORD.

Numbers 8:12 The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and he shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites.

Numbers 8:13 Then you shall have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons, and you shall present them as an elevation offering to the LORD.

Numbers 8:14 Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the other Israelites, and the Levites shall be mine.

Numbers 8:15 Thereafter the Levites may go in to do service at the tent of meeting, once you have cleansed them and presented them as an elevation offering.

Numbers 8:16 For they are unreservedly given to me from among the Israelites; I have taken them for myself, in place of all that open the womb, the firstborn of all the Israelites.

Numbers 8:17 For all the firstborn among the Israelites are mine, both human and animal. On the day that I struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I consecrated them for myself, Numbers 8:18 but I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the Israelites.

Numbers 8:19 Moreover, I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to do the service for the Israelites at the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the Israelites, in order that there may be no plague among the Israelites for coming too close to the sanctuary.

Numbers 8:20 Moses and Aaron and the whole congregation of the Israelites did with the Levites accordingly; the Israelites did with the Levites just as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning them.

Numbers 8:21 The Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes; then Aaron presented them as an elevation offering before the LORD, and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.

Numbers 8:22 Thereafter the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting in attendance on Aaron and his sons. As the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did with them.

Numbers 8:23 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 8:24 This applies to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall begin to do duty in the service of the tent of meeting;

Numbers 8:25 and from the age of fifty years they shall retire from the duty of the service and serve no more.

Numbers 8:26 They may assist their brothers in the tent of meeting in carrying out their duties, but they shall perform no service. Thus you shall do with the Levites in assigning their duties.

Numbers 9:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying:

Numbers 9:2 Let the Israelites keep the passover at its appointed time.

Numbers 9:3 On the fourteenth day of this month, at twilight, you shall keep it at its appointed time; according to all its statutes and all its regulations you shall keep it.

Numbers 9:4 So Moses told the Israelites that they should keep the passover.

Numbers 9:5 They kept the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, in the wilderness of Sinai. Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the Israelites did.

Numbers 9:6 Now there were certain people who were unclean through touching a corpse, so that they could not keep the passover on that day. They came before Moses and Aaron on that day,

Numbers 9:7 and said to him, “Although we are unclean through touching a corpse, why must we be kept from presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time among the Israelites?”

Numbers 9:8 Moses spoke to them, “Wait, so that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you.”

Numbers 9:9 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 9:10 Speak to the Israelites, saying: Anyone of you or your descendants who is unclean through touching a corpse, or is away on a journey, shall still keep the passover to the LORD.

Numbers 9:11 In the second month on the fourteenth day, at twilight, they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Numbers 9:12 They shall leave none of it until morning, nor break a bone of it; according to all the statute for the passover they shall keep it.

Numbers 9:13 But anyone who is clean and is not on a journey, and yet refrains from keeping the passover, shall be cut off from the people for not presenting the LORD’s offering at its appointed time; such a one shall bear the consequences for the sin.

Numbers 9:14 Any alien residing among you who wishes to keep the passover to the LORD shall do so according to the statute of the passover and according to its regulation; you shall have one statute for both the resident alien and the native.

Numbers 9:15 On the day the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the covenant; and from evening until morning it was over the tabernacle, having the appearance of fire.

Numbers 9:16 It was always so: the cloud covered it by day and the appearance of fire by night.

Numbers 9:17 Whenever the cloud lifted from over the tent, then the Israelites would set out; and in the place where the cloud settled down, there the Israelites would camp.

Numbers 9:18 At the command of the LORD the Israelites would set out, and at the command of the LORD they would camp. As long as the cloud rested over the tabernacle, they would remain in camp.

Numbers 9:19 Even when the cloud continued over the tabernacle many days, the Israelites would keep the charge of the LORD, and would not set out.

Numbers 9:20 Sometimes the cloud would remain a few days over the tabernacle, and according to the command of the LORD they would remain in camp; then according to the command of the LORD they would set out.

Numbers 9:21 Sometimes the cloud would remain from evening until morning; and when the cloud lifted in the morning, they would set out, or if it continued for a day and a night, when the cloud lifted they would set out.

Numbers 9:22 Whether it was two days, or a month, or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, resting upon it, the Israelites would remain in camp and would not set out; but when it lifted they would set out.

Numbers 9:23 At the command of the LORD they would camp, and at the command of the LORD they would set out. They kept the charge of the LORD, at the command of the LORD by Moses.

Numbers 10:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 10:2 Make two silver trumpets; you shall make them of hammered work; and you shall use them for summoning the congregation, and for breaking camp.

Numbers 10:3 When both are blown, the whole congregation shall assemble before you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 10:4 But if only one is blown, then the leaders, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall assemble before you.

Numbers 10:5 When you blow an alarm, the camps on the east side shall set out;

Numbers 10:6 when you blow a second alarm, the camps on the south side shall set out. An alarm is to be blown whenever they are to set out.

Numbers 10:7 But when the assembly is to be gathered, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

Numbers 10:8 The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets; this shall be a perpetual institution for you throughout your generations.

Numbers 10:9 When you go to war in your land against the adversary who oppresses you, you shall sound an alarm with the trumpets, so that you may be remembered before the LORD your God and be saved from your enemies.

Numbers 10:10 Also on your days of rejoicing, at your appointed festivals, and at the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over your sacrifices of well-being; they shall serve as a reminder on your behalf before the LORD your God: I am the LORD your God.

Numbers 10:11 In the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud lifted from over the tabernacle of the covenant.

Numbers 10:12 Then the Israelites set out by stages from the wilderness of Sinai, and the cloud settled down in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 10:13 They set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by Moses.

Numbers 10:14 The standard of the camp of Judah set out first, company by company, and over the whole company was Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Numbers 10:15 Over the company of the tribe of Issachar was Nethanel son of Zuar;

Numbers 10:16 and over the company of the tribe of Zebulun was Eliab son of Helon.

Numbers 10:17 Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and the Merarites, who carried the tabernacle, set out.

Numbers 10:18 Next the standard of the camp of Reuben set out, company by company; and over the whole company was Elizur son of Shedeur.

Numbers 10:19 Over the company of the tribe of Simeon was Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, Numbers 10:20 and over the company of the tribe of Gad was Eliasaph son of Deuel.

Numbers 10:21 Then the Kohathites, who carried the holy things, set out; and the tabernacle was set up before their arrival.

Numbers 10:22 Next the standard of the Ephraimite camp set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Elishama son of Ammihud.

Numbers 10:23 Over the company of the tribe of Manasseh was Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, Numbers 10:24 and over the company of the tribe of Benjamin was Abidan son of Gideoni.

Numbers 10:25 Then the standard of the camp of Dan, acting as the rear guard of all the camps, set out, company by company, and over the whole company was Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 10:26 Over the company of the tribe of Asher was Pagiel son of Ochran, Numbers 10:27 and over the company of the tribe of Naphtali was Ahira son of Enan.

Numbers 10:28 This was the order of march of the Israelites, company by company, when they set out.

Numbers 10:29 Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you'; come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has promised good to Israel."

Numbers 10:30 But he said to him, "I will not go, but I will go back to my own land and to my kindred."

Numbers 10:31 He said, "Do not leave us, for you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you will serve as eyes for us.

Numbers 10:32 Moreover, if you go with us, whatever good the LORD does for us, the same we will do for you."

Numbers 10:33 So they set out from the mount of the LORD three days' journey with the ark of the covenant of the LORD going before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them,

Numbers 10:34 the cloud of the LORD being over them by day when they set out from the camp.

Numbers 10:35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses would say, "Arise, O LORD, let your enemies be scattered, and your foes flee before you."

Numbers 10:36 And whenever it came to rest, he would say, "Return, O LORD of the ten thousand thousands of Israel."

Numbers 11:1 Now when the people complained in the hearing of the LORD about their misfortunes, the LORD heard it and his anger was kindled. Then the fire of the LORD burned against them, and consumed some outlying parts of the camp.

Numbers 11:2 But the people cried out to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated.

Numbers 11:3 So that place was called Taberah, because the fire of the LORD burned against them.

Numbers 11:4 The rabble among them had a strong craving; and the Israelites also wept again, and said, "If only we had meat to eat!

Numbers 11:5 We remember the fish we used to eat in Egypt for nothing, the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic;

Numbers 11:6 but now our strength is dried up, and there is nothing at all but this manna to look at."

Numbers 11:7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its color was like the color of gum resin.

Numbers 11:8 The people went around and gathered it, ground it in mills or beat it in mortars, then boiled it in pots and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked with oil.

Numbers 11:9 When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna would fall with it.

Numbers 11:10 Moses heard the people weeping throughout their families, all at the entrances of their tents. Then the LORD became very angry, and Moses was displeased.

Numbers 11:11 So Moses said to the LORD, “Why have you treated your servant so badly? Why have I not found favor in your sight, that you lay the burden of all this people on me?

Numbers 11:12 Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, that you should say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse carries a sucking child,’ to the land that you promised on oath to their ancestors?

Numbers 11:13 Where am I to get meat to give to all this people? For they come weeping to me and say, ‘Give us meat to eat!’

Numbers 11:14 I am not able to carry all this people alone, for they are too heavy for me.

Numbers 11:15 If this is the way you are going to treat me, put me to death at once— if I have found favor in your sight— and do not let me see my misery.”

Numbers 11:16 So the LORD said to Moses, “Gather for me seventy of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them; bring them to the tent of meeting, and have them take their place there with you.

Numbers 11:17 I will come down and talk with you there; and I will take some of the spirit that is on you and put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people along with you so that you will not bear it all by yourself.

Numbers 11:18 And say to the people: Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat; for you have wailed in the hearing of the LORD, saying, ‘If only we had meat to eat! Surely it was better for us in Egypt.’ Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat.

Numbers 11:19 You shall eat not only one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days, Numbers 11:20 but for a whole month— until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes loathsome to you— because you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, ‘Why did we ever leave Egypt?’“

Numbers 11:21 But Moses said, “The people I am with number six hundred thousand on foot; and you say, ‘I will give them meat, that they may eat for a whole month’!

Numbers 11:22 Are there enough flocks and herds to slaughter for them? Are there enough fish in the sea to catch for them?”

Numbers 11:23 The LORD said to Moses, “Is the LORD’s power limited? Now you shall see whether my word will come true for you or not.”

Numbers 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy elders of the people, and placed them all around the tent.

Numbers 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to him, and took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders; and when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied. But they did not do so again.

Numbers 11:26 Two men remained in the camp, one named Eldad, and the other named Medad, and the spirit rested on them; they were among those registered, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp.

Numbers 11:27 And a young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

Numbers 11:28 And Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses, one of his chosen men, said, “My lord Moses, stop them!”

Numbers 11:29 But Moses said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the LORD’s people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit on them!”

Numbers 11:30 And Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Numbers 11:31 Then a wind went out from the LORD, and it brought quails from the sea and let them fall beside the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and a day’s journey on the other side, all around the camp, about two cubits deep on the ground.

Numbers 11:32 So the people worked all that day and night and all the next day, gathering the quails; the least anyone gathered was ten homers; and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

Numbers 11:33 But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague.

Numbers 11:34 So that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had the craving.

Numbers 12:1 While they were at Hazeroth, Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married (for he had indeed married a Cushite woman);

Numbers 12:2 and they said, “Has the LORD spoken only through Moses? Has he not spoken through us also?” And the LORD heard it.

Numbers 12:3 Now the man Moses was very humble, more so than anyone else on the face of the earth.

Numbers 12:4 Suddenly the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting.” So the three of them came out.

Numbers 12:5 Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the entrance of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward.

Numbers 12:6 And he said, “Hear my words: When there are prophets among you, I the LORD make myself known to them in visions; I speak to them in dreams.

Numbers 12:7 Not so with my servant Moses; he is entrusted with all my house.

Numbers 12:8 With him I speak face to face— clearly, not in riddles; and he beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?”

Numbers 12:9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and he departed.

Numbers 12:10 When the cloud went away from over the tent, Miriam had become leprous, as white as snow. And Aaron turned towards Miriam and saw that she was leprous.

Numbers 12:11 Then Aaron said to Moses, “Oh, my lord, do not punish us for a sin that we have so foolishly committed.

Numbers 12:12 Do not let her be like one stillborn, whose flesh is half consumed when it comes out of its mother’s womb.”

Numbers 12:13 And Moses cried to the LORD, “O God, please heal her.”

Numbers 12:14 But the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had but spit in her face, would she not bear her shame for seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp for seven days, and after that she may be brought in again.”

Numbers 12:15 So Miriam was shut out of the camp for seven days; and the people did not set out on the march until Miriam had been brought in again.

Numbers 12:16 After that the people set out from Hazeroth, and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

Numbers 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 13:2 “Send men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites; from each of their ancestral tribes you shall send a man, every one a leader among them.”

Numbers 13:3 So Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran, according to the command of the LORD, all of them leading men among the Israelites.

Numbers 13:4 These were their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;

Numbers 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;

Numbers 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

Numbers 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;

Numbers 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;

Numbers 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;

Numbers 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;

Numbers 13:11 from the tribe of Joseph (that is, from the tribe of Manasseh), Gaddi son of Susi;

Numbers 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;

Numbers 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;

Numbers 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi;

Numbers 13:16 These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses changed the name of Hoshea son of Nun to Joshua.

Numbers 13:17 Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up there into the Negeb, and go up into the hill country,

Numbers 13:18 and see what the land is like, and whether the people who live in it are strong or weak, whether they are few or many,

Numbers 13:19 and whether the land they live in is good or bad, and whether the towns that they live in are unwalled or fortified,

Numbers 13:20 and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there are trees in it or not. Be bold, and bring some of the fruit of the land.” Now it was the season of the first ripe grapes.

Numbers 13:21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near Lebo-hamath.

Numbers 13:22 They went up into the Negeb, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the Anakites, were there. (Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Numbers 13:23 And they came to the Wadi Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with a single cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a pole between two of them. They also brought some pomegranates and figs.

Numbers 13:24 That place was called the Wadi Eshcol, because of the cluster that the Israelites cut down from there.

Numbers 13:25 At the end of forty days they returned from spying out the land.

Numbers 13:26 And they came to Moses and Aaron and to all the congregation of the Israelites in the wilderness of Paran, at Kadesh; they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

Numbers 13:27 And they told him, “We came to the land to which you sent us; it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

Numbers 13:28 Yet the people who live in the land are strong, and the towns are fortified and very large; and besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there.

Numbers 13:29 The Amalekites live in the land of the Negeb; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live by the sea, and along the Jordan.”

Numbers 13:30 But Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, “Let us go up at once and occupy it, for we are well able to overcome it.”

Numbers 13:31 Then the men who had gone up with him said, “We are not able to go up against this people, for they are stronger than we.”

Numbers 13:32 So they brought to the Israelites an unfavorable report of the land that they had spied out, saying, “The land that we have gone through as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are of great size.

Numbers 13:33 There we saw the Nephilim (the Anakites come from the Nephilim); and to ourselves we seemed like grasshoppers, and so we seemed to them.”

Numbers 14:1 Then all the congregation raised a loud cry, and the people wept that night.

Numbers 14:2 And all the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron; the whole congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or would that we had died in this wilderness!

Numbers 14:3 Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will become booty; would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?”

Numbers 14:4 So they said to one another, “Let us choose a captain, and go back to Egypt.”

Numbers 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the Israelites.

Numbers 14:6 And Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes Numbers 14:7 and said to all the congregation of the Israelites, “The land that we went through as spies is an exceedingly good land.

Numbers 14:8 If the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey.

Numbers 14:9 Only, do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they are no more than bread for us; their protection is removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them."

Numbers 14:10 But the whole congregation threatened to stone them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting to all the Israelites.

Numbers 14:11 And the LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people despise me? And how long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the signs that I have done among them?

Numbers 14:12 I will strike them with pestilence and disinherit them, and I will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

Numbers 14:13 But Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for in your might you brought up this people from among them,

Numbers 14:14 and they will tell the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you, O LORD, are in the midst of this people; for you, O LORD, are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them and you go in front of them, in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

Numbers 14:15 Now if you kill this people all at one time, then the nations who have heard about you will say,

Numbers 14:16 'It is because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land he swore to give them that he has slaughtered them in the wilderness.'

Numbers 14:17 And now, therefore, let the power of the LORD be great in the way that you promised when you spoke, saying,

Numbers 14:18 'The LORD is slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the parents upon the children to the third and the fourth generation.'

Numbers 14:19 Forgive the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your steadfast love, just as you have pardoned this people, from Egypt even until now."

Numbers 14:20 Then the LORD said, "I do forgive, just as you have asked;

Numbers 14:21 nevertheless— as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD—

Numbers 14:22 none of the people who have seen my glory and the signs that I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and yet have tested me these ten times and have not obeyed my voice,

Numbers 14:23 shall see the land that I swore to give to their ancestors; none of those who despised me shall see it.

Numbers 14:24 But my servant Caleb, because he has a different spirit and has followed me wholeheartedly, I will bring into the land into which he went, and his descendants shall possess it.

Numbers 14:25 Now, since the Amalekites and the Canaanites live in the valleys, turn tomorrow and set out for the wilderness by the way to the Red Sea.”

Numbers 14:26 And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:

Numbers 14:27 How long shall this wicked congregation complain against me? I have heard the complaints of the Israelites, which they complain against me.

Numbers 14:28 Say to them, “As I live,” says the LORD, “I will do to you the very things I heard you say:

Numbers 14:29 your dead bodies shall fall in this very wilderness; and of all your number, included in the census, from twenty years old and upward, who have complained against me,

Numbers 14:30 not one of you shall come into the land in which I swore to settle you, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 14:31 But your little ones, who you said would become booty, I will bring in, and they shall know the land that you have despised.

Numbers 14:32 But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness.

Numbers 14:33 And your children shall be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years, and shall suffer for your faithlessness, until the last of your dead bodies lies in the wilderness.

Numbers 14:34 According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, for every day a year, you shall bear your iniquity, forty years, and you shall know my displeasure.”

Numbers 14:35 I the LORD have spoken; surely I will do thus to all this wicked congregation gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall come to a full end, and there they shall die.

Numbers 14:36 And the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report about the land—

Numbers 14:37 the men who brought an unfavorable report about the land died by a plague before the LORD.

Numbers 14:38 But Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh alone remained alive, of those men who went to spy out the land.

Numbers 14:39 When Moses told these words to all the Israelites, the people mourned greatly.

Numbers 14:40 They rose early in the morning and went up to the heights of the hill country, saying, “Here we are. We will go up to the place that the LORD has promised, for we have sinned.”

Numbers 14:41 But Moses said, “Why do you continue to transgress the command of the LORD? That will not succeed.

Numbers 14:42 Do not go up, for the LORD is not with you; do not let yourselves be struck down before your enemies.

Numbers 14:43 For the Amalekites and the Canaanites will confront you there, and you shall fall by the sword; because you have turned back from following the LORD, the LORD will not be with you.”

Numbers 14:44 But they presumed to go up to the heights of the hill country, even though the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, had not left the camp.

Numbers 14:45 Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and defeated them, pursuing them as far as Hormah.

Numbers 15:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 15:2 Speak to the Israelites and say to them: When you come into the land you are to inhabit, which I am giving you,

Numbers 15:3 and you make an offering by fire to the LORD from the herd or from the flock— whether a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as a freewill offering or at your appointed festivals— to make a pleasing odor for the LORD,

Numbers 15:4 then whoever presents such an offering to the LORD shall present also a grain offering, one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour, mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil.

Numbers 15:5 Moreover, you shall offer one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering with the burnt offering or the sacrifice, for each lamb.

Numbers 15:6 For a ram, you shall offer a grain offering, two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil;

Numbers 15:7 and as a drink offering you shall offer one-third of a hin of wine, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Numbers 15:8 When you offer a bull as a burnt offering or a sacrifice, to fulfill a vow or as an offering of well-being to the LORD,

Numbers 15:9 then you shall present with the bull a grain offering, three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour, mixed with half a hin of oil,

Numbers 15:10 and you shall present as a drink offering half a hin of wine, as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Numbers 15:11 Thus it shall be done for each ox or ram, or for each of the male lambs or the kids.

Numbers 15:12 According to the number that you offer, so you shall do with each and every one.

Numbers 15:13 Every native Israelite shall do these things in this way, in presenting an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Numbers 15:14 An alien who lives with you, or who takes up permanent residence among you, and wishes to offer an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD, shall do as you do.

Numbers 15:15 As for the assembly, there shall be for both you and the resident alien a single statute, a perpetual statute throughout your generations; you and the alien shall be alike before the LORD.

Numbers 15:16 You and the alien who resides with you shall have the same law and the same ordinance.

Numbers 15:17 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 15:18 Speak to the Israelites and say to them: After you come into the land to which I am bringing you,

Numbers 15:19 whenever you eat of the bread of the land, you shall present a donation to the LORD.

Numbers 15:20 From your first batch of dough you shall present a loaf as a donation; you shall present it just as you present a donation from the threshing floor.

Numbers 15:21 Throughout your generations you shall give to the LORD a donation from the first of your batch of dough.

Numbers 15:22 But if you unintentionally fail to observe all these commandments that the LORD has spoken to Moses—

Numbers 15:23 everything that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day the LORD gave commandment and thereafter, throughout your generations—

Numbers 15:24 then if it was done unintentionally without the knowledge of the congregation, the whole congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD, together with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering.

Numbers 15:25 The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the Israelites, and they shall be forgiven; it was unintentional, and they have brought their offering, an offering by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error.

Numbers 15:26 All the congregation of the Israelites shall be forgiven, as well as the aliens residing among them, because the whole people was involved in the error.

Numbers 15:27 An individual who sins unintentionally shall present a female goat a year old for a sin offering.

Numbers 15:28 And the priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the one who commits an error, when it is unintentional, to make atonement for the person, who then shall be forgiven.

Numbers 15:29 For both the native among the Israelites and the alien residing among them— you shall have the same law for anyone who acts in error.

Numbers 15:30 But whoever acts high-handedly, whether a native or an alien, affronts the LORD, and shall be cut off from among the people.

Numbers 15:31 Because of having despised the word of the LORD and broken his commandment, such a person shall be utterly cut off and bear the guilt.

Numbers 15:32 When the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the sabbath day.

Numbers 15:33 Those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses, Aaron, and to the whole congregation.

Numbers 15:34 They put him in custody, because it was not clear what should be done to him.

Numbers 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him outside the camp."

Numbers 15:36 The whole congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him to death, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 15:37 The LORD said to Moses:

Numbers 15:38 Speak to the Israelites, and tell them to make fringes on the corners of their garments throughout their generations and to put a blue cord on the fringe at each corner.

Numbers 15:39 You have the fringe so that, when you see it, you will remember all the commandments of the LORD and do them, and not follow the lust of your own heart and your own eyes.

Numbers 15:40 So you shall remember and do all my commandments, and you shall be holy to your God.

Numbers 15:41 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God.

Numbers 16:1 Now Korah son of Izhar son of Kohath son of Levi, along with Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth— descendants of Reuben— took Numbers 16:2 two hundred fifty Israelite men, leaders of the congregation, chosen from the assembly, well-known men, and they confronted Moses.

Numbers 16:3 They assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, "You have gone too far! All the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. So why then do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

Numbers 16:5 Then he said to Korah and all his company, “In the morning the LORD will make known who is his, and who is holy, and who will be allowed to approach him; the one whom he will choose he will allow to approach him.

Numbers 16:6 Do this: take censers, Korah and all your company,

Numbers 16:7 and tomorrow put fire in them, and lay incense on them before the LORD; and the man whom the LORD chooses shall be the holy one. You Levites have gone too far!”

Numbers 16:8 Then Moses said to Korah, “Hear now, you Levites!

Numbers 16:9 Is it too little for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to allow you to approach him in order to perform the duties of the LORD’s tabernacle, and to stand before the congregation and serve them?

Numbers 16:10 He has allowed you to approach him, and all your brother Levites with you; yet you seek the priesthood as well!

Numbers 16:11 Therefore you and all your company have gathered together against the LORD. What is Aaron that you rail against him?”

Numbers 16:12 Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab; but they said, “We will not come!

Numbers 16:13 Is it too little that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also lord it over us?

Numbers 16:14 It is clear you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come!”

Numbers 16:15 Moses was very angry and said to the LORD, “Pay no attention to their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, and I have not harmed any one of them.”

Numbers 16:16 And Moses said to Korah, “As for you and all your company, be present tomorrow before the LORD, you and they and Aaron;

Numbers 16:17 and let each one of you take his censer, and put incense on it, and each one of you present his censer before the LORD, two hundred fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer.”

Numbers 16:18 So each man took his censer, and they put fire in the censers and laid incense on them, and they stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting with Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 16:19 Then Korah assembled the whole congregation against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole congregation.

Numbers 16:20 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:

Numbers 16:21 Separate yourselves from this congregation, so that I may consume them in a moment.

Numbers 16:22 They fell on their faces, and said, “O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one person sin and you become angry with the whole congregation?”

Numbers 16:23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 16:25 So Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram; the elders of Israel followed him.

Numbers 16:26 He said to the congregation, “Turn away from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, or you will be swept away for all their sins.”

Numbers 16:27 So they got away from the dwellings of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram; and Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the entrance of their tents, together with their wives, their children, and their little ones.

Numbers 16:28 And Moses said, “This is how you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; it has not been of my own accord:

Numbers 16:29 If these people die a natural death, or if a natural fate comes on them, then the LORD has not sent me.

Numbers 16:30 But if the LORD creates something new, and the ground opens its mouth and swallows them up, with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you shall know that these men have despised the LORD.”

Numbers 16:31 As soon as he finished speaking all these words, the ground under them was split apart.

Numbers 16:32 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households— everyone who belonged to Korah and all their goods.

Numbers 16:33 So they with all that belonged to them went down alive into Sheol; the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

Numbers 16:34 All Israel around them fled at their outcry, for they said, “The earth will swallow us too!”

Numbers 16:35 And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred fifty men offering the incense.

Numbers 16:36 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 16:37 Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the priest to take the censers out of the blaze; then scatter the fire far and wide.

Numbers 16:38 For the censers of these sinners have become holy at the cost of their lives. Make them into hammered plates as a covering for the altar, for they presented them before the LORD and they became holy. Thus they shall be a sign to the Israelites.

Numbers 16:39 So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers that had been presented by those who were burned; and they were hammered out as a covering for the altar—

Numbers 16:40 a reminder to the Israelites that no outsider, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, shall approach to offer incense before the LORD, so as not to become like Korah and his company— just as the LORD had said to him through Moses.

Numbers 16:41 On the next day, however, the whole congregation of the Israelites rebelled against Moses and against Aaron, saying, “You have killed the people of the LORD.”

Numbers 16:42 And when the congregation had assembled against them, Moses and Aaron turned toward the tent of meeting; the cloud had covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Numbers 16:43 Then Moses and Aaron came to the front of the tent of meeting,

Numbers 16:44 and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 16:45 “Get away from this congregation, so that I may consume them in a moment.” And they fell on their faces.

Numbers 16:46 Moses said to Aaron, “Take your censer, put fire on it from the altar and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation and make atonement for them. For wrath has gone out from the LORD; the plague has begun.”

Numbers 16:47 So Aaron took it as Moses had ordered, and ran into the middle of the assembly, where the plague had already begun among the people. He put on the incense, and made atonement for the people.

Numbers 16:48 He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stopped.

Numbers 16:49 Those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died in the affair of Korah.

Numbers 16:50 When the plague was stopped, Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 17:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 17:2 Speak to the Israelites, and get twelve staffs from them, one for each ancestral house, from all the leaders of their ancestral houses. Write each man’s name on his staff,

Numbers 17:3 and write Aaron’s name on the staff of Levi. For there shall be one staff for the head of each ancestral house.

Numbers 17:4 Place them in the tent of meeting before the covenant, where I meet with you.

Numbers 17:5 And the staff of the man whom I choose shall sprout; thus I will put a stop to the complaints of the Israelites that they continually make against you.

Numbers 17:6 Moses spoke to the Israelites; and all their leaders gave him staffs, one for each leader, according to their ancestral houses, twelve staffs; and the staff of Aaron was among theirs.

Numbers 17:7 So Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the covenant.

Numbers 17:8 When Moses went into the tent of the covenant on the next day, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had sprouted. It put forth buds, produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds.

Numbers 17:9 Then Moses brought out all the staffs from before the LORD to all the Israelites; and they looked, and each man took his staff.

Numbers 17:10 And the LORD said to Moses, “Put back the staff of Aaron before the covenant, to be kept as a warning to rebels, so that you may make an end of their complaints against me, or else they will die.”

Numbers 17:11 Moses did so; just as the LORD commanded him, so he did.

Numbers 17:12 The Israelites said to Moses, “We are perishing; we are lost, all of us are lost!

Numbers 17:13 Everyone who approaches the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all to perish?”

Numbers 18:1 The LORD said to Aaron: You and your sons and your ancestral house with you shall bear responsibility for offenses connected with the sanctuary, while you and your sons alone shall bear responsibility for offenses connected with the priesthood.

Numbers 18:2 So bring with you also your brothers of the tribe of Levi, your ancestral tribe, in order that they may be joined to you, and serve you while you and your sons with you are in front of the tent of the covenant.

Numbers 18:3 They shall perform duties for you and for the whole tent. But they must not approach either the utensils of the sanctuary or the altar, otherwise both they and you will die.

Numbers 18:4 They are attached to you in order to perform the duties of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; no outsider shall approach you.

Numbers 18:5 You yourselves shall perform the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, so that wrath may never again come upon the Israelites.

Numbers 18:6 It is I who now take your brother Levites from among the Israelites; they are now yours as a gift, dedicated to the LORD, to perform the service of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:7 But you and your sons with you shall diligently perform your priestly duties in all that concerns the altar and the area behind the curtain. I give your priesthood as a gift; any outsider who approaches shall be put to death.

Numbers 18:8 The LORD spoke to Aaron: I have given you charge of the offerings made to me, all the holy gifts of the Israelites; I have given them to you and your sons as a priestly portion due you in perpetuity.

Numbers 18:9 This shall be yours from the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every offering of theirs that they render to me as a most holy thing, whether grain offering, sin offering, or guilt offering, shall belong to you and your sons.

Numbers 18:10 As a most holy thing you shall eat it; every male may eat it; it shall be holy to you.

Numbers 18:11 This also is yours: I have given to you, together with your sons and daughters, as a perpetual due, whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the elevation offerings of the Israelites; everyone who is clean in your house may eat them.

Numbers 18:12 All the best of the oil and all the best of the wine and of the grain, the choice produce that they give to the LORD, I have given to you.

Numbers 18:13 The first fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house may eat of it.

Numbers 18:15 The first issue of the womb of all creatures, human and animal, which is offered to the LORD, shall be yours; but the firstborn of human beings you shall redeem, and the firstborn of unclean animals you shall redeem.

Numbers 18:16 Their redemption price, reckoned from one month of age, you shall fix at five shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary (that is, twenty gerahs).

Numbers 18:17 But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are holy. You shall dash their blood on the altar, and shall turn their fat into smoke as an offering by fire for a pleasing odor to the LORD;

Numbers 18:18 but their flesh shall be yours, just as the breast that is elevated and as the right thigh are yours.

Numbers 18:19 All the holy offerings that the Israelites present to the LORD I have given to you, together with your sons and daughters, as a perpetual due; it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD for you and your descendants as well.

Numbers 18:20 Then the LORD said to Aaron: You shall have no allotment in their land, nor shall you have any share among them; I am your share and your possession among the Israelites.

Numbers 18:21 To the Levites I have given every tithe in Israel for a possession in return for the service that they perform, the service in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:22 From now on the Israelites shall no longer approach the tent of meeting, or else they will incur guilt and die.

Numbers 18:23 But the Levites shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they shall bear responsibility for their own offenses; it shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations. But among the Israelites they shall have no allotment,

Numbers 18:24 because I have given to the Levites as their portion the tithe of the Israelites, which they set apart as an offering to the LORD. Therefore I have said of them that they shall have no allotment among the Israelites.

Numbers 18:25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 18:26 You shall speak to the Levites, saying: When you receive from the Israelites the tithe that I have given you from them for your portion, you shall set apart an offering from it to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe.

Numbers 18:27 It shall be reckoned to you as your gift, the same as the grain of the threshing floor and the fullness of the wine press.

Numbers 18:28 Thus you also shall set apart an offering to the LORD from all the tithes that you receive from the Israelites; and from them you shall give the LORD’s offering to the priest Aaron.

Numbers 18:29 Out of all the gifts to you, you shall set apart every offering due to the LORD; the best of all of them is the part to be consecrated.

Numbers 18:30 Say also to them: When you have set apart the best of it, then the rest shall be reckoned to the Levites as produce of the threshing floor, and as produce of the wine press.

Numbers 18:31 You may eat it in any place, you and your households; for it is your payment for your service in the tent of meeting.

Numbers 18:32 You shall incur no guilt by reason of it, when you have offered the best of it. But you shall not profane the holy gifts of the Israelites, on pain of death.

Numbers 19:1 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying:

Numbers 19:2 This is a statute of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without defect, in which there is no blemish and on which no yoke has been laid.

Numbers 19:3 You shall give it to the priest Eleazar, and it shall be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

Numbers 19:4 The priest Eleazar shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times towards the front of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 19:5 Then the heifer shall be burned in his sight; its skin, its flesh, and its blood, with its dung, shall be burned.

Numbers 19:6 The priest shall take cedarwood, hyssop, and crimson material, and throw them into the fire in which the heifer is burning.

Numbers 19:7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, and afterwards he may come into the camp; but the priest shall remain unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:8 The one who burns the heifer shall wash his clothes in water and bathe his body in water; he shall remain unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:9 Then someone who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place; and they shall be kept for the congregation of the Israelites for the water for cleansing. It is a purification offering.

Numbers 19:10 The one who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until evening. This shall be a perpetual statute for the Israelites and for the alien residing among them.

Numbers 19:11 Those who touch the dead body of any human being shall be unclean seven days.

Numbers 19:12 They shall purify themselves with the water on the third day and on the seventh day, and so be clean; but if they do not purify themselves on the third day and on the seventh day, they will not become clean.

Numbers 19:13 All who touch a corpse, the body of a human being who has died, and do not purify themselves, defile the tabernacle of the LORD; such persons shall be cut off from Israel. Since water for cleansing was not dashed on them, they remain unclean; their uncleanness is still on them.

Numbers 19:14 This is the law when someone dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

Numbers 19:16 Whoever in the open field touches one who has been killed by a sword, or who has died naturally, or a human bone, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

Numbers 19:17 For the unclean they shall take some ashes of the burnt purification offering, and running water shall be added in a vessel;

Numbers 19:18 then a clean person shall take hyssop, dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, on all the furnishings, on the persons who were there, and on whoever touched the bone, the slain, the corpse, or the grave.

Numbers 19:19 The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean ones on the third day and on the seventh day, thus purifying them on the seventh day. Then they shall wash their clothes and bathe themselves in water, and at evening they shall be clean.

Numbers 19:20 Any who are unclean but do not purify themselves, those persons shall be cut off from the assembly, for they have defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. Since the water for cleansing has not been dashed on them, they are unclean.

Numbers 19:21 It shall be a perpetual statute for them. The one who sprinkles the water for cleansing shall wash his clothes, and whoever touches the water for cleansing shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 19:22 Whatever the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and anyone who touches it shall be unclean until evening.

Numbers 20:1 The Israelites, the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh. Miriam died there, and was buried there.

Numbers 20:2 Now there was no water for the congregation; so they gathered together against Moses and against Aaron.

Numbers 20:3 The people quarreled with Moses and said, “Would that we had died when our kindred died before the LORD!

Numbers 20:4 Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here?

Numbers 20:5 Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to bring us to this wretched place? It is no place for grain, or figs, or vines, or pomegranates; and there is no water to drink.”

Numbers 20:6 Then Moses and Aaron went away from the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting; they fell on their faces, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

Numbers 20:7 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 20:8 Take the staff, and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aaron, and command the rock before their eyes to yield its water. Thus you shall bring water out of the rock for them; thus you shall provide drink for the congregation and their livestock.

Numbers 20:9 So Moses took the staff from before the LORD, as he had commanded him.

Numbers 20:10 Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, “Listen, you rebels, shall we bring water for you out of this rock?”

Numbers 20:11 Then Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff; water came out abundantly, and the congregation and their livestock drank.

Numbers 20:12 But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust in me, to show my holiness before the eyes of the Israelites, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them.”

Numbers 20:13 These are the waters of Meribah, where the people of Israel quarreled with the LORD, and by which he showed his holiness.

Numbers 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, “Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the adversity that has befallen us:

Numbers 20:15 how our ancestors went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians oppressed us and our ancestors;

Numbers 20:16 and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt; and here we are in Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

Numbers 20:17 Now let us pass through your land. We will not pass through field or vineyard, or drink water from any well; we will go along the King’s Highway, not turning aside to the right hand or to the left until we have passed through your territory.”

Numbers 20:18 But Edom said to him, “You shall not pass through, or we will come out with the sword against you.”

Numbers 20:19 The Israelites said to him, “We will stay on the highway; and if we drink of your water, we and our livestock, then we will pay for it. It is only a small matter; just let us pass through on foot.”

Numbers 20:20 But he said, “You shall not pass through.” And Edom came out against them with a large force, heavily armed.

Numbers 20:21 Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through their territory; so Israel turned away from them.

Numbers 20:22 They set out from Kadesh, and the Israelites, the whole congregation, came to Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:23 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron at Mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, Numbers 20:24 “Let Aaron be gathered to his people. For he shall not enter the land that I have given to the Israelites, because you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.

Numbers 20:25 Take Aaron and his son Eleazar, and bring them up Mount Hor;

Numbers 20:27 Moses did as the LORD had commanded; they went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole congregation.

Numbers 20:28 Moses stripped Aaron of his vestments, and put them on his son Eleazar; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain. Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain.

Numbers 20:29 When all the congregation saw that Aaron had died, all the house of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

Numbers 21:1 When the Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb, heard that Israel was coming by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive.

Numbers 21:2 Then Israel made a vow to the LORD and said, “If you will indeed give this people into our hands, then we will utterly destroy their towns.”

Numbers 21:3 The LORD listened to the voice of Israel, and handed over the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their towns; so the place was called Hormah.

Numbers 21:4 From Mount Hor they set out by the way to the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom; but the people became impatient on the way.

Numbers 21:5 The people spoke against God and against Moses, “Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and we detest this miserable food.”

Numbers 21:6 Then the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, so that many Israelites died.

Numbers 21:7 The people came to Moses and said, “We have sinned by speaking against the LORD and against you; pray to the LORD to take away the serpents from us.” So Moses prayed for the people.

Numbers 21:8 And the LORD said to Moses, “Make a poisonous serpent, and set it on a pole; and everyone who is bitten shall look at it and live.”

Numbers 21:9 So Moses made a serpent of bronze, and put it upon a pole; and whenever a serpent bit someone, that person would look at the serpent of bronze and live.

Numbers 21:10 The Israelites set out, and camped in Oboth.

Numbers 21:11 They set out from Oboth, and camped at Iye-abarim, in the wilderness bordering Moab toward the sunrise.

Numbers 21:12 From there they set out, and camped in the Wadi Zered.

Numbers 21:13 From there they set out, and camped on the other side of the Arnon, in the wilderness that extends from the boundary of the Amorites; for the Arnon is the boundary of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

Numbers 21:14 Wherefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD, "Waheb in Suphah and the wadis. The Arnon Numbers 21:15 and the slopes of the wadis that extend to the seat of Ar, and lie along the border of Moab."

Numbers 21:16 From there they continued to Beer; that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."

Numbers 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, O well!—Sing to it!—

Numbers 21:18 the well that the leaders sank, that the nobles of the people dug, with the scepter, with the staff." From the wilderness to Mattanah,

Numbers 21:19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Numbers 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley lying in the region of Moab by the top of Pisgah that overlooks the wasteland.

Numbers 21:21 Then Israel sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, saying,

Numbers 21:22 "Let me pass through your land; we will not turn aside into field or vineyard; we will not drink the water of any well; we will go by the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory."

Numbers 21:23 But Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his territory. Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel to the wilderness; he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

Numbers 21:24 Israel put him to the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, as far as to the Ammonites; for the boundary of the Ammonites was strong.

Numbers 21:25 Israel took all these towns, and Israel settled in all the towns of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages.

Numbers 21:26 For Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and captured all his land as far as the Arnon.

Numbers 21:27 Therefore the ballad singers say, "Come to Heshbon, let it be built; let the city of Sihon be established.

Numbers 21:28 For fire came out from Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon. It devoured Ar of Moab, and swallowed up the heights of the Arnon.

Numbers 21:29 Woe to you, O Moab! You are undone, O people of Chemosh! He has made his sons fugitives, and his daughters captives, to an Amorite king, Sihon.

Numbers 21:30 So their posterity perished from Heshbon to Dibon, and we laid waste until fire spread to Medeba."

Numbers 21:31 Thus Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:32 Moses sent to spy out Jazer; and they captured its villages, and dispossessed the Amorites who were there.

Numbers 21:33 Then they turned and went up the road to Bashan; and King Og of Bashan came out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

Numbers 21:34 But the LORD said to Moses, "Do not be afraid of him; for I have given him into your hand, with all his people, and all his land. You shall do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon."

Numbers 21:35 So they killed him, his sons, and all his people, until there was no survivor left; and they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22:2 Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

Numbers 22:3 Moab was in great dread of the people, because they were so numerous; Moab was overcome with fear of the people of Israel.

Numbers 22:4 And Moab said to the elders of Midian, "This horde will now lick up all that is around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." Now Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time.

Numbers 22:5 He sent messengers to Balaam son of Beor at Pethor, which is on the Euphrates, in the land of Amaw, to summon him, saying, "A people has come out of Egypt; they have spread over the face of the earth, and they have settled next to me.

Numbers 22:6 Come now, curse this people for me, since they are stronger than I; perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them from the land; for I know that whomever you bless is blessed, and whomever you curse is cursed."

Numbers 22:7 So the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the fees for divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and gave him Balak's message.

Numbers 22:8 He said to them, “Stay here tonight, and I will bring back word to you, just as the LORD speaks to me”; so the officials of Moab stayed with Balaam.

Numbers 22:9 God came to Balaam and said, “Who are these men with you?”

Numbers 22:10 Balaam said to God, “King Balak son of Zippor of Moab, has sent me this message:

Numbers 22:11 ‘A people has come out of Egypt and has spread over the face of the earth; now come, curse them for me; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them and drive them out.’“

Numbers 22:12 God said to Balaam, “You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people, for they are blessed.”

Numbers 22:13 So Balaam rose in the morning, and said to the officials of Balak, “Go to your own land, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

Numbers 22:14 So the officials of Moab rose and went to Balak, and said, “Balaam refuses to come with us.”

Numbers 22:15 Once again Balak sent officials, more numerous and more distinguished than these.

Numbers 22:16 They came to Balaam and said to him, “Thus says Balak son of Zippor: ‘Do not let anything hinder you from coming to me;

Numbers 22:17 for I will surely do you great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do; come, curse this people for me.’“

Numbers 22:18 But Balaam replied to the servants of Balak, “Although Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

Numbers 22:19 You remain here, as the others did, so that I may learn what more the LORD may say to me.”

Numbers 22:20 That night God came to Balaam and said to him, “If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them; but do only what I tell you to do.”

Numbers 22:21 So Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the officials of Moab.

Numbers 22:22 God’s anger was kindled because he was going, and the angel of the LORD took his stand in the road as his adversary. Now he was riding on the donkey, and his two servants were with him.

Numbers 22:23 The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in his hand; so the donkey turned off the road, and went into the field; and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn it back onto the road.

Numbers 22:25 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it scraped against the wall, and scraped Balaam’s foot against the wall; so he struck it again.

Numbers 22:26 Then the angel of the LORD went ahead, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left.

Numbers 22:27 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, it lay down under Balaam; and Balaam’s anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

Numbers 22:28 Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and it said to Balaam, “What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?”

Numbers 22:29 Balaam said to the donkey, “Because you have made a fool of me! I wish I had a sword in my hand! I would kill you right now!”

Numbers 22:30 But the donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your donkey, which you have ridden all your life to this day? Have I been in the habit of treating you this way?” And he said, “No.”

Numbers 22:31 Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road, with his drawn sword in his hand; and he bowed down, falling on his face.

Numbers 22:32 The angel of the LORD said to him, “Why have you struck your donkey these three times? I have come out as an adversary, because your way is perverse before me.

Numbers 22:33 The donkey saw me, and turned away from me these three times. If it had not turned away from me, surely just now I would have killed you and let it live.”

Numbers 22:34 Then Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now therefore, if it is displeasing to you, I will return home.”

Numbers 22:35 The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men; but speak only what I tell you to speak.” So Balaam went on with the officials of Balak.

Numbers 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at Ir-moab, on the boundary formed by the Arnon, at the farthest point of the boundary.

Numbers 22:37 Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to honor you?”

Numbers 22:38 Balaam said to Balak, “I have come to you now, but do I have power to say just anything? The word God puts in my mouth, that is what I must say.”

Numbers 22:39 Then Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-huzoth.

Numbers 22:40 Balak sacrificed oxen and sheep, and sent them to Balaam and to the officials who were with him.

Numbers 22:41 On the next day Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-baal; and from there he could see part of the people of Israel.

Numbers 23:1 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."

Numbers 23:2 Balak did as Balaam had said; and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your burnt offerings while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me. Whatever he shows me I will tell you." And he went to a bare height.

Numbers 23:4 Then God met Balaam; and Balaam said to him, "I have arranged the seven altars, and have offered a bull and a ram on each altar."

Numbers 23:5 The LORD put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, "Return to Balak, and this is what you must say."

Numbers 23:6 So he returned to Balak, who was standing beside his burnt offerings with all the officials of Moab.

Numbers 23:7 Then Balaam uttered his oracle, saying: "Balak has brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains: 'Come, curse Jacob for me; Come, denounce Israel!'

Numbers 23:8 How can I curse whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?

Numbers 23:9 For from the top of the crags I see him, from the hills I behold him; Here is a people living alone, and not reckoning itself among the nations!

Numbers 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number the dust-cloud of Israel? Let me die the death of the upright, and let my end be like his!"

Numbers 23:11 Then Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but now you have done nothing but bless them."

Numbers 23:12 He answered, "Must I not take care to say what the LORD puts into my mouth?"

Numbers 23:13 So Balak said to him, "Come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only part of them, and shall not see them all; then curse them for me from there."

Numbers 23:14 So he took him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah. He built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, "Stand here beside your burnt offerings, while I meet the LORD over there.

Numbers 23:17 When he came to him, he was standing beside his burnt offerings with the officials of Moab. Balak said to him, “What has the LORD said?”

Numbers 23:18 Then Balaam uttered his oracle, saying: “Rise, Balak, and hear; listen to me, O son of Zippor:

Numbers 23:19 God is not a human being, that he should lie, or a mortal, that he should change his mind. Has he promised, and will he not do it? Has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it?

Numbers 23:20 See, I received a command to bless; he has blessed, and I cannot revoke it.

Numbers 23:21 He has not beheld misfortune in Jacob; nor has he seen trouble in Israel. The LORD their God is with them, acclaimed as a king among them.

Numbers 23:22 God, who brings them out of Egypt, is like the horns of a wild ox for them.

Numbers 23:23 Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, no divination against Israel; now it shall be said of Jacob and Israel, ‘See what God has done!’

Numbers 23:24 Look, a people rising up like a lioness, and rousing itself like a lion! It does not lie down until it has eaten the prey and drunk the blood of the slain.”

Numbers 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Do not curse them at all, and do not bless them at all.”

Numbers 23:26 But Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell you, ‘Whatever the LORD says, that is what I must do’?”

Numbers 23:27 So Balak said to Balaam, “Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:28 So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the wasteland.

Numbers 23:29 Balaam said to Balak, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Numbers 23:30 So Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24:1 Now Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, so he did not go, as at other times, to look for omens, but set his face toward the wilderness.

Numbers 24:2 Balaam looked up and saw Israel camping tribe by tribe. Then the spirit of God came upon him, Numbers 24:3 and he uttered his oracle, saying: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is clear,

Numbers 24:4 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, who falls down, but with eyes uncovered:

Numbers 24:5 how fair are your tents, O Jacob, your encampments, O Israel!

Numbers 24:6 Like palm groves that stretch far away, like gardens beside a river, like aloes that the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters.

Numbers 24:7 Water shall flow from his buckets, and his seed shall have abundant water, his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

Numbers 24:8 God who brings him out of Egypt, is like the horns of a wild ox for him; he shall devour the nations that are his foes and break their bones. He shall strike with his arrows.

Numbers 24:9 He crouched, he lay down like a lion, and like a lioness; who will rouse him up? Blessed is everyone who blesses you, and cursed is everyone who curses you.”

Numbers 24:10 Then Balak’s anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam, “I summoned you to curse my enemies, but instead you have blessed them these three times.

Numbers 24:11 Now be off with you! Go home! I said, ‘I will reward you richly,’ but the LORD has denied you any reward.”

Numbers 24:12 And Balaam said to Balak, “Did I not tell your messengers whom you sent to me,

Numbers 24:13 ‘If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I would not be able to go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own will; what the LORD says, that is what I will say’?

Numbers 24:14 So now, I am going to my people; let me advise you what this people will do to your people in days to come.”

Numbers 24:15 So he uttered his oracle, saying: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of the man whose eye is clear,

Numbers 24:16 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, who sees the vision of the Almighty, who falls down, but with his eyes uncovered:

Numbers 24:17 I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near—a star shall come out of Jacob, and a scepter shall rise out of Israel; it shall crush the borderlands of Moab, and the territory of all the Shethites.

Numbers 24:18 Edom will become a possession, Seir a possession of its enemies, while Israel does valiantly.

Numbers 24:20 Then he looked on Amalek, and uttered his oracle, saying: “First among the nations was Amalek, but its end is to perish forever.”

Numbers 24:21 Then he looked on the Kenite, and uttered his oracle, saying: “Enduring is your dwelling place, and your nest is set in the rock; Numbers 24:22 yet Kain is destined for burning. How long shall Asshur take you away captive?”

Numbers 24:23 Again he uttered his oracle, saying: “Alas, who shall live when God does this?

Numbers 24:24 But ships shall come from Kittim and shall afflict Asshur and Eber; and he also shall perish forever.”

Numbers 24:25 Then Balaam got up and went back to his place, and Balak also went his way.

Numbers 25:1 While Israel was staying at Shittim, the people began to have sexual relations with the women of Moab.

Numbers 25:2 These invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.

Numbers 25:3 Thus Israel yoked itself to the Baal of Peor, and the LORD’s anger was kindled against Israel.

Numbers 25:4 The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the chiefs of the people, and impale them in the sun before the LORD, in order that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel.”

Numbers 25:5 And Moses said to the judges of Israel, “Each of you shall kill any of your people who have yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor.”

Numbers 25:6 Just then one of the Israelites came and brought a Midianite woman into his family, in the sight of Moses and in the sight of the whole congregation of the Israelites, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Numbers 25:7 When Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he got up and left the congregation. Taking a spear in his hand, Numbers 25:8 he went after the Israelite man into the tent, and pierced the two of them, the Israelite and the woman, through the belly. So the plague was stopped among the people of Israel.

Numbers 25:9 Nevertheless those that died by the plague were twenty-four thousand.

Numbers 25:10 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 25:11 “Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the priest, has turned back my wrath from the Israelites by manifesting such zeal among them on my behalf that in my jealousy I did not consume the Israelites.

Numbers 25:12 Therefore say, ‘I hereby grant him my covenant of peace.

Numbers 25:13 It shall be for him and for his descendants after him a covenant of perpetual priesthood, because he was zealous for his God, and made atonement for the Israelites.’“

Numbers 25:14 The name of the slain Israelite man, who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri son of Salu, head of an ancestral house belonging to the Simeonites.

Numbers 25:15 The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi daughter of Zur, who was the head of a clan, an ancestral house in Midian.

Numbers 25:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 25:17 “Harass the Midianites, and defeat them;

Numbers 25:18 for they have harassed you by the trickery with which they deceived you in the affair of Peor, and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister; she was killed on the day of the plague that resulted from Peor.”

Numbers 26:1 After the plague the LORD said to Moses and to Eleazar son of Aaron the priest,

Numbers 26:2 “Take a census of the whole congregation of the Israelites, from twenty years old and upward, by their ancestral houses, everyone in Israel able to go to war.”

Numbers 26:3 Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying,

Numbers 26:4 “Take a census of the people, from twenty years old and upward,” as the LORD commanded Moses. The Israelites, who came out of the land of Egypt, were:

Numbers 26:5 Reuben, the firstborn of Israel. The descendants of Reuben: of Hanoch, the clan of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the clan of the Palluites;

Numbers 26:6 of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the clan of the Carmites.

Numbers 26:7 These are the clans of the Reubenites; the number of those enrolled was forty-three thousand seven hundred thirty.

Numbers 26:8 And the descendants of Pallu: Eliab.

Numbers 26:9 The descendants of Eliab: Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the same Dathan and Abiram, chosen from the congregation, who rebelled against Moses and Aaron in the company of Korah, when they rebelled against the LORD,

Numbers 26:10 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up along with Korah, when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred fifty men; and they became a warning.

Numbers 26:12 The descendants of Simeon by their clans: of Nemuel, the clan of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the clan of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the clan of the Jachinites;

Numbers 26:14 These are the clans of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand two hundred.

Numbers 26:15 The children of Gad by their clans: of Zephon, the clan of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the clan of the Haggites; of Shuni, the clan of the Shunites;

Numbers 26:16 of Ozni, the clan of the Oznites; of Eri, the clan of the Erites;

Numbers 26:17 of Arod, the clan of the Arodites; of Areli, the clan of the Arelites.

Numbers 26:18 These are the clans of the Gadites: the number of those enrolled was forty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 26:19 The sons of Judah: Er and Onan; Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 26:20 The descendants of Judah by their clans were: of Shelah, the clan of the Shelanites; of Perez, the clan of the Perezites; of Zerah, the clan of the Zerahites.

Numbers 26:21 The descendants of Perez were: of Hezron, the clan of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the clan of the Hamulites.

Numbers 26:22 These are the clans of Judah: the number of those enrolled was seventy-six thousand five hundred.

Numbers 26:23 The descendants of Issachar by their clans: of Tola, the clan of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the clan of the Punites;

Numbers 26:26 The descendants of Zebulun by their clans: of Sered, the clan of the Seredites; of Elon, the clan of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the clan of the Jahleelites.

Numbers 26:27 These are the clans of the Zebulunites; the number of those enrolled was sixty thousand five hundred.

Numbers 26:29 The descendants of Manasseh: of Machir, the clan of the Machirites; and Machir was the father of Gilead; of Gilead, the clan of the Gileadites.

Numbers 26:30 These are the descendants of Gilead: of Iezer, the clan of the Iezerites; of Helek, the clan of the Helekites;

Numbers 26:31 and of Asriel, the clan of the Asrielites; and of Shechem, the clan of the Shechemites;

Numbers 26:32 and of Shemida, the clan of the Shemidaites; and of Hepher, the clan of the Hepherites.

Numbers 26:33 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Numbers 26:34 These are the clans of Manasseh; the number of those enrolled was fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

Numbers 26:35 These are the descendants of Ephraim according to their clans: of Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the clan of the Becherites; of Tahan, the clan of the Tahanites.

Numbers 26:37 These are the clans of the Ephraimites: the number of those enrolled was thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the descendants of Joseph by their clans.

Numbers 26:38 The descendants of Benjamin by their clans: of Bela, the clan of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the clan of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the clan of the Ahiramites;

Numbers 26:40 And the sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the clan of the Ardites; of Naaman, the clan of the Naamites.

Numbers 26:41 These are the descendants of Benjamin by their clans; the number of those enrolled was forty-five thousand six hundred.

Numbers 26:42 These are the descendants of Dan by their clans: of Shuham, the clan of the Shuhamites. These are the clans of Dan by their clans.

Numbers 26:44 The descendants of Asher by their families: of Imnah, the clan of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the clan of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the clan of the Beriites.

Numbers 26:45 Of the descendants of Beriah: of Heber, the clan of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the clan of the Malchielites.

Numbers 26:46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.

Numbers 26:47 These are the clans of the Asherites: the number of those enrolled was fifty-three thousand four hundred.

Numbers 26:48 The descendants of Naphtali by their clans: of Jahzeel, the clan of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the clan of the Gunites;

Numbers 26:50 These are the Naphtalites by their clans: the number of those enrolled was forty-five thousand four hundred.

Numbers 26:51 This was the number of the Israelites enrolled: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred thirty.

Numbers 26:52 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 26:53 To these the land shall be apportioned for inheritance according to the number of names.

Numbers 26:54 To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small tribe you shall give a small inheritance; every tribe shall be given its inheritance according to its enrollment.

Numbers 26:55 But the land shall be apportioned by lot; according to the names of their ancestral tribes they shall inherit.

Numbers 26:56 Their inheritance shall be apportioned according to lot between the larger and the smaller.

Numbers 26:57 This is the enrollment of the Levites by their clans: of Gershon, the clan of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the clan of the Kohathites; of Merari, the clan of the Merarites.

Numbers 26:58 These are the clans of Levi: the clan of the Libnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Mahlites, the clan of the Mushites, the clan of the Korahites. Now Kohath was the father of Amram.

Numbers 26:59 The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram: Aaron, Moses, and their sister Miriam.

Numbers 26:60 To Aaron were born Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

Numbers 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they offered illicit fire before the LORD.

Numbers 26:62 The number of those enrolled was twenty-three thousand, every male one month old and up; for they were not enrolled among the Israelites because there was no allotment given to them among the Israelites.

Numbers 26:63 These were those enrolled by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who enrolled the Israelites in the plains of Moab by the Jordan opposite Jericho.

Numbers 26:64 Among these there was not one of those enrolled by Moses and Aaron the priest, who had enrolled the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai.

Numbers 26:65 For the LORD had said of them, “They shall die in the wilderness.” Not one of them was left, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 27:1 Then the daughters of Zelophehad came forward. Zelophehad was son of Hepher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh son of Joseph, a member of the Manassite clans. The names of his daughters were: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Numbers 27:2 They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders, and all the congregation, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and they said, Numbers 27:3 “Our father died in the wilderness; he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah, but died for his own sin; and he had no sons.

Numbers 27:4 Why should the name of our father be taken away from his clan because he had no son? Give to us a possession among our father’s brothers.”

Numbers 27:5 Moses brought their case before the LORD.

Numbers 27:6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 27:7 The daughters of Zelophehad are right in what they are saying; you shall indeed let them possess an inheritance among their father’s brothers and pass the inheritance of their father on to them.

Numbers 27:8 You shall also say to the Israelites, “If a man dies, and has no son, then you shall pass his inheritance on to his daughter.

Numbers 27:9 If he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

Numbers 27:10 If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

Numbers 27:11 And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the nearest kinsman of his clan, and he shall possess it. It shall be for the Israelites a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses.”

Numbers 27:12 The LORD said to Moses, “Go up this mountain of the Abarim range, and see the land that I have given to the Israelites.

Numbers 27:13 When you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was, Numbers 27:14 because you rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin when the congregation quarreled with me. You did not show my holiness before their eyes at the waters.” (These are the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

Numbers 27:15 Moses spoke to the LORD, saying,

Numbers 27:16 “Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint someone over the congregation

Numbers 27:17 who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in, so that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

Numbers 27:18 So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand upon him;

Numbers 27:20 You shall give him some of your authority, so that all the congregation of the Israelites may obey.

Numbers 27:21 But he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the decision of the Urim before the LORD; at his word they shall go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the Israelites with him, the whole congregation.”

Numbers 27:22 So Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation;

Numbers 27:23 he laid his hands on him and commissioned him—as the LORD had directed through Moses.

Numbers 28:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 28:2 Command the Israelites, and say to them: My offering, the food for my offerings by fire, my pleasing odor, you shall take care to offer to me at its appointed time.

Numbers 28:3 And you shall say to them, This is the offering by fire that you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish, daily, as a regular offering.

Numbers 28:4 One lamb you shall offer in the morning, and the other lamb you shall offer at twilight

Numbers 28:5 also one-tenth of an ephah of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with one-fourth of a hin of beaten oil.

Numbers 28:6 It is a regular burnt offering, ordained at Mount Sinai for a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:7 Its drink offering shall be one-fourth of a hin for each lamb; in the sanctuary you shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD.

Numbers 28:8 The other lamb you shall offer at twilight with a grain offering and a drink offering like the one in the morning; you shall offer it as an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD.

Numbers 28:9 On the sabbath day: two male lambs a year old without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering—

Numbers 28:10 this is the burnt offering for every sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:11 At the beginnings of your months you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;

Numbers 28:12 also three-tenths of an ephah of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; and two-tenths of choice flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;

Numbers 28:13 and one-tenth of choice flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for every lamb— a burnt offering of pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 28:14 Their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine for a bull, one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

Numbers 28:15 And there shall be one male goat for a sin offering to the LORD; it shall be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:16 On the fourteenth day of the first month there shall be a passover offering to the LORD.

Numbers 28:17 And on the fifteenth day of this month is a festival; seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

Numbers 28:18 On the first day there shall be a holy convocation. You shall not work at your occupations.

Numbers 28:19 You shall offer an offering by fire, a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; see that they are without blemish.

Numbers 28:20 Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil: three-tenths of an ephah shall you offer for a bull, and two-tenths for a ram;

Numbers 28:22 also one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:23 You shall offer these in addition to the burnt offering of the morning, which belongs to the regular burnt offering.

Numbers 28:24 In the same way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD; it shall be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:25 And on the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

Numbers 28:26 On the day of the first fruits, when you offer a grain offering of new grain to the LORD at your festival of weeks, you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations.

Numbers 28:27 You shall offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven male lambs a year old.

Numbers 28:28 Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for each bull, two-tenths for one ram,

Numbers 28:29 one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 28:30 with one male goat, to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:31 In addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, you shall offer them and their drink offering. They shall be without blemish.

Numbers 29:1 On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. It is a day for you to blow the trumpets,

Numbers 29:2 and you shall offer a burnt offering, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish.

Numbers 29:3 Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of one ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the ram,

Numbers 29:4 and one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 29:5 with one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

Numbers 29:6 These are in addition to the burnt offering of the new moon and its grain offering, and the regular burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to the ordinance for them, a pleasing odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

Numbers 29:7 On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall have a holy convocation, and deny yourselves; you shall do no work.

Numbers 29:8 You shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing odor: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old. They shall be without blemish.

Numbers 29:9 Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, two-tenths for the one ram,

Numbers 29:10 one-tenth for each of the seven lambs;

Numbers 29:11 with one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering of atonement, and the regular burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:12 On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall not work at your occupations. You shall celebrate a festival to the LORD seven days.

Numbers 29:13 You shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old. They shall be without blemish.

Numbers 29:14 Their grain offering shall be of choice flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenths for each of the two rams,

Numbers 29:15 and one-tenth for each of the fourteen lambs;

Numbers 29:16 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:17 On the second day: twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:18 with the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:19 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:20 On the third day: eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:21 with the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:22 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:23 On the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:24 with the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:25 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:26 On the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:27 with the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:28 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:29 On the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:30 with the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:31 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offerings.

Numbers 29:32 On the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:33 with the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:34 also one male goat for a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:35 On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly; you shall not work at your occupations.

Numbers 29:36 You shall offer a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a pleasing odor to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish,

Numbers 29:37 and the grain offering and the drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, as prescribed in accordance with their number;

Numbers 29:38 also one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 29:39 These you shall offer to the LORD at your appointed festivals, in addition to your votive offerings and your freewill offerings, as your burnt offerings, your grain offerings, your drink offerings, and your offerings of well-being.

Numbers 29:40 So Moses told the Israelites everything just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 30:1 Then Moses said to the heads of the tribes of the Israelites: This is what the LORD has commanded.

Numbers 30:2 When a man makes a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

Numbers 30:3 When a woman makes a vow to the LORD, or binds herself by a pledge, while within her father’s house, in her youth,

Numbers 30:4 and her father hears of her vow or her pledge by which she has bound herself, and says nothing to her; then all her vows shall stand, and any pledge by which she has bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:5 But if her father expresses disapproval to her at the time that he hears of it, no vow of hers, and no pledge by which she has bound herself, shall stand; and the LORD will forgive her, because her father had expressed to her his disapproval.

Numbers 30:6 If she marries, while obligated by her vows or any thoughtless utterance of her lips by which she has bound herself,

Numbers 30:7 and her husband hears of it and says nothing to her at the time that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her pledges by which she has bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:8 But if, at the time that her husband hears of it, he expresses disapproval to her, then he shall nullify the vow by which she was obligated, or the thoughtless utterance of her lips, by which she bound herself; and the LORD will forgive her.

Numbers 30:9 (But every vow of a widow or of a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall be binding upon her.)

Numbers 30:10 And if she made a vow in her husband's house, or bound herself by a pledge with an oath,

Numbers 30:11 and her husband heard it and said nothing to her, and did not express disapproval to her, then all her vows shall stand, and any pledge by which she bound herself shall stand.

Numbers 30:12 But if her husband nullifies them at the time that he hears them, then whatever proceeds out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning her pledge of herself, shall not stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will forgive her.

Numbers 30:13 Any vow or any binding oath to deny herself, her husband may allow to stand, or her husband may nullify.

Numbers 30:14 But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he validates all her vows, or all her pledges, by which she is obligated; he has validated them, because he said nothing to her at the time that he heard of them.

Numbers 30:15 But if he nullifies them some time after he has heard of them, then he shall bear her guilt.

Numbers 30:16 These are the statutes that the LORD commanded Moses concerning a husband and his wife, and a father and his daughter while she is still young and in her father's house.

Numbers 31:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 31:2 "Avenge the Israelites on the Midianites; afterward you shall be gathered to your people."

Numbers 31:3 So Moses said to the people, "Arm some of your number for the war, so that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD's vengeance on Midian.

Numbers 31:4 You shall send a thousand from each of the tribes of Israel to the war.”

Numbers 31:5 So out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand from each tribe were conscripted, twelve thousand armed for battle.

Numbers 31:6 Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for sounding the alarm in his hand.

Numbers 31:7 They did battle against Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed every male.

Numbers 31:8 They killed the kings of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian, in addition to others who were slain by them; and they also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

Numbers 31:9 The Israelites took the women of Midian and their little ones captive; and they took all their cattle, their flocks, and all their goods as booty.

Numbers 31:10 All their towns where they had settled, and all their encampments, they burned,

Numbers 31:11 but they took all the spoil and all the booty, both people and animals.

Numbers 31:12 Then they brought the captives and the booty and the spoil to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the Israelites, at the camp on the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Numbers 31:13 Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders of the congregation went to meet them outside the camp.

Numbers 31:14 Moses became angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who had come from service in the war.

Numbers 31:15 Moses said to them, “Have you allowed all the women to live?

Numbers 31:16 These women here, on Balaam’s advice, made the Israelites act treacherously against the LORD in the affair of Peor, so that the plague came among the congregation of the LORD.

Numbers 31:17 Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man by sleeping with him.

Numbers 31:18 But all the young girls who have not known a man by sleeping with him, keep alive for yourselves.

Numbers 31:19 Camp outside the camp seven days; whoever of you has killed any person or touched a corpse, purify yourselves and your captives on the third and on the seventh day.

Numbers 31:21 Eleazar the priest said to the troops who had gone to battle: “This is the statute of the law that the LORD has commanded Moses:

Numbers 31:22 gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, and lead—

Numbers 31:23 everything that can withstand fire, shall be passed through fire, and it shall be clean. Nevertheless it shall also be purified with the water for purification; and whatever cannot withstand fire, shall be passed through the water.

Numbers 31:24 You must wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you shall be clean; afterward you may come into the camp.”

Numbers 31:25 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Numbers 31:26 “You and Eleazar the priest and the heads of the ancestral houses of the congregation make an inventory of the booty captured, both human and animal.

Numbers 31:27 Divide the booty into two parts, between the warriors who went out to battle and all the congregation.

Numbers 31:28 From the share of the warriors who went out to battle, set aside as tribute for the LORD, one item out of every five hundred, whether persons, oxen, donkeys, sheep, or goats.

Numbers 31:29 Take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD.

Numbers 31:30 But from the Israelites’ half you shall take one out of every fifty, whether persons, oxen, donkeys, sheep, or goats— all the animals— and give them to the Levites who have charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.”

Numbers 31:31 Then Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD had commanded Moses:

Numbers 31:32 The booty remaining from the spoil that the troops had taken totaled six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep,

Numbers 31:33 seventy-two thousand oxen,

Numbers 31:34 sixty-one thousand donkeys,

Numbers 31:35 and thirty-two thousand persons in all, women who had not known a man by sleeping with him.

Numbers 31:36 The half-share, the portion of those who had gone out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep and goats,

Numbers 31:37 and the LORD’s tribute of sheep and goats was six hundred seventy-five.

Numbers 31:38 The oxen were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD’s tribute was seventy-two.

Numbers 31:39 The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD’s tribute was sixty-one.

Numbers 31:40 The persons were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD’s tribute was thirty-two persons.

Numbers 31:41 Moses gave the tribute, the offering for the LORD, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:42 As for the Israelites’ half, which Moses separated from that of the troops,

Numbers 31:43 the congregation’s half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep and goats,

Numbers 31:44 thirty-six thousand oxen,

Numbers 31:45 thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

Numbers 31:46 and sixteen thousand persons.

Numbers 31:47 From the Israelites’ half Moses took one of every fifty, both of persons and of animals, and gave them to the Levites who had charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:48 Then the officers who were over the thousands of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, approached Moses, Numbers 31:49 and said to Moses, “Your servants have counted the warriors who are under our command, and not one of us is missing.

Numbers 31:50 And we have brought the LORD’s offering, what each of us found, articles of gold, armlets and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and pendants, to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.”

Numbers 31:51 Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from them, all in the form of crafted articles.

Numbers 31:52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered to the LORD, from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels.

Numbers 31:53 (The troops had all taken plunder for themselves.)

Numbers 31:54 So Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

Numbers 32:1 Now the Reubenites and the Gadites owned a very great number of cattle. When they saw that the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead was a good place for cattle,

Numbers 32:2 the Gadites and the Reubenites came and spoke to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

Numbers 32:3 “Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon—Numbers 32:4 the land that the LORD subdued before the congregation of Israel— is a land for cattle; and your servants have cattle."

Numbers 32:5 They continued, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; do not make us cross the Jordan."

Numbers 32:6 But Moses said to the Gadites and to the Reubenites, "Shall your brothers go to war while you sit here?

Numbers 32:7 Why will you discourage the hearts of the Israelites from going over into the land that the LORD has given them?

Numbers 32:8 Your fathers did this, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see the land.

Numbers 32:9 When they went up to the Wadi Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the hearts of the Israelites from going into the land that the LORD had given them.

Numbers 32:10 The LORD's anger was kindled on that day and he swore, saying,

Numbers 32:11 'Surely none of the people who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they have not unreservedly followed me—

Numbers 32:12 none except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they have unreservedly followed the LORD.'

Numbers 32:13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the sight of the LORD had disappeared.

Numbers 32:14 And now you, a brood of sinners, have risen in place of your fathers, to increase the LORD's fierce anger against Israel!

Numbers 32:15 If you turn away from following him, he will again abandon them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people."

Numbers 32:16 Then they came up to him and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our flocks, and towns for our little ones,

Numbers 32:17 but we will take up arms as a vanguard before the Israelites, until we have brought them to their place. Meanwhile our little ones will stay in the fortified towns because of the inhabitants of the land.

Numbers 32:18 We will not return to our homes until all the Israelites have obtained their inheritance.

Numbers 32:19 We will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because our inheritance has come to us on this side of the Jordan to the east."

Numbers 32:20 So Moses said to them, “If you do this— if you take up arms to go before the LORD for the war,

Numbers 32:21 and all those of you who bear arms cross the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him

Numbers 32:22 and the land is subdued before the LORD— then after that you may return and be free of obligation to the LORD and to Israel, and this land shall be your possession before the LORD.

Numbers 32:23 But if you do not do this, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out.

Numbers 32:24 Build towns for your little ones, and folds for your flocks; but do what you have promised.”

Numbers 32:25 Then the Gadites and the Reubenites said to Moses, “Your servants will do as my lord commands.

Numbers 32:26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock shall remain there in the towns of Gilead;

Numbers 32:27 but your servants will cross over, everyone armed for war, to do battle for the LORD, just as my lord orders.”

Numbers 32:28 So Moses gave command concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the ancestral houses of the Israelite tribes.

Numbers 32:29 And Moses said to them, “If the Gadites and the Reubenites, everyone armed for battle before the LORD, will cross over the Jordan with you and the land shall be subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession; Numbers 32:30 but if they will not cross over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan.”

Numbers 32:31 The Gadites and the Reubenites answered, “As the LORD has spoken to your servants, so we will do.

Numbers 32:32 We will cross over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, but the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:33 Moses gave to them— to the Gadites and to the Reubenites and to the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph— the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites and the kingdom of King Og of Bashan, the land and its towns, with the territories of the surrounding towns.

Numbers 32:34 And the Gadites rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Numbers 32:35 Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Numbers 32:36 Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep.

Numbers 32:37 And the Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, Numbers 32:38 Nebo, and Baal-meon (some names being changed), and Sibmah; and they gave names to the towns that they rebuilt.

Numbers 32:39 The descendants of Machir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were there;

Numbers 32:40 so Moses gave Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he settled there.

Numbers 32:41 Jair son of Manasseh went and captured their villages, and renamed them Havvoth-jair.

Numbers 32:42 And Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages, and renamed it Nobah after himself.

Numbers 33:1 These are the stages by which the Israelites went out of the land of Egypt in military formation under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 33:2 Moses wrote down their starting points, stage by stage, by command of the LORD; and these are their stages according to their starting places.

Numbers 33:3 They set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the day after the passover the Israelites went out boldly in the sight of all the Egyptians,

Numbers 33:4 while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them. The LORD executed judgments even against their gods.

Numbers 33:5 So the Israelites set out from Rameses, and camped at Succoth.

Numbers 33:7 They set out from Etham, and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which faces Baal-zephon; and they camped before Migdol.

Numbers 33:8 They set out from Pi-hahiroth, passed through the sea into the wilderness, went a three days’ journey in the wilderness of Etham, and camped at Marah.

Numbers 33:9 They set out from Marah and came to Elim; at Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

Numbers 33:11 They set out from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin.

Numbers 33:14 They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

Numbers 33:25 They set out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth.

Numbers 33:35 They set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion-geber.

Numbers 33:36 They set out from Ezion-geber and camped in the wilderness of Zin (that is, Kadesh).

Numbers 33:37 They set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the edge of the land of Edom.

Numbers 33:38 Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor at the command of the LORD and died there in the fortieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt, on the first day of the fifth month.

Numbers 33:39 Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Numbers 33:40 The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the Negeb in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the Israelites.

Numbers 33:42 They set out from Zalmonah and camped at Punon.

Numbers 33:43 They set out from Punon and camped at Oboth.

Numbers 33:44 They set out from Oboth and camped at Iye-abarim, in the territory of Moab.

Numbers 33:45 They set out from Iyim and camped at Dibon-gad.

Numbers 33:47 They set out from Almon-diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

Numbers 33:48 They set out from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho;

Numbers 33:49 they camped by the Jordan from Beth-jeshimoth as far as Abel-shittim in the plains of Moab.

Numbers 33:50 In the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 33:51 Speak to the Israelites, and say to them: When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Numbers 33:52 you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their figured stones, destroy all their cast images, and demolish all their high places.

Numbers 33:53 You shall take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

Numbers 33:54 You shall apportion the land by lot according to your clans; to a large one you shall give a large inheritance, and to a small one you shall give a small inheritance; the inheritance shall belong to the person on whom the lot falls; according to your ancestral tribes you shall inherit.

Numbers 33:55 But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those whom you let remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides; they shall trouble you in the land where you are settling.

Numbers 33:56 And I will do to you as I thought to do to them.

Numbers 34:1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 34:2 Command the Israelites, and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan (this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan, defined by its boundaries),

Numbers 34:3 your south sector shall extend from the wilderness of Zin along the side of Edom. Your southern boundary shall begin from the end of the Dead Sea on the east;

Numbers 34:4 your boundary shall turn south of the ascent of Akrabbim, and cross to Zin, and its outer limit shall be south of Kadesh-barnea; then it shall go on to Hazar-addar, and cross to Azmon;

Numbers 34:5 the boundary shall turn from Azmon to the Wadi of Egypt, and its termination shall be at the Sea.

Numbers 34:6 For the western boundary, you shall have the Great Sea and its coast; this shall be your western boundary.

Numbers 34:7 This shall be your northern boundary: from the Great Sea you shall mark out your line to Mount Hor;

Numbers 34:8 from Mount Hor you shall mark it out to Lebo-hamath, and the outer limit of the boundary shall be at Zedad;

Numbers 34:9 then the boundary shall extend to Ziphron, and its end shall be at Hazar-enan; this shall be your northern boundary.

Numbers 34:10 You shall mark out your eastern boundary from Hazar-enan to Shepham;

Numbers 34:11 and the boundary shall continue down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain; and the boundary shall go down, and reach the eastern slope of the sea of Chinnereth;

Numbers 34:12 and the boundary shall go down to the Jordan, and its end shall be at the Dead Sea. This shall be your land with its boundaries all around.

Numbers 34:13 Moses commanded the Israelites, saying: This is the land that you shall inherit by lot, which the LORD has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe;

Numbers 34:14 for the tribe of the Reubenites by their ancestral houses and the tribe of the Gadites by their ancestral houses have taken their inheritance, and also the half-tribe of Manasseh;

Numbers 34:15 the two tribes and the half-tribe have taken their inheritance beyond the Jordan at Jericho eastward, toward the sunrise.

Numbers 34:16 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 34:17 These are the names of the men who shall apportion the land to you for inheritance: the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 34:18 You shall take one leader of every tribe to apportion the land for inheritance.

Numbers 34:19 These are the names of the men: Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh.

Numbers 34:23 Of the Josephites: of the tribe of the Manassites a leader, Hanniel son of Ephod,

Numbers 34:28 Of the tribe of the Naphtalites a leader, Pedahel son of Ammihud.

Numbers 34:29 These were the ones whom the LORD commanded to apportion the inheritance for the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35:1 In the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 35:2 Command the Israelites to give, from the inheritance that they possess, towns for the Levites to live in; you shall also give to the Levites pasture lands surrounding the towns.

Numbers 35:3 The towns shall be theirs to live in, and their pasture lands shall be for their cattle, for their livestock, and for all their animals.

Numbers 35:4 The pasture lands of the towns, which you shall give to the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the town outward a thousand cubits all around.

Numbers 35:5 You shall measure, outside the town, for the east side two thousand cubits, for the south side two thousand cubits, for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, with the town in the middle; this shall belong to them as pasture land for their towns.

Numbers 35:6 The towns that you give to the Levites shall include the six cities of refuge, where you shall permit a slayer to flee, and in addition to them you shall give forty-two towns.

Numbers 35:7 The towns that you give to the Levites shall total forty-eight, with their pasture lands.

Numbers 35:8 And as for the towns that you shall give from the possession of the Israelites, from the larger tribes you shall take many, and from the smaller tribes you shall take few; each, in proportion to the inheritance that it obtains, shall give of its towns to the Levites.

Numbers 35:9 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:

Numbers 35:10 Speak to the Israelites, and say to them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan,

Numbers 35:11 then you shall select cities to be cities of refuge for you, so that a slayer who kills a person without intent may flee there.

Numbers 35:12 The cities shall be for you a refuge from the avenger, so that the slayer may not die until there is a trial before the congregation.

Numbers 35:13 The cities that you designate shall be six cities of refuge for you:

Numbers 35:14 you shall designate three cities beyond the Jordan, and three cities in the land of Canaan, to be cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:15 These six cities shall serve as refuge for the Israelites, for the resident or transient alien among them, so that anyone who kills a person without intent may flee there.

Numbers 35:16 But anyone who strikes another with an iron object, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Numbers 35:17 Or anyone who strikes another with a stone in hand that could cause death, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Numbers 35:18 Or anyone who strikes another with a weapon of wood in hand that could cause death, and death ensues, is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Numbers 35:19 The avenger of blood is the one who shall put the murderer to death; when they meet, the avenger of blood shall execute the sentence.

Numbers 35:20 Likewise, if someone pushes another from hatred, or hurls something at another, lying in wait, and death ensues,

Numbers 35:21 or in enmity strikes another with the hand, and death ensues, then the one who struck the blow shall be put to death; that person is a murderer; the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when they meet.

Numbers 35:22 But if someone pushes another suddenly without enmity, or hurls any object without lying in wait,

Numbers 35:23 or, while handling any stone that could cause death, unintentionally drops it on another and death ensues, though they were not enemies, and no harm was intended, Numbers 35:24 then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the avenger of blood, in accordance with these ordinances;

Numbers 35:25 and the congregation shall rescue the slayer from the avenger of blood. Then the congregation shall send the slayer back to the original city of refuge. The slayer shall live in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.

Numbers 35:26 But if the slayer shall at any time go outside the bounds of the original city of refuge,

Numbers 35:27 and is found by the avenger of blood outside the bounds of the city of refuge, and is killed by the avenger, no bloodguilt shall be incurred.

Numbers 35:28 For the slayer must remain in the city of refuge until the death of the high priest; but after the death of the high priest the slayer may return home.

Numbers 35:29 These things shall be a statute and ordinance for you throughout your generations wherever you live.

Numbers 35:30 If anyone kills another, the murderer shall be put to death on the evidence of witnesses; but no one shall be put to death on the testimony of a single witness.

Numbers 35:31 Moreover you shall accept no ransom for the life of a murderer who is subject to the death penalty; a murderer must be put to death.

Numbers 35:32 Nor shall you accept ransom for one who has fled to a city of refuge, enabling the fugitive to return to live in the land before the death of the high priest.

Numbers 35:33 You shall not pollute the land in which you live; for blood pollutes the land, and no expiation can be made for the land, for the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

Numbers 35:34 You shall not defile the land in which you live, in which I also dwell; for I the LORD dwell among the Israelites.

Numbers 36:1 The heads of the ancestral houses of the clans of the descendants of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, of the Josephite clans, came forward and spoke in the presence of Moses and the leaders, the heads of the ancestral houses of the Israelites;

Numbers 36:2 they said, “The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the Israelites; and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

Numbers 36:3 But if they are married into another Israelite tribe, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our ancestors and added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry; so it will be taken away from the allotted portion of our inheritance.

Numbers 36:4 And when the jubilee of the Israelites comes, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they have married; and their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe."

Numbers 36:5 Then Moses commanded the Israelites according to the word of the LORD, saying, "The descendants of the tribe of Joseph are right in what they are saying.

Numbers 36:6 This is what the LORD commands concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, 'Let them marry whom they think best; only it must be into a clan of their father's tribe that they are married, Numbers 36:7 so that no inheritance of the Israelites shall be transferred from one tribe to another; for all Israelites shall retain the inheritance of their ancestral tribes.

Numbers 36:8 Every daughter who possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the Israelites shall marry one from the clan of her father's tribe, so that all Israelites may continue to possess their ancestral inheritance.

Numbers 36:9 No inheritance shall be transferred from one tribe to another; for each of the tribes of the Israelites shall retain its own inheritance.'"

Numbers 36:10 The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Numbers 36:12 They were married into the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father's clan.

Numbers 36:13 These are the commandments and the ordinances that the LORD commanded through Moses to the Israelites in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1:1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel beyond the Jordan— in the wilderness, on the plain opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Di-zahab.

Deuteronomy 1:2 (By the way of Mount Seir it takes eleven days to reach Kadesh-barnea from Horeb.)

Deuteronomy 1:3 In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses spoke to the Israelites just as the LORD had commanded him to speak to them.

Deuteronomy 1:4 This was after he had defeated King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei.

Deuteronomy 1:5 Beyond the Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to expound this law as follows:

Deuteronomy 1:6 The LORD our God spoke to us at Horeb, saying, “You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:7 Resume your journey, and go into the hill country of the Amorites as well as into the neighboring regions— the Arabah, the hill country, the Shephelah, the Negeb, and the seacoast— the land of the Canaanites and the Lebanon, as far as the great river, the river Euphrates.

Deuteronomy 1:8 See, I have set the land before you; go in and take possession of the land that I swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them.”

Deuteronomy 1:9 At that time I said to you, “I am unable by myself to bear you.

Deuteronomy 1:10 The LORD your God has multiplied you, so that today you are as numerous as the stars of heaven.

Deuteronomy 1:11 May the LORD, the God of your ancestors, increase you a thousand times more and bless you, as he has promised you!

Deuteronomy 1:12 But how can I bear the heavy burden of your disputes all by myself?

Deuteronomy 1:13 Choose for each of your tribes individuals who are wise, discerning, and reputable to be your leaders.”

Deuteronomy 1:14 You answered me, “The plan you have proposed is a good one.”

Deuteronomy 1:15 So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and reputable individuals, and installed them as leaders over you, commanders of thousands, commanders of hundreds, commanders of fifties, commanders of tens, and officials, throughout your tribes.

Deuteronomy 1:16 I charged your judges at that time: “Give the members of your community a fair hearing, and judge rightly between one person and another, whether citizen or resident alien.

Deuteronomy 1:17 You must not be partial in judging: hear out the small and the great alike; you shall not be intimidated by anyone, for the judgment is God’s. Any case that is too hard for you, bring to me, and I will hear it.”

Deuteronomy 1:18 So I charged you at that time with all the things that you should do.

Deuteronomy 1:19 Then, just as the LORD our God had ordered us, we set out from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw, on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, until we reached Kadesh-barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:20 I said to you, “You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

Deuteronomy 1:21 See, the LORD your God has given the land to you; go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you; do not fear or be dismayed.”

Deuteronomy 1:22 All of you came to me and said, “Let us send men ahead of us to explore the land for us and bring back a report to us regarding the route by which we should go up and the cities we will come to.”

Deuteronomy 1:23 The plan seemed good to me, and I selected twelve of you, one from each tribe.

Deuteronomy 1:24 They set out and went up into the hill country, and when they reached the Valley of Eshcol they spied it out

Deuteronomy 1:25 and gathered some of the land’s produce, which they brought down to us. They brought back a report to us, and said, “It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us.”

Deuteronomy 1:26 But you were unwilling to go up. You rebelled against the command of the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 1:27 you grumbled in your tents and said, “It is because the LORD hates us that he has brought us out of the land of Egypt, to hand us over to the Amorites to destroy us.

Deuteronomy 1:28 Where are we headed? Our kindred have made our hearts melt by reporting, ‘The people are stronger and taller than we; the cities are large and fortified up to heaven! We actually saw there the offspring of the Anakim!’“ Deuteronomy 1:29 I said to you, “Have no dread or fear of them.

Deuteronomy 1:30 The LORD your God, who goes before you, is the one who will fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your very eyes,

Deuteronomy 1:31 and in the wilderness, where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, just as one carries a child, all the way that you traveled until you reached this place.

Deuteronomy 1:32 But in spite of this, you have no trust in the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 1:33 who goes before you on the way to seek out a place for you to camp, in fire by night, and in the cloud by day, to show you the route you should take.”

Deuteronomy 1:34 When the LORD heard your words, he was wrathful and swore:

Deuteronomy 1:35 “Not one of these— not one of this evil generation— shall see the good land that I swore to give to your ancestors, Deuteronomy 1:36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He shall see it, and to him and to his descendants I will give the land on which he set foot, because of his complete fidelity to the LORD.”

Deuteronomy 1:37 Even with me the LORD was angry on your account, saying, “You also shall not enter there.

Deuteronomy 1:38 Joshua son of Nun, your assistant, shall enter there; encourage him, for he is the one who will secure Israel’s possession of it.

Deuteronomy 1:39 And as for your little ones, who you thought would become booty, your children, who today do not yet know right from wrong, they shall enter there; to them I will give it, and they shall take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 1:40 But as for you, journey back into the wilderness, in the direction of the Red Sea.”

Deuteronomy 1:41 You answered me, “We have sinned against the LORD! We are ready to go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.” So all of you strapped on your battle gear, and thought it easy to go up into the hill country.

Deuteronomy 1:42 The LORD said to me, “Say to them, ‘Do not go up and do not fight, for I am not in the midst of you; otherwise you will be defeated by your enemies.’“

Deuteronomy 1:43 Although I told you, you would not listen. You rebelled against the command of the LORD and presumptuously went up into the hill country.

Deuteronomy 1:44 The Amorites who lived in that hill country then came out against you and chased you as bees do. They beat you down in Seir as far as Hormah.

Deuteronomy 1:45 When you returned and wept before the LORD, the LORD would neither heed your voice nor pay you any attention.

Deuteronomy 1:46 After you had stayed at Kadesh as many days as you did,

Deuteronomy 2:1 we journeyed back into the wilderness, in the direction of the Red Sea, as the LORD had told me and skirted Mount Seir for many days.

Deuteronomy 2:2 Then the LORD said to me:

Deuteronomy 2:3 “You have been skirting this hill country long enough. Head north,

Deuteronomy 2:4 and charge the people as follows: You are about to pass through the territory of your kindred, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so, be very careful Deuteronomy 2:5 not to engage in battle with them, for I will not give you even so much as a foot’s length of their land, since I have given Mount Seir to Esau as a possession.

Deuteronomy 2:6 You shall purchase food from them for money, so that you may eat; and you shall also buy water from them for money, so that you may drink.

Deuteronomy 2:7 Surely the LORD your God has blessed you in all your undertakings; he knows your going through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.”

Deuteronomy 2:8 So we passed by our kin, the descendants of Esau who live in Seir, leaving behind the route of the Arabah, and leaving behind Elath and Ezion-geber. When we had headed out along the route of the wilderness of Moab,

Deuteronomy 2:9 the LORD said to me: “Do not harass Moab or engage them in battle, for I will not give you any of its land as a possession, since I have given Ar as a possession to the descendants of Lot.”

Deuteronomy 2:10 (The Emim— a large and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim— had formerly inhabited it.

Deuteronomy 2:11 Like the Anakim, they are usually reckoned as Rephaim, though the Moabites call them Emim.

Deuteronomy 2:12 Moreover, the Horim had formerly inhabited Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them, destroying them and settling in their place, as Israel has done in the land that the LORD gave them as a possession.)

Deuteronomy 2:13 “Now then, proceed to cross over the Wadi Zered.” So we crossed over the Wadi Zered.

Deuteronomy 2:14 And the length of time we had traveled from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the Wadi Zered was thirty-eight years, until the entire generation of warriors had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn concerning them.

Deuteronomy 2:15 Indeed, the LORD’s own hand was against them, to root them out from the camp, until all had perished.

Deuteronomy 2:16 Just as soon as all the warriors had died off from among the people,

Deuteronomy 2:17 the LORD spoke to me, saying,

Deuteronomy 2:18 “Today you are going to cross the boundary of Moab at Ar.

Deuteronomy 2:19 When you approach the frontier of the Ammonites, do not harass them or engage them in battle, for I will not give the land of the Ammonites to you as a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot.”

Deuteronomy 2:20 (It also is usually reckoned as a land of Rephaim. Rephaim formerly inhabited it, though the Ammonites call them Zamzummim, Deuteronomy 2:21 a strong and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim. But the LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites so that they could dispossess them and settle in their place.

Deuteronomy 2:22 He did the same for the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, by destroying the Horim before them so that they could dispossess them and settle in their place even to this day.

Deuteronomy 2:23 As for the Avvim, who had lived in settlements in the vicinity of Gaza, the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and settled in their place.)

Deuteronomy 2:24 “Proceed on your journey and cross the Wadi Arnon. See, I have handed over to you King Sihon the Amorite of Heshbon, and his land. Begin to take possession by engaging him in battle.

Deuteronomy 2:25 This day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples everywhere under heaven; when they hear report of you, they will tremble and be in anguish because of you.”

Deuteronomy 2:26 So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to King Sihon of Heshbon with the following terms of peace:

Deuteronomy 2:27 “If you let me pass through your land, I will travel only along the road; I will turn aside neither to the right nor to the left.

Deuteronomy 2:28 You shall sell me food for money, so that I may eat, and supply me water for money, so that I may drink. Only allow me to pass through on foot—

Deuteronomy 2:29 just as the descendants of Esau who live in Seir have done for me and likewise the Moabites who live in Ar— until I cross the Jordan into the land that the LORD our God is giving us.”

Deuteronomy 2:30 But King Sihon of Heshbon was not willing to let us pass through, for the LORD your God had hardened his spirit and made his heart defiant in order to hand him over to you, as he has now done.

Deuteronomy 2:31 The LORD said to me, “See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land over to you. Begin now to take possession of his land.”

Deuteronomy 2:32 So when Sihon came out against us, he and all his people for battle at Jahaz,

Deuteronomy 2:33 the LORD our God gave him over to us; and we struck him down, along with his offspring and all his people.

Deuteronomy 2:34 At that time we captured all his towns, and in each town we utterly destroyed men, women, and children. We left not a single survivor.

Deuteronomy 2:35 Only the livestock we kept as spoil for ourselves, as well as the plunder of the towns that we had captured.

Deuteronomy 2:36 From Aroer on the edge of the Wadi Arnon (including the town that is in the wadi itself) as far as Gilead, there was no citadel too high for us. The LORD our God gave everything to us.

Deuteronomy 2:37 You did not encroach, however, on the land of the Ammonites, avoiding the whole upper region of the Wadi Jabbok as well as the towns of the hill country, just as the LORD our God had charged.

Deuteronomy 3:1 When we headed up the road to Bashan, King Og of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, for battle at Edrei.

Deuteronomy 3:2 The LORD said to me, “Do not fear him, for I have handed him over to you, along with his people and his land. Do to him as you did to King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.”

Deuteronomy 3:3 So the LORD our God also handed over to us King Og of Bashan and all his people. We struck him down until not a single survivor was left.

Deuteronomy 3:4 At that time we captured all his towns; there was no citadel that we did not take from them— sixty towns, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:5 All these were fortress towns with high walls, double gates, and bars, besides a great many villages.

Deuteronomy 3:6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to King Sihon of Heshbon, in each city utterly destroying men, women, and children.

Deuteronomy 3:7 But all the livestock and the plunder of the towns we kept as spoil for ourselves.

Deuteronomy 3:8 So at that time we took from the two kings of the Amorites the land beyond the Jordan, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon

Deuteronomy 3:9 (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, while the Amorites call it Senir),

Deuteronomy 3:10 all the towns of the tableland, the whole of Gilead, and all of Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of Og’s kingdom in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:12 As for the land that we took possession of at that time, I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites the territory north of Aroer, that is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, as well as half the hill country of Gilead with its towns, Deuteronomy 3:13 and I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, Og's kingdom. (The whole region of Argob: all that portion of Bashan used to be called a land of Rephaim;

Deuteronomy 3:14 Jair the Manassite acquired the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and he named them— that is, Bashan— after himself, Havvoth-jair, as it is to this day.)

Deuteronomy 3:15 To Machir I gave Gilead.

Deuteronomy 3:16 And to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead as far as the Wadi Arnon, with the middle of the wadi as a boundary, and up to the Jabbok, the wadi being boundary of the Ammonites;

Deuteronomy 3:17 the Arabah also, with the Jordan and its banks, from Chinnereth down to the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, with the lower slopes of Pisgah on the east.

Deuteronomy 3:18 At that time, I charged you as follows: "Although the LORD your God has given you this land to occupy, all your troops shall cross over armed as the vanguard of your Israelite kin.

Deuteronomy 3:19 Only your wives, your children, and your livestock— I know that you have much livestock— shall stay behind in the towns that I have given to you.

Deuteronomy 3:20 When the LORD gives rest to your kindred, as to you, and they too have occupied the land that the LORD your God is giving them beyond the Jordan, then each of you may return to the property that I have given to you."

Deuteronomy 3:21 And I charged Joshua as well at that time, saying: "Your own eyes have seen everything that the LORD your God has done to these two kings; so the LORD will do to all the kingdoms into which you are about to cross.

Deuteronomy 3:22 Do not fear them, for it is the LORD your God who fights for you."

Deuteronomy 3:23 At that time, too, I entreated the LORD, saying:

Deuteronomy 3:24 "O Lord GOD, you have only begun to show your servant your greatness and your might; what god in heaven or on earth can perform deeds and mighty acts like yours!

Deuteronomy 3:25 Let me cross over to see the good land beyond the Jordan, that good hill country and the Lebanon."

Deuteronomy 3:26 But the LORD was angry with me on your account and would not heed me. The LORD said to me, "Enough from you! Never speak to me of this matter again!

Deuteronomy 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and look around you to the west, to the north, to the south, and to the east. Look well, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

Deuteronomy 3:28 But charge Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, because it is he who shall cross over at the head of this people and who shall secure their possession of the land that you will see.”

Deuteronomy 3:29 So we remained in the valley opposite Beth-peor.

Deuteronomy 4:1 So now, Israel, give heed to the statutes and ordinances that I am teaching you to observe, so that you may live to enter and occupy the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, is giving you.

Deuteronomy 4:2 You must neither add anything to what I command you nor take away anything from it, but keep the commandments of the LORD your God with which I am charging you.

Deuteronomy 4:3 You have seen for yourselves what the LORD did with regard to the Baal of Peor— how the LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor,

Deuteronomy 4:4 while those of you who held fast to the LORD your God are all alive today.

Deuteronomy 4:5 See, just as the LORD my God has charged me, I now teach you statutes and ordinances for you to observe in the land that you are about to enter and occupy.

Deuteronomy 4:6 You must observe them diligently, for this will show your wisdom and discernment to the peoples, who, when they hear all these statutes, will say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and discerning people!”

Deuteronomy 4:7 For what other great nation has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is whenever we call to him?

Deuteronomy 4:8 And what other great nation has statutes and ordinances as just as this entire law that I am setting before you today?

Deuteronomy 4:9 But take care and watch yourselves closely, so as neither to forget the things that your eyes have seen nor to let them slip from your mind all the days of your life; make them known to your children and your children’s children—

Deuteronomy 4:10 how you once stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, “Assemble the people for me, and I will let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me as long as they live on the earth, and may teach their children so”;

Deuteronomy 4:11 you approached and stood at the foot of the mountain while the mountain was blazing up to the very heavens, shrouded in dark clouds.

Deuteronomy 4:12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice.

Deuteronomy 4:13 He declared to you his covenant, which he charged you to observe, that is, the ten commandments; and he wrote them on two stone tablets.

Deuteronomy 4:14 And the LORD charged me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances for you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy.

Deuteronomy 4:15 Since you saw no form when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire, take care and watch yourselves closely,

Deuteronomy 4:16 so that you do not act corruptly by making an idol for yourselves, in the form of any figure— the likeness of male or female,

Deuteronomy 4:17 the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the air,

Deuteronomy 4:18 the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth.

Deuteronomy 4:19 And when you look up to the heavens and see the sun, the moon, and the stars, all the host of heaven, do not be led astray and bow down to them and serve them, things that the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples everywhere under heaven.

Deuteronomy 4:20 But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron-smelter, out of Egypt, to become a people of his very own possession, as you are now.

Deuteronomy 4:21 The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he vowed that I should not cross the Jordan and that I should not enter the good land that the LORD your God is giving for your possession.

Deuteronomy 4:22 For I am going to die in this land without crossing over the Jordan, but you are going to cross over to take possession of that good land.

Deuteronomy 4:23 So be careful not to forget the covenant that the LORD your God made with you, and not to make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything that the LORD your God has forbidden you.

Deuteronomy 4:24 For the LORD your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

Deuteronomy 4:25 When you have had children and children's children, and become complacent in the land, if you act corruptly by making an idol in the form of anything, thus doing what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, and provoking him to anger,

Deuteronomy 4:26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that you will soon utterly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to occupy; you will not live long on it, but will be utterly destroyed.

Deuteronomy 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among the peoples; only a few of you will be left among the nations where the LORD will lead you.

Deuteronomy 4:28 There you will serve other gods made by human hands, objects of wood and stone that neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

Deuteronomy 4:29 From there you will seek the LORD your God, and you will find him if you search after him with all your heart and soul.

Deuteronomy 4:30 In your distress, when all these things have happened to you in time to come, you will return to the LORD your God and heed him.

Deuteronomy 4:31 Because the LORD your God is a merciful God, he will neither abandon you nor destroy you; he will not forget the covenant with your ancestors that he swore to them.

Deuteronomy 4:32 For ask now about former ages, long before your own, ever since the day that God created human beings on the earth; ask from one end of heaven to the other: has anything so great as this ever happened or has its like ever been heard of?

Deuteronomy 4:33 Has any people ever heard the voice of a god speaking out of a fire, as you have heard, and lived?

Deuteronomy 4:34 Or has any god ever attempted to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by terrifying displays of power, as the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

Deuteronomy 4:35 To you it was shown so that you would acknowledge that the LORD is God; there is no other besides him.

Deuteronomy 4:36 From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, while you heard his words coming out of the fire.

Deuteronomy 4:37 And because he loved your ancestors, he chose their descendants after them. He brought you out of Egypt with his own presence, by his great power,

Deuteronomy 4:38 driving out before you nations greater and mightier than yourselves, to bring you in, giving you their land for a possession, as it is still today.

Deuteronomy 4:39 So acknowledge today and take to heart that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:40 Keep his statutes and his commandments, which I am commanding you today for your own well-being and that of your descendants after you, so that you may long remain in the land that the LORD your God is giving you for all time.

Deuteronomy 4:41 Then Moses set apart on the east side of the Jordan three cities

Deuteronomy 4:42 to which a homicide could flee, someone who unintentionally kills another person, the two not having been at enmity before; the homicide could flee to one of these cities and live:

Deuteronomy 4:43 Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland belonging to the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead belonging to the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan belonging to the Manassites.

Deuteronomy 4:44 This is the law that Moses set before the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 4:45 These are the decrees and the statutes and ordinances that Moses spoke to the Israelites when they had come out of Egypt,

Deuteronomy 4:46 beyond the Jordan in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned at Heshbon, whom Moses and the Israelites defeated when they came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 4:47 They occupied his land and the land of King Og of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites on the eastern side of the Jordan:

Deuteronomy 4:48 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, as far as Mount Sirion (that is, Hermon),

Deuteronomy 4:49 together with all the Arabah on the east side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5:1 Moses convened all Israel, and said to them: Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances that I am addressing to you today; you shall learn them and observe them diligently.

Deuteronomy 5:2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

Deuteronomy 5:3 Not with our ancestors did the LORD make this covenant, but with us, who are all of us here alive today.

Deuteronomy 5:4 The LORD spoke with you face to face at the mountain, out of the fire.

Deuteronomy 5:5 (At that time I was standing between the LORD and you to declare to you the words of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

Deuteronomy 5:6 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery;

Deuteronomy 5:7 you shall have no other gods before me.

Deuteronomy 5:8 You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Deuteronomy 5:9 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and fourth generation of those who reject me,

Deuteronomy 5:10 but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Deuteronomy 5:11 You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not acquit anyone who misuses his name.

Deuteronomy 5:12 Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.

Deuteronomy 5:13 Six days you shall labor and do all your work.

Deuteronomy 5:14 But the seventh day is a sabbath to the LORD your God; you shall not do any work— you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you.

Deuteronomy 5:15 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

Deuteronomy 5:16 Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God commanded you, so that your days may be long and that it may go well with you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 5:17 You shall not murder.

Deuteronomy 5:18 Neither shall you commit adultery.

Deuteronomy 5:19 Neither shall you steal.

Deuteronomy 5:21 Neither shall you covet your neighbor’s wife. Neither shall you desire your neighbor’s house, or field, or male or female slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Deuteronomy 5:22 These words the LORD spoke with a loud voice to your whole assembly at the mountain, out of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness, and he added no more. He wrote them on two stone tablets, and gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 5:23 When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, you approached me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders;

Deuteronomy 5:24 and you said, “Look, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the fire. Today we have seen that God may speak to someone and the person may still live.

Deuteronomy 5:25 So now why should we die? For this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer, we shall die.

Deuteronomy 5:26 For who is there of all flesh that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of fire, as we have, and remained alive?

Deuteronomy 5:27 Go near, you yourself, and hear all that the LORD our God will say. Then tell us everything that the LORD our God tells you, and we will listen and do it.”

Deuteronomy 5:28 The LORD heard your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me: “I have heard the words of this people, which they have spoken to you; they are right in all that they have spoken.

Deuteronomy 5:29 If only they had such a mind as this, to fear me and to keep all my commandments always, so that it might go well with them and with their children forever!

Deuteronomy 5:30 Go say to them, ‘Return to your tents.’

Deuteronomy 5:31 But you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandments, the statutes and the ordinances, that you shall teach them, so that they may do them in the land that I am giving them to possess.”

Deuteronomy 5:32 You must therefore be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you; you shall not turn to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 5:33 You must follow exactly the path that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live, and that it may go well with you, and that you may live long in the land that you are to possess.

Deuteronomy 6:1 Now this is the commandment— the statutes and the ordinances— that the LORD your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy,

Deuteronomy 6:2 so that you and your children and your children’s children may fear the LORD your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long.

Deuteronomy 6:3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has promised you.

Deuteronomy 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God, the LORD alone.

Deuteronomy 6:5 You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

Deuteronomy 6:6 Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart.

Deuteronomy 6:7 Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise.

Deuteronomy 6:8 Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead,

Deuteronomy 6:9 and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:10 When the LORD your God has brought you into the land that he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you— a land with fine, large cities that you did not build,

Deuteronomy 6:11 houses filled with all sorts of goods that you did not fill, hewn cisterns that you did not hew, vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant— and when you have eaten your fill,

Deuteronomy 6:12 take care that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 6:13 The LORD your God you shall fear; him you shall serve, and by his name alone you shall swear.

Deuteronomy 6:14 Do not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples who are all around you,

Deuteronomy 6:15 because the LORD your God, who is present with you, is a jealous God. The anger of the LORD your God would be kindled against you and he would destroy you from the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 6:16 Do not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested him at Massah.

Deuteronomy 6:17 You must diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his decrees, and his statutes that he has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 6:18 Do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may go in and occupy the good land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give you,

Deuteronomy 6:19 thrusting out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has promised.

Deuteronomy 6:20 When your children ask you in time to come, “What is the meaning of the decrees and the statutes and the ordinances that the LORD our God has commanded you?”

Deuteronomy 6:21 then you shall say to your children, “We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 6:22 The LORD displayed before our eyes great and awesome signs and wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his household.

Deuteronomy 6:23 He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land that he promised on oath to our ancestors.

Deuteronomy 6:24 Then the LORD commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our lasting good, so as to keep us alive, as is now the case.

Deuteronomy 6:25 If we diligently observe this entire commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, we will be in the right."

Deuteronomy 7:1 When the LORD your God brings you into the land that you are about to enter and occupy, and he clears away many nations before you— the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations mightier and more numerous than you—

Deuteronomy 7:2 and when the LORD your God gives them over to you and you defeat them, then you must utterly destroy them. Make no covenant with them and show them no mercy.

Deuteronomy 7:3 Do not intermarry with them, giving your daughters to their sons or taking their daughters for your sons,

Deuteronomy 7:4 for that would turn away your children from following me, to serve other gods. Then the anger of the LORD would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly.

Deuteronomy 7:5 But this is how you must deal with them: break down their altars, smash their pillars, hew down their sacred poles, and burn their idols with fire.

Deuteronomy 7:6 For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

Deuteronomy 7:7 It was not because you were more numerous than any other people that the LORD set his heart on you and chose you— for you were the fewest of all peoples.

Deuteronomy 7:8 It was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath that he swore to your ancestors, that the LORD has brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God, the faithful God who maintains covenant loyalty with those who love him and keep his commandments, to a thousand generations,

Deuteronomy 7:10 and who repays in their own person those who reject him. He does not delay but repays in their own person those who reject him.

Deuteronomy 7:11 Therefore, observe diligently the commandment— the statutes, and the ordinances— that I am commanding you today.

Deuteronomy 7:12 If you heed these ordinances, by diligently observing them, the LORD your God will maintain with you the covenant loyalty that he swore to your ancestors;

Deuteronomy 7:13 he will love you, bless you, and multiply you; he will bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock, in the land that he swore to your ancestors to give you.

Deuteronomy 7:14 You shall be the most blessed of peoples, with neither sterility nor barrenness among you or your livestock.

Deuteronomy 7:15 The LORD will turn away from you every illness; all the dread diseases of Egypt that you experienced, he will not inflict on you, but he will lay them on all who hate you.

Deuteronomy 7:16 You shall devour all the peoples that the LORD your God is giving over to you, showing them no pity; you shall not serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

Deuteronomy 7:17 If you say to yourself, “These nations are more numerous than I; how can I dispossess them?”

Deuteronomy 7:18 do not be afraid of them. Just remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt,

Deuteronomy 7:19 the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs and wonders, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.

Deuteronomy 7:20 Moreover, the LORD your God will send the pestilence against them, until even the survivors and the fugitives are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:21 Have no dread of them, for the LORD your God, who is present with you, is a great and awesome God.

Deuteronomy 7:22 The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to make a quick end of them, otherwise the wild animals would become too numerous for you.

Deuteronomy 7:23 But the LORD your God will give them over to you, and throw them into great panic, until they are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:24 He will hand their kings over to you and you shall blot out their name from under heaven; no one will be able to stand against you, until you have destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 7:25 The images of their gods you shall burn with fire. Do not covet the silver or the gold that is on them and take it for yourself, because you could be ensnared by it; for it is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 7:26 Do not bring an abhorrent thing into your house, or you will be set apart for destruction like it. You must utterly detest and abhor it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Deuteronomy 8:1 This entire commandment that I command you today you must diligently observe, so that you may live and increase, and go in and occupy the land that the LORD promised on oath to your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 8:2 Remember the long way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, in order to humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commandments.

Deuteronomy 8:3 He humbled you by letting you hunger, then by feeding you with manna, with which neither you nor your ancestors were acquainted, in order to make you understand that one does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 8:4 The clothes on your back did not wear out and your feet did not swell these forty years.

Deuteronomy 8:5 Know then in your heart that as a parent disciplines a child so the LORD your God disciplines you.

Deuteronomy 8:6 Therefore keep the commandments of the LORD your God, by walking in his ways and by fearing him.

Deuteronomy 8:7 For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills,

Deuteronomy 8:8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey,

Deuteronomy 8:9 a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper.

Deuteronomy 8:10 You shall eat your fill and bless the LORD your God for the good land that he has given you.

Deuteronomy 8:11 Take care that you do not forget the LORD your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today.

Deuteronomy 8:12 When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them,

Deuteronomy 8:13 and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied,

Deuteronomy 8:14 then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, Deuteronomy 8:15 who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, Deuteronomy 8:16 and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good.

Deuteronomy 8:17 Do not say to yourself, “My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.”

Deuteronomy 8:18 But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

Deuteronomy 8:19 If you do forget the LORD your God and follow other gods to serve and worship them, I solemnly warn you today that you shall surely perish.

Deuteronomy 8:20 Like the nations that the LORD is destroying before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9:1 Hear, O Israel! You are about to cross the Jordan today, to go in and dispossess nations larger and mightier than you, great cities, fortified to the heavens,

Deuteronomy 9:2 a strong and tall people, the offspring of the Anakim, whom you know. You have heard it said of them, “Who can stand up to the Anakim?”

Deuteronomy 9:3 Know then today that the LORD your God is the one who crosses over before you as a devouring fire; he will defeat them and subdue them before you, so that you may dispossess and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has promised you.

Deuteronomy 9:4 When the LORD your God thrusts them out before you, do not say to yourself, “It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me in to occupy this land”; it is rather because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is dispossessing them before you.

Deuteronomy 9:5 It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to occupy their land; but because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God is dispossessing them before you, in order to fulfill the promise that the LORD made on oath to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Deuteronomy 9:6 Know, then, that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to occupy because of your righteousness; for you are a stubborn people.

Deuteronomy 9:7 Remember and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness; you have been rebellious against the LORD from the day you came out of the land of Egypt until you came to this place.

Deuteronomy 9:8 Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was so angry with you that he was ready to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:9 When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD made with you, I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.

Deuteronomy 9:10 And the LORD gave me the two stone tablets written with the finger of God; on them were all the words that the LORD had spoken to you at the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly.

Deuteronomy 9:11 At the end of forty days and forty nights the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant.

Deuteronomy 9:12 Then the LORD said to me, “Get up, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you have brought from Egypt have acted corruptly. They have been quick to turn from the way that I commanded them; they have cast an image for themselves.”

Deuteronomy 9:13 Furthermore the LORD said to me, “I have seen that this people is indeed a stubborn people.

Deuteronomy 9:14 Let me alone that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of you a nation mightier and more numerous than they.”

Deuteronomy 9:15 So I turned and went down from the mountain, while the mountain was ablaze; the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands.

Deuteronomy 9:16 Then I saw that you had indeed sinned against the LORD your God, by casting for yourselves an image of a calf; you had been quick to turn from the way that the LORD had commanded you.

Deuteronomy 9:17 So I took hold of the two tablets and flung them from my two hands, smashing them before your eyes.

Deuteronomy 9:18 Then I lay prostrate before the LORD as before, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water, because of all the sin you had committed, provoking the LORD by doing what was evil in his sight.

Deuteronomy 9:19 For I was afraid that the anger that the LORD bore against you was so fierce that he would destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also.

Deuteronomy 9:20 The LORD was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to destroy him, but I interceded also on behalf of Aaron at that same time.

Deuteronomy 9:21 Then I took the sinful thing you had made, the calf, and burned it with fire and crushed it, grinding it thoroughly, until it was reduced to dust; and I threw the dust of it into the stream that runs down the mountain.

Deuteronomy 9:22 At Taberah also, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath.

Deuteronomy 9:23 And when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, “Go up and occupy the land that I have given you,” you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God, neither trusting him nor obeying him.

Deuteronomy 9:24 You have been rebellious against the LORD as long as he has known you.

Deuteronomy 9:25 Throughout the forty days and forty nights that I lay prostrate before the LORD when the LORD intended to destroy you,

Deuteronomy 9:26 I prayed to the LORD and said, “Lord GOD, do not destroy the people who are your very own possession, whom you redeemed in your greatness, whom you brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 9:27 Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; pay no attention to the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness and their sin,

Deuteronomy 9:28 otherwise the land from which you have brought us might say, ‘Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land that he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to let them die in the wilderness.’

Deuteronomy 9:29 For they are the people of your very own possession, whom you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm.”

Deuteronomy 10:1 At that time the LORD said to me, “Carve out two tablets of stone like the former ones, and come up to me on the mountain, and make an ark of wood.

Deuteronomy 10:2 I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you smashed, and you shall put them in the ark.”

Deuteronomy 10:3 So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.

Deuteronomy 10:4 Then he wrote on the tablets the same words as before, the ten commandments that the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain out of the fire on the day of the assembly; and the LORD gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 10:5 So I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark that I had made; and there they are, as the LORD commanded me.

Deuteronomy 10:6 (The Israelites journeyed from Beeroth-bene-jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; his son Eleazar succeeded him as priest.

Deuteronomy 10:7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with flowing streams.

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day.

Deuteronomy 10:9 Therefore Levi has no allotment or inheritance with his kindred; the LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD your God promised him.)

Deuteronomy 10:10 I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights, as I had done the first time. And once again the LORD listened to me. The LORD was unwilling to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 10:11 The LORD said to me, “Get up, go on your journey at the head of the people, that they may go in and occupy the land that I swore to their ancestors to give them.”

Deuteronomy 10:12 So now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you? Only to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deuteronomy 10:13 and to keep the commandments of the LORD your God and his decrees that I am commanding you today, for your own well-being.

Deuteronomy 10:14 Although heaven and the heaven of heavens belong to the LORD your God, the earth with all that is in it,

Deuteronomy 10:15 yet the LORD set his heart in love on your ancestors alone and chose you, their descendants after them, out of all the peoples, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 10:16 Circumcise, then, the foreskin of your heart, and do not be stubborn any longer.

Deuteronomy 10:17 For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe,

Deuteronomy 10:18 who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing.

Deuteronomy 10:19 You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 10:20 You shall fear the LORD your God; him alone you shall worship; to him you shall hold fast, and by his name you shall swear.

Deuteronomy 10:21 He is your praise; he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things that your own eyes have seen.

Deuteronomy 10:22 Your ancestors went down to Egypt seventy persons; and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in heaven.

Deuteronomy 11:1 You shall love the LORD your God, therefore, and keep his charge, his decrees, his ordinances, and his commandments always.

Deuteronomy 11:2 Remember today that it was not your children (who have not known or seen the discipline of the LORD your God), but it is you who must acknowledge his greatness, his mighty hand and his outstretched arm,

Deuteronomy 11:3 his signs and his deeds that he did in Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to all his land;

Deuteronomy 11:4 what he did to the Egyptian army, to their horses and chariots, how he made the water of the Red Sea flow over them as they pursued you, so that the LORD has destroyed them to this day;

Deuteronomy 11:5 what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place;

Deuteronomy 11:6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab son of Reuben, how in the midst of all Israel the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households, their tents, and every living being in their company;

Deuteronomy 11:7 for it is your own eyes that have seen every great deed that the LORD did.

Deuteronomy 11:8 Keep, then, this entire commandment that I am commanding you today, so that you may have strength to go in and occupy the land that you are crossing over to occupy,

Deuteronomy 11:9 and so that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 11:10 For the land that you are about to enter to occupy is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you sow your seed and irrigate by foot like a vegetable garden.

Deuteronomy 11:11 But the land that you are crossing over to occupy is a land of hills and valleys, watered by rain from the sky,

Deuteronomy 11:12 a land that the LORD your God looks after. The eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the end of the year.

Deuteronomy 11:13 If you will only heed his every commandment that I am commanding you today— loving the LORD your God, and serving him with all your heart and with all your soul—

Deuteronomy 11:14 then he will give the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the later rain, and you will gather in your grain, your wine, and your oil;

Deuteronomy 11:15 and he will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you will eat your fill.

Deuteronomy 11:16 Take care, or you will be seduced into turning away, serving other gods and worshiping them,

Deuteronomy 11:17 for then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you and he will shut up the heavens, so that there will be no rain and the land will yield no fruit; then you will perish quickly off the good land that the LORD is giving you.

Deuteronomy 11:18 You shall put these words of mine in your heart and soul, and you shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and fix them as an emblem on your forehead.

Deuteronomy 11:19 Teach them to your children, talking about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise.

Deuteronomy 11:20 Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,

Deuteronomy 11:21 so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give them, as long as the heavens are above the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:22 If you will diligently observe this entire commandment that I am commanding you, loving the LORD your God, walking in all his ways, and holding fast to him,

Deuteronomy 11:23 then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and mightier than yourselves.

Deuteronomy 11:24 Every place on which you set foot shall be yours; your territory shall extend from the wilderness to the Lebanon and from the River, the river Euphrates, to the Western Sea.

Deuteronomy 11:25 No one will be able to stand against you; the LORD your God will put the fear and dread of you on all the land on which you set foot, as he promised you.

Deuteronomy 11:26 See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse:

Deuteronomy 11:27 the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today;

Deuteronomy 11:28 and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn from the way that I am commanding you today, to follow other gods that you have not known.

Deuteronomy 11:29 When the LORD your God has brought you into the land that you are entering to occupy, you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.

Deuteronomy 11:30 As you know, they are beyond the Jordan, some distance to the west, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the Arabah, opposite Gilgal, beside the oak of Moreh.

Deuteronomy 11:31 When you cross the Jordan to go in to occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and when you occupy it and live in it, Deuteronomy 11:32 you must diligently observe all the statutes and ordinances that I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy 12:1 These are the statutes and ordinances that you must diligently observe in the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you to occupy all the days that you live on the earth.

Deuteronomy 12:2 You must demolish completely all the places where the nations whom you are about to dispossess served their gods, on the mountain heights, on the hills, and under every leafy tree.

Deuteronomy 12:3 Break down their altars, smash their pillars, burn their sacred poles with fire, and hew down the idols of their gods, and thus blot out their name from their places.

Deuteronomy 12:4 You shall not worship the LORD your God in such ways.

Deuteronomy 12:5 But you shall seek the place that the LORD your God will choose out of all your tribes as his habitation to put his name there. You shall go there,

Deuteronomy 12:6 bringing there your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and your donations, your votive gifts, your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and flocks.

Deuteronomy 12:7 And you shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your households together, rejoicing in all the undertakings in which the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 12:8 You shall not act as we are acting here today, all of us according to our own desires,

Deuteronomy 12:9 for you have not yet come into the rest and the possession that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 12:10 When you cross over the Jordan and live in the land that the LORD your God is allotting to you, and when he gives you rest from your enemies all around so that you live in safety,

Deuteronomy 12:11 then you shall bring everything that I command you to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name: your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes and your donations, and all your choice votive gifts that you vow to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:12 And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you together with your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, and the Levites who reside in your towns (since they have no allotment or inheritance with you).

Deuteronomy 12:13 Take care that you do not offer your burnt offerings at any place you happen to see.

Deuteronomy 12:14 But only at the place that the LORD will choose in one of your tribes— there you shall offer your burnt offerings and there you shall do everything I command you.

Deuteronomy 12:15 Yet whenever you desire you may slaughter and eat meat within any of your towns, according to the blessing that the LORD your God has given you; the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as they would of gazelle or deer.

Deuteronomy 12:16 The blood, however, you must not eat; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:17 Nor may you eat within your towns the tithe of your grain, your wine, and your oil, the firstlings of your herds and your flocks, any of your votive gifts that you vow, your freewill offerings, or your donations;

Deuteronomy 12:18 these you shall eat in the presence of the LORD your God at the place that the LORD your God will choose, you together with your son and your daughter, your male and female slaves, and the Levites resident in your towns, rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God in all your undertakings.

Deuteronomy 12:19 Take care that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.

Deuteronomy 12:20 When the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he has promised you, and you say, “I am going to eat some meat,” because you wish to eat meat, you may eat meat whenever you have the desire.

Deuteronomy 12:21 If the place where the LORD your God will choose to put his name is too far from you, and you slaughter as I have commanded you any of your herd or flock that the LORD has given you, then you may eat within your towns whenever you desire.

Deuteronomy 12:22 Indeed, just as gazelle or deer is eaten, so you may eat it; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it.

Deuteronomy 12:23 Only be sure that you do not eat the blood; for the blood is the life, and you shall not eat the life with the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:24 Do not eat it; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:25 Do not eat it, so that all may go well with you and your children after you, because you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:26 But the sacred donations that are due from you, and your votive gifts, you shall bring to the place that the LORD will choose.

Deuteronomy 12:27 You shall present your burnt offerings, both the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; the blood of your other sacrifices shall be poured out beside the altar of the LORD your God, but the meat you may eat.

Deuteronomy 12:28 Be careful to obey all these words that I command you today, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, because you will be doing what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 12:29 When the LORD your God has cut off before you the nations whom you are about to enter to dispossess them, when you have dispossessed them and live in their land,

Deuteronomy 12:30 take care that you are not snared into imitating them, after they have been destroyed before you: do not inquire concerning their gods, saying, “How did these nations worship their gods? I also want to do the same.”

Deuteronomy 12:31 You must not do the same for the LORD your God, because every abhorrent thing that the LORD hates they have done for their gods. They would even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:32 You must diligently observe everything that I command you; do not add to it or take anything from it.

Deuteronomy 13:1 If prophets or those who divine by dreams appear among you and promise you omens or portents,

Deuteronomy 13:2 and the omens or the portents declared by them take place, and they say, “Let us follow other gods” (whom you have not known) “and let us serve them,”

Deuteronomy 13:3 you must not heed the words of those prophets or those who divine by dreams; for the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you indeed love the LORD your God with all your heart and soul.

Deuteronomy 13:4 The LORD your God you shall follow, him alone you shall fear, his commandments you shall keep, his voice you shall obey, him you shall serve, and to him you shall hold fast.

Deuteronomy 13:5 But those prophets or those who divine by dreams shall be put to death for having spoken treason against the LORD your God— who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery— to turn you from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 13:6 If anyone secretly entices you— even if it is your brother, your father's son or your mother's son, or your own son or daughter, or the wife you embrace, or your most intimate friend— saying, "Let us go worship other gods," whom neither you nor your ancestors have known,

Deuteronomy 13:7 any of the gods of the peoples that are around you, whether near you or far away from you, from one end of the earth to the other,

Deuteronomy 13:8 you must not yield to or heed any such persons. Show them no pity or compassion and do not shield them.

Deuteronomy 13:9 But you shall surely kill them; your own hand shall be first against them to execute them, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

Deuteronomy 13:10 Stone them to death for trying to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.

Deuteronomy 13:11 Then all Israel shall hear and be afraid, and never again do any such wickedness.

Deuteronomy 13:12 If you hear it said about one of the towns that the LORD your God is giving you to live in,

Deuteronomy 13:13 that scoundrels from among you have gone out and led the inhabitants of the town astray, saying, "Let us go and worship other gods," whom you have not known,

Deuteronomy 13:14 then you shall inquire and make a thorough investigation. If the charge is established that such an abhorrent thing has been done among you,

Deuteronomy 13:15 you shall put the inhabitants of that town to the sword, utterly destroying it and everything in it— even putting its livestock to the sword.

Deuteronomy 13:16 All of its spoil you shall gather into its public square; then burn the town and all its spoil with fire, as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It shall remain a perpetual ruin, never to be rebuilt.

Deuteronomy 13:17 Do not let anything devoted to destruction stick to your hand, so that the LORD may turn from his fierce anger and show you compassion, and in his compassion multiply you, as he swore to your ancestors,

Deuteronomy 13:18 if you obey the voice of the LORD your God by keeping all his commandments that I am commanding you today, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 14:1 You are children of the LORD your God. You must not lacerate yourselves or shave your forelocks for the dead.

Deuteronomy 14:2 For you are a people holy to the LORD your God; it is you the LORD has chosen out of all the peoples on earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

Deuteronomy 14:3 You shall not eat any abhorrent thing.

Deuteronomy 14:4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

Deuteronomy 14:5 the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain-sheep.

Deuteronomy 14:6 Any animal that divides the hoof and has the hoof cleft in two, and chews the cud, among the animals, you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:7 Yet of those that chew the cud or have the hoof cleft you shall not eat these: the camel, the hare, and the rock badger, because they chew the cud but do not divide the hoof; they are unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:8 And the pig, because it divides the hoof but does not chew the cud, is unclean for you. You shall not eat their meat, and you shall not touch their carcasses.

Deuteronomy 14:9 Of all that live in water you may eat these: whatever has fins and scales you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:10 And whatever does not have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:11 You may eat any clean birds.

Deuteronomy 14:12 But these are the ones that you shall not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the osprey,

Deuteronomy 14:13 the buzzard, the kite, of any kind;

Deuteronomy 14:14 every raven of any kind;

Deuteronomy 14:15 the ostrich, the nighthawk, the sea gull, the hawk, of any kind;

Deuteronomy 14:16 the little owl and the great owl, the water hen

Deuteronomy 14:17 and the desert owl, the carrion vulture and the cormorant,

Deuteronomy 14:18 the stork, the heron, of any kind; the hoopoe and the bat.

Deuteronomy 14:19 And all winged insects are unclean for you; they shall not be eaten.

Deuteronomy 14:20 You may eat any clean winged creature.

Deuteronomy 14:21 You shall not eat anything that dies of itself; you may give it to aliens residing in your towns for them to eat, or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a kid in its mother’s milk.

Deuteronomy 14:22 Set apart a tithe of all the yield of your seed that is brought in yearly from the field.

Deuteronomy 14:23 In the presence of the LORD your God, in the place that he will choose as a dwelling for his name, you shall eat the tithe of your grain, your wine, and your oil, as well as the firstlings of your herd and flock, so that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always.

Deuteronomy 14:24 But if, when the LORD your God has blessed you, the distance is so great that you are unable to transport it, because the place where the LORD your God will choose to set his name is too far away from you,

Deuteronomy 14:25 then you may turn it into money. With the money secure in hand, go to the place that the LORD your God will choose;

Deuteronomy 14:26 spend the money for whatever you wish— oxen, sheep, wine, strong drink, or whatever you desire. And you shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your household rejoicing together.

Deuteronomy 14:27 As for the Levites resident in your towns, do not neglect them, because they have no allotment or inheritance with you.

Deuteronomy 14:28 Every third year you shall bring out the full tithe of your produce for that year, and store it within your towns;

Deuteronomy 14:29 the Levites, because they have no allotment or inheritance with you, as well as the resident aliens, the orphans, and the widows in your towns, may come and eat their fill so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work that you undertake.

Deuteronomy 15:1 Every seventh year you shall grant a remission of debts.

Deuteronomy 15:2 And this is the manner of the remission: every creditor shall remit the claim that is held against a neighbor, not exacting it of a neighbor who is a member of the community, because the LORD’s remission has been proclaimed.

Deuteronomy 15:3 Of a foreigner you may exact it, but you must remit your claim on whatever any member of your community owes you.

Deuteronomy 15:4 There will, however, be no one in need among you, because the LORD is sure to bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession to occupy, Deuteronomy 15:5 if only you will obey the LORD your God by diligently observing this entire commandment that I command you today.

Deuteronomy 15:6 When the LORD your God has blessed you, as he promised you, you will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

Deuteronomy 15:7 If there is among you anyone in need, a member of your community in any of your towns within the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hard-hearted or tight-fisted toward your needy neighbor.

Deuteronomy 15:8 You should rather open your hand, willingly lending enough to meet the need, whatever it may be.

Deuteronomy 15:9 Be careful that you do not entertain a mean thought, thinking, “The seventh year, the year of remission, is near,” and therefore view your needy neighbor with hostility and give nothing; your neighbor might cry to the LORD against you, and you would incur guilt.

Deuteronomy 15:10 Give liberally and be ungrudging when you do so, for on this account the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all that you undertake.

Deuteronomy 15:11 Since there will never cease to be some in need on the earth, I therefore command you, “Open your hand to the poor and needy neighbor in your land.”

Deuteronomy 15:12 If a member of your community, whether a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and works for you six years, in the seventh year you shall set that person free.

Deuteronomy 15:13 And when you send a male slave out from you a free person, you shall not send him out empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 15:14 Provide liberally out of your flock, your threshing floor, and your wine press, thus giving to him some of the bounty with which the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 15:15 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you; for this reason I lay this command upon you today.

Deuteronomy 15:16 But if he says to you, “I will not go out from you,” because he loves you and your household, since he is well off with you,

Deuteronomy 15:17 then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his earlobe into the door, and he shall be your slave forever. You shall do the same with regard to your female slave.

Deuteronomy 15:18 Do not consider it a hardship when you send them out from you free persons, because for six years they have given you services worth the wages of hired laborers; and the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

Deuteronomy 15:19 Every firstling male born of your herd and flock you shall consecrate to the LORD your God; you shall not do work with your firstling ox nor shear the firstling of your flock.

Deuteronomy 15:20 You shall eat it, you together with your household, in the presence of the LORD your God year by year at the place that the LORD will choose.

Deuteronomy 15:21 But if it has any defect— any serious defect, such as lameness or blindness— you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 15:22 within your towns you may eat it, the unclean and the clean alike, as you would a gazelle or deer.

Deuteronomy 15:23 Its blood, however, you must not eat; you shall pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16:1 Observe the month of Abib by keeping the passover for the LORD your God, for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deuteronomy 16:2 You shall offer the passover sacrifice for the LORD your God, from the flock and the herd, at the place that the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his name.

Deuteronomy 16:3 You must not eat with it anything leavened. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread with it— the bread of affliction— because you came out of the land of Egypt in great haste, so that all the days of your life you may remember the day of your departure from the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:4 No leaven shall be seen with you in all your territory for seven days; and none of the meat of what you slaughter on the evening of the first day shall remain until morning.

Deuteronomy 16:5 You are not permitted to offer the passover sacrifice within any of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:6 But at the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name, only there shall you offer the passover sacrifice, in the evening at sunset, the time of day when you departed from Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:7 You shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD your God will choose; the next morning you may go back to your tents.

Deuteronomy 16:8 For six days you shall continue to eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly for the LORD your God, when you shall do no work.

Deuteronomy 16:9 You shall count seven weeks; begin to count the seven weeks from the time the sickle is first put to the standing grain.

Deuteronomy 16:10 Then you shall keep the festival of weeks for the LORD your God, contributing a freewill offering in proportion to the blessing that you have received from the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 16:11 Rejoice before the LORD your God— you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, the Levites resident in your towns, as well as the strangers, the orphans, and the widows who are among you— at the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name.

Deuteronomy 16:12 Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and diligently observe these statutes.

Deuteronomy 16:13 You shall keep the festival of booths for seven days, when you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your wine press.

Deuteronomy 16:14 Rejoice during your festival, you and your sons and your daughters, your male and female slaves, as well as the Levites, the strangers, the orphans, and the widows resident in your towns.

Deuteronomy 16:15 Seven days you shall keep the festival for the LORD your God at the place that the LORD will choose; for the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce and in all your undertakings, and you shall surely celebrate.

Deuteronomy 16:16 Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose: at the festival of unleavened bread, at the festival of weeks, and at the festival of booths. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed;

Deuteronomy 16:17 all shall give as they are able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

Deuteronomy 16:18 You shall appoint judges and officials throughout your tribes, in all your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall render just decisions for the people.

Deuteronomy 16:19 You must not distort justice; you must not show partiality; and you must not accept bribes, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and subverts the cause of those who are in the right.

Deuteronomy 16:20 Justice, and only justice, you shall pursue, so that you may live and occupy the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:21 You shall not plant any tree as a sacred pole beside the altar that you make for the LORD your God;

Deuteronomy 16:22 nor shall you set up a stone pillar— things that the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17:1 You must not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has a defect, anything seriously wrong; for that is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 17:2 If there is found among you, in one of your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, a man or woman who does what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, and transgresses his covenant

Deuteronomy 17:3 by going to serve other gods and worshiping them— whether the sun or the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have forbidden—

Deuteronomy 17:4 and if it is reported to you or you hear of it, and you make a thorough inquiry, and the charge is proved true that such an abhorrent thing has occurred in Israel, Deuteronomy 17:5 then you shall bring out to your gates that man or that woman who has committed this crime and you shall stone the man or woman to death.

Deuteronomy 17:6 On the evidence of two or three witnesses the death sentence shall be executed; a person must not be put to death on the evidence of only one witness.

Deuteronomy 17:7 The hands of the witnesses shall be the first raised against the person to execute the death penalty, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 17:8 If a judicial decision is too difficult for you to make between one kind of bloodshed and another, one kind of legal right and another, or one kind of assault and another— any such matters of dispute in your towns— then you shall immediately go up to the place that the LORD your God will choose,

Deuteronomy 17:9 where you shall consult with the levitical priests and the judge who is in office in those days; they shall announce to you the decision in the case.

Deuteronomy 17:10 Carry out exactly the decision that they announce to you from the place that the LORD will choose, diligently observing everything they instruct you.

Deuteronomy 17:11 You must carry out fully the law that they interpret for you or the ruling that they announce to you; do not turn aside from the decision that they announce to you, either to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 17:12 As for anyone who presumes to disobey the priest appointed to minister there to the LORD your God, or the judge, that person shall die. So you shall purge the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 17:13 All the people will hear and be afraid, and will not act presumptuously again.

Deuteronomy 17:14 When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, “I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me,”

Deuteronomy 17:15 you may indeed set over you a king whom the LORD your God will choose. One of your own community you may set as king over you; you are not permitted to put a foreigner over you, who is not of your own community.

Deuteronomy 17:16 Even so, he must not acquire many horses for himself, or return the people to Egypt in order to acquire more horses, since the LORD has said to you, “You must never return that way again.”

Deuteronomy 17:17 And he must not acquire many wives for himself, or else his heart will turn away; also silver and gold he must not acquire in great quantity for himself.

Deuteronomy 17:18 When he has taken the throne of his kingdom, he shall have a copy of this law written for him in the presence of the levitical priests.

Deuteronomy 17:19 It shall remain with him and he shall read in it all the days of his life, so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, diligently observing all the words of this law and these statutes,

Deuteronomy 17:20 neither exalting himself above other members of the community nor turning aside from the commandment, either to the right or to the left, so that he and his descendants may reign long over his kingdom in Israel.

Deuteronomy 18:1 The levitical priests, the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no allotment or inheritance within Israel. They may eat the sacrifices that are the LORD's portion Deuteronomy 18:2 but they shall have no inheritance among the other members of the community; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

Deuteronomy 18:3 This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those offering a sacrifice, whether an ox or a sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the two jowls, and the stomach.

Deuteronomy 18:4 The first fruits of your grain, your wine, and your oil, as well as the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him.

Deuteronomy 18:5 For the LORD your God has chosen Levi out of all your tribes, to stand and minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for all time.

Deuteronomy 18:6 If a Levite leaves any of your towns, from wherever he has been residing in Israel, and comes to the place that the LORD will choose (and he may come whenever he wishes),

Deuteronomy 18:7 then he may minister in the name of the LORD his God, like all his fellow-Levites who stand to minister there before the LORD.

Deuteronomy 18:8 They shall have equal portions to eat, even though they have income from the sale of family possessions.

Deuteronomy 18:9 When you come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you must not learn to imitate the abhorrent practices of those nations.

Deuteronomy 18:10 No one shall be found among you who makes a son or daughter pass through fire, or who practices divination, or is a soothsayer, or an augur, or a sorcerer,

Deuteronomy 18:11 or one who casts spells, or who consults ghosts or spirits, or who seeks oracles from the dead.

Deuteronomy 18:12 For whoever does these things is abhorrent to the LORD; it is because of such abhorrent practices that the LORD your God is driving them out before you.

Deuteronomy 18:13 You must remain completely loyal to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 18:14 Although these nations that you are about to dispossess do give heed to soothsayers and diviners, as for you, the LORD your God does not permit you to do so.

Deuteronomy 18:15 The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet.

Deuteronomy 18:16 This is what you requested of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: “If I hear the voice of the LORD my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.”

Deuteronomy 18:17 Then the LORD replied to me: “They are right in what they have said.

Deuteronomy 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command.

Deuteronomy 18:19 Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable.

Deuteronomy 18:20 But any prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak— that prophet shall die.”

Deuteronomy 18:21 You may say to yourself, “How can we recognize a word that the LORD has not spoken?”

Deuteronomy 18:22 If a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD but the thing does not take place or prove true, it is a word that the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously; do not be frightened by it.

Deuteronomy 19:1 When the LORD your God has cut off the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you have dispossessed them and settled in their towns and in their houses,

Deuteronomy 19:2 you shall set apart three cities in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:3 You shall calculate the distances and divide into three regions the land that the LORD your God gives you as a possession, so that any homicide can flee to one of them.

Deuteronomy 19:4 Now this is the case of a homicide who might flee there and live, that is, someone who has killed another person unintentionally when the two had not been at enmity before:

Deuteronomy 19:5 Suppose someone goes into the forest with another to cut wood, and when one of them swings the ax to cut down a tree, the head slips from the handle and strikes the other person who then dies; the killer may flee to one of these cities and live.

Deuteronomy 19:6 But if the distance is too great, the avenger of blood in hot anger might pursue and overtake and put the killer to death, although a death sentence was not deserved, since the two had not been at enmity before.

Deuteronomy 19:7 Therefore I command you: You shall set apart three cities.

Deuteronomy 19:8 If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he swore to your ancestors— and he will give you all the land that he promised your ancestors to give you,

Deuteronomy 19:9 provided you diligently observe this entire commandment that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God and walking always in his ways— then you shall add three more cities to these three,

Deuteronomy 19:10 so that the blood of an innocent person may not be shed in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, thereby bringing bloodguilt upon you.

Deuteronomy 19:11 But if someone at enmity with another lies in wait and attacks and takes the life of that person, and flees into one of these cities,

Deuteronomy 19:12 then the elders of the killer's city shall send to have the culprit taken from there and handed over to the avenger of blood to be put to death.

Deuteronomy 19:13 Show no pity; you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, so that it may go well with you.

Deuteronomy 19:14 You must not move your neighbor's boundary marker, set up by former generations, on the property that will be allotted to you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:15 A single witness shall not suffice to convict a person of any crime or wrongdoing in connection with any offense that may be committed. Only on the evidence of two or three witnesses shall a charge be sustained.

Deuteronomy 19:16 If a malicious witness comes forward to accuse someone of wrongdoing,

Deuteronomy 19:17 then both parties to the dispute shall appear before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who are in office in those days,

Deuteronomy 19:18 and the judges shall make a thorough inquiry. If the witness is a false witness, having testified falsely against another,

Deuteronomy 19:19 then you shall do to the false witness just as the false witness had meant to do to the other. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 19:20 The rest shall hear and be afraid, and a crime such as this shall never again be committed among you.

Deuteronomy 19:21 Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20:1 When you go out to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots, an army larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them; for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up from the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 20:2 Before you engage in battle, the priest shall come forward and speak to the troops,

Deuteronomy 20:3 and shall say to them: “Hear, O Israel! Today you are drawing near to do battle against your enemies. Do not lose heart, or be afraid, or panic, or be in dread of them;

Deuteronomy 20:4 for it is the LORD your God who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to give you victory.”

Deuteronomy 20:5 Then the officials shall address the troops, saying, “Has anyone built a new house but not dedicated it? He should go back to his house, or he might die in the battle and another dedicate it.

Deuteronomy 20:6 Has anyone planted a vineyard but not yet enjoyed its fruit? He should go back to his house, or he might die in the battle and another be first to enjoy its fruit.

Deuteronomy 20:7 Has anyone become engaged to a woman but not yet married her? He should go back to his house, or he might die in the battle and another marry her.”

Deuteronomy 20:8 The officials shall continue to address the troops, saying, “Is anyone afraid or disheartened? He should go back to his house, or he might cause the heart of his comrades to melt like his own.”

Deuteronomy 20:9 When the officials have finished addressing the troops, then the commanders shall take charge of them.

Deuteronomy 20:10 When you draw near to a town to fight against it, offer it terms of peace.

Deuteronomy 20:11 If it accepts your terms of peace and surrenders to you, then all the people in it shall serve you at forced labor.

Deuteronomy 20:12 If it does not submit to you peacefully, but makes war against you, then you shall besiege it;

Deuteronomy 20:13 and when the LORD your God gives it into your hand, you shall put all its males to the sword.

Deuteronomy 20:14 You may, however, take as your booty the women, the children, livestock, and everything else in the town, all its spoil. You may enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 20:15 Thus you shall treat all the towns that are very far from you, which are not towns of the nations here.

Deuteronomy 20:16 But as for the towns of these peoples that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, you must not let anything that breathes remain alive.

Deuteronomy 20:17 You shall annihilate them— the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites— just as the LORD your God has commanded,

Deuteronomy 20:18 so that they may not teach you to do all the abhorrent things that they do for their gods, and you thus sin against the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 20:19 If you besiege a town for a long time, making war against it in order to take it, you must not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them. Although you may take food from them, you must not cut them down. Are trees in the field human beings that they should come under siege from you?

Deuteronomy 20:20 You may destroy only the trees that you know do not produce food; you may cut them down for use in building siegeworks against the town that makes war with you, until it falls.

Deuteronomy 21:1 If, in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess, a body is found lying in open country, and it is not known who struck the person down,

Deuteronomy 21:2 then your elders and your judges shall come out to measure the distances to the towns that are near the body.

Deuteronomy 21:3 The elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked, one that has not pulled in the yoke;

Deuteronomy 21:4 the elders of that town shall bring the heifer down to a wadi with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the wadi.

Deuteronomy 21:5 Then the priests, the sons of Levi, shall come forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to him and to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD, and by their decision all cases of dispute and assault shall be settled.

Deuteronomy 21:6 All the elders of that town nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the wadi, Deuteronomy 21:7 and they shall declare: "Our hands did not shed this blood, nor were we witnesses to it.

Deuteronomy 21:8 Absolve, O LORD, your people Israel, whom you redeemed; do not let the guilt of innocent blood remain in the midst of your people Israel." Then they will be absolved of bloodguilt.

Deuteronomy 21:9 So you shall purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, because you must do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 21:10 When you go out to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God hands them over to you and you take them captive,

Deuteronomy 21:11 suppose you see among the captives a beautiful woman whom you desire and want to marry,

Deuteronomy 21:12 and so you bring her home to your house: she shall shave her head, pare her nails,

Deuteronomy 21:13 discard her captive's garb, and shall remain in your house a full month, mourning for her father and mother; after that you may go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.

Deuteronomy 21:14 But if you are not satisfied with her, you shall let her go free and not sell her for money. You must not treat her as a slave, since you have dishonored her.

Deuteronomy 21:15 If a man has two wives, one of them loved and the other disliked, and if both the loved and the disliked have borne him sons, the firstborn being the son of the one who is disliked,

Deuteronomy 21:16 then on the day when he wills his possessions to his sons, he is not permitted to treat the son of the loved as the firstborn in preference to the son of the disliked, who is the firstborn.

Deuteronomy 21:17 He must acknowledge as firstborn the son of the one who is disliked, giving him a double portion of all that he has; since he is the first issue of his virility, the right of the firstborn is his.

Deuteronomy 21:18 If someone has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey his father and mother, who does not heed them when they discipline him,

Deuteronomy 21:19 then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his town at the gate of that place.

Deuteronomy 21:20 They shall say to the elders of his town, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a glutton and a drunkard."

Deuteronomy 21:21 Then all the men of the town shall stone him to death. So you shall purge the evil from your midst; and all Israel will hear, and be afraid.

Deuteronomy 21:22 When someone is convicted of a crime punishable by death and is executed, and you hang him on a tree,

Deuteronomy 21:23 his corpse must not remain all night upon the tree; you shall bury him that same day, for anyone hung on a tree is under God's curse. You must not defile the land that the LORD your God is giving you for possession.

Deuteronomy 22:1 You shall not watch your neighbor's ox or sheep straying away and ignore them; you shall take them back to their owner.

Deuteronomy 22:2 If the owner does not reside near you or you do not know who the owner is, you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall remain with you until the owner claims it; then you shall return it.

Deuteronomy 22:3 You shall do the same with a neighbor’s donkey; you shall do the same with a neighbor’s garment; and you shall do the same with anything else that your neighbor loses and you find. You may not withhold your help.

Deuteronomy 22:4 You shall not see your neighbor’s donkey or ox fallen on the road and ignore it; you shall help to lift it up.

Deuteronomy 22:5 A woman shall not wear a man’s apparel, nor shall a man put on a woman’s garment; for whoever does such things is abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 22:6 If you come on a bird’s nest, in any tree or on the ground, with fledglings or eggs, with the mother sitting on the fledglings or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young.

Deuteronomy 22:7 Let the mother go, taking only the young for yourself, in order that it may go well with you and you may live long.

Deuteronomy 22:8 When you build a new house, you shall make a parapet for your roof; otherwise you might have bloodguilt on your house, if anyone should fall from it.

Deuteronomy 22:9 You shall not sow your vineyard with a second kind of seed, or the whole yield will have to be forfeited, both the crop that you have sown and the yield of the vineyard itself.

Deuteronomy 22:10 You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together.

Deuteronomy 22:11 You shall not wear clothes made of wool and linen woven together.

Deuteronomy 22:12 You shall make tassels on the four corners of the cloak with which you cover yourself.

Deuteronomy 22:13 Suppose a man marries a woman, but after going in to her, he dislikes her

Deuteronomy 22:14 and makes up charges against her, slandering her by saying, “I married this woman; but when I lay with her, I did not find evidence of her virginity.”

Deuteronomy 22:15 The father of the young woman and her mother shall then submit the evidence of the young woman’s virginity to the elders of the city at the gate.

Deuteronomy 22:16 The father of the young woman shall say to the elders: “I gave my daughter in marriage to this man but he dislikes her;

Deuteronomy 22:17 now he has made up charges against her, saying, ‘I did not find evidence of your daughter’s virginity.’ But here is the evidence of my daughter's virginity." Then they shall spread out the cloth before the elders of the town.

Deuteronomy 22:18 The elders of that town shall take the man and punish him;

Deuteronomy 22:19 they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver (which they shall give to the young woman's father) because he has slandered a virgin of Israel. She shall remain his wife; he shall not be permitted to divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:20 If, however, this charge is true, that evidence of the young woman's virginity was not found,

Deuteronomy 22:21 then they shall bring the young woman out to the entrance of her father's house and the men of her town shall stone her to death, because she committed a disgraceful act in Israel by prostituting herself in her father's house. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 22:22 If a man is caught lying with the wife of another man, both of them shall die, the man who lay with the woman as well as the woman. So you shall purge the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 22:23 If there is a young woman, a virgin already engaged to be married, and a man meets her in the town and lies with her,

Deuteronomy 22:24 you shall bring both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death, the young woman because she did not cry for help in the town and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 22:25 But if the man meets the engaged woman in the open country, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.

Deuteronomy 22:26 You shall do nothing to the young woman; the young woman has not committed an offense punishable by death, because this case is like that of someone who attacks and murders a neighbor.

Deuteronomy 22:27 Since he found her in the open country, the engaged woman may have cried for help, but there was no one to rescue her.

Deuteronomy 22:28 If a man meets a virgin who is not engaged, and seizes her and lies with her, and they are caught in the act,

Deuteronomy 22:29 the man who lay with her shall give fifty shekels of silver to the young woman's father, and she shall become his wife. Because he violated her he shall not be permitted to divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:30 A man shall not marry his father's wife, thereby violating his father's rights.

Deuteronomy 23:1 No one whose testicles are crushed or whose penis is cut off shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:2 Those born of an illicit union shall not be admitted to the assembly of the LORD. Even to the tenth generation, none of their descendants shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:3 No Ammonite or Moabite shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD. Even to the tenth generation, none of their descendants shall be admitted to the assembly of the LORD,

Deuteronomy 23:4 because they did not meet you with food and water on your journey out of Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam son of Beor, from Pethor of Mesopotamia, to curse you.

Deuteronomy 23:5 (Yet the LORD your God refused to heed Balaam; the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loved you.)

Deuteronomy 23:6 You shall never promote their welfare or their prosperity as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 23:7 You shall not abhor any of the Edomites, for they are your kin. You shall not abhor any of the Egyptians, because you were an alien residing in their land.

Deuteronomy 23:8 The children of the third generation that are born to them may be admitted to the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:9 When you are encamped against your enemies you shall guard against any impropriety.

Deuteronomy 23:10 If one of you becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, then he shall go outside the camp; he must not come within the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:11 When evening comes, he shall wash himself with water, and when the sun has set, he may come back into the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:12 You shall have a designated area outside the camp to which you shall go.

Deuteronomy 23:13 With your utensils you shall have a trowel; when you relieve yourself outside, you shall dig a hole with it and then cover up your excrement.

Deuteronomy 23:14 Because the LORD your God travels along with your camp, to save you and to hand over your enemies to you, therefore your camp must be holy, so that he may not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you.

Deuteronomy 23:15 Slaves who have escaped to you from their owners shall not be given back to them.

Deuteronomy 23:16 They shall reside with you, in your midst, in any place they choose in any one of your towns, wherever they please; you shall not oppress them.

Deuteronomy 23:17 None of the daughters of Israel shall be a temple prostitute; none of the sons of Israel shall be a temple prostitute.

Deuteronomy 23:18 You shall not bring the fee of a prostitute or the wages of a male prostitute into the house of the LORD your God in payment for any vow, for both of these are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 23:19 You shall not charge interest on loans to another Israelite, interest on money, interest on provisions, interest on anything that is lent.

Deuteronomy 23:20 On loans to a foreigner you may charge interest, but on loans to another Israelite you may not charge interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your undertakings in the land that you are about to enter and possess.

Deuteronomy 23:21 If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not postpone fulfilling it; for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and you would incur guilt.

Deuteronomy 23:22 But if you refrain from vowing, you will not incur guilt.

Deuteronomy 23:23 Whatever your lips utter you must diligently perform, just as you have freely vowed to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

Deuteronomy 23:24 If you go into your neighbor’s vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes, as many as you wish, but you shall not put any in a container.

Deuteronomy 23:25 If you go into your neighbor’s standing grain, you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you shall not put a sickle to your neighbor’s standing grain.

Deuteronomy 24:1 Suppose a man enters into marriage with a woman, but she does not please him because he finds something objectionable about her, and so he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house; she then leaves his house

Deuteronomy 24:3 Then suppose the second man dislikes her, writes her a bill of divorce, puts it in her hand, and sends her out of his house (or the second man who married her dies);

Deuteronomy 24:4 her first husband, who sent her away, is not permitted to take her again to be his wife after she has been defiled; for that would be abhorrent to the LORD, and you shall not bring guilt on the land that the LORD your God is giving you as a possession.

Deuteronomy 24:5 When a man is newly married, he shall not go out with the army or be charged with any related duty. He shall be free at home one year, to be happy with the wife whom he has married.

Deuteronomy 24:6 No one shall take a mill or an upper millstone in pledge, for that would be taking a life in pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:7 If someone is caught kidnaping another Israelite, enslaving or selling the Israelite, then that kidnaper shall die. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

Deuteronomy 24:8 Guard against an outbreak of a leprous skin disease by being very careful; you shall carefully observe whatever the levitical priests instruct you, just as I have commanded them.

Deuteronomy 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your journey out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 24:10 When you make your neighbor a loan of any kind, you shall not go into the house to take the pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:11 You shall wait outside, while the person to whom you are making the loan brings the pledge out to you.

Deuteronomy 24:12 If the person is poor, you shall not sleep in the garment given you as the pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:13 You shall give the pledge back by sunset, so that your neighbor may sleep in the cloak and bless you; and it will be to your credit before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 24:14 You shall not withhold the wages of poor and needy laborers, whether other Israelites or aliens who reside in your land in one of your towns.

Deuteronomy 24:15 You shall pay them their wages daily before sunset, because they are poor and their livelihood depends on them; otherwise they might cry to the LORD against you, and you would incur guilt.

Deuteronomy 24:16 Parents shall not be put to death for their children, nor shall children be put to death for their parents; only for their own crimes may persons be put to death.

Deuteronomy 24:17 You shall not deprive a resident alien or an orphan of justice; you shall not take a widow's garment in pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:18 Remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:19 When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it; it shall be left for the alien, the orphan, and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your undertakings.

Deuteronomy 24:20 When you beat your olive trees, do not strip what is left; it shall be for the alien, the orphan, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:21 When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, do not glean what is left; it shall be for the alien, the orphan, and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:22 Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt; therefore I am commanding you to do this.

Deuteronomy 25:1 Suppose two persons have a dispute and enter into litigation, and the judges decide between them, declaring one to be in the right and the other to be in the wrong.

Deuteronomy 25:2 If the one in the wrong deserves to be flogged, the judge shall make that person lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of lashes proportionate to the offense.

Deuteronomy 25:3 Forty lashes may be given but not more; if more lashes than these are given, your neighbor will be degraded in your sight.

Deuteronomy 25:4 You shall not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.

Deuteronomy 25:5 When brothers reside together, and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the deceased shall not be married outside the family to a stranger. Her husband's brother shall go in to her, taking her in marriage, and performing the duty of a husband's brother to her,

Deuteronomy 25:6 and the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed to the name of the deceased brother, so that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.

Deuteronomy 25:7 But if the man has no desire to marry his brother's widow, then his brother's widow shall go up to the elders at the gate and say, "My husband's brother refuses to perpetuate his brother's name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me."

Deuteronomy 25:8 Then the elders of his town shall summon him and speak to him. If he persists, saying, "I have no desire to marry her,"

Deuteronomy 25:9 then his brother's wife shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, pull his sandal off his foot, spit in his face, and declare, "This is what is done to the man who does not build up his brother's house."

Deuteronomy 25:10 Throughout Israel his family shall be known as "the house of him whose sandal was pulled off."

Deuteronomy 25:11 If men get into a fight with one another, and the wife of one intervenes to rescue her husband from the grip of his opponent by reaching out and seizing his genitals,

Deuteronomy 25:12 you shall cut off her hand; show no pity.

Deuteronomy 25:13 You shall not have in your bag two kinds of weights, large and small.

Deuteronomy 25:14 You shall not have in your house two kinds of measures, large and small.

Deuteronomy 25:15 You shall have only a full and honest weight; you shall have only a full and honest measure, so that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 25:16 For all who do such things, all who act dishonestly, are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 25:17 Remember what Amalek did to you on your journey out of Egypt,

Deuteronomy 25:18 how he attacked you on the way, when you were faint and weary, and struck down all who lagged behind you; he did not fear God.

Deuteronomy 25:19 Therefore when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies on every hand, in the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; do not forget.

Deuteronomy 26:1 When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it,

Deuteronomy 26:2 you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name.

Deuteronomy 26:3 You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, “Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.”

Deuteronomy 26:4 When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 26:5 you shall make this response before the LORD your God: “A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous.

Deuteronomy 26:6 When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us,

Deuteronomy 26:7 we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression.

Deuteronomy 26:8 The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders;

Deuteronomy 26:9 and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 26:10 So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me." You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 26:11 Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

Deuteronomy 26:12 When you have finished paying all the tithe of your produce in the third year (which is the year of the tithe), giving it to the Levites, the aliens, the orphans, and the widows, so that they may eat their fill within your towns,

Deuteronomy 26:13 then you shall say before the LORD your God: "I have removed the sacred portion from the house, and I have given it to the Levites, the resident aliens, the orphans, and the widows, in accordance with your entire commandment that you commanded me; I have neither transgressed nor forgotten any of your commandments:

Deuteronomy 26:14 I have not eaten of it while in mourning; I have not removed any of it while I was unclean; and I have not offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God, doing just as you commanded me.

Deuteronomy 26:15 Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel and the ground that you have given us, as you swore to our ancestors— a land flowing with milk and honey."

Deuteronomy 26:16 This very day the LORD your God is commanding you to observe these statutes and ordinances; so observe them diligently with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 26:17 Today you have obtained the LORD's agreement: to be your God; and for you to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, and his ordinances, and to obey him.

Deuteronomy 26:18 Today the LORD has obtained your agreement: to be his treasured people, as he promised you, and to keep his commandments;

Deuteronomy 26:19 for him to set you high above all nations that he has made, in praise and in fame and in honor; and for you to be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

Deuteronomy 27:1 Then Moses and the elders of Israel charged all the people as follows: Keep the entire commandment that I am commanding you today.

Deuteronomy 27:2 On the day that you cross over the Jordan into the land that the LORD your God is giving you, you shall set up large stones and cover them with plaster.

Deuteronomy 27:3 You shall write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over, to enter the land that the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your ancestors, promised you.

Deuteronomy 27:4 So when you have crossed over the Jordan, you shall set up these stones, about which I am commanding you today, on Mount Ebal, and you shall cover them with plaster.

Deuteronomy 27:5 And you shall build an altar there to the LORD your God, an altar of stones on which you have not used an iron tool.

Deuteronomy 27:6 You must build the altar of the LORD your God of unhewn stones. Then offer up burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 27:7 make sacrifices of well-being, and eat them there, rejoicing before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:8 You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very clearly.

Deuteronomy 27:9 Then Moses and the levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying: Keep silence and hear, O Israel! This very day you have become the people of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:10 Therefore obey the LORD your God, observing his commandments and his statutes that I am commanding you today.

Deuteronomy 27:11 The same day Moses charged the people as follows:

Deuteronomy 27:12 When you have crossed over the Jordan, these shall stand on Mount Gerizim for the blessing of the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin.

Deuteronomy 27:13 And these shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

Deuteronomy 27:14 Then the Levites shall declare in a loud voice to all the Israelites:

Deuteronomy 27:15 “Cursed be anyone who makes an idol or casts an image, anything abhorrent to the LORD, the work of an artisan, and sets it up in secret.” All the people shall respond, saying, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:16 “Cursed be anyone who dishonors father or mother.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:17 “Cursed be anyone who moves a neighbor’s boundary marker.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:18 “Cursed be anyone who misleads a blind person on the road.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:19 “Cursed be anyone who deprives the alien, the orphan, and the widow of justice.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:20 “Cursed be anyone who lies with his father’s wife, because he has violated his father’s rights.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:21 “Cursed be anyone who lies with any animal.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:22 “Cursed be anyone who lies with his sister, whether the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:23 “Cursed be anyone who lies with his mother-in-law.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:24 “Cursed be anyone who strikes down a neighbor in secret.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:25 “Cursed be anyone who takes a bribe to shed innocent blood.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:26 “Cursed be anyone who does not uphold the words of this law by observing them.” All the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 28:1 If you will only obey the LORD your God, by diligently observing all his commandments that I am commanding you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth;

Deuteronomy 28:2 all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you obey the LORD your God:

Deuteronomy 28:3 Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.

Deuteronomy 28:4 Blessed shall be the fruit of your womb, the fruit of your ground, and the fruit of your livestock, both the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock.

Deuteronomy 28:5 Blessed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:6 Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:7 The LORD will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before you; they shall come out against you one way, and flee before you seven ways.

Deuteronomy 28:8 The LORD will command the blessing upon you in your barns, and in all that you undertake; he will bless you in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:9 The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he has sworn to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.

Deuteronomy 28:10 All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they shall be afraid of you.

Deuteronomy 28:11 The LORD will make you abound in prosperity, in the fruit of your womb, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground in the land that the LORD swore to your ancestors to give you.

Deuteronomy 28:12 The LORD will open for you his rich storehouse, the heavens, to give the rain of your land in its season and to bless all your undertakings. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow.

Deuteronomy 28:13 The LORD will make you the head, and not the tail; you shall be only at the top, and not at the bottom— if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today, by diligently observing them,

Deuteronomy 28:14 and if you do not turn aside from any of the words that I am commanding you today, either to the right or to the left, following other gods to serve them.

Deuteronomy 28:15 But if you will not obey the LORD your God by diligently observing all his commandments and decrees, which I am commanding you today, then all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you:

Deuteronomy 28:16 Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field.

Deuteronomy 28:17 Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading bowl.

Deuteronomy 28:18 Cursed shall be the fruit of your womb, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock.

Deuteronomy 28:19 Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:20 The LORD will send upon you disaster, panic, and frustration in everything you attempt to do, until you are destroyed and perish quickly, on account of the evil of your deeds, because you have forsaken me.

Deuteronomy 28:21 The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you until it has consumed you off the land that you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 28:22 The LORD will afflict you with consumption, fever, inflammation, with fiery heat and drought, and with blight and mildew; they shall pursue you until you perish.

Deuteronomy 28:23 The sky over your head shall be bronze, and the earth under you iron.

Deuteronomy 28:24 The LORD will change the rain of your land into powder, and only dust shall come down upon you from the sky until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:25 The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies; you shall go out against them one way and flee before them seven ways. You shall become an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

Deuteronomy 28:26 Your corpses shall be food for every bird of the air and animal of the earth, and there shall be no one to frighten them away.

Deuteronomy 28:27 The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt, with ulcers, scurvy, and itch, of which you cannot be healed.

Deuteronomy 28:28 The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness, and confusion of mind;

Deuteronomy 28:29 you shall grope about at noon as blind people grope in darkness, but you shall be unable to find your way; and you shall be continually abused and robbed, without anyone to help.

Deuteronomy 28:30 You shall become engaged to a woman, but another man shall lie with her. You shall build a house, but not live in it. You shall plant a vineyard, but not enjoy its fruit.

Deuteronomy 28:31 Your ox shall be butchered before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it. Your donkey shall be stolen in front of you, and shall not be restored to you. Your sheep shall be given to your enemies, without anyone to help you.

Deuteronomy 28:32 Your sons and daughters shall be given to another people, while you look on; you will strain your eyes looking for them all day but be powerless to do anything.

Deuteronomy 28:33 A people whom you do not know shall eat up the fruit of your ground and of all your labors; you shall be continually abused and crushed,

Deuteronomy 28:34 and driven mad by the sight that your eyes shall see.

Deuteronomy 28:35 The LORD will strike you on the knees and on the legs with grievous boils of which you cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head.

Deuteronomy 28:36 The LORD will bring you, and the king whom you set over you, to a nation that neither you nor your ancestors have known, where you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:37 You shall become an object of horror, a proverb, and a byword among all the peoples where the LORD will lead you.

Deuteronomy 28:38 You shall carry much seed into the field but shall gather little in, for the locust shall consume it.

Deuteronomy 28:39 You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink the wine nor gather the grapes, for the worm shall eat them.

Deuteronomy 28:40 You shall have olive trees throughout all your territory, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil, for your olives shall drop off.

Deuteronomy 28:41 You shall have sons and daughters, but they shall not remain yours, for they shall go into captivity.

Deuteronomy 28:42 All your trees and the fruit of your ground the cicada shall take over.

Deuteronomy 28:43 Aliens residing among you shall ascend above you higher and higher, while you shall descend lower and lower.

Deuteronomy 28:44 They shall lend to you but you shall not lend to them; they shall be the head and you shall be the tail.

Deuteronomy 28:45 All these curses shall come upon you, pursuing and overtaking you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God, by observing the commandments and the decrees that he commanded you.

Deuteronomy 28:46 They shall be among you and your descendants as a sign and a portent forever.

Deuteronomy 28:47 Because you did not serve the LORD your God joyfully and with gladness of heart for the abundance of everything,

Deuteronomy 28:48 therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and lack of everything. He will put an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 28:49 The LORD will bring a nation from far away, from the end of the earth, to swoop down on you like an eagle, a nation whose language you do not understand,

Deuteronomy 28:50 a grim-faced nation showing no respect to the old or favor to the young.

Deuteronomy 28:51 It shall consume the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your ground until you are destroyed, leaving you neither grain, wine, and oil, nor the increase of your cattle and the issue of your flock, until it has made you perish.

Deuteronomy 28:52 It shall besiege you in all your towns until your high and fortified walls, in which you trusted, come down throughout your land; it shall besiege you in all your towns throughout the land that the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:53 In the desperate straits to which the enemy siege reduces you, you will eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your own sons and daughters whom the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:54 Even the most refined and gentle of men among you will begrudge food to his own brother, to the wife whom he embraces, and to the last of his remaining children, Deuteronomy 28:55 giving to none of them any of the flesh of his children whom he is eating, because nothing else remains to him, in the desperate straits to which the enemy siege will reduce you in all your towns.

Deuteronomy 28:56 She who is the most refined and gentle among you, so gentle and refined that she does not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground, will begrudge food to the husband whom she embraces, to her own son, and to her own daughter,

Deuteronomy 28:57 begrudging even the afterbirth that comes out from between her thighs, and the children that she bears, because she is eating them in secret for lack of anything else, in the desperate straits to which the enemy siege will reduce you in your towns.

Deuteronomy 28:58 If you do not diligently observe all the words of this law that are written in this book, fearing this glorious and awesome name, the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 28:59 then the LORD will overwhelm both you and your offspring with severe and lasting afflictions and grievous and lasting maladies.

Deuteronomy 28:60 He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt, of which you were in dread, and they shall cling to you.

Deuteronomy 28:61 Every other malady and affliction, even though not recorded in the book of this law, the LORD will inflict on you until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:62 Although once you were as numerous as the stars in heaven, you shall be left few in number, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 28:63 And just as the LORD took delight in making you prosperous and numerous, so the LORD will take delight in bringing you to ruin and destruction; you shall be plucked off the land that you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 28:64 The LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you shall serve other gods, of wood and stone, which neither you nor your ancestors have known.

Deuteronomy 28:65 Among those nations you shall find no ease, no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing eyes, and a languishing spirit.

Deuteronomy 28:66 Your life shall hang in doubt before you; night and day you shall be in dread, with no assurance of your life.

Deuteronomy 28:67 In the morning you shall say, “If only it were evening!” and at evening you shall say, “If only it were morning!”—because of the dread that your heart shall feel and the sights that your eyes shall see.

Deuteronomy 28:68 The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, by a route that I promised you would never see again; and there you shall offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer.

Deuteronomy 29:1 These are the words of the covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant that he had made with them at Horeb.

Deuteronomy 29:2 Moses summoned all Israel and said to them: You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land,

Deuteronomy 29:3 the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders.

Deuteronomy 29:4 But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, or eyes to see, or ears to hear.

Deuteronomy 29:5 I have led you forty years in the wilderness. The clothes on your back have not worn out, and the sandals on your feet have not worn out;

Deuteronomy 29:6 you have not eaten bread, and you have not drunk wine or strong drink— so that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 29:7 When you came to this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan came out against us for battle, but we defeated them.

Deuteronomy 29:8 We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Deuteronomy 29:9 Therefore diligently observe the words of this covenant, in order that you may succeed in everything that you do.

Deuteronomy 29:10 You stand assembled today, all of you, before the LORD your God— the leaders of your tribes, your elders, and your officials, all the men of Israel,

Deuteronomy 29:11 your children, your women, and the aliens who are in your camp, both those who cut your wood and those who draw your water—

Deuteronomy 29:12 to enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, sworn by an oath, which the LORD your God is making with you today;

Deuteronomy 29:13 in order that he may establish you today as his people, and that he may be your God, as he promised you and as he swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Deuteronomy 29:14 I am making this covenant, sworn by an oath, not only with you who stand here with us today before the LORD our God, Deuteronomy 29:15 but also with those who are not here with us today.

Deuteronomy 29:16 You know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed.

Deuteronomy 29:17 You have seen their detestable things, the filthy idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold, that were among them.

Deuteronomy 29:18 It may be that there is among you a man or woman, or a family or tribe, whose heart is already turning away from the LORD our God to serve the gods of those nations. It may be that there is among you a root sprouting poisonous and bitter growth.

Deuteronomy 29:19 All who hear the words of this oath and bless themselves, thinking in their hearts, “We are safe even though we go our own stubborn ways” (thus bringing disaster on moist and dry alike)—

Deuteronomy 29:20 the LORD will be unwilling to pardon them, for the LORD’s anger and passion will smoke against them. All the curses written in this book will descend on them, and the LORD will blot out their names from under heaven.

Deuteronomy 29:21 The LORD will single them out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law.

Deuteronomy 29:22 The next generation, your children who rise up after you, as well as the foreigner who comes from a distant country, will see the devastation of that land and the afflictions with which the LORD has afflicted it—

Deuteronomy 29:23 all its soil burned out by sulfur and salt, nothing planted, nothing sprouting, unable to support any vegetation, like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD destroyed in his fierce anger—

Deuteronomy 29:24 they and indeed all the nations will wonder, “Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What caused this great display of anger?”

Deuteronomy 29:25 They will conclude, “It is because they abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their ancestors, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 29:26 They turned and served other gods, worshiping them, gods whom they had not known and whom he had not allotted to them;

Deuteronomy 29:27 so the anger of the LORD was kindled against that land, bringing on it every curse written in this book.

Deuteronomy 29:28 The LORD uprooted them from their land in anger, fury, and great wrath, and cast them into another land, as is now the case.”

Deuteronomy 29:29 The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the revealed things belong to us and to our children forever, to observe all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30:1 When all these things have happened to you, the blessings and the curses that I have set before you, if you call them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God has driven you,

Deuteronomy 30:2 and return to the LORD your God, and you and your children obey him with all your heart and with all your soul, just as I am commanding you today,

Deuteronomy 30:3 then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes and have compassion on you, gathering you again from all the peoples among whom the LORD your God has scattered you.

Deuteronomy 30:4 Even if you are exiled to the ends of the world, from there the LORD your God will gather you, and from there he will bring you back.

Deuteronomy 30:5 The LORD your God will bring you into the land that your ancestors possessed, and you will possess it; he will make you more prosperous and numerous than your ancestors.

Deuteronomy 30:6 Moreover, the LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, so that you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, in order that you may live.

Deuteronomy 30:7 The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on the adversaries who took advantage of you.

Deuteronomy 30:8 Then you shall again obey the LORD, observing all his commandments that I am commanding you today,

Deuteronomy 30:9 and the LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors,

Deuteronomy 30:10 when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 30:11 Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away.

Deuteronomy 30:12 It is not in heaven, that you should say, “Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?”

Deuteronomy 30:13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, “Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?”

Deuteronomy 30:14 No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Deuteronomy 30:15 See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity.

Deuteronomy 30:16 If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 30:17 But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them,

Deuteronomy 30:18 I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

Deuteronomy 30:19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live,

Deuteronomy 30:20 loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Deuteronomy 31:1 When Moses had finished speaking all these words to all Israel,

Deuteronomy 31:2 he said to them: “I am now one hundred twenty years old. I am no longer able to get about, and the LORD has told me, ‘You shall not cross over this Jordan.’

Deuteronomy 31:3 The LORD your God himself will cross over before you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua also will cross over before you, as the LORD promised.

Deuteronomy 31:4 The LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when he destroyed them.

Deuteronomy 31:5 The LORD will give them over to you and you shall deal with them in full accord with the command that I have given to you.

Deuteronomy 31:6 Be strong and bold; have no fear or dread of them, because it is the LORD your God who goes with you; he will not fail you or forsake you.”

Deuteronomy 31:7 Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel: “Be strong and bold, for you are the one who will go with this people into the land that the LORD has sworn to their ancestors to give them; and you will put them in possession of it.

Deuteronomy 31:8 It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not fail you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.”

Deuteronomy 31:9 Then Moses wrote down this law, and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:10 Moses commanded them: “Every seventh year, in the scheduled year of remission, during the festival of booths,

Deuteronomy 31:11 when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

Deuteronomy 31:12 Assemble the people— men, women, and children, as well as the aliens residing in your towns— so that they may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God and to observe diligently all the words of this law,

Deuteronomy 31:13 and so that their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 31:14 The LORD said to Moses, “Your time to die is near; call Joshua and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him.” So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves in the tent of meeting,

Deuteronomy 31:15 and the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud; the pillar of cloud stood at the entrance to the tent.

Deuteronomy 31:16 The LORD said to Moses, “Soon you will lie down with your ancestors. Then this people will begin to prostitute themselves to the foreign gods in their midst, the gods of the land into which they are going; they will forsake me, breaking my covenant that I have made with them.

Deuteronomy 31:17 My anger will be kindled against them in that day. I will forsake them and hide my face from them; they will become easy prey, and many terrible troubles will come upon them. In that day they will say, ‘Have not these troubles come upon us because our God is not in our midst?’

Deuteronomy 31:18 On that day I will surely hide my face on account of all the evil they have done by turning to other gods.

Deuteronomy 31:19 Now therefore write this song, and teach it to the Israelites; put it in their mouths, in order that this song may be a witness for me against the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 31:20 For when I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I promised on oath to their ancestors, and they have eaten their fill and grown fat, they will turn to other gods and serve them, despising me and breaking my covenant.

Deuteronomy 31:21 And when many terrible troubles come upon them, this song will confront them as a witness, because it will not be lost from the mouths of their descendants. For I know what they are inclined to do even now, before I have brought them into the land that I promised them on oath.”

Deuteronomy 31:22 That very day Moses wrote this song and taught it to the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 31:23 Then the LORD commissioned Joshua son of Nun and said, “Be strong and bold, for you shall bring the Israelites into the land that I promised them; I will be with you.”

Deuteronomy 31:24 When Moses had finished writing down in a book the words of this law to the very end,

Deuteronomy 31:25 Moses commanded the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying,

Deuteronomy 31:26 “Take this book of the law and put it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God; let it remain there as a witness against you.

Deuteronomy 31:27 For I know well how rebellious and stubborn you are. If you already have been so rebellious toward the LORD while I am still alive among you, how much more after my death!

Deuteronomy 31:28 Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officials, so that I may recite these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them.

Deuteronomy 31:29 For I know that after my death you will surely act corruptly, turning aside from the way that I have commanded you. In time to come trouble will befall you, because you will do what is evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking him to anger through the work of your hands.”

Deuteronomy 31:30 Then Moses recited the words of this song, to the very end, in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

Deuteronomy 32:1 Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak; let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

Deuteronomy 32:2 May my teaching drop like the rain, my speech condense like the dew; like gentle rain on grass, like showers on new growth.

Deuteronomy 32:3 For I will proclaim the name of the LORD; ascribe greatness to our God!

Deuteronomy 32:4 The Rock, his work is perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God, without deceit, just and upright is he;

Deuteronomy 32:5 yet his degenerate children have dealt falsely with him, a perverse and crooked generation.

Deuteronomy 32:6 Do you thus repay the LORD, O foolish and senseless people? Is not he your father, who created you, who made you and established you?

Deuteronomy 32:7 Remember the days of old, consider the years long past; ask your father, and he will inform you; your elders, and they will tell you.

Deuteronomy 32:8 When the Most High apportioned the nations, when he divided humankind, he fixed the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the gods;

Deuteronomy 32:9 the LORD’s own portion was his people, Jacob his allotted share.

Deuteronomy 32:10 He sustained him in a desert land, in a howling wilderness waste; he shielded him, cared for him, guarded him as the apple of his eye.

Deuteronomy 32:11 As an eagle stirs up its nest, and hovers over its young; as it spreads its wings, takes them up, and bears them aloft on its pinions,

Deuteronomy 32:12 the LORD alone guided him; no foreign god was with him.

Deuteronomy 32:13 He set him atop the heights of the land, and fed him with produce of the field; he nursed him with honey from the crags, with oil from flinty rock;

Deuteronomy 32:14 curds from the herd, and milk from the flock, with fat of lambs and rams; Bashan bulls and goats, together with the choicest wheat— you drank fine wine from the blood of grapes.

Deuteronomy 32:15 Jacob ate his fill; Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked. You grew fat, bloated, and gorged! He abandoned God who made him, and scoffed at the Rock of his salvation.

Deuteronomy 32:16 They made him jealous with strange gods, with abhorrent things they provoked him.

Deuteronomy 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, not God, to deities they had never known, to new ones recently arrived, whom your ancestors had not feared.

Deuteronomy 32:18 You were unmindful of the Rock that bore you; you forgot the God who gave you birth.

Deuteronomy 32:19 The LORD saw it, and was jealous he spurned his sons and daughters.

Deuteronomy 32:20 He said: I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children in whom there is no faithfulness.

Deuteronomy 32:21 They made me jealous with what is no god, provoked me with their idols. So I will make them jealous with what is no people, provoke them with a foolish nation.

Deuteronomy 32:22 For a fire is kindled by my anger, and burns to the depths of Sheol; it devours the earth and its increase, and sets on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Deuteronomy 32:23 I will heap disasters upon them, spend my arrows against them:

Deuteronomy 32:24 wasting hunger, burning consumption, bitter pestilence. The teeth of beasts I will send against them, with venom of things crawling in the dust.

Deuteronomy 32:25 In the street the sword shall bereave, and in the chambers terror, for young man and woman alike, nursing child and old gray head.

Deuteronomy 32:26 I thought to scatter them and blot out the memory of them from humankind;

Deuteronomy 32:27 but I feared provocation by the enemy, for their adversaries might misunderstand and say, “Our hand is triumphant; it was not the LORD who did all this.”

Deuteronomy 32:28 They are a nation void of sense; there is no understanding in them.

Deuteronomy 32:29 If they were wise, they would understand this; they would discern what the end would be.

Deuteronomy 32:30 How could one have routed a thousand, and two put a myriad to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, the LORD had given them up?

Deuteronomy 32:31 Indeed their rock is not like our Rock; our enemies are fools.

Deuteronomy 32:32 Their vine comes from the vinestock of Sodom, from the vineyards of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of poison, their clusters are bitter;

Deuteronomy 32:33 their wine is the poison of serpents, the cruel venom of asps.

Deuteronomy 32:34 Is not this laid up in store with me, sealed up in my treasuries?

Deuteronomy 32:35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense, for the time when their foot shall slip; because the day of their calamity is at hand, their doom comes swiftly.

Deuteronomy 32:36 Indeed the LORD will vindicate his people, have compassion on his servants, when he sees that their power is gone, neither bond nor free remaining.

Deuteronomy 32:37 Then he will say: Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge,

Deuteronomy 32:38 who ate the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their libations? Let them rise up and help you, let them be your protection!

Deuteronomy 32:39 See now that I, even I, am he; there is no god besides me. I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal; and no one can deliver from my hand.

Deuteronomy 32:40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and swear: As I live forever,

Deuteronomy 32:41 when I whet my flashing sword, and my hand takes hold on judgment; I will take vengeance on my adversaries, and will repay those who hate me.

Deuteronomy 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh— with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the long-haired enemy.

Deuteronomy 32:43 Praise, O heavens, his people, worship him, all you gods! For he will avenge the blood of his children, and take vengeance on his adversaries; he will repay those who hate him, and cleanse the land for his people.

Deuteronomy 32:44 Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua son of Nun.

Deuteronomy 32:45 When Moses had finished reciting all these words to all Israel,

Deuteronomy 32:46 he said to them: “Take to heart all the words that I am giving in witness against you today; give them as a command to your children, so that they may diligently observe all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 32:47 This is no trifling matter for you, but rather your very life; through it you may live long in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 32:48 On that very day the LORD addressed Moses as follows:

Deuteronomy 32:49 “Ascend this mountain of the Abarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, across from Jericho, and view the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites for a possession;

Deuteronomy 32:50 you shall die there on the mountain that you ascend and shall be gathered to your kin, as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his kin;

Deuteronomy 32:51 because both of you broke faith with me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin, by failing to maintain my holiness among the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 32:52 Although you may view the land from a distance, you shall not enter it— the land that I am giving to the Israelites.”

Deuteronomy 33:1 This is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God, blessed the Israelites before his death.

Deuteronomy 33:2 He said: The LORD came from Sinai, and dawned from Seir upon us; he shone forth from Mount Paran. With him were myriads of holy ones; at his right, a host of his own.

Deuteronomy 33:3 Indeed, O favorite among peoples, all his holy ones were in your charge; they marched at your heels, accepted direction from you.

Deuteronomy 33:4 Moses charged us with the law, as a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

Deuteronomy 33:5 There arose a king in Jeshurun, when the leaders of the people assembled— the united tribes of Israel.

Deuteronomy 33:6 May Reuben live, and not die out, even though his numbers are few.

Deuteronomy 33:7 And this he said of Judah: O LORD, give heed to Judah, and bring him to his people; strengthen his hands for him, and be a help against his adversaries.

Deuteronomy 33:8 And of Levi he said: Give to Levi your Thummim, and your Urim to your loyal one, whom you tested at Massah, with whom you contended at the waters of Meribah;

Deuteronomy 33:9 who said of his father and mother, “I regard them not”; he ignored his kin, and did not acknowledge his children. For they observed your word, and kept your covenant.

Deuteronomy 33:10 They teach Jacob your ordinances, and Israel your law; they place incense before you, and whole burnt offerings on your altar.

Deuteronomy 33:11 Bless, O LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands; crush the loins of his adversaries, of those that hate him, so that they do not rise again.

Deuteronomy 33:12 Of Benjamin he said: The beloved of the LORD rests in safety— the High God surrounds him all day long— the beloved rests between his shoulders.

Deuteronomy 33:13 And of Joseph he said: Blessed by the LORD be his land, with the choice gifts of heaven above, and of the deep that lies beneath;

Deuteronomy 33:14 with the choice fruits of the sun, and the rich yield of the months;

Deuteronomy 33:15 with the finest produce of the ancient mountains, and the abundance of the everlasting hills;

Deuteronomy 33:16 with the choice gifts of the earth and its fullness, and the favor of the one who dwells on Sinai. Let these come on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

Deuteronomy 33:17 A firstborn bull— majesty is his! His horns are the horns of a wild ox; with them he gores the peoples, driving them to the ends of the earth; such are the myriads of Ephraim, such the thousands of Manasseh.

Deuteronomy 33:18 And of Zebulun he said: Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out; and Issachar, in your tents.

Deuteronomy 33:19 They call peoples to the mountain; there they offer the right sacrifices; for they suck the affluence of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand.

Deuteronomy 33:20 And of Gad he said: Blessed be the enlargement of Gad! Gad lives like a lion; he tears at arm and scalp.

Deuteronomy 33:21 He chose the best for himself, for there a commander's allotment was reserved; he came at the head of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his ordinances for Israel.

Deuteronomy 33:22 And of Dan he said: Dan is a lion's whelp that leaps forth from Bashan.

Deuteronomy 33:23 And of Naphtali he said: O Naphtali, sated with favor, full of the blessing of the LORD, possess the west and the south.

Deuteronomy 33:24 And of Asher he said: Most blessed of sons be Asher; may he be the favorite of his brothers, and may he dip his foot in oil.

Deuteronomy 33:25 Your bars are iron and bronze; and as your days, so is your strength.

Deuteronomy 33:26 There is none like God, O Jeshurun, who rides through the heavens to your help, majestic through the skies.

Deuteronomy 33:27 He subdues the ancient gods, shatters the forces of old; he drove out the enemy before you, and said, "Destroy!"

Deuteronomy 33:28 So Israel lives in safety, untroubled is Jacob's abode in a land of grain and wine, where the heavens drop down dew.

Deuteronomy 33:29 Happy are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help, and the sword of your triumph! Your enemies shall come fawning to you, and you shall tread on their backs.

Deuteronomy 34:1 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan,

Deuteronomy 34:2 all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, Deuteronomy 34:3 the Negeb, and the Plain— that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees— as far as Zoar.

Deuteronomy 34:4 The LORD said to him, “This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants’; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.”

Deuteronomy 34:5 Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab, at the LORD’s command.

Deuteronomy 34:6 He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day.

Deuteronomy 34:7 Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigor had not abated.

Deuteronomy 34:8 The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Deuteronomy 34:9 Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Deuteronomy 34:10 Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.

Deuteronomy 34:11 He was unequaled for all the signs and wonders that the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, Deuteronomy 34:12 and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

1:1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses’ assistant, saying,

Joshua 1:2 “My servant Moses is dead. Now proceed to cross the Jordan, you and all this people, into the land that I am giving to them, to the Israelites.

Joshua 1:3 Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given to you, as I promised to Moses.

Joshua 1:4 From the wilderness and the Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, to the Great Sea in the west shall be your territory.

Joshua 1:5 No one shall be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will not fail you or forsake you.

Joshua 1:6 Be strong and courageous; for you shall put this people in possession of the land that I swore to their ancestors to give them.

Joshua 1:7 Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to act in accordance with all the law that my servant Moses commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, so that you may be successful wherever you go.

Joshua 1:8 This book of the law shall not depart out of your mouth; you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to act in accordance with all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall be successful.

Joshua 1:9 I hereby command you: Be strong and courageous; do not be frightened or dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

Joshua 1:10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people,

Joshua 1:11 “Pass through the camp, and command the people: ‘Prepare your provisions; for in three days you are to cross over the Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess.’“

Joshua 1:12 To the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh Joshua said,

Joshua 1:13 “Remember the word that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, ‘The LORD your God is providing you a place of rest, and will give you this land.’

Joshua 1:14 Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land that Moses gave you beyond the Jordan. But all the warriors among you shall cross over armed before your kindred and shall help them,

Joshua 1:15 until the LORD gives rest to your kindred as well as to you, and they too take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. Then you shall return to your own land and take possession of it, the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan to the east.”

Joshua 1:16 They answered Joshua: “All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

Joshua 1:17 Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses!

Joshua 1:18 Whoever rebels against your orders and disobeys your words, whatever you command, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous.”

Joshua 2:1 Then Joshua son of Nun sent two men secretly from Shittim as spies, saying, “Go, view the land, especially Jericho.” So they went, and entered the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and spent the night there.

Joshua 2:2 The king of Jericho was told, “Some Israelites have come here tonight to search out the land.”

Joshua 2:3 Then the king of Jericho sent orders to Rahab, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, for they have come only to search out the whole land.”

Joshua 2:4 But the woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, “True, the men came to me, but I did not know where they came from.

Joshua 2:5 And when it was time to close the gate at dark, the men went out. Where the men went I do not know. Pursue them quickly, for you can overtake them.”

Joshua 2:6 She had, however, brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax that she had laid out on the roof.

Joshua 2:7 So the men pursued them on the way to the Jordan as far as the fords. As soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

Joshua 2:8 Before they went to sleep, she came up to them on the roof

Joshua 2:9 and said to the men: “I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that dread of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before you.

Joshua 2:10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

Joshua 2:11 As soon as we heard it, our hearts melted, and there was no courage left in any of us because of you. The LORD your God is indeed God in heaven above and on earth below.

Joshua 2:12 Now then, since I have dealt kindly with you, swear to me by the LORD that you in turn will deal kindly with my family. Give me a sign of good faith

Joshua 2:13 that you will spare my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and deliver our lives from death.”

Joshua 2:14 The men said to her, “Our life for yours! If you do not tell this business of ours, then we will deal kindly and faithfully with you when the LORD gives us the land.”

Joshua 2:15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the outer side of the city wall and she resided within the wall itself.

Joshua 2:16 She said to them, “Go toward the hill country, so that the pursuers may not come upon you. Hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; then afterward you may go your way.”

Joshua 2:17 The men said to her, “We will be released from this oath that you have made us swear to you

Joshua 2:18 if we invade the land and you do not tie this crimson cord in the window through which you let us down, and you do not gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers, and all your family.

Joshua 2:19 If any of you go out of the doors of your house into the street, they shall be responsible for their own death, and we shall be innocent; but if a hand is laid upon any who are with you in the house, we shall bear the responsibility for their death.

Joshua 2:20 But if you tell this business of ours, then we shall be released from this oath that you made us swear to you."

Joshua 2:21 She said, "According to your words, so be it." She sent them away and they departed. Then she tied the crimson cord in the window.

Joshua 2:22 They departed and went into the hill country and stayed there three days, until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had searched all along the way and found nothing.

Joshua 2:23 Then the two men came down again from the hill country. They crossed over, came to Joshua son of Nun, and told him all that had happened to them.

Joshua 2:24 They said to Joshua, "Truly the LORD has given all the land into our hands; moreover all the inhabitants of the land melt in fear before us."

Joshua 3:1 Early in the morning Joshua rose and set out from Shittim with all the Israelites, and they came to the Jordan. They camped there before crossing over.

Joshua 3:2 At the end of three days the officers went through the camp

Joshua 3:3 and commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God being carried by the levitical priests, then you shall set out from your place. Follow it, Joshua 3:4 so that you may know the way you should go, for you have not passed this way before. Yet there shall be a space between you and it, a distance of about two thousand cubits; do not come any nearer to it."

Joshua 3:5 Then Joshua said to the people, "Sanctify yourselves; for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders among you."

Joshua 3:6 To the priests Joshua said, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass on in front of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went in front of the people.

Joshua 3:7 The LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that I will be with you as I was with Moses.

Joshua 3:8 You are the one who shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.’“

Joshua 3:9 Joshua then said to the Israelites, “Draw near and hear the words of the LORD your God.”

Joshua 3:10 Joshua said, “By this you shall know that among you is the living God who without fail will drive out from before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites, and Jebusites:

Joshua 3:11 the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going to pass before you into the Jordan.

Joshua 3:12 So now select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe.

Joshua 3:13 When the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan flowing from above shall be cut off; they shall stand in a single heap.”

Joshua 3:14 When the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests bearing the ark of the covenant were in front of the people.

Joshua 3:15 Now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest. So when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests bearing the ark were dipped in the edge of the water,

Joshua 3:16 the waters flowing from above stood still, rising up in a single heap far off at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan, while those flowing toward the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

Joshua 3:17 While all Israel were crossing over on dry ground, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, until the entire nation finished crossing over the Jordan.

Joshua 4:1 When the entire nation had finished crossing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua:

Joshua 4:2 “Select twelve men from the people, one from each tribe, Joshua 4:3 and command them, ‘Take twelve stones from here out of the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests’ feet stood, carry them over with you, and lay them down in the place where you camp tonight.’“

Joshua 4:4 Then Joshua summoned the twelve men from the Israelites, whom he had appointed, one from each tribe.

Joshua 4:5 Joshua said to them, “Pass on before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you take up a stone on his shoulder, one for each of the tribes of the Israelites,

Joshua 4:6 so that this may be a sign among you. When your children ask in time to come, ‘What do those stones mean to you?’

Joshua 4:7 then you shall tell them that the waters of the Jordan were cut off in front of the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. So these stones shall be to the Israelites a memorial forever.”

Joshua 4:8 The Israelites did as Joshua commanded. They took up twelve stones out of the middle of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD told Joshua, carried them over with them to the place where they camped, and laid them down there.

Joshua 4:9 (Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests bearing the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.)

Joshua 4:10 The priests who bore the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to tell the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people crossed over in haste.

Joshua 4:11 As soon as all the people had finished crossing over, the ark of the LORD, and the priests, crossed over in front of the people.

Joshua 4:12 The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the Israelites, as Moses had ordered them.

Joshua 4:13 About forty thousand armed for war crossed over before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for battle.

Joshua 4:14 On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they stood in awe of him, as they had stood in awe of Moses, all the days of his life.

Joshua 4:15 The LORD said to Joshua,

Joshua 4:16 “Command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, to come up out of the Jordan.”

Joshua 4:17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, “Come up out of the Jordan.”

Joshua 4:18 When the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the middle of the Jordan, and the soles of the priests’ feet touched dry ground, the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and overflowed all its banks, as before.

Joshua 4:19 The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Jericho.

Joshua 4:20 Those twelve stones, which they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal,

Joshua 4:21 saying to the Israelites, “When your children ask their parents in time to come, ‘What do these stones mean?’

Joshua 4:22 then you shall let your children know, ‘Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground.’

Joshua 4:23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan for you until you crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which he dried up for us until we crossed over,

Joshua 4:24 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the hand of the LORD is mighty, and so that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

Joshua 5:1 When all the kings of the Amorites beyond the Jordan to the west, and all the kings of the Canaanites by the sea, heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan for the Israelites until they had crossed over, their hearts melted, and there was no longer any spirit in them, because of the Israelites.

Joshua 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites a second time.”

Joshua 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives, and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath-haaraloth.

Joshua 5:4 This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the males of the people who came out of Egypt, all the warriors, had died during the journey through the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt.

Joshua 5:5 Although all the people who came out had been circumcised, yet all the people born on the journey through the wilderness after they had come out of Egypt had not been circumcised.

Joshua 5:6 For the Israelites traveled forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, the warriors who came out of Egypt, perished, not having listened to the voice of the LORD. To them the LORD swore that he would not let them see the land that he had sworn to their ancestors to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Joshua 5:7 So it was their children, whom he raised up in their place, that Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

Joshua 5:8 When the circumcising of all the nation was done, they remained in their places in the camp until they were healed.

Joshua 5:9 The LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away from you the disgrace of Egypt.” And so that place is called Gilgal to this day.

Joshua 5:10 While the Israelites were camped in Gilgal they kept the passover in the evening on the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho.

Joshua 5:11 On the day after the passover, on that very day, they ate the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain.

Joshua 5:12 The manna ceased on the day they ate the produce of the land, and the Israelites no longer had manna; they ate the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

Joshua 5:13 Once when Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing before him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went to him and said to him, “Are you one of us, or one of our adversaries?”

Joshua 5:14 He replied, “Neither; but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.” And Joshua fell on his face to the earth and worshiped, and he said to him, “What do you command your servant, my lord?”

Joshua 5:15 The commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, “Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy.” And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6:1 Now Jericho was shut up inside and out because of the Israelites; no one came out and no one went in.

Joshua 6:2 The LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have handed Jericho over to you, along with its king and soldiers.

Joshua 6:3 You shall march around the city, all the warriors circling the city once. Thus you shall do for six days,

Joshua 6:4 with seven priests bearing seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark. On the seventh day you shall march around the city seven times, the priests blowing the trumpets.

Joshua 6:5 When they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, as soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city will fall down flat, and all the people shall charge straight ahead.”

Joshua 6:6 So Joshua son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant, and have seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:7 To the people he said, “Go forward and march around the city; have the armed men pass on before the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:8 As Joshua had commanded the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD went forward, blowing the trumpets, with the ark of the covenant of the LORD following them.

Joshua 6:9 And the armed men went before the priests who blew the trumpets; the rear guard came after the ark, while the trumpets blew continually.

Joshua 6:10 To the people Joshua gave this command: “You shall not shout or let your voice be heard, nor shall you utter a word, until the day I tell you to shout. Then you shall shout.”

Joshua 6:11 So the ark of the LORD went around the city, circling it once; and they came into the camp, and spent the night in the camp.

Joshua 6:12 Then Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Joshua 6:13 The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the ark of the LORD passed on, blowing the trumpets continually. The armed men went before them, and the rear guard came after the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets blew continually.

Joshua 6:14 On the second day they marched around the city once and then returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

Joshua 6:15 On the seventh day they rose early, at dawn, and marched around the city in the same manner seven times. It was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times.

Joshua 6:16 And at the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua said to the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city.

Joshua 6:17 The city and all that is in it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall live because she hid the messengers we sent.

Joshua 6:18 As for you, keep away from the things devoted to destruction, so as not to covet and take any of the devoted things and make the camp of Israel an object for destruction, bringing trouble upon it.

Joshua 6:19 But all silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are sacred to the LORD; they shall go into the treasury of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:20 So the people shouted, and the trumpets were blown. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpets, they raised a great shout, and the wall fell down flat; so the people charged straight ahead into the city and captured it.

Joshua 6:21 Then they devoted to destruction by the edge of the sword all in the city, both men and women, young and old, oxen, sheep, and donkeys.

Joshua 6:22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house, and bring the woman out of it and all who belong to her, as you swore to her.”

Joshua 6:23 So the young men who had been spies went in and brought Rahab out, along with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all who belonged to her— they brought all her kindred out— and set them outside the camp of Israel.

Joshua 6:24 They burned down the city, and everything in it; only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.

Joshua 6:25 But Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, Joshua spared. Her family has lived in Israel ever since. For she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

Joshua 6:26 Joshua then pronounced this oath, saying, “Cursed before the LORD be anyone who tries to build this city— this Jericho! At the cost of his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest he shall set up its gates!”

Joshua 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

Joshua 7:1 But the Israelites broke faith in regard to the devoted things: Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things; and the anger of the LORD burned against the Israelites.

Joshua 7:2 Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven, east of Bethel, and said to them, “Go up and spy out the land.” And the men went up and spied out Ai.

Joshua 7:3 Then they returned to Joshua and said to him, “Not all the people need go up; about two or three thousand men should go up and attack Ai. Since they are so few, do not make the whole people toil up there.”

Joshua 7:4 So about three thousand of the people went up there; and they fled before the men of Ai.

Joshua 7:5 The men of Ai killed about thirty-six of them, chasing them from outside the gate as far as Shebarim and killing them on the slope. The hearts of the people melted and turned to water.

Joshua 7:6 Then Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the ground on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads.

Joshua 7:7 Joshua said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Why have you brought this people across the Jordan at all, to hand us over to the Amorites so as to destroy us? Would that we had been content to settle beyond the Jordan!

Joshua 7:8 O Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has turned their backs to their enemies!

Joshua 7:9 The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will you do for your great name?”

Joshua 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, “Stand up! Why have you fallen upon your face?

Joshua 7:11 Israel has sinned; they have transgressed my covenant that I imposed on them. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have acted deceitfully, and they have put them among their own belongings.

Joshua 7:12 Therefore the Israelites are unable to stand before their enemies; they turn their backs to their enemies, because they have become a thing devoted for destruction themselves. I will be with you no more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.

Joshua 7:13 Proceed to sanctify the people, and say, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "There are devoted things among you, O Israel; you will be unable to stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted things from among you."

Joshua 7:14 In the morning therefore you shall come forward tribe by tribe. The tribe that the LORD takes shall come near by clans, the clan that the LORD takes shall come near by households, and the household that the LORD takes shall come near one by one.

Joshua 7:15 And the one who is taken as having the devoted things shall be burned with fire, together with all that he has, for having transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and for having done an outrageous thing in Israel."'

Joshua 7:16 So Joshua rose early in the morning, and brought Israel near tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was taken.

Joshua 7:17 He brought near the clans of Judah, and the clan of the Zerahites was taken; and he brought near the clan of the Zerahites, family by family, and Zabdi was taken.

Joshua 7:18 And he brought near his household one by one, and Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Joshua 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, "My son, give glory to the LORD God of Israel and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done; do not hide it from me."

Joshua 7:20 And Achan answered Joshua, "It is true; I am the one who sinned against the LORD God of Israel. This is what I did:

Joshua 7:21 when I saw among the spoil a beautiful mantle from Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels, then I coveted them and took them. They now lie hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath."

Joshua 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and there it was, hidden in his tent with the silver underneath.

Joshua 7:23 They took them out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites; and they spread them out before the LORD.

Joshua 7:24 Then Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan son of Zerah, with the silver, the mantle, and the bar of gold, with his sons and daughters, with his oxen, donkeys, and sheep, and his tent and all that he had; and they brought them up to the Valley of Achor.

Joshua 7:25 Joshua said, “Why did you bring trouble on us? The LORD is bringing trouble on you today.” And all Israel stoned him to death; they burned them with fire, cast stones on them,

Joshua 7:26 and raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from his burning anger. Therefore that place to this day is called the Valley of Achor.

Joshua 8:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear or be dismayed; take all the fighting men with you, and go up now to Ai. See, I have handed over to you the king of Ai with his people, his city, and his land.

Joshua 8:2 You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king; only its spoil and its livestock you may take as booty for yourselves. Set an ambush against the city, behind it.”

Joshua 8:3 So Joshua and all the fighting men set out to go up against Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand warriors and sent them out by night

Joshua 8:4 with the command, “You shall lie in ambush against the city, behind it; do not go very far from the city, but all of you stay alert.

Joshua 8:5 I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. When they come out against us, as before, we shall flee from them.

Joshua 8:6 They will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, ‘They are fleeing from us, as before.’ While we flee from them,

Joshua 8:7 you shall rise up from the ambush and seize the city; for the LORD your God will give it into your hand.

Joshua 8:8 And when you have taken the city, you shall set the city on fire, doing as the LORD has ordered; see, I have commanded you.”

Joshua 8:9 So Joshua sent them out; and they went to the place of ambush, and lay between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai; but Joshua spent that night in the camp.

Joshua 8:10 In the morning Joshua rose early and mustered the people, and went up, with the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

Joshua 8:11 All the fighting men who were with him went up, and drew near before the city, and camped on the north side of Ai, with a ravine between them and Ai.

Joshua 8:12 Taking about five thousand men, he set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

Joshua 8:13 So they stationed the forces, the main encampment that was north of the city and its rear guard west of the city. But Joshua spent that night in the valley.

Joshua 8:14 When the king of Ai saw this, he and all his people, the inhabitants of the city, hurried out early in the morning to the meeting place facing the Arabah to meet Israel in battle; but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

Joshua 8:15 And Joshua and all Israel made a pretense of being beaten before them, and fled in the direction of the wilderness.

Joshua 8:16 So all the people who were in the city were called together to pursue them, and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city.

Joshua 8:17 There was not a man left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel; they left the city open, and pursued Israel.

Joshua 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Stretch out the sword that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand.” And Joshua stretched out the sword that was in his hand toward the city.

Joshua 8:19 As soon as he stretched out his hand, the troops in ambush rose quickly out of their place and rushed forward. They entered the city, took it, and at once set the city on fire.

Joshua 8:20 So when the men of Ai looked back, the smoke of the city was rising to the sky. They had no power to flee this way or that, for the people who fled to the wilderness turned back against the pursuers.

Joshua 8:21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city was rising, then they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

Joshua 8:22 And the others came out from the city against them; so they were surrounded by Israelites, some on one side, and some on the other; and Israel struck them down until no one was left who survived or escaped.

Joshua 8:23 But the king of Ai was taken alive and brought to Joshua.

Joshua 8:24 When Israel had finished slaughtering all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they pursued them, and when all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai, and attacked it with the edge of the sword.

Joshua 8:25 The total of those who fell that day, both men and women, was twelve thousand— all the people of Ai.

Joshua 8:26 For Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the sword, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

Joshua 8:27 Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took as their booty, according to the word of the LORD that he had issued to Joshua.

Joshua 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai, and made it forever a heap of ruins, as it is to this day.

Joshua 8:29 And he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening; and at sunset Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, threw it down at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised over it a great heap of stones, which stands there to this day.

Joshua 8:30 Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Joshua 8:31 just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, “an altar of unhewn stones, on which no iron tool has been used”; and they offered on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and sacrificed offerings of well-being.

Joshua 8:32 And there, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua wrote on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written.

Joshua 8:33 All Israel, alien as well as citizen, with their elders and officers and their judges, stood on opposite sides of the ark in front of the levitical priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel.

Joshua 8:34 And afterward he read all the words of the law, blessings and curses, according to all that is written in the book of the law.

Joshua 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses commanded that Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, and the women, and the little ones, and the aliens who resided among them.

Joshua 9:1 Now when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan in the hill country and in the lowland all along the coast of the Great Sea toward Lebanon— the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites— heard of this,

Joshua 9:2 they gathered together with one accord to fight Joshua and Israel.

Joshua 9:3 But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai,

Joshua 9:4 they on their part acted with cunning: they went and prepared provisions, and took worn-out sacks for their donkeys, and wineskins, worn-out and torn and mended,

Joshua 9:5 with worn-out, patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out clothes; and all their provisions were dry and moldy.

Joshua 9:6 They went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the Israelites, “We have come from a far country; so now make a treaty with us.”

Joshua 9:7 But the Israelites said to the Hivites, “Perhaps you live among us; then how can we make a treaty with you?”

Joshua 9:8 They said to Joshua, “We are your servants.” And Joshua said to them, “Who are you? And where do you come from?”

Joshua 9:9 They said to him, “Your servants have come from a very far country, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard a report of him, of all that he did in Egypt,

Joshua 9:10 and of all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon, and King Og of Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth.

Joshua 9:11 So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, ‘Take provisions in your hand for the journey; go to meet them, and say to them, “We are your servants; come now, make a treaty with us.”‘

Joshua 9:12 Here is our bread; it was still warm when we took it from our houses as our food for the journey, on the day we set out to come to you, but now, see, it is dry and moldy;

Joshua 9:13 these wineskins were new when we filled them, and see, they are burst; and these garments and sandals of ours are worn out from the very long journey.”

Joshua 9:14 So the leaders partook of their provisions, and did not ask direction from the LORD.

Joshua 9:15 And Joshua made peace with them, guaranteeing their lives by a treaty; and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them.

Joshua 9:16 But when three days had passed after they had made a treaty with them, they heard that they were their neighbors and were living among them.

Joshua 9:17 So the Israelites set out and reached their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim.

Joshua 9:18 But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then all the congregation murmured against the leaders.

Joshua 9:19 But all the leaders said to all the congregation, “We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we must not touch them.

Joshua 9:20 This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that wrath may not come upon us, because of the oath that we swore to them.”

Joshua 9:21 The leaders said to them, “Let them live.” So they became hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the leaders had decided concerning them.

Joshua 9:22 Joshua summoned them, and said to them, “Why did you deceive us, saying, ‘We are very far from you,’ while in fact you are living among us?

Joshua 9:23 Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you shall always be slaves, hewers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God.”

Joshua 9:24 They answered Joshua, “Because it was told to your servants for a certainty that the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; so we were in great fear for our lives because of you, and did this thing.

Joshua 9:25 And now we are in your hand: do as it seems good and right in your sight to do to us.”

Joshua 9:26 This is what he did for them: he saved them from the Israelites; and they did not kill them.

Joshua 9:27 But on that day Joshua made them hewers of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to continue to this day, in the place that he should choose.

Joshua 10:1 When King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them,

Joshua 10:2 he became greatly frightened, because Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities, and was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors.

Joshua 10:3 So King Adoni-zedek of Jerusalem sent a message to King Hoham of Hebron, to King Piram of Jarmuth, to King Japhia of Lachish, and to King Debir of Eglon, saying,

Joshua 10:4 “Come up and help me, and let us attack Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the Israelites.”

Joshua 10:5 Then the five kings of the Amorites— the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon— gathered their forces, and went up with all their armies and camped against Gibeon, and made war against it.

Joshua 10:6 And the Gibeonites sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal, saying, “Do not abandon your servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites who live in the hill country are gathered against us.”

Joshua 10:7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the fighting force with him, all the mighty warriors.

Joshua 10:8 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not fear them, for I have handed them over to you; not one of them shall stand before you.”

Joshua 10:9 So Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched up all night from Gilgal.

Joshua 10:10 And the LORD threw them into a panic before Israel, who inflicted a great slaughter on them at Gibeon, chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

Joshua 10:11 As they fled before Israel, while they were going down the slope of Beth-horon, the LORD threw down huge stones from heaven on them as far as Azekah, and they died; there were more who died because of the hailstones than the Israelites killed with the sword.

Joshua 10:12 On the day when the LORD gave the Amorites over to the Israelites, Joshua spoke to the LORD; and he said in the sight of Israel, “Sun, stand still at Gibeon, and Moon, in the valley of Aijalon.”

Joshua 10:13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the nation took vengeance on their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in midheaven, and did not hurry to set for about a whole day.

Joshua 10:14 There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD heeded a human voice; for the LORD fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:15 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 10:16 Meanwhile, these five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah.

Joshua 10:17 And it was told Joshua, “The five kings have been found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah.”

Joshua 10:18 Joshua said, “Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them;

Joshua 10:19 but do not stay there yourselves; pursue your enemies, and attack them from the rear. Do not let them enter their towns, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand.”

Joshua 10:20 When Joshua and the Israelites had finished inflicting a very great slaughter on them, until they were wiped out, and when the survivors had entered into the fortified towns,

Joshua 10:21 all the people returned safe to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah; no one dared to speak against any of the Israelites.

Joshua 10:22 Then Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out to me from the cave.”

Joshua 10:23 They did so, and brought the five kings out to him from the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

Joshua 10:24 When they brought the kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the Israelites, and said to the chiefs of the warriors who had gone with him, “Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings.” Then they came near and put their feet on their necks.

Joshua 10:25 And Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid or dismayed; be strong and courageous; for thus the LORD will do to all the enemies against whom you fight.”

Joshua 10:26 Afterward Joshua struck them down and put them to death, and he hung them on five trees. And they hung on the trees until evening.

Joshua 10:27 At sunset Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves; they set large stones against the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

Joshua 10:28 Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword; he utterly destroyed every person in it; he left no one remaining. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:29 Then Joshua passed on from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

Joshua 10:30 The LORD gave it also and its king into the hand of Israel; and he struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it; he left no one remaining in it; and he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:31 Next Joshua passed on from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and laid siege to it, and assaulted it.

Joshua 10:32 The LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and every person in it, as he had done to Libnah.

Joshua 10:33 Then King Horam of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, leaving him no survivors.

Joshua 10:34 From Lachish Joshua passed on with all Israel to Eglon; and they laid siege to it, and assaulted it;

Joshua 10:35 and they took it that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword; and every person in it he utterly destroyed that day, as he had done to Lachish.

Joshua 10:36 Then Joshua went up with all Israel from Eglon to Hebron; they assaulted it,

Joshua 10:37 and took it, and struck it with the edge of the sword, and its king and its towns, and every person in it; he left no one remaining, just as he had done to Eglon, and utterly destroyed it with every person in it.

Joshua 10:38 Then Joshua, with all Israel, turned back to Debir and assaulted it,

Joshua 10:39 and he took it with its king and all its towns; they struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed every person in it; he left no one remaining; just as he had done to Hebron, and, as he had done to Libnah and its king, so he did to Debir and its king.

Joshua 10:40 So Joshua defeated the whole land, the hill country and the Negeb and the lowland and the slopes, and all their kings; he left no one remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel commanded.

Joshua 10:41 And Joshua defeated them from Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, as far as Gibeon.

Joshua 10:42 Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:43 Then Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11:1 When King Jabin of Hazor heard of this, he sent to King Jobab of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph,

Joshua 11:2 and to the kings who were in the northern hill country, and in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and in Naphoth-dor on the west,

Joshua 11:3 to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Hermon in the land of Mizpah.

Joshua 11:4 They came out, with all their troops, a great army, in number like the sand on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.

Joshua 11:5 All these kings joined their forces, and came and camped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

Joshua 11:6 And the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, for tomorrow at this time I will hand over all of them, slain, to Israel; you shall hamstring their horses, and burn their chariots with fire.”

Joshua 11:7 So Joshua came suddenly upon them with all his fighting force, by the waters of Merom, and fell upon them.

Joshua 11:8 And the LORD handed them over to Israel, who attacked them and chased them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-maim, and eastward as far as the valley of Mizpeh. They struck them down, until they had left no one remaining.

Joshua 11:9 And Joshua did to them as the LORD commanded him; he hamstrung their horses, and burned their chariots with fire.

Joshua 11:10 Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck its king down with the sword. Before that time Hazor was the head of all those kingdoms.

Joshua 11:11 And they put to the sword all who were in it, utterly destroying them; there was no one left who breathed, and he burned Hazor with fire.

Joshua 11:12 And all the towns of those kings, and all their kings, Joshua took, and struck them with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

Joshua 11:13 But Israel burned none of the towns that stood on mounds except Hazor, which Joshua did burn.

Joshua 11:14 All the spoil of these towns, and the livestock, the Israelites took for their booty; but all the people they struck down with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, and they did not leave any who breathed.

Joshua 11:15 As the LORD had commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:16 So Joshua took all that land: the hill country and all the Negeb and all the land of Goshen and the lowland and the Arabah and the hill country of Israel and its lowland, Joshua 11:17 from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He took all their kings, struck them down, and put them to death.

Joshua 11:18 Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

Joshua 11:19 There was not a town that made peace with the Israelites, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon; all were taken in battle.

Joshua 11:20 For it was the LORD’s doing to harden their hearts so that they would come against Israel in battle, in order that they might be utterly destroyed, and might receive no mercy, but be exterminated, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:21 At that time Joshua came and wiped out the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel; Joshua utterly destroyed them with their towns.

Joshua 11:22 None of the Anakim was left in the land of the Israelites; some remained only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod.

Joshua 11:23 So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal allotments. And the land had rest from war.

Joshua 12:1 Now these are the kings of the land, whom the Israelites defeated, whose land they occupied beyond the Jordan toward the east, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon, with all the Arabah eastward:

Joshua 12:2 King Sihon of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and from the middle of the valley as far as the river Jabbok, the boundary of the Ammonites, that is, half of Gilead,

Joshua 12:3 and the Arabah to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward, and in the direction of Beth-jeshimoth, to the sea of the Arabah, the Dead Sea, southward to the foot of the slopes of Pisgah;

Joshua 12:4 and King Og of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei

Joshua 12:5 and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salecah and all Bashan to the boundary of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and over half of Gilead to the boundary of King Sihon of Heshbon.

Joshua 12:6 Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites defeated them; and Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land for a possession to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 12:7 The following are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the Israelites defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, that rises toward Seir (and Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their allotments, Joshua 12:8 in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negeb, the land of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites):

Joshua 12:9 the king of Jericho one the king of Ai, which is next to Bethel one

Joshua 12:10 the king of Jerusalem one the king of Hebron one

Joshua 12:11 the king of Jarmuth one the king of Lachish one

Joshua 12:12 the king of Eglon one the king of Gezer one

Joshua 12:13 the king of Debir one the king of Geder one

Joshua 12:14 the king of Hormah one the king of Arad one

Joshua 12:15 the king of Libnah one the king of Adullam one

Joshua 12:16 the king of Makkedah one the king of Bethel one

Joshua 12:17 the king of Tappuah one the king of Hepher one

Joshua 12:18 the king of Aphek one the king of Lasharon one

Joshua 12:19 the king of Madon one the king of Hazor one

Joshua 12:20 the king of Shimron-meron one the king of Achshaph one

Joshua 12:21 the king of Taanach one the king of Megiddo one

Joshua 12:22 the king of Kedesh one the king of Jokneam in Carmel one

Joshua 12:23 the king of Dor in Naphath-dor one the king of Goiim in Galilee, one

Joshua 12:24 the king of Tirzah one thirty-one kings in all.

Joshua 13:1 Now Joshua was old and advanced in years; and the LORD said to him, “You are old and advanced in years, and very much of the land still remains to be possessed.

Joshua 13:2 This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all those of the Geshurites

Joshua 13:3 (from the Shihor, which is east of Egypt, northward to the boundary of Ekron, it is reckoned as Canaanite; there are five rulers of the Philistines, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron), and those of the Avvim,

Joshua 13:4 in the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the boundary of the Amorites,

Joshua 13:5 and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the east, from Baal-gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo-hamath,

Joshua 13:6 all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, even all the Sidonians. I will myself drive them out from before the Israelites; only allot the land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

Joshua 13:7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh.”

Joshua 13:8 With the other half-tribe of Manasseh the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them:

Joshua 13:9 from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and the town that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland from Medeba as far as Dibon;

Joshua 13:10 and all the cities of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the boundary of the Ammonites;

Joshua 13:11 and Gilead, and the region of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah;

Joshua 13:12 all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he alone was left of the survivors of the Rephaim); these Moses had defeated and driven out.

Joshua 13:13 Yet the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites; but Geshur and Maacath live within Israel to this day.

Joshua 13:14 To the tribe of Levi alone Moses gave no inheritance; the offerings by fire to the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as he said to them.

Joshua 13:15 Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the Reubenites according to their clans.

Joshua 13:16 Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon, and the town that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland by Medeba;

Joshua 13:17 with Heshbon, and all its towns that are in the tableland; Dibon, and Bamoth-baal, and Beth-baal-meon,

Joshua 13:18 and Jahaz, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath,

Joshua 13:19 and Kiriathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar on the hill of the valley,

Joshua 13:20 and Beth-peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshimoth,

Joshua 13:21 that is, all the towns of the tableland, and all the kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated with the leaders of Midian, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reba, as princes of Sihon, who lived in the land.

Joshua 13:22 Along with the rest of those they put to death, the Israelites also put to the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practiced divination.

Joshua 13:23 And the border of the Reubenites was the Jordan and its banks. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites, according to their families with their towns and villages.

Joshua 13:24 Moses gave an inheritance also to the tribe of the Gadites, according to their families.

Joshua 13:25 Their territory was Jazer, and all the towns of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is east of Rabbah,

Joshua 13:26 and from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir,

Joshua 13:27 and in the valley Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of King Sihon of Heshbon, the Jordan and its banks, as far as the lower end of the Sea of Chinnereth, eastward beyond the Jordan.

Joshua 13:28 This is the inheritance of the Gadites according to their clans, with their towns and villages.

Joshua 13:29 Moses gave an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh; it was allotted to the half-tribe of the Manassites according to their families.

Joshua 13:30 Their territory extended from Mahanaim, through all Bashan, the whole kingdom of King Og of Bashan, and all the settlements of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty towns,

Joshua 13:31 and half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the towns of the kingdom of Og in Bashan; these were allotted to the people of Machir son of Manasseh according to their clans— for half the Machirites.

Joshua 13:32 These are the inheritances that Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan east of Jericho.

Joshua 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance; the LORD God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said to them.

Joshua 14:1 These are the inheritances that the Israelites received in the land of Canaan, which the priest Eleazar, and Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites distributed to them.

Joshua 14:2 Their inheritance was by lot, as the LORD had commanded Moses for the nine and one-half tribes.

Joshua 14:3 For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and one-half tribes beyond the Jordan; but to the Levites he gave no inheritance among them.

Joshua 14:4 For the people of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and no portion was given to the Levites in the land, but only towns to live in, with their pasture lands for their flocks and herds.

Joshua 14:5 The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses; they allotted the land.

Joshua 14:6 Then the people of Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal; and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God in Kadesh-barnea concerning you and me.

Joshua 14:7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him an honest report.

Joshua 14:8 But my companions who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; yet I wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.

Joshua 14:9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, ‘Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be an inheritance for you and your children forever, because you have wholeheartedly followed the LORD my God.’

Joshua 14:10 And now, as you see, the LORD has kept me alive, as he said, these forty-five years since the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel was journeying through the wilderness; and here I am today, eighty-five years old.

Joshua 14:11 I am still as strong today as I was on the day that Moses sent me; my strength now is as my strength was then, for war, and for going and coming.

Joshua 14:12 So now give me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day; for you heard on that day how the Anakim were there, with great fortified cities; it may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as the LORD said.”

Joshua 14:13 Then Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh for an inheritance.

Joshua 14:14 So Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholeheartedly followed the LORD, the God of Israel.

Joshua 14:15 Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba; this Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15:1 The lot for the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families reached southward to the boundary of Edom, to the wilderness of Zin at the farthest south.

Joshua 15:2 And their south boundary ran from the end of the Dead Sea, from the bay that faces southward;

Joshua 15:3 it goes out southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, passes along to Zin, and goes up south of Kadesh-barnea, along by Hezron, up to Addar, makes a turn to Karka,

Joshua 15:4 passes along to Azmon, goes out by the Wadi of Egypt, and comes to its end at the sea. This shall be your south boundary.

Joshua 15:5 And the east boundary is the Dead Sea, to the mouth of the Jordan. And the boundary on the north side runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan;

Joshua 15:6 and the boundary goes up to Beth-hoglah, and passes along north of Beth-arabah; and the boundary goes up to the Stone of Bohan, Reuben’s son;

Joshua 15:7 and the boundary goes up to Debir from the Valley of Achor, and so northward, turning toward Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the valley; and the boundary passes along to the waters of En-shemesh, and ends at En-rogel;

Joshua 15:8 then the boundary goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom at the southern slope of the Jebusites (that is, Jerusalem); and the boundary goes up to the top of the mountain that lies over against the valley of Hinnom, on the west, at the northern end of the valley of Rephaim;

Joshua 15:9 then the boundary extends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah, and from there to the towns of Mount Ephron; then the boundary bends around to Baalah (that is, Kiriath-jearim);

Joshua 15:10 and the boundary circles west of Baalah to Mount Seir, passes along to the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon), and goes down to Beth-shemesh, and passes along by Timnah;

Joshua 15:11 the boundary goes out to the slope of the hill north of Ekron, then the boundary bends around to Shikkeron, and passes along to Mount Baalah, and goes out to Jabneel; then the boundary comes to an end at the sea.

Joshua 15:12 And the west boundary was the Mediterranean with its coast. This is the boundary surrounding the people of Judah according to their families.

Joshua 15:13 According to the commandment of the LORD to Joshua, he gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion among the people of Judah, Kiriath-arba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak).

Joshua 15:14 And Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the descendants of Anak.

Joshua 15:15 From there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher.

Joshua 15:16 And Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and takes it, to him I will give my daughter Achsah as wife.”

Joshua 15:17 Othniel son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

Joshua 15:18 When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

Joshua 15:19 She said to him, “Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me springs of water as well.” So Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

Joshua 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the people of Judah according to their families.

Joshua 15:21 The towns belonging to the tribe of the people of Judah in the extreme South, toward the boundary of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Joshua 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Joshua 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Joshua 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Joshua 15:25 Hazor-hadattah, Kerioth-hezron (that is, Hazor),

Joshua 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Joshua 15:27 Hazar-gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-pelet, Joshua 15:28 Hazar-shual, Beer-sheba, Biziothiah,

Joshua 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Joshua 15:30 Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah,

Joshua 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Joshua 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon: in all, twenty-nine towns, with their villages.

Joshua 15:33 And in the Lowland, Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,

Joshua 15:34 Zanoah, En-gannim, Tappuah, Enam,

Joshua 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,

Joshua 15:36 Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, Gederothaim: fourteen towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-gad,

Joshua 15:38 Dilan, Mizpeh, Jokthe-el,

Joshua 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,

Joshua 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish,

Joshua 15:41 Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

Joshua 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,

Joshua 15:44 Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah: nine towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:45 Ekron, with its dependencies and its villages;

Joshua 15:46 from Ekron to the sea, all that were near Ashdod, with their villages.

Joshua 15:47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza, its towns and its villages; to the Wadi of Egypt, and the Great Sea with its coast.

Joshua 15:48 And in the hill country, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,

Joshua 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath-sannah (that is, Debir),

Joshua 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,

Joshua 15:51 Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,

Joshua 15:53 Janim, Beth-tappuah, Aphekah,

Joshua 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior: nine towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

Joshua 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

Joshua 15:57 Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:58 Halhul, Beth-zur, Gedor,

Joshua 15:59 Maarath, Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: six towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:60 Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), and Rabbah: two towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:61 In the wilderness, Beth-arabah, Middin, Secacah,

Joshua 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-gedi: six towns with their villages.

Joshua 15:63 But the people of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so the Jebusites live with the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

Joshua 16:1 The allotment of the Josephites went from the Jordan by Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, into the wilderness, going up from Jericho into the hill country to Bethel;

Joshua 16:2 then going from Bethel to Luz, it passes along to Ataroth, the territory of the Archites;

Joshua 16:3 then it goes down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, as far as the territory of Lower Beth-horon, then to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.

Joshua 16:4 The Josephites— Manasseh and Ephraim— received their inheritance.

Joshua 16:5 The territory of the Ephraimites by their families was as follows: the boundary of their inheritance on the east was Ataroth-addar as far as Upper Beth-horon,

Joshua 16:6 and the boundary goes from there to the sea; on the north is Michmethath; then on the east the boundary makes a turn toward Taanath-shiloh, and passes along beyond it on the east to Janoah,

Joshua 16:7 then it goes down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, and touches Jericho, ending at the Jordan.

Joshua 16:8 From Tappuah the boundary goes westward to the Wadi Kanah, and ends at the sea. Such is the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites by their families,

Joshua 16:9 together with the towns that were set apart for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites, all those towns with their villages.

Joshua 16:10 They did not, however, drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer: so the Canaanites have lived within Ephraim to this day but have been made to do forced labor.

Joshua 17:1 Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a warrior.

Joshua 17:2 And allotments were made to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh, by their families, Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher, and Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, by their families.

Joshua 17:3 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh had no sons, but only daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

Joshua 17:4 They came before the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun and the leaders, and said, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance along with our male kin.” So according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the kinsmen of their father.

Joshua 17:5 Thus there fell to Manasseh ten portions, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan,

Joshua 17:6 because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead was allotted to the rest of the Manassites.

Joshua 17:7 The territory of Manasseh reached from Asher to Michmethath, which is east of Shechem; then the boundary goes along southward to the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

Joshua 17:8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but the town of Tappuah on the boundary of Manasseh belonged to the Ephraimites.

Joshua 17:9 Then the boundary went down to the Wadi Kanah. The towns here, to the south of the wadi, among the towns of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the boundary of Manasseh goes along the north side of the wadi and ends at the sea.

Joshua 17:10 The land to the south is Ephraim’s and that to the north is Manasseh’s, with the sea forming its boundary; on the north Asher is reached, and on the east Issachar.

Joshua 17:11 Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh had Beth-shean and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of En-dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages (the third is Naphath).

Joshua 17:12 Yet the Manassites could not take possession of those towns; but the Canaanites continued to live in that land.

Joshua 17:13 But when the Israelites grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly drive them out.

Joshua 17:14 The tribe of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, “Why have you given me but one lot and one portion as an inheritance, since we are a numerous people, whom all along the LORD has blessed?”

Joshua 17:15 And Joshua said to them, “If you are a numerous people, go up to the forest, and clear ground there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.”

Joshua 17:16 The tribe of Joseph said, “The hill country is not enough for us; yet all the Canaanites who live in the plain have chariots of iron, both those in Beth-shean and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel.”

Joshua 17:17 Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, “You are indeed a numerous people, and have great power; you shall not have one lot only,

Joshua 17:18 but the hill country shall be yours, for though it is a forest, you shall clear it and possess it to its farthest borders; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.”

Joshua 18:1 Then the whole congregation of the Israelites assembled at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there. The land lay subdued before them.

Joshua 18:2 There remained among the Israelites seven tribes whose inheritance had not yet been apportioned.

Joshua 18:3 So Joshua said to the Israelites, “How long will you be slack about going in and taking possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your ancestors, has given you?

Joshua 18:4 Provide three men from each tribe, and I will send them out that they may begin to go throughout the land, writing a description of it with a view to their inheritances. Then come back to me.

Joshua 18:5 They shall divide it into seven portions, Judah continuing in its territory on the south, and the house of Joseph in their territory on the north.

Joshua 18:6 You shall describe the land in seven divisions and bring the description here to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God.

Joshua 18:7 The Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their heritage; and Gad and Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them.”

Joshua 18:8 So the men started on their way; and Joshua charged those who went to write the description of the land, saying, “Go throughout the land and write a description of it, and come back to me; and I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

Joshua 18:9 So the men went and traversed the land and set down in a book a description of it by towns in seven divisions; then they came back to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh,

Joshua 18:10 and Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD; and there Joshua apportioned the land to the Israelites, to each a portion.

Joshua 18:11 The lot of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families came up, and the territory allotted to it fell between the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Joseph.

Joshua 18:12 On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan; then the boundary goes up to the slope of Jericho on the north, then up through the hill country westward; and it ends at the wilderness of Beth-aven.

Joshua 18:13 From there the boundary passes along southward in the direction of Luz, to the slope of Luz (that is, Bethel), then the boundary goes down to Ataroth-addar, on the mountain that lies south of Lower Beth-horon.

Joshua 18:14 Then the boundary goes in another direction, turning on the western side southward from the mountain that lies to the south, opposite Beth-horon, and it ends at Kiriath-baal (that is, Kiriath-jearim), a town belonging to the tribe of Judah. This forms the western side.

Joshua 18:15 The southern side begins at the outskirts of Kiriath-jearim; and the boundary goes from there to Ephron, to the spring of the Waters of Nephtoah;

Joshua 18:16 then the boundary goes down to the border of the mountain that overlooks the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is at the north end of the valley of Rephaim; and it then goes down the valley of Hinnom, south of the slope of the Jebusites, and downward to En-rogel;

Joshua 18:17 then it bends in a northerly direction going on to En-shemesh, and from there goes to Geliloth, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim; then it goes down to the Stone of Bohan, Reuben's son;

Joshua 18:18 and passing on to the north of the slope of Beth-arabah it goes down to the Arabah;

Joshua 18:19 then the boundary passes on to the north of the slope of Beth-hoglah; and the boundary ends at the northern bay of the Dead Sea, at the south end of the Jordan: this is the southern border.

Joshua 18:20 The Jordan forms its boundary on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to its families, boundary by boundary all around.

Joshua 18:21 Now the towns of the tribe of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz,

Joshua 18:22 Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Joshua 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Joshua 18:24 Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba— twelve towns with their villages:

Joshua 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Joshua 18:26 Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah,

Joshua 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

Joshua 18:28 Zela, Haeleph, Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah and Kiriath-jearim— fourteen towns with their villages. This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin according to its families.

Joshua 19:1 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of Simeon, according to its families; its inheritance lay within the inheritance of the tribe of Judah.

Joshua 19:2 It had for its inheritance Beer-sheba, Sheba, Moladah,

Joshua 19:3 Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem,

Joshua 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Joshua 19:5 Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah,

Joshua 19:6 Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen— thirteen towns with their villages;

Joshua 19:7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan— four towns with their villages;

Joshua 19:8 together with all the villages all around these towns as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the Negeb. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to its families.

Joshua 19:9 The inheritance of the tribe of Simeon formed part of the territory of Judah; because the portion of the tribe of Judah was too large for them, the tribe of Simeon obtained an inheritance within their inheritance.

Joshua 19:10 The third lot came up for the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families. The boundary of its inheritance reached as far as Sarid;

Joshua 19:11 then its boundary goes up westward, and on to Maralah, and touches Dabbesheth, then the wadi that is east of Jokneam;

Joshua 19:12 from Sarid it goes in the other direction eastward toward the sunrise to the boundary of Chisloth-tabor; from there it goes to Daberath, then up to Japhia;

Joshua 19:13 from there it passes along on the east toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher, to Eth-kazin, and going on to Rimmon it bends toward Neah;

Joshua 19:14 then on the north the boundary makes a turn to Hannathon, and it ends at the valley of Iphtah-el;

Joshua 19:15 and Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem— twelve towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:16 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun, according to its families— these towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, for the tribe of Issachar, according to its families.

Joshua 19:18 Its territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem,

Joshua 19:19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

Joshua 19:20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,

Joshua 19:21 Remeth, En-gannim, En-haddah, Beth-pazzez;

Joshua 19:22 the boundary also touches Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh, and its boundary ends at the Jordan— sixteen towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, according to its families— the towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to its families.

Joshua 19:25 Its boundary included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph,

Joshua 19:26 Allammelech, Amad, and Mishal; on the west it touches Carmel and Shihor-libnath,

Joshua 19:27 then it turns eastward, goes to Beth-dagon, and touches Zebulun and the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek and Neiel; then it continues in the north to Cabul,

Joshua 19:28 Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, as far as Great Sidon;

Joshua 19:29 then the boundary turns to Ramah, reaching to the fortified city of Tyre; then the boundary turns to Hosah, and it ends at the sea; Mahalab, Achzib,

Joshua 19:30 Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob— twenty-two towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to its families— these towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:32 The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naphtali, for the tribe of Naphtali, according to its families.

Joshua 19:33 And its boundary ran from Heleph, from the oak in Zaanannim, and Adami-nekeb, and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum; and it ended at the Jordan;

Joshua 19:34 then the boundary turns westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goes from there to Hukkok, touching Zebulun at the south, and Asher on the west, and Judah on the east at the Jordan.

Joshua 19:35 The fortified towns are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth,

Joshua 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Joshua 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En-hazor,

Joshua 19:38 Iron, Migdal-el, Horem, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh— nineteen towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali according to its families— the towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, according to its families.

Joshua 19:41 The territory of its inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-shemesh,

Joshua 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,

Joshua 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Joshua 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Joshua 19:45 Jehud, Bene-berak, Gath-rimmon,

Joshua 19:46 Me-jarkon, and Rakkon at the border opposite Joppa.

Joshua 19:47 When the territory of the Danites was lost to them, the Danites went up and fought against Leshem, and after capturing it and putting it to the sword, they took possession of it and settled in it, calling Leshem, Dan, after their ancestor Dan.

Joshua 19:48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, according to their families— these towns with their villages.

Joshua 19:49 When they had finished distributing the several territories of the land as inheritances, the Israelites gave an inheritance among them to Joshua son of Nun.

Joshua 19:50 By command of the LORD they gave him the town that he asked for, Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim; he rebuilt the town, and settled in it.

Joshua 19:51 These are the inheritances that the priest Eleazar and Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites distributed by lot at Shiloh before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they finished dividing the land.

Joshua 20:1 Then the LORD spoke to Joshua, saying,

Joshua 20:2 “Say to the Israelites, ‘Appoint the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Moses,

Joshua 20:3 so that anyone who kills a person without intent or by mistake may flee there; they shall be for you a refuge from the avenger of blood.

Joshua 20:4 The slayer shall flee to one of these cities and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and explain the case to the elders of that city; then the fugitive shall be taken into the city, and given a place, and shall remain with them.

Joshua 20:5 And if the avenger of blood is in pursuit, they shall not give up the slayer, because the neighbor was killed by mistake, there having been no enmity between them before.

Joshua 20:6 The slayer shall remain in that city until there is a trial before the congregation, until the death of the one who is high priest at the time: then the slayer may return home, to the town in which the deed was done.’“

Joshua 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Joshua 20:8 And beyond the Jordan east of Jericho, they appointed Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland, from the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 20:9 These were the cities designated for all the Israelites, and for the aliens residing among them, that anyone who killed a person without intent could flee there, so as not to die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until there was a trial before the congregation.

Joshua 21:1 Then the heads of the families of the Levites came to the priest Eleazar and to Joshua son of Nun and to the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites;

Joshua 21:2 they said to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, “The LORD commanded through Moses that we be given towns to live in, along with their pasture lands for our livestock.”

Joshua 21:3 So by command of the LORD the Israelites gave to the Levites the following towns and pasture lands out of their inheritance.

Joshua 21:4 The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. So those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received by lot thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin.

Joshua 21:5 The rest of the Kohathites received by lot ten towns from the families of the tribe of Ephraim, from the tribe of Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 21:6 The Gershonites received by lot thirteen towns from the families of the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Joshua 21:7 The Merarites according to their families received twelve towns from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun.

Joshua 21:8 These towns and their pasture lands the Israelites gave by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Joshua 21:9 Out of the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Simeon they gave the following towns mentioned by name,

Joshua 21:10 which went to the descendants of Aaron, one of the families of the Kohathites who belonged to the Levites, since the lot fell to them first.

Joshua 21:11 They gave them Kiriath-arba (Arba being the father of Anak), that is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, along with the pasture lands around it.

Joshua 21:12 But the fields of the town and its villages had been given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his holding.

Joshua 21:13 To the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands, Libnah with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:14 Jattir with its pasture lands, Eshtemoa with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:15 Holon with its pasture lands, Debir with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:16 Ain with its pasture lands, Juttah with its pasture lands, and Beth-shemesh with its pasture lands— nine towns out of these two tribes.

Joshua 21:17 Out of the tribe of Benjamin: Gibeon with its pasture lands, Geba with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:18 Anathoth with its pasture lands, and Almon with its pasture lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:19 The towns of the descendants of Aaron— the priests— were thirteen in all, with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:20 As to the rest of the Kohathites belonging to the Kohathite families of the Levites, the towns allotted to them were out of the tribe of Ephraim.

Joshua 21:21 To them were given Shechem, the city of refuge for the slayer, with its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:22 Kibzaim with its pasture lands, and Beth-horon with its pasture lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:23 Out of the tribe of Dan: Elteke with its pasture lands, Gibbethon with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:25 Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Taanach with its pasture lands, and Gath-rimmon with its pasture lands— two towns.

Joshua 21:26 The towns of the families of the rest of the Kohathites were ten in all, with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:27 To the Gershonites, one of the families of the Levites, were given out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, and Beeshterah with its pasture lands— two towns.

Joshua 21:28 Out of the tribe of Issachar: Kishion with its pasture lands, Daberath with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:29 Jarmuth with its pasture lands, En-gannim with its pasture lands— four towns;

Joshua 21:30 Out of the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its pasture lands, Abdon with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:31 Helkath with its pasture lands, and Rehob with its pasture lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:32 Out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Hammoth-dor with its pasture lands, and Kartan with its pasture lands— three towns.

Joshua 21:33 The towns of the several families of the Gershonites were in all thirteen, with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:34 To the rest of the Levites— the Merarite families— were given out of the tribe of Zebulun: Jokneam with its pasture lands, Kartah with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:35 Dimnah with its pasture lands, Nahalal with its pasture lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:36 Out of the tribe of Reuben: Bezer with its pasture lands, Jahzah with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:37 Kedemoth with its pasture lands, and Mephaath with its pasture lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:38 Out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead with its pasture lands, the city of refuge for the slayer, Mahanaim with its pasture lands,

Joshua 21:39 Heshbon with its pasture lands, Jazer with its pasture lands— four towns in all.

Joshua 21:40 As for the towns of the several Merarite families, that is, the remainder of the families of the Levites, those allotted to them were twelve in all.

Joshua 21:41 The towns of the Levites within the holdings of the Israelites were in all forty-eight towns with their pasture lands.

Joshua 21:42 Each of these towns had its pasture lands around it; so it was with all these towns.

Joshua 21:43 Thus the LORD gave to Israel all the land that he swore to their ancestors that he would give them; and having taken possession of it, they settled there.

Joshua 21:44 And the LORD gave them rest on every side just as he had sworn to their ancestors; not one of all their enemies had withstood them, for the LORD had given all their enemies into their hands.

Joshua 21:45 Not one of all the good promises that the LORD had made to the house of Israel had failed; all came to pass.

Joshua 22:1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,

Joshua 22:2 and said to them, “You have observed all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have obeyed me in all that I have commanded you;

Joshua 22:3 you have not forsaken your kindred these many days, down to this day, but have been careful to keep the charge of the LORD your God.

Joshua 22:4 And now the LORD your God has given rest to your kindred, as he promised them; therefore turn and go to your tents in the land where your possession lies, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Joshua 22:5 Take good care to observe the commandment and instruction that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, and to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

Joshua 22:6 So Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

Joshua 22:7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given a possession in Bashan; but to the other half Joshua had given a possession beside their fellow Israelites in the land west of the Jordan. And when Joshua sent them away to their tents and blessed them,

Joshua 22:8 he said to them, “Go back to your tents with much wealth, and with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, and iron, and with a great quantity of clothing; divide the spoil of your enemies with your kindred.”

Joshua 22:9 So the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh returned home, parting from the Israelites at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, their own land of which they had taken possession by command of the LORD through Moses.

Joshua 22:10 When they came to the region near the Jordan that lies in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar of great size.

Joshua 22:11 The Israelites heard that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan, in the region near the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the Israelites.

Joshua 22:12 And when the people of Israel heard of it, the whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh, to make war against them.

Joshua 22:13 Then the Israelites sent the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, Joshua 22:14 and with him ten chiefs, one from each of the tribal families of Israel, every one of them the head of a family among the clans of Israel.

Joshua 22:15 They came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, and they said to them,

Joshua 22:16 "Thus says the whole congregation of the LORD, 'What is this treachery that you have committed against the God of Israel in turning away today from following the LORD, by building yourselves an altar today in rebellion against the LORD?

Joshua 22:17 Have we not had enough of the sin at Peor from which even yet we have not cleansed ourselves, and for which a plague came upon the congregation of the LORD,

Joshua 22:18 that you must turn away today from following the LORD! If you rebel against the LORD today, he will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel tomorrow.

Joshua 22:19 But now, if your land is unclean, cross over into the LORD's land where the LORD's tabernacle now stands, and take for yourselves a possession among us; only do not rebel against the LORD, or rebel against us by building yourselves an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God.

Joshua 22:20 Did not Achan son of Zerah break faith in the matter of the devoted things, and wrath fell upon all the congregation of Israel? And he did not perish alone for his iniquity!'"

Joshua 22:21 Then the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh said in answer to the heads of the families of Israel,

Joshua 22:22 "The LORD, God of gods! The LORD, God of gods! He knows; and let Israel itself know! If it was in rebellion or in breach of faith toward the LORD, do not spare us today

Joshua 22:23 for building an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if we did so to offer burnt offerings or grain offerings or offerings of well-being on it, may the LORD himself take vengeance.

Joshua 22:24 No! We did it from fear that in time to come your children might say to our children, 'What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

Joshua 22:25 For the LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, you Reubenites and Gadites; you have no portion in the LORD.’ So your children might make our children cease to worship the LORD.

Joshua 22:26 Therefore we said, ‘Let us now build an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice,

Joshua 22:27 but to be a witness between us and you, and between the generations after us, that we do perform the service of the LORD in his presence with our burnt offerings and sacrifices and offerings of well-being; so that your children may never say to our children in time to come, “You have no portion in the LORD.”‘

Joshua 22:28 And we thought, If this should be said to us or to our descendants in time to come, we could say, ‘Look at this copy of the altar of the LORD, which our ancestors made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and you.’

Joshua 22:29 Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away this day from following the LORD by building an altar for burnt offering, grain offering, or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle!”

Joshua 22:30 When the priest Phinehas and the chiefs of the congregation, the heads of the families of Israel who were with him, heard the words that the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites spoke, they were satisfied.

Joshua 22:31 The priest Phinehas son of Eleazar said to the Reubenites and the Gadites and the Manassites, “Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this treachery against the LORD; now you have saved the Israelites from the hand of the LORD.”

Joshua 22:32 Then the priest Phinehas son of Eleazar and the chiefs returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the Israelites, and brought back word to them.

Joshua 22:33 The report pleased the Israelites; and the Israelites blessed God and spoke no more of making war against them, to destroy the land where the Reubenites and the Gadites were settled.

Joshua 22:34 The Reubenites and the Gadites called the altar Witness; “For,” said they, “it is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

Joshua 23:1 A long time afterward, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from all their enemies all around, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years,

Joshua 23:2 Joshua summoned all Israel, their elders and heads, their judges and officers, and said to them, “I am now old and well advanced in years;

Joshua 23:3 and you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake, for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you.

Joshua 23:4 I have allotted to you as an inheritance for your tribes those nations that remain, along with all the nations that I have already cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west.

Joshua 23:5 The LORD your God will push them back before you, and drive them out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

Joshua 23:6 Therefore be very steadfast to observe and do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, turning aside from it neither to the right nor to the left,

Joshua 23:7 so that you may not be mixed with these nations left here among you, or make mention of the names of their gods, or swear by them, or serve them, or bow yourselves down to them,

Joshua 23:8 but hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

Joshua 23:9 For the LORD has driven out before you great and strong nations; and as for you, no one has been able to withstand you to this day.

Joshua 23:10 One of you puts to flight a thousand, since it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he promised you.

Joshua 23:11 Be very careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God.

Joshua 23:12 For if you turn back, and join the survivors of these nations left here among you, and intermarry with them, so that you marry their women and they yours,

Joshua 23:13 know assuredly that the LORD your God will not continue to drive out these nations before you; but they shall be a snare and a trap for you, a scourge on your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land that the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:14 “And now I am about to go the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not one thing has failed of all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you; all have come to pass for you, not one of them has failed.

Joshua 23:15 But just as all the good things that the LORD your God promised concerning you have been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring upon you all the bad things, until he has destroyed you from this good land that the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:16 If you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God, which he enjoined on you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land that he has given to you.”

Joshua 24:1 Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua 24:2 And Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Long ago your ancestors— Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor— lived beyond the Euphrates and served other gods.

Joshua 24:3 Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan and made his offspring many. I gave him Isaac;

Joshua 24:4 and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the hill country of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

Joshua 24:5 Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt with what I did in its midst; and afterwards I brought you out.

Joshua 24:6 When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea; and the Egyptians pursued your ancestors with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea.

Joshua 24:7 When they cried out to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and made the sea come upon them and cover them; and your eyes saw what I did to Egypt. Afterwards you lived in the wilderness a long time.

Joshua 24:8 Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who lived on the other side of the Jordan; they fought with you, and I handed them over to you, and you took possession of their land, and I destroyed them before you.

Joshua 24:9 Then King Balak son of Zippor of Moab, set out to fight against Israel. He sent and invited Balaam son of Beor to curse you,

Joshua 24:10 but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you; so I rescued you out of his hand.

Joshua 24:11 When you went over the Jordan and came to Jericho, the citizens of Jericho fought against you, and also the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I handed them over to you.

Joshua 24:12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove out before you the two kings of the Amorites; it was not by your sword or by your bow.

Joshua 24:13 I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and towns that you had not built, and you live in them; you eat the fruit of vineyards and oliveyards that you did not plant.

Joshua 24:14 “Now therefore revere the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

Joshua 24:15 Now if you are unwilling to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Joshua 24:16 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods;

Joshua 24:17 for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed;

Joshua 24:18 and the LORD drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

Joshua 24:19 But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the LORD, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins.

Joshua 24:20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good."

Joshua 24:21 And the people said to Joshua, "No, we will serve the LORD!"

Joshua 24:22 Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses."

Joshua 24:23 He said, "Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel."

Joshua 24:24 The people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and him we will obey."

Joshua 24:25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.

Joshua 24:26 Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a large stone, and set it up there under the oak in the sanctuary of the LORD.

Joshua 24:27 Joshua said to all the people, "See, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD that he spoke to us; therefore it shall be a witness against you, if you deal falsely with your God."

Joshua 24:28 So Joshua sent the people away to their inheritances.

Joshua 24:29 After these things Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred ten years old.

Joshua 24:30 They buried him in his own inheritance at Timnath-serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Joshua 24:31 Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work that the LORD did for Israel.

Joshua 24:32 The bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem, in the portion of ground that Jacob had bought from the children of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for one hundred pieces of money; it became an inheritance of the descendants of Joseph.

Joshua 24:33 Eleazar son of Aaron died; and they buried him at Gibeah, the town of his son Phinehas, which had been given him in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1:1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites inquired of the LORD, “Who shall go up first for us against the Canaanites, to fight against them?”

Judges 1:2 The LORD said, “Judah shall go up. I hereby give the land into his hand.”

Judges 1:3 Judah said to his brother Simeon, “Come up with me into the territory allotted to me, that we may fight against the Canaanites; then I too will go with you into the territory allotted to you.” So Simeon went with him.

Judges 1:4 Then Judah went up and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand; and they defeated ten thousand of them at Bezek.

Judges 1:5 They came upon Adoni-bezek at Bezek, and fought against him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

Judges 1:6 Adoni-bezek fled; but they pursued him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Judges 1:7 Adoni-bezek said, “Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table; as I have done, so God has paid me back.” They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

Judges 1:8 Then the people of Judah fought against Jerusalem and took it. They put it to the sword and set the city on fire.

Judges 1:9 Afterward the people of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who lived in the hill country, in the Negeb, and in the lowland.

Judges 1:10 Judah went against the Canaanites who lived in Hebron (the name of Hebron was formerly Kiriath-arba); and they defeated Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.

Judges 1:11 From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir (the name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher).

Judges 1:12 Then Caleb said, “Whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and takes it, I will give him my daughter Achsah as wife.”

Judges 1:13 And Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; and he gave him his daughter Achsah as wife.

Judges 1:14 When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, “What do you wish?”

Judges 1:15 She said to him, “Give me a present; since you have set me in the land of the Negeb, give me also Gulloth-mayim.” So Caleb gave her Upper Gulloth and Lower Gulloth.

Judges 1:16 The descendants of Hobab the Kenite, Moses’ father-in-law, went up with the people of Judah from the city of palms into the wilderness of Judah, which lies in the Negeb near Arad. Then they went and settled with the Amalekites.

Judges 1:17 Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they defeated the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and devoted it to destruction. So the city was called Hormah.

Judges 1:18 Judah took Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory, and Ekron with its territory.

Judges 1:19 The LORD was with Judah, and he took possession of the hill country, but could not drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had chariots of iron.

Judges 1:20 Hebron was given to Caleb, as Moses had said; and he drove out from it the three sons of Anak.

Judges 1:21 But the Benjaminites did not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem; so the Jebusites have lived in Jerusalem among the Benjaminites to this day.

Judges 1:22 The house of Joseph also went up against Bethel; and the LORD was with them.

Judges 1:23 The house of Joseph sent out spies to Bethel (the name of the city was formerly Luz).

Judges 1:24 When the spies saw a man coming out of the city, they said to him, “Show us the way into the city, and we will deal kindly with you.”

Judges 1:25 So he showed them the way into the city; and they put the city to the sword, but they let the man and all his family go.

Judges 1:26 So the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and named it Luz; that is its name to this day.

Judges 1:27 Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages; but the Canaanites continued to live in that land.

Judges 1:28 When Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not in fact drive them out.

Judges 1:29 And Ephraim did not drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer.

Judges 1:30 Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor.

Judges 1:31 Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Acco, or the inhabitants of Sidon, or of Ahlab, or of Achzib, or of Helbah, or of Aphik, or of Rehob;

Judges 1:32 but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out.

Judges 1:33 Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, or the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became subject to forced labor for them.

Judges 1:34 The Amorites pressed the Danites back into the hill country; they did not allow them to come down to the plain.

Judges 1:35 The Amorites continued to live in Har-heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim, but the hand of the house of Joseph rested heavily on them, and they became subject to forced labor.

Judges 1:36 The border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Akrabbim, from Sela and upward.

Judges 2:1 Now the angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, “I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you into the land that I had promised to your ancestors. I said, ‘I will never break my covenant with you.

Judges 2:2 For your part, do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land; tear down their altars.’ But you have not obeyed my command. See what you have done!

Judges 2:3 So now I say, I will not drive them out before you; but they shall become adversaries to you, and their gods shall be a snare to you.”

Judges 2:4 When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the Israelites, the people lifted up their voices and wept.

Judges 2:5 So they named that place Bochim, and there they sacrificed to the LORD.

Judges 2:6 When Joshua dismissed the people, the Israelites all went to their own inheritances to take possession of the land.

Judges 2:7 The people worshiped the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the LORD had done for Israel.

Judges 2:8 Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred ten years.

Judges 2:9 So they buried him within the bounds of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Judges 2:10 Moreover, that whole generation was gathered to their ancestors, and another generation grew up after them, who did not know the LORD or the work that he had done for Israel.

Judges 2:11 Then the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and worshiped the Baals;

Judges 2:12 and they abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; they followed other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were all around them, and bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.

Judges 2:13 They abandoned the LORD, and worshiped Baal and the Astartes.

Judges 2:14 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers who plundered them, and he sold them into the power of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.

Judges 2:15 Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them to bring misfortune, as the LORD had warned them and sworn to them; and they were in great distress.

Judges 2:16 Then the LORD raised up judges, who delivered them out of the power of those who plundered them.

Judges 2:17 Yet they did not listen even to their judges; for they lusted after other gods and bowed down to them. They soon turned aside from the way in which their ancestors had walked, who had obeyed the commandments of the LORD; they did not follow their example.

Judges 2:18 Whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge, and he delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD would be moved to pity by their groaning because of those who persecuted and oppressed them.

Judges 2:19 But whenever the judge died, they would relapse and behave worse than their ancestors, following other gods, worshiping them and bowing down to them. They would not drop any of their practices or their stubborn ways.

Judges 2:20 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he said, “Because this people have transgressed my covenant that I commanded their ancestors, and have not obeyed my voice, Judges 2:21 I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died.”

Judges 2:22 In order to test Israel, whether or not they would take care to walk in the way of the LORD as their ancestors did,

Judges 2:23 the LORD had left those nations, not driving them out at once, and had not handed them over to Joshua.

Judges 3:1 Now these are the nations that the LORD left to test all those in Israel who had no experience of any war in Canaan

Judges 3:2 (it was only that successive generations of Israelites might know war, to teach those who had no experience of it before):

Judges 3:3 the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites who lived on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon as far as Lebo-hamath.

Judges 3:4 They were for the testing of Israel, to know whether Israel would obey the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their ancestors by Moses.

Judges 3:5 So the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites;

Judges 3:6 and they took their daughters as wives for themselves, and their own daughters they gave to their sons; and they worshiped their gods.

Judges 3:7 The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, forgetting the LORD their God, and worshiping the Baals and the Asherahs.

Judges 3:8 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram-naharaim; and the Israelites served Cushan-rishathaim eight years.

Judges 3:9 But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for the Israelites, who delivered them, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother.

Judges 3:10 The spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he judged Israel; he went out to war, and the LORD gave King Cushan-rishathaim of Aram into his hand; and his hand prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim.

Judges 3:11 So the land had rest forty years. Then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Judges 3:12 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD strengthened King Eglon of Moab against Israel, because they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

Judges 3:13 In alliance with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, he went and defeated Israel; and they took possession of the city of palms.

Judges 3:14 So the Israelites served King Eglon of Moab eighteen years.

Judges 3:15 But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The Israelites sent tribute by him to King Eglon of Moab.

Judges 3:16 Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length; and he fastened it on his right thigh under his clothes.

Judges 3:17 Then he presented the tribute to King Eglon of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

Judges 3:18 When Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent the people who carried the tribute on their way.

Judges 3:19 But he himself turned back at the sculptured stones near Gilgal, and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.” So the king said, “Silence!” and all his attendants went out from his presence.

Judges 3:20 Ehud came to him, while he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber, and said, “I have a message from God for you.” So he rose from his seat.

Judges 3:22 the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the dirt came out.

Judges 3:23 Then Ehud went out into the vestibule, and closed the doors of the roof chamber on him, and locked them.

Judges 3:24 After he had gone, the servants came. When they saw that the doors of the roof chamber were locked, they thought, “He must be relieving himself in the cool chamber.”

Judges 3:25 So they waited until they were embarrassed. When he still did not open the doors of the roof chamber, they took the key and opened them. There was their lord lying dead on the floor.

Judges 3:26 Ehud escaped while they delayed, and passed beyond the sculptured stones, and escaped to Seirah.

Judges 3:27 When he arrived, he sounded the trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites went down with him from the hill country, having him at their head.

Judges 3:28 He said to them, “Follow after me; for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hand.” So they went down after him, and seized the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and allowed no one to cross over.

Judges 3:29 At that time they killed about ten thousand of the Moabites, all strong, able-bodied men; no one escaped.

Judges 3:30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.

Judges 3:31 After him came Shamgar son of Anath, who killed six hundred of the Philistines with an oxgoad. He too delivered Israel.

Judges 4:1 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, after Ehud died.

Judges 4:2 So the LORD sold them into the hand of King Jabin of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-ha-goiim.

Judges 4:3 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and had oppressed the Israelites cruelly twenty years.

Judges 4:4 At that time Deborah, a prophetess, wife of Lappidoth, was judging Israel.

Judges 4:5 She used to sit under the palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim; and the Israelites came up to her for judgment.

Judges 4:6 She sent and summoned Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali, and said to him, “The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you, ‘Go, take position at Mount Tabor, bringing ten thousand from the tribe of Naphtali and the tribe of Zebulun.

Judges 4:7 I will draw out Sisera, the general of Jabin’s army, to meet you by the Wadi Kishon with his chariots and his troops; and I will give him into your hand.’“

Judges 4:8 Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go.”

Judges 4:9 And she said, “I will surely go with you; nevertheless, the road on which you are going will not lead to your glory, for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

Judges 4:10 Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and ten thousand warriors went up behind him; and Deborah went up with him.

Judges 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite had separated from the other Kenites, that is, the descendants of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had encamped as far away as Elon-bezaanannim, which is near Kedesh.

Judges 4:12 When Sisera was told that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor,

Judges 4:13 Sisera called out all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the troops who were with him, from Harosheth-ha-goiim to the Wadi Kishon.

Judges 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day on which the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. The LORD is indeed going out before you.” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand warriors following him.

Judges 4:15 And the LORD threw Sisera and all his chariots and all his army into a panic before Barak; Sisera got down from his chariot and fled away on foot, Judges 4:16 while Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-ha-goiim. All the army of Sisera fell by the sword; no one was left.

Judges 4:17 Now Sisera had fled away on foot to the tent of Jael wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between King Jabin of Hazor and the clan of Heber the Kenite.

Judges 4:18 Jael came out to meet Sisera, and said to him, “Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; have no fear.” So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

Judges 4:19 Then he said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty.” So she opened a skin of milk and gave him a drink and covered him.

Judges 4:20 He said to her, “Stand at the entrance of the tent, and if anybody comes and asks you, ‘Is anyone here?’ say, ‘No.’“

Judges 4:21 But Jael wife of Heber took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple, until it went down into the ground— he was lying fast asleep from weariness— and he died.

Judges 4:22 Then, as Barak came in pursuit of Sisera, Jael went out to meet him, and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking.” So he went into her tent; and there was Sisera lying dead, with the tent peg in his temple.

Judges 4:23 So on that day God subdued King Jabin of Canaan before the Israelites.

Judges 4:24 Then the hand of the Israelites bore harder and harder on King Jabin of Canaan, until they destroyed King Jabin of Canaan.

Judges 5:1 Then Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang on that day, saying:

Judges 5:2 “When locks are long in Israel, when the people offer themselves willingly— bless the LORD!

Judges 5:3 “Hear, O kings; give ear, O princes; to the LORD I will sing, I will make melody to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Judges 5:4 “LORD, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the region of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heavens poured, the clouds indeed poured water.

Judges 5:5 The mountains quaked before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

Judges 5:6 “In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, caravans ceased and travelers kept to the byways.

Judges 5:7 The peasantry prospered in Israel, they grew fat on plunder, because you arose, Deborah, arose as a mother in Israel.

Judges 5:8 When new gods were chosen, then war was in the gates. Was shield or spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel?

Judges 5:9 My heart goes out to the commanders of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people. Bless the LORD.

Judges 5:10 “Tell of it, you who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets and you who walk by the way.

Judges 5:11 To the sound of musicians at the watering places, there they repeat the triumphs of the LORD, the triumphs of his peasantry in Israel. “Then down to the gates marched the people of the LORD.

Judges 5:12 “Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Arise, Barak, lead away your captives, O son of Abinoam.

Judges 5:13 Then down marched the remnant of the noble; the people of the LORD marched down for him against the mighty.

Judges 5:14 From Ephraim they set out into the valley, following you, Benjamin, with your kin; from Machir marched down the commanders, and from Zebulun those who bear the marshal’s staff;

Judges 5:15 the chiefs of Issachar came with Deborah, and Issachar faithful to Barak; into the valley they rushed out at his heels. Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

Judges 5:16 Why did you tarry among the sheepfolds, to hear the piping for the flocks? Among the clans of Reuben there were great searchings of heart.

Judges 5:17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan; and Dan, why did he abide with the ships? Asher sat still at the coast of the sea, settling down by his landings.

Judges 5:18 Zebulun is a people that scorned death; Naphtali too, on the heights of the field.

Judges 5:19 “The kings came, they fought; then fought the kings of Canaan, at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; they got no spoils of silver.

Judges 5:21 The torrent Kishon swept them away, the onrushing torrent, the torrent Kishon. March on, my soul, with might!

Judges 5:22 “Then loud beat the horses’ hoofs with the galloping, galloping of his steeds.

Judges 5:23 “Curse Meroz, says the angel of the LORD, curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they did not come to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.

Judges 5:24 “Most blessed of women be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, of tent-dwelling women most blessed.

Judges 5:25 He asked water and she gave him milk, she brought him curds in a lordly bowl.

Judges 5:26 She put her hand to the tent peg and her right hand to the workmen’s mallet; she struck Sisera a blow, she crushed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple.

Judges 5:27 He sank, he fell, he lay still at her feet; at her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell dead.

Judges 5:28 “Out of the window she peered, the mother of Sisera gazed through the lattice: ‘Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why tarry the hoofbeats of his chariots?’

Judges 5:29 Her wisest ladies make answer, indeed, she answers the question herself:

Judges 5:30 ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil?— A girl or two for every man; spoil of dyed stuffs for Sisera, spoil of dyed stuffs embroidered, two pieces of dyed work embroidered for my neck as spoil?’

Judges 5:31 “So perish all your enemies, O LORD! But may your friends be like the sun as it rises in its might.” And the land had rest forty years.

Judges 6:1 The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian seven years.

Judges 6:2 The hand of Midian prevailed over Israel; and because of Midian the Israelites provided for themselves hiding places in the mountains, caves and strongholds.

Judges 6:3 For whenever the Israelites put in seed, the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east would come up against them.

Judges 6:4 They would encamp against them and destroy the produce of the land, as far as the neighborhood of Gaza, and leave no sustenance in Israel, and no sheep or ox or donkey.

Judges 6:5 For they and their livestock would come up, and they would even bring their tents, as thick as locusts; neither they nor their camels could be counted; so they wasted the land as they came in.

Judges 6:6 Thus Israel was greatly impoverished because of Midian; and the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help.

Judges 6:7 When the Israelites cried to the LORD on account of the Midianites, Judges 6:8 the LORD sent a prophet to the Israelites; and he said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I led you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of slavery;

Judges 6:9 and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians, and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out before you, and gave you their land;

Judges 6:10 and I said to you, ‘I am the LORD your God; you shall not pay reverence to the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you live.’ But you have not given heed to my voice.”

Judges 6:11 Now the angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, as his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press, to hide it from the Midianites.

Judges 6:12 The angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, “The LORD is with you, you mighty warrior.”

Judges 6:13 Gideon answered him, “But sir, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all his wonderful deeds that our ancestors recounted to us, saying, ‘Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has cast us off, and given us into the hand of Midian.”

Judges 6:14 Then the LORD turned to him and said, “Go in this might of yours and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian; I hereby commission you.”

Judges 6:15 He responded, “But sir, how can I deliver Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family.”

Judges 6:16 The LORD said to him, “But I will be with you, and you shall strike down the Midianites, every one of them.”

Judges 6:17 Then he said to him, “If now I have found favor with you, then show me a sign that it is you who speak with me.

Judges 6:18 Do not depart from here until I come to you, and bring out my present, and set it before you.” And he said, “I will stay until you return.”

Judges 6:19 So Gideon went into his house and prepared a kid, and unleavened cakes from an ephah of flour; the meat he put in a basket, and the broth he put in a pot, and brought them to him under the oak and presented them.

Judges 6:20 The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and put them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And he did so.

Judges 6:21 Then the angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

Judges 6:22 Then Gideon perceived that it was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said, “Help me, Lord GOD! For I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face.”

Judges 6:23 But the LORD said to him, “Peace be to you; do not fear, you shall not die.”

Judges 6:24 Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it, The LORD is peace. To this day it still stands at Ophrah, which belongs to the Abiezrites.

Judges 6:25 That night the LORD said to him, “Take your father’s bull, the second bull seven years old, and pull down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, and cut down the sacred pole that is beside it;

Judges 6:26 and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of the stronghold here, in proper order; then take the second bull, and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the sacred pole that you shall cut down.”

Judges 6:27 So Gideon took ten of his servants, and did as the LORD had told him; but because he was too afraid of his family and the townspeople to do it by day, he did it by night.

Judges 6:28 When the townspeople rose early in the morning, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the sacred pole beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered on the altar that had been built.

Judges 6:29 So they said to one another, “Who has done this?” After searching and inquiring, they were told, “Gideon son of Joash did it.”

Judges 6:30 Then the townspeople said to Joash, “Bring out your son, so that he may die, for he has pulled down the altar of Baal and cut down the sacred pole beside it.”

Judges 6:31 But Joash said to all who were arrayed against him, “Will you contend for Baal? Or will you defend his cause? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because his altar has been pulled down.”

Judges 6:32 Therefore on that day Gideon was called Jerubbaal, that is to say, “Let Baal contend against him,” because he pulled down his altar.

Judges 6:33 Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the people of the east came together, and crossing the Jordan they encamped in the Valley of Jezreel.

Judges 6:34 But the spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon; and he sounded the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called out to follow him.

Judges 6:35 He sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and they too were called out to follow him. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they went up to meet them.

Judges 6:36 Then Gideon said to God, “In order to see whether you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said, Judges 6:37 I am going to lay a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece alone, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that you will deliver Israel by my hand, as you have said.”

Judges 6:38 And it was so. When he rose early next morning and squeezed the fleece, he wrung enough dew from the fleece to fill a bowl with water.

Judges 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, “Do not let your anger burn against me, let me speak one more time; let me, please, make trial with the fleece just once more; let it be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew.”

Judges 6:40 And God did so that night. It was dry on the fleece only, and on all the ground there was dew.

Judges 7:1 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the troops that were with him rose early and encamped beside the spring of Harod; and the camp of Midian was north of them, below the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

Judges 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, “The troops with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand. Israel would only take the credit away from me, saying, ‘My own hand has delivered me.’

Judges 7:3 Now therefore proclaim this in the hearing of the troops, ‘Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return home.’“ Thus Gideon sifted them out; twenty-two thousand returned, and ten thousand remained.

Judges 7:4 Then the LORD said to Gideon, “The troops are still too many; take them down to the water and I will sift them out for you there. When I say, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go with you; and when I say, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

Judges 7:5 So he brought the troops down to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, “All those who lap the water with their tongues, as a dog laps, you shall put to one side; all those who kneel down to drink, putting their hands to their mouths, you shall put to the other side.”

Judges 7:6 The number of those that lapped was three hundred; but all the rest of the troops knelt down to drink water.

Judges 7:7 Then the LORD said to Gideon, “With the three hundred that lapped I will deliver you, and give the Midianites into your hand. Let all the others go to their homes.”

Judges 7:8 So he took the jars of the troops from their hands, and their trumpets; and he sent all the rest of Israel back to their own tents, but retained the three hundred. The camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

Judges 7:9 That same night the LORD said to him, “Get up, attack the camp; for I have given it into your hand.

Judges 7:10 But if you fear to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah;

Judges 7:11 and you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands shall be strengthened to attack the camp.” Then he went down with his servant Purah to the outposts of the armed men that were in the camp.

Judges 7:12 The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the people of the east lay along the valley as thick as locusts; and their camels were without number, countless as the sand on the seashore.

Judges 7:13 When Gideon arrived, there was a man telling a dream to his comrade; and he said, “I had a dream, and in it a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell; it turned upside down, and the tent collapsed.”

Judges 7:14 And his comrade answered, “This is no other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel; into his hand God has given Midian and all the army.”

Judges 7:15 When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshiped; and he returned to the camp of Israel, and said, “Get up; for the LORD has given the army of Midian into your hand.”

Judges 7:16 After he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and put trumpets into the hands of all of them, and empty jars, with torches inside the jars,

Judges 7:17 he said to them, “Look at me, and do the same; when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do as I do.

Judges 7:18 When I blow the trumpet, I and all who are with me, then you also blow the trumpets around the whole camp, and shout, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’“

Judges 7:19 So Gideon and the hundred who were with him came to the outskirts of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, when they had just set the watch; and they blew the trumpets and smashed the jars that were in their hands.

Judges 7:20 So the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the jars, holding in their left hands the torches, and in their right hands the trumpets to blow; and they cried, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

Judges 7:21 Every man stood in his place all around the camp, and all the men in camp ran; they cried out and fled.

Judges 7:22 When they blew the three hundred trumpets, the LORD set every man’s sword against his fellow and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.

Judges 7:23 And the men of Israel were called out from Naphtali and from Asher and from all Manasseh, and they pursued after the Midianites.

Judges 7:24 Then Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters against them, as far as Beth-barah, and also the Jordan.” So all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-barah, and also the Jordan.

Judges 7:25 They captured the two captains of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the wine press of Zeeb, as they pursued the Midianites. They brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

Judges 8:1 Then the Ephraimites said to him, “What have you done to us, not to call us when you went to fight against the Midianites?” And they upbraided him violently.

Judges 8:2 So he said to them, “What have I done now in comparison with you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer?

Judges 8:3 God has given into your hands the captains of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; what have I been able to do in comparison with you?” When he said this, their anger against him subsided.

Judges 8:4 Then Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed over, he and the three hundred who were with him, exhausted and famished.

Judges 8:5 So he said to the people of Succoth, “Please give some loaves of bread to my followers, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

Judges 8:6 But the officials of Succoth said, “Do you already have in your possession the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna, that we should give bread to your army?”

Judges 8:7 Gideon replied, “Well then, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will trample your flesh on the thorns of the wilderness and on briers.”

Judges 8:8 From there he went up to Penuel, and made the same request of them; and the people of Penuel answered him as the people of Succoth had answered.

Judges 8:9 So he said to the people of Penuel, “When I come back victorious, I will break down this tower.”

Judges 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the people of the east; for one hundred twenty thousand men bearing arms had fallen.

Judges 8:11 So Gideon went up by the caravan route east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and attacked the army; for the army was off its guard.

Judges 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued them and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and threw all the army into a panic.

Judges 8:13 When Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the ascent of Heres,

Judges 8:14 he caught a young man, one of the people of Succoth, and questioned him; and he listed for him the officials and elders of Succoth, seventy-seven people.

Judges 8:15 Then he came to the people of Succoth, and said, "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Do you already have in your possession the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna, that we should give bread to your troops who are exhausted?'"

Judges 8:16 So he took the elders of the city and he took thorns of the wilderness and briers and with them he trampled the people of Succoth.

Judges 8:17 He also broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

Judges 8:18 Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What about the men whom you killed at Tabor?" They answered, "As you are, so were they, every one of them; they resembled the sons of a king."

Judges 8:19 And he replied, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother; as the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you."

Judges 8:20 So he said to Jether his firstborn, "Go kill them!" But the boy did not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a boy.

Judges 8:21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "You come and kill us; for as the man is, so is his strength." So Gideon proceeded to kill Zebah and Zalmunna; and he took the crescents that were on the necks of their camels.

Judges 8:22 Then the Israelites said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson also; for you have delivered us out of the hand of Midian."

Judges 8:23 Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you; the LORD will rule over you."

Judges 8:24 Then Gideon said to them, "Let me make a request of you; each of you give me an earring he has taken as booty." (For the enemy had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

Judges 8:25 "We will willingly give them," they answered. So they spread a garment, and each threw into it an earring he had taken as booty.

Judges 8:26 The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold (apart from the crescents and the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian, and the collars that were on the necks of their camels).

Judges 8:27 Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in his town, in Ophrah; and all Israel prostituted themselves to it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and to his family.

Judges 8:28 So Midian was subdued before the Israelites, and they lifted up their heads no more. So the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

Judges 8:29 Jerubbaal son of Joash went to live in his own house.

Judges 8:30 Now Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, for he had many wives.

Judges 8:31 His concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech.

Judges 8:32 Then Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash at Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 8:33 As soon as Gideon died, the Israelites relapsed and prostituted themselves with the Baals, making Baal-berith their god.

Judges 8:34 The Israelites did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies on every side;

Judges 8:35 and they did not exhibit loyalty to the house of Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) in return for all the good that he had done to Israel.

Judges 9:1 Now Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's kinsfolk and said to them and to the whole clan of his mother's family,

Judges 9:2 "Say in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem, 'Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerubbaal rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh."

Judges 9:3 So his mother's kinsfolk spoke all these words on his behalf in the hearing of all the lords of Shechem; and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother."

Judges 9:4 They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the temple of Baal-berith with which Abimelech hired worthless and reckless fellows, who followed him.

Judges 9:5 He went to his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone; but Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, for he hid himself.

Judges 9:6 Then all the lords of Shechem and all Beth-millo came together, and they went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar at Shechem.

Judges 9:7 When it was told to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and cried aloud and said to them, “Listen to me, you lords of Shechem, so that God may listen to you.

Judges 9:8 The trees once went out to anoint a king over themselves. So they said to the olive tree, ‘Reign over us.’

Judges 9:9 The olive tree answered them, ‘Shall I stop producing my rich oil by which gods and mortals are honored, and go to sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, ‘You come and reign over us.’

Judges 9:11 But the fig tree answered them, ‘Shall I stop producing my sweetness and my delicious fruit, and go to sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:12 Then the trees said to the vine, ‘You come and reign over us.’

Judges 9:13 But the vine said to them, ‘Shall I stop producing my wine that cheers gods and mortals, and go to sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:14 So all the trees said to the bramble, ‘You come and reign over us.’

Judges 9:15 And the bramble said to the trees, ‘If in good faith you are anointing me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon.’

Judges 9:16 “Now therefore, if you acted in good faith and honor when you made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him as his actions deserved—

Judges 9:17 for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and rescued you from the hand of Midian;

Judges 9:18 but you have risen up against my father’s house this day, and have killed his sons, seventy men on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his slave woman, king over the lords of Shechem, because he is your kinsman—

Judges 9:19 if, I say, you have acted in good faith and honor with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you;

Judges 9:20 but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the lords of Shechem, and Beth-millo; and let fire come out from the lords of Shechem, and from Beth-millo, and devour Abimelech.”

Judges 9:21 Then Jotham ran away and fled, going to Beer, where he remained for fear of his brother Abimelech.

Judges 9:22 Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

Judges 9:23 But God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem; and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech.

Judges 9:24 This happened so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might be avenged and their blood be laid on their brother Abimelech, who killed them, and on the lords of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers.

Judges 9:25 So, out of hostility to him, the lords of Shechem set ambushes on the mountain tops. They robbed all who passed by them along that way; and it was reported to Abimelech.

Judges 9:26 When Gaal son of Ebed moved into Shechem with his kinsfolk, the lords of Shechem put confidence in him.

Judges 9:27 They went out into the field and gathered the grapes from their vineyards, trod them, and celebrated. Then they went into the temple of their god, ate and drank, and ridiculed Abimelech.

Judges 9:28 Gaal son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Did not the son of Jerubbaal and Zebul his officer serve the men of Hamor father of Shechem? Why then should we serve him?

Judges 9:29 If only this people were under my command! Then I would remove Abimelech; I would say to him, ‘Increase your army, and come out.’“

Judges 9:30 When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

Judges 9:31 He sent messengers to Abimelech at Arumah, saying, “Look, Gaal son of Ebed and his kinsfolk have come to Shechem, and they are stirring up the city against you.

Judges 9:32 Now therefore, go by night, you and the troops that are with you, and lie in wait in the fields.

Judges 9:33 Then early in the morning, as soon as the sun rises, get up and rush on the city; and when he and the troops that are with him come out against you, you may deal with them as best you can.”

Judges 9:34 So Abimelech and all the troops with him got up by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four companies.

Judges 9:35 When Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city, Abimelech and the troops with him rose from the ambush.

Judges 9:36 And when Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the mountain tops!” And Zebul said to him, “The shadows on the mountains look like people to you.”

Judges 9:37 Gaal spoke again and said, “Look, people are coming down from Tabbur-erez, and one company is coming from the direction of Elon-meonenim.”

Judges 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where is your boast now, you who said, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the troops you made light of? Go out now and fight with them.”

Judges 9:39 So Gaal went out at the head of the lords of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

Judges 9:40 Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him. Many fell wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.

Judges 9:41 So Abimelech resided at Arumah; and Zebul drove out Gaal and his kinsfolk, so that they could not live on at Shechem.

Judges 9:42 On the following day the people went out into the fields. When Abimelech was told,

Judges 9:43 he took his troops and divided them into three companies, and lay in wait in the fields. When he looked and saw the people coming out of the city, he rose against them and killed them.

Judges 9:44 Abimelech and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, while the two companies rushed on all who were in the fields and killed them.

Judges 9:45 Abimelech fought against the city all that day; he took the city, and killed the people that were in it; and he razed the city and sowed it with salt.

Judges 9:46 When all the lords of the Tower of Shechem heard of it, they entered the stronghold of the temple of El-berith.

Judges 9:47 Abimelech was told that all the lords of the Tower of Shechem were gathered together.

Judges 9:48 So Abimelech went up to Mount Zalmon, he and all the troops that were with him. Abimelech took an ax in his hand, cut down a bundle of brushwood, and took it up and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the troops with him, “What you have seen me do, do quickly, as I have done.”

Judges 9:49 So every one of the troops cut down a bundle and following Abimelech put it against the stronghold, and they set the stronghold on fire over them, so that all the people of the Tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand men and women.

Judges 9:50 Then Abimelech went to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

Judges 9:51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and all the men and women and all the lords of the city fled to it and shut themselves in; and they went to the roof of the tower.

Judges 9:52 Abimelech came to the tower, and fought against it, and came near to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire.

Judges 9:53 But a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head, and crushed his skull.

Judges 9:54 Immediately he called to the young man who carried his armor and said to him, “Draw your sword and kill me, so people will not say about me, ‘A woman killed him.’“ So the young man thrust him through, and he died.

Judges 9:55 When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they all went home.

Judges 9:56 Thus God repaid Abimelech for the crime he committed against his father in killing his seventy brothers;

Judges 9:57 and God also made all the wickedness of the people of Shechem fall back on their heads, and on them came the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal.

Judges 10:1 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, who lived at Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim, rose to deliver Israel.

Judges 10:2 He judged Israel twenty-three years. Then he died, and was buried at Shamir.

Judges 10:3 After him came Jair the Gileadite, who judged Israel twenty-two years.

Judges 10:4 He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys; and they had thirty towns, which are in the land of Gilead, and are called Havvoth-jair to this day.

Judges 10:5 Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.

Judges 10:6 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, worshiping the Baals and the Astartes, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. Thus they abandoned the LORD, and did not worship him.

Judges 10:7 So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites,

Judges 10:8 and they crushed and oppressed the Israelites that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

Judges 10:9 The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah and against Benjamin and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was greatly distressed.

Judges 10:10 So the Israelites cried to the LORD, saying, “We have sinned against you, because we have abandoned our God and have worshiped the Baals.”

Judges 10:11 And the LORD said to the Israelites, “Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians and from the Amorites, from the Ammonites and from the Philistines?

Judges 10:12 The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

Judges 10:13 Yet you have abandoned me and worshiped other gods; therefore I will deliver you no more.

Judges 10:14 Go and cry to the gods whom you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress.”

Judges 10:15 And the Israelites said to the LORD, “We have sinned; do to us whatever seems good to you; but deliver us this day!”

Judges 10:16 So they put away the foreign gods from among them and worshiped the LORD; and he could no longer bear to see Israel suffer.

Judges 10:17 Then the Ammonites were called to arms, and they encamped in Gilead; and the Israelites came together, and they encamped at Mizpah.

Judges 10:18 The commanders of the people of Gilead said to one another, “Who will begin the fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11:1 Now Jephthah the Gileadite, the son of a prostitute, was a mighty warrior. Gilead was the father of Jephthah.

Judges 11:2 Gilead’s wife also bore him sons; and when his wife’s sons grew up, they drove Jephthah away, saying to him, “You shall not inherit anything in our father’s house; for you are the son of another woman.”

Judges 11:3 Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Outlaws collected around Jephthah and went raiding with him.

Judges 11:4 After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel.

Judges 11:5 And when the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah from the land of Tob.

Judges 11:6 They said to Jephthah, “Come and be our commander, so that we may fight with the Ammonites.”

Judges 11:7 But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “Are you not the very ones who rejected me and drove me out of my father’s house? So why do you come to me now when you are in trouble?”

Judges 11:8 The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “Nevertheless, we have now turned back to you, so that you may go with us and fight with the Ammonites, and become head over us, over all the inhabitants of Gilead.”

Judges 11:9 Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, “If you bring me home again to fight with the Ammonites, and the LORD gives them over to me, I will be your head.”

Judges 11:10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, “The LORD will be witness between us; we will surely do as you say.”

Judges 11:11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah.

Judges 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites and said, “What is there between you and me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?”

Judges 11:13 The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, “Because Israel, on coming from Egypt, took away my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; now therefore restore it peaceably.”

Judges 11:14 Once again Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites

Judges 11:15 and said to him: “Thus says Jephthah: Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites,

Judges 11:16 but when they came up from Egypt, Israel went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh.

Judges 11:17 Israel then sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, ‘Let us pass through your land’; but the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel remained at Kadesh.

Judges 11:18 Then they journeyed through the wilderness, went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, arrived on the east side of the land of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the boundary of Moab.

Judges 11:19 Israel then sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, ‘Let us pass through your land to our country.’

Judges 11:20 But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory; so Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped at Jahaz, and fought with Israel.

Judges 11:21 Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them; so Israel occupied all the land of the Amorites, who inhabited that country.

Judges 11:22 They occupied all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan.

Judges 11:23 So now the LORD, the God of Israel, has conquered the Amorites for the benefit of his people Israel. Do you intend to take their place?

Judges 11:24 Should you not possess what your god Chemosh gives you to possess? And should we not be the ones to possess everything that the LORD our God has conquered for our benefit?

Judges 11:25 Now are you any better than King Balak son of Zippor of Moab? Did he ever enter into conflict with Israel, or did he ever go to war with them?

Judges 11:26 While Israel lived in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aroer and its villages, and in all the towns that are along the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

Judges 11:27 It is not I who have sinned against you, but you are the one who does me wrong by making war on me. Let the LORD, who is judge, decide today for the Israelites or for the Ammonites.”

Judges 11:28 But the king of the Ammonites did not heed the message that Jephthah sent him.

Judges 11:29 Then the spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh. He passed on to Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he passed on to the Ammonites.

Judges 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, and said, “If you will give the Ammonites into my hand, Judges 11:31 then whoever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return victorious from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD’s, to be offered up by me as a burnt offering.”

Judges 11:32 So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to fight against them; and the LORD gave them into his hand.

Judges 11:33 He inflicted a massive defeat on them from Aroer to the neighborhood of Minnith, twenty towns, and as far as Abel-keramim. So the Ammonites were subdued before the people of Israel.

Judges 11:34 Then Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah; and there was his daughter coming out to meet him with timbrels and with dancing. She was his only child; he had no son or daughter except her.

Judges 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes, and said, “Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low; you have become the cause of great trouble to me. For I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot take back my vow.”

Judges 11:36 She said to him, “My father, if you have opened your mouth to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, now that the LORD has given you vengeance against your enemies, the Ammonites.”

Judges 11:37 And she said to her father, “Let this thing be done for me: Grant me two months, so that I may go and wander on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, my companions and I.”

Judges 11:38 “Go,” he said and sent her away for two months. So she departed, she and her companions, and bewailed her virginity on the mountains.

Judges 11:39 At the end of two months, she returned to her father, who did with her according to the vow he had made. She had never slept with a man. So there arose an Israelite custom that Judges 11:40 for four days every year the daughters of Israel would go out to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges 12:1 The men of Ephraim were called to arms, and they crossed to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites, and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your house down over you!”

Judges 12:2 Jephthah said to them, “My people and I were engaged in conflict with the Ammonites who oppressed us severely. But when I called you, you did not deliver me from their hand.

Judges 12:3 When I saw that you would not deliver me, I took my life in my hand, and crossed over against the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?”

Judges 12:4 Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, “You are fugitives from Ephraim, you Gileadites— in the heart of Ephraim and Manasseh.”

Judges 12:5 Then the Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. Whenever one of the fugitives of Ephraim said, “Let me go over,” the men of Gilead would say to him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” When he said, “No,”

Judges 12:6 they said to him, “Then say Shibboleth,” and he said, “Sibboleth,” for he could not pronounce it right. Then they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand of the Ephraimites fell at that time.

Judges 12:7 Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in his town in Gilead.

Judges 12:8 After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel.

Judges 12:9 He had thirty sons. He gave his thirty daughters in marriage outside his clan and brought in thirty young women from outside for his sons. He judged Israel seven years.

Judges 12:10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

Judges 12:11 After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years.

Judges 12:12 Then Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

Judges 12:13 After him Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel.

Judges 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys; he judged Israel eight years.

Judges 12:15 Then Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13:1 The Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.

Judges 13:2 There was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. His wife was barren, having borne no children.

Judges 13:3 And the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Although you are barren, having borne no children, you shall conceive and bear a son.

Judges 13:4 Now be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, or to eat anything unclean,

Judges 13:5 for you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor is to come on his head, for the boy shall be a nazirite to God from birth. It is he who shall begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines.”

Judges 13:6 Then the woman came and told her husband, “A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like that of an angel of God, most awe-inspiring; I did not ask him where he came from, and he did not tell me his name;

Judges 13:7 but he said to me, ‘You shall conceive and bear a son. So then drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the boy shall be a nazirite to God from birth to the day of his death.’“

Judges 13:8 Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, “O, LORD, I pray, let the man of God whom you sent come to us again and teach us what we are to do concerning the boy who will be born.”

Judges 13:9 God listened to Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her.

Judges 13:10 So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, “The man who came to me the other day has appeared to me.”

Judges 13:11 Manoah got up and followed his wife, and came to the man and said to him, “Are you the man who spoke to this woman?” And he said, “I am.”

Judges 13:12 Then Manoah said, “Now when your words come true, what is to be the boy’s rule of life; what is he to do?”

Judges 13:13 The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Let the woman give heed to all that I said to her.

Judges 13:14 She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine. She is not to drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing. She is to observe everything that I commanded her.”

Judges 13:15 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “Allow us to detain you, and prepare a kid for you.”

Judges 13:16 The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “If you detain me, I will not eat your food; but if you want to prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to the LORD.” (For Manoah did not know that he was the angel of the LORD.)

Judges 13:17 Then Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that we may honor you when your words come true?”

Judges 13:18 But the angel of the LORD said to him, “Why do you ask my name? It is too wonderful.”

Judges 13:19 So Manoah took the kid with the grain offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD, to him who works wonders.

Judges 13:20 When the flame went up toward heaven from the altar, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar while Manoah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground.

Judges 13:21 The angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah realized that it was the angel of the LORD.

Judges 13:22 And Manoah said to his wife, “We shall surely die, for we have seen God.”

Judges 13:23 But his wife said to him, “If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering at our hands, or shown us all these things, or now announced to us such things as these.”

Judges 13:24 The woman bore a son, and named him Samson. The boy grew, and the LORD blessed him.

Judges 13:25 The spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14:1 Once Samson went down to Timnah, and at Timnah he saw a Philistine woman.

Judges 14:2 Then he came up, and told his father and mother, “I saw a Philistine woman at Timnah; now get her for me as my wife.”

Judges 14:3 But his father and mother said to him, “Is there not a woman among your kin, or among all our people, that you must go to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?” But Samson said to his father, “Get her for me, because she pleases me.”

Judges 14:4 His father and mother did not know that this was from the LORD; for he was seeking a pretext to act against the Philistines. At that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

Judges 14:5 Then Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah. When he came to the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion roared at him.

Judges 14:6 The spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and he tore the lion apart barehanded as one might tear apart a kid. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

Judges 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson.

Judges 14:8 After a while he returned to marry her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion, and there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey.

Judges 14:9 He scraped it out into his hands, and went on, eating as he went. When he came to his father and mother, he gave some to them, and they ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the carcass of the lion.

Judges 14:10 His father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there as the young men were accustomed to do.

Judges 14:11 When the people saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

Judges 14:12 Samson said to them, “Let me now put a riddle to you. If you can explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments.

Judges 14:13 But if you cannot explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty festal garments.” So they said to him, “Ask your riddle; let us hear it.”

Judges 14:14 He said to them, “Out of the eater came something to eat. Out of the strong came something sweet.” But for three days they could not explain the riddle.

Judges 14:15 On the fourth day they said to Samson’s wife, “Coax your husband to explain the riddle to us, or we will burn you and your father’s house with fire. Have you invited us here to impoverish us?”

Judges 14:16 So Samson’s wife wept before him, saying, “You hate me; you do not really love me. You have asked a riddle of my people, but you have not explained it to me.” He said to her, “Look, I have not told my father or my mother. Why should I tell you?”

Judges 14:17 She wept before him the seven days that their feast lasted; and because she nagged him, on the seventh day he told her. Then she explained the riddle to her people.

Judges 14:18 The men of the town said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, “What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?” And he said to them, “If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle.”

Judges 14:19 Then the spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and he went down to Ashkelon. He killed thirty men of the town, took their spoil, and gave the festal garments to those who had explained the riddle. In hot anger he went back to his father’s house.

Judges 14:20 And Samson’s wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Judges 15:1 After a while, at the time of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, bringing along a kid. He said, “I want to go into my wife’s room.” But her father would not allow him to go in.

Judges 15:2 Her father said, “I was sure that you had rejected her; so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister prettier than she? Why not take her instead?”

Judges 15:3 Samson said to them, “This time, when I do mischief to the Philistines, I will be without blame.”

Judges 15:4 So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took some torches; and he turned the foxes tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails.

Judges 15:5 When he had set fire to the torches, he let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burned up the shocks and the standing grain, as well as the vineyards and olive groves.

Judges 15:6 Then the Philistines asked, “Who has done this?” And they said, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken Samson’s wife and given her to his companion.” So the Philistines came up, and burned her and her father.

Judges 15:7 Samson said to them, “If this is what you do, I swear I will not stop until I have taken revenge on you.”

Judges 15:8 He struck them down hip and thigh with great slaughter; and he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

Judges 15:9 Then the Philistines came up and encamped in Judah, and made a raid on Lehi.

Judges 15:10 The men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?” They said, “We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he did to us.”

Judges 15:11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then have you done to us?” He replied, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”

Judges 15:12 They said to him, “We have come down to bind you, so that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines.” Samson answered them, “Swear to me that you yourselves will not attack me.”

Judges 15:13 They said to him, “No, we will only bind you and give you into their hands; we will not kill you.” So they bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

Judges 15:14 When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him; and the spirit of the LORD rushed on him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that has caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.

Judges 15:15 Then he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached down and took it, and with it he killed a thousand men.

Judges 15:16 And Samson said, “With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps upon heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey I have slain a thousand men.”

Judges 15:17 When he had finished speaking, he threw away the jawbone; and that place was called Ramath-lehi.

Judges 15:18 By then he was very thirsty, and he called on the LORD, saying, “You have granted this great victory by the hand of your servant. Am I now to die of thirst, and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?”

Judges 15:19 So God split open the hollow place that is at Lehi, and water came from it. When he drank, his spirit returned, and he revived. Therefore it was named En-hakkore, which is at Lehi to this day.

Judges 15:20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

Judges 16:1 Once Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute and went in to her.

Judges 16:2 The Gazites were told, “Samson has come here.” So they circled around and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They kept quiet all night, thinking, “Let us wait until the light of the morning; then we will kill him.”

Judges 16:3 But Samson lay only until midnight. Then at midnight he rose up, took hold of the doors of the city gate and the two posts, pulled them up, bar and all, put them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill that is in front of Hebron.

Judges 16:4 After this he fell in love with a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

Judges 16:5 The lords of the Philistines came to her and said to her, “Coax him, and find out what makes his strength so great, and how we may overpower him, so that we may bind him in order to subdue him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.”

Judges 16:6 So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me what makes your strength so great, and how you could be bound, so that one could subdue you.”

Judges 16:7 Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings that are not dried out, then I shall become weak, and be like anyone else.”

Judges 16:8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought her seven fresh bowstrings that had not dried out, and she bound him with them.

Judges 16:9 While men were lying in wait in an inner chamber, she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he snapped the bowstrings, as a strand of fiber snaps when it touches the fire. So the secret of his strength was not known.

Judges 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “You have mocked me and told me lies; please tell me how you could be bound.”

Judges 16:11 He said to her, “If they bind me with new ropes that have not been used, then I shall become weak, and be like anyone else.”

Judges 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” (The men lying in wait were in an inner chamber.) But he snapped the ropes off his arms like a thread.

Judges 16:13 Then Delilah said to Samson, “Until now you have mocked me and told me lies; tell me how you could be bound.” He said to her, “If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and make it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak, and be like anyone else.”

Judges 16:14 So while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web, and made them tight with the pin. Then she said to him, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.

Judges 16:15 Then she said to him, “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me three times now and have not told me what makes your strength so great.”

Judges 16:16 Finally, after she had nagged him with her words day after day, and pestered him, he was tired to death.

Judges 16:17 So he told her his whole secret, and said to her, “A razor has never come upon my head; for I have been a nazirite to God from my mother’s womb. If my head were shaved, then my strength would leave me; I would become weak, and be like anyone else.”

Judges 16:18 When Delilah realized that he had told her his whole secret, she sent and called the lords of the Philistines, saying, “This time come up, for he has told his whole secret to me.” Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hands.

Judges 16:19 She let him fall asleep on her lap; and she called a man, and had him shave off the seven locks of his head. He began to weaken, and his strength left him.

Judges 16:20 Then she said, “The Philistines are upon you, Samson!” When he awoke from his sleep, he thought, “I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had left him.

Judges 16:21 So the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze shackles; and he ground at the mill in the prison.

Judges 16:22 But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

Judges 16:23 Now the lords of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to their god Dagon, and to rejoice; for they said, “Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand.”

Judges 16:24 When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, “Our god has given our enemy into our hand, the ravager of our country, who has killed many of us.”

Judges 16:25 And when their hearts were merry, they said, “Call Samson, and let him entertain us.” So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. They made him stand between the pillars;

Judges 16:26 and Samson said to the attendant who held him by the hand, “Let me feel the pillars on which the house rests, so that I may lean against them.”

Judges 16:27 Now the house was full of men and women; all the lords of the Philistines were there, and on the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who looked on while Samson performed.

Judges 16:28 Then Samson called to the LORD and said, “Lord GOD, remember me and strengthen me only this once, O God, so that with this one act of revenge I may pay back the Philistines for my two eyes.”

Judges 16:29 And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and he leaned his weight against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other.

Judges 16:30 Then Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines.” He strained with all his might; and the house fell on the lords and all the people who were in it. So those he killed at his death were more than those he had killed during his life.

Judges 16:31 Then his brothers and all his family came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel twenty years.

Judges 17:1 There was a man in the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah.

Judges 17:2 He said to his mother, “The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and even spoke it in my hearing,— that silver is in my possession; I took it; but now I will return it to you.” And his mother said, “May my son be blessed by the LORD!”

Judges 17:3 Then he returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, “I consecrate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make an idol of cast metal.”

Judges 17:4 So when he returned the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave it to the silversmith, who made it into an idol of cast metal; and it was in the house of Micah.

Judges 17:5 This man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and teraphim, and installed one of his sons, who became his priest.

Judges 17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes.

Judges 17:7 Now there was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, of the clan of Judah. He was a Levite residing there.

Judges 17:8 This man left the town of Bethlehem in Judah, to live wherever he could find a place. He came to the house of Micah in the hill country of Ephraim to carry on his work.

Judges 17:9 Micah said to him, “From where do you come?” He replied, “I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to live wherever I can find a place.”

Judges 17:10 Then Micah said to him, “Stay with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, a set of clothes, and your living.”

Judges 17:11 The Levite agreed to stay with the man; and the young man became to him like one of his sons.

Judges 17:12 So Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

Judges 17:13 Then Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will prosper me, because the Levite has become my priest.”

Judges 18:1 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself a territory to live in; for until then no territory among the tribes of Israel had been allotted to them.

Judges 18:2 So the Danites sent five valiant men from the whole number of their clan, from Zorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it; and they said to them, “Go, explore the land.” When they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they stayed there.

Judges 18:3 While they were at Micah’s house, they recognized the voice of the young Levite; so they went over and asked him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?”

Judges 18:4 He said to them, “Micah did such and such for me, and he hired me, and I have become his priest.”

Judges 18:5 Then they said to him, “Inquire of God that we may know whether the mission we are undertaking will succeed.”

Judges 18:6 The priest replied, “Go in peace. The mission you are on is under the eye of the LORD.”

Judges 18:7 The five men went on, and when they came to Laish, they observed the people who were there living securely, after the manner of the Sidonians, quiet and unsuspecting, lacking nothing on earth, and possessing wealth. Furthermore, they were far from the Sidonians and had no dealings with Aram.

Judges 18:8 When they came to their kinsfolk at Zorah and Eshtaol, they said to them, “What do you report?”

Judges 18:9 They said, “Come, let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and it is very good. Will you do nothing? Do not be slow to go, but enter in and possess the land.

Judges 18:10 When you go, you will come to an unsuspecting people. The land is broad— God has indeed given it into your hands— a place where there is no lack of anything on earth.”

Judges 18:11 Six hundred men of the Danite clan, armed with weapons of war, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol,

Judges 18:12 and went up and encamped at Kiriath-jearim in Judah. On this account that place is called Mahaneh-dan to this day; it is west of Kiriath-jearim.

Judges 18:13 From there they passed on to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

Judges 18:14 Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land (that is, Laish) said to their comrades, “Do you know that in these buildings there are an ephod, teraphim, and an idol of cast metal? Now therefore consider what you will do.”

Judges 18:15 So they turned in that direction and came to the house of the young Levite, at the home of Micah, and greeted him.

Judges 18:16 While the six hundred men of the Danites, armed with their weapons of war, stood by the entrance of the gate, Judges 18:17 the five men who had gone to spy out the land proceeded to enter and take the idol of cast metal, the ephod, and the teraphim. The priest was standing by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men armed with weapons of war.

Judges 18:18 When the men went into Micah's house and took the idol of cast metal, the ephod, and the teraphim, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

Judges 18:19 They said to him, "Keep quiet! Put your hand over your mouth, and come with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one person, or to be priest to a tribe and clan in Israel?"

Judges 18:20 Then the priest accepted the offer. He took the ephod, the teraphim, and the idol, and went along with the people.

Judges 18:21 So they resumed their journey, putting the little ones, the livestock, and the goods in front of them.

Judges 18:22 When they were some distance from the home of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah's house were called out, and they overtook the Danites.

Judges 18:23 They shouted to the Danites, who turned around and said to Micah, "What is the matter that you come with such a company?"

Judges 18:24 He replied, "You take my gods that I made, and the priest, and go away, and what have I left? How then can you ask me, 'What is the matter?'"

Judges 18:25 And the Danites said to him, "You had better not let your voice be heard among us or else hot-tempered fellows will attack you, and you will lose your life and the lives of your household."

Judges 18:26 Then the Danites went their way. When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his home.

Judges 18:27 The Danites, having taken what Micah had made, and the priest who belonged to him, came to Laish, to a people quiet and unsuspecting, put them to the sword, and burned down the city.

Judges 18:28 There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon and they had no dealings with Aram. It was in the valley that belongs to Beth-rehob. They rebuilt the city, and lived in it.

Judges 18:29 They named the city Dan, after their ancestor Dan, who was born to Israel; but the name of the city was formerly Laish.

Judges 18:30 Then the Danites set up the idol for themselves. Jonathan son of Gershom, son of Moses, and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the time the land went into captivity.

Judges 18:31 So they maintained as their own Micah's idol that he had made, as long as the house of God was at Shiloh.

Judges 19:1 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite, residing in the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, took to himself a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Judges 19:2 But his concubine became angry with him, and she went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah, and was there some four months.

Judges 19:3 Then her husband set out after her, to speak tenderly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a couple of donkeys. When he reached her father's house, the girl's father saw him and came with joy to meet him.

Judges 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl's father, made him stay, and he remained with him three days; so they ate and drank, and he stayed there.

Judges 19:5 On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to go; but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Fortify yourself with a bit of food, and after that you may go."

Judges 19:6 So the two men sat and ate and drank together; and the girl's father said to the man, "Why not spend the night and enjoy yourself?"

Judges 19:7 When the man got up to go, his father-in-law kept urging him until he spent the night there again.

Judges 19:8 On the fifth day he got up early in the morning to leave; and the girl's father said, "Fortify yourself." So they lingered until the day declined, and the two of them ate and drank.

Judges 19:9 When the man with his concubine and his servant got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look, the day has worn on until it is almost evening. Spend the night. See, the day has drawn to a close. Spend the night here and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow you can get up early in the morning for your journey, and go home."

Judges 19:10 But the man would not spend the night; he got up and departed, and arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him a couple of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him.

Judges 19:11 When they were near Jebus, the day was far spent, and the servant said to his master, "Come now, let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites, and spend the night in it."

Judges 19:12 But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners, who do not belong to the people of Israel; but we will continue on to Gibeah."

Judges 19:13 Then he said to his servant, "Come, let us try to reach one of these places, and spend the night at Gibeah or at Ramah."

Judges 19:14 So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin.

Judges 19:15 They turned aside there, to go in and spend the night at Gibeah. He went in and sat down in the open square of the city, but no one took them in to spend the night.

Judges 19:16 Then at evening there was an old man coming from his work in the field. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was residing in Gibeah. (The people of the place were Benjaminites.)

Judges 19:17 When the old man looked up and saw the wayfarer in the open square of the city, he said, “Where are you going and where do you come from?”

Judges 19:18 He answered him, “We are passing from Bethlehem in Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim, from which I come. I went to Bethlehem in Judah; and I am going to my home. Nobody has offered to take me in.

Judges 19:19 We your servants have straw and fodder for our donkeys, with bread and wine for me and the woman and the young man along with us. We need nothing more.”

Judges 19:20 The old man said, “Peace be to you. I will care for all your wants; only do not spend the night in the square.”

Judges 19:21 So he brought him into his house, and fed the donkeys; they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

Judges 19:22 While they were enjoying themselves, the men of the city, a perverse lot, surrounded the house, and started pounding on the door. They said to the old man, the master of the house, “Bring out the man who came into your house, so that we may have intercourse with him.”

Judges 19:23 And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, “No, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. Since this man is my guest, do not do this vile thing.

Judges 19:24 Here are my virgin daughter and his concubine; let me bring them out now. Ravish them and do whatever you want to them; but against this man do not do such a vile thing.”

Judges 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine, and put her out to them. They wantonly raped her, and abused her all through the night until the morning. And as the dawn began to break, they let her go.

Judges 19:26 As morning appeared, the woman came and fell down at the door of the man’s house where her master was, until it was light.

Judges 19:27 In the morning her master got up, opened the doors of the house, and when he went out to go on his way, there was his concubine lying at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

Judges 19:28 “Get up,” he said to her, “we are going.” But there was no answer. Then he put her on the donkey; and the man set out for his home.

Judges 19:29 When he had entered his house, he took a knife, and grasping his concubine he cut her into twelve pieces, limb by limb, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

Judges 19:30 Then he commanded the men whom he sent, saying, “Thus shall you say to all the Israelites, ‘Has such a thing ever happened since the day that the Israelites came up from the land of Egypt until this day? Consider it, take counsel, and speak out.’“

Judges 20:1 Then all the Israelites came out, from Dan to Beer-sheba, including the land of Gilead, and the congregation assembled in one body before the LORD at Mizpah.

Judges 20:2 The chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand foot-soldiers bearing arms.

Judges 20:3 (Now the Benjaminites heard that the people of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) And the Israelites said, “Tell us, how did this criminal act come about?”

Judges 20:4 The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, “I came to Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to spend the night.

Judges 20:5 The lords of Gibeah rose up against me, and surrounded the house at night. They intended to kill me, and they raped my concubine until she died.

Judges 20:6 Then I took my concubine and cut her into pieces, and sent her throughout the whole extent of Israel’s territory; for they have committed a vile outrage in Israel.

Judges 20:7 So now, you Israelites, all of you, give your advice and counsel here.”

Judges 20:8 All the people got up as one, saying, “We will not any of us go to our tents, nor will any of us return to our houses.

Judges 20:9 But now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot.

Judges 20:10 We will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to bring provisions for the troops, who are going to repay Gibeah of Benjamin for all the disgrace that they have done in Israel.”

Judges 20:11 So all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united as one.

Judges 20:12 The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What crime is this that has been committed among you?

Judges 20:13 Now then, hand over those scoundrels in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death, and purge the evil from Israel.” But the Benjaminites would not listen to their kinsfolk, the Israelites.

Judges 20:14 The Benjaminites came together out of the towns to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the Israelites.

Judges 20:15 On that day the Benjaminites mustered twenty-six thousand armed men from their towns, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah.

Judges 20:16 Of all this force, there were seven hundred picked men who were left-handed; every one could sling a stone at a hair, and not miss.

Judges 20:17 And the Israelites, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand armed men, all of them warriors.

Judges 20:18 The Israelites proceeded to go up to Bethel, where they inquired of God, “Which of us shall go up first to battle against the Benjaminites?” And the LORD answered, “Judah shall go up first.”

Judges 20:19 Then the Israelites got up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

Judges 20:20 The Israelites went out to battle against Benjamin; and the Israelites drew up the battle line against them at Gibeah.

Judges 20:21 The Benjaminites came out of Gibeah, and struck down on that day twenty-two thousand of the Israelites.

Judges 20:22 The Israelites took courage, and again formed the battle line in the same place where they had formed it on the first day.

Judges 20:23 The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until the evening; and they inquired of the LORD, “Shall we again draw near to battle against our kinsfolk the Benjaminites?” And the LORD said, “Go up against them.”

Judges 20:24 So the Israelites advanced against the Benjaminites the second day.

Judges 20:25 Benjamin moved out against them from Gibeah the second day, and struck down eighteen thousand of the Israelites, all of them armed men.

Judges 20:26 Then all the Israelites, the whole army, went back to Bethel and wept, sitting there before the LORD; they fasted that day until evening. Then they offered burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being before the LORD.

Judges 20:27 And the Israelites inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, Judges 20:28 and Phinehas son of Eleazar, son of Aaron, ministered before it in those days), saying, “Shall we go out once more to battle against our kinsfolk the Benjaminites, or shall we desist?” The LORD answered, “Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hand.”

Judges 20:29 So Israel stationed men in ambush around Gibeah.

Judges 20:30 Then the Israelites went up against the Benjaminites on the third day, and set themselves in array against Gibeah, as before.

Judges 20:31 When the Benjaminites went out against the army, they were drawn away from the city. As before they began to inflict casualties on the troops, along the main roads, one of which goes up to Bethel and the other to Gibeah, as well as in the open country, killing about thirty men of Israel.

Judges 20:32 The Benjaminites thought, “They are being routed before us, as previously.” But the Israelites said, “Let us retreat and draw them away from the city toward the roads.”

Judges 20:33 The main body of the Israelites drew back its battle line to Baal-tamar, while those Israelites who were in ambush rushed out of their place west of Geba.

Judges 20:34 There came against Gibeah ten thousand picked men out of all Israel, and the battle was fierce. But the Benjaminites did not realize that disaster was close upon them.

Judges 20:35 The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel; and the Israelites destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men of Benjamin that day, all of them armed.

Judges 20:36 Then the Benjaminites saw that they were defeated. The Israelites gave ground to Benjamin, because they trusted to the troops in ambush that they had stationed against Gibeah.

Judges 20:37 The troops in ambush rushed quickly upon Gibeah. Then they put the whole city to the sword.

Judges 20:38 Now the agreement between the main body of Israel and the men in ambush was that when they sent up a cloud of smoke out of the city

Judges 20:39 the main body of Israel should turn in battle. But Benjamin had begun to inflict casualties on the Israelites, killing about thirty of them; so they thought, “Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle.”

Judges 20:40 But when the cloud, a column of smoke, began to rise out of the city, the Benjaminites looked behind them— and there was the whole city going up in smoke toward the sky!

Judges 20:41 Then the main body of Israel turned, and the Benjaminites were dismayed, for they saw that disaster was close upon them.

Judges 20:42 Therefore they turned away from the Israelites in the direction of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them, and those who came out of the city were slaughtering them in between.

Judges 20:43 Cutting down the Benjaminites, they pursued them from Nohah and trod them down as far as a place east of Gibeah.

Judges 20:44 Eighteen thousand Benjaminites fell, all of them courageous fighters.

Judges 20:45 When they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, five thousand of them were cut down on the main roads, and they were pursued as far as Gidom, and two thousand of them were slain.

Judges 20:46 So all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand arms-bearing men, all of them courageous fighters.

Judges 20:47 But six hundred turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and remained at the rock of Rimmon for four months.

Judges 20:48 Meanwhile, the Israelites turned back against the Benjaminites, and put them to the sword— the city, the people, the animals, and all that remained. Also the remaining towns they set on fire.

Judges 21:1 Now the Israelites had sworn at Mizpah, "No one of us shall give his daughter in marriage to Benjamin."

Judges 21:2 And the people came to Bethel, and sat there until evening before God, and they lifted up their voices and wept bitterly.

Judges 21:3 They said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, why has it come to pass that today there should be one tribe lacking in Israel?"

Judges 21:4 On the next day, the people got up early, and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and sacrifices of well-being.

Judges 21:5 Then the Israelites said, "Which of all the tribes of Israel did not come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For a solemn oath had been taken concerning whoever did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "That one shall be put to death."

Judges 21:6 But the Israelites had compassion for Benjamin their kin, and said, "One tribe is cut off from Israel this day.

Judges 21:7 What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them any of our daughters as wives?"

Judges 21:8 Then they said, "Is there anyone from the tribes of Israel who did not come up to the LORD to Mizpah?" It turned out that no one from Jabesh-gilead had come to the camp, to the assembly.

Judges 21:9 For when the roll was called among the people, not one of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead was there.

Judges 21:10 So the congregation sent twelve thousand soldiers there and commanded them, "Go, put the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead to the sword, including the women and the little ones.

Judges 21:11 This is what you shall do; every male and every woman that has lain with a male you shall devote to destruction.”

Judges 21:12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man and brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

Judges 21:13 Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjaminites who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

Judges 21:14 Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead; but they did not suffice for them.

Judges 21:15 The people had compassion on Benjamin because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

Judges 21:16 So the elders of the congregation said, “What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since there are no women left in Benjamin?”

Judges 21:17 And they said, “There must be heirs for the survivors of Benjamin, in order that a tribe may not be blotted out from Israel.

Judges 21:18 Yet we cannot give any of our daughters to them as wives.” For the Israelites had sworn, “Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to Benjamin.”

Judges 21:19 So they said, “Look, the yearly festival of the LORD is taking place at Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

Judges 21:20 And they instructed the Benjaminites, saying, “Go and lie in wait in the vineyards,

Judges 21:21 and watch; when the young women of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards and each of you carry off a wife for himself from the young women of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin.

Judges 21:22 Then if their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we will say to them, ‘Be generous and allow us to have them; because we did not capture in battle a wife for each man. But neither did you incur guilt by giving your daughters to them.’“

Judges 21:23 The Benjaminites did so; they took wives for each of them from the dancers whom they abducted. Then they went and returned to their territory, and rebuilt the towns, and lived in them.

Judges 21:24 So the Israelites departed from there at that time by tribes and families, and they went out from there to their own territories.

Judges 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel; all the people did what was right in their own eyes.

Ruth

1:1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons.

Ruth 1:2 The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there.

Ruth 1:3 But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons.

Ruth 1:4 These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years,

Ruth 1:5 both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

Ruth 1:6 Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had considered his people and given them food.

Ruth 1:7 So she set out from the place where she had been living, she and her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way to go back to the land of Judah.

Ruth 1:8 But Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go back each of you to your mother’s house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

Ruth 1:9 The LORD grant that you may find security, each of you in the house of your husband.” Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud.

Ruth 1:10 They said to her, “No, we will return with you to your people.”

Ruth 1:11 But Naomi said, “Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb that they may become your husbands?

Ruth 1:12 Turn back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought there was hope for me, even if I should have a husband tonight and bear sons,

Ruth 1:13 would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from marrying? No, my daughters, it has been far more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the LORD has turned against me.”

Ruth 1:14 Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, butRuth clung to her.

Ruth 1:15 So she said, “See, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law.”

Ruth 1:16 But Ruth said, “Do not press me to leave you or to turn back from following you! Where you go, I will go; where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God my God.

Ruth 1:17 Where you die, I will die— there will I be buried. May the LORD do thus and so to me, and more as well, if even death parts me from you!”

Ruth 1:18 When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

Ruth 1:19 So the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they came to Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them; and the women said, “Is this Naomi?”

Ruth 1:20 She said to them, “Call me no longer Naomi, call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt bitterly with me.

Ruth 1:21 I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty; why call me Naomi when the LORD has dealt harshly with me, and the Almighty has brought calamity upon me?”

Ruth 1:22 So Naomi returned together with Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, who came back with her from the country of Moab. They came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Ruth 2:1 Now Naomi had a kinsman on her husband’s side, a prominent rich man, of the family of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz.

Ruth 2:2 And Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, “Let me go to the field and glean among the ears of grain, behind someone in whose sight I may find favor.” She said to her, “Go, my daughter.”

Ruth 2:3 So she went. She came and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. As it happened, she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

Ruth 2:4 Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem. He said to the reapers, “The LORD be with you.” They answered, “The LORD bless you.”

Ruth 2:5 Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the reapers, “To whom does this young woman belong?”

Ruth 2:6 The servant who was in charge of the reapers answered, “She is the Moabite who came back with Naomi from the country of Moab.

Ruth 2:7 She said, ‘Please, let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers.’ So she came, and she has been on her feet from early this morning until now, without resting even for a moment.”

Ruth 2:8 Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Now listen, my daughter, do not go to glean in another field or leave this one, but keep close to my young women.

Ruth 2:9 Keep your eyes on the field that is being reaped, and follow behind them. I have ordered the young men not to bother you. If you get thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

Ruth 2:10 Then she fell prostrate, with her face to the ground, and said to him, "Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take notice of me, when I am a foreigner?"

Ruth 2:11 But Boaz answered her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband has been fully told me, and how you left your father and mother and your native land and came to a people that you did not know before.

Ruth 2:12 May the LORD reward you for your deeds, and may you have a full reward from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge!"

Ruth 2:13 Then she said, "May I continue to find favor in your sight, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your servant, even though I am not one of your servants."

Ruth 2:14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come here, and eat some of this bread, and dip your morsel in the sour wine." So she sat beside the reapers, and he heaped up for her some parched grain. She ate until she was satisfied, and she had some left over.

Ruth 2:15 When she got up to glean, Boaz instructed his young men, "Let her glean even among the standing sheaves, and do not reproach her.

Ruth 2:16 You must also pull out some handfuls for her from the bundles, and leave them for her to glean, and do not rebuke her."

Ruth 2:17 So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

Ruth 2:18 She picked it up and came into the town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned. Then she took out and gave her what was left over after she herself had been satisfied.

Ruth 2:19 Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today? And where have you worked? Blessed be the man who took notice of you." So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz."

Ruth 2:20 Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he by the LORD, whose kindness has not forsaken the living or the dead!" Naomi also said to her, "The man is a relative of ours, one of our nearest kin."

Ruth 2:21 Then Ruth the Moabite said, "He even said to me, 'Stay close by my servants, until they have finished all my harvest.'"

Ruth 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth, her daughter-in-law, "It is better, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, otherwise you might be bothered in another field."

Ruth 2:23 So she stayed close to the young women of Boaz, gleaning until the end of the barley and wheat harvests; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3:1 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you.

Ruth 3:2 Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor.

Ruth 3:3 Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

Ruth 3:4 When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do.”

Ruth 3:5 She said to her, “All that you tell me I will do.”

Ruth 3:6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did just as her mother-in-law had instructed her.

Ruth 3:7 When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and he was in a contented mood, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then she came stealthily and uncovered his feet, and lay down.

Ruth 3:8 At midnight the man was startled, and turned over, and there, lying at his feet, was a woman!

Ruth 3:9 He said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth, your servant; spread your cloak over your servant, for you are next-of-kin.”

Ruth 3:10 He said, “May you be blessed by the LORD, my daughter; this last instance of your loyalty is better than the first; you have not gone after young men, whether poor or rich.

Ruth 3:11 And now, my daughter, do not be afraid, I will do for you all that you ask, for all the assembly of my people know that you are a worthy woman.

Ruth 3:12 But now, though it is true that I am a near kinsman, there is another kinsman more closely related than I.

Ruth 3:13 Remain this night, and in the morning, if he will act as next-of-kin for you, good; let him do it. If he is not willing to act as next-of-kin for you, then, as the LORD lives, I will act as next-of-kin for you. Lie down until the morning.”

Ruth 3:14 So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before one person could recognize another; for he said, “It must not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor.”

Ruth 3:15 Then he said, “Bring the cloak you are wearing and hold it out.” So she held it, and he measured out six measures of barley, and put it on her back; then he went into the city.

Ruth 3:16 She came to her mother-in-law, who said, “How did things go with you, my daughter?” Then she told her all that the man had done for her,

Ruth 3:17 saying, “He gave me these six measures of barley, for he said, ‘Do not go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’“

Ruth 3:18 She replied, “Wait, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out, for the man will not rest, but will settle the matter today.”

Ruth 4:1 No sooner had Boaz gone up to the gate and sat down there than the next-of-kin, of whom Boaz had spoken, came passing by. So Boaz said, “Come over, friend; sit down here.” And he went over and sat down.

Ruth 4:2 Then Boaz took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here”; so they sat down.

Ruth 4:3 He then said to the next-of-kin, “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belonged to our kinsman Elimelech.

Ruth 4:4 So I thought I would tell you of it, and say: Buy it in the presence of those sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not, tell me, so that I may know; for there is no one prior to you to redeem it, and I come after you.” So he said, “I will redeem it.”

Ruth 4:5 Then Boaz said, “The day you acquire the field from the hand of Naomi, you are also acquiring Ruth the Moabite, the widow of the dead man, to maintain the dead man’s name on his inheritance.”

Ruth 4:6 At this, the next-of-kin said, “I cannot redeem it for myself without damaging my own inheritance. Take my right of redemption yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

Ruth 4:7 Now this was the custom in former times in Israel concerning redeeming and exchanging: to confirm a transaction, the one took off a sandal and gave it to the other; this was the manner of attesting in Israel.

Ruth 4:8 So when the next-of-kin said to Boaz, “Acquire it for yourself,” he took off his sandal.

Ruth 4:9 Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, “Today you are witnesses that I have acquired from the hand of Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon.

Ruth 4:10 I have also acquired Ruth the Moabite, the wife of Mahlon, to be my wife, to maintain the dead man’s name on his inheritance, in order that the name of the dead may not be cut off from his kindred and from the gate of his native place; today you are witnesses.”

Ruth 4:11 Then all the people who were at the gate, along with the elders, said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you produce children in Ephrathah and bestow a name in Bethlehem;

Ruth 4:12 and, through the children that the LORD will give you by this young woman, may your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah.”

Ruth 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son.

Ruth 4:14 Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel!

Ruth 4:15 He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him.”

Ruth 4:16 Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse.

Ruth 4:17 The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, “A son has been born to Naomi.” They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Ruth 4:18 Now these are the descendants of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron,

Ruth 4:19 Hezron of Ram, Ram of Amminadab,

Ruth 4:20 Amminadab of Nahshon, Nahshon of Salmon,

Ruth 4:21 Salmon of Boaz, Boaz of Obed,

Ruth 4:22 Obed of Jesse, and Jesse of David.

1 Samuel

1:1 There was a certain man of Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham son of Elihu son of Tohu son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1 Samuel 1:2 He had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

1 Samuel 1:3 Now this man used to go up year by year from his town to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh, where the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:4 On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters;

1 Samuel 1:5 but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb.

1 Samuel 1:6 Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb.

1 Samuel 1:7 So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat.

1 Samuel 1:8 Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?”

1 Samuel 1:9 After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:10 She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly.

1 Samuel 1:11 She made this vow: “O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head.”

1 Samuel 1:13 Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk.

1 Samuel 1:14 So Eli said to her, “How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine.”

1 Samuel 1:15 But Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:16 Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time.”

1 Samuel 1:17 Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him.”

1 Samuel 1:18 And she said, “Let your servant find favor in your sight.” Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

1 Samuel 1:19 They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her.

1 Samuel 1:20 In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, “I have asked him of the LORD.”

1 Samuel 1:21 The man Elkanah and all his household went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and to pay his vow.

1 Samuel 1:22 But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “As soon as the child is weaned, I will bring him, that he may appear in the presence of the LORD, and remain there forever; I will offer him as a nazirite for all time.”

1 Samuel 1:23 Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Do what seems best to you, wait until you have weaned him; only— may the LORD establish his word.” So the woman remained and nursed her son, until she weaned him.

1 Samuel 1:24 When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine. She brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh; and the child was young.

1 Samuel 1:25 Then they slaughtered the bull, and they brought the child to Eli.

1 Samuel 1:26 And she said, “Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who was standing here in your presence, praying to the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:27 For this child I prayed; and the LORD has granted me the petition that I made to him.

1 Samuel 1:28 Therefore I have lent him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he is given to the LORD.” She left him there for the LORD.

1 Samuel 2:1 Hannah prayed and said, “My heart exults in the LORD; my strength is exalted in my God. My mouth derides my enemies, because I rejoice in my victory.

1 Samuel 2:2 “There is no Holy One like the LORD, no one besides you; there is no Rock like our God.

1 Samuel 2:3 Talk no more so very proudly, let not arrogance come from your mouth; for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by him actions are weighed.

1 Samuel 2:4 The bows of the mighty are broken, but the feeble gird on strength.

1 Samuel 2:5 Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry are fat with spoil. The barren has borne seven, but she who has many children is forlorn.

1 Samuel 2:6 The LORD kills and brings to life; he brings down to Sheol and raises up.

1 Samuel 2:7 The LORD makes poor and makes rich; he brings low, he also exalts.

1 Samuel 2:8 He raises up the poor from the dust; he lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor. For the pillars of the earth are the LORD’s, and on them he has set the world.

1 Samuel 2:9 “He will guard the feet of his faithful ones, but the wicked shall be cut off in darkness; for not by might does one prevail.

1 Samuel 2:10 The LORD! His adversaries shall be shattered; the Most High will thunder in heaven. The LORD will judge the ends of the earth; he will give strength to his king, and exalt the power of his anointed.”

1 Samuel 2:11 Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, while the boy remained to minister to the LORD, in the presence of the priest Eli.

1 Samuel 2:12 Now the sons of Eli were scoundrels; they had no regard for the LORD

1 Samuel 2:13 or for the duties of the priests to the people. When anyone offered sacrifice, the priest’s servant would come, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand,

1 Samuel 2:14 and he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. This is what they did at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there.

1 Samuel 2:15 Moreover, before the fat was burned, the priest’s servant would come and say to the one who was sacrificing, “Give meat for the priest to roast; for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but only raw.”

1 Samuel 2:16 And if the man said to him, “Let them burn the fat first, and then take whatever you wish,” he would say, “No, you must give it now; if not, I will take it by force.”

1 Samuel 2:17 Thus the sin of the young men was very great in the sight of the LORD; for they treated the offerings of the LORD with contempt.

1 Samuel 2:18 Samuel was ministering before the LORD, a boy wearing a linen ephod.

1 Samuel 2:19 His mother used to make for him a little robe and take it to him each year, when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

1 Samuel 2:20 Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, “May the LORD repay you with children by this woman for the gift that she made to the LORD”; and then they would return to their home.

1 Samuel 2:21 And the LORD took note of Hannah; she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

1 Samuel 2:22 Now Eli was very old. He heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they lay with the women who served at the entrance to the tent of meeting.

1 Samuel 2:23 He said to them, “Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all these people.

1 Samuel 2:24 No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear the people of the LORD spreading abroad.

1 Samuel 2:25 If one person sins against another, someone can intercede for the sinner with the LORD; but if someone sins against the LORD, who can make intercession?” But they would not listen to the voice of their father; for it was the will of the LORD to kill them.

1 Samuel 2:26 Now the boy Samuel continued to grow both in stature and in favor with the LORD and with the people.

1 Samuel 2:27 A man of God came to Eli and said to him, “Thus the LORD has said, ‘I revealed myself to the family of your ancestor in Egypt when they were slaves to the house of Pharaoh.

1 Samuel 2:28 I chose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to offer incense, to wear an ephod before me; and I gave to the family of your ancestor all my offerings by fire from the people of Israel.

1 Samuel 2:29 Why then look with greedy eye at my sacrifices and my offerings that I commanded, and honor your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choicest parts of every offering of my people Israel?’

1 Samuel 2:30 Therefore the LORD the God of Israel declares: ‘I promised that your family and the family of your ancestor should go in and out before me forever’; but now the LORD declares: ‘Far be it from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be treated with contempt.

1 Samuel 2:31 See, a time is coming when I will cut off your strength and the strength of your ancestor’s family, so that no one in your family will live to old age.

1 Samuel 2:32 Then in distress you will look with greedy eye on all the prosperity that shall be bestowed upon Israel; and no one in your family shall ever live to old age.

1 Samuel 2:33 The only one of you whom I shall not cut off from my altar shall be spared to weep out his eyes and grieve his heart; all the members of your household shall die by the sword.

1 Samuel 2:34 The fate of your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, shall be the sign to you— both of them shall die on the same day.

1 Samuel 2:35 I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind. I will build him a sure house, and he shall go in and out before my anointed one forever.

1 Samuel 2:36 Everyone who is left in your family shall come to implore him for a piece of silver or a loaf of bread, and shall say, Please put me in one of the priest’s places, that I may eat a morsel of bread.’“

1 Samuel 3:1 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

1 Samuel 3:2 At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room;

1 Samuel 3:3 the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was.

1 Samuel 3:4 Then the LORD called, “Samuel! Samuel!” and he said, “Here I am!”

1 Samuel 3:5 and ran to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call; lie down again.” So he went and lay down.

1 Samuel 3:6 The LORD called again, “Samuel!” Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” But he said, “I did not call, my son; lie down again.”

1 Samuel 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

1 Samuel 3:8 The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am, for you called me.” Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy.

1 Samuel 3:9 Therefore Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, ‘Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.’“ So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

1 Samuel 3:10 Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, “Samuel! Samuel!” And Samuel said, “Speak, for your servant is listening.”

1 Samuel 3:11 Then the LORD said to Samuel, “See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle.

1 Samuel 3:12 On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

1 Samuel 3:13 For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them.

1 Samuel 3:14 Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever.”

1 Samuel 3:15 Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli.

1 Samuel 3:16 But Eli called Samuel and said, “Samuel, my son.” He said, “Here I am.”

1 Samuel 3:17 Eli said, “What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you.”

1 Samuel 3:18 So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, “It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him.”

1 Samuel 3:19 As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground.

1 Samuel 3:20 And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.

1 Samuel 3:21 The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

1 Samuel 4:1 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel. In those days the Philistines mustered for war against Israel, and Israel went out to battle against them; they encamped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines encamped at Aphek.

1 Samuel 4:2 The Philistines drew up in line against Israel, and when the battle was joined, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand men on the field of battle.

1 Samuel 4:3 When the troops came to the camp, the elders of Israel said, “Why has the LORD put us to rout today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD here from Shiloh, so that he may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies.”

1 Samuel 4:4 So the people sent to Shiloh, and brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned on the cherubim. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

1 Samuel 4:5 When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel gave a mighty shout, so that the earth resounded.

1 Samuel 4:6 When the Philistines heard the noise of the shouting, they said, “What does this great shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?” When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come to the camp,

1 Samuel 4:7 the Philistines were afraid; for they said, “Gods have come into the camp.” They also said, “Woe to us! For nothing like this has happened before.

1 Samuel 4:8 Woe to us! Who can deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians with every sort of plague in the wilderness.

1 Samuel 4:9 Take courage, and be men, O Philistines, in order not to become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been to you; be men and fight.”

1 Samuel 4:10 So the Philistines fought; Israel was defeated, and they fled, everyone to his home. There was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers.

1 Samuel 4:11 The ark of God was captured; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

1 Samuel 4:12 A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn and with earth upon his head.

1 Samuel 4:13 When he arrived, Eli was sitting upon his seat by the road watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city and told the news, all the city cried out.

1 Samuel 4:14 When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he said, “What is this uproar?” Then the man came quickly and told Eli.

1 Samuel 4:15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old and his eyes were set, so that he could not see.

1 Samuel 4:16 The man said to Eli, “I have just come from the battle; I fled from the battle today.” He said, “How did it go, my son?”

1 Samuel 4:17 The messenger replied, “Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has also been a great slaughter among the troops; your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured.”

1 Samuel 4:18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell over backward from his seat by the side of the gate; and his neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.

1 Samuel 4:19 Now his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant, about to give birth. When she heard the news that the ark of God was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed and gave birth; for her labor pains overwhelmed her.

1 Samuel 4:20 As she was about to die, the women attending her said to her, “Do not be afraid, for you have borne a son.” But she did not answer or give heed.

1 Samuel 4:21 She named the child Ichabod, meaning, “The glory has departed from Israel,” because the ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

1 Samuel 4:22 She said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

1 Samuel 5:1 When the Philistines captured the ark of God, they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod;

1 Samuel 5:2 then the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon and placed it beside Dagon.

1 Samuel 5:3 When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. So they took Dagon and put him back in his place.

1 Samuel 5:4 But when they rose early on the next morning, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and both his hands were lying cut off upon the threshold; only the trunk of Dagon was left to him.

1 Samuel 5:5 This is why the priests of Dagon and all who enter the house of Dagon do not step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

1 Samuel 5:6 The hand of the LORD was heavy upon the people of Ashdod, and he terrified and struck them with tumors, both in Ashdod and in its territory.

1 Samuel 5:7 And when the inhabitants of Ashdod saw how things were, they said, “The ark of the God of Israel must not remain with us; for his hand is heavy on us and on our god Dagon.”

1 Samuel 5:8 So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?” The inhabitants of Gath replied, “Let the ark of God be moved on to us.” So they moved the ark of the God of Israel to Gath.

1 Samuel 5:9 But after they had brought it to Gath, the hand of the LORD was against the city, causing a very great panic; he struck the inhabitants of the city, both young and old, so that tumors broke out on them.

1 Samuel 5:10 So they sent the ark of the God of Israel to Ekron. But when the ark of God came to Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, “Why have they brought around to us the ark of the God of Israel to kill us and our people?”

1 Samuel 5:11 They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, “Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its own place, that it may not kill us and our people.” For there was a deathly panic throughout the whole city. The hand of God was very heavy there;

1 Samuel 5:12 those who did not die were stricken with tumors, and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6:1 The ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

1 Samuel 6:2 Then the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us what we should send with it to its place.”

1 Samuel 6:3 They said, “If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty, but by all means return him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed and will be ransomed; will not his hand then turn from you?”

1 Samuel 6:4 And they said, “What is the guilt offering that we shall return to him?” They answered, “Five gold tumors and five gold mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines; for the same plague was upon all of you and upon your lords.

1 Samuel 6:5 So you must make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ravage the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps he will lighten his hand on you and your gods and your land.

1 Samuel 6:6 Why should you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? After he had made fools of them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

1 Samuel 6:7 Now then, get ready a new cart and two milch cows that have never borne a yoke, and yoke the cows to the cart, but take their calves home, away from them.

1 Samuel 6:8 Take the ark of the LORD and place it on the cart, and put in a box at its side the figures of gold, which you are returning to him as a guilt offering. Then send it off, and let it go its way.

1 Samuel 6:9 And watch; if it goes up on the way to its own land, to Beth-shemesh, then it is he who has done us this great harm; but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it happened to us by chance.”

1 Samuel 6:10 The men did so; they took two milch cows and yoked them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

1 Samuel 6:11 They put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the box with the gold mice and the images of their tumors.

1 Samuel 6:12 The cows went straight in the direction of Beth-shemesh along one highway, lowing as they went; they turned neither to the right nor to the left, and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the border of Beth-shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:13 Now the people of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. When they looked up and saw the ark, they went with rejoicing to meet it.

1 Samuel 6:14 The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh, and stopped there. A large stone was there; so they split up the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

1 Samuel 6:15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was beside it, in which were the gold objects, and set them upon the large stone. Then the people of Beth-shemesh offered burnt offerings and presented sacrifices on that day to the LORD.

1 Samuel 6:16 When the five lords of the Philistines saw it, they returned that day to Ekron.

1 Samuel 6:17 These are the gold tumors, which the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron;

1 Samuel 6:18 also the gold mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and unwalled villages. The great stone, beside which they set down the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:19 The descendants of Jeconiah did not rejoice with the people of Beth-shemesh when they greeted the ark of the LORD; and he killed seventy men of them. The people mourned because the LORD had made a great slaughter among the people.

1 Samuel 6:20 Then the people of Beth-shemesh said, “Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall he go so that we may be rid of him?”

1 Samuel 6:21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to you.”

1 Samuel 7:1 And the people of Kiriath-jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD, and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. They consecrated his son, Eleazar, to have charge of the ark of the LORD.

1 Samuel 7:2 From the day that the ark was lodged at Kiriath-jearim, a long time passed, some twenty years, and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD.

1 Samuel 7:3 Then Samuel said to all the house of Israel, “If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Astartes from among you. Direct your heart to the LORD, and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 7:4 So Israel put away the Baals and the Astartes, and they served the LORD only.

1 Samuel 7:5 Then Samuel said, “Gather all Israel at Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you.”

1 Samuel 7:6 So they gathered at Mizpah, and drew water and poured it out before the LORD. They fasted that day, and said, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel judged the people of Israel at Mizpah.

1 Samuel 7:7 When the Philistines heard that the people of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the people of Israel heard of it they were afraid of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 7:8 The people of Israel said to Samuel, “Do not cease to cry out to the LORD our God for us, and pray that he may save us from the hand of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 7:9 So Samuel took a sucking lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD; Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

1 Samuel 7:10 As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to attack Israel; but the LORD thundered with a mighty voice that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion; and they were routed before Israel.

1 Samuel 7:11 And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down as far as beyond Beth-car.

1 Samuel 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Jeshanah, and named it Ebenezer; for he said, “Thus far the LORD has helped us.”

1 Samuel 7:13 So the Philistines were subdued and did not again enter the territory of Israel; the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

1 Samuel 7:14 The towns that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath; and Israel recovered their territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

1 Samuel 7:15 Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

1 Samuel 7:16 He went on a circuit year by year to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all these places.

1 Samuel 7:17 Then he would come back to Ramah, for his home was there; he administered justice there to Israel, and built there an altar to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:1 When Samuel became old, he made his sons judges over Israel.

1 Samuel 8:2 The name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second, Abijah; they were judges in Beer-sheba.

1 Samuel 8:3 Yet his sons did not follow in his ways, but turned aside after gain; they took bribes and perverted justice.

1 Samuel 8:4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah,

1 Samuel 8:5 and said to him, “You are old and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations.”

1 Samuel 8:6 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to govern us.” Samuel prayed to the LORD,

1 Samuel 8:7 and the LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them.

1 Samuel 8:8 Just as they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you.

1 Samuel 8:9 Now then, listen to their voice; only— you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them.”

1 Samuel 8:10 So Samuel reported all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.

1 Samuel 8:11 He said, “These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots;

1 Samuel 8:12 and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:13 He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

1 Samuel 8:14 He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his courtiers.

1 Samuel 8:15 He will take one-tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and his courtiers.

1 Samuel 8:16 He will take your male and female slaves, and the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his work.

1 Samuel 8:17 He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves.

1 Samuel 8:18 And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

1 Samuel 8:19 But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, “No! but we are determined to have a king over us,

1 Samuel 8:20 so that we also may be like other nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

1 Samuel 8:21 When Samuel had heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the ears of the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:22 The LORD said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice and set a king over them.” Samuel then said to the people of Israel, “Each of you return home.”

1 Samuel 9:1 There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish son of Abiel son of Zeror son of Becorath son of Aphiah, a Benjaminite, a man of wealth.

1 Samuel 9:2 He had a son whose name was Saul, a handsome young man. There was not a man among the people of Israel more handsome than he; he stood head and shoulders above everyone else.

1 Samuel 9:3 Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, had strayed. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take one of the boys with you; go and look for the donkeys."

1 Samuel 9:4 He passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

1 Samuel 9:5 When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to the boy who was with him, "Let us turn back, or my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and worry about us."

1 Samuel 9:6 But he said to him, "There is a man of God in this town; he is a man held in honor. Whatever he says always comes true. Let us go there now; perhaps he will tell us about the journey on which we have set out."

1 Samuel 9:7 Then Saul replied to the boy, "But if we go, what can we bring the man? For the bread in our sacks is gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What have we?"

1 Samuel 9:8 The boy answered Saul again, "Here, I have with me a quarter shekel of silver; I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way."

1 Samuel 9:9 (Formerly in Israel, anyone who went to inquire of God would say, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for the one who is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

1 Samuel 9:10 Saul said to the boy, "Good; come, let us go." So they went to the town where the man of God was.

1 Samuel 9:11 As they went up the hill to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

1 Samuel 9:12 They answered, "Yes, there he is just ahead of you. Hurry; he has come just now to the town, because the people have a sacrifice today at the shrine.

1 Samuel 9:13 As soon as you enter the town, you will find him, before he goes up to the shrine to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, since he must bless the sacrifice; afterward those eat who are invited. Now go up, for you will meet him immediately."

1 Samuel 9:14 So they went up to the town. As they were entering the town, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way up to the shrine.

1 Samuel 9:15 Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed to Samuel:

1 Samuel 9:16 "Tomorrow about this time I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be ruler over my people Israel. He shall save my people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen the suffering of my people, because their outcry has come to me.”

1 Samuel 9:17 When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, “Here is the man of whom I spoke to you. He it is who shall rule over my people.”

1 Samuel 9:18 Then Saul approached Samuel inside the gate, and said, “Tell me, please, where is the house of the seer?”

1 Samuel 9:19 Samuel answered Saul, “I am the seer; go up before me to the shrine, for today you shall eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is on your mind.

1 Samuel 9:20 As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, give no further thought to them, for they have been found. And on whom is all Israel’s desire fixed, if not on you and on all your ancestral house?”

1 Samuel 9:21 Saul answered, “I am only a Benjaminite, from the least of the tribes of Israel, and my family is the humblest of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin. Why then have you spoken to me in this way?”

1 Samuel 9:22 Then Samuel took Saul and his servant-boy and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited, of whom there were about thirty.

1 Samuel 9:23 And Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the portion I gave you, the one I asked you to put aside.”

1 Samuel 9:24 The cook took up the thigh and what went with it and set them before Saul. Samuel said, “See, what was kept is set before you. Eat; for it is set before you at the appointed time, so that you might eat with the guests.” So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

1 Samuel 9:25 When they came down from the shrine into the town, a bed was spread for Saul on the roof, and he lay down to sleep.

1 Samuel 9:26 Then at the break of dawn Samuel called to Saul upon the roof, “Get up, so that I may send you on your way.” Saul got up, and both he and Samuel went out into the street.

1 Samuel 9:27 As they were going down to the outskirts of the town, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the boy to go on before us, and when he has passed on, stop here yourself for a while, that I may make known to you the word of God.”

1 Samuel 10:1 Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him; he said, “The LORD has anointed you ruler over his people Israel. You shall reign over the people of the LORD and you will save them from the hand of their enemies all around. Now this shall be the sign to you that the LORD has anointed you ruler over his heritage:

1 Samuel 10:2 When you depart from me today you will meet two men by Rachel’s tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah; they will say to you, ‘The donkeys that you went to seek are found, and now your father has stopped worrying about them and is worrying about you, saying: What shall I do about my son?'

1 Samuel 10:3 Then you shall go on from there further and come to the oak of Tabor; three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there, one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a skin of wine.

1 Samuel 10:4 They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall accept from them.

1 Samuel 10:5 After that you shall come to Gibeath-elohim, at the place where the Philistine garrison is; there, as you come to the town, you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the shrine with harp, tambourine, flute, and lyre playing in front of them; they will be in a prophetic frenzy.

1 Samuel 10:6 Then the spirit of the LORD will possess you, and you will be in a prophetic frenzy along with them and be turned into a different person.

1 Samuel 10:7 Now when these signs meet you, do whatever you see fit to do, for God is with you.

1 Samuel 10:8 And you shall go down to Gilgal ahead of me; then I will come down to you to present burnt offerings and offer sacrifices of well-being. Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you and show you what you shall do."

1 Samuel 10:9 As he turned away to leave Samuel, God gave him another heart; and all these signs were fulfilled that day.

1 Samuel 10:10 When they were going from there to Gibeah, a band of prophets met him; and the spirit of God possessed him, and he fell into a prophetic frenzy along with them.

1 Samuel 10:11 When all who knew him before saw how he prophesied with the prophets, the people said to one another, "What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1 Samuel 10:12 A man of the place answered, "And who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1 Samuel 10:13 When his prophetic frenzy had ended, he went home.

1 Samuel 10:14 Saul's uncle said to him and to the boy, "Where did you go?" And he replied, "To seek the donkeys; and when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel."

1 Samuel 10:15 Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you."

1 Samuel 10:16 Saul said to his uncle, "He told us that the donkeys had been found." But about the matter of the kingship, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him anything.

1 Samuel 10:17 Samuel summoned the people to the LORD at Mizpah

1 Samuel 10:18 and said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.’

1 Samuel 10:19 But today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said, ‘No! but set a king over us.’ Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans.”

1 Samuel 10:20 Then Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken by lot.

1 Samuel 10:21 He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by its families, and the family of the Matrites was taken by lot. Finally he brought the family of the Matrites near man by man, and Saul the son of Kish was taken by lot. But when they sought him, he could not be found.

1 Samuel 10:22 So they inquired again of the LORD, “Did the man come here?” and the LORD said, “See, he has hidden himself among the baggage.”

1 Samuel 10:23 Then they ran and brought him from there. When he took his stand among the people, he was head and shoulders taller than any of them.

1 Samuel 10:24 Samuel said to all the people, “Do you see the one whom the LORD has chosen? There is no one like him among all the people.” And all the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

1 Samuel 10:25 Samuel told the people the rights and duties of the kingship; and he wrote them in a book and laid it up before the LORD. Then Samuel sent all the people back to their homes.

1 Samuel 10:26 Saul also went to his home at Gibeah, and with him went warriors whose hearts God had touched.

1 Samuel 10:27 But some worthless fellows said, “How can this man save us?” They despised him and brought him no present. But he held his peace. Now Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had been grievously oppressing the Gadites and the Reubenites. He would gouge out the right eye of each of them and would not grant Israel a deliverer. No one was left of the Israelites across the Jordan whose right eye Nahash, king of the Ammonites, had not gouged out. But there were seven thousand men who had escaped from the Ammonites and had entered Jabesh-gilead.

1 Samuel 11:1 About a month later, Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you.”

1 Samuel 11:2 But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “On this condition I will make a treaty with you, namely that I gouge out everyone’s right eye, and thus put disgrace upon all Israel.”

1 Samuel 11:3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Give us seven days’ respite that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to save us, we will give ourselves up to you.”

1 Samuel 11:4 When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, they reported the matter in the hearing of the people; and all the people wept aloud.

1 Samuel 11:5 Now Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen; and Saul said, “What is the matter with the people, that they are weeping?” So they told him the message from the inhabitants of Jabesh.

1 Samuel 11:6 And the spirit of God came upon Saul in power when he heard these words, and his anger was greatly kindled.

1 Samuel 11:7 He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by messengers, saying, “Whoever does not come out after Saul and Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen!” Then the dread of the LORD fell upon the people, and they came out as one.

1 Samuel 11:8 When he mustered them at Bezek, those from Israel were three hundred thousand, and those from Judah seventy thousand.

1 Samuel 11:9 They said to the messengers who had come, “Thus shall you say to the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.’“ When the messengers came and told the inhabitants of Jabesh, they rejoiced.

1 Samuel 11:10 So the inhabitants of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will give ourselves up to you, and you may do to us whatever seems good to you.”

1 Samuel 11:11 The next day Saul put the people in three companies. At the morning watch they came into the camp and cut down the Ammonites until the heat of the day; and those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

1 Samuel 11:12 The people said to Samuel, “Who is it that said, ‘Shall Saul reign over us?’ Give them to us so that we may put them to death.”

1 Samuel 11:13 But Saul said, “No one shall be put to death this day, for today the LORD has brought deliverance to Israel.”

1 Samuel 11:14 Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingship.”

1 Samuel 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. There they sacrificed offerings of well-being before the LORD, and there Saul and all the Israelites rejoiced greatly.

1 Samuel 12:1 Samuel said to all Israel, “I have listened to you in all that you have said to me, and have set a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:2 See, it is the king who leads you now; I am old and gray, but my sons are with you. I have led you from my youth until this day.

1 Samuel 12:3 Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I taken a bribe to blind my eyes with it? Testify against me and I will restore it to you.”

1 Samuel 12:4 They said, “You have not defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from the hand of anyone.”

1 Samuel 12:5 He said to them, “The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand.” And they said, “He is witness.”

1 Samuel 12:6 Samuel said to the people, “The LORD is witness, who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your ancestors up out of the land of Egypt.

1 Samuel 12:7 Now therefore take your stand, so that I may enter into judgment with you before the LORD, and I will declare to you all the saving deeds of the LORD that he performed for you and for your ancestors.

1 Samuel 12:8 When Jacob went into Egypt and the Egyptians oppressed them, then your ancestors cried to the LORD and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought forth your ancestors out of Egypt, and settled them in this place.

1 Samuel 12:9 But they forgot the LORD their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of King Jabin of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them.

1 Samuel 12:10 Then they cried to the LORD, and said, ‘We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Baals and the Astartes; but now rescue us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.’

1 Samuel 12:11 And the LORD sent Jerubbaal and Barak, and Jephthah, and Samson, and rescued you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety.

1 Samuel 12:12 But when you saw that King Nahash of the Ammonites came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but a king shall reign over us,’ though the LORD your God was your king.

1 Samuel 12:13 See, here is the king whom you have chosen, for whom you have asked; see, the LORD has set a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:14 If you will fear the LORD and serve him and heed his voice and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, and if both you and the king who reigns over you will follow the LORD your God, it will be well;

1 Samuel 12:15 but if you will not heed the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you and your king.

1 Samuel 12:16 Now therefore take your stand and see this great thing that the LORD will do before your eyes.

1 Samuel 12:17 Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call upon the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that the wickedness that you have done in the sight of the LORD is great in demanding a king for yourselves."

1 Samuel 12:18 So Samuel called upon the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day; and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

1 Samuel 12:19 All the people said to Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so that we may not die; for we have added to all our sins the evil of demanding a king for ourselves."

1 Samuel 12:20 And Samuel said to the people, "Do not be afraid; you have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart;

1 Samuel 12:21 and do not turn aside after useless things that cannot profit or save, for they are useless.

1 Samuel 12:22 For the LORD will not cast away his people, for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people for himself.

1 Samuel 12:23 Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; and I will instruct you in the good and the right way.

1 Samuel 12:24 Only fear the LORD, and serve him faithfully with all your heart; for consider what great things he has done for you.

1 Samuel 12:25 But if you still do wickedly, you shall be swept away, both you and your king."

1 Samuel 13:1 Saul was... years old when he began to reign; and he reigned... and two years over Israel.

1 Samuel 13:2 Saul chose three thousand out of Israel; two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin; the rest of the people he sent home to their tents.

1 Samuel 13:3 Jonathan defeated the garrison of the Philistines that was at Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!"

1 Samuel 13:4 When all Israel heard that Saul had defeated the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel had become odious to the Philistines, the people were called out to join Saul at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 13:5 The Philistines mustered to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and troops like the sand on the seashore in multitude; they came up and encamped at Michmash, to the east of Beth-aven.

1 Samuel 13:6 When the Israelites saw that they were in distress (for the troops were hard pressed), the people hid themselves in caves and in holes and in rocks and in tombs and in cisterns.

1 Samuel 13:7 Some Hebrews crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

1 Samuel 13:8 He waited seven days, the time appointed by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people began to slip away from Saul.

1 Samuel 13:9 So Saul said, “Bring the burnt offering here to me, and the offerings of well-being.” And he offered the burnt offering.

1 Samuel 13:10 As soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel arrived; and Saul went out to meet him and salute him.

1 Samuel 13:11 Samuel said, “What have you done?” Saul replied, “When I saw that the people were slipping away from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines were mustering at Michmash,

1 Samuel 13:12 I said, ‘Now the Philistines will come down upon me at Gilgal, and I have not entreated the favor of the LORD’; so I forced myself, and offered the burnt offering.”

1 Samuel 13:13 Samuel said to Saul, “You have done foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which he commanded you. The LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever,

1 Samuel 13:14 but now your kingdom will not continue; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart; and the LORD has appointed him to be ruler over his people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you.”

1 Samuel 13:15 And Samuel left and went on his way from Gilgal. The rest of the people followed Saul to join the army; they went up from Gilgal toward Gibeah of Benjamin. Saul counted the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

1 Samuel 13:16 Saul, his son Jonathan, and the people who were present with them stayed in Geba of Benjamin; but the Philistines encamped at Michmash.

1 Samuel 13:17 And raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies; one company turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual,

1 Samuel 13:18 another company turned toward Beth-horon, and another company turned toward the mountain that looks down upon the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness.

1 Samuel 13:19 Now there was no smith to be found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, “The Hebrews must not make swords or spears for themselves”;

1 Samuel 13:20 so all the Israelites went down to the Philistines to sharpen their plowshare, mattocks, axes, or sickles;

1 Samuel 13:21 The charge was two-thirds of a shekel for the plowshares and for the mattocks, and one-third of a shekel for sharpening the axes and for setting the goads.

1 Samuel 13:22 So on the day of the battle neither sword nor spear was to be found in the possession of any of the people with Saul and Jonathan; but Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

1 Samuel 13:23 Now a garrison of the Philistines had gone out to the pass of Michmash.

1 Samuel 14:1 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man who carried his armor, “Come, let us go over to the Philistine garrison on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

1 Samuel 14:2 Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is at Migron; the troops that were with him were about six hundred men,

1 Samuel 14:3 along with Ahijah son of Ahitub, Ichabod’s brother, son of Phinehas son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, carrying an ephod. Now the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

1 Samuel 14:4 In the pass, by which Jonathan tried to go over to the Philistine garrison, there was a rocky crag on one side and a rocky crag on the other; the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

1 Samuel 14:5 One crag rose on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba.

1 Samuel 14:6 Jonathan said to the young man who carried his armor, “Come, let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised; it may be that the LORD will act for us; for nothing can hinder the LORD from saving by many or by few.”

1 Samuel 14:7 His armor-bearer said to him, “Do all that your mind inclines to. I am with you; as your mind is, so is mine.”

1 Samuel 14:8 Then Jonathan said, “Now we will cross over to those men and will show ourselves to them.

1 Samuel 14:9 If they say to us, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place, and we will not go up to them.

1 Samuel 14:10 But if they say, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up; for the LORD has given them into our hand. That will be the sign for us."

1 Samuel 14:11 So both of them showed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, "Look, Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they have hidden themselves."

1 Samuel 14:12 The men of the garrison hailed Jonathan and his armor-bearer, saying, "Come up to us, and we will show you something." Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Come up after me; for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel."

1 Samuel 14:13 Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer following after him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer, coming after him, killed them.

1 Samuel 14:14 In that first slaughter Jonathan and his armor-bearer killed about twenty men within an area about half a furrow long in an acre of land.

1 Samuel 14:15 There was a panic in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison and even the raiders trembled; the earth quaked; and it became a very great panic.

1 Samuel 14:16 Saul's lookouts in Gibeah of Benjamin were watching as the multitude was surging back and forth.

1 Samuel 14:17 Then Saul said to the troops that were with him, "Call the roll and see who has gone from us." When they had called the roll, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

1 Samuel 14:18 Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For at that time the ark of God went with the Israelites.

1 Samuel 14:19 While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines increased more and more; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

1 Samuel 14:20 Then Saul and all the people who were with him rallied and went into the battle; and every sword was against the other, so that there was very great confusion.

1 Samuel 14:21 Now the Hebrews who previously had been with the Philistines and had gone up with them into the camp turned and joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

1 Samuel 14:22 Likewise, when all the Israelites who had gone into hiding in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were fleeing, they too followed closely after them in the battle.

1 Samuel 14:23 So the LORD gave Israel the victory that day. The battle passed beyond Beth-aven, and the troops with Saul numbered altogether about ten thousand men. The battle spread out over the hill country of Ephraim.

1 Samuel 14:24 Now Saul committed a very rash act on that day. He had laid an oath on the troops, saying, “Cursed be anyone who eats food before it is evening and I have been avenged on my enemies.” So none of the troops tasted food.

1 Samuel 14:25 All the troops came upon a honeycomb; and there was honey on the ground.

1 Samuel 14:26 When the troops came upon the honeycomb, the honey was dripping out; but they did not put their hands to their mouths, for they feared the oath.

1 Samuel 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard his father charge the troops with the oath; so he extended the staff that was in his hand, and dipped the tip of it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes brightened.

1 Samuel 14:28 Then one of the soldiers said, “Your father strictly charged the troops with an oath, saying, ‘Cursed be anyone who eats food this day.’ And so the troops are faint.”

1 Samuel 14:29 Then Jonathan said, “My father has troubled the land; see how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

1 Samuel 14:30 How much better if today the troops had eaten freely of the spoil taken from their enemies; for now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great.”

1 Samuel 14:31 After they had struck down the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon, the troops were very faint;

1 Samuel 14:32 so the troops flew upon the spoil, and took sheep and oxen and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the troops ate them with the blood.

1 Samuel 14:33 Then it was reported to Saul, “Look, the troops are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood.” And he said, “You have dealt treacherously; roll a large stone before me here.”

1 Samuel 14:34 Saul said, “Disperse yourselves among the troops, and say to them, ‘Let all bring their oxen or their sheep, and slaughter them here, and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.’“ So all of the troops brought their oxen with them that night, and slaughtered them there.

1 Samuel 14:35 And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

1 Samuel 14:36 Then Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night and despoil them until the morning light; let us not leave one of them.” They said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” But the priest said, “Let us draw near to God here.”

1 Samuel 14:37 So Saul inquired of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into the hand of Israel?” But he did not answer him that day.

1 Samuel 14:38 Saul said, “Come here, all you leaders of the people; and let us find out how this sin has arisen today.

1 Samuel 14:39 For as the LORD lives who saves Israel, even if it is in my son Jonathan, he shall surely die!” But there was no one among all the people who answered him.

1 Samuel 14:40 He said to all Israel, “You shall be on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will be on the other side.” The people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

1 Samuel 14:41 Then Saul said, “O LORD God of Israel, why have you not answered your servant today? If this guilt is in me or in my son Jonathan, O LORD God of Israel, give Urim; but if this guilt is in your people Israel, give Thummim.” And Jonathan and Saul were indicated by the lot, but the people were cleared.

1 Samuel 14:42 Then Saul said, “Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan.” And Jonathan was taken.

1 Samuel 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” Jonathan told him, “I tasted a little honey with the tip of the staff that was in my hand; here I am, I will die.”

1 Samuel 14:44 Saul said, “God do so to me and more also; you shall surely die, Jonathan!”

1 Samuel 14:45 Then the people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has accomplished this great victory in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground; for he has worked with God today.” So the people ransomed Jonathan, and he did not die.

1 Samuel 14:46 Then Saul withdrew from pursuing the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.

1 Samuel 14:47 When Saul had taken the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side— against Moab, against the Ammonites, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; wherever he turned he routed them.

1 Samuel 14:48 He did valiantly, and struck down the Amalekites, and rescued Israel out of the hands of those who plundered them.

1 Samuel 14:49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn was Merab, and the name of the younger, Michal.

1 Samuel 14:50 The name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the commander of his army was Abner son of Ner, Saul’s uncle;

1 Samuel 14:51 Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

1 Samuel 14:52 There was hard fighting against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any strong or valiant warrior, he took him into his service.

1 Samuel 15:1 Samuel said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you king over his people Israel; now therefore listen to the words of the LORD.

1 Samuel 15:2 Thus says the LORD of hosts, ‘I will punish the Amalekites for what they did in opposing the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:3 Now go and attack Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have; do not spare them, but kill both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’“

1 Samuel 15:4 So Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers, and ten thousand soldiers of Judah.

1 Samuel 15:5 Saul came to the city of the Amalekites and lay in wait in the valley.

1 Samuel 15:6 Saul said to the Kenites, “Go! Leave! Withdraw from among the Amalekites, or I will destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the people of Israel when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites withdrew from the Amalekites.

1 Samuel 15:7 Saul defeated the Amalekites, from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:8 He took King Agag of the Amalekites alive, but utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

1 Samuel 15:9 Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and of the cattle and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was valuable, and would not utterly destroy them; all that was despised and worthless they utterly destroyed.

1 Samuel 15:10 The word of the LORD came to Samuel:

1 Samuel 15:11 “I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned back from following me, and has not carried out my commands.” Samuel was angry; and he cried out to the LORD all night.

1 Samuel 15:12 Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul, and Samuel was told, “Saul went to Carmel, where he set up a monument for himself, and on returning he passed on down to Gilgal.”

1 Samuel 15:13 When Samuel came to Saul, Saul said to him, “May you be blessed by the LORD; I have carried out the command of the LORD.”

1 Samuel 15:14 But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears, and the lowing of cattle that I hear?”

1 Samuel 15:15 Saul said, “They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle, to sacrifice to the LORD your God; but the rest we have utterly destroyed.”

1 Samuel 15:16 Then Samuel said to Saul, “Stop! I will tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” He replied, “Speak.”

1 Samuel 15:17 Samuel said, “Though you are little in your own eyes, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

1 Samuel 15:18 And the LORD sent you on a mission, and said, ‘Go, utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.’

1 Samuel 15:19 Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? Why did you swoop down on the spoil, and do what was evil in the sight of the LORD?”

1 Samuel 15:20 Saul said to Samuel, “I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, I have gone on the mission on which the LORD sent me, I have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and I have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

1 Samuel 15:21 But from the spoil the people took sheep and cattle, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal.”

1 Samuel 15:22 And Samuel said, “Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Surely, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed than the fat of rams.

1 Samuel 15:23 For rebellion is no less a sin than divination, and stubbornness is like iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king.”

1 Samuel 15:24 Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned; for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

1 Samuel 15:25 Now therefore, I pray, pardon my sin, and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD.”

1 Samuel 15:26 Samuel said to Saul, “I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”

1 Samuel 15:27 As Samuel turned to go away, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe, and it tore.

1 Samuel 15:28 And Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this very day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours, who is better than you.

1 Samuel 15:29 Moreover the Glory of Israel will not recant or change his mind; for he is not a mortal, that he should change his mind."

1 Samuel 15:30 Then Saul said, "I have sinned; yet honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God."

1 Samuel 15:31 So Samuel turned back after Saul; and Saul worshiped the LORD.

1 Samuel 15:32 Then Samuel said, "Bring Agag king of the Amalekites here to me." And Agag came to him haltingly. Agag said, "Surely this is the bitterness of death."

1 Samuel 15:33 But Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so your mother shall be childless among women." And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

1 Samuel 15:34 Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul.

1 Samuel 15:35 Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16:1 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons."

1 Samuel 16:2 Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.'

1 Samuel 16:3 Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you."

1 Samuel 16:4 Samuel did what the LORD commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?"

1 Samuel 16:5 He said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

1 Samuel 16:6 When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, "Surely the LORD's anointed is now before the LORD."

1 Samuel 16:7 But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the LORD does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."

1 Samuel 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

1 Samuel 16:9 Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has the LORD chosen this one.”

1 Samuel 16:10 Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, “The LORD has not chosen any of these.”

1 Samuel 16:11 Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your sons here?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep.” And Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here.”

1 Samuel 16:12 He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. The LORD said, “Rise and anoint him; for this is the one.”

1 Samuel 16:13 Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and the spirit of the LORD came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.

1 Samuel 16:14 Now the spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

1 Samuel 16:15 And Saul’s servants said to him, “See now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.

1 Samuel 16:16 Let our lord now command the servants who attend you to look for someone who is skillful in playing the lyre; and when the evil spirit from God is upon you, he will play it, and you will feel better.”

1 Samuel 16:17 So Saul said to his servants, “Provide for me someone who can play well, and bring him to me.”

1 Samuel 16:18 One of the young men answered, “I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a warrior, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence; and the LORD is with him.”

1 Samuel 16:19 So Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, “Send me your son David who is with the sheep.”

1 Samuel 16:20 Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine, and a kid, and sent them by his son David to Saul.

1 Samuel 16:21 And David came to Saul, and entered his service. Saul loved him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer.

1 Samuel 16:22 Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Let David remain in my service, for he has found favor in my sight.”

1 Samuel 16:23 And whenever the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, David took the lyre and played it with his hand, and Saul would be relieved and feel better, and the evil spirit would depart from him.

1 Samuel 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; they were gathered at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

1 Samuel 17:2 Saul and the Israelites gathered and encamped in the valley of Elah, and formed ranks against the Philistines.

1 Samuel 17:3 The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with a valley between them.

1 Samuel 17:4 And there came out from the camp of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

1 Samuel 17:5 He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.

1 Samuel 17:6 He had greaves of bronze on his legs and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders.

1 Samuel 17:7 The shaft of his spear was like a weaver’s beam, and his spear’s head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and his shield-bearer went before him.

1 Samuel 17:8 He stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, “Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

1 Samuel 17:9 If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us.”

1 Samuel 17:10 And the Philistine said, “Today I defy the ranks of Israel! Give me a man, that we may fight together.”

1 Samuel 17:11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

1 Samuel 17:12 Now David was the son of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, named Jesse, who had eight sons. In the days of Saul the man was already old and advanced in years.

1 Samuel 17:13 The three eldest sons of Jesse had followed Saul to the battle; the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

1 Samuel 17:14 David was the youngest; the three eldest followed Saul,

1 Samuel 17:15 but David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father’s sheep at Bethlehem.

1 Samuel 17:16 For forty days the Philistine came forward and took his stand, morning and evening.

1 Samuel 17:17 Jesse said to his son David, “Take for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers;

1 Samuel 17:18 also take these ten cheeses to the commander of their thousand. See how your brothers fare, and bring some token from them.”

1 Samuel 17:19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

1 Samuel 17:20 David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, took the provisions, and went as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the encampment as the army was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry.

1 Samuel 17:21 Israel and the Philistines drew up for battle, army against army.

1 Samuel 17:22 David left the things in charge of the keeper of the baggage, ran to the ranks, and went and greeted his brothers.

1 Samuel 17:23 As he talked with them, the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, came up out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard him.

1 Samuel 17:24 All the Israelites, when they saw the man, fled from him and were very much afraid.

1 Samuel 17:25 The Israelites said, “Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel. The king will greatly enrich the man who kills him, and will give him his daughter and make his family free in Israel.”

1 Samuel 17:26 David said to the men who stood by him, “What shall be done for the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?”

1 Samuel 17:27 The people answered him in the same way, “So shall it be done for the man who kills him.”

1 Samuel 17:28 His eldest brother Eliab heard him talking to the men; and Eliab’s anger was kindled against David. He said, “Why have you come down? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your presumption and the evil of your heart; for you have come down just to see the battle.”

1 Samuel 17:29 David said, “What have I done now? It was only a question.”

1 Samuel 17:30 He turned away from him toward another and spoke in the same way; and the people answered him again as before.

1 Samuel 17:31 When the words that David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul; and he sent for him.

1 Samuel 17:32 David said to Saul, “Let no one’s heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.”

1 Samuel 17:33 Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.”

1 Samuel 17:34 But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock,

1 Samuel 17:35 I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it.

1 Samuel 17:36 Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.”

1 Samuel 17:37 David said, “The LORD, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” So Saul said to David, “Go, and may the LORD be with you!”

1 Samuel 17:38 Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail.

1 Samuel 17:39 David strapped Saul’s sword over the armor, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, “I cannot walk with these; for I am not used to them.” So David removed them.

1 Samuel 17:40 Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in his shepherd’s bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

1 Samuel 17:41 The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him.

1 Samuel 17:42 When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance.

1 Samuel 17:43 The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1 Samuel 17:44 The Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.”

1 Samuel 17:45 But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

1 Samuel 17:46 This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel,

1 Samuel 17:47 and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD's and he will give you into our hand."

1 Samuel 17:48 When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine.

1 Samuel 17:49 David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

1 Samuel 17:50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, striking down the Philistine and killing him; there was no sword in David's hand.

1 Samuel 17:51 Then David ran and stood over the Philistine; he grasped his sword, drew it out of its sheath, and killed him; then he cut off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

1 Samuel 17:52 The troops of Israel and Judah rose up with a shout and pursued the Philistines as far as Gath and the gates of Ekron, so that the wounded Philistines fell on the way from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron.

1 Samuel 17:53 The Israelites came back from chasing the Philistines, and they plundered their camp.

1 Samuel 17:54 David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent.

1 Samuel 17:55 When Saul saw David go out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?" Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."

1 Samuel 17:56 The king said, "Inquire whose son the stripling is."

1 Samuel 17:57 On David's return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

1 Samuel 17:58 Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

1 Samuel 18:1 When David had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

1 Samuel 18:2 Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father's house.

1 Samuel 18:3 Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul.

1 Samuel 18:4 Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that he was wearing, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his belt.

1 Samuel 18:5 David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; as a result, Saul set him over the army. And all the people, even the servants of Saul, approved.

1 Samuel 18:6 As they were coming home, when David returned from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with songs of joy, and with musical instruments.

1 Samuel 18:7 And the women sang to one another as they made merry, “Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands.”

1 Samuel 18:8 Saul was very angry, for this saying displeased him. He said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; what more can he have but the kingdom?”

1 Samuel 18:9 So Saul eyed David from that day on.

1 Samuel 18:10 The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand;

1 Samuel 18:11 and Saul threw the spear, for he thought, “I will pin David to the wall.” But David eluded him twice.

1 Samuel 18:12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul.

1 Samuel 18:13 So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and David marched out and came in, leading the army.

1 Samuel 18:14 David had success in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him.

1 Samuel 18:15 When Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him.

1 Samuel 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David; for it was he who marched out and came in leading them.

1 Samuel 18:17 Then Saul said to David, “Here is my elder daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the LORD’s battles.” For Saul thought, “I will not raise a hand against him; let the Philistines deal with him.”

1 Samuel 18:18 David said to Saul, “Who am I and who are my kinsfolk, my father’s family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?”

1 Samuel 18:19 But at the time when Saul’s daughter Merab should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife.

1 Samuel 18:20 Now Saul’s daughter Michal loved David. Saul was told, and the thing pleased him.

1 Samuel 18:21 Saul thought, “Let me give her to him that she may be a snare for him and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David a second time, “You shall now be my son-in-law.”

1 Samuel 18:22 Saul commanded his servants, “Speak to David in private and say, ‘See, the king is delighted with you, and all his servants love you; now then, become the king’s son-in-law.’“

1 Samuel 18:23 So Saul’s servants reported these words to David in private. And David said, “Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king’s son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and of no repute?”

1 Samuel 18:24 The servants of Saul told him, “This is what David said.”

1 Samuel 18:25 Then Saul said, “Thus shall you say to David, ‘The king desires no marriage present except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged on the king’s enemies.’“ Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 18:26 When his servants told David these words, David was well pleased to be the king’s son-in-law. Before the time had expired,

1 Samuel 18:27 David rose and went, along with his men, and killed one hundred of the Philistines; and David brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king’s son-in-law. Saul gave him his daughter Michal as a wife.

1 Samuel 18:28 But when Saul realized that the LORD was with David, and that Saul’s daughter Michal loved him,

1 Samuel 18:29 Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul was David’s enemy from that time forward.

1 Samuel 18:30 Then the commanders of the Philistines came out to battle; and as often as they came out, David had more success than all the servants of Saul, so that his fame became very great.

1 Samuel 19:1 Saul spoke with his son Jonathan and with all his servants about killing David. But Saul’s son Jonathan took great delight in David.

1 Samuel 19:2 Jonathan told David, “My father Saul is trying to kill you; therefore be on guard tomorrow morning; stay in a secret place and hide yourself.

1 Samuel 19:3 I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; if I learn anything I will tell you.”

1 Samuel 19:4 Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul, saying to him, “The king should not sin against his servant David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been of good service to you;

1 Samuel 19:5 for he took his life in his hand when he attacked the Philistine, and the LORD brought about a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced; why then will you sin against an innocent person by killing David without cause?”

1 Samuel 19:6 Saul heeded the voice of Jonathan; Saul swore, “As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death.”

1 Samuel 19:7 So Jonathan called David and related all these things to him. Jonathan then brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as before.

1 Samuel 19:8 Again there was war, and David went out to fight the Philistines. He launched a heavy attack on them, so that they fled before him.

1 Samuel 19:9 Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing music.

1 Samuel 19:10 Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear; but he eluded Saul, so that he struck the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped that night.

1 Samuel 19:11 Saul sent messengers to David’s house to keep watch over him, planning to kill him in the morning. David’s wife Michal told him, “If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed.”

1 Samuel 19:12 So Michal let David down through the window; he fled away and escaped.

1 Samuel 19:13 Michal took an idol and laid it on the bed; she put a net of goats’ hair on its head, and covered it with the clothes.

1 Samuel 19:14 When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, “He is sick.”

1 Samuel 19:15 Then Saul sent the messengers to see David for themselves. He said, “Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.”

1 Samuel 19:16 When the messengers came in, the idol was in the bed, with the covering of goats’ hair on its head.

1 Samuel 19:17 Saul said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me like this, and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?” Michal answered Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go; why should I kill you?’“

1 Samuel 19:18 Now David fled and escaped; he came to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. He and Samuel went and settled at Naioth.

1 Samuel 19:19 Saul was told, “David is at Naioth in Ramah.”

1 Samuel 19:20 Then Saul sent messengers to take David. When they saw the company of the prophets in a frenzy, with Samuel standing in charge of them, the spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also fell into a prophetic frenzy.

1 Samuel 19:21 When Saul was told, he sent other messengers, and they also fell into a frenzy. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also fell into a frenzy.

1 Samuel 19:22 Then he himself went to Ramah. He came to the great well that is in Secu; he asked, “Where are Samuel and David?” And someone said, “They are at Naioth in Ramah.”

1 Samuel 19:23 He went there, toward Naioth in Ramah; and the spirit of God came upon him. As he was going, he fell into a prophetic frenzy, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

1 Samuel 19:24 He too stripped off his clothes, and he too fell into a frenzy before Samuel. He lay naked all that day and all that night. Therefore it is said, “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 20:1 David fled from Naioth in Ramah. He came before Jonathan and said, “What have I done? What is my guilt? And what is my sin against your father that he is trying to take my life?”

1 Samuel 20:2 He said to him, “Far from it! You shall not die. My father does nothing either great or small without disclosing it to me; and why should my father hide this from me? Never!”

1 Samuel 20:3 But David also swore, “Your father knows well that you like me; and he thinks, ‘Do not let Jonathan know this, or he will be grieved.’ But truly, as the LORD lives and as you yourself live, there is but a step between me and death.”

1 Samuel 20:4 Then Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you say, I will do for you.”

1 Samuel 20:5 David said to Jonathan, “Tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at the meal; but let me go, so that I may hide in the field until the third evening.

1 Samuel 20:6 If your father misses me at all, then say, ‘David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.’

1 Samuel 20:7 If he says, ‘Good!’ it will be well with your servant; but if he is angry, then know that evil has been determined by him.

1 Samuel 20:8 Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a sacred covenant with you. But if there is guilt in me, kill me yourself; why should you bring me to your father?”

1 Samuel 20:9 Jonathan said, “Far be it from you! If I knew that it was decided by my father that evil should come upon you, would I not tell you?”

1 Samuel 20:10 Then David said to Jonathan, “Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?”

1 Samuel 20:11 Jonathan replied to David, “Come, let us go out into the field.” So they both went out into the field.

1 Samuel 20:12 Jonathan said to David, “By the LORD, the God of Israel! When I have sounded out my father, about this time tomorrow, or on the third day, if he is well disposed toward David, shall I not then send and disclose it to you?

1 Samuel 20:13 But if my father intends to do you harm, the LORD do so to Jonathan, and more also, if I do not disclose it to you, and send you away, so that you may go in safety. May the LORD be with you, as he has been with my father.

1 Samuel 20:14 If I am still alive, show me the faithful love of the LORD; but if I die,

1 Samuel 20:15 never cut off your faithful love from my house, even if the LORD were to cut off every one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth.”

1 Samuel 20:16 Thus Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “May the LORD seek out the enemies of David.”

1 Samuel 20:17 Jonathan made David swear again by his love for him; for he loved him as he loved his own life.

1 Samuel 20:18 Jonathan said to him, “Tomorrow is the new moon; you will be missed, because your place will be empty.

1 Samuel 20:19 On the day after tomorrow, you shall go a long way down; go to the place where you hid yourself earlier, and remain beside the stone there.

1 Samuel 20:20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I shot at a mark.

1 Samuel 20:21 Then I will send the boy, saying, ‘Go, find the arrows.’ If I say to the boy, ‘Look, the arrows are on this side of you, collect them,’ then you are to come, for, as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger.

1 Samuel 20:22 But if I say to the young man, ‘Look, the arrows are beyond you,’ then go; for the LORD has sent you away.

1 Samuel 20:23 As for the matter about which you and I have spoken, the LORD is witness between you and me forever.”

1 Samuel 20:24 So David hid himself in the field. When the new moon came, the king sat at the feast to eat.

1 Samuel 20:25 The king sat upon his seat, as at other times, upon the seat by the wall. Jonathan stood, while Abner sat by Saul’s side; but David’s place was empty.

1 Samuel 20:26 Saul did not say anything that day; for he thought, “Something has befallen him; he is not clean, surely he is not clean.”

1 Samuel 20:27 But on the second day, the day after the new moon, David’s place was empty. And Saul said to his son Jonathan, “Why has the son of Jesse not come to the feast, either yesterday or today?”

1 Samuel 20:28 Jonathan answered Saul, “David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem;

1 Samuel 20:29 he said, ‘Let me go; for our family is holding a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. So now, if I have found favor in your sight, let me get away, and see my brothers.’ For this reason he has not come to the king’s table.”

1 Samuel 20:30 Then Saul’s anger was kindled against Jonathan. He said to him, “You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother’s nakedness?

1 Samuel 20:31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon the earth, neither you nor your kingdom shall be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die.”

1 Samuel 20:32 Then Jonathan answered his father Saul, “Why should he be put to death? What has he done?”

1 Samuel 20:33 But Saul threw his spear at him to strike him; so Jonathan knew that it was the decision of his father to put David to death.

1 Samuel 20:34 Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate no food on the second day of the month, for he was grieved for David, and because his father had disgraced him.

1 Samuel 20:35 In the morning Jonathan went out into the field to the appointment with David, and with him was a little boy.

1 Samuel 20:36 He said to the boy, “Run and find the arrows that I shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

1 Samuel 20:37 When the boy came to the place where Jonathan’s arrow had fallen, Jonathan called after the boy and said, “Is the arrow not beyond you?”

1 Samuel 20:38 Jonathan called after the boy, “Hurry, be quick, do not linger.” So Jonathan’s boy gathered up the arrows and came to his master.

1 Samuel 20:39 But the boy knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement.

1 Samuel 20:40 Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and said to him, “Go and carry them to the city.”

1 Samuel 20:41 As soon as the boy had gone, David rose from beside the stone heap and prostrated himself with his face to the ground. He bowed three times, and they kissed each other, and wept with each other; David wept the more.

1 Samuel 20:42 Then Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, since both of us have sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘The LORD shall be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants, forever.’“ He got up and left; and Jonathan went into the city.

1 Samuel 21:1 David came to Nob to the priest Ahimelech. Ahimelech came trembling to meet David, and said to him, “Why are you alone, and no one with you?”

1 Samuel 21:2 David said to the priest Ahimelech, “The king has charged me with a matter, and said to me, ‘No one must know anything of the matter about which I send you, and with which I have charged you.’ I have made an appointment with the young men for such and such a place.

1 Samuel 21:3 Now then, what have you at hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever is here.”

1 Samuel 21:4 The priest answered David, “I have no ordinary bread at hand, only holy bread— provided that the young men have kept themselves from women.”

1 Samuel 21:5 David answered the priest, “Indeed women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy?”

1 Samuel 21:6 So the priest gave him the holy bread; for there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence, which is removed from before the LORD, to be replaced by hot bread on the day it is taken away.

1 Samuel 21:7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; his name was Doeg the Edomite, the chief of Saul’s shepherds.

1 Samuel 21:8 David said to Ahimelech, “Is there no spear or sword here with you? I did not bring my sword or my weapons with me, because the king’s business required haste.”

1 Samuel 21:9 The priest said, “The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if you will take that, take it, for there is none here except that one.” David said, “There is none like it; give it to me.”

1 Samuel 21:10 David rose and fled that day from Saul; he went to King Achish of Gath.

1 Samuel 21:11 The servants of Achish said to him, “Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing to one another of him in dances, ‘Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands’?”

1 Samuel 21:12 David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of King Achish of Gath.

1 Samuel 21:13 So he changed his behavior before them; he pretended to be mad when in their presence. He scratched marks on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle run down his beard.

1 Samuel 21:14 Achish said to his servants, “Look, you see the man is mad; why then have you brought him to me?

1 Samuel 21:15 Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?”

1 Samuel 22:1 David left there and escaped to the cave of Adullam; when his brothers and all his father’s house heard of it, they went down there to him.

1 Samuel 22:2 Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented gathered to him; and he became captain over them. Those who were with him numbered about four hundred.

1 Samuel 22:3 David went from there to Mizpeh of Moab. He said to the king of Moab, “Please let my father and mother come to you, until I know what God will do for me.”

1 Samuel 22:4 He left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

1 Samuel 22:5 Then the prophet Gad said to David, “Do not remain in the stronghold; leave, and go into the land of Judah.” So David left, and went into the forest of Hereth.

1 Samuel 22:6 Saul heard that David and those who were with him had been located. Saul was sitting at Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree on the height, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing around him.

1 Samuel 22:7 Saul said to his servants who stood around him, “Hear now, you Benjaminites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

1 Samuel 22:8 Is that why all of you have conspired against me? No one discloses to me when my son makes a league with the son of Jesse, none of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as he is doing today.”

1 Samuel 22:9 Doeg the Edomite, who was in charge of Saul’s servants, answered, “I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech son of Ahitub;

1 Samuel 22:10 he inquired of the LORD for him, gave him provisions, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

1 Samuel 22:11 The king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and for all his father's house, the priests who were at Nob; and all of them came to the king.

1 Samuel 22:12 Saul said, "Listen now, son of Ahitub." He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

1 Samuel 22:13 Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by giving him bread and a sword, and by inquiring of God for him, so that he has risen against me, to lie in wait, as he is doing today?"

1 Samuel 22:14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, "Who among all your servants is so faithful as David? He is the king's son-in-law, and is quick to do your bidding, and is honored in your house.

1 Samuel 22:15 Is today the first time that I have inquired of God for him? By no means! Do not let the king impute anything to his servant or to any member of my father's house; for your servant has known nothing of all this, much or little."

1 Samuel 22:16 The king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house."

1 Samuel 22:17 The king said to the guard who stood around him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David; they knew that he fled, and did not disclose it to me." But the servants of the king would not raise their hand to attack the priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 22:18 Then the king said to Doeg, "You, Doeg, turn and attack the priests." Doeg the Edomite turned and attacked the priests; on that day he killed eighty-five who wore the linen ephod.

1 Samuel 22:19 Nob, the city of the priests, he put to the sword; men and women, children and infants, oxen, donkeys, and sheep, he put to the sword.

1 Samuel 22:20 But one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.

1 Samuel 22:21 Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 22:22 David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for the lives of all your father's house.

1 Samuel 22:23 Stay with me, and do not be afraid; for the one who seeks my life seeks your life; you will be safe with me."

1 Samuel 23:1 Now they told David, "The Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and are robbing the threshing floors."

1 Samuel 23:2 David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?" The LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines and save Keilah."

1 Samuel 23:3 But David’s men said to him, “Look, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?”

1 Samuel 23:4 Then David inquired of the LORD again. The LORD answered him, “Yes, go down to Keilah; for I will give the Philistines into your hand.”

1 Samuel 23:5 So David and his men went to Keilah, fought with the Philistines, brought away their livestock, and dealt them a heavy defeat. Thus David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah.

1 Samuel 23:6 When Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

1 Samuel 23:7 Now it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, “God has given him into my hand; for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars.”

1 Samuel 23:8 Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

1 Samuel 23:9 When David learned that Saul was plotting evil against him, he said to the priest Abiathar, “Bring the ephod here.”

1 Samuel 23:10 David said, “O LORD, the God of Israel, your servant has heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on my account.

1 Samuel 23:11 And now, will Saul come down as your servant has heard? O LORD, the God of Israel, I beseech you, tell your servant.” The LORD said, “He will come down.”

1 Samuel 23:12 Then David said, “Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my men into the hand of Saul?” The LORD said, “They will surrender you.”

1 Samuel 23:13 Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, set out and left Keilah; they wandered wherever they could go. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he gave up the expedition.

1 Samuel 23:14 David remained in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill country of the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but the LORD did not give him into his hand.

1 Samuel 23:15 David was in the Wilderness of Ziph at Horesh when he learned that Saul had come out to seek his life.

1 Samuel 23:16 Saul’s son Jonathan set out and came to David at Horesh; there he strengthened his hand through the LORD.

1 Samuel 23:17 He said to him, “Do not be afraid; for the hand of my father Saul shall not find you; you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be second to you; my father Saul also knows that this is so.”

1 Samuel 23:18 Then the two of them made a covenant before the LORD; David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.

1 Samuel 23:19 Then some Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, “David is hiding among us in the strongholds of Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:20 Now, O king, whenever you wish to come down, do so; and our part will be to surrender him into the king’s hand.”

1 Samuel 23:21 Saul said, “May you be blessed by the LORD for showing me compassion!

1 Samuel 23:22 Go and make sure once more; find out exactly where he is, and who has seen him there; for I am told that he is very cunning.

1 Samuel 23:23 Look around and learn all the hiding places where he lurks, and come back to me with sure information. Then I will go with you; and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah.”

1 Samuel 23:24 So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:25 Saul and his men went to search for him. When David was told, he went down to the rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David into the wilderness of Maon.

1 Samuel 23:26 Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men on the other side of the mountain. David was hurrying to get away from Saul, while Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them.

1 Samuel 23:27 Then a messenger came to Saul, saying, “Hurry and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land.”

1 Samuel 23:28 So Saul stopped pursuing David, and went against the Philistines; therefore that place was called the Rock of Escape.

1 Samuel 23:29 David then went up from there, and lived in the strongholds of En-gedi.

1 Samuel 24:1 When Saul returned from following the Philistines, he was told, “David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.”

1 Samuel 24:2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to look for David and his men in the direction of the Rocks of the Wild Goats.

1 Samuel 24:3 He came to the sheepfolds beside the road, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the innermost parts of the cave.

1 Samuel 24:4 The men of David said to him, “Here is the day of which the LORD said to you, ‘I will give your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you.’“ Then David went and stealthily cut off a corner of Saul’s cloak.

1 Samuel 24:5 Afterward David was stricken to the heart because he had cut off a corner of Saul’s cloak.

1 Samuel 24:6 He said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD’s anointed, to raise my hand against him; for he is the LORD’s anointed.”

1 Samuel 24:7 So David scolded his men severely and did not permit them to attack Saul. Then Saul got up and left the cave, and went on his way.

1 Samuel 24:8 Afterwards David also rose up and went out of the cave and called after Saul, “My lord the king!” When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.

1 Samuel 24:9 David said to Saul, “Why do you listen to the words of those who say, ‘David seeks to do you harm’?

1 Samuel 24:10 This very day your eyes have seen how the LORD gave you into my hand in the cave; and some urged me to kill you, but I spared you. I said, ‘I will not raise my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD’s anointed.’

1 Samuel 24:11 See, my father, see the corner of your cloak in my hand; for by the fact that I cut off the corner of your cloak, and did not kill you, you may know for certain that there is no wrong or treason in my hands. I have not sinned against you, though you are hunting me to take my life.

1 Samuel 24:12 May the LORD judge between me and you! May the LORD avenge me on you; but my hand shall not be against you.

1 Samuel 24:13 As the ancient proverb says, ‘Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness’; but my hand shall not be against you.

1 Samuel 24:14 Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A single flea?

1 Samuel 24:15 May the LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you. May he see to it, and plead my cause, and vindicate me against you.”

1 Samuel 24:16 When David had finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” Saul lifted up his voice and wept.

1 Samuel 24:17 He said to David, “You are more righteous than I; for you have repaid me good, whereas I have repaid you evil.

1 Samuel 24:18 Today you have explained how you have dealt well with me, in that you did not kill me when the LORD put me into your hands.

1 Samuel 24:19 For who has ever found an enemy, and sent the enemy safely away? So may the LORD reward you with good for what you have done to me this day.

1 Samuel 24:20 Now I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand.

1 Samuel 24:21 Swear to me therefore by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me, and that you will not wipe out my name from my father's house."

1 Samuel 24:22 So David swore this to Saul. Then Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25:1 Now Samuel died; and all Israel assembled and mourned for him. They buried him at his home in Ramah. Then David got up and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

1 Samuel 25:2 There was a man in Maon, whose property was in Carmel. The man was very rich; he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

1 Samuel 25:3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife Abigail. The woman was clever and beautiful, but the man was surly and mean; he was a Calebite.

1 Samuel 25:4 David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep.

1 Samuel 25:5 So David sent ten young men; and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name.

1 Samuel 25:6 Thus you shall salute him: 'Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have.

1 Samuel 25:7 I hear that you have shearers; now your shepherds have been with us, and we did them no harm, and they missed nothing, all the time they were in Carmel.

1 Samuel 25:8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore let my young men find favor in your sight; for we have come on a feast day. Please give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David.'"

1 Samuel 25:9 When David's young men came, they said all this to Nabal in the name of David; and then they waited.

1 Samuel 25:10 But Nabal answered David's servants, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants today who are breaking away from their masters.

1 Samuel 25:11 Shall I take my bread and my water and the meat that I have butchered for my shearers, and give it to men who come from I do not know where?"

1 Samuel 25:12 So David's young men turned away, and came back and told him all this.

1 Samuel 25:13 David said to his men, "Every man strap on his sword!" And every one of them strapped on his sword; David also strapped on his sword; and about four hundred men went up after David, while two hundred remained with the baggage.

1 Samuel 25:14 But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "David sent messengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he shouted insults at them.

1 Samuel 25:15 Yet the men were very good to us, and we suffered no harm, and we never missed anything when we were in the fields, as long as we were with them;

1 Samuel 25:16 they were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

1 Samuel 25:17 Now therefore know this and consider what you should do; for evil has been decided against our master and against all his house; he is so ill-natured that no one can speak to him."

1 Samuel 25:18 Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, two skins of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five measures of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs. She loaded them on donkeys

1 Samuel 25:19 and said to her young men, "Go on ahead of me; I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:20 As she rode on the donkey and came down under cover of the mountain, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.

1 Samuel 25:21 Now David had said, "Surely it was in vain that I protected all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him; but he has returned me evil for good.

1 Samuel 25:22 God do so to David and more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him."

1 Samuel 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she hurried and alighted from the donkey, fell before David on her face, bowing to the ground.

1 Samuel 25:24 She fell at his feet and said, "Upon me alone, my lord, be the guilt; please let your servant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your servant.

1 Samuel 25:25 My lord, do not take seriously this ill-natured fellow, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I, your servant, did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.

1 Samuel 25:26 Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, since the LORD has restrained you from bloodguilt and from taking vengeance with your own hand, now let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be like Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:27 And now let this present that your servant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord.

1 Samuel 25:28 Please forgive the trespass of your servant; for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD; and evil shall not be found in you so long as you live.

1 Samuel 25:29 If anyone should rise up to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living under the care of the LORD your God; but the lives of your enemies he shall sling out as from the hollow of a sling.

1 Samuel 25:30 When the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you prince over Israel,

1 Samuel 25:31 my lord shall have no cause of grief, or pangs of conscience, for having shed blood without cause or for having saved himself. And when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your servant."

1 Samuel 25:32 David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you to meet me today!

1 Samuel 25:33 Blessed be your good sense, and blessed be you, who have kept me today from bloodguilt and from avenging myself by my own hand!

1 Samuel 25:34 For as surely as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, truly by morning there would not have been left to Nabal so much as one male."

1 Samuel 25:35 Then David received from her hand what she had brought him; he said to her, "Go up to your house in peace; see, I have heeded your voice, and I have granted your petition."

1 Samuel 25:36 Abigail came to Nabal; he was holding a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk; so she told him nothing at all until the morning light.

1 Samuel 25:37 In the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him; he became like a stone.

1 Samuel 25:38 About ten days later the LORD struck Nabal, and he died.

1 Samuel 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD who has judged the case of Nabal's insult to me, and has kept back his servant from evil; the LORD has returned the evildoing of Nabal upon his own head.” Then David sent and wooed Abigail, to make her his wife.

1 Samuel 25:40 When David’s servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they said to her, “David has sent us to you to take you to him as his wife.”

1 Samuel 25:41 She rose and bowed down, with her face to the ground, and said, “Your servant is a slave to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.”

1 Samuel 25:42 Abigail got up hurriedly and rode away on a donkey; her five maids attended her. She went after the messengers of David and became his wife.

1 Samuel 25:43 David also married Ahinoam of Jezreel; both of them became his wives.

1 Samuel 25:44 Saul had given his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26:1 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, “David is in hiding on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon.”

1 Samuel 26:2 So Saul rose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, with three thousand chosen men of Israel, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.

1 Samuel 26:3 Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is opposite Jeshimon beside the road. But David remained in the wilderness. When he learned that Saul came after him into the wilderness,

1 Samuel 26:4 David sent out spies, and learned that Saul had indeed arrived.

1 Samuel 26:5 Then David set out and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, with Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army. Saul was lying within the encampment, while the army was encamped around him.

1 Samuel 26:6 Then David said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Joab’s brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, “Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?” Abishai said, “I will go down with you.”

1 Samuel 26:7 So David and Abishai went to the army by night; there Saul lay sleeping within the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the army lay around him.

1 Samuel 26:8 Abishai said to David, “God has given your enemy into your hand today; now therefore let me pin him to the ground with one stroke of the spear; I will not strike him twice.”

1 Samuel 26:9 But David said to Abishai, “Do not destroy him; for who can raise his hand against the LORD’s anointed, and be guiltless?”

1 Samuel 26:10 David said, “As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him down; or his day will come to die; or he will go down into battle and perish.

1 Samuel 26:11 The LORD forbid that I should raise my hand against the LORD’s anointed; but now take the spear that is at his head, and the water jar, and let us go.”

1 Samuel 26:12 So David took the spear that was at Saul’s head and the water jar, and they went away. No one saw it, or knew it, nor did anyone awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

1 Samuel 26:13 Then David went over to the other side, and stood on top of a hill far away, with a great distance between them.

1 Samuel 26:14 David called to the army and to Abner son of Ner, saying, “Abner! Will you not answer?” Then Abner replied, “Who are you that calls to the king?”

1 Samuel 26:15 David said to Abner, “Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy your lord the king.

1 Samuel 26:16 This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD’s anointed. See now, where is the king’s spear, or the water jar that was at his head?”

1 Samuel 26:17 Saul recognized David’s voice, and said, “Is this your voice, my son David?” David said, “It is my voice, my lord, O king.”

1 Samuel 26:18 And he added, “Why does my lord pursue his servant? For what have I done? What guilt is on my hands?

1 Samuel 26:19 Now therefore let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is the LORD who has stirred you up against me, may he accept an offering; but if it is mortals, may they be cursed before the LORD, for they have driven me out today from my share in the heritage of the LORD, saying, ‘Go, serve other gods.’

1 Samuel 26:20 Now therefore, do not let my blood fall to the ground, away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek a single flea, like one who hunts a partridge in the mountains.”

1 Samuel 26:21 Then Saul said, “I have done wrong; come back, my son David, for I will never harm you again, because my life was precious in your sight today; I have been a fool, and have made a great mistake.”

1 Samuel 26:22 David replied, “Here is the spear, O king! Let one of the young men come over and get it.

1 Samuel 26:23 The LORD rewards everyone for his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD gave you into my hand today, but I would not raise my hand against the LORD’s anointed.

1 Samuel 26:24 As your life was precious today in my sight, so may my life be precious in the sight of the LORD, and may he rescue me from all tribulation.”

1 Samuel 26:25 Then Saul said to David, “Blessed be you, my son David! You will do many things and will succeed in them.” So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

1 Samuel 27:1 David said in his heart, “I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul; there is nothing better for me than to escape to the land of the Philistines; then Saul will despair of seeking me any longer within the borders of Israel, and I shall escape out of his hand.”

1 Samuel 27:2 So David set out and went over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to King Achish son of Maoch of Gath.

1 Samuel 27:3 David stayed with Achish at Gath, he and his troops, every man with his household, and David with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal’s widow.

1 Samuel 27:4 When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer sought for him.

1 Samuel 27:5 Then David said to Achish, “If I have found favor in your sight, let a place be given me in one of the country towns, so that I may live there; for why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

1 Samuel 27:6 So that day Achish gave him Ziklag; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

1 Samuel 27:7 The length of time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was one year and four months.

1 Samuel 27:8 Now David and his men went up and made raids on the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for these were the landed settlements from Telam on the way to Shur and on to the land of Egypt.

1 Samuel 27:9 David struck the land, leaving neither man nor woman alive, but took away the sheep, the oxen, the donkeys, the camels, and the clothing, and came back to Achish.

1 Samuel 27:10 When Achish asked, “Against whom have you made a raid today?” David would say, “Against the Negeb of Judah,” or “Against the Negeb of the Jerahmeelites,” or, “Against the Negeb of the Kenites.”

1 Samuel 27:11 David left neither man nor woman alive to be brought back to Gath, thinking, “They might tell about us, and say, ‘David has done so and so.’“ Such was his practice all the time he lived in the country of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 27:12 Achish trusted David, thinking, “He has made himself utterly abhorrent to his people Israel; therefore he shall always be my servant.”

1 Samuel 28:1 In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, “You know, of course, that you and your men are to go out with me in the army.”

1 Samuel 28:2 David said to Achish, “Very well, then you shall know what your servant can do.” Achish said to David, “Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life.”

1 Samuel 28:3 Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, his own city. Saul had expelled the mediums and the wizards from the land.

1 Samuel 28:4 The Philistines assembled, and came and encamped at Shunem. Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa.

1 Samuel 28:5 When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

1 Samuel 28:6 When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, not by dreams, or by Urim, or by prophets.

1 Samuel 28:7 Then Saul said to his servants, “Seek out for me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go to her and inquire of her.” His servants said to him, “There is a medium at Endor.”

1 Samuel 28:8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other clothes and went there, he and two men with him. They came to the woman by night. And he said, “Consult a spirit for me, and bring up for me the one whom I name to you.”

1 Samuel 28:9 The woman said to him, “Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the wizards from the land. Why then are you laying a snare for my life to bring about my death?”

1 Samuel 28:10 But Saul swore to her by the LORD, “As the LORD lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing.”

1 Samuel 28:11 Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” He answered, “Bring up Samuel for me.”

1 Samuel 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman said to Saul, “Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!”

1 Samuel 28:13 The king said to her, “Have no fear; what do you see?” The woman said to Saul, “I see a divine being coming up out of the ground.”

1 Samuel 28:14 He said to her, “What is his appearance?” She said, “An old man is coming up; he is wrapped in a robe.” So Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and did obeisance.

1 Samuel 28:15 Then Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” Saul answered, “I am in great distress, for the Philistines are warring against me, and God has turned away from me and answers me no more, either by prophets or by dreams; so I have summoned you to tell me what I should do."

1 Samuel 28:16 Samuel said, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and become your enemy?

1 Samuel 28:17 The LORD has done to you just as he spoke by me; for the LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, David.

1 Samuel 28:18 Because you did not obey the voice of the LORD, and did not carry out his fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you today.

1 Samuel 28:19 Moreover the LORD will give Israel along with you into the hands of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me; the LORD will also give the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines."

1 Samuel 28:20 Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.

1 Samuel 28:21 The woman came to Saul, and when she saw that he was terrified, she said to him, "Your servant has listened to you; I have taken my life in my hand, and have listened to what you have said to me.

1 Samuel 28:22 Now therefore, you also listen to your servant; let me set a morsel of bread before you. Eat, that you may have strength when you go on your way."

1 Samuel 28:23 He refused, and said, "I will not eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him; and he listened to their words. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed.

1 Samuel 28:24 Now the woman had a fatted calf in the house. She quickly slaughtered it, and she took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened cakes.

1 Samuel 28:25 She put them before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they rose and went away that night.

1 Samuel 29:1 Now the Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, while the Israelites were encamped by the fountain that is in Jezreel.

1 Samuel 29:2 As the lords of the Philistines were passing on by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were passing on in the rear with Achish,

1 Samuel 29:3 the commanders of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?" Achish said to the commanders of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of King Saul of Israel, who has been with me now for days and years? Since he deserted to me I have found no fault in him to this day."

1 Samuel 29:4 But the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him; and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, so that he may return to the place that you have assigned to him; he shall not go down with us to battle, or else he may become an adversary to us in the battle. For how could this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Would it not be with the heads of the men here?

1 Samuel 29:5 Is this not David, of whom they sing to one another in dances, 'Saul has killed his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?"

1 Samuel 29:6 Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been honest, and to me it seems right that you should march out and in with me in the campaign; for I have found nothing wrong in you from the day of your coming to me until today. Nevertheless the lords do not approve of you.

1 Samuel 29:7 So go back now; and go peaceably; do nothing to displease the lords of the Philistines."

1 Samuel 29:8 David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant from the day I entered your service until now, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

1 Samuel 29:9 Achish replied to David, "I know that you are as blameless in my sight as an angel of God; nevertheless, the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.'

1 Samuel 29:10 Now then rise early in the morning, you and the servants of your lord who came with you, and go to the place that I appointed for you. As for the evil report, do not take it to heart, for you have done well before me. Start early in the morning, and leave as soon as you have light."

1 Samuel 29:11 So David set out with his men early in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30:1 Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negeb and on Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag, burned it down,

1 Samuel 30:2 and taken captive the women and all who were in it, both small and great; they killed none of them, but carried them off, and went their way.

1 Samuel 30:3 When David and his men came to the city, they found it burned down, and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

1 Samuel 30:4 Then David and the people who were with him raised their voices and wept, until they had no more strength to weep.

1 Samuel 30:5 David's two wives also had been taken captive, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

1 Samuel 30:6 David was in great danger; for the people spoke of stoning him, because all the people were bitter in spirit for their sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

1 Samuel 30:7 David said to the priest Abiathar son of Ahimelech, “Bring me the ephod.” So Abiathar brought the ephod to David.

1 Samuel 30:8 David inquired of the LORD, “Shall I pursue this band? Shall I overtake them?” He answered him, “Pursue; for you shall surely overtake and shall surely rescue.”

1 Samuel 30:9 So David set out, he and the six hundred men who were with him. They came to the Wadi Besor, where those stayed who were left behind.

1 Samuel 30:10 But David went on with the pursuit, he and four hundred men; two hundred stayed behind, too exhausted to cross the Wadi Besor.

1 Samuel 30:11 In the open country they found an Egyptian, and brought him to David. They gave him bread and he ate, they gave him water to drink;

1 Samuel 30:12 they also gave him a piece of fig cake and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit revived; for he had not eaten bread or drunk water for three days and three nights.

1 Samuel 30:13 Then David said to him, “To whom do you belong? Where are you from?” He said, “I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite. My master left me behind because I fell sick three days ago.

1 Samuel 30:14 We had made a raid on the Negeb of the Cherethites and on that which belongs to Judah and on the Negeb of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag down.”

1 Samuel 30:15 David said to him, “Will you take me down to this raiding party?” He said, “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me, or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to them.”

1 Samuel 30:16 When he had taken him down, they were spread out all over the ground, eating and drinking and dancing, because of the great amount of spoil they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah.

1 Samuel 30:17 David attacked them from twilight until the evening of the next day. Not one of them escaped, except four hundred young men, who mounted camels and fled.

1 Samuel 30:18 David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives.

1 Samuel 30:19 Nothing was missing, whether small or great, sons or daughters, spoil or anything that had been taken; David brought back everything.

1 Samuel 30:20 David also captured all the flocks and herds, which were driven ahead of the other cattle; people said, “This is David’s spoil.”

1 Samuel 30:21 Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow David, and who had been left at the Wadi

Besor. They went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. When David drew near to the people he saluted them.

1 Samuel 30:22 Then all the corrupt and worthless fellows among the men who had gone with David said, “Because they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we have recovered, except that each man may take his wife and children, and leave.”

1 Samuel 30:23 But David said, “You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us; he has preserved us and handed over to us the raiding party that attacked us.

1 Samuel 30:24 Who would listen to you in this matter? For the share of the one who goes down into the battle shall be the same as the share of the one who stays by the baggage; they shall share alike.”

1 Samuel 30:25 From that day forward he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel; it continues to the present day.

1 Samuel 30:26 When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the spoil to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, “Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD”;

1 Samuel 30:27 it was for those in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negeb, in Jattir,

1 Samuel 30:28 in Aroer, in Siphmoth, in Eshtemoa,

1 Samuel 30:29 in Racal, in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, in the towns of the Kenites,

1 Samuel 30:30 in Hormah, in Bor-ashan, in Athach,

1 Samuel 30:31 in Hebron, all the places where David and his men had roamed.

1 Samuel 31:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, and many fell on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:2 The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons; and the Philistines killed Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchishua, the sons of Saul.

1 Samuel 31:3 The battle pressed hard upon Saul; the archers found him, and he was badly wounded by them.

1 Samuel 31:4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, “Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, so that these uncircumcised may not come and thrust me through, and make sport of me.” But his armor-bearer was unwilling; for he was terrified. So Saul took his own sword and fell upon it.

1 Samuel 31:5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword and died with him.

1 Samuel 31:6 So Saul and his three sons and his armor-bearer and all his men died together on the same day.

1 Samuel 31:7 When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those beyond the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their towns and fled; and the Philistines came and occupied them.

1 Samuel 31:8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:9 They cut off his head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to carry the good news to the houses of their idols and to the people.

1 Samuel 31:10 They put his armor in the temple of Astarte; and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

1 Samuel 31:11 But when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul,

1 Samuel 31:12 all the valiant men set out, traveled all night long, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan. They came to Jabesh and burned them there.

1 Samuel 31:13 Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

2 Samuel

1:1 After the death of Saul, when David had returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained two days in Ziklag.

2 Samuel 1:2 On the third day, a man came from Saul’s camp, with his clothes torn and dirt on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground and did obeisance.

2 Samuel 1:3 David said to him, “Where have you come from?” He said to him, “I have escaped from the camp of Israel.”

2 Samuel 1:4 David said to him, “How did things go? Tell me!” He answered, “The army fled from the battle, but also many of the army fell and died; and Saul and his son Jonathan also died.”

2 Samuel 1:5 Then David asked the young man who was reporting to him, “How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan died?”

2 Samuel 1:6 The young man reporting to him said, “I happened to be on Mount Gilboa; and there was Saul leaning on his spear, while the chariots and the horsemen drew close to him.

2 Samuel 1:7 When he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. I answered, ‘Here sir.’

2 Samuel 1:8 And he said to me, ‘Who are you?’ I answered him, ‘I am an Amalekite.’

2 Samuel 1:9 He said to me, ‘Come, stand over me and kill me; for convulsions have seized me, and yet my life still lingers.’

2 Samuel 1:10 So I stood over him, and killed him, for I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head and the armlet that was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord.”

2 Samuel 1:11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them; and all the men who were with him did the same.

2 Samuel 1:12 They mourned and wept, and fasted until evening for Saul and for his son Jonathan, and for the army of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2 Samuel 1:13 David said to the young man who had reported to him, “Where do you come from?” He answered, “I am the son of a resident alien, an Amalekite.”

2 Samuel 1:14 David said to him, “Were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?”

2 Samuel 1:15 Then David called one of the young men and said, “Come here and strike him down.” So he struck him down and he died.

2 Samuel 1:16 David said to him, “Your blood be on your head; for your own mouth has testified against you, saying, ‘I have killed the LORD’s anointed.’“

2 Samuel 1:17 David intoned this lamentation over Saul and his son Jonathan.

2 Samuel 1:18 (He ordered that The Song of the Bow be taught to the people of Judah; it is written in the Book of Jashar.) He said:

2 Samuel 1:19 Your glory, O Israel, lies slain upon your high places! How the mighty have fallen!

2 Samuel 1:20 Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon; or the daughters of the Philistines will rejoice, the daughters of the uncircumcised will exult.

2 Samuel 1:21 You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew or rain upon you, nor bounteous fields! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, anointed with oil no more.

2 Samuel 1:22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, nor the sword of Saul return empty.

2 Samuel 1:23 Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely! In life and in death they were not divided; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

2 Samuel 1:24 O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you with crimson, in luxury, who put ornaments of gold on your apparel.

2 Samuel 1:25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan lies slain upon your high places.

2 Samuel 1:26 I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; greatly beloved were you to me; your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

2 Samuel 1:27 How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

2 Samuel 2:1 After this David inquired of the LORD, “Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?” The LORD said to him, “Go up.” David said, “To which shall I go up?” He said, “To Hebron.”

2 Samuel 2:2 So David went up there, along with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

2 Samuel 2:3 David brought up the men who were with him, every one with his household; and they settled in the towns of Hebron.

2 Samuel 2:4 Then the people of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. When they told David, “It was the people of Jabesh-gilead who buried Saul,”

2 Samuel 2:5 David sent messengers to the people of Jabesh-gilead, and said to them, “May you be blessed by the LORD, because you showed this loyalty to Saul your lord, and buried him!

2 Samuel 2:6 Now may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you! And I too will reward you because you have done this thing.

2 Samuel 2:7 Therefore let your hands be strong, and be valiant; for Saul your lord is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

2 Samuel 2:8 But Abner son of Ner, commander of Saul’s army, had taken Ishbaal son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 2:9 He made him king over Gilead, the Ashurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and over all Israel.

2 Samuel 2:10 Ishbaal, Saul’s son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

2 Samuel 2:11 The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

2 Samuel 2:12 Abner son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbaal son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:13 Joab son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat on one side of the pool, while the other sat on the other side of the pool.

2 Samuel 2:14 Abner said to Joab, “Let the young men come forward and have a contest before us.” Joab said, “Let them come forward.”

2 Samuel 2:15 So they came forward and were counted as they passed by, twelve for Benjamin and Ishbaal son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

2 Samuel 2:16 Each grasped his opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkath-hazzurim, which is at Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:17 The battle was very fierce that day; and Abner and the men of Israel were beaten by the servants of David.

2 Samuel 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel was as swift of foot as a wild gazelle.

2 Samuel 2:19 Asahel pursued Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left as he followed him.

2 Samuel 2:20 Then Abner looked back and said, "Is it you, Asahel?" He answered, "Yes, it is."

2 Samuel 2:21 Abner said to him, "Turn to your right or to your left, and seize one of the young men, and take his spoil." But Asahel would not turn away from following him.

2 Samuel 2:22 Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn away from following me; why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I show my face to your brother Joab?"

2 Samuel 2:23 But he refused to turn away. So Abner struck him in the stomach with the butt of his spear, so that the spear came out at his back. He fell there, and died where he lay. And all those who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, stood still.

2 Samuel 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner. As the sun was going down they came to the hill of Ammah, which lies before Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:25 The Benjaminites rallied around Abner and formed a single band; they took their stand on the top of a hill.

2 Samuel 2:26 Then Abner called to Joab, "Is the sword to keep devouring forever? Do you not know that the end will be bitter? How long will it be before you order your people to turn from the pursuit of their kinsmen?"

2 Samuel 2:27 Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, the people would have continued to pursue their kinsmen, not stopping until morning."

2 Samuel 2:28 Joab sounded the trumpet and all the people stopped; they no longer pursued Israel or engaged in battle any further.

2 Samuel 2:29 Abner and his men traveled all that night through the Arabah; they crossed the Jordan, and, marching the whole forenoon, they came to Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 2:30 Joab returned from the pursuit of Abner; and when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of David’s servants nineteen men besides Asahel.

2 Samuel 2:31 But the servants of David had killed of Benjamin three hundred sixty of Abner’s men.

2 Samuel 2:32 They took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was at Bethlehem. Joab and his men marched all night, and the day broke upon them at Hebron.

2 Samuel 3:1 There was a long war between the house of Saul and the house of David; David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul became weaker and weaker.

2 Samuel 3:2 Sons were born to David at Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, of Ahinoam of Jezreel;

2 Samuel 3:3 his second, Chileab, of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third, Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of King Talmai of Geshur;

2 Samuel 3:4 the fourth, Adonijah son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah son of Abital;

2 Samuel 3:5 and the sixth, Ithream, of David’s wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

2 Samuel 3:6 While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was making himself strong in the house of Saul.

2 Samuel 3:7 Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah daughter of Aiah. And Ishbaal said to Abner, “Why have you gone in to my father’s concubine?”

2 Samuel 3:8 The words of Ishbaal made Abner very angry; he said, “Am I a dog’s head for Judah? Today I keep showing loyalty to the house of your father Saul, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not given you into the hand of David; and yet you charge me now with a crime concerning this woman.

2 Samuel 3:9 So may God do to Abner and so may he add to it! For just what the LORD has sworn to David, that will I accomplish for him,

2 Samuel 3:10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Beer-sheba.”

2 Samuel 3:11 And Ishbaal could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him.

2 Samuel 3:12 Abner sent messengers to David at Hebron, saying, “To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and I will give you my support to bring all Israel over to you.”

2 Samuel 3:13 He said, “Good; I will make a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you shall never appear in my presence unless you bring Saul’s daughter Michal when you come to see me.”

2 Samuel 3:14 Then David sent messengers to Saul’s son Ishbaal, saying, “Give me my wife Michal, to whom I became engaged at the price of one hundred foreskins of the Philistines.”

2 Samuel 3:15 Ishbaal sent and took her from her husband Paltiel the son of Laish.

2 Samuel 3:16 But her husband went with her, weeping as he walked behind her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, “Go back home!” So he went back.

2 Samuel 3:17 Abner sent word to the elders of Israel, saying, “For some time past you have been seeking David as king over you.

2 Samuel 3:18 Now then bring it about; for the LORD has promised David: Through my servant David I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines, and from all their enemies.”

2 Samuel 3:19 Abner also spoke directly to the Benjaminites; then Abner went to tell David at Hebron all that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin were ready to do.

2 Samuel 3:20 When Abner came with twenty men to David at Hebron, David made a feast for Abner and the men who were with him.

2 Samuel 3:21 Abner said to David, “Let me go and rally all Israel to my lord the king, in order that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your heart desires.” So David dismissed Abner, and he went away in peace.

2 Samuel 3:22 Just then the servants of David arrived with Joab from a raid, bringing much spoil with them. But Abner was not with David at Hebron, for David had dismissed him, and he had gone away in peace.

2 Samuel 3:23 When Joab and all the army that was with him came, it was told Joab, “Abner son of Ner came to the king, and he has dismissed him, and he has gone away in peace.”

2 Samuel 3:24 Then Joab went to the king and said, “What have you done? Abner came to you; why did you dismiss him, so that he got away?

2 Samuel 3:25 You know that Abner son of Ner came to deceive you, and to learn your comings and goings and to learn all that you are doing.”

2 Samuel 3:26 When Joab came out from David’s presence, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah; but David did not know about it.

2 Samuel 3:27 When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gateway to speak with him privately, and there he stabbed him in the stomach. So he died for shedding the blood of Asahel, Joab’s brother.

2 Samuel 3:28 Afterward, when David heard of it, he said, “I and my kingdom are forever guiltless before the LORD for the blood of Abner son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:29 May the guilt fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father’s house; and may the house of Joab never be without one who has a discharge, or who is leprous, or who holds a spindle, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks food!”

2 Samuel 3:30 So Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon.

2 Samuel 3:31 Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your clothes, and put on sackcloth, and mourn over Abner.” And King David followed the bier.

2 Samuel 3:32 They buried Abner at Hebron. The king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

2 Samuel 3:33 The king lamented for Abner, saying, “Should Abner die as a fool dies?

2 Samuel 3:34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered; as one falls before the wicked you have fallen.” And all the people wept over him again.

2 Samuel 3:35 Then all the people came to persuade David to eat something while it was still day; but David swore, saying, “So may God do to me, and more, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun goes down!”

2 Samuel 3:36 All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; just as everything the king did pleased all the people.

2 Samuel 3:37 So all the people and all Israel understood that day that the king had no part in the killing of Abner son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:38 And the king said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?

2 Samuel 3:39 Today I am powerless, even though anointed king; these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too violent for me. The LORD pay back the one who does wickedly in accordance with his wickedness!”

2 Samuel 4:1 When Saul’s son Ishbaal heard that Abner had died at Hebron, his courage failed, and all Israel was dismayed.

2 Samuel 4:2 Saul’s son had two captains of raiding bands; the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab. They were sons of Rimmon a Benjaminite from Beeroth— for Beeroth is considered to belong to Benjamin.

2 Samuel 4:3 (Now the people of Beeroth had fled to Gittaim and are there as resident aliens to this day).

2 Samuel 4:4 Saul’s son Jonathan had a son who was crippled in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled; and, in her haste to flee, it happened that he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

2 Samuel 4:5 Now the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out, and about the heat of the day they came to the house of Ishbaal, while he was taking his noonday rest.

2 Samuel 4:6 They came inside the house as though to take wheat, and they struck him in the stomach; then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped.

2 Samuel 4:7 Now they had come into the house while he was lying on his couch in his bedchamber; they attacked him, killed him, and beheaded him. Then they took his head and traveled by way of the Arabah all night long.

2 Samuel 4:8 They brought the head of Ishbaal to David at Hebron and said to the king, “Here is the head of Ishbaal, son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day on Saul and on his offspring.”

2 Samuel 4:9 David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, “As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life out of every adversity,

2 Samuel 4:10 when the one who told me, ‘See, Saul is dead,’ thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and killed him at Ziklag— this was the reward I gave him for his news.

2 Samuel 4:11 How much more then, when wicked men have killed a righteous man on his bed in his own house! And now shall I not require his blood at your hand, and destroy you from the earth?”

2 Samuel 4:12 So David commanded the young men, and they killed them; they cut off their hands and feet, and hung their bodies beside the pool at Hebron. But the head of Ishbaal they took and buried in the tomb of Abner at Hebron.

2 Samuel 5:1 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, “Look, we are your bone and flesh.

2 Samuel 5:2 For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The LORD said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.”

2 Samuel 5:3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.

2 Samuel 5:4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

2 Samuel 5:5 At Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah thirty-three years.

2 Samuel 5:6 The king and his men marched to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who said to David, “You will not come in here, even the blind and the lame will turn you back”—thinking, “David cannot come in here.”

2 Samuel 5:7 Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion, which is now the city of David.

2 Samuel 5:8 David had said on that day, “Whoever would strike down the Jebusites, let him get up the water shaft to attack the lame and the blind, those whom David hates.” Therefore it is said, “The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.”

2 Samuel 5:9 David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inward.

2 Samuel 5:10 And David became greater and greater, for the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him.

2 Samuel 5:11 King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar trees, and carpenters and masons who built David a house.

2 Samuel 5:12 David then perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

2 Samuel 5:13 In Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives; and more sons and daughters were born to David.

2 Samuel 5:14 These are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2 Samuel 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2 Samuel 5:16 Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

2 Samuel 5:17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David; but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.

2 Samuel 5:18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 5:19 David inquired of the LORD, “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you give them into my hand?” The LORD said to David, “Go up; for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand.”

2 Samuel 5:20 So David came to Baal-perazim, and David defeated them there. He said, “The LORD has burst forth against my enemies before me, like a bursting flood.” Therefore that place is called Baal-perazim.

2 Samuel 5:21 The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.

2 Samuel 5:22 Once again the Philistines came up, and were spread out in the valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 5:23 When David inquired of the LORD, he said, “You shall not go up; go around to their rear, and come upon them opposite the balsam trees.

2 Samuel 5:24 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then be on the alert; for then the LORD has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines.”

2 Samuel 5:25 David did just as the LORD had commanded him; and he struck down the Philistines from Geba all the way to Gezer.

2 Samuel 6:1 David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand.

2 Samuel 6:2 David and all the people with him set out and went from Baale-judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the name of the LORD of hosts who is enthroned on the cherubim.

2 Samuel 6:3 They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart

2 Samuel 6:4 with the ark of God; and Ahio went in front of the ark.

2 Samuel 6:5 David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all their might, with songs and lyres and harps and tambourines and castanets and cymbals.

2 Samuel 6:6 When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen shook it.

2 Samuel 6:7 The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God struck him there because he reached out his hand to the ark; and he died there beside the ark of God.

2 Samuel 6:8 David was angry because the LORD had burst forth with an outburst upon Uzzah; so that place is called Perez-uzzah, to this day.

2 Samuel 6:9 David was afraid of the LORD that day; he said, “How can the ark of the LORD come into my care?”

2 Samuel 6:10 So David was unwilling to take the ark of the LORD into his care in the city of David; instead David took it to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

2 Samuel 6:11 The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months; and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

2 Samuel 6:12 It was told King David, “The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God.” So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing;

2 Samuel 6:13 and when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling.

2 Samuel 6:14 David danced before the LORD with all his might; David was girded with a linen ephod.

2 Samuel 6:15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

2 Samuel 6:16 As the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal daughter of Saul looked out of the window, and saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

2 Samuel 6:17 They brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, inside the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being before the LORD.

2 Samuel 6:18 When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the offerings of well-being, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts,

2 Samuel 6:19 and distributed food among all the people, the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to each a cake of bread, a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. Then all the people went back to their homes.

2 Samuel 6:20 David returned to bless his household. But Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, “How the king of Israel honored himself today, uncovering himself today before the eyes of his servants’ maids, as any vulgar fellow might shamelessly uncover himself!”

2 Samuel 6:21 David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me in place of your father and all his household, to appoint me as prince over Israel, the people of the LORD, that I have danced before the LORD.

2 Samuel 6:22 I will make myself yet more contemptible than this, and I will be abased in my own eyes; but by the maids of whom you have spoken, by them I shall be held in honor.”

2 Samuel 6:23 And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7:1 Now when the king was settled in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him,

2 Samuel 7:2 the king said to the prophet Nathan, “See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent.”

2 Samuel 7:3 Nathan said to the king, “Go, do all that you have in mind; for the LORD is with you.”

2 Samuel 7:4 But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan:

2 Samuel 7:5 Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the LORD: Are you the one to build me a house to live in?

2 Samuel 7:6 I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle.

2 Samuel 7:7 Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”

2 Samuel 7:8 Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel;

2 Samuel 7:9 and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.

2 Samuel 7:10 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly,

2 Samuel 7:11 from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the LORD declares to you that the LORD will make you a house.

2 Samuel 7:12 When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom.

2 Samuel 7:13 He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever.

2 Samuel 7:14 I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings.

2 Samuel 7:15 But I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you.

2 Samuel 7:16 Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me; your throne shall be established forever.

2 Samuel 7:17 In accordance with all these words and with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

2 Samuel 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and said, “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?

2 Samuel 7:19 And yet this was a small thing in your eyes, O Lord GOD; you have spoken also of your servant’s house for a great while to come. May this be instruction for the people, O Lord GOD!

2 Samuel 7:20 And what more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Lord GOD!

2 Samuel 7:21 Because of your promise, and according to your own heart, you have wrought all this greatness, so that your servant may know it.

2 Samuel 7:22 Therefore you are great, O LORD God; for there is no one like you, and there is no God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

2 Samuel 7:23 Who is like your people, like Israel? Is there another nation on earth whose God went to redeem it as a people, and to make a name for himself, doing great and awesome things for them, by driving out before his people nations and their gods?

2 Samuel 7:24 And you established your people Israel for yourself to be your people forever; and you, O LORD, became their God.

2 Samuel 7:25 And now, O LORD God, as for the word that you have spoken concerning your servant and concerning his house, confirm it forever; do as you have promised.

2 Samuel 7:26 Thus your name will be magnified forever in the saying, 'The LORD of hosts is God over Israel'; and the house of your servant David will be established before you.

2 Samuel 7:27 For you, O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have made this revelation to your servant, saying, 'I will build you a house'; therefore your servant has found courage to pray this prayer to you.

2 Samuel 7:28 And now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are true, and you have promised this good thing to your servant;

2 Samuel 7:29 now therefore may it please you to bless the house of your servant, so that it may continue forever before you; for you, O Lord GOD, have spoken, and with your blessing shall the house of your servant be blessed forever."

2 Samuel 8:1 Some time afterward, David attacked the Philistines and subdued them; David took Metheg-ammah out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 Samuel 8:2 He also defeated the Moabites and, making them lie down on the ground, measured them off with a cord; he measured two lengths of cord for those who were to be put to death, and one length for those who were to be spared. And the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

2 Samuel 8:3 David also struck down King Hadadezer son of Rehob of Zobah, as he went to restore his monument at the river Euphrates.

2 Samuel 8:4 David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but left enough for a hundred chariots.

2 Samuel 8:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David killed twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans.

2 Samuel 8:6 Then David put garrisons among the Arameans of Damascus; and the Arameans became servants to David and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:7 David took the gold shields that were carried by the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 8:8 From Betah and from Berothai, towns of Hadadezer, King David took a great amount of bronze.

2 Samuel 8:9 When King Toi of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer,

2 Samuel 8:10 Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to greet him and to congratulate him because he had fought against Hadadezer and defeated him. Now Hadadezer had often been at war with Toi. Joram brought with him articles of silver, gold, and bronze;

2 Samuel 8:11 these also King David dedicated to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he dedicated from all the nations he subdued,

2 Samuel 8:12 from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the spoil of King Hadadezer son of Rehob of Zobah.

2 Samuel 8:13 David won a name for himself. When he returned, he killed eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

2 Samuel 8:14 He put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom he put garrisons, and all the Edomites became David's servants. And the LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:15 So David reigned over all Israel; and David administered justice and equity to all his people.

2 Samuel 8:16 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

2 Samuel 8:17 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary;

2 Samuel 8:18 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were priests.

2 Samuel 9:1 David asked, "Is there still anyone left of the house of Saul to whom I may show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2 Samuel 9:2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul whose name was Ziba, and he was summoned to David. The king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "At your service!"

2 Samuel 9:3 The king said, "Is there anyone remaining of the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?" Ziba said to the king, "There remains a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in his feet."

2 Samuel 9:4 The king said to him, “Where is he?” Ziba said to the king, “He is in the house of Machir son of Ammiel, at Lo-debar.”

2 Samuel 9:5 Then King David sent and brought him from the house of Machir son of Ammiel, at Lo-debar.

2 Samuel 9:6 Mephibosheth son of Jonathan son of Saul came to David, and fell on his face and did obeisance. David said, “Mephibosheth!” He answered, “I am your servant.”

2 Samuel 9:7 David said to him, “Do not be afraid, for I will show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan; I will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul, and you yourself shall eat at my table always.”

2 Samuel 9:8 He did obeisance and said, “What is your servant, that you should look upon a dead dog such as I?”

2 Samuel 9:9 Then the king summoned Saul’s servant Ziba, and said to him, “All that belonged to Saul and to all his house I have given to your master’s grandson.

2 Samuel 9:10 You and your sons and your servants shall till the land for him, and shall bring in the produce, so that your master’s grandson may have food to eat; but your master’s grandson Mephibosheth shall always eat at my table.” Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

2 Samuel 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, “According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do.” Mephibosheth ate at David’s table, like one of the king’s sons.

2 Samuel 9:12 Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mica. And all who lived in Ziba’s house became Mephibosheth’s servants.

2 Samuel 9:13 Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he always ate at the king’s table. Now he was lame in both his feet.

2 Samuel 10:1 Some time afterward, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun succeeded him.

2 Samuel 10:2 David said, “I will deal loyally with Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father dealt loyally with me.” So David sent envoys to console him concerning his father. When David’s envoys came into the land of the Ammonites,

2 Samuel 10:3 the princes of the Ammonites said to their lord Hanun, “Do you really think that David is honoring your father just because he has sent messengers with condolences to you? Has not David sent his envoys to you to search the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?”

2 Samuel 10:4 So Hanun seized David’s envoys, shaved off half the beard of each, cut off their garments in the middle at their hips, and sent them away.

2 Samuel 10:5 When David was told, he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, “Remain at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return.”

2 Samuel 10:6 When the Ammonites saw that they had become odious to David, the Ammonites sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, twenty thousand foot soldiers, as well as the king of Maacah, one thousand men, and the men of Tob, twelve thousand men.

2 Samuel 10:7 When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army with the warriors.

2 Samuel 10:8 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle array at the entrance of the gate; but the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the open country.

2 Samuel 10:9 When Joab saw that the battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he chose some of the picked men of Israel, and arrayed them against the Arameans;

2 Samuel 10:10 the rest of his men he put in the charge of his brother Abishai, and he arrayed them against the Ammonites.

2 Samuel 10:11 He said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come and help you.

2 Samuel 10:12 Be strong, and let us be courageous for the sake of our people, and for the cities of our God; and may the LORD do what seems good to him.”

2 Samuel 10:13 So Joab and the people who were with him moved forward into battle against the Arameans; and they fled before him.

2 Samuel 10:14 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the Ammonites, and came to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 10:15 But when the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together.

2 Samuel 10:16 Hadadezer sent and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the Euphrates; and they came to Helam, with Shobach the commander of the army of Hadadezer at their head.

2 Samuel 10:17 When it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and crossed the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Arameans arrayed themselves against David and fought with him.

2 Samuel 10:18 The Arameans fled before Israel; and David killed of the Arameans seven hundred chariot teams, and forty thousand horsemen, and wounded Shobach the commander of their army, so that he died there.

2 Samuel 10:19 When all the kings who were servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel, and became subject to them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites any more.

2 Samuel 11:1 In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 11:2 It happened, late one afternoon, when David rose from his couch and was walking about on the roof of the king's house, that he saw from the roof a woman bathing; the woman was very beautiful.

2 Samuel 11:3 David sent someone to inquire about the woman. It was reported, "This is Bathsheba daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite."

2 Samuel 11:4 So David sent messengers to get her, and she came to him, and he lay with her. (Now she was purifying herself after her period.) Then she returned to her house.

2 Samuel 11:5 The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, "I am pregnant."

2 Samuel 11:6 So David sent word to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David.

2 Samuel 11:7 When Uriah came to him, David asked how Joab and the people fared, and how the war was going.

2 Samuel 11:8 Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." Uriah went out of the king's house, and there followed him a present from the king.

2 Samuel 11:9 But Uriah slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:10 When they told David, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "You have just come from a journey. Why did you not go down to your house?"

2 Samuel 11:11 Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah remain in booths; and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field; shall I then go to my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do such a thing."

2 Samuel 11:12 Then David said to Uriah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I will send you back." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day. On the next day,

2 Samuel 11:13 David invited him to eat and drink in his presence and made him drunk; and in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

2 Samuel 11:15 In the letter he wrote, “Set Uriah in the forefront of the hardest fighting, and then draw back from him, so that he may be struck down and die.”

2 Samuel 11:16 As Joab was besieging the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew there were valiant warriors.

2 Samuel 11:17 The men of the city came out and fought with Joab; and some of the servants of David among the people fell. Uriah the Hittite was killed as well.

2 Samuel 11:18 Then Joab sent and told David all the news about the fighting;

2 Samuel 11:19 and he instructed the messenger, “When you have finished telling the king all the news about the fighting,

2 Samuel 11:20 then, if the king’s anger rises, and if he says to you, ‘Why did you go so near the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

2 Samuel 11:21 Who killed Abimelech son of Jerubbaal? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?’ then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead too.’“

2 Samuel 11:22 So the messenger went, and came and told David all that Joab had sent him to tell.

2 Samuel 11:23 The messenger said to David, “The men gained an advantage over us, and came out against us in the field; but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate.

2 Samuel 11:24 Then the archers shot at your servants from the wall; some of the king’s servants are dead; and your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.”

2 Samuel 11:25 David said to the messenger, “Thus you shall say to Joab, ‘Do not let this matter trouble you, for the sword devours now one and now another; press your attack on the city, and overthrow it.’ And encourage him.”

2 Samuel 11:26 When the wife of Uriah heard that her husband was dead, she made lamentation for him.

2 Samuel 11:27 When the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son.

2 Samuel 12:1 But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD, and the LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, “There were two men in a certain city, the one rich and the other poor.

2 Samuel 12:2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds;

2 Samuel 12:3 but the poor man had nothing but one little ewe lamb, which he had bought. He brought it up, and it grew up with him and with his children; it used to eat of his meager fare, and drink from his cup, and lie in his bosom, and it was like a daughter to him.

2 Samuel 12:4 Now there came a traveler to the rich man, and he was loath to take one of his own flock or herd to prepare for the wayfarer who had come to him, but he took the poor man's lamb, and prepared that for the guest who had come to him."

2 Samuel 12:5 Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man. He said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die;

2 Samuel 12:6 he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity."

2 Samuel 12:7 Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I anointed you king over Israel, and I rescued you from the hand of Saul;

2 Samuel 12:8 I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that had been too little, I would have added as much more.

2 Samuel 12:9 Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do what is evil in his sight? You have struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

2 Samuel 12:10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from your house, for you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.

2 Samuel 12:11 Thus says the LORD: I will raise up trouble against you from within your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this very sun.

2 Samuel 12:12 For you did it secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun."

2 Samuel 12:13 David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." Nathan said to David, "Now the LORD has put away your sin; you shall not die.

2 Samuel 12:14 Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD, the child that is born to you shall die."

2 Samuel 12:15 Then Nathan went to his house. The LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it became very ill.

2 Samuel 12:16 David therefore pleaded with God for the child; David fasted, and went in and lay all night on the ground.

2 Samuel 12:17 The elders of his house stood beside him, urging him to rise from the ground; but he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

2 Samuel 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, “While the child was still alive, we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us; how then can we tell him the child is dead? He may do himself some harm.”

2 Samuel 12:19 But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, he perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, “Is the child dead?” They said, “He is dead.”

2 Samuel 12:20 Then David rose from the ground, washed, anointed himself, and changed his clothes. He went into the house of the LORD, and worshiped; he then went to his own house; and when he asked, they set food before him and he ate.

2 Samuel 12:21 Then his servants said to him, “What is this thing that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while it was alive; but when the child died, you rose and ate food.”

2 Samuel 12:22 He said, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, ‘Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me, and the child may live.’

2 Samuel 12:23 But now he is dead; why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me.”

2 Samuel 12:24 Then David consoled his wife Bathsheba, and went to her, and lay with her; and she bore a son, and he named him Solomon. The LORD loved him,

2 Samuel 12:25 and sent a message by the prophet Nathan; so he named him Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

2 Samuel 12:26 Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites, and took the royal city.

2 Samuel 12:27 Joab sent messengers to David, and said, “I have fought against Rabbah; moreover, I have taken the water city.

2 Samuel 12:28 Now, then, gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; or I myself will take the city, and it will be called by my name.”

2 Samuel 12:29 So David gathered all the people together and went to Rabbah, and fought against it and took it.

2 Samuel 12:30 He took the crown of Milcom from his head; the weight of it was a talent of gold, and in it was a precious stone; and it was placed on David’s head. He also brought forth the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

2 Samuel 12:31 He brought out the people who were in it, and set them to work with saws and iron picks and iron axes, or sent them to the brickworks. Thus he did to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13:1 Some time passed. David's son Absalom had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar; and David's son Amnon fell in love with her.

2 Samuel 13:2 Amnon was so tormented that he made himself ill because of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her.

2 Samuel 13:3 But Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah; and Jonadab was a very crafty man.

2 Samuel 13:4 He said to him, "O son of the king, why are you so haggard morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister."

2 Samuel 13:5 Jonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed, and pretend to be ill; and when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat, and prepare the food in my sight, so that I may see it and eat it from her hand.'"

2 Samuel 13:6 So Amnon lay down, and pretended to be ill; and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand."

2 Samuel 13:7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, "Go to your brother Amnon's house, and prepare food for him."

2 Samuel 13:8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, where he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes.

2 Samuel 13:9 Then she took the pan and set them out before him, but he refused to eat. Amnon said, "Send out everyone from me." So everyone went out from him.

2 Samuel 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber, so that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the cakes she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

2 Samuel 13:11 But when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

2 Samuel 13:12 She answered him, "No, my brother, do not force me; for such a thing is not done in Israel; do not do anything so vile!

2 Samuel 13:13 As for me, where could I carry my shame? And as for you, you would be as one of the scoundrels in Israel. Now therefore, I beg you, speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you."

2 Samuel 13:14 But he would not listen to her; and being stronger than she, he forced her and lay with her.

2 Samuel 13:15 Then Amnon was seized with a very great loathing for her; indeed, his loathing was even greater than the lust he had felt for her. Amnon said to her, “Get out!”

2 Samuel 13:16 But she said to him, “No, my brother; for this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other that you did to me.” But he would not listen to her.

2 Samuel 13:17 He called the young man who served him and said, “Put this woman out of my presence, and bolt the door after her.”

2 Samuel 13:18 (Now she was wearing a long robe with sleeves; for this is how the virgin daughters of the king were clothed in earlier times.) So his servant put her out, and bolted the door after her.

2 Samuel 13:19 But Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore the long robe that she was wearing; she put her hand on her head, and went away, crying aloud as she went.

2 Samuel 13:20 Her brother Absalom said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? Be quiet for now, my sister; he is your brother; do not take this to heart.” So Tamar remained, a desolate woman, in her brother Absalom’s house.

2 Samuel 13:21 When King David heard of all these things, he became very angry, but he would not punish his son Amnon, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn.

2 Samuel 13:22 But Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had raped his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:23 After two full years Absalom had sheepshearers at Baal-hazor, which is near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all the king’s sons.

2 Samuel 13:24 Absalom came to the king, and said, “Your servant has sheepshearers; will the king and his servants please go with your servant?”

2 Samuel 13:25 But the king said to Absalom, “No, my son, let us not all go, or else we will be burdensome to you.” He pressed him, but he would not go but gave him his blessing.

2 Samuel 13:26 Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.” The king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

2 Samuel 13:27 But Absalom pressed him until he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him. Absalom made a feast like a king’s feast.

2 Samuel 13:28 Then Absalom commanded his servants, “Watch when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, ‘Strike Amnon,’ then kill him. Do not be afraid; have I not myself commanded you? Be courageous and valiant.”

2 Samuel 13:29 So the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons rose, and each mounted his mule and fled.

2 Samuel 13:30 While they were on the way, the report came to David that Absalom had killed all the king's sons, and not one of them was left.

2 Samuel 13:31 The king rose, tore his garments, and lay on the ground; and all his servants who were standing by tore their garments.

2 Samuel 13:32 But Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, said, "Let not my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king's sons; Amnon alone is dead. This has been determined by Absalom from the day Amnon raped his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:33 Now therefore, do not let my lord the king take it to heart, as if all the king's sons were dead; for Amnon alone is dead."

2 Samuel 13:34 But Absalom fled. When the young man who kept watch looked up, he saw many people coming from the Horonaim road by the side of the mountain.

2 Samuel 13:35 Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons have come; as your servant said, so it has come about."

2 Samuel 13:36 As soon as he had finished speaking, the king's sons arrived, and raised their voices and wept; and the king and all his servants also wept very bitterly.

2 Samuel 13:37 But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. David mourned for his son day after day.

2 Samuel 13:38 Absalom, having fled to Geshur, stayed there three years.

2 Samuel 13:39 And the heart of the king went out, yearning for Absalom; for he was now consoled over the death of Amnon.

2 Samuel 14:1 Now Joab son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's mind was on Absalom.

2 Samuel 14:2 Joab sent to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman. He said to her, "Pretend to be a mourner; put on mourning garments, do not anoint yourself with oil, but behave like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead.

2 Samuel 14:3 Go to the king and speak to him as follows." And Joab put the words into her mouth.

2 Samuel 14:4 When the woman of Tekoa came to the king, she fell on her face to the ground and did obeisance, and said, "Help, O king!"

2 Samuel 14:5 The king asked her, "What is your trouble?" She answered, "Alas, I am a widow; my husband is dead.

2 Samuel 14:6 Your servant had two sons, and they fought with one another in the field; there was no one to part them, and one struck the other and killed him.

2 Samuel 14:7 Now the whole family has risen against your servant. They say, 'Give up the man who struck his brother, so that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he murdered, even if we destroy the heir as well.’ Thus they would quench my one remaining ember, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth.”

2 Samuel 14:8 Then the king said to the woman, “Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you.”

2 Samuel 14:9 The woman of Tekoa said to the king, “On me be the guilt, my lord the king, and on my father’s house; let the king and his throne be guiltless.”

2 Samuel 14:10 The king said, “If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall never touch you again.”

2 Samuel 14:11 Then she said, “Please, may the king keep the LORD your God in mind, so that the avenger of blood may kill no more, and my son not be destroyed.” He said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

2 Samuel 14:12 Then the woman said, “Please let your servant speak a word to my lord the king.” He said, “Speak.”

2 Samuel 14:13 The woman said, “Why then have you planned such a thing against the people of God? For in giving this decision the king convicts himself, inasmuch as the king does not bring his banished one home again.

2 Samuel 14:14 We must all die; we are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up. But God will not take away a life; he will devise plans so as not to keep an outcast banished forever from his presence.

2 Samuel 14:15 Now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid; your servant thought, ‘I will speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.

2 Samuel 14:16 For the king will hear, and deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would cut both me and my son off from the heritage of God.’

2 Samuel 14:17 Your servant thought, ‘The word of my lord the king will set me at rest’; for my lord the king is like the angel of God, discerning good and evil. The LORD your God be with you!”

2 Samuel 14:18 Then the king answered the woman, “Do not withhold from me anything I ask you.” The woman said, “Let my lord the king speak.”

2 Samuel 14:19 The king said, “Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?” The woman answered and said, “As surely as you live, my lord the king, one cannot turn right or left from anything that my lord the king has said. For it was your servant Joab who commanded me; it was he who put all these words into the mouth of your servant.

2 Samuel 14:20 In order to change the course of affairs your servant Joab did this. But my lord has wisdom like the wisdom of the angel of God to know all things that are on the earth.”

2 Samuel 14:21 Then the king said to Joab, “Very well, I grant this; go, bring back the young man Absalom.”

2 Samuel 14:22 Joab prostrated himself with his face to the ground and did obeisance, and blessed the king; and Joab said, “Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord the king, in that the king has granted the request of his servant.”

2 Samuel 14:23 So Joab set off, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 14:24 The king said, “Let him go to his own house; he is not to come into my presence.” So Absalom went to his own house, and did not come into the king’s presence.

2 Samuel 14:25 Now in all Israel there was no one to be praised so much for his beauty as Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

2 Samuel 14:26 When he cut the hair of his head (for at the end of every year he used to cut it; when it was heavy on him, he cut it), he weighed the hair of his head, two hundred shekels by the king’s weight.

2 Samuel 14:27 There were born to Absalom three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar; she was a beautiful woman.

2 Samuel 14:28 So Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem, without coming into the king’s presence.

2 Samuel 14:29 Then Absalom sent for Joab to send him to the king; but Joab would not come to him. He sent a second time, but Joab would not come.

2 Samuel 14:30 Then he said to his servants, “Look, Joab’s field is next to mine, and he has barley there; go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

2 Samuel 14:31 Then Joab rose and went to Absalom at his house, and said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

2 Samuel 14:32 Absalom answered Joab, “Look, I sent word to you: Come here, that I may send you to the king with the question, ‘Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.’ Now let me go into the king’s presence; if there is guilt in me, let him kill me!”

2 Samuel 14:33 Then Joab went to the king and told him; and he summoned Absalom. So he came to the king and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15:1 After this Absalom got himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run ahead of him.

2 Samuel 15:2 Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the road into the gate; and when anyone brought a suit before the king for judgment, Absalom would call out and say, “From what city are you?” When the person said, “Your servant is of such and such a tribe in Israel,”

2 Samuel 15:3 Absalom would say, “See, your claims are good and right; but there is no one deputed by the king to hear you.”

2 Samuel 15:4 Absalom said moreover, “If only I were judge in the land! Then all who had a suit or cause might come to me, and I would give them justice.”

2 Samuel 15:5 Whenever people came near to do obeisance to him, he would put out his hand and take hold of them, and kiss them.

2 Samuel 15:6 Thus Absalom did to every Israelite who came to the king for judgment; so Absalom stole the hearts of the people of Israel.

2 Samuel 15:7 At the end of four years Absalom said to the king, “Please let me go to Hebron and pay the vow that I have made to the LORD.

2 Samuel 15:8 For your servant made a vow while I lived at Geshur in Aram: If the LORD will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will worship the LORD in Hebron.”

2 Samuel 15:9 The king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he got up, and went to Hebron.

2 Samuel 15:10 But Absalom sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpet, then shout: Absalom has become king at Hebron!”

2 Samuel 15:11 Two hundred men from Jerusalem went with Absalom; they were invited guests, and they went in their innocence, knowing nothing of the matter.

2 Samuel 15:12 While Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counselor, from his city Giloh. The conspiracy grew in strength, and the people with Absalom kept increasing.

2 Samuel 15:13 A messenger came to David, saying, “The hearts of the Israelites have gone after Absalom.”

2 Samuel 15:14 Then David said to all his officials who were with him at Jerusalem, “Get up! Let us flee, or there will be no escape for us from Absalom. Hurry, or he will soon overtake us, and bring disaster down upon us, and attack the city with the edge of the sword.”

2 Samuel 15:15 The king’s officials said to the king, “Your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king decides.”

2 Samuel 15:17 The king left, followed by all the people; and they stopped at the last house.

2 Samuel 15:18 All his officials passed by him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath, passed on before the king.

2 Samuel 15:19 Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why are you also coming with us? Go back, and stay with the king; for you are a foreigner, and also an exile from your home.

2 Samuel 15:20 You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander about with us, while I go wherever I can? Go back, and take your kinsfolk with you; and may the LORD show steadfast love and faithfulness to you.”

2 Samuel 15:21 But Ittai answered the king, “As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there also your servant will be.”

2 Samuel 15:22 David said to Ittai, “Go then, march on.” So Ittai the Gittite marched on, with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.

2 Samuel 15:23 The whole country wept aloud as all the people passed by; the king crossed the Wadi Kidron, and all the people moved on toward the wilderness.

2 Samuel 15:24 Abiathar came up, and Zadok also, with all the Levites, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, until the people had all passed out of the city.

2 Samuel 15:25 Then the king said to Zadok, “Carry the ark of God back into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me back and let me see both it and the place where it stays.

2 Samuel 15:26 But if he says, ‘I take no pleasure in you,’ here I am, let him do to me what seems good to him.”

2 Samuel 15:27 The king also said to the priest Zadok, “Look, go back to the city in peace, you and Abiathar, with your two sons, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan son of Abiathar.

2 Samuel 15:28 See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”

2 Samuel 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

2 Samuel 15:30 But David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went, with his head covered and walking barefoot; and all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went.

2 Samuel 15:31 David was told that Ahithophel was among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, “O LORD, I pray you, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.”

2 Samuel 15:32 When David came to the summit, where God was worshiped, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn and earth on his head.

2 Samuel 15:33 David said to him, “If you go on with me, you will be a burden to me.

2 Samuel 15:34 But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, ‘I will be your servant, O king; as I have been your father’s servant in time past, so now I will be your servant,’ then you will defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.

2 Samuel 15:35 The priests Zadok and Abiathar will be with you there. So whatever you hear from the king’s house, tell it to the priests Zadok and Abiathar.

2 Samuel 15:36 Their two sons are with them there, Zadok’s son Ahimaaz and Abiathar’s son Jonathan; and by them you shall report to me everything you hear.”

2 Samuel 15:37 So Hushai, David’s friend, came into the city, just as Absalom was entering Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 16:1 When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of donkeys saddled, carrying two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred bunches of raisins, one hundred of summer fruits, and one skin of wine.

2 Samuel 16:2 The king said to Ziba, “Why have you brought these?” Ziba answered, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride, the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine is for those to drink who faint in the wilderness.”

2 Samuel 16:3 The king said, “And where is your master’s son?” Ziba said to the king, “He remains in Jerusalem; for he said, ‘Today the house of Israel will give me back my grandfather’s kingdom.’“

2 Samuel 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, “All that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours.” Ziba said, “I do obeisance; let me find favor in your sight, my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 16:5 When King David came to Bahurim, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out whose name was Shimei son of Gera; he came out cursing.

2 Samuel 16:7 Shimei shouted while he cursed, “Out! Out! Murderer! Scoundrel!

2 Samuel 16:8 The LORD has avenged on all of you the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. See, disaster has overtaken you; for you are a man of blood.”

2 Samuel 16:9 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head.”

2 Samuel 16:10 But the king said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? If he is cursing because the LORD has said to him, ‘Curse David,’ who then shall say, ‘Why have you done so?’“

2 Samuel 16:11 David said to Abishai and to all his servants, “My own son seeks my life; how much more now may this Benjaminite! Let him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has bidden him.

2 Samuel 16:12 It may be that the LORD will look on my distress, and the LORD will repay me with good for this cursing of me today.”

2 Samuel 16:13 So David and his men went on the road, while Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him and cursed as he went, throwing stones and flinging dust at him.

2 Samuel 16:14 The king and all the people who were with him arrived weary at the Jordan; and there he refreshed himself.

2 Samuel 16:15 Now Absalom and all the Israelites came to Jerusalem; Ahithophel was with him.

2 Samuel 16:16 When Hushai the Archite, David’s friend, came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

2 Samuel 16:17 Absalom said to Hushai, “Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?”

2 Samuel 16:18 Hushai said to Absalom, “No; but the one whom the LORD and this people and all the Israelites have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain.

2 Samuel 16:19 Moreover, whom should I serve? Should it not be his son? Just as I have served your father, so I will serve you.”

2 Samuel 16:20 Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give us your counsel; what shall we do?”

2 Samuel 16:21 Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Go in to your father’s concubines, the ones he has left to look after the house; and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strengthened.”

2 Samuel 16:22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom upon the roof; and Absalom went in to his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.

2 Samuel 16:23 Now in those days the counsel that Ahithophel gave was as if one consulted the oracle of God; so all the counsel of Ahithophel was esteemed, both by David and by Absalom.

2 Samuel 17:1 Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, “Let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will set out and pursue David tonight.

2 Samuel 17:2 I will come upon him while he is weary and discouraged, and throw him into a panic; and all the people who are with him will flee. I will strike down only the king,

2 Samuel 17:3 and I will bring all the people back to you as a bride comes home to her husband. You seek the life of only one man, and all the people will be at peace.”

2 Samuel 17:4 The advice pleased Absalom and all the elders of Israel.

2 Samuel 17:5 Then Absalom said, “Call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear too what he has to say.”

2 Samuel 17:6 When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, “This is what Ahithophel has said; shall we do as he advises? If not, you tell us.”

2 Samuel 17:7 Then Hushai said to Absalom, “This time the counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good.”

2 Samuel 17:8 Hushai continued, “You know that your father and his men are warriors, and that they are enraged, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Besides, your father is expert in war; he will not spend the night with the troops.

2 Samuel 17:9 Even now he has hidden himself in one of the pits, or in some other place. And when some of our troops fall at the first attack, whoever hears it will say, ‘There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.’

2 Samuel 17:10 Then even the valiant warrior, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt with fear; for all Israel knows that your father is a warrior, and that those who are with him are valiant warriors.

2 Samuel 17:11 But my counsel is that all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Beer-sheba, like the sand by the sea for multitude, and that you go to battle in person.

2 Samuel 17:12 So we shall come upon him in whatever place he may be found, and we shall light on him as the dew falls on the ground; and he will not survive, nor will any of those with him.

2 Samuel 17:13 If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we shall drag it into the valley, until not even a pebble is to be found there.”

2 Samuel 17:14 Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring ruin on Absalom.

2 Samuel 17:15 Then Hushai said to the priests Zadok and Abiathar, “Thus and so did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and so I have counseled.

2 Samuel 17:16 Therefore send quickly and tell David, ‘Do not lodge tonight at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means cross over; otherwise the king and all the people who are with him will be swallowed up.’“

2 Samuel 17:17 Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at En-rogel; a servant-girl used to go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David; for they could not risk being seen entering the city.

2 Samuel 17:18 But a boy saw them, and told Absalom; so both of them went away quickly, and came to the house of a man at Bahurim, who had a well in his courtyard; and they went down into it.

2 Samuel 17:19 The man’s wife took a covering, stretched it over the well’s mouth, and spread out grain on it; and nothing was known of it.

2 Samuel 17:20 When Absalom’s servants came to the woman at the house, they said, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” The woman said to them, “They have crossed over the brook of water.” And when they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 17:21 After they had gone, the men came up out of the well, and went and told King David. They said to David, “Go and cross the water quickly; for thus and so has Ahithophel counseled against you.”

2 Samuel 17:22 So David and all the people who were with him set out and crossed the Jordan; by daybreak not one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

2 Samuel 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey and went off home to his own city. He set his house in order, and hanged himself; he died and was buried in the tomb of his father.

2 Samuel 17:24 Then David came to Mahanaim, while Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 17:25 Now Absalom had set Amasa over the army in the place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite, who had married Abigal daughter of Nahash, sister of Zeruiah, Joab’s mother.

2 Samuel 17:26 The Israelites and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.

2 Samuel 17:27 When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Machir son of Ammiel from Lo-debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim,

2 Samuel 17:28 brought beds, basins, and earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched grain, beans and lentils,

2 Samuel 17:29 honey and curds, sheep, and cheese from the herd, for David and the people with him to eat; for they said, “The troops are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness.”

2 Samuel 18:1 Then David mustered the men who were with him, and set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

2 Samuel 18:2 And David divided the army into three groups: one third under the command of Joab, one third under the command of Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the men, "I myself will also go out with you."

2 Samuel 18:3 But the men said, "You shall not go out. For if we flee, they will not care about us. If half of us die, they will not care about us. But you are worth ten thousand of us; therefore it is better that you send us help from the city."

2 Samuel 18:4 The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood at the side of the gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands.

2 Samuel 18:5 The king ordered Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man Absalom." And all the people heard when the king gave orders to all the commanders concerning Absalom.

2 Samuel 18:6 So the army went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was fought in the forest of Ephraim.

2 Samuel 18:7 The men of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand men.

2 Samuel 18:8 The battle spread over the face of all the country; and the forest claimed more victims that day than the sword.

2 Samuel 18:9 Absalom happened to meet the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great oak. His head caught fast in the oak, and he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him went on.

2 Samuel 18:10 A man saw it, and told Joab, "I saw Absalom hanging in an oak."

2 Samuel 18:11 Joab said to the man who told him, "What, you saw him! Why then did you not strike him there to the ground? I would have been glad to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt."

2 Samuel 18:12 But the man said to Joab, "Even if I felt in my hand the weight of a thousand pieces of silver, I would not raise my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying: For my sake protect the young man Absalom!

2 Samuel 18:13 On the other hand, if I had dealt treacherously against his life (and there is nothing hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof."

2 Samuel 18:14 Joab said, “I will not waste time like this with you.” He took three spears in his hand, and thrust them into the heart of Absalom, while he was still alive in the oak.

2 Samuel 18:15 And ten young men, Joab’s armor-bearers, surrounded Absalom and struck him, and killed him.

2 Samuel 18:16 Then Joab sounded the trumpet, and the troops came back from pursuing Israel, for Joab restrained the troops.

2 Samuel 18:17 They took Absalom, threw him into a great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones. Meanwhile all the Israelites fled to their homes.

2 Samuel 18:18 Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a pillar that is in the King’s Valley, for he said, “I have no son to keep my name in remembrance”; he called the pillar by his own name. It is called Absalom’s Monument to this day.

2 Samuel 18:19 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, “Let me run, and carry tidings to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the power of his enemies.”

2 Samuel 18:20 Joab said to him, “You are not to carry tidings today; you may carry tidings another day, but today you shall not do so, because the king’s son is dead.”

2 Samuel 18:21 Then Joab said to a Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” The Cushite bowed before Joab, and ran.

2 Samuel 18:22 Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said again to Joab, “Come what may, let me also run after the Cushite.” And Joab said, “Why will you run, my son, seeing that you have no reward for the tidings?”

2 Samuel 18:23 “Come what may,” he said, “I will run.” So he said to him, “Run.” Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite.

2 Samuel 18:24 Now David was sitting between the two gates. The sentinel went up to the roof of the gate by the wall, and when he looked up, he saw a man running alone.

2 Samuel 18:25 The sentinel shouted and told the king. The king said, “If he is alone, there are tidings in his mouth.” He kept coming, and drew near.

2 Samuel 18:26 Then the sentinel saw another man running; and the sentinel called to the gatekeeper and said, “See, another man running alone!” The king said, “He also is bringing tidings.”

2 Samuel 18:27 The sentinel said, “I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok.” The king said, “He is a good man, and comes with good tidings.”

2 Samuel 18:28 Then Ahimaaz cried out to the king, “All is well!” He prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground, and said,

“Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hand against my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 18:29 The king said, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” Ahimaaz answered, “When Joab sent your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I do not know what it was.”

2 Samuel 18:30 The king said, “Turn aside, and stand here.” So he turned aside, and stood still.

2 Samuel 18:31 Then the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, “Good tidings for my lord the king! For the LORD has vindicated you this day, delivering you from the power of all who rose up against you.”

2 Samuel 18:32 The king said to the Cushite, “Is it well with the young man Absalom?” The Cushite answered, “May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up to do you harm, be like that young man.”

2 Samuel 18:33 The king was deeply moved, and went up to the chamber over the gate, and wept; and as he went, he said, “O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! Would I had died instead of you, O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:1 It was told Joab, “The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”

2 Samuel 19:2 So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the troops; for the troops heard that day, “The king is grieving for his son.”

2 Samuel 19:3 The troops stole into the city that day as soldiers steal in who are ashamed when they flee in battle.

2 Samuel 19:4 The king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, “O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:5 Then Joab came into the house to the king, and said, “Today you have covered with shame the faces of all your officers who have saved your life today, and the lives of your sons and your daughters, and the lives of your wives and your concubines,

2 Samuel 19:6 for love of those who hate you and for hatred of those who love you. You have made it clear today that commanders and officers are nothing to you; for I perceive that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then you would be pleased.

2 Samuel 19:7 So go out at once and speak kindly to your servants; for I swear by the LORD, if you do not go, not a man will stay with you this night; and this will be worse for you than any disaster that has come upon you from your youth until now.”

2 Samuel 19:8 Then the king got up and took his seat in the gate. The troops were all told, “See, the king is sitting in the gate”; and all the troops came before the king. Meanwhile, all the Israelites had fled to their homes.

2 Samuel 19:9 All the people were disputing throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, “The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies, and saved us from the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land because of Absalom.

2 Samuel 19:10 But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?”

2 Samuel 19:11 King David sent this message to the priests Zadok and Abiathar, “Say to the elders of Judah, ‘Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his house? The talk of all Israel has come to the king.

2 Samuel 19:12 You are my kin, you are my bone and my flesh; why then should you be the last to bring back the king?’

2 Samuel 19:13 And say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? So may God do to me, and more, if you are not the commander of my army from now on, in place of Joab.’“

2 Samuel 19:14 Amasa swayed the hearts of all the people of Judah as one, and they sent word to the king, “Return, both you and all your servants.”

2 Samuel 19:15 So the king came back to the Jordan; and Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and to bring him over the Jordan.

2 Samuel 19:16 Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite, from Bahurim, hurried to come down with the people of Judah to meet King David;

2 Samuel 19:17 with him were a thousand people from Benjamin. And Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants, rushed down to the Jordan ahead of the king,

2 Samuel 19:18 while the crossing was taking place, to bring over the king’s household, and to do his pleasure. Shimei son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was about to cross the Jordan,

2 Samuel 19:19 and said to the king, “May my lord not hold me guilty or remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem; may the king not bear it in mind.

2 Samuel 19:20 For your servant knows that I have sinned; therefore, see, I have come this day, the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 19:21 Abishai son of Zeruiah answered, “Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD’s anointed?”

2 Samuel 19:22 But David said, “What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should today become an adversary to me? Shall anyone be put to death in Israel this day? For do I not know that I am this day king over Israel?”

2 Samuel 19:23 The king said to Shimei, “You shall not die.” And the king gave him his oath.

2 Samuel 19:24 Mephibosheth grandson of Saul came down to meet the king; he had not taken care of his feet, or trimmed his beard, or washed his clothes, from the day the king left until the day he came back in safety.

2 Samuel 19:25 When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, “Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?”

2 Samuel 19:26 He answered, “My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said to him, ‘Saddle a donkey for me, so that I may ride on it and go with the king.’ For your servant is lame.

2 Samuel 19:27 He has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like the angel of God; do therefore what seems good to you.

2 Samuel 19:28 For all my father’s house were doomed to death before my lord the king; but you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What further right have I, then, to appeal to the king?”

2 Samuel 19:29 The king said to him, “Why speak any more of your affairs? I have decided: you and Ziba shall divide the land.”

2 Samuel 19:30 Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him take it all, since my lord the king has arrived home safely.”

2 Samuel 19:31 Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim; he went on with the king to the Jordan, to escort him over the Jordan.

2 Samuel 19:32 Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. He had provided the king with food while he stayed at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.

2 Samuel 19:33 The king said to Barzillai, “Come over with me, and I will provide for you in Jerusalem at my side.”

2 Samuel 19:34 But Barzillai said to the king, “How many years have I still to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?

2 Samuel 19:35 Today I am eighty years old; can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats or what he drinks? Can I still listen to the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

2 Samuel 19:36 Your servant will go a little way over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king recompense me with such a reward?

2 Samuel 19:37 Please let your servant return, so that I may die in my own town, near the graves of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do for him whatever seems good to you.”

2 Samuel 19:38 The king answered, “Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do for him whatever seems good to you; and all that you desire of me I will do for you.”

2 Samuel 19:39 Then all the people crossed over the Jordan, and the king crossed over; the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his own home.

2 Samuel 19:40 The king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; all the people of Judah, and also half the people of Israel, brought the king on his way.

2 Samuel 19:41 Then all the people of Israel came to the king, and said to him, “Why have our kindred the people of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all David’s men with him?”

2 Samuel 19:42 All the people of Judah answered the people of Israel, “Because the king is near of kin to us. Why then are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king’s expense? Or has he given us any gift?”

2 Samuel 19:43 But the people of Israel answered the people of Judah, “We have ten shares in the king, and in David also we have more than you. Why then did you despise us? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?” But the words of the people of Judah were fiercer than the words of the people of Israel.

2 Samuel 20:1 Now a scoundrel named Sheba son of Bichri, a Benjaminite, happened to be there. He sounded the trumpet and cried out, “We have no portion in David, no share in the son of Jesse! Everyone to your tents, O Israel!”

2 Samuel 20:2 So all the people of Israel withdrew from David and followed Sheba son of Bichri; but the people of Judah followed their king steadfastly from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 20:3 David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten concubines whom he had left to look after the house, and put them in a house under guard, and provided for them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up until the day of their death, living as if in widowhood.

2 Samuel 20:4 Then the king said to Amasa, “Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and be here yourself.”

2 Samuel 20:5 So Amasa went to summon Judah; but he delayed beyond the set time that had been appointed him.

2 Samuel 20:6 David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom; take your lord’s servants and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities for himself, and escape from us.”

2 Samuel 20:7 Joab’s men went out after him, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the warriors; they went out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:8 When they were at the large stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was wearing a soldier’s garment and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened at his waist; as he went forward it fell out.

2 Samuel 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, “Is it well with you, my brother?” And Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

2 Samuel 20:10 But Amasa did not notice the sword in Joab’s hand; Joab struck him in the belly so that his entrails poured out on the ground, and he died. He did not strike a second blow. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:11 And one of Joab’s men took his stand by Amasa, and said, “Whoever favors Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab.”

2 Samuel 20:12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood on the highway, and the man saw that all the people were stopping. Since he saw that all who came by him were stopping, he carried Amasa from the highway into a field, and threw a garment over him.

2 Samuel 20:13 Once he was removed from the highway, all the people went on after Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

2 Samuel 20:14 Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-maacah; and all the Bichrites assembled, and followed him inside.

2 Samuel 20:15 Joab’s forces came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah; they threw up a siege ramp against the city, and it stood against the rampart. Joab’s forces were battering the wall to break it down.

2 Samuel 20:16 Then a wise woman called from the city, “Listen! Listen! Tell Joab, ‘Come here, I want to speak to you.’“

2 Samuel 20:17 He came near her; and the woman said, “Are you Joab?” He answered, “I am.” Then she said to him, “Listen to the words of your servant.” He answered, “I am listening.”

2 Samuel 20:18 Then she said, “They used to say in the old days, ‘Let them inquire at Abel’; and so they would settle a matter.

2 Samuel 20:19 I am one of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel; you seek to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel; why will you swallow up the heritage of the LORD?”

2 Samuel 20:20 Joab answered, “Far be it from me, far be it, that I should swallow up or destroy!

2 Samuel 20:21 That is not the case! But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, called Sheba son of Bichri, has lifted up his hand against King David; give him up alone, and I will withdraw from the city.” The woman said to Joab, “His head shall be thrown over the wall to you.”

2 Samuel 20:22 Then the woman went to all the people with her wise plan. And they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. So he blew the trumpet, and they dispersed from the city, and all went to their homes, while Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

2 Samuel 20:23 Now Joab was in command of all the army of Israel; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in command of the Cherethites and the Pelethites;

2 Samuel 20:24 Adoram was in charge of the forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder;

2 Samuel 20:25 Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

2 Samuel 20:26 and Ira the Jairite was also David's priest.

2 Samuel 21:1 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the LORD. The LORD said, “There is bloodguilt on Saul and on his house, because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

2 Samuel 21:2 So the king called the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the people of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; although the people of Israel had sworn to spare them, Saul had tried to wipe them out in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.)

2 Samuel 21:3 David said to the Gibeonites, “What shall I do for you? How shall I make expiation, that you may bless the heritage of the LORD?”

2 Samuel 21:4 The Gibeonites said to him, “It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; neither is it for us to put anyone to death in Israel.” He said, “What do you say that I should do for you?”

2 Samuel 21:5 They said to the king, “The man who consumed us and planned to destroy us, so that we should have no place in all the territory of Israel—

2 Samuel 21:6 let seven of his sons be handed over to us, and we will impale them before the LORD at Gibeon on the mountain of the LORD.” The king said, “I will hand them over.”

2 Samuel 21:7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the oath of the LORD that was between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul.

2 Samuel 21:8 The king took the two sons of Rizpah daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Merab daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite;

2 Samuel 21:9 he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they impaled them on the mountain before the LORD. The seven of them perished together. They were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest.

2 Samuel 21:10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it on a rock for herself, from the beginning of harvest until rain fell on them from the heavens; she did not allow the birds of the air to come on the bodies by day, or the wild animals by night.

2 Samuel 21:11 When David was told what Rizpah daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

2 Samuel 21:12 David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the people of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hung them up, on the day the Philistines killed Saul on Gilboa.

2 Samuel 21:13 He brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan; and they gathered the bones of those who had been impaled.

2 Samuel 21:14 They buried the bones of Saul and of his son Jonathan in the land of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of his father Kish; they did all that the king commanded. After that, God heeded supplications for the land.

2 Samuel 21:15 The Philistines went to war again with Israel, and David went down together with his servants. They fought against the Philistines, and David grew weary.

2 Samuel 21:16 Ishbi-benob, one of the descendants of the giants, whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of bronze, and who was fitted out with new weapons, said he would kill David.

2 Samuel 21:17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his aid, and attacked the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, "You shall not go out with us to battle any longer, so that you do not quench the lamp of Israel."

2 Samuel 21:18 After this a battle took place with the Philistines, at Gob; then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was one of the descendants of the giants.

2 Samuel 21:19 Then there was another battle with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan son of Jaare-oregim, the Bethlehemite, killed Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

2 Samuel 21:20 There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great size, who had six fingers on each hand, and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; he too was descended from the giants.

2 Samuel 21:21 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of David's brother Shimei, killed him.

2 Samuel 21:22 These four were descended from the giants in Gath; they fell by the hands of David and his servants.

2 Samuel 22:1 David spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.

2 Samuel 22:2 He said: The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer,

2 Samuel 22:3 my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge, my savior; you save me from violence.

2 Samuel 22:4 I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

2 Samuel 22:5 For the waves of death encompassed me, the torrents of perdition assailed me;

2 Samuel 22:6 the cords of Sheol entangled me, the snares of death confronted me.

2 Samuel 22:7 In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I called. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry came to his ears.

2 Samuel 22:8 Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations of the heavens trembled and quaked, because he was angry.

2 Samuel 22:9 Smoke went up from his nostrils, and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him.

2 Samuel 22:10 He bowed the heavens, and came down; thick darkness was under his feet.

2 Samuel 22:11 He rode on a cherub, and flew; he was seen upon the wings of the wind.

2 Samuel 22:12 He made darkness around him a canopy, thick clouds, a gathering of water.

2 Samuel 22:13 Out of the brightness before him coals of fire flamed forth.

2 Samuel 22:14 The LORD thundered from heaven; the Most High uttered his voice.

2 Samuel 22:15 He sent out arrows, and scattered them— lightning, and routed them.

2 Samuel 22:16 Then the channels of the sea were seen, the foundations of the world were laid bare at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his nostrils.

2 Samuel 22:17 He reached from on high, he took me, he drew me out of mighty waters.

2 Samuel 22:18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.

2 Samuel 22:19 They came upon me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my stay.

2 Samuel 22:20 He brought me out into a broad place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

2 Samuel 22:21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he recompensed me.

2 Samuel 22:22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

2 Samuel 22:23 For all his ordinances were before me, and from his statutes I did not turn aside.

2 Samuel 22:24 I was blameless before him, and I kept myself from guilt.

2 Samuel 22:25 Therefore the LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.

2 Samuel 22:26 With the loyal you show yourself loyal; with the blameless you show yourself blameless;

2 Samuel 22:27 with the pure you show yourself pure, and with the crooked you show yourself perverse.

2 Samuel 22:28 You deliver a humble people, but your eyes are upon the haughty to bring them down.

2 Samuel 22:29 Indeed, you are my lamp, O LORD, the LORD lightens my darkness.

2 Samuel 22:30 By you I can crush a troop, and by my God I can leap over a wall.

2 Samuel 22:31 This God— his way is perfect; the promise of the LORD proves true; he is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

2 Samuel 22:32 For who is God, but the LORD? And who is a rock, except our God?

2 Samuel 22:33 The God who has girded me with strength has opened wide my path.

2 Samuel 22:34 He made my feet like the feet of deer, and set me secure on the heights.

2 Samuel 22:35 He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

2 Samuel 22:36 You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your help has made me great.

2 Samuel 22:37 You have made me stride freely, and my feet do not slip;

2 Samuel 22:38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and did not turn back until they were consumed.

2 Samuel 22:39 I consumed them; I struck them down, so that they did not rise; they fell under my feet.

2 Samuel 22:40 For you girded me with strength for the battle; you made my assailants sink under me.

2 Samuel 22:41 You made my enemies turn their backs to me, those who hated me, and I destroyed them.

2 Samuel 22:42 They looked, but there was no one to save them; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.

2 Samuel 22:43 I beat them fine like the dust of the earth, I crushed them and stamped them down like the mire of the streets.

2 Samuel 22:44 You delivered me from strife with the peoples; you kept me as the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.

2 Samuel 22:45 Foreigners came cringing to me; as soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me.

2 Samuel 22:46 Foreigners lost heart, and came trembling out of their strongholds.

2 Samuel 22:47 The LORD lives! Blessed be my rock, and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation,

2 Samuel 22:48 the God who gave me vengeance and brought down peoples under me,

2 Samuel 22:49 who brought me out from my enemies; you exalted me above my adversaries, you delivered me from the violent.

2 Samuel 22:50 For this I will extol you, O LORD, among the nations, and sing praises to your name.

2 Samuel 22:51 He is a tower of salvation for his king, and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever.

2 Samuel 23:1 Now these are the last words of David: The oracle of David, son of Jesse, the oracle of the man whom God exalted, the anointed of the God of Jacob, the favorite of the Strong One of Israel:

2 Samuel 23:2 The spirit of the LORD speaks through me, his word is upon my tongue.

2 Samuel 23:3 The God of Israel has spoken, the Rock of Israel has said to me: One who rules over people justly, ruling in the fear of God,

2 Samuel 23:4 is like the light of morning, like the sun rising on a cloudless morning, gleaming from the rain on the grassy land.

2 Samuel 23:5 Is not my house like this with God? For he has made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things and secure. Will he not cause to prosper all my help and my desire?

2 Samuel 23:6 But the godless are all like thorns that are thrown away; for they cannot be picked up with the hand;

2 Samuel 23:7 to touch them one uses an iron bar or the shaft of a spear. And they are entirely consumed in fire on the spot.

2 Samuel 23:8 These are the names of the warriors whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite; he was chief of the Three; he wielded his spear against eight hundred whom he killed at one time.

2 Samuel 23:9 Next to him among the three warriors was Eleazar son of Dodo son of Ahohi. He was with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there for battle. The Israelites withdrew,

2 Samuel 23:10 but he stood his ground. He struck down the Philistines until his arm grew weary, though his hand clung to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. Then the people came back to him— but only to strip the dead.

2 Samuel 23:11 Next to him was Shammah son of Agee, the Hararite. The Philistines gathered together at Lehi, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the army fled from the Philistines.

2 Samuel 23:12 But he took his stand in the middle of the plot, defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD brought about a great victory.

2 Samuel 23:13 Towards the beginning of harvest three of the thirty chiefs went down to join David at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 23:14 David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem.

2 Samuel 23:15 David said longingly, “O that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem that is by the gate!”

2 Samuel 23:16 Then the three warriors broke through the camp of the Philistines, drew water from the well of Bethlehem that was by the gate, and brought it to David. But he would not drink of it; he poured it out to the LORD,

2 Samuel 23:17 for he said, “The LORD forbid that I should do this. Can I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?” Therefore he would not drink it. The three warriors did these things.

2 Samuel 23:18 Now Abishai son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab, was chief of the Thirty. With his spear he fought against three hundred men and killed them, and won a name beside the Three.

2 Samuel 23:19 He was the most renowned of the Thirty, and became their commander; but he did not attain to the Three.

2 Samuel 23:20 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant warrior from Kabzeel, a doer of great deeds; he struck down two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in a pit on a day when snow had fallen.

2 Samuel 23:21 And he killed an Egyptian, a handsome man. The Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but Benaiah went against him with a staff, snatched the spear out of the Egyptian’s hand, and killed him with his own spear.

2 Samuel 23:22 Such were the things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did, and won a name beside the three warriors.

2 Samuel 23:23 He was renowned among the Thirty, but he did not attain to the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

2 Samuel 23:24 Among the Thirty were Asahel brother of Joab; Elhanan son of Dodo of Bethlehem;

2 Samuel 23:25 Shammah of Harod; Elika of Harod;

2 Samuel 23:26 Helez the Paltite; Ira son of Ikkesh of Tekoa;

2 Samuel 23:27 Abiezer of Anathoth; Mebunnai the Hushathite;

2 Samuel 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite; Maharai of Netophah;

2 Samuel 23:29 Heleb son of Baanah of Netophah; Ittai son of Ribai of Gibeah of the Benjaminites;

2 Samuel 23:30 Benaiah of Pirathon; Hiddai of the torrents of Gaash;

2 Samuel 23:31 Abi-albon the Arbathite; Azmaveth of Bahurim;

2 Samuel 23:32 Eliahba of Shaalbon; the sons of Jashen: Jonathan

2 Samuel 23:33 son of Shammah the Hararite; Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite;

2 Samuel 23:34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai of Maacah; Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite;

2 Samuel 23:35 Hezro of Carmel; Paarai the Arbite;

2 Samuel 23:36 Igal son of Nathan of Zobah; Bani the Gadite;

2 Samuel 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite; Naharai of Beeroth, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah;

2 Samuel 23:38 Ira the Ithrite; Gareb the Ithrite;

2 Samuel 23:39 Uriah the Hittite— thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24:1 Again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, “Go, count the people of Israel and Judah.”

2 Samuel 24:2 So the king said to Joab and the commanders of the army, who were with him, “Go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and take a census of the people, so that I may know how many there are.”

2 Samuel 24:3 But Joab said to the king, “May the LORD your God increase the number of the people a hundredfold, while the eyes of my lord the king can still see it! But why does my lord the king want to do this?”

2 Samuel 24:4 But the king’s word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the king to take a census of the people of Israel.

2 Samuel 24:5 They crossed the Jordan, and began from Aroer and from the city that is in the middle of the valley, toward Gad and on to Jazer.

2 Samuel 24:6 Then they came to Gilead, and to Kadesh in the land of the Hittites; and they came to Dan, and from Dan they went around to Sidon,

2 Samuel 24:7 and came to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites; and they went out to the Negeb of Judah at Beer-sheba.

2 Samuel 24:8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

2 Samuel 24:9 Joab reported to the king the number of those who had been recorded: in Israel there were eight hundred thousand soldiers able to draw the sword, and those of Judah were five hundred thousand.

2 Samuel 24:10 But afterward, David was stricken to the heart because he had numbered the people. David said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, O LORD, I pray you, take away the guilt of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.”

2 Samuel 24:11 When David rose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David’s seer, saying,

2 Samuel 24:12 “Go and say to David: Thus says the LORD: Three things I offer you; choose one of them, and I will do it to you.”

2 Samuel 24:13 So Gad came to David and told him; he asked him, “Shall three years of famine come to you on your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days’ pestilence in your land? Now consider, and decide what answer I shall return to the one who sent me.”

2 Samuel 24:14 Then David said to Gad, “I am in great distress; let us fall into the hand of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but let me not fall into human hands.”

2 Samuel 24:15 So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel from that morning until the appointed time; and seventy thousand of the people died, from Dan to Beer-sheba.

2 Samuel 24:16 But when the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented concerning the evil, and said to the angel who was bringing destruction among the people, “It is enough; now stay your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2 Samuel 24:17 When David saw the angel who was destroying the people, he said to the LORD, “I alone have sinned, and I alone have done wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Let your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father’s house.”

2 Samuel 24:18 That day Gad came to David and said to him, “Go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

2 Samuel 24:19 Following Gad's instructions, David went up, as the LORD had commanded.

2 Samuel 24:20 When Araunah looked down, he saw the king and his servants coming toward him; and Araunah went out and prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground.

2 Samuel 24:21 Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you in order to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be averted from the people."

2 Samuel 24:22 Then Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him; here are the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood.

2 Samuel 24:23 All this, O king, Araunah gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God respond favorably to you."

2 Samuel 24:24 But the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will buy them from you for a price; I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.

2 Samuel 24:25 David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and offerings of well-being. So the LORD answered his supplication for the land, and the plague was averted from Israel.

1 Kings

1:1 King David was old and advanced in years; and although they covered him with clothes, he could not get warm.

1 Kings 1:2 So his servants said to him, "Let a young virgin be sought for my lord the king, and let her wait on the king, and be his attendant; let her lie in your bosom, so that my lord the king may be warm."

1 Kings 1:3 So they searched for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

1 Kings 1:4 The girl was very beautiful. She became the king's attendant and served him, but the king did not know her sexually.

1 Kings 1:5 Now Adonijah son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king"; he prepared for himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

1 Kings 1:6 His father had never at any time displeased him by asking, "Why have you done thus and so?" He was also a very handsome man, and he was born next after Absalom.

1 Kings 1:7 He conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with the priest Abiathar, and they supported Adonijah.

1 Kings 1:8 But the priest Zadok, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the prophet Nathan, and Shimei, and Rei, and David’s own warriors did not side with Adonijah.

1 Kings 1:9 Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fatted cattle by the stone Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel, and he invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the royal officials of Judah,

1 Kings 1:10 but he did not invite the prophet Nathan or Benaiah or the warriors or his brother Solomon.

1 Kings 1:11 Then Nathan said to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother, “Have you not heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has become king and our lord David does not know it?

1 Kings 1:12 Now therefore come, let me give you advice, so that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

1 Kings 1:13 Go in at once to King David, and say to him, ‘Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your servant, saying: Your son Solomon shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne? Why then is Adonijah king?’

1 Kings 1:14 Then while you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words.”

1 Kings 1:15 So Bathsheba went to the king in his room. The king was very old; Abishag the Shunammite was attending the king.

1 Kings 1:16 Bathsheba bowed and did obeisance to the king, and the king said, “What do you wish?”

1 Kings 1:17 She said to him, “My lord, you swore to your servant by the LORD your God, saying: Your son Solomon shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne.

1 Kings 1:18 But now suddenly Adonijah has become king, though you, my lord the king, do not know it.

1 Kings 1:19 He has sacrificed oxen, fatted cattle, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the children of the king, the priest Abiathar, and Joab the commander of the army; but your servant Solomon he has not invited.

1 Kings 1:20 But you, my lord the king— the eyes of all Israel are on you to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

1 Kings 1:21 Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his ancestors, that my son Solomon and I will be counted offenders.”

1 Kings 1:22 While she was still speaking with the king, the prophet Nathan came in.

1 Kings 1:23 The king was told, “Here is the prophet Nathan.” When he came in before the king, he did obeisance to the king, with his face to the ground.

1 Kings 1:24 Nathan said, “My lord the king, have you said, ‘Adonijah shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne’?

1 Kings 1:25 For today he has gone down and has sacrificed oxen, fatted cattle, and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king’s children, Joab the commander of the army, and the priest Abiathar, who are now eating and drinking before him, and saying, ‘Long live King Adonijah!’

1 Kings 1:26 But he did not invite me, your servant, and the priest Zadok, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon.

1 Kings 1:27 Has this thing been brought about by my lord the king and you have not let your servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

1 Kings 1:28 King David answered, “Summon Bathsheba to me.” So she came into the king’s presence, and stood before the king.

1 Kings 1:29 The king swore, saying, “As the LORD lives, who has saved my life from every adversity,

1 Kings 1:30 as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Your son Solomon shall succeed me as king, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,’ so will I do this day.”

1 Kings 1:31 Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground, and did obeisance to the king, and said, “May my lord King David live forever!”

1 Kings 1:32 King David said, “Summon to me the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada.” When they came before the king,

1 Kings 1:33 the king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.

1 Kings 1:34 There let the priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan anoint him king over Israel; then blow the trumpet, and say, ‘Long live King Solomon!’

1 Kings 1:35 You shall go up following him. Let him enter and sit on my throne; he shall be king in my place; for I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah.”

1 Kings 1:36 Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so ordain.

1 Kings 1:37 As the LORD has been with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David.”

1 Kings 1:38 So the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and led him to Gihon.

1 Kings 1:39 There the priest Zadok took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, "Long live King Solomon!"

1 Kings 1:40 And all the people went up following him, playing on pipes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the earth quaked at their noise.

1 Kings 1:41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they finished feasting. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why is the city in an uproar?"

1 Kings 1:42 While he was still speaking, Jonathan son of the priest Abiathar arrived. Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a worthy man and surely you bring good news."

1 Kings 1:43 Jonathan answered Adonijah, "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king;

1 Kings 1:44 the king has sent with him the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they had him ride on the king's mule;

1 Kings 1:45 the priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan have anointed him king at Gihon; and they have gone up from there rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you heard.

1 Kings 1:46 Solomon now sits on the royal throne.

1 Kings 1:47 Moreover the king's servants came to congratulate our lord King David, saying, 'May God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours, and make his throne greater than your throne.' The king bowed in worship on the bed

1 Kings 1:48 and went on to pray thus, 'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who today has granted one of my offspring to sit on my throne and permitted me to witness it.'"

1 Kings 1:49 Then all the guests of Adonijah got up trembling and went their own ways.

1 Kings 1:50 Adonijah, fearing Solomon, got up and went to grasp the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 1:51 Solomon was informed, "Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon; see, he has laid hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me first that he will not kill his servant with the sword.'"

1 Kings 1:52 So Solomon responded, "If he proves to be a worthy man, not one of his hairs shall fall to the ground; but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."

1 Kings 1:53 Then King Solomon sent to have him brought down from the altar. He came to do obeisance to King Solomon; and Solomon said to him, “Go home.”

1 Kings 2:1 When David’s time to die drew near, he charged his son Solomon, saying:

1 Kings 2:2 “I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, be courageous,

1 Kings 2:3 and keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn.

1 Kings 2:4 Then the LORD will establish his word that he spoke concerning me: ‘If your heirs take heed to their way, to walk before me in faithfulness with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you a successor on the throne of Israel.’

1 Kings 2:5 “Moreover you know also what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me, how he dealt with the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner son of Ner, and Amasa son of Jether, whom he murdered, retaliating in time of peace for blood that had been shed in war, and putting the blood of war on the belt around his waist, and on the sandals on his feet.

1 Kings 2:6 Act therefore according to your wisdom, but do not let his gray head go down to Sheol in peace.

1 Kings 2:7 Deal loyally, however, with the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table; for with such loyalty they met me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

1 Kings 2:8 There is also with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a terrible curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim; but when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, ‘I will not put you to death with the sword.’

1 Kings 2:9 Therefore do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man; you will know what you ought to do to him, and you must bring his gray head down with blood to Sheol.”

1 Kings 2:10 Then David slept with his ancestors, and was buried in the city of David.

1 Kings 2:11 The time that David reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

1 Kings 2:12 So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David; and his kingdom was firmly established.

1 Kings 2:13 Then Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother. She asked, “Do you come peaceably?” He said, “Peaceably.”

1 Kings 2:14 Then he said, “May I have a word with you?” She said, “Go on.”

1 Kings 2:15 He said, “You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel expected me to reign; however, the kingdom has turned about and become my brother’s, for it was his from the LORD.

1 Kings 2:16 And now I have one request to make of you; do not refuse me.” She said to him, “Go on.”

1 Kings 2:17 He said, “Please ask King Solomon— he will not refuse you— to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.”

1 Kings 2:18 Bathsheba said, “Very well; I will speak to the king on your behalf.”

1 Kings 2:19 So Bathsheba went to King Solomon, to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. The king rose to meet her, and bowed down to her; then he sat on his throne, and had a throne brought for the king’s mother, and she sat on his right.

1 Kings 2:20 Then she said, “I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me.” And the king said to her, “Make your request, my mother; for I will not refuse you.”

1 Kings 2:21 She said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to your brother Adonijah as his wife.”

1 Kings 2:22 King Solomon answered his mother, “And why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom as well! For he is my elder brother; ask not only for him but also for the priest Abiathar and for Joab son of Zeruiah!”

1 Kings 2:23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, “So may God do to me, and more also, for Adonijah has devised this scheme at the risk of his life!

1 Kings 2:24 Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me and placed me on the throne of my father David, and who has made me a house as he promised, today Adonijah shall be put to death.”

1 Kings 2:25 So King Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he struck him down, and he died.

1 Kings 2:26 The king said to the priest Abiathar, “Go to Anathoth, to your estate; for you deserve death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before my father David, and because you shared in all the hardships my father endured.”

1 Kings 2:27 So Solomon banished Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD that he had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

1 Kings 2:28 When the news came to Joab— for Joab had supported Adonijah though he had not supported Absalom— Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and grasped the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 2:29 When it was told King Solomon, “Joab has fled to the tent of the LORD and now is beside the altar,” Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada, saying, “Go, strike him down.”

1 Kings 2:30 So Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, “The king commands, ‘Come out.’“ But he said, “No, I will die here.” Then Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, “Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.”

1 Kings 2:31 The king replied to him, “Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him; and thus take away from me and from my father’s house the guilt for the blood that Joab shed without cause.

1 Kings 2:32 The LORD will bring back his bloody deeds on his own head, because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and killed with the sword two men more righteous and better than himself, Abner son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah.

1 Kings 2:33 So shall their blood come back on the head of Joab and on the head of his descendants forever; but to David, and to his descendants, and to his house, and to his throne, there shall be peace from the LORD forevermore.”

1 Kings 2:34 Then Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and killed him; and he was buried at his own house near the wilderness.

1 Kings 2:35 The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in his place, and the king put the priest Zadok in the place of Abiathar.

1 Kings 2:36 Then the king sent and summoned Shimei, and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and live there, and do not go out from there to any place whatever.

1 Kings 2:37 For on the day you go out, and cross the Wadi Kidron, know for certain that you shall die; your blood shall be on your own head.”

1 Kings 2:38 And Shimei said to the king, “The sentence is fair; as my lord the king has said, so will your servant do.” So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

1 Kings 2:39 But it happened at the end of three years that two of Shimei’s slaves ran away to King Achish son of Maacah of Gath. When it was told Shimei, “Your slaves are in Gath,”

1 Kings 2:40 Shimei arose and saddled a donkey, and went to Achish in Gath, to search for his slaves; Shimei went and brought his slaves from Gath.

1 Kings 2:41 When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned,

1 Kings 2:42 the king sent and summoned Shimei, and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and solemnly adjure you, saying, ‘Know for certain that on the day you go out and go to any place whatever, you shall die’? And you said to me, ‘The sentence is fair; I accept.’

1 Kings 2:43 Why then have you not kept your oath to the LORD and the commandment with which I charged you?”

1 Kings 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, “You know in your own heart all the evil that you did to my father David; so the LORD will bring back your evil on your own head.

1 Kings 2:45 But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever.”

1 Kings 2:46 Then the king commanded Benaiah son of Jehoiada; and he went out and struck him down, and he died. So the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

1 Kings 3:1 Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt; he took Pharaoh’s daughter and brought her into the city of David, until he had finished building his own house and the house of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem.

1 Kings 3:2 The people were sacrificing at the high places, however, because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD.

1 Kings 3:3 Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David; only, he sacrificed and offered incense at the high places.

1 Kings 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the principal high place; Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

1 Kings 3:5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, “Ask what I should give you.”

1 Kings 3:6 And Solomon said, “You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart toward you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today.

1 Kings 3:7 And now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in.

1 Kings 3:8 And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted.

1 Kings 3:9 Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?”

1 Kings 3:10 It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this.

1 Kings 3:11 God said to him, “Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right,

1 Kings 3:12 I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you.

1 Kings 3:13 I give you also what you have not asked, both riches and honor all your life; no other king shall compare with you.

1 Kings 3:14 If you will walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your life.”

1 Kings 3:15 Then Solomon awoke; it had been a dream. He came to Jerusalem where he stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. He offered up burnt offerings and offerings of well-being, and provided a feast for all his servants.

1 Kings 3:16 Later, two women who were prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

1 Kings 3:17 The one woman said, “Please, my lord, this woman and I live in the same house; and I gave birth while she was in the house.

1 Kings 3:18 Then on the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. We were together; there was no one else with us in the house, only the two of us were in the house.

1 Kings 3:19 Then this woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on him.

1 Kings 3:20 She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me while your servant slept. She laid him at her breast, and laid her dead son at my breast.

1 Kings 3:21 When I rose in the morning to nurse my son, I saw that he was dead; but when I looked at him closely in the morning, clearly it was not the son I had borne.”

1 Kings 3:22 But the other woman said, “No, the living son is mine, and the dead son is yours.” The first said, “No, the dead son is yours, and the living son is mine.” So they argued before the king.

1 Kings 3:23 Then the king said, “The one says, ‘This is my son that is alive, and your son is dead’; while the other says, ‘Not so! Your son is dead, and my son is the living one.’“

1 Kings 3:24 So the king said, “Bring me a sword,” and they brought a sword before the king.

1 Kings 3:25 The king said, “Divide the living boy in two; then give half to the one, and half to the other.”

1 Kings 3:26 But the woman whose son was alive said to the king—because compassion for her son burned within her— “Please, my lord, give her the living boy; certainly do not kill him!” The other said, “It shall be neither mine nor yours; divide it.”

1 Kings 3:27 Then the king responded: “Give the first woman the living boy; do not kill him. She is his mother.”

1 Kings 3:28 All Israel heard of the judgment that the king had rendered; and they stood in awe of the king, because they perceived that the wisdom of God was in him, to execute justice.

1 Kings 4:1 King Solomon was king over all Israel,

1 Kings 4:2 and these were his high officials: Azariah son of Zadok was the priest;

1 Kings 4:3 Elihoreph and Ahijah sons of Shisha were secretaries; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

1 Kings 4:4 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was in command of the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

1 Kings 4:5 Azariah son of Nathan was over the officials; Zabud son of Nathan was priest and king’s friend;

1 Kings 4:6 Ahishar was in charge of the palace; and Adoniram son of Abda was in charge of the forced labor.

1 Kings 4:7 Solomon had twelve officials over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household; each one had to make provision for one month in the year.

1 Kings 4:8 These were their names: Ben-hur, in the hill country of Ephraim;

1 Kings 4:9 Ben-deker, in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan;

1 Kings 4:10 Ben-hesed, in Arubboth (to him belonged Socoh and all the land of Hepher);

1 Kings 4:11 Ben-abinadab, in all Naphath-dor (he had Taphath, Solomon’s daughter, as his wife);

1 Kings 4:12 Baana son of Ahilud, in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, and from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

1 Kings 4:13 Ben-geber, in Ramoth-gilead (he had the villages of Jair son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead, and he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars);

1 Kings 4:14 Ahinadab son of Iddo, in Mahanaim;

1 Kings 4:15 Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he had taken Basemath, Solomon’s daughter, as his wife);

1 Kings 4:16 Baana son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth;

1 Kings 4:17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah, in Issachar;

1 Kings 4:18 Shimei son of Ela, in Benjamin;

1 Kings 4:19 Geber son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of King Sihon of the Amorites and of King Og of Bashan. And there was one official in the land of Judah.

1 Kings 4:20 Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea; they ate and drank and were happy.

1 Kings 4:21 Solomon was sovereign over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines, even to the border of Egypt; they brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life.

1 Kings 4:22 Solomon's provision for one day was thirty cors of choice flour, and sixty cors of meal,

1 Kings 4:23 ten fat oxen, and twenty pasture-fed cattle, one hundred sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted fowl.

1 Kings 4:24 For he had dominion over all the region west of the Euphrates from Tiphsah to Gaza, over all the kings west of the Euphrates; and he had peace on all sides.

1 Kings 4:25 During Solomon's lifetime Judah and Israel lived in safety, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all of them under their vines and fig trees.

1 Kings 4:26 Solomon also had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

1 Kings 4:27 Those officials supplied provisions for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table, each one in his month; they let nothing be lacking.

1 Kings 4:28 They also brought to the required place barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds, each according to his charge.

1 Kings 4:29 God gave Solomon very great wisdom, discernment, and breadth of understanding as vast as the sand on the seashore,

1 Kings 4:30 so that Solomon's wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the people of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt.

1 Kings 4:31 He was wiser than anyone else, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, Calcol, and Darda, children of Mahol; his fame spread throughout all the surrounding nations.

1 Kings 4:32 He composed three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five.

1 Kings 4:33 He would speak of trees, from the cedar that is in the Lebanon to the hyssop that grows in the wall; he would speak of animals, and birds, and reptiles, and fish.

1 Kings 4:34 People came from all the nations to hear the wisdom of Solomon; they came from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings 5:1 Now King Hiram of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram had always been a friend to David.

1 Kings 5:2 Solomon sent word to Hiram, saying,

1 Kings 5:3 “You know that my father David could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the warfare with which his enemies surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

1 Kings 5:4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor misfortune.

1 Kings 5:5 So I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD said to my father David, ‘Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, shall build the house for my name.’

1 Kings 5:6 Therefore command that cedars from the Lebanon be cut for me. My servants will join your servants, and I will give you whatever wages you set for your servants; for you know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.”

1 Kings 5:7 When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly, and said, “Blessed be the LORD today, who has given to David a wise son to be over this great people.”

1 Kings 5:8 Hiram sent word to Solomon, “I have heard the message that you have sent to me; I will fulfill all your needs in the matter of cedar and cypress timber.

1 Kings 5:9 My servants shall bring it down to the sea from the Lebanon; I will make it into rafts to go by sea to the place you indicate. I will have them broken up there for you to take away. And you shall meet my needs by providing food for my household.”

1 Kings 5:10 So Hiram supplied Solomon’s every need for timber of cedar and cypress.

1 Kings 5:11 Solomon in turn gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty cors of fine oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year.

1 Kings 5:12 So the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and the two of them made a treaty.

1 Kings 5:13 King Solomon conscripted forced labor out of all Israel; the levy numbered thirty thousand men.

1 Kings 5:14 He sent them to the Lebanon, ten thousand a month in shifts; they would be a month in the Lebanon and two months at home; Adoniram was in charge of the forced labor.

1 Kings 5:15 Solomon also had seventy thousand laborers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hill country,

1 Kings 5:16 besides Solomon’s three thousand three hundred supervisors who were over the work, having charge of the people who did the work.

1 Kings 5:17 At the king’s command, they quarried out great, costly stones in order to lay the foundation of the house with dressed stones.

1 Kings 5:18 So Solomon’s builders and Hiram’s builders and the Gebalites did the stonecutting and prepared the timber and the stone to build the house.

1 Kings 6:1 In the four hundred eightieth year after the Israelites came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon’s reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build the house of the LORD.

1 Kings 6:2 The house that King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and thirty cubits high.

1 Kings 6:3 The vestibule in front of the nave of the house was twenty cubits wide, across the width of the house. Its depth was ten cubits in front of the house.

1 Kings 6:4 For the house he made windows with recessed frames.

1 Kings 6:5 He also built a structure against the wall of the house, running around the walls of the house, both the nave and the inner sanctuary; and he made side chambers all around.

1 Kings 6:6 The lowest story was five cubits wide, the middle one was six cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide; for around the outside of the house he made offsets on the wall in order that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house.

1 Kings 6:7 The house was built with stone finished at the quarry, so that neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron was heard in the temple while it was being built.

1 Kings 6:8 The entrance for the middle story was on the south side of the house: one went up by winding stairs to the middle story, and from the middle story to the third.

1 Kings 6:9 So he built the house, and finished it; he roofed the house with beams and planks of cedar.

1 Kings 6:10 He built the structure against the whole house, each story five cubits high, and it was joined to the house with timbers of cedar.

1 Kings 6:11 Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon,
